WEST LEXHAM.

THE towns of East and West Lexham had the additional names of East and West, since the Conquest: being then called Leccesham and Lechesham, from its site on a bog, or lake by the water.

At the survey it was the lordship of Ralph de Beaufoe, and Ricard held it of him, but Fader was lord in the reign of the Confessor, when it consisted of 3 carucates and a half of land, 9 villains, 7 borderers, 3 servi, 6 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, &c. a carucate and a half amongst the tenants, pannage for 30 swine, a mill, a fishery, and the fourth part of a salt-pit; one horse, 7 cows, &c. 80 sheep, and 4 bee skeps, and 6 socmen had half a carucate of land and 2 acres of meadow, &c. valued then at 40s. after at 3*l.* per ann. and a freeman had 60 acres of land under Herold, with 2 borderers and an acre and half of meadow, &c. valued then at 5s. the soc belonged to the King's manor of Mileham. Here was a church endowed with 30 acres, valued at 16*d.* the whole was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 7½*d.* gelt.<sup>1</sup>

Of this Ralph de Beaufoe, see in Swanton-Morley lordship, and of his descendants.

Ralph de Caineto, or Cheyney, was lord, as was John his son, whose sister and coheir, Sibil, was married to William Fitz Robert, brother of John Fitz-Robert, to whom Bishop Eborard, in the reign of Henry I. granted the lordship of Blickling in Norfolk; which William left 3 daughters and coheirs; Margaret, the wife first of Hugh de Cressi, after of Robert Fitz-Roger; Clementia, of Jordan de Sackvile; and Sarah, of Richard Engaine, who in 1191 gave the King 200 marks to have possession of his wife's inheritance; but in 1217 Jordan de Sackvile and Vitalis Engaine, son of Richard, released their rights herein to Margaret de Cressi, and so it came entirely into that family.

But it is more probable that this manor was not in the Cressies<sup>2</sup> till Roger de Cressi, son of Hugh, obtained it on his marriage with Isabel, daughter and coheir of Hubert de Ric in the 9th of King John, and died possessed of it in the 30th of Henry III. in right of his wife;<sup>3</sup> Ralph de Beaufoe's daughter and heir being married to Hubert de Ric, castellan of Norwich.

About the end of Henry III. A. 52, that King is said to have granted to William de Valentia and Joan his wife, and their heirs, the manor of West Lexham, Filby, Posswyk, &c. in Norfolk, which came to him as an eschaet; and in the 3d of Edward I. the said William de Valentia Earl of Pembroke claimed the assise, free warren, &c. in this lordship: he was son of Hugh de Bruu Earl of March in France, by Isabel his wife, widow of John King of England, sole daughter to the Earl of Angouleme, and took his name from the place of his nativity, and being brother by his mother to King Henry III. was sent for into England, together with Guy de Lezinian, his elder brother, and had a grant of many lordships, and through the influence of King Henry married Joan, daughter of William, and sister and heir to her brother William de Monchensi, great barons of this realm, by whom he had 3 sons, but was succeeded in his honour and inheritance by the youngest, Aymer, or Adomare de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, who held this town in capite by the service of 3 carrats of gold (unam obolum aurj) per ann<sup>4</sup> He attended Queen Isabel of England into France, and was on June 23, 1323, murdered there, as appears by the eschaet rolls, and dying without issue, this lordship was delivered, in the 19th of Edward III. to David de Strabolgi Earl of Athol, son of John de Strabolgi Earl of Athol in Scotland; (executed as a traitor in the 34th of Edward I.) David the son being restored in blood, and a great favourite in the reign Edward II. and having married Joan, daughter of John Comyn, (by Joan, his wife, one of the sisters and coheirs of Adomare, aforesaid, Earl of Pembroke.) and sister and coheir of John Comyn, Lord of Badenagh in Tindale.

In this family it continued till the death of David de Strabolgi Earl of Athol, on October 10, in the 49th of Edward III. who had been summoned to parliament as a baron in the 39th, 42d, &c. of that King, and served in the wars of France, leaving by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Henry Lord Ferrers of Groby, two daughters and coheirs, Elizabeth and Philippa.

Elizabeth, the eldest daughter, married Sir Thomas Percy: the said Sir Thomas had livery in the 1st of Richard II. of that purparty of inheritance which came to her from the Earl of Pembroke. This Elizabeth in an old writing is called widow of Sir Thomas Percy, junior, in the 12th of Rich. II. and then granted to Sir John de Halsham and Philippa his wife, (her sister and coheir,) her right herein: it is said that she proved her age in the 5th of Edward III. and in the next year married Sir Thomas Percie, and remarried John Le Scroop, and was his wife in the 15th of Richard II.

Philippa, the youngest sister and coheir, is said by Dugdale to marry Sir Ralph Percy, brother to Sir Thomas, younger sons of the Earl of Northumberland, and after Sir John Halsham, by whom she had John Halsham, who was found to be their heir to this lordship in the 19th of Richard II. and appears to be lord in the 3d of Henry V.

Sir Hugh de Halsham died seized of it in the 20th of Henry VI. Petronilla, his 2d wife, surviving, leaving Joan, (daughter and heir of Rich. Halsham, his brother, and wife of John Lewkenore, Esq.) his heir; and it was settled by John Lewkenore of Sussex, by fine, on Thomas Randolph, with the manors of Filby, Posswick, and Stizeky.

Soon after this it came to the Boleyns of Blicking, and Sir William Boleyn died possessed of it in 1505.

King Edward VI. in his 2d year granted license to Sir James Boleyn, to alien it to John Calybut, Esq. and his heirs, with a fold course in this town, East Lexham, Dunham Magna, Newton, and Castleacre; and by an inquisition taken at Castleacre, April 17, in the 7th of Elizabeth, Bridget Calybut, widow of John Calybut, Esq. was found to die seized of it February 20, last, and John was her son and heir, aged 30; and by another inquisition taken at Swaffham, June 16, in the 12th of Elizabeth, John Calybut, Esq. was found to die at Upton in Northamptonshire, October 23, past, lord of this manor,<sup>5</sup> and left four daughters and coheirs, Margaret, Anne, Susan, and Elizabeth, which Elizabeth, with her husband Bernard Witfeld, had license to alien her part in the 15th of the said Queen, to Robert Cuddon, and in the 18th of the said reign, Philip Audley and Margaret his wife, another of the daughters, had license to alien it to Arthur Downing and Susan his wife, another of the coheirs.

In the 2d of James I. Sir Edward Coke was lord of the whole.

John Coke, Esq. possessed it in 1659, and his descendant, the Right Honourable the Earl of Leicester, died lord in 1759.

The tenths were 1l. 14s.—Deduct 8s. 8d.

The Earl Warren's manor of East Lexham extended into this town, of which see there.

Roger, who was dapifer to the Earl Warren, and lord, gave to the monks of Castleacre, for the health of Odo his brother, and William his father, one mark per ann. rent out of his mill at Lexham, situate on the west side of the town, witnesses, Henry de Rye, Ralph and Baldwin de Frevill.<sup>6</sup>

Richard de Sancto Claro, or St. Cleer, gave the said monks his right in the church in free alms for ever, for the health of his own and wife's soul, his heirs and ancestors, with all the liberties thereto belonging; witnesses, Ketcl the dean, Aturic the priest, Umfrey de Dunham, Robert Tusard, &c.

The church is dedicated to St. Nicholas, and was given to the priory of Petreston.

Simon Bishop of Norwich granted (or appropriated) to the said priory (to relieve their poor estate) the church of West Lexham of their patronage, after the death of Benedict (Anglici) English, to be possessed to their own use, except the vicarage; the prior to have all the tithe of garbs, with a moiety of the land and messuage belonging to the church, dated at Cree (Creek by Burnham) 4 of the ides of

August in the 2d year of his pontificate, 1259;<sup>7</sup> and in 1265, the said Bishop confirmed to the priory of Castleacre the tithes of the land called Kalveswide of the demean of William, son of Richard de Lechesham; also two parts of the tithe of the demean, formerly Roger de Cressi's, in this town.

And an agreement was made between John, the prior of Castleacre, and his convent, and Roger, the prior, and convent of Petreston; that whereas the monks of Castleacre had let to farm to the monks of Petreston, and their successours, two parts of all the tithes of the demean formerly Roger de Cressi's and William de Lexham's and all the land called Rahnelwood, belonging to the monastery of Castleacre, lying in West Lexham, for 40s. per ann. to be paid to the monks of Castleacre for the use of the sacrist, at two terms; and on default of payment, the monks of Petreston were liable to be excommunicated by the Bishop of Norwich; for the payment of the said 40s. they tied all their lands and tenements in Rucham, to be seized, and their goods distrained by the Earl Warren's bailiffs, or the bailiff of the sheriff of Norfolk for the time being; in witness whereof two instruments were made, one to be kept by the monks of Castleacre, sealed with the seal of the priory of Petreston, and another by the monks of Petreston, sealed with the seal of the monks of Castleacre; dated at Castleacre on Saturday the feast of the assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, 1299.

The priory of Petreston had the patronage of the church in 1229.

The rectory anciently was valued at 5 marks, paid Peter-pence 6*d.*

EAST LEXHAM.

EAST LEXHAM MANOR.

THE principal lordship of this village was in King Edward's reign possessed by Oschetel, and after by Federic, but at the survey William Earl Warren held it in capite for a manor, having two carucates of land, and 8 borderers, at the survey 12, and 4 servi, with 2 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 amongst the men, pannaage for 30 swine, a mill, and 12 soemen had a carucate of land, formerly 3, now 2 in demean, 4 runci, now 3, 8 cows, now 9, &c. and there were 200 sheep, valued always at 40s. per ann.<sup>8</sup>

This William, the first Earl Warren, granted this lordship and many others to Wimerus his dapifer, whose posterity enjoyed it, and from them it came to the Stutviles, Foliots, Hastings, and to the L'Estranges, as may be seen at large in Cressenhale. Hamou Le Strange, Esq. died possessed of it in the 22d of Elizabeth, and Thomas was found his son and heir.

Sir Philip Wodehouse of Kimberley, and Grisel his wife, daughter of William Yelverton, Esq. of Rougham, and late widow of Thomas L'Estrange, Esq. of Hunstanton, held it in the 31st of Elizabeth, and Edmund Wodehouse, Esq. second son of Sir Philip Wodehouse, dying lord sans issue in 1727, it came to his nephew, Sir John Wodehouse, Bart. in which family it continues.

ROUSE'S MANOR.

The manor also of Hermerus de Ferrarjis,<sup>9</sup> ancestor of the Lords Bardolf in Litcham, extended into this town: and this part was held by Sir Richard le Rus in the reign of Henry III. who dying in the 6th year of Edward I. Alan was found to be his son and heir, and a minor, who is said to have been born and baptized in this town, and in the 15th of that King, Alan, son of Sir Richard le Rouse was found to have view of frank pledge, assise of bread and beer of his tenants here, and by the eschaet rolls in the 3d of Edward III. Alan le Rous was found to have held here, in Dunham, &c. one fee of the Lord Bardolf.

After the Rouses it came to the Lexhams, a family that took their name from this village. Richard de Lechesham lived in the 8th of Richard I. when William de Huntingfield and Isabel his wife conveyed 60 acres of land to him in this town, by fine, and William, son of Richard de Lechesham, gave the monks of Castleacre all the tithes of his land called Rateswode.

Edmund de Lexham son of John was living in the 6th of Edward I. and lord of Norton: John de Lechesham was living in the 26th of Edward I. and Edmund de Lechesham, son of John, in the 15th of Edward II.; to this Edmund, Edmund de Leche of Beeston, and Margaret his wife, passed lands in East and West Lexham, Newton, and Dunham Magna, in the 14th of that King, by fine.

This Edmund and John his father were lords also of Pudding-Norton by Fakenham, and in the 17th of the aforesaid King, Edmund de Lexham settled 6 messuages, with lands in the Lexhams, Newton, &c. on himself for life, remainder to John, son of Catherine de Gourney and Joan his wife, in tail, Edmund de Lexham and Maud his wife were living in the 20th of Edward III.

Soon after this it came, probably by marriage, or heirship, to the Mundfords. John de Mumford was lord of Pudding-Norton (and I presume of this) in the 21st of Edward III. as was Osbert Mundeford in the 46th of Edward III. and Osbert his son, who died about the year 1400, was found to hold in this town, and in Dunham Magna, half a fee of the Lord Bardolf. Osbert was his son and heir, whose will is dated in 1456; and was found to die seized of the manor of Rouse's in this town, &c.

By Mary, sole daughter and heir of Osbert Mundeford, Esq. it came by marriage to William Tindale, with the manors of Hockwold and Pudding-Norton, who was created knight at the creation of Arthur Prince of Wales, and in the 26th of Henry VIII. Sir Thomas Tindall of Hockwold, Knt. settled it on dame Winefred his wife, daughter of Thomas Carose, alderman of Norwich, widow, first of Henry Dymne of Heydon in Norfolk, Esq. and secondly of Sir Henry Fermour of East Barsham.

In the 32d of Henry VIII. John Wright of Kilverstone died seized of the manor of Tindal's and Rouse's in East Lexham, parcel of the possessions of Sir Thomas Tindale, and it was in the Wrights till John Wright of East Lexham sold it, about 1656, to Sir Philip Woodhouse, in which family it remains, Sir Armine Woodhouse, Bart. being lord of the whole town.

The tenths were 42s.—Deduct 6s.

The temporalities of Castleacre priory in 1428, were 3s. per ann.; of the monks of Thetford 5s.; Langley abbey 8d.; St. Faith's priory 15d.; and of Westacre priory 5s.

Roger, dapifer to the Earl Warren, son of William, lord of the honour of Grissenhale, gave to the monks of Acre, for the soul of Oddo his brother, and William his father, one mark of silver out of his mill of Lechesam, and also the said mill, except 11s. which Baldwin de Frevill had in the said mill: <sup>1</sup> Basilia, wife of Baldwin, gave them 2s. in pure alms, for the soul of her husband, out of the 11s. rent paid by them for the aforesaid mill, which grant she laid upon the altar before Walter de Winebotsham, William de Walton, John Capelane de Newton, Ralph de Neketou, sans date.

Sir Richard le Rus of East Lexham, Knt. gave them 5 acres in Lechesham at Markegate; also 12s. per ann. to be paid by his son Ralph of lands called Cranweswong, with his body to be buried in their church of Castleacre priory.

Wimer, dapifer to the first Earl Warren, gave the church of Lexham East, to the priory of Castleacre, with all the land belonging to the church, the tithe of his manor, and the advowson, before the death of Hubert Bishop of Norwich, in the reign of Henry I. Drogo, son of William Dapifer, his descendant, confirmed of it; and William de Stutevile acknowledged, by a fine levied in the 40th of Henry III. before Henry de Bath, Mr. Symon de Wanton, Robert de Shotingdon, and John de Cokefield, the king's justices, the right of patronage to be in John, prior, and the convent of that house, and the said William granted to the prior a mark rent out of Tudenham, &c.

The ancient valor of this church, which is a rectory, is dedicated to St. Andrew, was 10 marks, Peter-pence 6d.; the present valor is 8l. 5s. 11d. ob. and is discharged of tenths, &c.

L I T C H A M.

NETHERHALL MANOR.

PART of this town was a beruite, or manor depending on the capital manor or honour of Mileham, held by Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, a lay fee in his own right, and was deprived of it by the Conqueror, and farmed of him by William de Noiers; 4 carucates of land belonged to it, 9 villains and 11 borderers, and 5 servi, with 4 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, and 9 amongst the tenants, only 5 at the survey, but the rest might be recovered, also 2 soemen with 4 acres and a half of land, one runcus, one cow, and 16 swine, 104 sheep, and 20 goats, and was valued in Mileham.<sup>2</sup>

Soon after this, Alan, son of Flaald, to whom the Conqueror granted the manor of Mileham, had also this with it as an appendix to, or part of, the said manor. This Alan was ancestor of the noble family of the Fitz Alans Earls of Arundel, and lords this manor and of Mileham, to which town, for an account of them, I refer the reader.

Alan granted it to Sewald, with the hundred of South-Greenhow, and Launditch, to hold of him and his heirs; of this Sewald was John Le Strange, descended, (as may be seen in the hundred of Launditch,) who in the 52d of Henry III. held here one fee, was of age, and not a knight; and in the 55th of Henry III. having impleaded the rector of Litcham for keeping the evidences of his lordship from him, released the action by deed dated at Knokyn, which shows that this family was related to that of Knokyn, in Shropshire; by Isabella his wife he had two sons, John and Ralph; John, the eldest, married Clementia, relict (as it is said) of Jordan de Sackvile, and daughter of Sir William de Burgh.

In the 14th of Edward I. Baldwin de Frevyle, appears to have some interest herein, and sued his bailiff, Richard de Clerk, to give him an account of what he had received here, in Wellingham, and Wesenham; and in the same year he impleaded John le Strange de la Marche, to acquit him of the service and payment of 15s. scutage, which Robert Burnel Bishop of Bath and Wells demanded of him for the manor which he held for the life of the said John, belonging to Richard Fitz Alan Earl of Arundel, then in the custody of that Bishop, his guardian.

The jury, in the 15th of that King, find that the said Baldwin de Frevyle claimed frank pledge by the view of the King's bailiff, assise, weyf and stray in this manor; and in the 20th year of the said King a fine was levied between John son of Ralph L'Strange of Lutcham and Isabell his wife, querents, and John de Waltham, parson of Snoring Parva, and Richard de Sutton, their trustees, deforciant of several messuages, 140 acres of land, a mill, 15 acres of meadow, 15 of marsh, 15 of beath, 29s. 8d. rent in Lucham, Mileham, Titeshale, Stanford and Bittering Parva, settled on John Waltham, who reconveyed them to John, son of Ralph and Isabel, for their lives, remainder to John (son of the aforesaid John) and Clementia his wife.

This John, son of John, on whom the remainder abovementioned was settled, died, as appears from the eschaet rolls, in the 33d of Edward I. and Ralph was then found to be his brother and heir; but by a fine levied in the 2d of Edward II. John, brother of Ralph, left a son of his own name, as may be seen in Wellingham, and it seems to be entailed on Ralph.

Of this family was Alice, daughter of Sir John L'Strange, to whom Sir John Gedding sold, for 63 marks, all the messuages, lands, homages, rents, &c. in this town, by deed sans date.

After this I find it in the family of De Felton, who had an interest here in the reign of Henry III. when Robert de Felton held half a fee of John le Strange de la Marche, that is, of the marshes in Wales, &c. and John, of the Fitz Alans, lords of Mileham; and in the 25th year of Edward I. Robert de Felton had the grant of a mercate every week at his manor of Lucham, and a fair yearly on the day and morrow of the feast of All-Saints, with free-warren: this seems to be that Robert who was knighted at Westminster about this time, with 300 young gentlemen, sons of noblemen and knights, at the feast of Pentecost, with great solemnity, at the high altar in the abbey church, on the creation of the King's son, Prince of Wales, who was knighted also with them; in the roll he is styled Robert, son of Robert, son of Pagan; and John de Felton was lord in the 9th of Edward II.

Sir Thomas Felton, sen. granted in the 5th of Edward III. to Richard de Lambeth, citizen of London, 40l. per ann. out of his manor of Lutcham, and in the 20th of that King, Sibill de Felton was found to hold half a fee of the Earl of Arundel; and Sir Thomas de Felton, Knt. of the Garter, died seized of it in or about the 4th of Richard II. with the advowson of the church, and Mary, his eldest daughter, by Joan his wife, was found to be married to Sir Edmund Hengrave, and Sibilla to Sir Thomas de Morley: Sir Thomas Felton was governour of Aquitain in France, and taken prisoner in 1377.

It does not appear that either Hengrave or Morley had any interest in this lordship.

Joan de Felton,<sup>3</sup> widow of Sir Thomas, held it in the 4th of Henry IV. by half a fee, of the Earl of Arundel, and on her death (as I take it) it came to Cecilia, daughter of John Breton, Esq. of Wychingham Magna, by Mary his wife, daughter of Sir Hamon de Felton; who released to Sir Thomas Erpingham and his heirs, all her right in the manor of Felton's called Netherhall, in Litcham, and in the advowson of the church, in the 10th of the aforesaid King.

“Wodehouse, who lived in the reign of Richard II. A°. 1378, is said “to have married a daughter and coheir of - - - Erpingham,” and that one of the family married Joan, a daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas Erpingham, who brought the manor of Netherhall in this town into the family; is certain; but as Sir Thomas Erpingham was living in the reigns of Henry V. and VI. and died in 1426, it could not be his daughter and coheir Joan, who married the aforesaid Sir Edward Wodehouse.

John Wodehouse, Esq. famous in the wars of France, at Agincourt, &c. was an intimate friend and fellow soldier with Erpingham, being grandson of Sir Edward Wodehouse aforesaid, and died 1439.

This lordship was given by Sir Edward Wodehouse, Bart. in the reign of Charles the 2d. to Edmund his second son, on whose death, in 1727, it came to Sir John Wodehouse, and his son Sir Armtue Wodehouse is lord.

EAST HALL

Was in the days of King Edward, the lordship of Turchetel, but on the Conquest was granted to Hermerus de Ferrarijs, ancestor of the Lords Bardolf, barons of Wirmegay in Norfolk, when it contained 3 carucates of land, 3 villains, 3 borderers, 4 servi, 8 acres of meadow 2 carucates in demean, one amongst the tenants, &c. a mill, and 3 socmen held 4 acres and one virgate of land, &c. the moiety of the church, with 4 acres, and there belonged to the lord half a carucate of land, 2 borderers, the 4th part of a mereate, and William held it under Hermerus, and half a carucate, with 2 acres of meadow, &c. in Thorp, (Weseham,) valued at 50s. and 10s. over: the whole was 8 furlongs long, 6 broad, including a manor in Roughum, and paid 7d. gelt.<sup>5</sup>

This lordship of the Lord Bardolf extended also into Dunham Magna, and East Lexham: that part of it which was in this town seems to be held by Sir John Gedding, and conveyed by him to Alice, daughter of Sir John Strange, for 63 marks, by deed sans date, as I have above mentioned.

In the 8th of Richard II. Thomas Gardiner, Esq. lord of Gissing, held in right of his wife Cecilia, daughter of John Breton, Esq. and Mary his wife above mentioned a fourth part of this lordship, and in the 9th of the said King, a fine was levied, wherein John Petere of Long-Stratton, and Claricia, his wife, convey to Joan, widow of Sir Thomas de Felton, John de Waltham, and John Churchman, her trustees the manor of East Hall in Lutcham, and lands in Tittleshale, from the heirs of Claricia, and in 13th of the said reign, the Lord Bardolf was found to hold in this town, East Lexham, Dunham Magna, Elingham Magna, and Kempston 5 fees.

Sir John Tiptoft had in right of his wife Jocosa, the third part of this manor 180, acres of land, 4 of pasture, the third part of a water-mill, with rents of assise, and perquisites of court, by the 40th part of a fee: the lady Jocosa was a daughter and coheir of Edward Cherlton Lord Powys, by Alianore his wife, daughter of Thomas, and sister, and coheir to Edmund Holland Earl of Kent, widow of Roger Mortimer Earl of March, Joan, the other daughter and coheir of Edward Lord Powys, being married to Sir John Grey.

After this it came to Sir Thomas Erpingham, who was lord of the whole, and by his daughter and coheir Joan, to ----- Wodehouse, and Sir Edward Wodehouse, by a fine levied in the 18th of Edward IV. was lord of East Hall and Nether Hall.

L O N G H A M

Is not mentioned in Domesday Book, being part of the great manor of Mileham, and there accounted for.

About the end of Henry the Third's reign, Isabel L'Estrange, Richard le Denys, and Nicholas de Skerning, held lands here of the fee of the lord of Mileham.

In the 15th of Edward I. John L'Estrange had the assise, weyf, &c. of his tenants, and Isabel L'Estrange, widow, in the 34th of that King, conveyed it to Ralph de Bagthorp, and Isabel his wife. Ralph was lord in the 9th of Edward II.

Thomas Gunton, who gave name to this lordship, was found to possess it in the 20th of Edward III. and in the 17th of Edward IV. John de Bokking, who married Cecilia, daughter and heir of William de Narburgh, died seized of it in her right, Richard Bokking, Esq. his son, held it of the honour of Mileham: his will is dated May 24, 1505, and proved November 17, following, appoints Margaret his wife, executrix.<sup>7</sup>

Catherine, a daughter and heir of Richard, was the wife of John Heydon in the 35th of Henry VIII.

In the 25th of Elizabeth, Edward Leverok, Gent. and Oliver Buckenham, had a præcipe to deliver to Thomas Overend, and Richard Atkins, Langham Hall, Gunton's, and Newhall, in Longham.

Soon after this it came to Sir Edward Coke, lord chief justice, and the Right Honourable the late Earl of Leicester, his descendant, died lord in 1759.

Richard le Denys (and Sibilla his wife) had an interest in this village in Henry the Third's reign.

Thomas Pottere granted by fine to Robert Pottere, and Claricia his wife, in the 29th of Edward III. the fourth part of a fee, late Denys, and soon after the said Robert, it was held by James Brice of Thrandeston and Isabel his wife, and of Edward le Blound and Elizabeth his wife, who were coheirs.

Hermerus de Ferrarijs had seized on the lands of a freeman, consisting of half a carucate of land, with one villain and a borderer, half a carucate, and 2 acres of meadow, &c. valued at 5*s.* per ann. but the soc was in the lord of Mileham, in the King.<sup>8</sup>

Hermerus was ancestor of the Lords Bardolf.

Robert de Watlington, who gave name to this, was found to hold it in the reign of Henry III. by the 4th part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf.

Jeffrey Brussyard died possessed of it about the 3d of Edward III. and one of the same name was lord in the 3d of Henry IV.

John Fuller had a præcipe to render it to Arthur Scarlet, with a sheep-fold called Prior's in this town.

Soon after this the whole interest came to Sir Edward Coke, and the Earl of Leicester died lord of the whole town in 1759.

The tenths were 2*l.* 15*s.*;—Deducted 7*s.*; Wendling abbey temporalities 9*s.* 6*d.*; Walsingham's 1*l.* 10*s.*

The church was a rectory valued at 13 marks,

Robert de Kaam, and Joan his wife, John de Florence and Sibilla his wife, coheirs, released by fine to William de Wendling one acre of land, with the advowson; the said William gave it to Wendling abbey, to which it was appropriated, the church being dedicated to St. Peter.

In the 4th of Elizabeth, Arthur Futter had a grant of the appropriated rectory, possessed by William Futter in the 35th of Elizabeth, and came soon after to Sir Edward Coke, and the Earl of Leicester lately died seized of it, and named the curate.

M I L E H A M.

THE capital manor of this town belonged to Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury, in his own right, in the reign of Edward the Confessor, but on his being deposed, by William the Conqueror, it came into his hands, and William de Noiers held it, or farmed it of that King at the survey.

It was a very considerable lordship, and esteemed as an honour, containing in Stigand's time, 10 carucates of land, 20 villains, and 44 borderers, 6 scrvi, and 10 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, <sup>8</sup> Invasio Hermeri de Ferrarijs — p'ti. silva x por. val. v sol. et in hoc. In Lawingham i lib. ho. dim. car. tre. n' com'd. soca in Muleham Regis. sep. i vill. et i bor. ct dim. car. ii ac.

and another might be recovered, 24 carucates amongst the tenants, pannage for 1000 swine, one mill, and a salt work; and 3 socmen held a carucate, &c. with 12 villains, 10 borderers, and 4 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, and 4 amongst the tenants, &c. and 4 socmen held 50 acres with one borderer; a carucate and 4 acres of meadow, a socman, and 1 carucate of land, and one socman, 8 acres, in the whole, and 10 borderers and 5 acres of pasture. Also 2 carucates in demean, 2 amongst the tenants, &c. 7 socmen with 40 acres of land, one borderer, and 4 acres of meadow; 2 carucates in demean, one runcus, or beast of burden, 13 cows, &c. 30 sheep, and 50 goats, &c. valued in the whole with its beruite, &c. at 50*l.* in King Edward's time, and at 60*l.* quitrent at the survey; it was 3 leucas long, and one broad, whoever holds it to farm.<sup>9</sup>

Mel or Mill gives name to many towns; Melbourn in Cambridgeshire; Melford in Suffolk; Milford in Hertfordshire, and Milbroke in Bedfordshire.

This William de Noiers was a great favourite of the Conqueror's: he took care of or farmed under him also the following lordships in this county, Hunston in Smethden hundred;—Methwold in Grimshoe hundred; with Croxton, Feltwell, Weting; Licham, Dunham, Bitte- ring, and Kerthing in Launditch hundred; Windham in Fourhow hundred; Thorp in Blofeld hundred; Somerton in West Flegg; Anering- hale in Heinsted hundred; Ersham, Denton, Aldby, Redenhale, Sterston, Rushale, Broadish, in Earsham hundred; Ditchingham, Mundham, Siling, in Lothing hundred; Horsted, Staninghale, Sproust- ton, Catton, in Taverham hundred; Lakenham in Humbleyard hun- dred; Colneston in Deepwade hundred; Toft, Hadescro, Stouton, and Ravingham in Clavering hundred.

At the survey we see that King William was lord of this manor, but soon after Alan, son of Flaald, obtained it by the gift of William the Conqueror, also the castle of Oswaldstrey in Shropshire, with the ter- ritory adjoining, which belonged to Meredith ap Blethyn, a Welshman or Briton, and marrying the daughter and heir of Warine, sheriff of that county, had, in her right, the barony of the said Warine.*

Alan and his father attended the Conqueror into England.

This Alan gave to the monks of Castleacre lands, and the orchard,

It is not to be thought that all this was in Mileham, but is an account of lands lying in other townships, also depending on this capital manor or honour, as beruities belonging to it, viz. Litcham, Dunham, &c. are valued with this lordship at 30*l.* in King Edward's time, and 60*l.* at the survey, and measured with it, in the whole, 3 leucas long, and one broad, and paid 27*d.* to a 30*s.* gelt.

(frutestam) which they enclosed at Kempston, and 20 acres at Sporle in Norfolk, which Turchillus Rufus held, and 3s. rent out of his mill at Newton.

Simon de Norfolk confirmed this gift of Alan, son of Flaald, and Avelina his mother, which Wymark held, and all the rest of his ancestors, of which they were seized the day that Alan purchased the honour of Mileham, also the mill at Newton, out of which the monks received 10s.

William Fitz-Alan was his son and heir, and married Isabel, daughter and heir of Helias de Say, niece to Robert Earl of Gloucester, lady of Clun in Shropshire, in whose right he became Baron of Clun, by whom he had William his son and successour, who, in the 12th of Henry II. certified his Knights fees to be in number 35 and an half, 19 de veteri feoffamento, and 16 and an half de novo, and died about the 19th of that King, leaving William Fitz-Alan his son and heir, who died about the 16th of King John.

In this year Thomas de Erdington gave 5000 marks for the wardship and marriage of his son and heir, William Fitz-Alan, to his daughter, but dying soon after, John his brother succeeded.

In the clause rolls of the 2d of Henry III. William, lately deceased was said to be lord of Mileham, that he married Mary, daughter of Thomas de Erdington, and Roesia his wife, then his widow.

This John Fitz Alan, lord of Clun, married to his first wife, Isabel, sister and coheir to Hugh, and second daughter and coheir of William de Aibing, Earls of Arundel, by whom he had John, his son and heir, and died in the 24th of Henry III. 1240.

On a partition of the lands of Hugh Earl of Arundel, in the 28th of Henry III. this John Fitz-Alan had the castle of Arundel in Sussex assigned unto him, and it appears that he had, in the 34th of that King, a park in his manor of Mileham. In the 49th of the said King he had an order from the King, then in custody of Simon de Montfort, to send to him his son and heir, to deliver up his castle of Arundel into Simon's custody, to secure the peace of the Kingdom, and died in the 52d of that King, leaving issue by Maud his wife, daughter of R. de I erann, John his son and heir, according to Dugdale.

It appears that in the 51st of the said King, the sheriff accounted for 101s. and 6d. rent of assise, of this manor, &c. late John Fitz-Alan's, from Saturday, the feast of All-Saints, in the 51st of Henry III. to the 6th of December, when he delivered it to Maud his widow.

This John left Richard Fitz-Alan his son and heir, by his wife Isabel de Mortimer; and this manor was found to be ancient demean, held by one knight's fee, the custody of it being granted to John L'Estrange, by the King, during the nonage of Richard the heir.

About this time 70 fees are accounted to belong to the honour of Arundel, in this county.<sup>1</sup>

This Richard appears to be the first of the Fitz-Alans who bore the title of Earl of Arundel, as lord of that castle, without any formal creation or other investiture, and as lord of this town, had, in the 3d of Edward I. assise of bread and beer, a gallows, and other royal privileges; being a minor, the King, in his 5th year, (as his guardian,) recovered the presentation of the church of Wrothale against Richard

In the 15th of this King, it was found that the lord of the manor had view of frank pledge, the assise, a tumbrel, gallows, pillory, toll and them; and in the said year had orders to provide 600 able footmen, well armed, for the Welsh expedition, against Rice ap Meredith, then in rebellion;<sup>2</sup> and that he should, with the other baron-marchers, be resident on their lands, with men ready armed; and in the 23d of this King, to be at Plymouth on the feast of All-Saints, to attend Edmund the King's brother into Gascoign, the King sending there Walter de Bellocampo, steward of his house, and his beloved clerk, Philip de Everdon, to appraise their horses, to pay them their wages, and to perform other things, in order to their passage.<sup>3</sup>

This Richard was the seventh Earl who signed the letter to the Pope, in the 29th of this King, denying that the Kingdom of Scotland was his fee, or that he had any thing to do in temporal matters; dated February 12, 1201, and died seized of this manor and that of Beeston, in the 20th of Edward I. held in capite by one knight's fee, valued at 57*l.* 5*s.* 9*d.* per ann. and Edmund was his son and heir, by Alizon, daughter of the Marquis of Saluce in Italy.

His son, Edmund Earl of Arundel, was a great favourite of King Edward II, and being taken at Bristol, on Queen Isabel's arrival into England, with an armed power, was there beheaded before the gates of the castle, in sight of the King, in October, on St. Denys's day, 1326, leaving by Alice his wife, sister and heir of John Earl Warren and Surry, Richard, his son and heir.

On his attainder and death, this manor of Mileham, with the castle of Arundel, was granted, August 8, in the first year of Edw. III. to John de Eltham, the King's brother.

It is said in the grant to be in the occupation of Gilbert de Glencarn for life, but Richard, son of Edmund, being restored in Parliament in the 4th of Edward III. had livery of this manor, &c. and in the 19th of that King, married Eliaore, daughter of Henry Plantaginet Earl of Lancaster, widow of John Lord Beaumont. The will of this Earl is dated at Arundel castle, December 5, 1375, and died January 24 following.

By an original inventory of his goods, still remaining amongst the evidences of the Duke of Norfolk, it appears that he had in money, in gold, and silver, 44981 marks, and with that and what he had in other places, the whole sum amounted to 108367 marks, 13*s.* 3*d.* ob. a most surprising sum in that age, and the more so if we consider that a mark then was of the intrinsick triple value of the money now current; a pound weight of silver then was but of the value of 20*s.* whereas now a pound weight makes 3*l.* of our money, and if we consider also how much provision, &c. a mark would then buy, beyond what it does at present.

By his will he devised three of his coronets, his best to the Lord Richard, his son and heir.

It appears that he had a daughter, Aliaore, (not mentioned by Dugdale,) married to John de Bereford, son of Edmund de Bereford. Richard, his son and heir, Earl of Arundel and Surry, in the 6th of Richard II. reciting in a deed that the priory of Arundel formerly belonged to the abbey of L'Essay, or Lees, in Normandy, and that the King had 20 marks per ann. payable out of it, which, by the King's license, was converted into a college with chaplains, &c. he grants to the King the manor of Sevenhampton in Somersetshire, in exchange for the advowson of this college.

To this deed is a curious seal, with the arms of Arundel and Earl Warren, quarterly, with 2 griffins supporters.

Arundel bore gules, a lion rampant, or; and Warren cheeque or, and azure; and in the 13th of that King he subscribed the letter to Pope Boniface, complaining of the great mischiefs to the kingdom by papal provisions to benefices, and other papal grievances; * but this Earl, by the iniquity of those times, was beheaded in Cheapside, London, 1393, the King himself being a spectator, and Thomas Morebray, Earl-Marshal, and Earl of Nottingham, (who married his daughter,) being his executioner, and binding up his eyes, leaving Thomas his son and heir by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of William de Bohun Earl of Northampton.

On his attainder, this manor seems to have been granted to Thomas of Woodstock, Duke of Gloucester, the King's uncle, and after to Edm. de Langley Duke of York, (the King's uncle,) with the hundreds of Launditch and South Greenhoe, and the manor of Beeston.

These were part of the possessions of Thomas Duke of Gloucester, attainted, as appears by the grant dated August 8, in the 22d of the said King; but in the following year, on the accession of King Henry IV. to the Crown, Thomas, son and heir of Richard Fitz-Alan, the late Earl, was restored in blood, and to all his lauds and honours by parliament.

In the 3d of that King, Sir John Harsick was found to hold in Mileham and Dunham, half a fee of this Earl, who bore quarterly, Fitz-Alan or Arundel, and the Earl Warren; crest an eagle's head couped, issuing out of a ducal coronet, between two wings erect, and married Beatrice, a natural daughter of the king of Portugal, but died without issue, October 13, 1415.

On the death of this Earl, his honour and inheritance, by virtue of an entail, came to Sir John Fitz-Alan, alias Arundel, (cousin and next heir male to the aforesaid Thomas) Lord Matravers.

This John Earl of Arundel, married Alianore, daughter of Sir John Berkeley, of Beverston in Gloucestershire, and dying April 29, in the 9th year of Henry V. left 2 sons, John and William.

John his son and heir was Earl of Arundel, and died in France on the 12th of May, in the 13th of Henry VI. being wounded by a culverine shot, and had by Maud his wife, daughter of Robert Lovell, a son of Liamphrey, who dying in his minority, William Fitz-Alan, his uncle, succeeded him, inherited the earldom and estate of the family: he died in the 3d year of Henry VII. and Thomas was his son and heir, by Jean his wife, daughter of Richard Nevill Earl of Salisbury.

This Thomas Earl of Arundel, by his deed, dated February 13, in the 19th of Henry VII. constituted Henry Fermor of Barsham, in Norfolk, his feodary, in the said county, dated at Southwark.

The seal is of red wax, with the arms of Fitz-Alan as before, and * Rymer's Fœd. vol. vii, 672.

Matravers, (sable, fretty, or,) quarterly; the dexter supporter is an horse, the sinister a lion, gorged with a ducal coronet; the counter seal is small, a lion holding a great branch.

On his death, October 25, 1524, William was found his son and heir by Margaret, daughter of Richard Woodzile Earl Rivers.

This William Earl of Arundel, lord of this town and Beeston, married Anne, daughter of Henry, Earl of Northumberland; he died January 23d, in the 35th of Henry VIII. and was succeeded by his son and heir, Henry, constable of England, at the coronation of Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth.

By Catharine, daughter of Thomas Grey Marquis of Dorset, his first wife, he had Henry his son, who married Anne, daughter and heir of Sir John Wentworth of Gosfield in Essex, and dying at Brussels without issue, 1556, in his father's lifetime, (who died February 25, in the 22d of Elizabeth,) but many years before his death this Henry the father, Earl of Arundel, conveyed this lordship with that of Beeston, to Thomas Gresham of London, and had license for so doing in the first year of Queen Elizabeth.

Sir Thomas was lord in the 12th of Elizabeth, and after the death of Sir Thomas Gresham it was sold by his executors to Stephen Barnwell, Gent. or rather to Henry Bastard, Gent. who sold it to the said Stephen.

The Lady Gresham offered this and Beeston manor to be sold for 3300*l.* in 1580.

This Stephen descended from Thomas Barnwell of Offaly, in Ireland, and by Blauch his wife daughter of Novegent of Dublin, Morry, Gerrard and Thomas, who was of Lincoln's-Inn, Baron of the Exchequer, and married Alice, daughter of Dyvelin, master of the rolls, and father of Thomas, Richard, and Robert, who lived in Northamptonshire at Lenton, and had a son and heir, Simon Barnwell, of Cransley, in the said county.

His son and heir, Thomas Barnwell of Cransley, married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Cradocke of Dyngley, in the said county, by whom he had Edward, who by Anne his wife daughter of John Spencer of Bedfordshire, Gent. had Stephen Barnwell.

This Stephen purchased this lordship, and settled here, and by Mary his wife, daughter of Nicholas Cotton of Catworth Parva in Huntingdonshire, or rather daughter of Nicholas Calton of Dulwich in Surry.

He left Edward Barnwell, Esq. of Mileham, who married May 6, 1618, at Elsing church in Norfolk, Anne, daughter of Sir Thomas Playters of Soterly in Suffolk, Bart. and was father of Charles Barnwell, who, by ——— his wife, daughter and heir of ——— Sydner, had his son and heir, Charles, who married Mary, daughter of ——— Higham, of Barrow in Suffolk, whose son Edward was lord in 1660.

He left Charles Barnwell, Esq. who by his first wife, Elizabeth, daughter of John Neal, rector of Mileham, had the Reverend Mr. Charles Barnwell, rector of Beeston, the present lord.

The arms of this family are gules, a saltire ragule, or, counter-embattled, between four crescents, argent, crest, a wolf's head erased, collared ragule, charged with bezants.

Here was also a little lordship in this town and Bittering, belonging to Alwin, a freeman, in King Edward's time, and after by a certain widow under Godric, who farmed it of the King: Alwin had a carucate of land and 12 acres of meadow; formerly two carucates belonged to it, but now none; one soeman held 24 acres of land; in King Edward's time there was half a carucate, and 3 soemen held then 15 acres with half a carucate, in the whole valued at 20s. at the survey of no value, and Godric then accounted for it.

This was also granted by the Conqueror, after the survey, to Alan, son of Huuld, and so became united to the aforesaid manor.

Also here was another little lordship held by Alan Earl of Richmond, at the survey, and in Stanfield, which the son of Almar held of Alan, and which two soemen under Stigand possessed in King Edward's reign, consisting of half a carucate of land and 6 acres: three borderers had two acres of meadow, and two carucates, paunage for 20 swine, valued at 10s. per ann.

BURGHWOOD MANOR.

This lordship belonged to the Earls of Richmond. Robert de Hulmo was lord in the reign of Henry III. and had free warren in his lands at Wythersthorp in Mileham.

Giles de Hulmo, son of Robert, claimed the assise and other liberties in Wyresthorp, in the parish of Mileham, in the 15th of Edward I.

In the 20th of Edward III. Richard de Burwood, who gave name to it, held half a fee, late Giles de Hulmo's, and paying 10s. rent to the honour of Richmond.<sup>5</sup>

It was in the hands of Sir Roger Beauchamp in the 3d of Henry IV.

In the 14th of Hen. VI. John Duke of Bedford died seized of one fee in this town and Swaffham, held by Sir Roger Shotesbrook, as parcel of the aforesaid honour; and John St. John and Joun his wife granted by fine the manor of Burghwood, with 3 messuages, 840 acres of land, and 40s. rent in this town, Beeston and Titeshale, to Sir William Capel, Knt. in the 4th of Henry VIII.

In the first of Edward VI. it was conveyed by fine, from Sir Henry Capel and Anne his wife, to Roger Townsend,

George Townsend and Alice his wife conveyed it, in the first of Philip and Mary, to Robert Coke; and his son, Sir Edward Coke, was lord, in which family it continued: Thomas Earl of Leicester dying possessed of in 1759.

The prior of Hempton, by Fakenham, had lands here.

King Henry VIII. in his 35th year, granted to Richard Andrews 39 acres of land, called the prior's lands, lying in the fields of Mileham, to be held in capite. In the 2d of Elizabeth, Thomas Crow held it, and Richard his son had license in the 4th of that Queen, to alienate it to Christopher Crow, and the said Christopher held it 22d James I.

Ralph Crow died possessed of it in the 10th of Charles I. and left by Phillis his wife, John, his son, a minor.

There was anciently a family who took their name from this town. George de Mileham had lands here about the 50th of Edward III.

The ten-hs were 3*l.* 16*s.* Deducted 16*s.*

This town is famous for the birth of Sir Edward Coke, lord chief justice of England, the most learned and greatest lawyer of England, whose birth prognosticated something wonderful: his mother, sitting by the fireside, was so suddenly and quickly delivered of him, that she had not time to be removed to a bed that was near, as Sir Edward informed Sir Henry Spelman.

Robert his father was lord of the manor of Burghwood, and had a grant of arms by Thomas Hawley, Clarendieux, dated June 9, in the 2*d* and 3*d* of Philip and Mary.

Argent, on a chevron ingrailed, gules, between three tigers heads erased, sable, dented argent, and langued of the second, collared or; crest, on a wreath, argent and sable, a turkey-cock, proper, mantled gules, buttoned and tasseled, or.

But it appears that Sir Ed. Coke bore very different arms, as may be seen over the gate of the old house, viz. per pale, azure and gules, three eagles displayed, argent; impaling quarterly, in the first and fourth ermine, in the 2*d* and 3*d* paly of six, or and gules, in a bordure, azure, knightly.

About the year 1600 here was a park, in which there was a great deal of timber sold (as said) by the acre, at 40*s.* or thereabouts per acre, and on every acre 40 or 60 good timber trees.

This park seems to have been on the left side of the road leading from Norwich to Lynn.

And in the said town was formerly a strong castle, the site of which is now part of the demesns of the manor of Milham; it stood by the road side (on the left hand beyond the church) as above; being of an oval form, containing about 12 or 13 acres, surrounded by 2 deep ditches, or trenches; in that part to the south was the keep with another ditch, where are ruins of walls that crossed the ditch, and the north part was the barbican; the outward ditch and inclosure seems to have gone cross the high road, and to have enclosed the house and ground wherein Sir Edward Coke was born, as on each side of it, and behind it, may be observed; the entrance into it seems to have been on the west side.

The temporalities of Fakenham-dam priory, valued here in 1428, at 17*s.* 9*d.* per ann.

The CHURCH of Milham is dedicated to St. John the Baptist, and consists of a nave, a north and south isle, with a chancel, all covered with lead.

On the west end of the north isle stands a four-square tower, with 4 bells, and serves for a porch to the church.

In the chancel lie several gravestones, one

In the churchyard is raised on stone, a curious lofty pillar, for a cross, very antique, but the upper part of it is now broken off; and by it, on the north side, a freestone altar tomb, with a cross carved thereon, finely flowered and ornamented, probably in memory of some priest.

Mr. Glover founded a school here depositing, money in the hands of Sir Edward Coke, for the same, who bought a piece of copyhold land, and a house which had but one single room, valued at 5s. per ann. and Mr. Ward, the late rector, has built another room to it, for the master to dwell in.

In this church were the guilds of St. John Baptist, St. Thomas, and Corpus Christi, the lights of St. Mary, with the chapel lights, St. Nicholas and Corpus Christi.

There was in the possession of Mr. Forbie, formerly rector of Beeston, an ancient book or roll, of all the good benefactors to the first building of the church of Mileham, and therein,

“Ye shall also pray and beseech for the soul of Sir Walter Barnard, priest, the which purchased the freedom and customs of the town, gave and get much good to the town, wherefore God yeild it to him at his most need, and send him part of all his good prayers.”

I take the tomb in the churchyard to be in memory of this Walter, and that he also crected this cross.

In this town are great remains (as appears from the ditches, entrenchments, &c.) of a curious and noble castle, built, as I take it, by Alan, son of Fluald, to whom the Conqueror gave this great manor, honour and barony, who was ancestor of the Fitz-Alans Earls of Arundel, &c. and bore barry eight or and gules.

P A T E S L E Y.

KING WILLIAM, on his conquest, granted this town to the Lord Peter de Valoins, and Roger held it under him at the survey. Alestan, a freeman, was owner of it in King Edward's reign, when it was accounted a manor, with two carucates in demean and one amongst the men or tenants, &c. pannage for 10 swine, and the moiety of a fishery, one runcus, 15 cows, &c. and was valued at 20s. per ann. it was four furlongs long and two broad, and paid 3d. gelt. The soc belonged to the King's manor of Mileham.<sup>7</sup>

Of these Lords Valoins see in Appleton and Dersingham, where we have treated at large of that family.

In the reign of Henry I. when the Lord Peter de Valoins founded the priory of Bynham, Roger, a knight of his gave two parts of his tithes in this town to that priory, which were confirmed afterwards by his son, and grandson, and John Bishop of Norwich.

This was likely that Roger, who held it under his Lord Peter at the survey, and was ancestor (as I take it) of the family of De Patesley, lords of the town. Herbert de Patesle was living in the 9th of King John, of whom see in Ingoldesthorp.

About the 3d of Henry III. Hamo de Patesle held it by the fourth part of a fee, and soon after this, John de Patesley; and in the 52d of the said King, Hamon de Patesley, senior, settled it on Hamon his son, by fine with messuages, lands and rents, in Oxewick, Tittle-shale, Caldeweli, Reynham, Wyssingset, and Tofts.

In the 29th of Edward I. William, son of William de Patesle, conveyed by fine, many messuages, lands, &c. in the towns abovementioned, to William, son of Hamon de Patesley, and in the said year John de Patesley granted by fine the manor and advowson to William de Patesley, senior, for life, remainder to John; and John de Patesley was lord in the 9th of Edward II. and presented to the church in 1304; and in 1321, John, son of John de Patesle, presented.

Roger, son of William de Patesley, granted by fine, in the 1st of Edward III. to William, son of William de Patesley, and Nicholau his wife, several messuages and lands here, and in Oxwyk, Godwyk, Wissingsete, &c. for their lives, remainder to Ellen, Enme, Alice, Maud, and Margery, their daughters; and in the 20th of that King, William de Patesley, junior, held the fourth part of a fee, which John de Patesley formerly held; but it appears from the institution books, that John de Patesle, rector of Harpele in Norfolk, presented in the 23d of the said King; and in the 10th of Richard II. Sir Walter Fitz-Walter (whose ancestor married Gumora, daughter and heir of Robert Lord Valoins) was found to be the capital lord of the fee, and to hold in this town, Tyteleshale, Godwicke, Welyngham, Whyssingset, &c. one fee belonging to his manor of Heminghale in Norfolk.

From one of the daughters and coheirs of the Patesleys (as is most likely) it came to William de Breton, who presented in 1351, and was living in 1388, when he also presented to this church, as did Nicholas Briton in 1391, but in the 3d of Henry IV. (1401) Ellen, Joan, and Catherine, daughters and coheirs of William Briton, are found to hold the abovesaid fourth part of a fee, or manor.

After this it seems to be in several hands, John Sutton presenting in 1405, Henry Carmely or Carman in 1408, 1409, and 1431, and John Schaynnes in 1429, who likely married the three daughters and coheirs of Breton, and having each a part, or share in this lordship, are styled in the institution books domicelli.

But it returned to the Patesleys soon after the last presentation of Henry Carman, and Hamo de Patesley died seized of it, and the advowson in 1438, when it is said that he held it in capite by the 20th part of a fee, and John Patesley, citizen and alderman of London, was his cousin and heir; he was sheriff of London in 1432, and lord mayor in 1440, being then a knight, but by Baker and others, falsely called Paddesley, and died lord of this manor in 1449, and bore for his arms argent, three de lis azure, each charged with an annulet, or, his widow survived him, Joan Patesle, widow, citizen of London, lady of Patesle, presented to this church December 26, 1460.

In the 9th of Edward IV. John Seaman and Agnes his wife, William Carman and Catharine his wife, William Bulman and Cecilia his wife, Roger Richers and Margaret his wife, conveyed by fine levied, to John and Henry Heydon, Thomas Boleyn, &c. this manor and advowson, with 60 acres of land, and Henry Heydon, Esq. presented in 1484, and Sir Henry Heydon in 1493, and Sir John in 1521.

Sir Christopher Heydon of Baconsthorpe in Norfolk gave it, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, together with the advowson, to Cijus college in Cambridge, and the said college exchanged the manor with Sir Roger Townsend, Knt. of Rainham, for the manor of D'Engains in Faversham, in Cambridgeshire, and Stow Qui, and kept the patronage which they enjoy at this time, the manor being in the Lord Viscount Townsend. Here is only the manor-house remaining, wherein a farmer lives.

The tenths were 1l. 12s.

The lordship of the Hauvills of Dunton and Rainham extended into this town, and Thomas, son of John de Hauvill, paid a relief for lands here held by castle guard to Norwich castle in the 35th of Edward I.

Pat or Pet is the name of several little rivers; and gives name to this and to many towns, viz. Peteswick in Essex; Patteshall in Northamptonshire; Pat or Petworth in Sussex, &c.

The Church was dedicated to St. John Baptist, and was a rectory valued anciently at 40s. and paid Peter-pence 2d. ob. it is called a sinecure in the year 1521, and no church was standing (as I find) in 1571; the present value is 8l. 18s. 8d.

R O U G H A M.

ROUGHAM MANOR.

WILLIAM Earl Warren held in Ruhham and Fransham Magna a very considerable lordship which Toke, a Saxon thane or freeman, possessed in King Edward's reign, an account of it may be seen, and of its extent, value, &c. at that time, under the history of Fransham Magna.

This was soon after held of the Earl Warrens, by several persons, and divided into small fees or lordships. Hugh de Fochigtune, or Folkinton, gave by deed, sans date, to the monks of Castleacre, two parts of the tithes of his demesne in Rucham in all things, viz. in corn (garbis), lambs, wool, hemp, and in whatsoever tithes is due, for the soul of his brother Robert de Fochigtune, and the souls of his father and mother in pure alms; witnesses, Gilbert de Baillol, Ralph, son of the castellan of Arundel, Geff. Fitz Giles, Alexander de Rucham, &c.<sup>8</sup>

Juliana, daughter of William, son of Richard de Wirmele, patroness of the church of St. Mary de Rucham, with the assent of William, her son and heir, confirmed to the monks a moiety of all the tithes of her demesne lands, as well ploughed as hereafter to be ploughed, and of her small tithes belonging to her patroness in pure alms, sans date.

William, son of Walter Harawein, by his deed sans date, confirmed the ancient church of St. Mary de Rucham, which was built on his fee, with an half acre of land, on the west side of it, for the soul of his lord, William de Warren, and his own soul, to the priory of West-acre; this William is sometimes called William de Rucham.

Sir Richard Butler of Rucham, Knt. as lord, confirmed the grant of Vincent, son of Alfred, of lands to the said monks, by deed sans date; and a descendant of this William le Botiler of Rugham was found in the 52d of Henry II. to hold a knight's fee, to be of age, and not a knight, which proves that all who held a fee, were obliged when of age, to take upon them that degree. Besides these it appears that the family of Rugham was very soon after the conquest enfeoffed in part of this village: Alexander, son of William de Rugham, paid 40s. in the 27th of Henry II. to bring his plea in the King's court, against the Earl of Arundel, and Robert de Mortimer.<sup>9</sup>

Richard, son of Thomas de Rugham, demanded in the 7th of Edward I. of Aungier de Rugham, messuages and lands, with a mill in this town and Wesenham, of which Aungier had unjustly disseized Richard, as heir to his grandfather; the jury on a pleading in the 10th of the said King, find that the lands here were not partable, on an action brought by Giles, son of Beatrix de Rugham, against his sister, Ralph de Dalling, and Isabell his wife, William Burrell and Alice his wife; and in the said year, Isoldu, daughter of Thomas de Rugham had by fine a messuage and lands conveyed to her from William, Burrell.

In the 14th of the said King, Richard, son of Thomas de Rugham, impleaded John, son of William de Rugham, for lands, and the moiety of a messuage; and Richard, son of Thomas de Rugham, settled by fine on Thomas his son, lands in the 19th of the said King; and in the 11th of Edward II. Richard, son of John de Rugham, conveyed by fine lands to Richard Fitz-John of Massingham; and in the 9th of that reign, Alice de Rugham was returned to be lady of a manor, mother, most likely, of Richard aforesaid, who dying without issue male, Alice his daughter or sister was married to John Read.

In the 46th of Edward III. a fine was levied between him and Alice his wife, querents, Henry Grace of Narburgh, and Catherine his wife, deforciant of 6s. 8d. rent, with 18 capons here, conveyed to John and Alice, from Henry and Catherine, and the heirs of Catherine, probably sister of Alice.

Before this the Reads had an interest in this town; in the 1st of Edward II. John Read and Ralph his son held lands here, as appears by a fine then levied.

John Read, by Alice de Rugham, had a son Richard, who married Margaret, sister and heir of Richard Hooker, whose daughter and heir, Elizab. brought this manor of Rougham, to John Yelverton, Esq. a family of great antiquity in the county of Norfolk, taking their name from the town of Yelverton, in the hundred of Henstede, where they had possessions soon after the conquest.

John de Yelverton lived in the 9th of Edward I. 1282:<sup>1</sup> his son and heir, Thomas, and Maud his wife, had lands in Yelverton aforesaid, and Alpington, in 1316, and William de Yelverton and Mabel his wife purchased lands there of Richard de la Rokeley in 1308.

Andrew was son and heir of Thomas aforesaid, Lord of Rackheath in 1315, by Maud his wife, and by ----, daughter of Bozun of Wissenet, had Robert de Yelverton of Rackheith in Norfolk, who lived in the reign of Edward III. and was witness to a deed of lands in Sprouston and Beeston in 1359, by Cecilia his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Bardolf, had John Yelverton, Esq. who with Margaret his wife had lands in Saxthorp, Toft-Hall manor in Shotesham, the manor of Rackey in the 15th of Richard II. and in the reign of Henry IV. by Margaret his first wife, he had Robert Yelverton, Esq. of Rackheythe. Robert, by his will dated August 4, 1420, and proved February 8, following, bequeaths his body to be buried in the cathedral church of Norwich by his father's tomb; to the church of the Holy Trinity of Rackey,<sup>2</sup> and that of All-Saints he gives legacies; to Margery his wife, all his goods, lands, tenements, in Rackey Magna and Parva, Yelverton, and Saxthorp, with the advowson of the church of All-Saints aforesaid, which were his father's, for her life; remainder to Thomas his son, and if he died without issue (as it seems he did) to be sold.

This John Yelverton aforesaid married to his second wife Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Richard, son of Sir John Read of Rougham and

Beccles, who resided here, and had by the said Elizabeth Sir William Yelverton, judge of the King's Bench in 1444. and, before this, under steward of the dutchy of Lancaster in Norfolk, justice of the peace and goal delivery in the Bishop of Ely's liberty of Mitford hundred, and Knight of the Bath in 1460: by Jane his first wife, daughter of Sir Oliver le Grosse, was father of John Yelverton, Esq. of the body to King Edward IV. who married Margery, daughter and heir of William Morley, Esq. who were both living in the 36th year of Henry VI.;<sup>3</sup> he died July 9, 1481, and left William Yelverton their son, married to Anne, daughter of John Paston, Esq. of Paston in Norfolk, by whom he had William Yelverton, who died s. p. and Amy, married to John or James Elmes, Esq.

The eldest branch being thus extinct, we return to his offspring by his second wife Ela or Agnes, daughter of Sir Thomas Brewes of Topcroft in Norfolk, by whom the judge had several sons, 1st William, 2d, John, 3d Thomas, 4th Nicholas, 5th Edward, 6th Adam, and a daughter Anne married to Adam Cam of Wesingham, in Norfolk.

William, the eldest son, married, (as the History of the Peerage relates,) a daughter of Sir James Hewet, lord mayor of London, but it does not appear that there was any one of that name lord mayor of London.

This William Yelverton, Esq. was living, and Catherine his wife, in 1459, and in the 13th of Edward IV. as appears from a fine, and from the writings of this family it seems to me, and from his grave-stone in the church,<sup>4</sup> that he married Catherine, daughter of Henry Spilman, Esq. of Stow Beccles in Norfolk, by whom he had a son William,<sup>5</sup> who by Margaret his wife, daughter of - - - - Germoud or Gomoud of London, had also a nother William Yelverton, Esq.<sup>6</sup> who took to wife, 1st Anne, daughter of Sir Henry Fermour of East Barsham in Norfolk; and secondly, Jane, daughter of Sir Edward Cocket of Ampton in Norfolk; by his first lady he had 3 sons, Henry, the first, William, the second, who was a knight and lived in Ireland; and Christopher, the third son, who was a knight and lord chief justice of the King's Bench in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and from whom descend the Yelvertons, Lord Grey of Ruthyn, and Earl of Susser.

Henry Yelverton, Esq. of Rougham, the eldest son, married Bridget, daughter of Sir William Drury of Hawstead in Suffolk, and was father of William Yelverton, Esq. of Rougham, created baronet May 31, 1620; by Dionysia his wife, daughter and coheir of Richard Stubbs, Esq. of Sedgeford in Norfolk; he had Sir William Yelverton, Bart. his son and heir, and Sir Henry Yelverton, Knt. who married Alice, daughter and heir to Dr. William Barlow Bishop of Lincoln, and died without issue.

Sir William, by Ursula his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Richardson lord chief justice of the King's Bench, left a son and heir, Sir William Yelverton, Bart. and 2 daughters, Elizabeth and Ursula, and died in 1648, July 19: his lady Ursula survived him, dying in 1657, March 20, and also her only son and heir, Sir William Yelverton, Bart. who died without issue November 15, 1649, so that by his death this family and honour was extinct.

Ursula, his youngest sister and coheir, married ----- Shipdam, clerk, and Elizabeth married Thomas Peyton, Esq. 4th son of Sir Edward Peyton of Isleham in Cambridgeshire, and was father of, first, William Peyton, Esq. of Dublin in Ireland, who died about 1686, and left by Frances his wife, daughter of Sir Herbert Lunsford, Knt. a daughter Elizabeth, who died young; 2d, Robert Peyton, living in Virginia in 1692; 3d, Charles Peyton, who married Elizabeth, daughter of William Bladwell, Esq. of Swanington in Norfolk, and there buried; 4th, Yelcerton Peyton of Rougham, Esq. who married Hannah, daughter of Sir John Roberts, also a daughter Anne, married to Thomas Woods of Braconash in Norfolk, Esq.

The Roughams' estate being possessed by Thomas Peyton aforesaid, he mortgaged, and afterwards sold it, to Sir John Bladwell, brother of William Bladwell aforesaid; this Sir John living in one part of the hall and Thomas Peyton in the other, a friendship was contracted between them, and Sir John at his death gave this manor, &c. to Yelcerton Peyton, fourth son of Thomas aforesaid, who sold it to the Honourable Roger North, Esq. (sixth son of Dudley Lord North) in 1690, who made great improvements in the hall, and in the lands, by planting, inclosing, &c. By ----- his wife, daughter of Sir ----- Gayer of *Stoke Pogey*s in Bucks, he had Rog. North, Esq. whose son, Fountaine North, Esq. is the present lord.

GREEN'S HALL, ALIAS FINCHAM'S.

Juliana, daughter of William, son of Richard de Wirmele, (as I have above observed,) held a part of the Earl Warren's fee, and was patroness of the church; this part descended to the Botilers abovementioned of Rugham, and it appears that there had been a controversy between the prior and convent of Castleacre, and that of Westacre, rectors of this parish (as they are styled, by which it seems that there were two moieties in this church) concerning the tithes of all the demesns which formerly belonged to Sir Richard de Boteler, appertaining to Castleacre, which tithes the said prior, &c. agreed and granted in 1301, on the feast of St. Faith, to the prior of Westacre for ever, who covenanted to pay 50s. per ann. for the same to the convent of Castleacre?

In the 3d and 9th of Edward II. this was possessed by Richard Atte Green, who had the assise of bread and beer, and other royalties; and in the 20th of Edward III. John Atte Greene, John le Donne, and their parceners, were found to hold one fee in this town, and Fransham, of the heirs of John de Gatesend, and he of the Earl Warren, which William le Boteler formerly held.

This came afterwards to the Finchams. William Fincham of Rougham, by his will dated August 7, 1461, bequeaths his body to be buried in the church of Rougham, by Margaret his late wife, and gives to Marianne his wife all his utensils;<sup>7</sup> to Edward his son 200 sheep: to his sons, John Fincham, clerk, and Thomas, the residue of all his goods, appoints his wife and son John executors, with his sons Edmund and Thomas.

Edmund Fincham, his son, desires by his will, bearing date August 12, 1471, to be buried in the south porch of this church, that William, and Robert his sons after the death of Margaret his wife, have his messuage, called Barker's, in Wesenham, and died lord of Grenes-Hall, as then called.<sup>9</sup>

The Yelvertons seems to be the next lords of it. William Yelverton, Esq. was possessed of it, and his son Henry, in the 32d of Elizabeth: in this family it remained, and being united to the manor of Roagham abovementioned, passed with that as is there observed.

In the 3d of Edward III. William de Brisingham, and Clement de Cressingham, were found to hold lordships here under the Earl Warren, and to have assise of bread and beer and other royalties of their tenants; and in the 14th of that King, Alice, widow of Clement, son of Laurence de Cressingham Magna, impleaded John de Cressingham, son of Laurence, for her dower, her third part in 7 messuages, 64 acres of land, 9 of heath, 10s. ob. rent, and a windmill in this town.

Fulke de Brisingham, and John de Cressingham, were returned as lords in the 9th of Edward II. and the said John, with Amicia his wife, settled by fine in the 15th of the said reign, on David Donne of Suetesham, John, son of Alice Mecke of Bircham Tofts, this lordship, and on the heirs of John, remainder to Geffrey son of Alice, in tail to Richard, son of Alice, after the heirs of David; and in the first year of Henry IV. Ralph Bedingham, and Edward Hunt, chaplain, were found to hold one Knight's fee with their parceners in this town and Fransham of the heirs of John Cudsden, and he of the Earl of Warren's fee, now of the dutchy of Lancaster.

This also soon after came to the Yelvertons, and was conveyed and passed as above observed.

Godric farmed or kept a lordship in this town belonging to the Conqueror, Alwin, a freeman, had a carucate and an half in King Edward's time, with 7 villains, and after 3, always valued at 3s. then 3 carucates in demean, at the survey none, but four might be restored, then one carucate amongst the men, afterwards none, but it might be restored, &c. 14 socmen belonged to it with a carucate and half of land, and 2 villains, with 4 borderers, then 2 carucates and a half, afterwards 2, and the half might be restored.

The whole was in the soc of Stigand, and belonging to his manors or farms in King Edward's days.

After that, Ralph (viz. Waiher Earl Warren) had it, and on his forfeiture Godric then held it, when it was valued at 60s. per ann. was 7 furlongs long and 6 broad, and paid 20d. gelt.<sup>1</sup>

This lordship which was held by Stigand the Archbishop, with that of Mileham, in the Confessor's time, was granted soon after this account of it in the survey, with that of Mileham, to Alan, son of Flaald, by William the Conqueror,<sup>1</sup> from whom descended the noble family of the Fitz Alans Earls of Arundel, of whom see in Mileham; and in the 3d of Edward I. it was found to be in the said family, lords also of Mileham, who had the assise of bread and beer, and other royalties in this town: in the 14th of Richard II. John de Cressingham was found to hold lands of the Earl of Arundel, and in the 13th of Henry VI. the Earl of Arundel held it of the King in capite: this came into the Yelverton family, and was conveyed with the manor of Rougham.

Hermerus de Ferrarijs had a small lordship, as we find in Domesday Book, possessed by Fulbert, to which there belonged a carucate then, but at the survey only half a carucate, but the other half might be recovered, valued at 10s. per ann. the soc was in Muleham (Mileham), and belonged then to the King;<sup>2</sup> Fulbert was lord in his own right, in King Edward's time,<sup>3</sup> and now held it under Hermerus, who was ancestor of the lords Bardolf of Wirmegay, of whom see there.

Sir Pain de Tiptoft, Knt. was of lord it, and enfeoff John, son of John de Drayton, therein, and one of the same name held it in or about Edward the Third's time, by the tenth part of a fee, of the Lord Bardolf.

By the inquisitions taken at Walsingham before Edmund Oldhall, in the first year of Henry IV. John Yelverton and Ralph Bedingham were found to be seized of the third part of a fee, held then as it is said, of the manor of Horesford; this also was united, and passed as before; and at the said time the heirs of Jeffrey Brusyerd held the 4th part of a fee of the Lord Bardolf.

Alan Earl of Richmond had a manor in Mileham, which extended into this town, and in the 3d of Henry IV. Ralph de Bedingham and John Yelverton held it by the third part of a fee, which was held in the 8th of Edward I.<sup>4</sup> with other lands in Mileham Lyng, &c. by one fee and an half, and by a quarter of a fee, paying 25s. per ann. to the ward of Richmond castle: of this see before in Godric's manor.

The temporalities of the priory of Westacre in 1428, were valued at 4s. per ann.; of Cokesford at 1d.; West Derham 12d.; Petreston priory 4s.; and Castleacre, at 16s.

William, son of Walter de Rucham, granted to Castleacre priory half an acre in Sterille. William, son of Yruei de Rucham half an acre at Grenegate. William de Curcun, son of Ralph de Curcun, confirmed to that house, a tenement which Walter son Yruei gave to Roger Dussing when he espoused Levea, daughter of William Yruei, and 4 acres which Roger, son of Thorald held.<sup>5</sup>

William, son and heir of Alexander de Rucham, by the advice of his mother Ismuna, and Richard his brother, gave lands: witness Reiner de Dunton, then steward to the Earl Warren, Mr. Ralph de Harpele, Mr. Edmund de Massingham, Philip de Burnham, &c. with many others were benefactors, by their deeds sans date; all which coming to the Crown on the dissolution of that priory, it seems to be granted to Robert Hogan, who held lands here in capite of King Henry VIII.

The CHURCH was dedicated to St. Mary, and being a rectory appropriated to the priory of Westacre, a vicarage was settled valued at 11 marks, the rectory at 30 marks, the vicarage was in the presentation of the said convent, and paid Peter-pence 20*d.*

Simon de Wanton Bishop of Norwich confirmed in 1265, to the prior of Castleacre two parts of the tithes of the demean formerly of Hugh de Folkinton, and a moiety of all the tithes of the demean formerly of Julian, daughter of William Fitz Richard de Wyrnell, at that time the demean of William Boteler and his men.

Henry, prior of Westacre, had confirmed to him the appropriation of this church first appropriated by Ralph Walpole Bishop of Norwich, in Edward the First's time, confirmed also by his immediate successor, John Slamon:<sup>6</sup> the bull of Pope Nicholas is cited, wherein it is set forth that the monastery of Westacre had been lately burnt down, and therefore the Bishop gave license in 1303, and a composition was then made, that the vicar should have all the mortuaries, 4 quarters of corn, 2 of wheat and 2 of barley, the herbage of the churchyard, and the chapel annexed.

In the 2d of Elizabeth the impropriate rectory, which on the dissolution of Westacre priory came to the Crown, was granted July 8, to Richard Nichols; the present valor of the vicarage is 28*s.* 5*d.* and the patronage is in the Crown, and pays no first-fruits or tenths.

At the west end of the steeple is a broken crucifix of stone, and seems to have been well performed.

On the pavement of the chancel lie several gravestones,

On a stone with the portraiture of one in brass, with his lady, 7 sons, and a daughter.

In memory of William Yelverton, Esq; eldest son of Sir William Yelverton the judge, by his 2d wife, the brass shields with the arms are torn off, &c. but on a plate there remain these Latin verses;

There is a single building covered with lead, at the west end is a square steeple with two bells, on one

The chancel is thatched, and has a chapel or north isle.

It appears that there was formerly a north isle to the church, and on the south side of the church there is a library built up by the late Mr. North, and furnished with books by his own and other benefactions.

At a distance from the church, to the south, was an old chapel, now called the Chapel-barn.

and in Fransham Magna, one fee of the Earl Warren, and in the 19th of Edward II. a fine was levied between Geff. de Fransham and Joan his wife, querents, and Roger de Swanton: and Thomas Parson of Scarning, defendants of this manor; settled on Jeffrey and Joan, and their heirs, she being probably daughter of Roger de Swanton: Jeffrey de Fransham, Esq. son of Gilbert, dying in 1414 without issue, left his 5 sisters his coheirs, and the greatest part of his inheritance here was settled on Alice his second, and on Agatha his fifth sister and coheir.

Alice married ——— de Thurton, by whom she had Theobald de Thurton, who left 5 daughters and coheirs, Alice, married to ——— Pinkeman; Margaret to Robert Broom; Annora to ——— Aslake and after to ——— Lesingham; Beatrix to ——— Bamburgh, and Catherine to ——— Harneys.

Agatha married to ——— Arnold, who with her sister Alice had such an equal moiety of this manor.

Edmund Swathing, Esq. son of William who married the third sister and coheir of Jeffrey de Fransham having purchased three parts of the five parts of the moiety of this lordship with that of Dalington, viz. the parts of Alice Pinkeman, Beatrix Bamburgh, and Catherine Harneys, three of the five daughters and coheirs of Theobald de Thurton, son of Alice aforesaid presented in their right to the rectory of this church in 1423, and Thomas Sharington, son of Thomas Sharington, son of Henry Sharington and Elizabeth his wife, daughter and heir of Edmund Swathing, held the same in the 19th of Henry VII.

After this the two moieties of the two sisters abovementioned seem to be united and possessed by Roger Townsend, Esq. who presented in 1509, and in 1557, being then a knight, and Hellen, relict of John Townsend, Esq. his eldest son, presented in 1553, and Sir Roger Townsend, Knt. was lord in 1595, but in 1597, Edmund Anguish was lord and patron, who purchased it of the *Townsend*s.

In 1723, Richard Warner, Esq. was lord, and presented to the rectory on his death in 1757, and a division of his estate, it came to John Conyers, Esq. of Essex, by the marriage of Hannah, one of his daughters and coheirs.

NORTHEN-HALL, GUNTON'S OR WENDLING ABBEY MANOR.

This manor belonged to the Earl Warren's fee, and was situated at the north end of the town; the family of the Skernings were ancient lords of it, and Alexander, son of Roger de Scarning, settled by fine, in the 8th of Edward II. 9 messuages, a toft, 106 acres of land, 8 of meadow, 8 of pasture, and 36s. rent per ann. on John de Gunton.

In the 34th year of King Henry III. Roger, son of Adam and Cecilia his wife, passed by fine to William son of John de Wendling, a message and lands; and in the 52d of that King, the said William settled on Nicholas, abbot of Wendling, and his successours, 5 messuages, 87 acres of land, one mill, and 10s. rent by fine then levied; this with other lands given made up the manors of Northen hall, and Gunton's, in Scarning Parva, all which belonged to Wendling abbey, and was granted by King Henry VIII. in his 35th year, to Robert Hogan, Esq. to be held by knight's service by patent dated November 1; he died seized of it November 4, in the 1st of Edward VI. leaving Thomas his son and heir, who with Susan his wife, by license under the great seal, dated March 20, in the second year of the said King, aliened them to Thomas Hoo, and Richard Hoo, father and son, who lived at Burnham Overy in Norfolk, and Richard having the manor of Barrys in East Tudenham, they made that their residence. This family was descended from Robert Hoo, third son of Sir William Hoo, by Alice, daughter of Sir Thomas St. Omer, as the pedigree following testifies.

HOO'S PEDIGREE,

This Richard Hoo of Scarning, Esq. left by Alice his wife, two daughters and coheirs, Elizabeth, married to John Games, Gent. second son of Sir John Games of Newton, in Brecknockshire, in Wales; and Robert, married to Francis Steward, third son of John Steward of Braughing in Hertfordshire, and of Marham in Norfolk, Esq. by whom he had Hoo Steward, Esq. a bencher of Grey's Inn, London, who sold his moiety of this lordship to Alderman Farrington of London, who presented to this church in 1690.

Farrington bore argent, a chevron gules, between three leopards heads, sable.

John Games, by Elizabeth his wife, left 3 daughters and coheirs, Florence, married to Richard Lucy, clerk, of St. Davids in Wales;

Elizabeth, married to Thomas Walker, Esq. of Grey's Inn, counsellor at law, and Catherine, who was unmarried in 1689, who all joined, and conveyed their moiety of this lordship to Oliver le Neve, Esq. in the said year, with the impropriate rectory and advowson of the vicarage, who sold the same in 1701, to Humphrey Prideaux, D.D. afterwards dean of Norwich.

WALTHAM ABBEY MANOR.

WILLIAM, son of Aylmer de Skerning or Skerling, gave by deed sans date to this abbey his messuage and lands held of Gilbert de Fransham by 2s. rent, and his land held of William de Drayton in this town, by 4d. rent, which William, for his own and the soul of Aveline his wife, confirmed it.<sup>9</sup> Robert, brother of William, Gilbert de Fransham, Roger Gelafré, and Beatrix his wife, widow of Gilbert, also confirmed it.

Of this family was Alexander de Skerning, who married Nichola, daughter and heiress of Roger L'Estrange, about the 34th of Henry III.

Thomas, son of Baldwin gave them lands at the church, the house called Stabbes, and lands called Sponesbrugge.—Ralph, son of Peter, gave them lands.—Roger de Freville gave them his meadow between the chapel of St. Botolph and Sponesbergh, Lecia his wife also gave lands.

William de Drayton, by deed sans date, gave them the moiety of the church in the time of Hubert Archbishop of Canterbury, and John Bishop of Norwich, his cotemporary, confirmed it, saving all dues to the Bishop, and a competent support for a vicar, to celebrate in that moiety, and there being a controversy between the rector and the abbot about houses and barns near the church, they exchanged one with the other; and about the tithes of the abbot's moiety, the rector remits them wholly to the abbot, and the said abbot gave to St. Katherine and the nuns of Blackberewe all the tithes of their free land, and of the land which was William's, son of Aylmer.

Pope Innocent the Third confirmed to them their right in this church, that no tithes should be exacted of the lands they held, dated 1198, and King Henry III. granted them March 30, in his 37th year, free warren here.

At the dissolution of this abbey, the possessions thereto belonging, the impropriate rectory with the patronage of the vicarage, were granted, September 9, to Sir William Fermour, who on the 24th of July following, in the 37th of Henry VIII. conveyed them to Richard Hoo of Scarning, Gent. and so came to Games and Steward, &c. as above.

Part of this town was a lordship or beruite belonging to the Earl Warren's manor of Gressenhale; to it belonged half a carucate of land, 5 borderers, &c. one carucate in demean, and one amongst the men.<sup>1</sup>

Wimer held it at the survey, and it was valued with Gressenhale, and had the same capital lords as may be there seen.

John de Lacy, and Thomas de Erleham, held it of Richard Foliot in Edward the First's time, and John Poyuter, and John Sterling of the Hastings, in the 3d of Henry IV. and this was the manor (as I take it) that William Aggas, Gent. died possessed of in 1458.

Ralph Lord Baynard had a small fee or lordship belonging to his capital manor of East Bradenham in South Greenhow hundred, viz. 80 acres of land, and 3 of meadow, and 2 socmen held 12 acres of land, but the soc was in Mileham manor.<sup>2</sup>

Roger de Huntingfeld held it in King John's reign, and was found to withdraw it from the hundred suit, after the war commenced between that King and his barons.

Joan de Huntingfeld claimed free warren here in the 15th of Edward I. and William de Huntingfeld, lord of Bradenham East, was found to possess it in the 7th of Edward II. and Roger was his son, aged 8 years.

Anne Hungate sold lands here and in East Bradenham held in capite, to Sir Francis Bacon, 13th of James I.; and in 1659, Henry Hungate, Esq. had an estate here 100*l* per ann. as then taxed.

DRAYTON HALL

WAS part of Ralph de Beaufoe's lordship in East Derham, and Swanton, at the survey, and extended into this village; it took its name from its ancient lords, and it was seated in a close that retains its name; see in East Derham.

Agnes, one of the daughters and coheirs of Will. de Drayton, had by a fine (in the 14th of Henry III.) this lordship which the services and homage of Thomas, son of Baldwyn, being the fourth part of a fee settled on her and William Lanveisey her husband, held of the Marshals, lords of the barony of Rhye. Alice, the other daughter and coheir, married Jervace de Bradfield, and afterwards William de Bellomont. Godfrey or Geoffrey de Bellomonte, or Beaumont, his son, claimed the assize of bread and beer of his tenants, the lete and view of frank pledge, with the view of the King's bailiff of the honour of Hokering, in the 15th of Edward I. and in the 21st of that King, John de Beaumont had a charter for free warren in his demean lands in this town, East Derham, Drayton, Taverham, &c.; he was brother of Godfrey who died about this time; and it appears that Godfrey had married Cecilia de Ferrarijs, and died without issue, but some records call her Alianore.

In a court of this manor held in the 3d year of Edward III. the jury swear that William de Bellomonte, late lord, granted to Roger de Beston of Scarning, that he might common with his cattle (averijs) any where in the common pasture in Scarning, called Toftwood hill, for a certain messuage situate in Brendwode.

In the 39th of Edward III. William Catts was lord, and paid 3*s*. 9*d*. per ann. on the feast of Holy Cross, in May, to the Lord Morley, lord of Hokering, and to the lord of the hundred 2*s*. lete fee, 2*d*. moterent, and suit of court to the hundred at Easter and St. Michael; and in the 13th of Henry VII. Sir Henry Heydon conveyed it to William Bardwell, junior, Esq. in exchange for the manor of Wit- chingham, in Salthouse and Kelling, on September 8, and Robert Bardwell, Esq. son and heir of William, was lord in the 3d of Henry VIII.

On the 4th of March in the 4th of Henry VIII. Sir Robert Southwell sold to William Wotton, all his right in the wardship, custody, and marriage of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Robert Bardwell, Esq. by virtue of a grant to him from Sir Edward Howard, held of the said Edward, in right of the lady Morley his wife: and John Wotton of North Tudenham, Esq. who married the said Elizabeth Bardwell, died seized of it November 14, in the 37th of the aforesaid King: about this time it appears that there belonged to it 200 acres of land, 40 of meadow, 200 of pasture, 60 of wood, 200 of moor, and 6*l.* rent per ann. in this town and Dillington.

Anne, the only daughter and heir of John Wotton and Elizabeth his wife, married first Sir Thomas Woodhouse, of Warham, secondly Henry Repps, Esq. by whom she had no issue; and about 1555, she married Bassingbourn Gawdy, Esq. second son of Thomas Gawdy, serjeant at law, and Thomas Hoo, Esq. resigned to him and Anne his wife, all his right in 26*s.* 8*d.* rent in the 5d of Elizabeth, issuing out of this lordship payable to that of Northern hall, &c. Bassingbourn Gawdy, Esq. son and heir of Sir Bassingbourn and his lady Anne, kept his first court here in the 13th of the said Queen.

In the 15th of James I. there was a præcipe for John Boldero, Gent. to deliver it to Eustace Darcy, Esq. and Thomas Godbould.

Afterwards it was possessed by the Repps of Mattishale, and by Richard Warner, Esq. who died seized of it in 1757, and by his daughter and coheir is brought to ——— Conyers, Esq.

Concealed lands and a close called Games granted to Edmund Dyer and Henry Cressener in fee farm, in the 16th of Elizabeth.

The temporalities of Carhow abbey in 1428 were charged at 3*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.*; Wendling abbey 22*s.* 0*b.*

The town takes its name from Scar, a rivulet that arises in this parish, and Ing, that is meadows on the Scar; thus we find Scargill (the rivulet of the Scar) in Yorkshire, Scars-Dale in Derbyshire, Scarle in Nottinghamshire, &c.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Peter and St. Paul, and contained two medietyes, one in the patronage of the Franshams, lord of the manor, and the other appropriated to the abbey of Waltham: the first mediety was called the portion of Hugh de Fransham, which was valued at 20 marks, he being rector of it when it was thus taxed in 1256; the present valor is 9*l.* 0*s.* 1*d.* 0*b.* and pays first fruits and tenths.

By an inquisition taken in the reign of Henry II. by Sir Roger Freville, Martin de Helegate, Roger, son of Simon, &c. it was found that Robert de Skerning, who was formerly rector of this church, and lord of a fee, gave the tithes of his fee to the church of Norwich in the time of St. Thomas Becket the Martyr, without any diminution.

Afterwards Richard, son of the said Robert the rector, farmed the said tithes of the monks of Norwich in his father's life time; and, after his death, being rector also, farmed them all his life for 6*s.* per ann. and the said Richard, taking to himself a wife after the Archbishop Becket's death, resigned the said rectory and the tithes into the hands of the monks: on this resignation,<sup>3</sup> Richard de Draiton became rector, and did not farm the said tithes; but Simon, son of Richard de Skerning, the aforesaid rector who resigned, farmed them.

On the death of Richard de Draiton, Vincent became rector, and on Vincent's death, the abbot of Waltham, and Simon, son of the said Vincent, being rectors of this church, sued the abovementioned Simon, son of Richard de Skerning, on account of the said tithes farmed by him, insomuch that he resigned them into the hands of the said monks, who let them to Adam, brother of the said Simon, who agreed to resign them to Simon, son of Vincent the rector, and he farmed them all his life at 6s. per ann; after this, the said Simon, being desirous to provide for his nephew, Jeff. Pecche resigned his moiety or rectory to Geff. who was instituted rector, and kept still the farm of these tithes all his life.

The spiritualities of the priory of Castleacre were valued at 55s. per ann.

In 1428, they had the tithes of the fee of Roger, son of Simon, before 1260, and in 1265, Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to the said priory two parts of the tithes of the demean of Gilbert de Fransham, and of Sacr de Frevil, and the tithe of the assarts of Heringshawe.

In 1366, the prior and convent aforesaid let to farm to Robert Hoberd, rector of this church, with the consent of Gilbert de Fransham, and Thomas Bishop of Norwich, 2 parts of the tithes of the demean formerly Gilbert de Fransham's of Sacr de Frevile, Ralph de Ingresham, and of the assarts of Heringshawe, in the village and fields of Skerning containing 252 acres of land more or less for 20s. of silver per ann. to be paid at Easter and St. Michael.<sup>5</sup>

The prioress of Blackburgh had a portion of tithe valued at 10s. per ann.

The rectory of Didlington had also a portion belonging to it of the said value; and the spiritualities of Norwich priory was one mark.

In 1514, it appears that there was a chapel here dedicated to St. Botolph.

In this town is a free school well endowed.

D I L L I N G T O N

WAS part of the lordship of Scarning, held by the Franshams, and on the death of Jeffrey de Fransham in 1414, his inheritance; and divided between his five sisters and coheirs: this came with Scarning to Alice his 2d and to Agatha his 5th sister and coheir, and so to their posterity as may be there seen at large.

Also the manor of Drayton-hall in Scarning extended into this town, of which see there.

HERINGSHAWE, AND DIKEWOOD MANORS.

The monks of Castleacre had a manor here belonging to the Earl Warren's fee, &c.

In the 4th of King John, Peter de Watlington granted by fine to Lambert prior of Castleacre 60 acres of land in Dichwede and Lawendich, before G. de L'Isle, Reginald de Dornwall, Reginald de Argenton, the King's justices;<sup>6</sup> and in the 5th of the said King, Elfer and Alice his wife granted to Philip, prior of the said monastery, 40 acres of land in Heringshawe, by fine, before Geff. Fitzpiers, Richard de Heringshawe, Simon de Pateshull, and Eustace de Fauconbergh, the King's justices.

King Henry III. by a charter dated at Walsingham, March 15, in his 40th year, granted to the said priory free warren in all their demean lands in Heringeshawe and Kempston: witnesses, Walter Bishop of Norwich, Guy de Lezynian (the King's brother) William de Grey, Ralph de Bagepuz, Peter Exerard, Bartholomew le Bygot, William de St. Ermin, William Gernon, Philip de Bukeland, &c.

In 1265, Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to the monks the tithes of Great and Little Dythwood, of the demean, formerly of Reginald, son of Etbold, as well as of the fee also of Giffard, as of the fee of William de Franchevile, said to be in Wendling.

In the Register of Castlecre priory, lately in the Lord Oxford's library, are many grants, sans date, of lands here, to the said priory. Roger de Tony gave the grove of Haringeshae, with all the lands and assart; witness, A. his mother, Isabell his daughter, &c.

John son of Richard de Lettm, for 4 marks and a gold ring, gave lands in Heringeshae, formerly Ukhetel Cronai, his grandfather's Richard de Cambois, a wood called Dichwde, belonging to Middleton, for the soul of the Earl Gilbert. William de Pelevill, with the consent of Peter his son and heir, gave a part of Dichwde grove for the souls of Hugh de Muntford, Robert de Muntford, Simon de Molen-dinis, and Adeliza his wife, Robert de Fer, and for his own and his wife's souls, &c.

Robert de Fer, constable, and Alice his wife, daughter of Hugh de Montfort, gave the wood and land of Landic: William de Francheville, 10 acres and an half of land at Heringeshae, by Great Dichwde, and all the land which William Lenwise held of his fee at Dichwde in Fransham.

Reginald, son of Etbold, gave all the tithes of his fee in Great and Little Dichwde, as well of the fee of Giffard, as of the fee of William de Franchevile.

Richard de Wendling, son of William, formerly priest of Fransham, 5 acres in Dichwde, by Heringeshae.

Walter, son of William de Watlington, released to them a tenement in Dichwde, which he bought for 6 marks and a palfrey; witnesses, Robert de Watlington his brother, and Robert, son of Robert de Watlington.

Thomas de Hereford. and Beatrix his wife, daughter of Henry de Gressenhale, gave lands here.

Richard de Cambeys, by deed, sans date, gave for the soul of Gilbert Earl of Gloucester, and his own soul, Dychewode.

It appears that Dykwood was also a manor belonging to the said priory, and was conveyed as such, by Thomas, prior of Castlecre, by fine, in the 29th of Henry VIII. to that king, with the manor of Heringeshawe, by fine; and in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, were held by the Duke of Norfolk, to whom (as I take it) King Henry granted them in his 29th year.

Heringshaw and Dikewood manors were afterwards possessed by Sir Thomas Gresham, Knt. and his lady left them to Sir William Read, her son, by her first husband, who, in the 4th year of King James I. settled them on Mary his wife, on marriage, and are then said to be in Wendling parish: she after remarried Sir Edward Spencer, who was lord in her right in 1634.

There were then a court-leet, court-baron, and about 20 suiters, some free, but most copyholders, belonging to it.

The fines and profits of court were, at that time, 3l. per ann. and Sir Edward Cook, impropiator of Wendling, received 5l. in lieu of tithes.

Mr. Smith of East Derham is the present lord, bought by him of Mrs. Susan Thompson, together with the manor of Heringshaw.

H O W

Is an hamlet belonging to, and in the parish of, East Derham, and belonged to the abbey of Ely, founded by St. Audrey, or Etheldreda, and was held by Ralph, son of Ivo, of the abbot, and afterwards of the King, as appears from the book of Domesday, consisting of one carucate of land, 8 villains, 10 borderers, 3 carucates and 8 acres of pasture, paunage for 100 swine, a mill, with all customs, and valued in Derham.

The soc belonged to the King's manor of Mileham, with 2 socmen, who held 28 acres of meadow, to which appertained half a carucate: this part was valued at 4s. per ann. The abbot had the protection and the right of foldage.<sup>7</sup>

This lordship was held by the Walpoles of the see of Ely. James de Creike and Sarah his wife were sued in the 34th of Henry III. by Walter de Denever and Alice his wife, to restore certain goods and chattels valued at 10 marks.

In the 3d of Edward I. the Bishop of Ely claimed the assise of bread and bear, soc, sac, thol and them, infangthief, view of frankpledge, return of writs, as belonging to his manor of East Dereham. See there.

In the see it remained till in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, it was with other lands of that see, granted to the Crown.

Hamon L'Estrange, Esq. was found to die seized of the manor of Heymer in Hoo, October 7, in the 22d of Elizabeth, held of the Bishop of Ely by fealty, and 12*d.* rent; and Nicholas L'Estrange held it in the 25th of the said Queen.

King James I. in his 7th year, September 30, granted to Edward Ferrers and Francis Philips, a watermill, with the house in Hoo, and an osier ground adjoining, containing one rood, and a fishery

Thomas de Hereford was lord in 1277; and Wariu de Hereford and Margaret his wife, had frank pledge, assise of bread and beer, &c. in the 15th of Edward I. in right, as is said, of the dower Margaret, of the inheritance of Richard de Boyland.

In the 20th of Edward III. William Attechirch held the fourth part of a fee of Hugh de Hastings, which Sampson de Hoo formerly held.

After this, Hereford Hall was held by the Ferrours, in King Edward's reign, &c. as in Gressenhale.

Thomas Utber Esq. lord of Hoo, of the Middle Temple, London, sold in 1661 to Matthcw Helcot, tanner, of Lutcham, 160 acres of land, called Eastfield Closes, and in 1688, the manor of Hoo and Hereford, was possessed by William Frith, Esq. of Horn Church in Essex, who sold them to Alderman Farington of London.

In the 7th of James I. Thomas Gooch held lands in Hoo, in capite, and in 1659, Thomas Gooch, Gent. was taxed at 125*l. per ann.* in the militia rate for his estate.

To this hamlet belongs a chapel with a nave or body, a north and south isle, and a chancel covered with lead, with a square tower and 3 bells; and the cure is served by the vicar of East Derham.

SWANTON-MORLEY

WAS the lordship of Ralph de Bellofago, or Beaufoe, at the survey, but in the Confessor's time, Godric,<sup>2</sup> a freeman, was possessed of it, when there were 8 carucates of land, 24 villains, afterwards 30, and 38 borderers, at the survey 54, 6 servi, with 10 acres of meadow belonging to it; there were 4 carucates in demean, at the survey 5, 13 carucates amongst the men, at the survey 18; pannage for 300 hogs, 3 mills, a fishery, &c. also 7 soemen belonged to it with all customary duties, and 11 borderers, with 2 acres of meadow, and 2 carucates, and a freeman with 12 acres of land, and two of meadow, and half a carucate, but at the survey he held it not; Ralph's predecessor had only the protection of him, the soc was in Mileham, Eudo<sup>3</sup> held it, but Ralph, now, of the gift of the King; a church endowed with an acre and an half valued at 2*l. per ann.*; the manor was valued at 8*l. per ann.* afterwards at 12*l.* but Ralph afterwards farmed it out, or let it, at 25*l.* it was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 10*l.* gelt.<sup>4</sup>

By this it appears to be a large and valuable manor: the town seems to take its name, as seated near the joining of two streams or rivulets, called probably Suan, Swin, or Swan; thus Swinhead in Lincolnshire; Swinburn in Northumberland; Swinbrook in Oxfordshire, and Tua (not Tuna) which I interpret the two rivers, or waters, and Morley-Swanton from its ancient lords.

Ralph de Bellofago, or Beaufoe, was a near relation, if not son of William de Beaufoe Bishop of Thetford, chaplain and chancellor to the Conqueror, and held at the survey these following lordships, with Swanton;—Newton, and Bircham in Docking hundred;—Ringsted

Ralph de Beaufoe left a daughter and heiress, Agnes, who was married to Hubert de Rie, castellan of Norwich castle, who was son of Hubert de Rie, (according to Dugdale<sup>5</sup>) a trusty servant to Will. Duke of Normandy, and sent by him to King Edward the Confessor, when that King lay on his death bed, in a pompous equipage into England, and returned to his master with those tokens, whereby he was by that King declared his heir to the Crown of England; viz. a sword, in the hilt whereof were inclosed some relics of Saints, an hunter's horn of gold, and the head of a mighty stag; for which service he had the promise of being steward of his household.

Ralph was his eldest son, and made castellan of Nottingham; Hubert was his second son, made governor of Norwich castle; Adam, the third son, had large possessions in Kent; and Eudo, a fourth son, was a great courtier, steward of the King's household, and rewarded with many lordships in several counties.

This Agnes, with her son Richard, granted the church of Aldby to the priory of Norwich, which King Henry I. confirmed, on the petition of Henry de Rya, son and heir of Hubert, and Anges de Rya, and her tithes of Wrokesham; witnesses, William de Tankerville, and Richard Basset.

A descendant, if not son, of the aforesaid Henry, was Hubert de Rie, who in the 12th of Henry II. certified that he had 35 knights fees, for which he paid 85 marks to the King, and dying without issue male in the 18th of the said King, his two daughters and coheirs were Aliva, who married John Marshall, (nephew of William Marshall Earl of Pembroke) made marshal of Ireland by King John, in his 9th year, and Isabell, who married Sir Roger de Cressie, widow of Jeffrey de Chester, which Jeffrey was probably a nephew to Robert Fitz Roger, a great Baron of Northumberland, who in the first of King John gave 300 marks for the younger daughter of Hubert aforesaid, to marry unto a nephew of his.

In the 13th of King John, John Marshall answered for 17 fees and a half, a moiety of the barony of Rye, and was lord of this town:<sup>6</sup> in this family it remained till John Marshall, son of William, dying in the 10th of Edward II. left Hawise, his sister and heir, married to Robert de Morle, 15 years of age; (Ela, wife of John, survived him, and was remarried to Robert Fitz Payn;) he died seized also of Hingham, Hokering, Buxton, &c. and had free warren, weyf, view of frank pledge, a ducking stool, assise of bread and beer in this town.

It appears from ancient deeds that there was a park in this village, called Bywick park, and that Avelina le Marescal, in her widowhood about the 40th of Henry III. granted the tithes of her mill of Suane-tune, and of the eels taken at the mill and pools, to the priory of Norwich, at the request of Will. Ithane de Kyrkeley, then precentor.

Sir Robert de Morle was son of William de Morle, a parliamentary baron, and had livery, with Hawise his wife, of this lordship in the 10th of Edward II. was marshal of Ireland in right of his wife, and truly famous for his many gallant actions both by sea and land, being lieutenant of Norfolk, and admiral of the King's fleet, obtained such a notable victory near Sluse in Flanders, (as historians record it,) that the like sea fight had never before been seen, was also in the glorious battle of Cressi in France, constable of the Tower of London, summoned to parliament from the 11th of Edward II. to the 31st of Edward III. and died in the 34th of that King, then attending him in France, leaving Sir William de Morle, his son and heir, by Hawise his wife.

The last heir male of this noble family was Robert, son of Thomas Lord Morle,<sup>7</sup> and the Lady Isabell his wife, daughter of Michael de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, who dying in the 21st of Henry VI. left by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of William Lord Ross, Alianore his daughter and heir 6 months old, who afterwards married William Lovell, a younger son of William Lord Lovel of Tichmersh, who in her right was Lord Morley, and inherited the estate of that family, and died seized of it July 23, 1475, leaving Henry Lovel his son and heir, Lord Morley, aged 11 years, and in 1487 was slain at Dixmue in Flanders, leaving no issue by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of John de la Pole Duke of Suffolk, so that his estate descended to Alice, his only sister, wife of Sir William Parker of London, Knt. who was lord of this town, &c. and on his death she remarried to Sir Edward Howard, second son to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

Henry Parker was son and heir to Sir William, by his lady Alice; he was Knt. of the Bath, and in 1529, summoned to parliament as Lord Morley, and by Alice his wife, daughter of Sir John St. John of Bletsho, by whom he had Sir Henry his son and heir, who married Grace, daughter and heir of Sir Robert Newport of Pelham in Hertfordshire, by whom he had Henry his son and heir, Lord Morley, who by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Edward Earl of Derby, had Edward his son and heir, Lord Morley, who married Elizabeth, sole heir of William Stanley Lord Monteagle, fifth son to Thomas Earl of Derby, and in her right was also Lord Monteagle; he died April 1, 1618, and was buried in the church of Stepney in Middlesex, but before his death sold most of the estate descended to him, from the Morleys, Lord Morley, and this lordship, to Sir Thomas Lovel of Herling, and so to Sir Henry Bedingfeld of Oxburgh, and Thomas Bedingfeld, Esq. died seized of it in the 32d of Elizabeth, in which family it was in the reign of Charles the First.

In 1659, Gybbon Goddard, Esq. was lord, and charged in a militia rate in that year at 6*5*l. per ann. for his manor and lands; he was serjeant at law, and recorder of Lynn: and in 1654, it appears that William Small, Esq. of Hadleigh in Suffolk was lord, and by his will dated October 4, in the said year gave 10*l. per ann.* towards the education of poor children, and binding out boys apprentices, born in this town, and settled lands for the same, called Eye-Park in Suffolk, and in 1688, Daniel Farington, Esq. alderman of London, possessed it, and on his death his sister, Mrs. Phill of London.

About the beginning of Queen Elizabeth's reign, I find this lordship valued at 57*l. 1s. 5d. ob.* that is to say, Wood-Gate Street rent 10*l. 4s. 11d. ob.*—Greene-Gate Street 10*l. 7s. 5d. ob.*—West-Gate Street 30*l. 0s. 6d. ob.* over and besides the rent of 14*s. 6d. ob. q.* holden by -----, and Goose-Gate Street rent 4*l. 12s. 3d.*

The site of this manor was near to the church, encompassed with a moat, but the most ancient site is said to be by the river, against Below, now called Newcastle.

HEREFORD OR HERTFORD'S MANOR.

In the reign of Henry III. John de Herford was found to hold in this township the 6th part of a fee of Thomas de Ware, and Hugh Sneterton, they of William de Marshall, and he of the King; and one of the same name settled by fine in the 6th of Edward II. on himself and Mabel his wife, in tail, remainder to Mabil, daughter of William Pontyn of Walden, and her heirs, 6 messuages, 260 acres of land, 16 of meadow, 20 of pasture, one of wood and an half, with 5 marks, and 6*s. 8d.* rent here, in Hoo, Betele, Mateshal, and East Derham.

Thomas de Harford held, in the 4th of Henry IV. the sixth part of a fee of the Lord Morley, which John de Hoo formerly held.

Bernard Utber was lord of it, and Thomas Utber his son, who lived at Hoo in 1666, of which see in Hoo, and Gressenhale.

It appears that the site of this hall was in the bounds of this parish, by the field book.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and is a rectory anciently valued at 50 marks, the present valor is 15*l. 11s. 1d.* and pays first fruits and tenths; and Worthing is an hamlet belonging to this parish, having a chapel dedicated to St. Margaret, served by this rector: the Peter-pence was 12*d.*

The priory of Norwich had a portion of tithe valued at 40s. per ann.

The church stands on a hill, in the middle of the town, and was building in the year 1379, as appears from the will William Lord Morley, dated 26th of August, in the said year, wherein he gives to the work of the church of Swanton Morley,<sup>2</sup> then begun, 10 marks, and his gilt cup,

It consists of a nave or body, with 2 isles and a chancel; covered with lead, and under the east end of that, a large charnel; and there is a tall square tower with four bells.

WORTHING

Is a hamlet in the parish and lordship of Swanton, seated in an Ing or low ground, between, and near to the place where two rivers meet and unite: such a site is called by the Germans, Werd, or Werdt, as Keiserwerd and Donawert in Germany, and there is an old proverb in the neighbourhood—Worse and worse, as Worthing-mill.

Henry de Ric, by deed sans date, gave to the monks of Castleacre, the mill of Worthing, with Thurstane the miller, his mother and brothers, with all his substance, and by another deed gave them the services of Philip, and Adelwald, and confirmed to them a tenement with lands, and meadows of Philip Belet, for which he received 2 marks; witnesses, Luke de Hoo, alias priest of Swanton, Hilbert his dapifer, &c.<sup>3</sup>

Rehald, son of Henry de Wdecote, by deed sans date, released to them all the land, which he held here of Philip Belet for 9 marks, which they gave him.

Robert, son of Rosceline, agreed not to molest them in their men and tenements here and in Goldruna.

Lands here were granted July 1, in the 7th of Edward VI. to Thomas Gresham, late in the tenure of Christopher Preston.

Thomas Warner held 4 messuages, with the appertenances, of Queen Elizabeth, in capite, and William Warner, his son and heir, held, in the 15th of Elizabeth, 17 acres, late parcel of the possessions of Castleacre priory, and 3 acres called Le Holbred-land.

The chapel, or church, is covered with lead, and the chancel with thatch; the steeple, which was round, is in ruins, and one bell stands in the church thus inscribed,

TITLES H A L E.

SEVERAL towns in England begin with tit, as Titherley in Hampshire; Titcherington in Gloucestershire; with Titbury, Tittlesey in Surry; Tittinanger in Hertfordshire, &c. all which are seated near some stream, or rivulet, called probably Tit.

The principal manor of this town belonged to a Norman, a freeman in the reign of the Confessor, and Ralph Turmit held it under the Lord Bainard at the grand survey; there were 4 carucates of land, 12 villains, 4 borderers, 6 servi, and 10 acres of meadow, also 2 carucates in demean, and 4 carucates amongst the tenants, when Norman was lord; pannung for 100 swine, a mill, 6 animals, or cows, &c. 100 sheep, 40 goats, 4 bees-skeps, and one socman, with 6 acres valued at 70s. and one church endowed with 6 acres valued at 5*d.* the whole being 9 furlongs long, and half a leuca broad, and paying 5*d.* gelt.*

William Lord Baynard, grandson to Ralph, being in a rebellion against King Henry I. forfeited this lordship, &c. which was granted to Robert, son of Richard Fitz Gilbert, ancestor of the lords Fitz Walter.

By a fine levied in the 8th year of King John, it appears that this lordship was in the family of De Capra, Chevere, or Cheffre.<sup>5</sup> Mariota, widow of Nicholas Capra, or Chevere, had then her dower assigned her in this town, and Godwick, by Hamon Capra, her son; Robert Capre was uncle to the said Hamon, as is set forth in the said fine; the said Hamo held also three quarters of a fee in Wydekeso, or Wyksho in Suffolk, of Walter Fitz Robert, and Michael Capre held it, or had some interest herein in the 10th of Richard I.

<sup>5</sup> Michael de Capra was founder of the priory of Thoby in Essex, in the reign of King Stephen. William was his son by Rohesia his wife.

Of this family was Thomas, son of Silvester Capra, or Cheffre, who gave by deed sans date, to God, St. Mary, and the monks of Sibeton in Suffolk, a meadow in Sycamore, in Balecamp, of the fee of Jeffrey Capre, as William, son of Jeffrey Chevere, lord of Wygheshoe aforesaid, in the 6th of Richard I. when the prior of St. Leonard of Gaines in Essex, demanded a mill of him in Wygheshoe, which priory, or hospital of Gaines, or Ginges, was founded by Michael de Capra and Rose his wife, which family bore a goat salient, as appears from their seal.

In the 3d of Henry III. Hamo Chevere held the fourth part of a fee of the baiony of Baynard, of Walter Fitz Robert, and Hamo Chevere was fined 60 marks in the 22d of that King for striking the King's servant.<sup>6</sup>

Hamo, son of Hamo Chevere, in a pleading in the 34th of the said King, acknowledge that Catharine, widow of Hamo, had a right of dower in the capital messuage of the manor of Tytishale.

William Chevere had the grant of a weekly mereate in this town on Wednesday, also of free warren in this town, Godwyk, Wellingham, Wyssingset, and Greinston, on September 12. A<sup>o</sup>. 51st of Henry III.

Soon after this, William de Sutton was lord, in right (as I conceive) of Isabell his first wife, daughter and heir of William de Chevere, who was living in the 13th of Edward I. and Benedict de Wade, and Robert de Sutton, as trustees, conveyed to the said William and Margery, his second wife, and the heirs of William, on the body of Margery, and for want of such issue, to the right heirs of William, in the 24th of the said King, 16 messuages, a mill, 6 carucates of land, 8 acres of meadow, 16 of pasture, 30 of wood, and one hundred shillings rent per ann. in this town, Godwick, Wyssenset, &c. also 2 messuages, 100 acres of land, 4 of meadow, 8 of pasture, 10 of wood, and 40s. rent in Great Fordham in Essex; she was daughter and heir of Sir Richard Battail of Wyvenho in Essex, and Catherine his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Andrew le Blund of Tendering in Suffolk.

Sir John Sutton was his son and heir, who married Margery, daughter and coheir of Sir John de Wheeltham in Suffolk, who first married Sir John de Brokesbourn; secondly, John de Cockfield, Esq. and thirdly Sir John Sutton, who in her right presented to the church of Rocklaud Tofts in Norfolk, in 1358, called Sir John Sutton of Wivenho in Essex, to which Sir John de Brokesburne had presented in 1341.

Sir John de Sutton died before the 8th of Richard II. when it appears that Margery his widow was living, and left Sir John Sutton his son and heir, who married Alice, relict of Sir Andrew de Bures, daughter and heir of Sir John de Royden of Overbury Hall in Leyham, in Suffolk. Also (in an old writing that I have seen) he married a daughter of Sir Mich. Poynings on the death of Alice, who was living in the 49th year of Edward III. Sir John Sutton died in the 17th of Richard II. and left a daughter and heir, Margery, who was married to John Walton, Esq. whose heiress general, Joan Walton, was married to Sir John Howard, ancestors of the Dukes of Norfolk.

On the death of this Sir John, Sir Richard de Sutton was found to be his brother and heir, aged 60 A<sup>o</sup>. 17 of Richard II. on Friday after the feast of the Virgin Mary, then last past, seized of a moiety of Old-Hall manor in Bergholt, and Melding manor.

Sir John de Sutton (son of William abovementioned) of Wyvenho, had the hundred of Angre in Essex granted to him in the 13th of Edward III. by Sir John de Riparijs, (Rivers), son of Sir John; and in the 17th of that King, Sir John de Sutton and Margaret his wife had lands in Bradfield, Essex, granted to them and their heirs male, and entailed by Rob. son of Sir Jn. de Brokesburu; and in the said year Griffin de Sutton, parson of Tendering in Essex, confirmed to this Sir John and Richard de Sutton his son, and his heirs, the third part of the manor of Okeley Parva in Essex, which Alice, daughter of Sir John Fittol, held of him for life, remainder to John de Sutton, and his heirs; dated at Elmsted in the said county, on Monday next after the feast of the purification.

Margery, wife of Sir John de Sutton, sen. abovementioned, was buried in the church of Wivenho, with this epitaph,

Margery de Sutton, gist icy,
Dieu de sa alme eiyt mercy,
- - - - - S' alme priera
XL Jours de pardon avera.

In the 36th of Edward III. Sir John de Sutton (son of Sir John de Sutton) and Alice his wife sell to Sir Richard Sutton, (his brother,) Sir William Baud, &c. Overbury-Hall manor and chapel in Reydon, in Suffolk, which descended to Alice after the death of Hawysia de Wykham, widow of Sir John de Reydon, mother of Alice.

In the 39th of the said King, William Wingfeld, &c. released to John de Rokewood, and Alice, wife of Sir John de Sutton, all their right in the manor of Merks in Reydon, lately granted them by Sir John de Sutton, jun. and in the said year Simon Sudbury Bishop of London granted to all who would pray for the soul of Sir John de Whelmetham, Kut. deceased, and say the Lord's Prayer, and the angelick salutation, whose body was buried in the church of Whelmetham Magna in Suffolk, and for the souls of the Lady Alice, late his wife, of Sir John de Brokesbourn, Kut. John de Cockfeld, Esq. James de Sutton, and the Lady Maud de Sutton deceased, whose bodies lie in the chapel of the blessed Virgin, in the conventual church of Wykes Nunnery, in Essex, should have 40 days of pardon, dated at Claketon, 16th of the Kalends of September.

In the 43d of Edward III. Sir John Sutton, sen. and Sir John Sutton, jun. were both living, and in the 46th of the said King, Margery, widow of Sir John de Sutton, sen. daughter and coheir of Sir John de Whelmetham, and John de Bures, son and heir of Mary, formerly wife of Michael de Bures, and sister of Margery, made partition of the manor of Whelmetham Magna, and the advowson, with Amicia Schalers, widow of Sir Thomas de Schalers, another sister and coheir, as I take it.

Sir Richard de Sutton married Alianore, and left an only daughter and heir, Joan, who married first Sir Robert de Bures, son and heir of Andrew de Bures, and on his death, remarried Richard de Waldgrave; by Sir Robert she left a daughter and heir, Alice, who married Sir Guy de Bryan, son and heir of Sir Guy de Bryan, (as it is said,) but rather of Sir Edmund de Bryan, &c.

In the church of Acton in Suffolk, of which the Bures were lords, lie buried Andrew de Bures aforesaid, who died April 12, 1360, and bore ermin on a chief indented sable, 2 lions rampant, argent; and Sir Robert de Bures his son, who died October 7, 1361.

Also a gravestone with the arms of Bryan, (impaling Bures.) or, three piles in point azure, with a label of three :

“ Under this stone lyeth buried Alys de Bryan, daughter and heir of “ Robert de Bures, Kl. and wife to Sir Edmund de Bryan, the younger, “ knight.”

In the said church were also the arms of Royden, cheeque, argent, and gules, a cross azure, and that of Poynings, bary of six, or and vert, a bend over all, gules, on grave-stones.

Sir William de Sutton bore, as appears from his seal, or, a chevron, gules, on a chief azure, three mullets pierced, of the first, which said arms was also born by Sir Hamon Sutton, whose daughter and heir Joan was married to Sir John Peyton of Isteham in Cambridgeshire.

I have been the more particular in the history of this family, as Sir Richard de Sutton abovementioned was the last heir male of the eldest branch of it, though it does not appear that he had any interest in this manor, which came to the Waltons by the marriage of Margery, daughter and heir of Sir John Sutton, (elder brother of Sir Richard.) to John Walton, Esq.

Joan, daughter and heir of Sir Richard Walton, (though as some records say, sister and heir, brought it by marriage to Sir John Howard, (alias John Howard, Esq.) son and heir of Sir John Howard, by Margaret his first wife, daughter and heir of Sir John Plaiz, who dying before his father in 1404, the said Joan remarried Sir Thomas Erpingham, and left at her death in 1424, Elizabeth, a daughter and heir, by Howard, who in 1428, was married to John Vere Earl of Oxford, and she being his widow, held it in the first of Edward IV. and on the death of John Vere Earl of Oxford in 1526, without issue, it came to his three sisters and coheirs; Elizabeth, married to Anthony Wingfeld; Dorothy, to John Nevill Lord Latimer, and Ursula to Sir Edward Knightly, which Ursula having no issue, this lordship was held by the Wingfelds and Lord Latimer.

Sir Robert Wingfeld had livery of a moiety of it in the 1st of Elizabeth, in which reign the other moiety was held by the Lord Latimer, who dying in 1577, his moiety came to his four daughters and coheirs; Catherine, married to Henry Percy Earl of Northumberland; Dorothy, to Thomas Cecil Earl of Exeter; Lucy, to Sir William Cornwallis, and Elizabeth to Sir John Danvers.

In the 29th of Elizabeth, Edward Coke, Esq. was lord, and in his family it still remains, the Right Honourable the Earl of Leicester died lord in 1759.

In the 3d of Henry III. Ralph de Rothinge held also in this town, and Wellingham half a fee of the Lord Fitz Walter, of the barony of Baynard, and William de Rothing claimed a right in the weekly mercate on Wednesday, and in the fair which was on the vigil, the day, and day after St. Margaret, as appears from a pleading in the 14th of Edward I.

EARL WARREN'S FEE.

In King Edward's time 5 freemen held one carucate of land, which Wimer (lord of Gressenhale) held at the survey under the Earl Warren: there belonged to it 7 borderers with 6 acres of meadow, 3 carucates and an half of land, paunage for 40 swine, and a fishery valued at 40s. but at the survey at 30s. this was by an exchange of lands at Leveis in Sussex; and the soc was in the King's manor of Mileham.

The family of De Firley held this under Wimerus, probably; and Philip de Firley was found, in the 3d of Henry III. to hold half a fee of Richard Foliot, a descendant of Wimerus, and Foliot of the Earl Warren.

Robert de Verli was lord and patron of the church in the 12th of that King, and Rob. de Verley claimed the assise of his tenants in the 3d of Edward I. Sir Philip de Verley granted in the 31st of the said King, to Sir Richard de Ely, rector of Tittleshale, and William de Patesle this manor, with the wards, heriots, &c. and the advowson of the church; witnesses, John Fitz-Gilbert, John Lestrangle, Peter Bozun, John de Allington, John de Bittering, Thomas de Sutton, Hamon de Caley, &c.

This was in trust, for in the following year they reconveyed it to Sir Philip and Julian his wife.

This Sir Philip writes himself in some of his deeds, de Totleshunt, a town in Essex, where he seems to have had his residence; and in a deed, dated ao. 6 Edward II. grants to Robert, son of John Prick, of Fresingfield in Suffolk, the advowson of this church, with an half acre of land.

In the said year, Sir Philip and Julian his wife, settled this lordship (excepting the advowson and the half acre of land aforesaid, which I presume was the churchyard) on Ralph de Bagthorp and Isabel his wife, and the heirs of Isabel, in tail, who was one of his daughters and coheirs, as it seems.

By another deed afterwards, he revokes his prior deed of the advowson, and grants it to Symon Prick his grandson, which Symon in the 7th of Edward III. conveyed it to Robert, son of Henry Bole of Euston, and Bole to Sir John de Norwood, parson of Ikelingham, and William his nephew, Robert Prick releasing and levying a fine thereof, in the 8th of the said King, and William also releasing; Sir John conveyed it to Roger de Wortham, parson of Tittleshale, and Peter Leche, rector, of the 3d part of Wellingham, by deed, dated in the 16th of Edward III.

After this, Peter releasing to Roger, he conveyed it to Sir Roger de Caston, parson of Regnham, William de Witchingham, John de Berney, Adam de Sheringham, and Henry Berney, who, in the 34th of the said King, had the license of Thomas Bishop of Norwich, and Sir Hugh de Hastings, Knt. chief lord of the fee, in pursuance of the statute of mortmain, to grant it to the prior and convent of Walsingham, with the license also of the Duke of Lancaster.

It seems that John de Norwode aforesaid, had King Edward's license to settle it on the master and scholars of St. Michael's-house in Cambridge, which being cancelled, the King, in his 33d year, granted license to convey it to the prior, &c. which was accordingly done in his 40th year, Robert Kemp being the attorney of Sir Roger de Caston, William de Wittingham, John de Berney, &c. to deliver seisin, and Roger de Worthing, the prior's attorney, to take it.

The advowson was thus separated from the manor, which appears to be in the Bagthorps, in the 20th of Edward III.

Isabel de Bagthorp was found to hold it by half a fee of Sir Hugh de Hastings, and he of the Earl Warren.

COXFORD PRIORY MANOR.

In the 9th year of King John, Hamo, the capellane, or chaplain, granted by fine, to Herebert, prior of Rudham, (that is to Coxford priory, being in Rudham parish,) 48 acres in Titleshate.

William de Rothing gave lands to it in the 17th of Edward I.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the prior of Coxford held half a fee of Sir Edward Hastings, lord of Gressenhale, and he of the king, as part of the dutchy of Lancaster; and in 1428, their temporalities were valued in this town, at 3l. 6s. 10d. ob.

In the 7th of Henry VIII. the prior had 60 acres of pasture lying in Pike-Hall pasture, and New-Hall pasture, with common and shack theretobelonging, all demised to Henry Farmer, Gent. of East Barsham.

At the Dissolution it was granted to Tho. Duke of Norfolk, by the King, on May 9, ao. 29 Henry VIII.

On the 14th of July, in the 9th of Elizabeth, Thomas Duke of Norfolk, demised to Humph. Bedingfeld of Quidenham, Esq. for 1000 years this lordship, with messuages, lands, &c. in Mileham, Wyssingset, Wellingham, and Litcham, part of the possessions of this priory; Bedingfeld sold it to William Yelverton, senior, Esq. about the 30th of the said Queen.

On the 22d of September, ao. 17th of Elizabeth, concealed lands in this town, Wyssingset, East Barsham, Tattersete, and Barmere, with tenements held by Robert Bozoun, belonging to this priory, were granted to John Herbert and Andrew Palmer.

NEW - HALL.

Edmund le Blund, and Elizabeth his wife, granted by fine, in the 36th of Edward III. to Robert Potter of Stratton, and Claricia his wife, the 4th part of the manor of Newhall.

John Bocking, in right of Cecilia his wife, daughter and coheir of William de Nerburgh, died seized of it in the 17th of Edward IV.

In the 35th of Henry VIII. Richard Bocking was found to hold the manor of Newhalle in Titleshate, of Catherine Hastings, widow, of the honour of Gressenhale, and of the dutchy of Lancaster.

John Heydon, Esq. son and heir of George Heydon, Esq. and Catherine his wife, kept his first court on July 20, in the 5th of Edward VI. which Catherine was daughter and heir of Richard Bocking.

CALEY'S AND GREYNSTON'S MANOR.

Simon de Greinston and Hamon Thornkyn, held one fee in this town, of Richard de Spalding, in the 3d of Henry III. and Richard (as is said) of the Earl of Gloucester.

In the 35th of Henry III. Reiner de Counte had free warren and a mercate, at Greinston, by which it appears that there was then a town or hamlet also of that name.

Peter de Caley and Margaret his wife, conveyed by fine lands here, to Richard, son of Ralph de Weseham, in the 52d of that King; and in the following year, the said Peter, &c. grant Hamo le Moyne, and Margery his wife, in tail, 40 acres of land, 3 of wood, and 8s. rent.

In the 15th of Edward I. John de Greynston claimed free warren in this lordship. In the 21st of the said King, Nicholas de Trowes, and Joan his wife, conveyed by fine to Hamon de Redenhale, and Camilla his wife, the 3d part of 15 messuages, a mill, 6 acres of meadow, 24 of pasture, 30 of wood, and 6l. rent in Titleshale, Greynston, Godwick, Wyssingset, and Pattesley, settled on Camilla.

In the 35th of that King, Roger de Greynston settled by fine, on John de Greynston of Titleshale, lands here.

Robert de Greynston and Ralph Caley held, in 20th of Edward III. one fee of the heirs of Gregory de Spalding, and he of the Earl of Gloucester, and the Earl of the King, which Simon de Greynston and Hamon Thornkyn formerly held; and Ralph Boteler held it in the 3d of Henry IV.

William Wayte of Titleshale seems to have some interest herein, and confirmed in the 5th of Henry V. to William Sterling, of this town, Walter Sterling of Bradenham, and Thomas Sterling of Tudenham, land butting on Greynston-Hall; and about the same time, Robert de Greynston and Ralph Caley are said to hold one fee of the heirs of Gregory de Spalding, and he of the Earl of Gloucester.

In the 16th of Henry VI. Walter Dorward, citizen of London and mercer, with Joan his wife, John Aggys, of Norwich, notary, and Thomas Stathe, chaplain, grant by deed, dated January 15. 36th Henry VI. to William Bozoun of Wyssingset, Esq. Gregory Gybon, Esq. and Thomas Daniel of Walsoken, the manor of Greynston and Caley's, with 40 acres of land called Yarleshaugh in Titleshale, which they had with Nicholas Derman, clerk, from John Botiler, Gent. of Norwich, and Alice his wife, by deed, dated May 6, in the 29th of that King.

By another deed of the same date, it appears that John Gerrard, citizen of Norwich and Margaret his wife, had an interest therein.

In the 14th of Edward IV. I find here a street, called Greynston street.

By the escheat rolls, in the 12th of Henry VII. William Wayte was found to die seized of the manor of Caley's, alias Greynston's; and in the following year, the manor of Greynston was found to be held by William Wayte, of the heirs of Jeffrey Spalding, by fealty, and the service of 2d. per ann.

William Wayte of Titleshale, Gent. son and heir of William, released to Sir Henry Farmour, Knt. William Farmour his son, and William Yelverton, jun. Esq. all his right in 77 acres of land, late his father's, whereof 25 lay in New-hall pasture, and 43 in Eastfield in this town, by deed, dated February 21, ao. 25 Henry VIII.

Sir William Farmour, Knt. of East-Barsham, sold to Henry Wayte of Titlesdale, Gent. and Robert Davy of Stanfield, yeoman, 100 acres of land in the fieldcourse or sheep pasture of Titlesdale or Mileham, belonging to the Earl of Arundel's manor of Mileham, with the liberty of two fold-courses thereto belonging, in the 7th of Edward VI.

In the 30th of Elizabeth, Henry Wayte, Gent. was lord, and had a præcipe to deliver to Thomas Scarlet, Gent. and Anthony Cocket, Gent. the manors of Greynston and Caleys, with messuages in this village, Mileham, Lytcham, Godwicke, Stanfield and Wissingset.

In the 37th of Elizabeth, Edward Coke, Esq. was lord of Greynston and Caleys, and so being united to the capital manor, was possessed by the Earl of Leicester at his death, in 1759.

PEAK-HALL.

This was part of the Earl of Richmond's manor of Horningtoft, as I take it, and extended here.

Sir Robert, son of Sir Peter de Tye, Knt. was lord of this manor of Titlesdale, and Lauwader in Weston, in Einford hundred, in the 49th of Edward III. and then enfeoffed Sir William de Kirdeston, Sir John de Mauteby, Sir Tho. de Bradwell, knights, herein, who granted to Sir Robert a lease of the same for 10 years, at 10 marks per ann. and died in or about the 6th of Richard II. in which year he made his will.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Tye held half a fee here; but in the 6th of Henry VI. John Berney, John Lynford, and William Graner, by deed, dated April 10, enfeoffed Sir John Fastolf, Knt. Sir Henry Inglose, Knt. William Paston of Paston, John Fastolf of Yarmouth, Esq. and John Kyrtling, clerk, in the manor of Peak-hall, in Titlesdale, Godwick, Wyssingset, Pattesley, Reynham, and Wellingham, formerly Sir Robert Tye's, Knt.

Sir John Fastolf, Knt. by his deed, dated April 20, in the same year granted an annuity of 20 marks per ann. for ever, to Berney, Lynford, and Graner, on condition that as long as the said Sir John and his heirs, after feoffment made by Richard Bozoun of Wyssingset, of his manor of Castre-Bozouns, in Castre, should enjoy the said manor of Castre, and not be ejected, it should cease, but if they shall be ejected out of the said manor, then the annuity to be levied.

In the 14th of Henry VI. the jury, on the death of John Beaufort Duke of Bedford, and lord of the honour, or Earl of Richmond, present that Richard Bozoun of Wyssingset, Esq. held in this town and Wyssingset, &c. a knight's fee of the said honour.

In the said year Richard Bozoun, and Richard Barret of Hecham, enfeoffed, June 18, Sir John Curson, Knt. John Champneys, parson of Welbourn, and John Rycheman, clerk, and their heirs, herein, which they had of the feoffment of Sir John Fastolf, Sir Henry Inglose, &c.

Richard Bozoun is said, by the escheat rolls, in the 35th of that King, to die seized of it; so that it is plain he had still some portion or interest in it.

In the 2d of Edward IV. April 24, Sir John Curson confirmed to Thomas Grey, Esq. of the body to that King, Walter Gorges, John Twyre, William Yelverton, Esq. Thomas Danyel of Walsoken, Thomas Gryce, Gregory Guybon, &c. this manor, with its villains, &c.

By an indenture, bearing date July 22, in the 26th of Henry VIII. between Sir William Paston on one part, and John Bozun, Esq. son and heir of John Bozun, Esq. late of Wyssingset, cousin and heir of Richard Bozun, of the other part, the said John sells to Sir William and his heirs, all his right in the manor of Peak Hall, and the manor of Bozun's in Castre.

The tenths were 5*l.* 4*s.* Deducted 1*l.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary. The ancient valor was 10 marks. ——— Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed in 1265, to the priory of Castleacre, two parts of the tithes of the demesns of Robert de Verly, and a pension of 46*s.* 8*d.* was paid for the same annually, by the rector. Peter-pence, 10*d.* The present valor is 9*l.* 12*s.* 7*d.*

In the chancel against the north wall is a marble monument raised altarwise, with the arms of Coke, per pale, azure and gules, three eaglets displayed, argent impaling quarterly, ermin and azure, a cross, or, Osborn.

WELLINGHAM

Is wrote Walnesham in the grand survey, being a ham with a Wet Ing, or Mound, against the water, as Walpole, Walton, &c. and was at that time the lordship of Ralph Lord Baynard, and owned by Harold in King Edward's time, who was afterwards King of England: 2 carueates of land then belonged to it, 9 villains, 3 borderers, 14 acres of meadow, one carucate in demean, &c. 2 amongst the men or tenants, paunage for 60 swines; 7 socmen held 20 acres of land, &c.

and 3 socmen of Stigand then belonged to it, who held of the King's manor of Mileham, and paid there all customary dues.

It was delivered up in Stigand's life to the Lord Baynard, by an exchange, as their men relate, who had a carucate and 40 acres of land.

The manor was valued in King Edward's reign at 20s. and 10 at the survey, and the soccage part then at 4s. at the survey at 40d.

The whole was one leuca long, 9 furlongs broad, and paid 10d. gelt, whoever was lord of it.<sup>7</sup>

BAYNARD'S FEE. FREVILL'S MANOR.

It appears by a pleading in the fourth of King John, that Michael Capra had granted by fine, in the 10th of Richard I. 2 carucates of land in this village, to William de Huntingfeld, and Isabel his wife, and the heirs of Isabel, to be held of Michael, of Baynard castle in London.

The family of De Capra, Cheffre or Chevere, as they are wrote, were lords of part of this town, and of Tittleshale, where a further account may be seen of them.

In the 3d of Henry III. Baldwin de Frevile held the fourth part of a fee of Walter Fitz-Robert; and at the same time Thomas Coble and his parceners held lands in soccage.

It is to our purpose to observe here, that William Lord Baynard, grandson to the aforesaid Ralph, taking part with Helias Earl of Mayne, Philip de Braose, William Malet, and other conspirators against King Henry I. forfeited his barony of Baynard, the head whereof was Baynard's castle, by the Thames side, to the south of St. Paul's cathedral, and which gives name to one of the wards of that city, which, on this forfeiture, was granted by that King, to Robert, a younger son of Richard Fitz-Gilbert, progenitor to the ancient Earls of Clare, from which Robert, the noble family of Fitz-Walter, barons of the realm, did descend.

In the 14th of Edward I. Baldwin de Frevill impleaded Ralph le Clerk to render an account of the stewardship which he held of him in this town, Wesensham and Lucham.

In the following year the jury find the said Baldwin to have free warren in his demean lands: he died lord in the 17th of the said King; and Alexander, as appears from the eschaet rolls, was his brother and heir.

This Alexander married Joan, daughter of Ralph de Crombwell, by Margery his wife, daughter and coheir of Philip Marmion of Scrivelby in Lincolnshire.

An agreement was made in the 6th of Edward II. between Sir Alexander Frevill, and Clementia L'Estrange, late wife of John L'Estrange; the said Alexander having let to her this lordship, and that of Wesenhams, for life; she covenants to keep all buildings in repair, and after 6 years to pay 40*l.* rent per ann. and if dying before the six years, her heirs to hold it under the same covenants, and for an income she paid 40 marks.

In the 17th of Edward III. Baldwin de Frevil held one fee, and Baldwin his son, was his heir; and the said Baldwin the son, was lord in the 20th of that King, and held it of the Lord Fitz-Walter.

The Frevills bore or, a cross flurt, gules.

Soon after this it came to the family of De Bello Prato, or Beaupre, and Thomas, son of Richard Beaupre,<sup>8</sup> presented to the rectory of the Tertia Pars of this church, in 1349.

This Richard was also a person of eminency in the county of Cornwall in this reign, and Thomas aforesaid, his son, appears to be a knight, in the year 1632, whose son, Nicholas, succeeded him, and held it of the Earl of Rutland in the 3d of Henry IV.

In the Beaupres it remained till the death of Edmund Beaupre, Esq. in 1567, the last heir male of that family.<sup>9</sup>

After this, it came to Sir Robert Bell, lord chief baron of the Exchequer, who was lord of this manor, in right of Dorothy his wife, one of the daughter's and coheirs of Edmund Beaupre aforesaid; and Edmund Bell, son and heir of Sir Robert, had livery of it about the 20th of Elizabeth.

Sir Edward Coke was lord in the reign of James I. John Coke, Esq. in 1659, and the Earl of Leicester was the late lord.

SOUTHALL

Was that part of this town which belonged to the Conqueror's manor of Mileham, held by the socmen of Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, on whose deposition it was granted by the King to Alan, son of Flaald, together with the capital manor of Mileham, soon after the survey; for at that time it appears to be in the Conqueror's hands, and farmed of him by William de Noiers.<sup>1</sup>

Alan was ancestor to the noble family of the Fitz-Alans Earls of Arundel, and granted this, with the hundreds of Launditch and South Greenhow, and other lordships, to Seward, ancestor of a family who assumed the name of L'Estrange.

William, son of Alan, granted or rather confirmed by deed sans date, to Durand, son of Ralph, son of Seward, the land of Wellingham, Bittering, and Sutton, for the payment of 8*s.* per ann.; witnesses, Robert, abbot of Salop, John Hamo, and Guy Extraneus, (L'Estrange), and in the 6th of Edward I. John son of Ralph L'Estrange of Lucham, conveyed to John, son of John L'Estrange of Lucham, a messuage with lands, and a mill in this town, and lands in Wesenhams, with the advowson of 2 parts of the church of Wellingham.

In the 33d of the said King, John L'Estrange of Lucham, and Clementia his wife held jointly by the feofment of John L'Estrange his father, a messuage and lands here of the heirs of Richard Fitz Alan Earl of Arundel, by the service of 10s. per ann. and Ralph was his brother and heir; and in the said year John de Stoncham, and Roger de Nketon, conveyed by fine to John L'Esrange, and Clementia<sup>2</sup> his wife, 44 messuages, 73 acres, of land, 12 of meadow, 45s. rent, and the rent of 6 quarters of barley, with 3 of oats, in this town, Wesenhams, and Fransham, with the advowson of the church of Wellingham.

In the 4th year of King Edward II. Ralph Le Strange granted by fine to John son of Gilbert, and his heirs, this manor and advowson, &c. which Clementia, widow of John Le Strange held for life, John granting to Ralph an annuity of 8*l.* with a clause of distress on the goods and chattels of the said John, in the towns of Lenne, South Lenne, and Welle; this John, son of Gilbert, was father of Richard, who was the first of his family who took the name of Beaupre from his lordship of Outwell, seated on rich meadow-lands and pastures; Thomas de Beaupre was son of Richard, and lord of both manors, viz. of Frevill's and Southall in this town, and a rent out of this manor is paid to the manor of Mileham.

Tenths 2*l.*—Deduct 6*s.* 8*d.*

The CHURCH of Wellingham is dedicated to St. Andrew, to which there belonged two rectories; one called the portion of John, who was rector in the reign of Henry III. valued at 7 marks per ann. this consisted of two parts of the tithes of the parish; the other called the portion of Roger, valued at 4 marks, which had the third part of tithes; the prior of St. Faith's at Horsham had a portion also of tithes valued at 6*s.* 3*d.* per ann.—The Peter-pence was 10*d.*

The rectory of the two parts seems to be in the Arundel's fee, and the third part in the fee of Baynard; and in the reign of King John Roger de Frevill impleaded Michael Capra, to show cause why he brought a Quare Impedit against him, and hindered him in presenting a proper person to the rectory of the third part of this church.

The present valor is 5*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.* and is discharged.

W E S E N H A M.

THE principal manor of this town was held under Stigand, the Archbishop of Canterbury, in his own right, as a lay fee, by twelve socmen, in King Edward's reign, who held 2 carucates of land, and 4 borderers; there were 4 carucates in the whole, 2 of which were demean land, and one acre of meadow: 3 carucates amongst the men, &c. valued at 40s. in King Edward's time, but at 60s. at the survey, which was on account of an exchange of land lately made; the whole was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 20d. gelt, whosoever was lord. Wimer was lord then, under the Earl Warren.<sup>4</sup>

EAST-HALL.

Of this Wimerus, who was dapifer to the said Earl, and enfeoffed by him in many lordships, a full account is given in Gressenhale; from Wimer's family and descendants it came to the Stutevills, then to the Foliots and Hastings; but on the death of John Hastings, Esq. of Gressenhale, (son of Sir Hugh Hastings;) his two sisters were his heirs; Anne, married to William Browne, Esq. second son of Sir Anthony Brown, master of the horse to King Henry VIII. &c. and Elizabeth, married to Hamou L'Estrange, Esq. of Huustanton; and on a division of the Hastings' inheritance, this lordship was assigned to Anne, the eldest sister and coheir, as in Gressenhall.

Anthony Brown was lord in 1572.

A descendant from the said William, was Thomas Brown, Esq.

<sup>3</sup> About this time the two rectories seem to be united.

From the Browns it came to Richard Jackson, Esq. the present lord, in 1757.

CASTLEACRE PRIORY MANOR.

This was made up of several benefactions to the said priory. In a charter of Will. the second Earl Warren, sans date, but about the year 1100, it appears that Wimer Dapifer, before mentioned, had given all the land which his nephew Jeffrey, the capellane, held of him, 2s. rent in land here, and 2s. in Gressinghale, to that priory.

Roger, son of William, dapifer, sewer or seneschal to the Earl Warren, gave lands, with the homages of certain persons for the soul of his father.

Drogo, son of William, dapifer, gave or confirmed the two churches of St. Peter and St. Paul of Wesensham, with the tithe of his demean, 14s. rent per ann. in land, and the tithe of Herbald his man.

Beringer de Cressi gave for his own soul and that of his wife, and that of his predecessors, who before him held land at Gaersighnehavill (Gressenhale) one mark rent here, and Ysabel his wife confirmed it; witnesses Hugh de Cressi, Robert de Mortimer, Richard de Besvill, Ralph de Bellomont, &c.

Ysabella de Gressinghale<sup>5</sup> quitclaimed to them the homage and tenement of Hugh de Crec in Wesensham; this Isabel was daughter and heir of William de Gressenhale, who was grandson to William, son of Roger, son of Wimer, which William assumed the name of De Gressenhale; she married first Beringer de Cressi; then William de Huntingfield, by whom (as I take) she had no issue, and after, Osmund de Stutevil; this Osmund, in his confirmation of the grants of the family of Wimer, &c. in or about the year 1220, excepts the advowsons of the churches of St. Peter and St. Paul, which had been granted to this priory, and in a deed sans date, with the assent and advice (as it is expressed) of Ysabel his wife, he confirms the donations of Wimer (herein called senescalli, senescal, or steward) de Gressenhale, of Roger, son of Wimer, and of Walter, son of Wimer, and of William, son of Roger, of Roger son of William, of Drogo his brother, of Beringer de Cressi, and whatever his men belonging to the honour of Gressenhale had granted to these monks, and gave himself, William, son of Alan de Wesensham, with all his family (tota sequela) and appertenances, and his tenement, also Harvey Salle, another villain, with his tenement, cum totâ sequelâ.

Ralph Fitz Stephen de Uppate, in Wesensham-Torp, (Thorp), gave a messuage, a croft, with land and rent here, and Richard, son of William de Wesensham, quitclaimed his right of foldage, for 14s. paid him, and for 6d. per ann.

Reiner, son of William de Acra, gave 6d. rent, which Richard Clerk of Wesensham held of him.

Durand l'Esrange, with the advice and consent of his heirs, and Prudence his wife, gave 5s. in Wesensham Torp.

<sup>5</sup> She was at this time the wife of William de Huntingfield, and this grant was with the consent of him.

Robert de Salle, with the assent of Roisia his wife, gave lands.

Roger de St. Denys quitclaimed for 20s. 7 acres of land here.

And in the 15th of Edward I. the prior, as lord, claimed the assise of bread and beer of his tenants, view of frank pledge, &c.

On the dissolution it came to the Southwells, as I take it; and then to the lord chief justice Coke, in whose family it still remains, the late Earl of Leicester dying lord in 1759.

Sir Richard Southwell, on May 5, A<sup>o</sup>. 37 of Henry VIII. had a grant of it, with the manors of Wendling, Swanton Noiers, Kerdeston, Brancastræ manor and advowson, and a portion of tithes in Burnham Depedale, in exchange for Haynford, Upton manor.

At the survey we find another lordship in this town belonging to the Conqueror, and farmed of him, or kept by Godric, consisting of a carucate of land and an acre of meadow held by four freemen, and 2 borderers belonged to it, with 2 carucates, in King Edward's time; but the soc belonged to Stigand's manor of Mileham, which was at the survey farmed, or kept by William de Noiers, as steward to the King, who was lord of Mileham, and this was valued in Sporle.<sup>6</sup>

NORTH HALL.

In the third year of Henry III. Thomas de Wesenham held half a fee of the honour of Mileham, which belonged to John L'Estrange, who held it of the Fitz Alans, Barons of Clun, and they in capite, of the King.

In the 10th of that King, Roger, son of Alan de Wesenham, conveyed the fourth part of a fee in Wesenham, and Wesenham Thorp, to Alan de Wesenham, to be held of the said Roger; and Gilbert de Wesenham, in the 26th of the said reign, paid half a mark fine for not accompanying the King into Gascoin.

Thomas Fitz Alan of Wesenham was lord in the 3d of Edward I. and claimed the assise of bread and beer, &c. of his tenants, and Robert Wesenham was lord in the 9th of Edward II.

In the 1st of Edward III. John de Bokenham, parson of Intwood, conveyed by fine to Roger de Wesenham and Cecilia his wife, the manor of Northall in Wesenham, and the rent of a moiety of a quarter of salt in Tirington, settled on them in tail; and in the 20th of that King the heirs of Roger were found to hold the fourth part of a fee of John de Harsick, and he of the Earl of Arundel, which Thomas de Wesenham formerly held.

Of this family, and probably lord of this manor, was Sir John de Wesenham, Knt. who in the 23d of the said, King, being then the King's butler, (Pincerna Regis,) had a grant or license to take 12d. of every hogshead, and 2s. of every pipe of wine imported into England by merchant-strangers, who being also a rich merchant of London had about this time the King's crown in pawn; and in the 34th of the said reign was with Sir Robert de Causton, in commission to seize all ships from the mouth of the Thames northward, to the King's use,<sup>7</sup> and to provide them with men at arms, archers, &c. to resist the French, then threatening an invasion; and in the 2d year of Richard II. John de Wesenham and Petronilla his wife, conveyed by fine this lordship to John de Leverington.

Soon after this, it came to the Beaupres, and Nicholas Beaupre, Esq. was, in the 3d of Henry IV. found to hold the fourth part of a fee of the Earl of Arundel.

In the 24th of Henry VIII. Nicholas Beaupre, Esq. of Outwell, was lord of Northall manor in this town, and Edmund his son, conveyed it by fine, in the 30th of that King, to Nicholas Rookwood, Esq. and not long after we find it in the family of the Southwells; and in the year 1560, Sir Richard Southwell was lord of Northall manor, and paid a rent of 27s. to the lord of East-Hall, due from that of Northall.

In the 40th of Elizabeth it was possessed by Edward Coke, Esq. afterwards lord chief justice, lord also of Northall-Kyptons, Wesenham-Kypton, Wesenham-Castleacre, Fulchers, Molls, and Gamages, and John Coke was lord in 1659, in which family it remained, the right honourable the Earl of Leicester being the late lord.

I have seen an old writing wherein it is said that Edric held, in the time of the Confessor, 80 acres of land in this town, with a church of 18 acres valued at 18*d.* and Edric had added to it two socmen; that afterwards Ralph Earl of Norfolk, and the King had the soc, and it was valued at 5*s.* but at the survey Ralph had forfeited his right, and Godric held it of Alan Earl of Richmond.

In a valuable copy of the Book of Domesday, for this county, which I have consulted under the titles of the King's land, and that of Godric, held for the King, also that of Alan Earl of Richmond, I have not met with the account as above represented: that there was land in this town belonging to the Earl of Richmond I shall show, but then it belonged to the lordship of Horningtoft, which extended into Wesenham.

Horningtoft was at the survey a very considerable lordship, and farmed of, or kept by Godric, for the King, and was not granted to the Earl of Richmond till after the survey, as appears from the state of that town in the Book of Domesday, and for a proof of this I refer the reader to my History of Horningtoft.

By a fine levied in the 3d of Henry III. Peter de Nereford granted to John de Nereford, a carucate of land here, and Thomas Buhord was querent, and Simon de Rudham and Emme his wife, deforciant, in a fine levied in the 15th of the said King at Westminster, before Thomas de Muleton, William de Raleigh, Robert de Lexington, William de London, Mr. Robert de Shardelow, Ralph de Norwich, William de Ebro, and Richard Reing, justices, of certain customs and services for lands in Wesenham-Thorp, Thomas requiring Simon to pay 8*s.* per ann. and foreign service, with 8*d.* at the feast of St. Botolph, to the custody of Richmond castle, and that they should make a feast at Christmas, and carry his arms at the charge of the said Thomas, as often as the King was with his army, also by this fine, Simon and his wife released to Thomas 5 acres of land here.

Roger de la Ware impleaded several persons in the 10th of Edward I. for lands in Hoy Wesenham, Rugham Magna and Parva, and Fran-sham, as his right, whereof his ancestors were seized in the time of King John, and before this, in the 3d of the said reign, when a Quo Warranto was issued out, the lord of this manor claimed assise, &c.

Nicholas de Castello, or Castell, and Cecilia his wife, purchased in the 19th of Edward I. of Thomas Burt of Horningtoft, several lands, with a mill, on the death of Sir William de la Ware and Arabella his wife: see in Horningtoft, and in Kypton.

The temporalities of Castleacre priory in 1428, were 2*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.* ob.; of Westacre 8*s.* 9*d.*; of Massingham priory 5*s.*

Concealed lands in Wesenhams Thorp belonging to the rectory, granted by the abbot of Wendling to John Corbet, paying 3*s.* 4*d.* per ann. were given by Queen Elizabeth, February 9, in her 12th year, to Nicholas Mynn.

William, the third Earl Warren, &c. confirmed to the monks of Castleacre the advowson of the churches of Wesenhams Thorp, All-Saints, and St. Peter's, with the appertenances, and the title of the demeans of Wimer, the dapifer;<sup>8</sup> and Eborard Bishop of Norwich confirmed the same.

Also Drogo, son of William the sewer of Gressenhale, confirmed the gift of his father of the said two churches; but after this, their right of presentation seems to be contested, and by a fine levied in the 40th of Henry III. John, the prior, and convent of Castleacre, conveyed to William de Stutevile, lord of this town, the advowson of the said two churches, with that of East Lexham, and Stutevile granted back to the prior the church of St. Andrew of East Lexham, with the yearly rent of a mark, to be paid by Richard de Bavent and his heirs, out of lands held of Stutevile in Ansing, (Elsing), and Tudenham, reserving also to the prior the old pension out of the said churches of Wesenhams, before Henry de Bath, Mr. Simon de Wanton, Robert de Shotindon, and John de Cokefeld, the King's justices. And in the following year the said two churches were granted by fine, to the abbey of Wendling, by the said William de Stutevile, and were after appropriated to the said abbey, and vicarages were established.

By the consent of the Bishop of Norwich, a composition was made in 1326, by which the prior of Castleacre let to perpetual farm to the abbot and convent of Wendling two parts of the tithes of the garbs (or corn tithes) of the demeans which formerly belonged to William de Stutevile, and Alan Fitz Roger, and Jeffrey his son, and of John Lambert, in the fields of Wesenhams, for 4*l.* sterling per ann. viz. to the prior 40*s.* to the sacrist 40*s.* payable on the feast of St. John Baptist, dated on Saturday next after the feast of St. Scolastica the Virgin.<sup>9</sup>

The ancient valor the rector of the church of All-Saints was 18 marks, and St. Peter's 20 marks: and they paid 20*d.* Peter-pence; the present valor of these two vicarages united is 15*l.* 9*s.* 11*d.*

RECTORS.

Roger de Huntingfeld occurs rector in the time of John of Oxford, Bishop of Norwich, about 1190, of All-Saints and St. Peter's.

Master Lambert was instituted parson of St. Peter's with the chapel of St. Paul annexed, also of the church of St. Andrew of East Lexham, presented by Hugh, the prior, and the convent of Castleacre, about the year 1195.

Adam de Walsingham was rector of St. Peter's in the 12th of Henry III. when a fine was levied between him and Roger, son of Matthew, who granted 4 acres of land, and 9 in this town, to his church; and in the said year Matthew, son of Pagan de Wesenham conveyed by fine to Adam aforesaid, 6 acres, Adam paying 10*d.* per ann.

Mr. Wilson in 1720.

1729, John Franklyn, the present vicar, by the King.

At the south-east end of the nave, or body of the church, was the stone stair-case leading up to the old rood loft; over the door or entrance I saw some years past an old painted board with the portraiture of King Henry VI. painted thereon, in his robes, with the arms of France and England, quarterly, and with an antelope at his feet.

On the screen under the rood loft, which has been well painted and ornamented, with the figures of Saints,

This church of All-Saints, called South Wesenham church, has a nave, north isle, and chancel, and a square tower.

The church of St. Peter's has a nave, north and south isle, with a chancel, covered with lead.

WISSINGSET.

So called as set or seated in a wet watery meadow, and was granted by the Conqueror to Roger Bigot, one of his chieftains, ancestor to the Bigots, Earls of Norfolk, and held of him by Ralph, son of Walter, with 3 carucates of land for a lordship; which nine freemen were owners of in King Edward's reign, when 8 villains belonged to it, 6 borderers, 4 servi, with 15 acres of meadow, and 4 carucates; two of which were demean lands, and 2 were held by the tenants; paurage for 100 swine, the fourth part of a fishery, 2 beasts for burden, 12 cows, 40 sheep, 36 goats, and 7 bees skeps, valued then at 40s. at the survey at 60s. three of these freemen belonged to the soc of the King's manor of Mileham; the whole was half a leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 10*d.* gelt, whoever was possessed of it.<sup>1</sup>

Sir Henry Spelman, in his Icenia, says that Hubert Bozun, a Norman, who came into England with the Conqueror, and was his chief fletcher, had a grant from him of this lordship, for his services, but this appears to be a mistake.

The first of the family that we meet with in ancient records, is Herbert or Hubert Buzun, who lived in the reign of King Stephen, &c. and granted by deed sans date, to the monks of Castleacre, 8 acres of land, with the assent of his son Roger; <sup>2</sup> which Hubert probably descended from Ralph, son of Walter, who was enfeoffed herein by Roger Bigot.

Boujon in French signifies an arrow, with a great or broad, head, and for some eminency and excellency in the use of such a weapon, the ancestor of this ancient family might assume this name, or hold some lordship or fee by it, and on that account they might bear, as we find, for their arms, argent, three boujons, gules, feathered, and knobbed or, headed, or.

In the Red Book of the Exchequer, under the title of Serjeanteria, in Drakelowæ, Derbyshire, William de Gresley held a manor

P. unum arcum sine corda, et pharetra, et duodecim sagittas, et unum bozonem.

Roger Bozun was living in 1202, son of Hubert, and purchased lands in Ovington, in Norfolk, by fine.

In 1227, Robert de Saham granted to Peter Buzun, son of Roger, the advowson of the church of Ovington, which Peter, in or about 1233, was with William Rustain, a collector of the aid, in Norfolk and Suffolk, granted to King Henry III. for marrying his sister to the Emperor.

In the 41st of Henry III. John Buzun was presented as holding a knight's fee, and to be of full age, and not a knight: and in the 48th of that King, had a grant of a free warren in all his demean lands here and in Ovington.

After this time, or about 1270, an agreement was made between Peter Buzun, lord of Wyssingset, and Sir Thomas Burt, lord of Horningtoft, about the extent of their commons; the arbitrators on Sir Thomas's part were John, son of William de Rucham, John Atteford de Hoe, and Heury de Brisley, and on Peter's part were James de Munesle de Langham, Robert de Thornekyn de Mileham, and William Godfrey of Frausham.

Alexander, son of Adam Buzun of Wyssingset, granted by deed sans date, to Peter Buzun, son of Sir John Buzun of Wyssingset, and Alice, and their heirs, for 20 marks, a messuage, and lands here, with common of pasture, where the freemen of the town had right of common: witnesses, Sir Robert de Caston, Sir Hervey de Vallibus, (or Vaux;) Sir Hamon de Pattesle, &c.

This Peter, then a knight, died (as I take it) about the 16th of Edward I. and was then found to hold three knights fees of Sir John de Vaux, and he of Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk.

Peter (son of Sir Peter) Buzun was lord in the 19th of Edward I. and in 1308, he and Sarah his wife held the lordship of Yelverton in Norfolk; and of this family were the Buzuns of Devonshire, who held in the reign of Henry III. certain knights fees of the honour of Totness, and Sir Alexander Buzun, in the time of Edward I. and Alexander Buzun, who in the 17th of Edward III. conveyed the manor of Rokesden in Bedfordshire, to Robert de Chelveston in trust, and sealed with three bird bolts, and after settled the said manor on John his son, by Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Mordaunt, his wife in tail.

Peter Buzun, then a knight, was lord here in the 14th of Edward II. and presented to this church, and died before the 11th of Edward III. when Sarah is styled his widow, and was succeeded by In. his son, who on the inquisitions taken in the 20th of the said King, held 2 fees and a half, and one quarter of a fee of the Lord Ross, (who married one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir John de Vaux;) and he of the Earl-Marshal, and the Earl of the King; and in 1358, he presented to this rectory: soon after this he seems to have died, leaving William his son and heir, who in the 45th of Edward III. granted to John his son, and Joan his wife, daughter of Rich. Spynk, late citizen of Norwich, this manor, with the advowson of this church to them and their heirs, saving to the said William 10 marks, by deed dated on Monday after the feast of St. Bartholomew; witnesses, Sir Oliver Calthorp, Knt. Jeffrey de Frausham, Robert Scoggan, Eamund de Norton, Edmund de Bintre, Adam de Billingsford, &c.

This John was likely that John Bozun, who in the 53d of the aforesaid King, was in the retinue of John de Montague, and about travelling into foreign parts, had the King's letters of protection, and in 1380 presented to this church.

William Bozun was his son and heir, lord of this town, and of Greinston's in Tittlehale; he was living in the 10th of Richard II. and Maud his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Richard de Belhouse, John, his son, and Margaret his daughter.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Bozun, Esq. was lord, and in the 11th of that King, held it of the Lord Ross, and he of the Lord Mowbray.

Richard Bozun, Esq. was lord in the 5th of Henry V. probably brother of the aforesaid John: he married Margaret, daughter and heir of Richard Chape or Chapys, Esq. who bore gules, a fess undee, between six billets, argent: by his will dated January 4, 1450, and proved March 5, following, he bequeaths his body to be buried in the chancel of this church; <sup>3</sup> Margaret his wife survived him, (and married John Pecoock of Norwich;) by whom he had William his son and heir, who married Alice, daughter of Stephen Guybon, of North Lynn, and in the 36th of Henry VI. Thomas Danyel, Esq. of Walsoken, son of Laurence Danyel, Gregory Guybon, Robert Fyucham, and Thomas Curson, Esq. released to James Gresham their right in this lordship and advowson, which they had of the feoffment of William Bozun, Esq. now living, dated on Friday before Christmas; his will is dated October 12, 1460, and desires to be buried in the churchyard of Wyssyngset; gives legacies to John his son, Alice his wife, (who afterwards married William Rokewood, Esq.) to Sir Thomas his brother, a monk, and Constance his sister, a nun; <sup>4</sup> also to his wife this manor and advowson for life, and that of Ovington, after the decease of his mother Margaret, to his son John.

This John married Elianore, daughter of Sir Edward Woodhouse, of Kymerley, relict of Edmund Hastings, Esq. and was living in 1493, but in the 22d of Henry VII. was remarried to Thomas Cressener, John dying in 1489.

He was succeeded by John Bozoun, Esq. his son and heir, who married Elizabeth, daughter of — Rouncey, of Britainy in France; and by an indenture made July 22, in the 20th of Henry VIII. John Bozoun, Esq. son and heir of John Bozoun, Esq. late of Wissingsset deceased, cousin and heir of Richard Bozoun, sell to Sir William Paston the manor of Bozouns in Castre, and John Bozoun, Esq. presented in 1555.

He left Robert his son and heir,<sup>5</sup> who presented in 1567, and in 1577, and married Elizabeth, daughter of Humphrey Kerville, Esq. of Wygenhale St. Mary's, in Norfolk, by whom he had Roger his son and heir, who married Anne, daughter of Sir Hamon L'Estrange, of Hunstanton in Norfolk; and in the 6th year of James I. in consideration of a marriage between Hamon his son and heir, and Frances, daughter of Sir Thomas Playters, of Soterley in Suffolk, settles this manor and advowson on his son and heirs, in reversion, after the decease of himself and Anne his wife.

Hamon Bozoun, Esq. had by Frances his wife, 3 sons, Thomas, Roger, William, and several daughters, as appears from the will of Roger his father, dated Jan. 25, 1623; Eliz. married to Christ. Crowe, Esq. of East Bilney; Anne, to Bartholomew Johnson, of Bittering; Catherine to William Harman of Stanhow; Susan, to Thomas Goodrick, Gent. of North-Creake; and Frances to Edmund Brigs of Bradfield.

Thomas Bozoun, Esq.<sup>6</sup> son and heir of Hamon, sold, in 1657, to Catherine Calthorpe, widow, and 2d wife of James Calthorp, Esq. of East Barsham, this manor: she was daughter and coheir of Sir Edward Lecwenor, of Denham in Suffolk, and settled it on her 2d son, James Calthorp, Esq. of the Middle Temple, who was lord in 1708, and died unmarried, January 19, 1716, and buried at East Barsham.

From the Calthorps it came, by the two daughters and coheirs of Sir Christopher Calthorp, to Sir Thomas L'Estrange, Bart. and on his death, to his brother, Sir Henry, the late lord.

The Earl of Richmond's manor of Horningtoft extended into this. Tho. Burt, son and heir of Sir Hamon Burt, lord of Horningtoft and of the 4th part of Wyssingset, by deed, sans date granted to James, son of Henry de Halmo, of this town, lands, with a free foldage in the fields, free bull and free boar, paying 2d. per ann.

John Lyngce, alias Bradele, granted in the 35th of Henry VI. to John Radclyff of Attylborow, William Warsop of Framlingham, Esq. and Joan Lyng, alias Bradele, all his lands, rents, services, with the liberty of a moiety of a foldcourse in this town, Horningtoft, and Godwick.

This soon after came to the Bozouns, and was soon after united to the capital lordship.

The tenths were 3l. 2s. Deducted 6s.

Eborard Bishop of Norwich is said to have confirmed this church to the said priory; and the rector was obliged to pay 40*s. per ann.* pension, for the tithes of the aforesaid demesans.

W E N D L I N G.

So called, as lying by meadows on a winding water, or rivulet, was the manor of the abbot of Bury, in the time of the Confessor, and at the survey was held of the abbot by Richard, or Ricaiard; it consisted of a carucate of land, 2 villains, 6 borderers, 6 acres of meadow, and one carucate in demean, and one carucate and an half amongst the tenants, pannage for 100 swine; and one socman had 12 acres; there was also one borderer and a carucate in King Edward's time, at the survey but half a carucate, one mill, &c. valued then at 20s. but at the survey at 30s. was 9 furlongs long and six broad, and paid 11*d.* ob. gelt.<sup>1</sup>

In the sixth year of Richard I. a fine was levied on the day after St. Alphege's, before Hubert Walter Archbishop of Cantebury, Richard Nigel Bishop of London, Gilbert Glanvile Bishop of Rochester, Herbert, son of Hervey, William de Warren, Richard de Wiat, and Thomas de Huseburn, the King's justices, between William de Huntingfeld and Isabel his wife, and the abbot of Bury, whereby Will. and Isabella quitclaimed all their right in this town, and advowson of the church, to the abbot, on which the abbot conveyed to him and his wife, and their heirs, the whole township of Wendling, to be held of the said abbot and his successors, by the service and payment of 60s. rent per ann. and they were to hold the men and tenants of the town, by the same services and customs which they performed to the abbot's predecessors, before William, son of Roger de Gressinghale, held the same.<sup>2</sup>

This Isabel was daughter and sole heir of William de Gressinghale, lord of Gressinghale, of whom see there.

In 1218, William de Saham, clerk, son of Robert de Saham, held lands in this town, and was a benefactor to Wendling abbey, as I shall shew.

In the Register Niger of Bury abbey is an entry of a deed of grant of John de Norwold, abbot, about the year 1298, of 50s. per ann. rent, to William, son of Ralph de Saham, clerk, which the convent received of Sir Jordan Foliot, lord of this town, and of the honour of Gressinghale; witnesses, Sir Jordan de Saukevill, then steward of the liberty of Bury abbey, Sir Osbert de Caylly, Sir Robert de Cateston, Sir Warin de Hereford, Sir Ralph de Alneto, Sir Laurence de Offington, knights, Robert Norwold, William de Badham, and Richard de Saham; and in the 5*d.* of Edward I. Sir Adam Foliot, lord, had the assize, &c.

HEREFORD'S MANOR.

This was held of the honour of Gressenhale, and extended into this town; Thomas de Hereford possessed it in 1277, and Sir Warin de Hereford in 1300. It afterwards came to the Ferrouws, and John Ferrour died seized of it in 1483, as may be seen in Hereford manor in Gressenhale.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich, October 27, in the 13th of Charles I. Hamon Ferrour, Gent. was found to die possessed of a capital messuage, divers closes and lands in this town and Gressenhale, held of the manor of Gressenhale in soccage, and paying 20s. per ann. he died August 9, 1637, and by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of — — Sheringham, left six daughters and coheirs; Mary, aged 20, Martha, Elizabeth, Honorina, Anna, and Judith.

CASTLEACRE PRIORY MANOR.

This was made up of benefactions granted to the convent. William de Stutevile, lord of Gressenhale, granted in the 29th of Henry III. to the prior and convent, all his right in all the lands and tenements which the prior, &c. and their men held in villanage, in the towns and fields of Wendling, and Hinghesham, and all purprestures made by the prior and his men, to Easter-day in the said year; and the prior remitted to William all the land which his men held in villanage of the prior, in the said towns, and all purprestures there made, to the said time;<sup>3</sup> and also gave to William 40s. of silver; witnesses, Sir Thomas Burt, Sir Peter Fleming, knights, Ralph Burt, Jeffrey Crowe, Hugh de Wyrested, Reginald de Geyton, William de Acra, &c.

Richard de Cambeys, by deed, sans date, gave for the soul of Gilbert Earl of Gloucester, and his own soul, Dychewode.

John, son of Robert, gave, by his deed, sans date, Anschetel, and his land.

William and Jeffrey Smith, gave lands. William, son of Lefenn, gave meadow grounds, and William, son and heir of Jeffrey Gogneck, a tenement, sans date. William, son of Walter de Gressinghale, gave 6 acres of land in Kirtling, with the rent of 8d. per ann.; witnesses, Sir Eudo Harsick, and Alexander his son.

William, son of Hubert Hunter, of Gressinghale, gave 6 acres in Kirtling and the rent of 8d. per ann. which William, son of Walter, his cousin, was to pay him.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior had free warren here and in Herringshaw, assise of bread and beer, view of frank pledge, &c.

In 1428, their temporalities here were valued at 5l. 17s. per ann. and on the dissolution it was granted by Thomas, prior of Castleacre, to King Henry VIII. by fine, in his 29th year.

In the 35th of that King it was granted to Robert Hogan, Esq. and Thomas his son and heir held it in the 2d of Edward VI. and had then license to alien two closes here, called Some's, and Little Gunston's, to Bridget Hogan, and Wendling close to Thomas Caton.

The tenths were 1l. 19s. Deducted 6s.

WENDLING ABBEY

Was founded about the 52d year of King Henry III. by Sir William de Wendling, called in some records Clerk, son of William, and in others, son of John de Wendling: he seems to be the same William de Wendling who was one of the King's judges or justices, (as appears from a pleading or an assise at Thetford, in the 55th year of the said King, on Wednesday after the feast of St. Matthew, Gilbert de Preston, William de Wendling, and Henry de Ryveshale, associates to the said Gilbert.) for canons of the Premonstratensian order, or that of St. Norbert, and dedicated to St. Mary the Virgin.

One William de Wendling, clerk, was master of the hospital of St. Cross, near Winchester, in the 23d of Edward I. and one William de Wendling farmed the manor of Brandon Ferry in Suffolk, of Hugh Bishop of Ely, in the 43d of Henry III.

Sir William de Wendling, son of William de Wendling, gave them the church of St. Clement of Conisford in Norwich, with several houses near to it, and a key or stathe, which Simon, abbot of Langley in Norfolk, at the request of Sir Jeffrey de Lodnes, and for 3s. annual rent, confirmed to the said Sir William, who in 1267, settled it, with 10 acres of land in Wendling, (on which the abbey was built,) with 3s. rent in Baldeswell, on this abbey, (founded, as Blomfield says,* on his manor of Wendling.) by fine levied between himself and Nicholas, abbot there, Gilbert de Fraunsham, capital lord of the fee, being present in the court and consenting.

It does not appear that Sir William had any lordship here. Gilbert de Fraunsham's manor of Fraunsham Magna extended into this town, and gave his consent as lord of part of the land belonging to his fee.

The principal lord here was Robert de Stotevile, son of William de Stotevile, lord of the honour of Gressenhale, who granted to God, and the church of St. Mary of Wendling, in 1273, the whole site of the new work of the abbey church there, saving to himself and to his heirs, the patronage of it.

Sir William de Wendling also in 1267, settled on Nicholas, abbot of Wendling, and his successors, 5 messuages, 87 acres of land, a mill, and 10s. rent, &c. in Scarning; he also granted to them the church of Langham, which was appropriated to them, and that of Wendling, as I take it.

He was rector of Bodham in Holt hundred; and in the 41st of Henry III. William de Wendling, clerk, was the King's escheator.

William de Saham, in 1281, settled divers lands and tenements in Wendling, on the abbot and canons, on condition that they paid 5 marks per ann. to his chantry chaplain, officiating in his chapel of St. Andrew of Saham Tony.

This William was a justice itinerant in 1276, and in 1282 justice of the King's Bench.

In the 53d of Henry III. they had a patent for the patronage of a moiety of Barnham Up, Barnham All-Saints, and St. Margaret's, and the advowson of Yaxham.

The abbot and convent had also a lordship in Feltwell, Norfolk, and the lordship of Guntou's in Skerning.

In 1330, the Lady Margaret Foliot, patroness of it, was buried before the high altar in the presbytery of the conventual church, on the north side.

The donations of the founder, with those of Reyner de Gimmingham, Robert de Stutevil, and Jordan Foliot, knights, were in the 6th of Edward III. confirmed.

ABBOTS.

Nicholas occurs abbot in 1267, and the first, as I take it.

Robert occurs abbot in 1286, and 1314.

John, abbot, resigned 1329.

William de Saxlingham, admitted abbot, by the Bishop of Norwich, in 1329.

John de Norwich, abbot, died 1339.

Thomas de Tittlehale, admitted in 1339, and occurs in 1352.

John occurs abbot in 1377, and 1398.

Ralph occurs abbot, and kept his first court at Feltwell, on Tuesday after the feast of St. Margaret, in the 10th of Henry V.

Edmund Elmham, abbot, kept his first court there on Thursday after the feast of St. Paul, in the 7th of Henry VI. and occurs in the 5th of Edward IV.

John Scherning, abbot, kept his first court on Thursday before the feast of St. Gregory, in the 14th of Edward IV. was instituted rector of Fransham Magna in 1448, and occurs in 1503, when he died.

John occurs abbot in 1509.

Thomas Walsoken, abbot, kept his first court on Wednesday before the feast of St. Thomas the Martyr, in the 19th of Henry VII.

At this time there were 6 canons here.

Richard Rolston, canon of Welbeck, kept his first court on Thursday before the feast of St. Ambrose, in the 20th of Henry VII. and occurs ao. 19 Henry VII.

John Yorke, abbot, kept his first court on Monday after the feast of St. Dominica in Abbis, in the 24th of Henry VII.

Thomas occurs abbot in 1533.

At the Dissolution it was valued at 55*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* per ann. and was seated in a marsh or low ground, with a small rivulet to the south; the entrance into the abbey court was on the west, which court was on the north side of the conventual church, and the churchyard, both of these taking in about 2 acres of ground.

The church, as well as it can now be traced, (most of the very foundation stones being dug up and carried away to mend the roads) was, together with the presbytery, or chancel, about 72 paces long, and with the north and south isles, about 18 broad; part of the wall of the west end of the church is still standing, covered with ivy, and the wall of the churchyard was close to the river, running south of it. Not long before its suppression, here were an abbot and 6 canons.

A late author says that it was granted by Queen Eliz. in her 16th year, to Edward Dyer, Esq.<sup>5</sup>

Sir Henry Spelman observes that it was not dissolved by the statute or act of Henry VIII. but before the general dissolution, by a bull of Pope Clement VII. dated May 14, 1528, and granted to Cardinal Wolsey for the erection of his two colleges, of Christ-church in Oxford, and that of Ipswich, and was farmed of Christ college, by Thomas Hogan, Esq. of East Bradenham.

On the 11th of December, King Henry, in his 38th year, granted it to the dean and chapter of Christ-church in Oxford, on his own foundation.

The King had granted it again, in his 37th year, May 5th, to Sir Richard Southwell, who reconveyed it, on an exchange for other lands, in the 38th of the said King, and remains at this time in the dean, &c. aforesaid.

This is to be understood of the manor and lands in Wendling, and not of the appropriation.

The CHURCH of Wendling was appropriated to the abbey, valued at 5 marks, paid Peter-pence, 2*d. ob.* and dedicated to St. Peter and St. Paul. The late Earl of Leicester was impropriator.

It is covered with lead and has a square steeple, with 3 bells; on one, in old characters,

Johannes de Suddine fecit me. Ave Maria gratia plena D'ns tecum.

Here are several gravestones,

In memory of Mr. Farrou Markant, who died June 6, 1675.

Of Thomas Markant, gent. who died, aged 52, 1649.

Of John Hammont, gent. who died November 13, 1678, aged 20.

Of Hillary Forby, who died November 26, 1658, aged 59.

Of Hil. Forby, jun. who died December 24, 1673, aged 13.

Of Mrs. Mary Forby, who died July 21, 1677, aged 22.

I have seen a writing expressing that this impropriate rectory was granted by Queen Elizabeth, in her 4th year, with that of Langham, to Arthur Futter, Gent. and that concealed lands belonging to it were granted in her 12th year, February 9, to Nicholas Wynns.

William Futter was impropriator in the 35th of Elizabeth, and soon after Sir Edward Coke purchased it, 1630.

K I R T L I N G.

IN the Conqueror's book of Domesday, we find a town or place of this name, held by Stigand in King Eward's time, and then in the Conqueror's hand, and farmed or took care of for him, by William de Noiens: it then consisted of two socmen, 17 acres of land, and one of meadow; in King Edward's time there was also half a carucate, but not at the survey, and was valued with Stigand's manor of Mitcham, then in King Edward's hands, who afterwards gave it, with the manor of Mileham, to Alan, son of Flaald, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel.<sup>6</sup>

The monks of Castleacre held two parts of the tithes of William de Kirtling, in the reign of Henry III.

This manor or place was valued in Mileham as a beruite to it, and probably stood near to that town in this hundred, (where it is mentioned by the survey) and as I find it named with certain other gifts in this hundred to the priory of Castleacre, I have thought it proper here to insert it.

William, son of Walter de Gressinghale, gave 6 acres of land in Kirtling, with the rent of 8*d.* per ann. to the said priory.

William, son of Hubert Hunter, of Gressinghale, gave 9 acres in Kirtling, and the rent of 8*d.* per ann. which William, son of Walter his cousin, was to pay him.

LODDON HUNDRED.

IN Domesday Book wrote Lothna, Loddinga, and Lothinga, its site being among low, watery meadows: thus Lothbury in Bucks. This hundred and that of Clavering, were united together, and in the Crown, and lie between the two great rivers of the Yar, on the north, and the Waveney on the south. In the 7th year of King Henry III. Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk had the royalty of the river Waveney, (which parts the county of Norfolk from Suffolk;) between the 2 towns of Beccles and Bungey. In the 34th of the said King, the two hundreds were farmed of the Crown, at 22*l.* and in the 52d at 24*l. per ann.*

Sir John de Clavering had a grant, in the 2d of Edward I. to farm them, and held them in the 9th of that King, and in the 14th of the said King, valued at 20*l. per ann.*

Loddon is the name of a river in Herefordshire, and Berkshire.

The reader is to observe that the following towns in this hundred, are as they were accounted in the book of Domesday, and as they stood there at that time, and belonged to it.

A S H B Y.

SIX freemen and the moiety of six other freemen under the commendation of Aslac, and Lefric held here a carucate and an half, and 20 acres of land; on their expulsion, Ralph Earl of Norfolk had a grant of it: on his rebellion and forfeiture, the King granted it to Godric his steward, who had also 5 acres, held by a freeman, and the moiety of another.<sup>1</sup>

William de Cheney was lord afterwards of it, and of Claxton, and Helgeton, and so came to the Cressys, and the family of Kerdeston was enfeoffed of it, from whom it came to the De la Poles, Dukes of Suffolk, &c. the Gaudys, &c. as in Claxton.

Roger Bigot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, had a grant of lands which 10 freemen of Suetman were deprived of, being 30 acres, with a carucate and two acres of meadow; and there were 27 acres and a carucate, which 7 freemen had, the moiety of them was in Swetman. and Robert de Vaux held it under Roger Bigot.

Robert de Vaux held also under Roger, one socman, with 4 acres and 2 bovates, valued at 6*d.*

Robert de Vaux held under Roger 9 acres of land, which 2 freemen of Algar were deprived of, who ploughed it with 2 oxen.

The town was 9 furlongs, long, 5 broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt.<sup>2</sup>

The family of De Helgeton were enfeoffed of this lordship. In the 20th of Henry III. Sir William de Helgeton was found to hold half a fee in this town, Claxton and Helgeton, which was Thomas de Helgeton's, son of Herbert de Helgeton, and the Earl of Gloucester's manor extended into it.

In the 25th of Edward I. Sir William de Kerdeston purchased by fine of Sir Thomas de Helgeton, and Alice his wife, this lordship, and the reversion of several lands, except one messuage, with 7 acres of land; and the advowson of this church and that of Helgeton.

In the next year he purchased of John de Helgeton and Claricia his wife, 24 messuages, 3 mills, 320 acres of land, 9 acres and a half of meadow, 4 of wood, 125 of marsh, 3 and an half of pasture, 28*s.* and 3*d.* rent, with one pound of cummin, several capons, &c. per ann. in this town, Claxton, Helgeton, Holvoston, Rockland, Thurton, and Carleton, with the advowsons of Ashby and Helgeton; so that the Kerdestons were lords of this manor, and the other before mentioned and after them the De la Poles, &c. Gaudys, Brereton, and ——— Crow, Esq. of Castor.

The Earl of Gloucester and Clare's manor of Carleton extended here, as I have observed; and in the 8th of Edward II. the heirs of Oliver Wyth were found to hold in this town, Carlton, &c. half a fee of the honour of Clare.

In the 20th of Edward III. Henry Withe, and his parceners, viz. the abbot of West Derham, &c. held of the Earl a quarter of a fee, which John Wythe, and Roger Broom formerly had; and in the 3d of Henry IV. Thomas Lord Mowbray was capital lord of Bigot's fee in this town, Claxton, &c. and the Earl of March, capital lord of the Clare or Gloucester fee.

The tenths were 1*l.* 10*s.*

The Church of Ashby is a rectory, dedicated to St. Mary, and was valued at 10 marks. Peter-pence 12*d.* carvage 8*d.* and the rector had a manse, with 30 acres of land, in the reign of Edward I. and Sir Thomas de Helgeton was lord and patron. The present valor is 6*l.*

A P T O N,

CALLLED in Domesday Book, Appleton. Roger Bigot had then 30 acres of land in demean, and one borderer. This with some lands of his in Thurton, Carleton, and Mundham, were then valued at 30s. and the soc was in the lord of the hundred.<sup>3</sup>

Robert de Vaux held it under Roger, and from the Vaux it came to the Lords Roos, &c.: the lordship of Bergh also extended into it, as may be seen in Bergh, but this town has been destroyed time immemorial. See in Bergh.

A church formerly belonged to it, dedicated to St. Martin, was a rectory, in the patronage of the Vaux, and came by the heiresses of that family, to the Nerefords, and Lord Roos. In the 8th of Henry III. Robert de Nereford was querent, and Roger le Pavilly impendent, of the advowson of this church, and 5 acres of land granted to Robert and his heirs.

In the reign of Edward I. the rector had a manse, with 10 acres of glebe; it was then valued with Bergh, and the lord of Bergh was patron; it paid Peter-pence, 9d. after this, I find it called a chapel, and has been destroyed about two centuries past.

 B E R G H - A P T O N.

THIS town does not occur in the Book of Domesday, so as to give us a satisfactory account of the tenure of the principal lordship; we only meet with a small fee or lands which St. Etheldreda (that is the church of Ely) held in Thurton and Thorp, in this hundred, as may be there seen, and are said to belong to Berc, with all their customary dues, and to be valued there. See in Thurton in this hundred, and Thorp in Clavering hundred.

It is certain that the ancient family De Monte Canisio, were soon after the Conquest possessed of it.

Agnes, widow of Warine Lord Muntchensy, son of Hubert, held it about the 30th of Henry II. being then 60 years of age, (daughter of Pain Fitz-John,) of the church of Ely, as said, and was a widow, in the King's disposal or gift; Sir William and Sir Ralph de Montchensy were her sons, and Hubert, who was a clerk; also 2 daughters, one married to Stephen de Glanville, the other to William Paynel.<sup>4</sup>

William de Montchensy, by deed, sans date, grants to Ralph de Bradeker, all the land which was Gilbert de Karleman's, belonging to his manor of Bergh, paying 12d. per ann. witnesses, Richard de Seiges, William de Manors, William Fitz-Jeffrey, Warine, son of Ralph, Richard Wassingford, &c.

Warine Lord Montchensy gave in the 15th of King John, 2000 marks for livery of his inheritance; and had by Joan his wife, daughter and coheir of William Marchal Earl of Pembroke, William his son and heir, who married Dionysia, daughter and heir of Nicholas de Anesley, whose son, William, leaving an only daughter and heir, Dionysia, brought this lordship, &c. to Hugh de Vere; and dying without issue, her inheritance descended to Joan, her father's sister, married to William de Valentia Earl of Pembroke, lord of Bergh and Apton. In the 7th of Edward II. his son and heir Amyer, Earl of Pembroke, married Mary, daughter of Guy de Chatillon Earl of St. Paul in France, but dying in the 17th of Edward II. his two sisters were found to be his heirs.

Isabel, the eldest, had a grant of dispensation from the Pope, on account of consanguinity, to marry Jn. de Hastings, Lord of Abergavenny; and Joan, the youngest, married John Comyn, Lord of Badenagh, in Scotland.

On a division of the estate, this lordship came to the Hastings.

John de Hastings Earl of Pembroke dying s. p. in the 15th of Richard II. settled (through the persuasion of his mother, as is said) the Hastings estate on her nephew, Sir William Beauchamp, 2d son of Thomas Earl of Warwick, by Catherine his wife, daughter of Roger Mortimer Earl of March, sister to Agnes, mother of John Earl of Pembroke, aforesaid, by Laurence Earl of Pembroke.

Great lawsuits commenced on account of this settlement, between Reginald Grey, lord of Ruthyn, as heir, and Sir William Beauchamp, which was compromised in the 15th of Richard II. and Sir William had a grant of this lordship, &c. with the barony of Abergavenny, in Wales.

Joan, widow of Sir William, sister and coheir of Thomas Earl of Arundel, died seized of the castle and manor of Abergavenny, Pembroke's Inn in London, and Kederminster in Worcestershire, as part of her dower.

Richard Beauchamp, his son and heir, was Earl of Worcester, and by Isabel his wife, daughter and coheir of Richard, son and heir of Thomas Lord D'Spencer, had a daughter and sole heir, Elizabeth, who brought the inheritance to her husband, Sir Edward Nevill, Lord of Abergavenny, in her right, 4th son of Ralph Nevill Earl of Westmoreland; at his death in the 16th of Edward IV. George was his son and heir, who, by his will, dated 1498, at Chartham in Kent, bequeaths his body to be buried in the monastery of St. Pancras at Lewis in Sasser, "where I have lately made a tomb."<sup>5</sup> By Eliz. his wife, he had George, his son and heir.

Elizabeth his widow, by her will, dated April 14, 1500, gives her body to be buried in the church of St. Martin, Outwich, London, in Bishopsgate-street, in a vault of the chapel of our Lady there, by Richard Nayler her husband; and wills a priest to pray there, for the souls of George Lord Abergavenny, Richard Nayler, Rowland Basset, and John Stokker, her husbands: she was the daughter of William Brent of Chartham.

George Nevill Lord Abergavenny, their son and heir, had by Mary his 2d wife, daughter of Edward Duke of Bucks, Henry his son and heir, who married Frances, daughter of Thomas Earl of Rutland; he dying in the 29th of Elizabeth, left an only daughter and heir, married to Sir Thomas Vane; so that his brother Edward's son succeeded him in honour and estate, and was Lord Abergavenny.

It appears that Henry aforesaid left a widow, Elizabeth, daughter of Stephen Darrell, remarried to William Sidley, and had dower assigned her, by Edward Lord Abergavenny, in the 36th of Elizabeth.

In this family it still remains, the Right Honourable Lord Abergavenny being lord and patron.

At the time of the lawsuit abovementioned, John Maycote of Brenchesley, in Kent, deposed that he then lived with Sir William Brenchesley, who was of counsel to Sir William Beauchamp, (afterwards a judge,) and one day he invited to dinner at his house at the end of Paternoster-row, London, all the said counsel, viz. Sir Robert Charlton, William Pynchebek, William Breuchesley, John Catesley, and other judges of the law; and at the end of dinner, he arose from table, went into his chapel, and a little while after, came back, laid a noble before each counsel on the table, saying, “Sirs, for God’s sake inform me fully whether I have any right or not, and delay me no longer.” They sitting in doubt of his anger, William Pynchebek, said, “Sir William, certainly there is no man who will assure you those lands and lordships, unless you have a release from the heirs of Hastings, and that heir being under age, his release would not signify:” upon this the composition was made afterwards.

Sir Andrew de Hengham had an interest, and held lands of this manor, and for 35 marks of silver gave them to Henry de Norwich, clerk, in the 8th of Edward I. and in the 17th of Edward II. Henry de Heylesdon was found to hold in Bergh cum Apton, the 16th part of a fee of the barony of Moutchensy.

In the 5th of Edward III. Bartholomew Bateman and Petronilla his wife, John de Acre, and Anabella his wife, conveyed to John de Berney and Sarah his wife, lands here, in Thurton, Sitling, and Mendham, part of which Agnes, widow of Henry de Heylesdon, held for life.

Richard de la Rokeley was also found in the 17th of Edward II. to hold lands here of the Earl of Pembroke, and Thomas his son held it in the 20th of Edward III. of Mary de St. Paul Countess of Pembroke, Adam Horne, in the 24th of Edward I. and Alice his wife, had granted by fine to Richard, son of William de la Rokeleys, 12 messuages, 253 acres of land, 5 of marsh, 4 of meadow, 7 of wood, 30s. rent here, in Apton, Holveston, &c.

Apton, and Holveston were at this time hamlets belonging to Burgh, now, as I conceive, depopulated.

Richard Berney, Esq. of Langley sold his interest herein to Mr. Green, a yeoman, whose son Thomas enjoyed it: only 2 copyholders then belonged to it, and the free rents were about 13*s. per ann.* it was held in soccage, of the Lords Abergavenney's manor.

On an inquisition taken in 1652, it was found that there were 592 acres of land, subject to be drowned.

Here was also a little manor called Washingford's, from its owner: Francis Wolfe, Gent. of Thurton, bought it of William Westgate, and it was held of Bergh Apton manor, paying 2*s. per ann.* about the reign, of Queen Elizabeth.

The tenths were 5*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*—Deducted 1*l.* 6*s.*

Temporalities of Norwich priory 3*s.*

Mr. Roket, rector, gave 28 acres of land, to pay the lete fee, 6*s.* 8*d.* to the lord yearly, &c.

The CHURCH of Bergh is a rectory, dedicated to St. Peter and St. Paul, has a nave and south isle covered with lead, a square tower, with 6 tuneable bells, and a chancel covered with lead.

In the chancel is a grave-stone,

In memory of Robert Connould rector, 43 years and 8 months, who rebuilt the chancel, and died October 31, 1715, in the 76th year of his age.

Sarah, wife of John Berney, Esq. was buried in the chapel of St. Anne, in the church, and by his will in the 48th of Edward III. he gives a legacy to the making of a new window in the new chancel of this church.

In the reign of Edward I. William Lord Montchensy was patron of the church; the rector had then a manse, with 14 acres of land, and held it with Apton, and a mediety of the church of Holveston; there was also a vicarage erected out of the profits of the rectory, belonging to the fee of the prioress of Carhow, endowed with 30 acres of land, and valued together at 26 marks.

Peter-pence 16*d.* and carvage, with Apton, 11*d.*

Carhow priory had a portion of tithe valued at 26*s.* 8*d.* given by William Lord Montchensy.

 1719, Richard French, by George Lord Abergavenny.
 1765, Walter Nevill. Ditto.
 The present valor, with Apton and Holveston mediety, is 13*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* and pays first fruits, &c.
 The chapel of Apton was standing in 1359.
Holveston appears then to have been a village, and to have had a church to which there belonged two medieties; to one of these the rector of Bergh was presented in 1359, and so remains annexed at this time.
 There was a good family that took their name from it : John de Holveston, and Sir Thomas, his son, were lords of a manor in Heverland in the reign of King Edward III. as may be there seen, &c.
 In 1330, Robert de Hardeshull resigned the moiety of Holveston, in exchange for Belagh in South Erpingham.

B E D I N G H A M .

THE greatest part of this town was possessed by the Conqueror, and Godric his steward took care of it. Hagan, a thane, or Saxon nobleman of King Edward the Confessor, was then lord of it, and under the commendation of Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury.

This Hagan, or Hacan, was son of Swane, (eldest son of Earl Godwin) and nephew of King Harold, and was deprived of it, consisting of 2 carucates of land, 4 villains, &c. 4 borderers, 3 servi, and 5 carucates in demean, 2 carucates and a half of the tenants, &c. and 8 acres of meadow, and there was a saddle horse kept at the hall, and one cow. In Hacan's time there also belonged to it 6 socmen with all their customary dues, and afterwards there were 26; twenty of these were added by Ralph Earl of Norfolk, with the soc of the fold, and among all them were 80 acres and 5 carucates, &c. by this it appears that Earl Ralph had an interest by grant of the Conqueror, which he forfeited before the grand survey.

In the same town were 5 freemen; of 3 of these Hagan had the commendation, and of the other 2 Algar (Earl of Mercia) had it, who were also deprived; and in Wooton a freeman under the protection of Godwin. Among all these there was a carucate and an half of land, 12 borderers, and 5 carucates and 4 acres of meadow, the whole valued in King Edward's time at 4*l.* at the survey it paid a quitrent of 8*l.* and 20*s.* as a fine or income; of the 8*l.* six freemen pay 27*s.* 4*d.* it was one lenca long, and half a one broad; the gelt 6*d.* King Edward had the soc of these freemen, and Ralph Earl of Norfolk held it unjustly, at the time of his outlawry.<sup>6</sup>

How long these tenures were in the Crown does not appear, but in the reign of Henry II. Hugh de Gournay was lord; and in the beginning of King John's reign, Hugh de Gournay, a Norman baron (see in Castor, Flegg hundred) gave it to Nicholas de Stutevile with Gunnora his daughter in marriage: Nicholas was soon after disseised of it, as land of the Normans, for their rebellion in 1205, by King John; who in the next year, restored to Nicholas the son, all that his father Nicholas had been deprived of.

At the seizure of the manor and stock, it was assigned to Walter de Cantelupe, during the King's pleasure.

In the 5th of Henry III. there was an inquisition concerning the patronage of this church, whether it belonged to the King or Nicholas, as King John on the seizure beforesaid had presented John de Brancastre to this church,<sup>7</sup> but it was now restored to Nicholas; and in the 23d of the said King, Nicholas impleaded the prior of Walsingham on the same account; the prior pleaded the grant of it from Hubert de Burgh Earl of Kent, who being called to warrant it, proved his right, by the grant of Nicholas de Stutevile, his father: this pleading is said to have been held at St. Bride's in London. Rot. 4, in dorso.

John de Stutevile, son of Nicholas, was lord in the 41st of Henry III. when Simon de Greywil, and Alice his wife, recovered her dower as late widow of Nicholas de Stutevile.

Sir Nicholas de Stutevile granted in the 16th of Edward I. this lordship to Nicholas de Castello and his heirs, to be held by one knight's fee; and in the 28th of that King, purchased by fine 9 messuages, 75 acres of land, the fourth part of a mill in this town and Wolton of Richard Cosyn and Margaret his wife, and in the 31st, Greg. de Castello was a trustee of Nicholas de Castello and Cecilia his wife.

In the 3d of Edward II. Greg. de Castello, of Raveningham, had a charter of free-warren, and in the 11th of that King, Greg. de Castello and Eufemia his wife, settled this lordship in tail on Nicholas his son and Christiana his wife, daughter of Jeff. de Meldeton; Nicholas de Castello and Christiana his wife settle it on Nicholas their son, and Margaret his wife, being held of the Lord Bardolf, as heir to the Gournay's

In the 5th of Edward VI. it was valued at 10*l.* per ann. and was sold to William Stanhaw, Gent. by John Castell, Esq. of Raveningham.

From the Stanhaw's, it came to William Stone, Gent. by the marriage of Catherine, daughter and heir of William Stanhaw, who died in 1659.

WALSINGHAM PRIORY MANOR.

The ancient family of De Udedale, or Dovedale, was enfeoffed of part of the Conqueror's lordships abovementioned; they were lords also of Tacolneston in this county.

John de Uvedale, in the 41st of Henry III. was found to have dis-seised John de Stuteville of certain lands.

John de Plumstead and Beatrix his wife, daughter of John de Uvedale, were querents in a fine A. 32, of Edward I. and Margery, widow of John de Uvedale, deforciant of 9 messuages, a mill, 170 acres of land, 9 of meadow, 5 of pasture, 11 of wood, and 40*s.* rent, in this town, Wotton, and Hedenham, &c. settled by Margery on John and Beatrix in tail, remainder to Alice, another daughter of Margery; and in the 1st of Edward II. the sheriff of Norfolk had a precept to make enquiry, why Margery would not convey it.

The right was probably not in her, but in Sir John de Uvedale, who in 1318, gave this manor, worth 10*s.* per ann. to the canons of Walsingham, who have a license for it, with messuages, and land in Walsingham.

On the dissolution of this priory it came to the Crown, and was granted together with the appropriated rectory on March 22, A. 7 Edward VI. to Thomas Gawdy, Esq. who in the said year had license to convey it to William Goslyn, who died seized of it held in capite, in the 4th of Elizabeth, with the rectory (called often a priory) and John was his son and heir. By an inquisition taken October 17, A. 37 Elizabeth, John Goslin was found to die seized of the same on August 22, in the said year, and John was his son and heir, aged 22, by Anne his wife, daughter of - - - - Vere: in this family it remained, William Goslin, Gent. possessing it in 1700: from the Goslings it came to - - - - Howes, M.D. who was lord in 1720.

Roger Bigot had the grant of a lordship of which Offa, a thane of Archbishop Stigand, was deprived; a carucate of land belonged to it, and Roger held it at the survey; there were 12 borderers, 2 servi, 2 carucates in demean, 3 of the tenants, 3 acres of meadow, 2 horses of the lord, 9 swine, 20 goats valued at 10s. at the survey at 30s.<sup>8</sup>

The family of Shelton, lords of Shelton in Norfolk, were soon after the survey enfeoffed of this lordship, and held it under the Bigots Earls of Norfolk; in the year 1235, Robert, son of Ralph de Shelton was lord, and in 1270, Henry de Shelton, and Robert was his son, who had a grant of free warren in this town, Shelton, &c. in 1286; he was a knight, and died in the 34th of Edward I. leaving by Isabel his wife, John his son and heir; this lordship was then extended at 73s. 5d. and held of Robert de Tateshale, who held it of the honour of Fornset.

Sir Ralph Shelton settled it in 1346, on his marriage with Joan, daughter of Sir John de Plais: in this family it remained till Sir John Shelton conveyed it by fine, in the 36th of Henry VIII. with 10 messuages, 10 gardens, 200 acres of land, 4 of meadow, 40 of pasture, 4 of wood, and 8l. rent in this town, Topcroft, &c. to Thomas Hanchet, Gent. of Uphall in Braughing, Hertfordshire.

About the year 1600, — Spilling of this town was lord; he purchased it of Ralph Stanhagh, who was living in 1562.

The Stanhows were an ancient family in this town.

Thomas Stanhow wills, the 3d of December 1414, to be buried in the chapel of St. John of Bedingham:<sup>9</sup> Joan his wife, Ralph and Robert his sons, and several of them here buried.

Roger, buried in 1558.—Margaret, wife of William Stanhow, Gent. in 1632, Roger Stanhow, Gent. in 1633.—William Stanhow, Gent. in 1659, &c.

The Stones were also an ancient family here. Thomas Stone, Gent. buried here, 1689, father of William Stone, by Audrey his wife, daughter of William Cook of Brome-Hall.

This William married Catherine, daughter and sole heir of William Stanhow, of Bedingham, and left Thomas his son and heir, who married Lucy, daughter of Robert Suckling of Wooton, all buried here.

The Church is dedicated to St. Andrew, and was a rectory. In the 6th year of King Richard I. Benedict de Bedingham called to warrant the advowson, Nicholas de Stutevile, which Theobald Walter claimed against him.<sup>1</sup> The Stuteviles were lords and patrons, and Nicholas granted the advowson to Hubert de Burgh, Earl of Kent, who granted it by deed, sans date, to the canons of Walsingham.

Soon after it was appropriated, and a vicarage settled; Jeffrey being vicar in the 33d of Henry III. as appears from a fine then levied.

There were anciently 2 medieties, each valued at 20 marks, one of which was called Reymur's mediety, and there were two churches in the churchyard: one dedicated to St. Mary, which was the church that Benedict abovementioned claimed the patronage of.

B R O K E.

THE lordship of this town was in the abbey of St. Edmund of Bury, at the survey, and Frodo held it of the said convent, with a carucate of land. Toli was lord of it, and sheriff; he gave it to St. Edmund, (that is the abbey,) in the time of King Edward the Confessor and afterwards held, or farmed it by the service of finding that convent provision for 2 days: there was one carucate of land in demean, 4 acres or meadow, one runcus, and 4 socmen, with half a carucate and 5 acres, valued at 20s. and the soc was in the abbey.<sup>3</sup>

This account, which is authentic, is partly contradicted by a register of Bury abbey, which says that William the Conqueror gave it to St. Edmund, when he first supplicated his favour and protection, falling prostrate before him, and placing a small knife wrapped up, on the altar of St. Edmund, in the presence of many of his chief nobility, and also the grant signed with his seal, which the register observes, was at that time preserved in the said convent.<sup>4</sup>

“ He grants it with all its appertenenances, sac soc, and all other customary dues, as Grith, (Girth), the powerful Earl, held it in the time of good King Edward, and as he, now King of England, possessed it.”

Before this grant or confirmation of the Conqueror, Grith, or Guert, was said to have held it, who was 5th son of Earl Godwin, and brother of King Harold, slain with him at the battle of Hastings.

In the Register of the Sacrist, the manor, we find, was appropriated to the use of the chamberlain of this abbey, as the rectory was appropriated also.

The abbot, in the 13th of King John, had a discharge of scutage for 52 knights fees in Norfolk and Suffolk, on the Scotch war;<sup>5</sup> and in the 52d of Henry III. he pleaded an exemption, and would not suffer the King's bailiff to enter this lordship.

In the 10th of Edward I. he had a grant of a weekly mercate and a fair.

In the Iter of the judges of Norwich, a fine was levied the day after St. Michael, between William son of Richard de Dunston, Tho.

son of John de Nareford, William, son of Richard de Gunthorp, &c. petents, and John, abbot of Bury, tenent, whereby they release to the abbot all their right in this manor and advowson.

In the 14th of Edward I. and in the following year, the abbot claimed view of frank pledge, assise, free warren, and other privileges belonging that abbey.

Their temporalities were valued in 1428, at 35*l.* 14*s.* 5*d.* ob.

It continued in this monastery, held by one fee, till the general Dissolution, when it came to the Crown; and on May 27, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, was granted to Francis Yaxley, and Richard his brother; and soon after, in the said year, Thomas Yaxley alienated it to Jeffrey Warde, Gent. who died seized of it in the first of Elizabeth; and Thomas was found to be his son and heir, who had a grant in 1576, from Robert Cook, clarencieux, of these arms, argent, on a cross, gules, a wolf's head, erased, of the first between four martlets, gules; crest, on a mount, vert, an eagle displayed, ermin.

WARDE'S PEDIGREE,

Thomas Seaman, senior, Gent. was lord in 1723, and Thomas Seaman lord in 1740, and patron.

The tenths were 3*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* Deducted 7*s.* 6*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Peter, and the rectory was appropriated to the chamberlain of St. Edmund's Bury, a vicarage being settled, valued at 5 marks, the rectory at 50 marks.

To the rectory belonged a carucate of land; the vicar had a manse and 10 acres of land; but in the reign of Edward I. there was no land. Peter-pence 2*s.* carvage 18*d.*

John Grey Bishop of Norwich appropriated the rectory to the chamberlain, after the decease of Hubert de Brock, rector, saving an honourable support for the vicar, to be assigned by the Bishops of Norwich.

B R O M E.

ROBERT, son of Corbun, had a grant of this lordship, on the deprivation of Anant, a thane, or Saxon nobleman, containing 2 carucates of land, 2 borderers, one servus, 2 carucates in demean, and 2 oxen; paunage for 20 swine, 20 acres of meadow, a mill, the moiety of a fishery, 3 cows, and 50 sheep, with 2 skeps of bees. Five freemen held under Anant, in commendation, 10 acres of meadow, with half a carucate among them all, valued at 40s. at the survey at 50s. it was one leuca long, and 5 furlongs broad, paid 8d. gelt, and Humphrey was enfeoffed of it, and held it of Corbun at the survey.

On the death of Robert, son of Corbun, it came (as I take it) as an escheat to the Crown, and was granted to William de Albini, by King William II. ancestor of the Earls of Arundel.

In the 16th of Henry II. William de Brom was lord, as appears from a fine. Roger de Brome was living in the 8th of Richard I. and in the 17th of King John, entered into covenant with Elias Benjamin, of this town, that Elias should not mortgage, or dispose of any of his lands, without the consent of Roger, until the time of his beginning his journey to the Holy-land, and then he was to deliver it to Roger, to keep for three years, who was to advance as much money to Elias for his journey, as the same should be then valued at, for that time; the land to remain to Elias, if he should return, or to his heirs if he died; witnesses, John de Lodne, Alan de Mundham, Henry de Brom, &c.

William de Brom was lord in the 25th of Henry III. and granted to Roger le Sage and Alice his wife, lands here in Elingham, and Yerperton; in the 27th of that King, he was found to hold it of Isabel, lady dowager of Arundel, of Rysing castle, and was living in the 31st of the said King, then a knight: he and his son Roger were witnesses to a deed.

Sir Roger de Brom was lord (son of Sir William) in the 11th of Edward I. when there was a dispute between him and Sir John Bigod, lord of Stockton, and he was living in the 30th of the said King, and then settled it on William his son and heir, remainder to Robert his son.

In 1304, Petronilla is called late wife of Sir Roger; she is said to have been a daughter and coheir of Roger de Somery, who married Nicholaa, sister and coheir of Hugh Earl of Arundel.

But this is a mistake: to a deed then dated, is her seal, which is a very particular one; the two coats of her husband, (Sir Roger,) and her own are impaled, that of her husband covering, or being over a moiety of her own coat, and the husband's coat stands impaled on the left side, contrary to all rules since observed.

Sir Roger's coat is ermine, a chief indented, gules, her coat is half a plain cross, the other half being covered by that of her husband, which proves that she was not a daughter of Somery, who bore two lions passant, and probably she was a Bigot or a Shelton.

At this time this lordship was valued at 18*l.* per ann.

Sir Roger died in 1303, and was found to hold it of the honour of Rysing castle, and William was his son and heir, who dying soon after was succeeded by Robert his brother, who, with Joan his wife, was living in 1336; and in 1343, presented to the church of Blonorton: by Joan he had a son, Roger, who, with his father, lived in the 20th of Edward III.

Robert de Brome was lord in the 22d of Richard II. and then gave to Henry his son and heir, the manor of Sunderland-Hall, in South Walsham; Henry his son, presented to this church in 1400, and 1416

Robert Brome, Esq. who married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Theobald de Thuxton, son and heir of Alice, sister and coheir of Sir Jeffrey de Fransham, lord of Skerning, in Norfolk, was (as I take it) son of Henry aforesaid.

This Robert died in the year 1438, when Margaret his widow presented to the church of Scarning.

Robert, his son, died in 1455, his will being proved January 8, in that year, and left by Oliva his wife, Richard his son and heir, who dying s. p. about 1510, it descended to his two sisters; Mary, who married first, to John Jenney of Hardwick, by whom she had Edward Jenney, Esq.; her second husband was Ralph Shelton, Esq. son of Sir John Shelton; and Edward Jenney granted by fine to Ralph and Mary his wife, his moiety and right in this lordship, about the year 1533.

Anne, the other sister and coheir, married first, Robert Stede, Esq. afterwards John Brampton; Thomas, his son and heir, sold his right or moiety, also to Ralph Shelton, Esq. whose son Ralph was lord of the whole lordship, and died in 1592, his mother Mary dying in 1542.

This Ralph married Prudence, daughter and coheir of Edward Calthorp, Esq. by his deed, dated August 18. ao. 31st Elizabeth, he settled this manor and advowson, with a fulling-mill, on himself for life, after to his 3 daughters, Thomasia, wife of Thomas Uvedale, Gent. Grace, wife of John Thurton, Gent. and Mary wife of William Cooke, senior, of Lynstead, Suffolk, Gent. and their heirs.

Uvedale died s. p. and Thomasine remarried Charles Crofts, Esq.

Grace had a daughter, Maud, who married Christopher Calthorp, Esq. son of Sir James Calthorp of Cockthorp, and had a son, James, and a daughter, Elizabeth, married to Edward Hanchet of Up-hall in Braughing, Hertfordshire, and James sells his part and right to William Cook, senior.

The will of Ralph Shelton, senior, Esq. was dated October 21, 1538, whereby he gave legacies to the repair of Brome bridge, and Ditchingham-Dam, and was buried in the church of Brome, before the image of St. George, at the south end of the high altar.

The will of Ralph his son is dated October 31, ao. 34th of Elizabeth, wherein he gives to Cecily his 2d wife, all her apparel, rings, jewels, and chain, &c. and to Cecily Shelton, his grandchild, at her age of 18, 60*l.*; she was daughter of his son Edward Shelton, who died before him.

In 1603, Charles Crofts, Esq. William Cook, Gent. and John Thurton, Gent. held this lordship, and had the patronage of the church.

After this, William Cook, Esq. son of William Cook, who married Mary, daughter and coheir of Ralph Shelton, was sole lord of this manor, and presented in 1645; by Mary his wife, daughter of Thomas Astley of Melton Constable in Norfolk, Esq. he was father of William Cook, of Brome, Esq. created baronet June 29, 1663, knight of the the shire in ——— and by Jane his wife, daughter and coheir of William Steward, Esq. of Barton-Mills in Suffolk, had 7 daughters; first, Dorothy, married to John Herne of Ameringhale, Gent. s. p.; 2d, Jane, died single; 3d, Mary, married to Richard Freeston, Esq. of Mendham in Suffolk; 4th, Elizabeth, to Thornhaugh Gurden of Letton, Esq.; 5th, Bridget, to ——— Proctor, Esq.; 6th, Agneta, to Charles Bedingfeld, Gent.; 7th, Lettice, to John Gordon of Assington in Suffolk, Gent.

Sir William died in January 1703, and before his death, sold this lordship to John Fowle, Esq. son of John Fowle of Norwich, barrister at law, and Sarah his wife, daughter of George England of Yarmouth, Esq. son of Thomas Fowle, of Burnham in Essex, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Matthew Ediston of Haveningham in Essex, Gent.

John Fowle, Esq. who purchased this manor, presented to the church in 1701, and married first, Mary, daughter of John Mingay, Esq. of Saxlingham, and Ranthorp-Hall in Tasburgh, by whom he had John Fowle, Esq. and Thomas Fowle, LL.D. commissary to the dean and chapter of Norwich, and archdeacon of Norfolk.

John Fowle, Esq. lord, was one of the commissioners of the excise in 1726, and in 1760, and married ——— youngest daughter of Sir Charles Turner, Bart.

The tenths were 2*l.* 18*s.* Deducted 7*s.*

The CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to St. Michael, was valued at 10 marks, in the reign of King Edward I. and had then 30 acres of glebe, with a manse. Peter-pence, 10*d.* Carvage 5*d.*

C L A X T O N.

AT the survey, Godric, the King's steward, held a lordship, granted before by the Conqueror (as it seems) to Ralph Earl of Norfolk, on the expulsion of two freemen, who held it under the protection of Aslac and Lefrick, in the reign of King Edward, and Ralph was deprived of it on his rebellion against the Conqueror.

The two freemen, and 6 other freemen, of whom Godric had a moiety of their protection (as lord) held 16 acres of land, with half a carucate and 16 acres of meadow, and was delivered to Godric for a manor. One horse, and two cows belonged to it, (and at the survey 200 sheep) with 5 acres, &c. the whole was valued at 40*s.* but at the survey at 4*l.* the king and the earl had the soc and sac.

Five freemen, with the moiety of another, had also in the commendation of Edwin, 34 acres of land, with half a carucate and an acre of meadow, the soc of these was in the hundred.<sup>6</sup>

On the death of Godric it seems to have come as an eschaet to the County, and was granted to William de Curzon, son of Hamelin: the wife of King Henry, widow of Richard, and King Henry 2d gave him the manor of Esbyrwyke in Essex.

By the marriage of Margaret, a daughter and co-heir, it came to Hugh de Curzon, and so to his son de Curzon, and was married Isabel, daughter and co-heir of Hubert de Burgh, a great baron of the realm, and the family of De Curzon was extinct of an heiress by death.

In the 11th year of King John, his son de Kerdeston son of William de Kerdeston, the widow Hubert de Burgh had granted the manor of Burham Newton, gave the manor to the King, for a contribution of the said manor, whereby de Burgh de Burgh, Hugh de Kerdeston and others, took part with the crown, in rebellion against the King.

Fulk de Kerdeston was son and heir of de Roger, and in the 11th of King John, Fulk de Boyward married his widow.

By a deed, each date, of Andrew, son of Richard de Sibton, whereas he granted lands in Botehampe in Suffolk, to Sibton abbot in the said county, his Fulk de Kerdeston had been lord in Botehampe. About the said time, Willa de Kerdeston, was an heiress in Claxton, and Just Roston, and was married to widow of Sir Roger.

William de Kerdeston in the 21st of Henry III. had half a fee in this town, was lord in Kerdeston, and Themalthorp, by knight's service, and Agnes, widow of Fulk de Kerdeston, died in the 13th of Edward I. Fulk was living in the 4th of Henry III.

In the 11th of Edward I. William de Kerdeston, son Sir Roger de Kerdeston, was summoned among the barons of the realm to attend the King in his expedition against the Welsh, and in the 15th to meet at Exchester, Edmund Earl of Cornwall, in three weeks after the feast of St. John Baptist, with horse and arms to advise with Edmund, then crown of the realm, about the Welsh affairs.

In the following year the above said Will. held 2 fees here and in Botehampe, in the 27th of that King, Sir Will. grants to Sir Thomas de Helgaton, and Alice his wife, for life, a messuage, with certain lands and rents as part of the manor, which they had conveyed to him: he was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 25th and 26th of Edward I.

In the 3rd, he, with William de Ormesby, William Inge, John Le Breton, and Richard de Walsingham, were constituted justices of trail baston in Norfolk and Suffolk: he married Margaret, eldest sister and co-heir of Gilbert de Gaunt, lord of Folkingham, in Lincolnshire, by whom he had Roger his son and heir, created Knight of the Bath with Prince Edward of Carnarvon, son of King Edward I. sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 5th of Edward III. governor of Norwich castle, summoned as a baron to parliament, from the sixth, and died in the 14th, seized of Bircham, Newton, Kerdeston, Claxton, Sedestern, and Hadeston in Norfolk; Stratford and Henham in Suffolk, of the manor of Gaunt in Sussex, and Skendelby in Lincolnshire, &c. as heir to Gilbert de Gaunt.

In the 6th of Edward III. he gave to the King's relief, (55s. 11d. ob.) for his 3d part of the manor of Skendelby, as parcel of the barony of Folkingham, and was buried in the abbey church of Langley, and his mother Margaret was buried in 1328, in the cathedral church of Norwich.

William de Kerdeston was his son and heir, aged 30, at his father's death; in the 13th of Edward III. he had license to make a castle of his manor-house here; in the following year he obtained a charter for a weekly mercate, on Monday, and a fair on the eve of St. John Baptist, the day, and 3 days after; in the 15th had the King's letters to provide 10 men at arms, and to come with them to Newcastle upon Tyne, in order to invade Scotland, or to hinder the Scots from making inroads into England.

In the next year, Sir William Kerdeston had a writ dated at Westminster December 20, to provide 10 men at arms and 10 archers, to be transported into Britany in France, and to go with them himself, (as the King desired) but if he could not, then to come to London, or to send somebody of his council to treat with the King's council about their wages, &c.

In the 20th of Edward III. he was found to hold half a fee in this town, of Fulco Baynard, and by the name of Sir William de Kerdeston, lord of Claxton, was summoned to parliament, ao. 28, and signed a letter of proxy to Richard Wysondesold, to give his consent to the agreement, that should be made between the envoys of England and France, before Pope Innocent VI. at Avignon, to prevent the war, which ensued.

In the 33d of the said King he was summoned to meet at Westminster, on Sunday next after St. Martin's feast, to be of council to Tho. de Woodstock Duke of Gloucester, the King's son, custos of England, during the King's absence in France; and died in October, in the 35th of Edw. III. seized of the manors abovementioned in Norfolk and Suffolk, also of the manor of Holbache at Rythe in Swaledale, with that of Hunmundby in Yorkshire, they being part of the inheritance of the Lord Gilbert de Gaunt.

William was found to be his son and heir, by Maud his first wife, aged 36; but by another inquisition, John, son of John Burghersh and Maud his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir William de Kerdeston, and Margaret his 2d wife, daughter of Edmund Bacon, of Gresham, was found to be heir of Sir William.

Great lawsuits ensued on these inquisitions, in order to prove this William to be illegitimate, and to be born ante sponsalia; and some accounts make him to be the son of Alice, daughter of — Norwich, his father's concubine, in Trinity term, ao. 38th Edward III.

There was a trial to enquire if John Burghersh, son of John Burghersh, and Maud his wife, daughter of Sir William Kerdeston, and Margaret his wife, or William, now a knight, was the heir, when the jury found Sir William to be born ante sponsalia.

But in the 43d of that King, in the return of the escheators inquisition, it appears that the King had seized on the manors of Kerdeston, Claxton, and Helgeton, which caption Sir William traversed in the King's Bench, alleging that Sir William Kerdeston, senior, by his deed, had entailed those manors, and that he was the right heir, as the jury then found, and lawfully begotten; so that the King's hands were taken off.

He was sheriff of Norfolk in the 49th of Edward III. and 5th of Richard II.

In the 3d of Richard II. he had a grant of free warren in his manor, in Norfolk, and Suffolk; and being wealthy, lent the King money and finished his manor-house, or castle, at Claxton, and died soon after, leaving Cecilia his wife, daughter of Sir — Brews, of Stinton, who was living in the 3d of Henry IV. and held the manor of East Ryston, &c. in dower, and was buried by her husband in the church of Repham.

Leonard Kerdeston was lord in the 9th of Richard II. and in the 3d of Henry IV. when he was a Knight; and Thomas Lord Mowbray, as heir to the Bigots, held it in capite; Sir Leonard was living in the 9th of Henry V.

In the 3d of Henry VI. a fine was levied between Thomas Chaucer, Esq.<sup>s</sup> and Maud his wife, one of the daughters and heirs of Sir John Burghershe, querents, Sir Thomas Kerdeston, and Elizabeth his wife, deforcients of this manor, and many other, conveyed to Maud, who with her husband resettled them on Sir Thomas and Elizabeth, in tail, to be held of the heirs of Maud.

After this, in the 20th of the said King, William Delapole Earl of Suffolk, and Alice his wife, daughter and heir of Thomas Chaucer, Esq. and Maud his wife, released to Sir Thomas Kerdeston, all their right in this manor and advowson: this Alice, first married Sir John Phelp of Dennington in Suffolk.

Sir Thomas Kerdeston, by his will dated July 1, 1445, desires to be buried in the church of the Austin Friars at Norwich, and that the third part of the passage of Bukeham Ferry, in the parish of Cartleton in Norfolk, which descended to him lawfully, and all the messuages, lands, &c. in Claxton, Ashby, Helgeton, Carlton, Burgh-Apton, Holveston and Yelverton in Norfolk, which he bought of William Claxton, &c. with the advowson of the church of Carlton St. Peter's, be sold forthwith after his decease, and out of the money arising, he gives to the aforesaid convent of friars 300 marks, on condition that they find three brethren for ever of the said house, to pray for his soul and the souls of Elizabeth<sup>9</sup> and Philippa his wives, and all his parents; he gives to the honourable Lord Hump. Buckingham one horse, to the high altar of the aforesaid friars, a silver cross, and two silver basons, with this inscription to be wrote round them,

Also to the Lady Philippa his wife, one silver bason; to his daughter Elizabeth, a missale: appoints his wife, and William Yelverton, the judge, executors, and Humphrey Duke of Buckingham, supervisor; he died on July 20, A<sup>o</sup>. 25 of Henry VI.

In the eschaet rolls  Ao. 29 of the aforesaid King, the jury find that Sir Thomas died not seized of the manors of Bulcamp, Henham, and Stratford in Suffolk, but that William de la Pole, late Duke of Suffolk, and Alice his wife, (as her right,) entered on and took the profits during the life of Sir Thomas, and that Alice, late wife of the said Duke, and Sir John Howard, were his next heirs.

And before this, in the 26th of Henry VI. William James, &c. conveyed to William de la Pole, Marquis of Suffolk, and Alice his wife, this manor of Claxton, with that of Kerdeston, &c. so that Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas Kerdeston, was deprived of her inheritance.

It appears that she married Sir Terry Robsart, son of Sir John Robsart, Knt. of the Garter; and that Edmund de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, in the 12th of Henry VII. granted the manors of Bircham, Newton, and Sedisterne in Norfolk, to the Lady Elizabeth Robsart, and to her heirs by Sir Terry, then deceased, as may be seen at large under those townships.

In the 15th of Edward IV. Alice, late wife of William de la Pole Duke of Suffolk, died, seized of this manor, with those of Stokingham and Yalneton in Devonshire, &c. of the inheritance of Richard Earl of Warwick; and in the following year Sir Edward Hungerford, John Heydon, and Humphrey Forster, by deed dated November 20, release to John de la Pole Duke of Suffolk, and Elizabeth his wife, (sister of King Edward IV.) William Hastings, Robert Chamberleyn, James Tyrell, William Knyvet, Knts. &c. to the use of the Duke and Dutches, the lordships of Claxton and Helgeton in Norfolk; Frestendon, Bacton and Creting St. Olaves in Suffolk; which the said Sir Edward, &c. were seized of, to the use of William, late Duke of Suffolk, and the Lady Alice his wife, deceased.

On the attainder of Edmund de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, this lordship coming to the Crown, King Henry VIII. in his 2d year, granted it with Helgeton, valued at 3*l.* 13*s.* per ann. to Thomas Howard Earl of Surrey, and after Duke of Norfolk, and his heirs; but in the following year, the said Earl, and the Lady Anne his wife, with Catherine. Countess of Devonshire, (who were two of the daughters of King Edward IV.) conveyed to that King, their right in many manors, castles, &c. and some accounts say that the King granted this lordship, and that of Helgeton in consideration of this conveyance.

On the death of Anne Dutches of Norfolk, without surviving issue, this lordship was granted to Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk, and the Lady Anne of Cleves, the King's divorced wife, as some say, had an interest herein.

On September 10, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, Edward Lord North had letters patents to hold it in capite, late the possessions of Charles Duke of Suffolk; and in the said year had license to alien it to John Throgmorton, Esq. and his heirs, who conveyed it to Thomas Gawdy, Esq. and Henry his son, in the 8th of Elizabeth.

Thomas Gawdy, Esq. was afterwards a knight, and a judge of the Common Pleas, son of John Gawdy, Gent. of Harleston in Norfolk, by Rose, his second wife, daughter of Thomas Bennet; and John was the son of Thomas Gawdy, of the said town.

The judge resided at this manor house of Claxton, and was also lord of Helgeton,<sup>1</sup> Asby, Carleton, Helveston, Rockland St. Peter's, Saxtingham, Surlingham, Bramerton, Catfield, Frenge, Shipdam, Tasborow, Cantley, and Gawdy Hall, in Harleston; and died seized of them November 4, Mo. 31 of Elizabeth, as was found by an inquisition taken at Loddon August 9, following, leaving Henry his son and heir by Etheldreda his first wife, daughter and coheir of William Knightley, Gent. of Norwich, aged 36 years; his second wife was Frances, daughter of ---- Richers, of Kent.

Henry Gawdy his son, was created Knt. of the Bath, on the coronation of King James I. and was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk in the 6th of the said King: he married Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Warner, Esq. of Milden-hall in Suffolk.

Sir Robert Gawdy, his son, enjoyed it, and lived at Claxton-Castle in 1624; by Winefred his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Nathaniel Bacon of Stifkey in Norfolk; he had Henry, his son, who married ----- daughter of Sir John Heveningham, and died s. p. Dorothy, daughter and heir of Sir Robert, married Sir Philip Parker of Arcarton, to whom she brought a considerable estate, and Sir Robert settled on her the manor of Stanfield in Windham in 1631.

On the death of Sir Robert, without issue male, this lordship descended to Thomas Gaudy, Esq. son of George Gaudy, Esq. fourth son of Sir Henry Gaudy, which Thomas was lord in 1644, and was father of Thomas Gaudy, captain of the horse, in the Lord Windsor's regiment, and died in Ireland; he was the last of the Gaudys, that enjoyed this lordship.

Thomas Breyeton was lord in 1697, and is said to have purchased it of Thomas Gaudy.

Roger Crow, Esq. of Caster, and Norwich, was lord, about 1720, and John Bedingfield, Esq. in 1740.

Roger Bigot, ances or of the Earls of Norfolk, had the grant of a lordship, of which Suetman, a freeman who held it under Stigand, Archbishop of Canterbury, in King Edward's reign, was deprived: with 30 acres of land, which Robert de Faur holds under Bigot; 7 borderers belonged to this manor, and there was a carucate in demean, and the tenants ploughed with two oxen; also 5 acres of meadow, a church endowed with 30 acres, valued at 3s. and Suetman had 15 freemen, who held 30 acres, among them all there was a carucate with 2 acres of meadow; Suetman had also the moiety of 13 freemen with 50 acres, a carucate and 2 acres of meadow.<sup>2</sup>

Four freemen of Ulchetell, and 3 borderers, had 14 acres, and half a carucate, valued at 2s. and at the survey Robert de Faur held this also under Bigot; Clakeston was 6 furlongs long and 5 broad, and paid 9d. ob. gelt.

The ancient family of De Helgeton, held this fee before the reign of King John (as may be seen at large in Helgeton) of the De Faur, who held of the Bigots.

Walter de Claxton had also an interest herein, in the 20th of Henry III.

Sir Thomas de Helgeton and Alice his wife conveyed in the 25th of Edward I. the principal part of their lordship to Sir William de

Kerdeston, and in 1326, Sir Roger Kerdeston possessed the whole, and so it became united to their manor before mentioned, and was conveyed from them, &c. as is there shown.

The tenths were 3l. 10s.—Deducted 20s.

In the 52d of Henry III. Henry Atte Lyng and Agnes his wife, granted lands here and in Ashby, to Simon, the abbot, &c. of Langley, and the temporalities of that convent here and in Ashley were valued at 40s. 9d. ob. West Derham temporalities at 11s. ob.

The town is wrote Clarestona, and Clakestona, both signify a town seated by a clear stream, river, or water, thus Clare in Suffolk, Clavering in Essex: Kes, or Ches, is the same as Re, thus Keswick, Stow-Chess, Chesham, &c.

The church is dedicated to St. Andrew, and was appropriated to the priory of Bliburgh, to which it was probably given by William de Cheyney, lord of this town in the reign of Henry II. valued at eleven marks, and a vicarage was appointed; the patronage of it was in the said priory, valued at 40s.—Peter-pence 12d. carvage 8d. ob.

The chapel of St. John Baptist is mentioned in 1485.

The CHURCH has a nave with a north isle, and a chancel, and square tower.

On the north wall of the chancel, was a neat monument, but much damaged, by the fall of a ladder on it, with the arms of Gawdy, argent, a tortoise vert.

CARLETON.

THE principal lordship of this town was given to Rainald, son of Ivo, on the deprivation of Alsic, a freeman of King Edward the Confessor, with 30 acres of land; 7 borderers then belonged to it, with a carucate and a half, and there were 2 carucates among the tenants with 14 swine, and at the survey there were 60 sheep; and 14 freemen under the protection of Ulsi, were delivered to Rainald, to make up, or add to this manor, with 60 acres, and 2 carucates of meadow, &c. and there was a church here endowed with 80 acres of free land, valued in the whole in King Edward's time at 20s. but at the survey at 40s. and it was one leuca long, and 5 furlongs broad: the gelt was 8*l.*<sup>5</sup>

From Rainald, this lordship came to the Earls of Clare and Gloucester, the family of De Vernuns held it of them, who gave name to a lordship in this town.

Ralph de Norfolk had also an interest here, and gave name to one, and were held of the said Earls.

In the 15th year of Henry III. Robert son of Ralph de Norfolk was petent, and Eborard de Vernun, whom Remigius, abbot of West Derham, called to warrant 84 acres of land here, whereby Robert released to Eborard all his right, and in the advowson of Carleton, &c.

The said Robert, in the 52d of the aforesaid King, gave to Roger, abbot of West Derham, the moiety of a mill, and rents out of lands in this town.

Ralph Leffet was lord in 1308, and presented then, and in 1328, &c. to this church.

Henry Wythe, the abbot of West Derham, Walter Edrich, Ralph Poule, &c. held a quarter of a fee, late Vernun's of the Earl of Gloucester, and Henry Wythe, and Walter Godchild, held here, in Tweyt, and Tasborough, a quarter of a fee, late Norfolk's, of the said Earl.

In 1343, Thomas Leffet, presented to the church, and in 1349, John de Carleton.

Oliver de Wythe had an interest here, in the 24th of Edward III. Wymer de Aylsham presented in 1364, Stephen Bastwick in 1393, and gave name to the manor called Bastwick's.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the Earl of March, then a minor, was found to hold (as capital lord) a quarter of a fee called Vernun's, and a quarter of fee called Norfolk's, in this town, Thwyt, Tasborow, and Ashby.

In 1408, Richard Bastwick presented; in 1418, Sir John Heveningham; in 1430, Sir Henry Inglos.

After this, it came to the De la Poles; and John de la Pole Duke of Suffolk presented as lord and patron, in 1485,

On the attainder of that family, Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk had a grant of it from the Crown, and presented in 1523; from him it came to Edward Lord North, &c. Gawdy, Brereton, and Crow, as in Claxton, &c.

Roger Bigot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, had at the survey, the possession of a freeman of Suetman, who was deprived, and held 5 acres, with a horse, kept at the manor-house, 3 cows, 90 sheep, 14 swine; the Conqueror gave him livery of these, and with Roger's manors in Claxton, Ashby, and Helgeton, valued always at 60s. per ann.

Roger had a grant also of 5 acres of land, that 2 freemen of Algar held here, and of 20 acres of land, that a freeman of Godwin held, with 2 borderers, and half a carucate valued at 20d.<sup>6</sup>

The family of De Helgeton held this, with their lordships in Helgeton, Claxton, &c. In the sixth of King John, Roger, son of Gilbert, was petent, and Herbert de Helgeton, tenant, of 32s. rent per ann. in this town, &c. in a fine; from the Helgetons it came to the Kerdestons, Delapoles, Gaudy, &c. as in Claxton, &c. Godric, the Conqueror's steward, held at the survey, the lands of 4 freemen of Edwin, who had in the Confessor's time 30 acres of land, with half a carucate and 2 acres of meadow, the soc belonged to the hundred.<sup>7</sup>

This lordship came afterwards to William de Cheney, so to the Cressys, and the Kerdestons, and from that family to the Delapoles &c. Gawdys, Brereton and Crow, who was lord in 1740, as may be seen at large in Claxton.

Ralph Lord Bainard, on the deprivation of a freeman of Toret, had 30 acres of land, 3 villains, with 2 borderers, and the tenants held a carucate, and 3 acres meadow: there were also 3 socmen with 24 acres and a carucate, valued in King Edward's time at 10s. at the survey at 20s.<sup>8</sup>

This came by an exchange. The soc was in the lord of the hundred; and Nigell was enfeoffed of this manor by the Lord Bainard.

In the time of Henry III. James de Agys held a quarter of a fee here of William Lord Bardolf, and had also a lordship in Raveningham, held of the said lord.

James was descended of William de Agia, son of Sir William de Agia, as appears from the register of Langley.<sup>9</sup>

It was granted to Hugh de Gourney probably by King Henry I. on the rebellion of William Lord Baynard, and by Julian, daughter and heiress of that family, came to William Lord Bardolf, her husband.

Thomas de Ages settled it in trust, on Richard Holworth, parson of Crostweyt, in the 10th of Edward II. and Thomas de Ages or D'ages, was lord in the 3d of Edward III. held of Thomas Lord Bardolf.

In the 5th of Henry VI. Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter held, as appears by the escheat rolls, 2 fees in this town, and Langele-Halebushes, which the abbot of Langley possessed, as part of the honour of Wirmegay.

To this abbey Ralph de Norfolk, with his sons, Elias and Robert, and Eborard de Fernun were benefactors.

The temporalities of this house here, were valued in 1428, at 6*l.* 11*s.*; and in the 31 of Henry VIII. Anthony Rous conveyed by fine the manor of Bastwick's, and Hodgedes, or Agys, to Miles Hobart, in this town, Langley, &c.

Sir Henry Hobart, on request of Sir Christopher Hatton, obtained a grant on the 7th of March, ao. 6 of King James I. of lands in this town, held of the late abbot of Langley.

On Thursday after the feast of the purification of the Blessed Virgin, Sir Thomas Berney held a court here in the 10th of Henry VII. in right of the great chantry of Dennington, called Philip's Chantry, in Suffolk, founded (as I conceive) by Sir William Phelip Lord Bardolf, in right of his wife.

Lands, late Langley abbey's, were granted on the Dissolution to Richard Fulnerston, Esq. who had license to alien to Thomas Middleton and his heirs, the manor of Baswick's, in the first year of Ed. VI. and before this, in the 38th of Hen. VIII. on June 5, Ju. Berney, Esq. had a grant of all the messuages and lands in this town, called Pedham's and Stayners; also of lands in the tenure of the master and fellows of the college of Dunynghton.

Dereham abbey temporalities were valued at 26*s.* 8*s.* and lands, meadows, and pastures in this town, Ashby, Thurlton, &c. in the tenure of Robert Edwards, Thomas Middleton, &c. late belonging to this convent were granted to Christopher Fenton, and Bernard Gilpyn, February 19, ao. 16 Elizabeth.

The tenths of the town were 3*l.* 7*s.* 10*d.* Deducted 17*s.* 10*d.* on account of the religious tenures, which they paid.

The church is dedicated to St. Peter, and being a rectory, was valued at 9 marks in the time of Edward I. and had a manse then with one acre of land. Peter-pence 10*d.* Carvage 5*d.*

CHATGRAVE.

RALPH BAINARD Lord Bainard, who came, on the invasion, with William Duke of Normandy into England, had a grant of this lordship on the deprivation of Toret, (and Einbold held it at the survey under Ralph,) containing 2 villains, 19 borderers, 4 servi, 2 carucates in demean, one and a half among the tenants, paunage for 16 swine, 12 acres of meadow, a mill, 2 runci, 4 cows, &c. there were also in Toret's time, 200 sheep, always valued at 40*s.* It was 9 furlongs long and 8 broad, paid 2*d.* gelt. Thirteen freemen, with the moiety of another, held in soccage, under Toret, 99 acres, and there were 4 carucates and a half among the tenants, with 5 acres of meadow, valued at 10s. which the Lord Bainard claimed by exchange.<sup>2</sup>

Toret is also called Torn, and was a thane, or nobleman, of King Edward's.

The family of Edisfeld, or Edgefield, was soon after the conquest enfeoffed of this lordship.

William de Edisfeld, was living in the reign of Henry II. and Peter in that of Richard I.

Peter de Edisfeld, by Hawise his wife, had a daughter and heir, Lecia, or Letitia, who marrying Sir William de Rosceline, was lord in her right. To this Lecia, William, son of ———— de Plumstede, granted lands for 5 marks of silver, by deed, sans date, (about the 40th of Henry III.) but if she died s. p. they were to go to William, (chaplain of Lecia.) his brother, and Alice his sister, and the longest liver of them, &c. witnesses, Sir Rog. de Hales, Sir Jn. de Lodnes, Will. de Wyssenford, &c.

William, son of Rosceline, was living in the 3d of King John, and then gave an account for the profits of half the 12th year of that King, for Robert Fitz-Roger, sheriff of Norfolk, and gave an account of an 100*l.* in the 3d of Henry III. to have the King's grace and favour, with the lands of his brother Roger; the Roscelines held it of the Lords Fitz-Walter, on the death of Sir Thomas Rosceline, who died s. p.

About the 15th of Edward III. it came to his 6 sisters and coheirs; Joan, the 4th sister and coheir, married John Lord Willoughby of Eresby, to whom all the other sisters conveying their rights, he was lord of this manor.

William Lord Willoughby, married to his 2d wife, Joan, daughter of Thomas Holland Earl of Kent, who died possessed of it in the 12th of Henry VI. then styled duchess dowager of York, and relict of Sir Henry Bromflet.

It was sold by William Lord Willoughby, in the reign of Henry VII. and Sir Robert Drury sold it by fine to Sir Robert Southwell, in the 19th of that King.

In 1521, Walter Hubbard, Esq. presented to this church; and in the 20th of King Henry VIII. being then a knight, son and heir of Sir James Hobart, settled this lordship and advowson of the church, with the manors of Oulton, Horninger, Backton, Rushes, Jenney's, and Gissingham, Capel, &c. in Suffolk, on Henry Hobart, Esq. his son and heir, which Henry was lord in 1550, and presented to this church.

James Hobart, Esq. son and heir of Henry, presented in 1584, and Sir Henry Hobart in 1611.

Anthony Hobart, Esq. conveyed it in 1634, in fee, to James his son and heir, who sold it in the 12th of Charles I. to Henry Humberston, Gent. son of William Humberstone by Joan, daughter of John Smith of Lanham in Suffolk, son of John Humberstone of Lodue.

The said Henry married first, Anne, daughter of Gyles Bladwell of Thirlow Magna in Suffolk; and secondly, Mary, daughter, of Henry

Yaxley of Beauchorpe, and by his first wife, had William Humberstone, Esq. of Hales Hall in Lodue, who married Mildred, daughter of Charles Waldgrave, Esq. of Staningsfeld; he sold this estate.

Sir Nevill Catlyn was lord in 1670, and presented to this church, as did Lady Mary Catlyne, in 1702.

In 1742, Sir Charles Turner was lord and patron.

Ralph Lord Bainard had also a gant of another lordship in this town, of which Leuric, a freeman, who held it under the commendation of Herold, in the Confessor's time, was deprived.

It was held by Jeffrey under the Lord Baynard, at the grand survey, with 2 carucates of land, 4 villains, 6 borderers, one servus, &c. 2 carucates in demean, &c. among the tenants, &c. 12 acres of meadow, a mill, 2 cows, &c. with a church endowed with 50 acres, and one of meadow, valued at 12 oras; 6 socmen, and a moiety of one, had 23 acres; and there was a freeman under Lefric's protection, with 17 socmen and a moiety, with one carucate, &c. and half a carucate, and half an acre of meadow, valued at 30s. at the survey at 40s.<sup>3</sup> This came by an exchange.

Robert, son of Corban, claimed this land, and had livery, but Bainard was first seized of it, and Robert afterwards; but the hundred knew not by what means. The soc belonged to the hundred.

Jeffrey, who held this lordship at the survey, was a near relation to Ralph Lord Bainard.

Juga, widow of Ralph, held it in capite, and was foundress of the famous priory of Dunmow in Essex.

Her son, Jeffrey, succeeded, and William his son and heir, taking part with Elias Earl of Maine in France, and other conspirators against King Henry I. was deprived of his barony of Bainard castle in London, which was granted to Robert, a younger son of Richard Fitz Gilbert, whose son, Walter Fitz Robert, married Maud, eldest daughter and coheir of Sir Richard de Lucy, chief justice of England, and was father of Robert Fitz-Walter; lord of Bainard's castle, of whom this lordship was held, by a younger branch of the Bainards, descended from Jeffrey abovementioned.

Thomas, son of Robert Bainard, held it of Walter Fitz-Robert, in the reign of Richard.

In the 52d of Henry III. Sir Robert Baynard, Cassandra his wife, and Robert his son, confirmed lands granted to the abbey of Langley.

Sir Robert Baynard was living in the 13th of Edward I. and in the 31st of that King, Robert Baynard and Felicia his wife, were querents in a fine, Robert de Bosevill deforciant, of 90 messuages, 2 mills, 400 acres of land, 8 of meadow, 24 of wood, 6 of marsh, 10 of alder, who as a trustee, settled them on Robert and Felicia in tail. In the following year a fine was levied between Joan, widow of Robert Baynard, and Robert Baynard and Maud his wife.

In the 4th year of Edward III. it was found that Robert Baynard, here, in Whetacre, &c. had 4 fees of the barony of Baynard, with Maud his wife, that the capital messuage here, after repairs, was nothing worth.

There were 120 acres of arable land, valued at 60s. per ann. 4 acres

Also a family that assumed their name from this town, had an interest herein; Agnes daughter of Philip de Shategrave, held one fee with Robert or Ralph Bainard, of Walter Fitz Robert, in the reign of King Richard I. and Robert de Chategrave and Emme his wife were living in the 6th of Edward I.

William Gerburgh, sen. in the 52d of Henry III. purchased of Agnes de Bugeham, by fine, a messuage, and 60 acres of land, 6 of marsh, and 40s. rent here, in Langley, and Lodne; and William his son, and Sibill, his wife, were living in the 16th of Edward I. and in the 23d of that King conveyed lands in this town, &c. to Robert, son of Robert Baynard and Felicia his wife.

The tenths were 2l. 0s. 1d.—Deducted 16s.

PRIOR OF BUTTLEY'S MANOR.

In the 20th of Henry III. William de Auberville granted by fine to Adam, prior of Buttele, the 3d part of the advowson of this church, and of Somerton, and Uptou in Norfolk; of Wantesden, Capele, Benhale, Baudsey, and Finburgh, with the moiety of the church of Glemham Parva, and 3 parts of 2 carucates of land in Somerton, and 2 in Buttele.<sup>4</sup>

The Lady Cassandra Baynard gave by fine to Walter, prior of Buttley St. Mary in Suffolk, a messuage, with 12 acres of land, and the advowson of this church, in the 56th of Henry III.

Sir Walter Hobart died lord of this, with Lilleford's lands or manor, Baynard's, &c. as lord of the whole town.

The abbot of Langley had lands here: Robert de Raveningham conveyed by fine, to William, abbot of Langley, in the 6th of Ed. I. lands here, and Robert Baynard, in the 10th of that King, bought lands in this town, &c. of Robert, son of Thomas de Raveningham, and Robert Baynard in the 12th of Edward II. gave to that abbey 100 acres of land, with 5s. rent in Chatgrave.

Sir Walter Hobart died possessed of it, of which family see in Hales, and after them Sir Nevil Catlyn.

The CHURCH was a rectory dedicated to All-Saints, and being granted by the Lady Cassandra Bainard to the priory of Buttley was appropriated thereto; and in the reign of Edward I. the prior had a manse and a carucate of land; it was valued at 10 marks, and there was a vicarage valued at 40s. Peter-pence 10d. carvage 7d. the prior

DITCHINGHAM.

WILLIAM DE NOIERS was steward of this lordship for the Conqueror, at the survey; it was a beruite to Stigand, the Archbishop's manor of Ersham, in the time of the Confessor, and he was deprived of it.

Stigand had 3 carucates of land, 9 villains, 5 borderers, 4 servi, 2 carucates in demean, 4 among the tenants, &c. with 64 acres of meadow, 2 mills, &c. 64 sheep, 55 goats: there were 22 socmen, with a carucate and half, and 8 carucates among them all, with 9 acres of meadow; a mill, valued in Ersham; it was one leuca long, and 4 furlongs, and 9 furlongs broad, and paid 8*d. gelt*.<sup>6</sup>

In the Crown it remained till King Stephen granted it (as it seems) to Hugh Bigot, on his being created Earl of Norfolk.

On the death of Roger Bigot, the last Earl of this family, in 1305, it came by his grant to the Crown, and so remained till King Ed. II. granted it to his half brother, Thomas de Brotherton Earl of Norfolk, who leaving two daughters and coheirs, Alice and Margaret, Alice brought it by marriage to Sir Edmund de Montacute, from whom it came to her sister, Margaret Countess, and after Dutchess of Norfolk; whose daughter and heiress, Elizabeth, married John Lord Mowbray, whose son Thomas, created Duke of Norfolk, possessed it.

By the female heiresses of the Mowbray's, Isabel, married to Sir James Berkley, and Margaret, to Sir Robert Howard, their inheritance came into those families, and this lordship went by the said Margaret to Sir John Howard, her son, who was created Duke of Norfolk, by King Richard III. and in this family it continues; Edward Howard Duke of Norfolk being the present lord.

P I R N H O W.

ROGER BIGOT, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, had a grant of this lordship, and Godwin held it of him at the survey; Algar, a freeman, being deprived of it on the conquest, who held it under Stigand, the Archbishop, in the reign of King Edward, with half a carucate of land, 6 borderers, half a carucate in demean, and half a one among the tenants, a mill, 2 saddle horses, and 5 cows, with 60 sheep; there was a socman with 4 acres of land, valued at 10s. and at the survey at 20s. it was 8 furlongs long, 3 broad, and paid 8*d.* gelt; the soc was in the lordship of Ersham.<sup>7</sup>

The town of Pirho has been demolished time immemorial, the lands belonging to it lie now in Ditchingham, and Pirhow-Hall is therein.

William de Pirrow held it under Bigot in the reign of Henry I. he was a person of great account at court, and witness to a charter of that King (to the abbey of Ramsey) with Gilbert Fitz Richard and Walter, son of Richard.

In the 26th of Henry II. a fine was levied before Geffrey Ridel Bishop of Ely, John Bishop of Norwich, William Basset, Roger, son of Reinfr. Robert Mansel, &c. the King's justices, at Westminster, on the feast of St. Pancrase, between William de Pirnow, and William de Brom, about a water-course in that town, whereby it was agreed that William de Pirnow, and William de Brom, should destroy their two mills, and erect one, on the said water-course belonging to both their fees, (viz. of Pirnow, and of Brome,) and each to have an equal right or moiety in the new one.

William de Pirnow, in the 24th of Henry III. released to Roger Earl of Norfolk, by fine, his right of fishery, from the mill of Cliff, and the bridge of Bungey, and the Earl granted to him a fishery, from Bungey Bridge, to the Earl's Vineyard.

Reginald de Pirnow, by deed sans date, confirmed to God and the monks of Sibeton in Suffolk, all the land which Robert Aldred gave them in Stickingland, in Suffolk:—witnesses, Norman de Pesal, Walter and William Maleth, Robert de Pirho, &c.; this Reginald was brother of William.

In the 35th of Henry III. a fine was levied about the custody of a carucate of land in Barsham, Norfolk, held of Edmund de Soterley, wherein it appears that Roger Bigot had the custody of the body of Sara, a minor, daughter of William de Pirnow deceased.

This Sara married James de Creke, and in the 41st of that King, they had the manor of Yoxford in Suffolk, conveyed to them by fine, from Jeff. le Neve, and Catherine his wife, it being the inheritance of William de Pirnho, her father.

Alice, daughter of William de Pirnhow, released in the 14th of Edward I. to John de Creke, son of James, her right in 40 acres of land, 30 of meadow, 20 of wood, 30s. rent here and in Ditchingham, with messuages and lands in Yoxford, Burgh, and Grundesburgh in Suffolk.

In the aforesaid year, Joan, late wife of John de Creke, sued James de Creke, for her dower; and in the 16th of the said King, William, son and heir of Sara de Pernhow, granted to Robert de Swillington, son of Helewise de Pernhow, and his heirs, the manor of Pirnhow.

The family of De Swillington take their name from a town in the West Riding of Yorkshire, of which they were lords, and descend from Hugh de Swynington, father of Robert, whose son Hugh confirmed to God, and the church of St. John of Pomfret in Yorkshire, and the monks serving God there, the rent of 5s. per ann. which Robert, son of Hugh formerly gave them, as appears from a pleading at York, before Silvester Bishop of Carlisle, one of the King's justices, in the 35th of Henry III.

Of this family was Eva de Swillington, who in the 11th year of King Henry III. gave to John, the abbot of Fountains, 5 bovates, 5 acres, and 2 roods of land, in Stainburn, and William de Swynington who held lands in Burle, in Yorkshire, of William de Byron, and died in 1224.

Hugh de Swindlington was living in the 35th of Henry III. and in the 11th of Edward I. when being a knight, had a grant of free warren in his lordships of Swindlington, Rodes, Burle, Whitby, Thorpe Extra Welle, and Newsome in the aforesaid county. This Hugh was probably the father of Robert, by Helcwisia de Perhow, to whom William, son and heir of Sara de Perho, granted the lordship of Perho; and in the 18th of Edward I. the said William granted by fine two parts of the lordships of Jokesford, Middleton, and Burgh in Suffolk, and the reversion of the third part, which Joan, late wife of John de Creke held in dower of the inheritance of William, Robert paying to him 10l. per ann. for his life,

In the 33d of the said King, William de Swylington gave to Adam de Swylington and Joan his wife, the part 3d of the lordship of Kyne-wardby in Lincolnshire.

Sir Adam de Swylington was in the expedition into Scotland, in the 34th year, and in the following year was arrested by the constable of Dover castle, for going beyond sea to the tournaments, contrary to the King's prohibition, and being brought to the Exchequer before the treasurer and barons, was committed to the Tower.

In the 5th of Edward II. he and Joan his wife, convey to William de Swillington, and Hugh Trusbut, by fine, his part of Kyne-wardby, and Ouseby manors, which Robert de Rasou, and Annora his wife held in dower.

In the 16th of that King, he and William de Scargill, were commissioners of array, to raise and conduct the men of the wapontake of Ansty in Yorkshire, against the Scots: and before this, as heir to William his brother, in the 10th of the said reign, gave to William Charles, all his right of presentation of the church of Tweyt in Norfolk, and was summoned to parliament as a baron from the 21st of Edward II. to the 2d of Edward III.

His elder brother, William, was lord of this town, also of Yoxford, Middleton, and Helmingham in Suffolk, in the 35th of Edward I. and in the 4th of Edward II. had a grant of free warren in this town, Yoxford, &c. and in Rodes, Burley, Witley, and Shelf in Yorkshire, as Adam his brother had in Swillington, Thorp Pirho, and Thorp on the Mount: in the 3d of the said King, William died s. p. Margaret his widow remarried Roger de Pilkington.

Sir Adam had by Joan his wife, two sons, Sir Adam, and Sir Robert, who died s. p.

Sir Adam, son of Sir Adam, released the manor of Thorp on the hill, by Rothwell in Yorkshire, to Thomas Fenton, and Isolda his wife, in the 22d of Edward II. This Adam was father of Sir Robert de Swyllington, jun. so called to distinguish him from his uncle Sir Robert: in the 44th of Edward III. he released to his uncle Sir Robert and his heirs, the manor of Pirnow; Sir Robert, jun. left a son Thomas, who had a daughter and heir, Elizabeth, married to Robert Sampson, Esq.

Sir Robert Swillington, senior, in the 45th of Edward III. gave to John de Nevile 40 marks for the manor of Bliburgh in Suffolk, and in the following year had a grant of the lordships of Pirnow, with those of Yoxford, Middleton, &c. from his nephew, who was to hold them for life.

In the 49th of that King, he received of William Pamplon of London, 10*l.* in part of the profits of his lands in Nottingham and Derbyshire; in the following year a grant of Westhale manor in Suffolk, from P—— de Naborn, and of that of Winepol in Cambridgeshire, from the feoffees of Warine de Bassingbourn. He held, in the 2d of Richard II. the 3d part of the manor of Prestwold in Leicestershire.

In the next year, Sir Ralph Cromwell of Tattleshall in Lincolnshire, released to him and his wife, all his claim, on the death of Thomasine, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Roger de Belers, of Kirkby-Belers in Leicestershire.

In the 9th of the said King, he and his wife paid 10*l.* relief for the lordship of Boney, in Nottinghamshire; he was also lord of Sporle and Dunham Parva in Norfolk.

At this time Sir William Swillington was living, who accompanied John Duke of Lancaster into Spain, son of Adam de Swillington, and brother of Sir Robert: he was of Driffield in Yorkshire, and married Margaret, daughter and heir of John Dringe.

Sir Rob. senior, or the uncle, died on Wednesday after the translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, in the 15th of Richard II. and was buried in the priory of Kirkby super Wrethesk<sup>8</sup> in Leicestershire, makes his executors, Margaret, (his wife) daughter and coheir of Sir Roger Belers, (by Margaret, daughter of Sir Richard de la River,) and to Joan, wife of his son Roger, he gives the marriage and wardship of Margaret Fretchevile;<sup>9</sup> and to Thomas Hopton, his natural son, 20*l.* and before his death gave lands in Bliburgh to the friars-preachers.

Margaret his widow married Sir John Eynesford, sheriff of Leicestershire, in the 21st of Richard II. and in the 17th of that King, they held the manor of Criche in Derbyshire, in capite.

Her will is dated Feb. 19, in the 5th of Henry V. and was buried in the priory church of Kirkby Belers in Leicestershire, under the stone designed by her: gives to Roger her son, and Robert his brother, several things, and to Margaret their sister 10 marks, and it was proved July 2, 1418.<sup>1</sup>

Sir Robert's seal was argent, a chevron, azure, in chief, a file of three points, ermin.

Roger de Swillington, son and heir of Sir Robert, senior, and Margaret his wife, was aged 2 years at his father's death, in 1491, and had livery of a large estate; was a knight, and married first, Joan, daughter of Sir Robert Nevil of Hornby castle, in Lancashire; his 2d wife was Joan, daughter of Stephen Scroop, Esq. and had issue by both.

His will is dated on the morrow of St. Catharine, ao. 5th of Henry V. and deviseth to Joan his wife, 100*l.* to John his son, 10*l.* to Margery Gra his daughter, a gold cup; to Joan, wife of his son John, 100*l.* to the friars-preachers of Ludgate, 40*l.* to keep the anniversaries of himself, his 2 wives, and of his father, Robert; and to the 2 nuns (sisters of Thomas de Swillington) 13*s. 4d.* each, and appoints Thomas Hopton and Joan his wife, executors; proved August 12, 1417, in the said reign.

By his 2d wife, he had a son, Sir Robert Swillington, who married Margaret, daughter of ——— Allesford, and died before his father, without issue.

Sir John Swillington was son and heir of Sir Roger, by his first wife; besides the many lordships abovementioned, he was lord of Wydmerpole, Gonaldston, Standford and Normanton, in Nottinghamshire; also of Burston, in Norfolk, of the grant of John Carbonell, Esq.; he survived his father but one year, dying in the 6th of Henry V. without issue; so that his great inheritance, with this lordship of Ditchingham, held of the Mowbrays, Dukes of Norfolk, descended to his sister and heir, Margaret, married to Sir John Gra, of South Ingleby in Lincolnshire, and died without issue in the 8th year of King Henry V.

On the death of Margaret Lady Gra, Elizabeth, wife of Robert Sampson, of Playford in Suffolk, Esq. was found to be next heir, (as daughter of Thomas, son of Robert, son of Adam de Swillington,) and they had livery.

In the 6th of Henry VI. died Joan Lady Swillington, daughter and heir of ——— Scroop, 2d wife of Sir Roger, possessed of her thirds in many lordships, leaving Isabel, wife of Robert Coyners of Stockborn, Elizabeth, wife of Roger Aske, and Margaret, wife of William Edlyngton, her daughters and coheirs, by her husband, William de Port.

At this time there seems to have been a contest about the inheritance of Swillington.

In the 6th of Henry VI. Robert Sampson, and Elizabeth his wife, released all their right in the manors of Ditchingham and Elingham, in Norfolk; Bliburgh, Westlcton, Lenvale's, Rysing's, Cleydon, Thoretton,

Wenhaston, Westhale, Yoxford, Muriel's, and all the lands late Sir Robert Swillington's, to John Hopton, Esq. and his heirs.

This John was son of Thomas Hopton, natural son of Sir Robert Swillington, to whom he left, at his death 20*l.* and by some settlement, no doubt, laid claim to this estate.

Thomas Hopton the father died before Margaret Lady Gra, and an entail on him and his heirs, was made (as is said) by Sir Rog. de Swillington, father of John. King Henry VI. in his 8th year, by virtue of this entail, commands the sheriff of Norfolk to deliver seisin to John Hopton, Esq. taking security for his relief: he was son of Thomas, by Joan his wife.<sup>2</sup>

In the 11th of the said King, John Hopton was found to hold of the Duke of Norfolk, (heirs to the Bigots) half a fee in this town. Sir John Gra released to him in the 18th of the said reign, Swillington Old, and New-hall, the manors of Preston, Cutworth and Rode, in Yorkshire, with others in Nottinghamshire, Leicestershire, and Derbyshire, with all his right and claim; and in the 18th year, Bartholomew Whitfeld, and Elizabeth his wife, released all their right &c.; she was the relict of Robert Sampson, and now the wife of Whitfeld.

John Hopton died seized of the aforesaid manors in the 8th of Edward IV. and William Hopton, Esq. was found to be his son and heir.

John occurs frequently in writings by the names of John Swillington, alias Hopton, of Wood in Suffolk; he married first, Thomasine, daughter of John Barrington; she died s. p.

By Margaret his 2d wife, daughter of Thomas Savile of ——— in Yorkshire, he had William his son, who was a great courtier, treasurer of the house, and of the privy council to King Edward IV. a knight, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk in the reign of Richard III.; he married Margaret, daughter of Sir Roger Wentworth, of Nettlestead in Suffolk, and died in the said reign.

Sir George Hopton, of Westwood, was his son and heir, created a knight banneret at the battle of Stoke, in the 2d year of King Henry VII. he died July 6, in the 5th of Henry VII. by Thomasine his wife, daughter of ——— Southhill, of Yorkshire, he had William, his eldest son, who died before him, in the said year; and Arthur, who succeeded his father. Sir George bore the arms of Swillington.

By an inquisition taken at Woodbridge, November 1, in the 6th year of Henry VIII. Arthur was found to be son and heir of Sir George: he was of Westwood, and married Anne, daughter of Sir David Owen, of Cowdry in Sussex, natural son of Owen Tudor, who married Catherine, Queen dowager of Henry V. and was father of Sir Owen Hopton, who was lieutenant of the Tower of London.

The Hoptons sold by fine the lordship of Swillington in Yorkshire, to Edward North, Esq. in the 32d of Henry VIII.

About this time, most likely, this manor of Ditchingham, and Pirnow-hall, were alienated.

Thomas Gawdy, serjeant at law, died seized of this lordship, on August 4, in the 4th of Philip and Mary; and in the said year, Thomas his son, had livery of it.

Anthony Gawdy had a præcipe in the 14th of Elizabeth, to deliver it to Thomas Gawdy, as William Sutton had in the 38th of that Queen, to deliver it Francis Gaudy.

After this, Robert Brent of Ditchingham is said to sell it to the Calvers of this town.

Gregory Calver was lord in 1627, and father of Richard Calver, born in that year, whose son Richard sold it to Philip Bedingfield of Ditchingham.

Robert Davy, Esq. counsellor at law, recorder of Norwich, died lord, and s. p. in 1703, descended from an ancient family in this town.

Andrew Davy of Ditchingham, married Elizabeth, daughter of John Thurton, Gent. Robert Davy and Anne his wife, living, ao. 1634, and had Robert their son, then baptized. Robert Davy, Esq. married Elizabeth, daughter of Philip Bedingfield, Esq.

The tenths were 4*l.* 2*s.* Deducted 6*s.*

The Bedingfields of Ditchingham had an estate here in the reign of Henry VIII. and being lords of Hedenham, I shall there treat of them.

H A L E S,

BY Loddon, is by some accounted a town in this hundred, and by others in the hundred of Clavering; where see for it.

HELGETON.

ROGER Bigot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, had, by grant of the Conqueror, an interest in, or the moiety of, a freeman, who possessed 8 acres, and ploughed it with 2 oxen, (Bigot's lordship in Claxton, Ashby and Carleton, extended into this town,) and it was valued in Carleton.<sup>4</sup>

It was held by an ancient family, who assumed their name from the town. John, son of Wymer de Helgeton, gave to the canons of Walsingham, by deed, sans date, a quarter of barley, yearly; and Robert, son of Herbert de Helgeton, gave lands in Carlton to the canons of Langley.

In the 4th of King John, a fine was levied between William, parson of Helgeton, petent, and Godfrey, son of Alan tenant, of lands here; and in the 10th of that King, Jeffrey de Noring was petent, and Alan de Helgeton, tenant, of a carucate of land.

William de Helgeton was lord, and died about the 10th of Henry III. and was succeeded by John his brother, when Alice, widow of William, granted to John, the 3d part of this manor, held as her dower, with lands in Wrampingham, for the rent of 60s. per ann.

This John married Emme, sister of the said Alice.

Thomas de Helgeton claimed, as lord, in the 14th of Edward I. the assise, view of frank pledge, and a weekly mercate, on Wednesday, with a fair in this manor. Sir Thomas de Helgeton and Alice his wife, were living in the 25th of Edward I. when they conveyed by fine, to William de Kerdeston, this lordship, with the reversion of many lands in this town, &c. after the decease of several persons, excepting the advowson of this church, and that of Ashby.

We find that the Helgetons had still an interest here; and in the 26th of Edward I. John de Helgeton, and Claricia his wife, granted lands to Matthew de Kerdeston: as Will. son of Rob. de Helgeton, and Prudence his wife did, to Hugh de Loved, in the 11th of Edward II. and John de Helgeton and Roger de Kerdeston, held here and in Wrampingham, one fee, in the 17th of that King. John de Snetterton, and Bartholomew de Helgeton, conveyed to John de Helgeton and Agnes his wife, (as trustees,) several messuages, and great parcels of land in the 6th of Edward III. but the manor and advowson was, at this time, in the Kerdestons, and Roger de Kerdeston presented in 1326.

In this family it remained, as in Claxton; and after that the Breretons.

Roger Crow, Esq. was lord, and presented in 1723, and in 1731 John Bedingfeld, Esq.

Godric, the King's steward, had a grant of the lands of 3 freemen, 2 of them belonged to Edwin, (who was son of Algar Earl of Mercia.)

and one to Gert, (King Harold's brother,) on whose deprivation, their lands were granted to Ralph Earl of Norfolk, and on his rebellion, and forfeiture, to Godric.

These three freemen had 2 carucates of land, and 12 borderers under them, held 3 carucates and a half; there were 12 freemen, 6 of them belonged to the lord's fold, who had the soc, and the other six were freemen; among all these were 2 carucates, and 40 acres of land. Helgeton was 4 furlongs long, and 3 broad, and paid 4*d.* gelt.<sup>5</sup>

On the death of Godric, this seems to have come to the Crown, as an escheat, and was granted to William de Cheyney, (lord of Horseford,) with Claxton, in the reign of King Stephen, and so to the Cressys; and the family of De Kerdeston was enfeoffed of it, as may be seen at large in Claxton.

From the Kerdestons it came to the De la Poles, &c. to the Gaudys, &c. being united to the manor abovementioned.

John de Shardelow and Agnes his wife, purchased lands here of John, son of Hugh le Falconer of this town, and Catharine, his wife, in the reign of Edward III. and in the 25th of that King, John, son of Sir John de Shardelow, and Thomas his brother, gave the church of Cowling in Suffolk, to Trinity hall, Cambridge.

Alan de Helgeton, by deed sans date, gave to the monks of Castleacre, land in Helgeton;<sup>6</sup> and Wimer, son of Lambert de Helgiuton, gave to them a meadow, called Hoxwelledol; and in the 30th of Edward I. Thomas, son and heir of Sir Robert de Haleghton, covenants (with his father) to marry Joan, daughter and heir of Sir Nicholas de Wokindon.

The CHURCH was dedicated to St. John Baptist, and with that of Ashby (both being rectories) were valued at 10 marks.

Peter-pence, 12*d.* carvage, 8*d.* the rector had 30 acres of land, with a house.

William occurs rector in the 4th of King John, as by a fine.

William de Kerdeston purchased by fine, of Thomas de Helegh-ton and Alice his wife, 24 messuages, 3 mills, 320 acres of land, &c. with the advowsons of this town, and Asseby, ao. 26th Edward I.

HEDENHAM.

ALGAR, a thane, in King Edward's reign, possessed this manor, but on the conquest was ejected. Hugh de Abrincis, the Conqueror's sister's son, had a grant of it, and possessed it at the survey, being then Earl of Chester.

Algar is called a thane of Archbishop Stigand, and had 2 carucates of land, 5 villains, 9 borderers, and 6 servi; there were 3 carucates in demean, &c. a carucate and an half among the tenants, &c. with 12 acres of meadow, a mill, 2 cows, &c. and 40 goats; and there were 20 freemen, who held under his protection half a carucate of land; there were 3 carucates, &c. of meadow.<sup>2</sup>

Warine held it under Hugh, being enfeoffed thereof.

Warine abovementioned was ancestor of the family of Meynwarin of Cheshire, of which family the Ilketeshales held this lordship: Gilbert de Ilketeshale was lord also of Hedenham, and Ilketeshale in Suffolk.

Sir Thomas, his son and heir, was living in the 7th of Henry III. whose son, Gilbert, had a charter for free warren here, &c. in the 32d of that King, also in Gamlingay, in Cambridgeshire, and in the 3d of Edward I. Gilbert settled it on Sir Thomas de Weyland for life, with the advowson, in exchange for the manor of Blaxal: and in the 18th of that King, it was held of the heirs of Waryne de Maynwaryn, a minor, as part of the honour of Chester: Sir James, son of Gilbert, was then lord, who married Oliva, daughter of Sir Thomas de Weyland, the judge, and was father of James, who married, first, Maud, daughter of Richard, son of William de la Rokele, as appears by a fine in the 26th of Edward I. and after married Ida, daughter of Sir Robert de Stafford, by whom he had a right in the lordship of Rodborn, &c. in Derbyshire; she had a sister married to Thomas de Stanton.

In this family it remained, as may be seen at large in Kelling. Sir Thomas Ilketeshale dying in 1417, left a son, and a daughter, who dying soon after, his four sisters children became his heirs, in the 9th of Henry V.

and left Laurence, her son, had an interest in right of the said Idonea, one of Sir Thomas Ilkeshale's sisters,—Margaret, another sister, married Thomas Seive,—Joan, another sister, married, and had Margaret, a daughter, married to Richard Elswyke; and the 4th sister married to Gilbert de Debenham.

Isabel, the widow of Sir Thomas, remarried, between whom, William, her husband, and Thomas Deyvill, her son, by William, and the heirs of Sir Thomas, were disputes about his inheritance.

In the 31st of Henry VI. John Oxy and Cecilia his wife, &c. (as in Kelling) had a right herein; and in the 7th of Edward IV. Cecilia Oxy, &c. released it to Henry Heydon, Esq. of Baconsthorp.

Richard Elswyk, had by Margaret, daughter of Joan, a son Thomas, who changed his name to Sharnborn,<sup>3</sup> kept his part and interest herein, presenting to this church in 1438, as did John his son, in 1473, and Thomas Sharnborn in 1595, and Christopher Shernborn had livery of it about the 6th of Elizabeth; soon after this, Haydon's interest herein, and that of Sharnborn was conveyed to the Bedingfelds; and in 1569, Edmund Bedingfield, Esq. presented as lord.

The Bedingfelds of this town were a younger branch of that of Bedingfield in Suffolk: Philip Bedingfield, Esq. lived at Ditchingham in the 34th of Henry III. and held lands at Bedingfield (as by his will then dated November 18) and in this town; he was son (as I conceive) of Thomas Bedingfield, of Bedingfield, by Joun, daughter and heir of Roger Bosard of Ditchingham, by whom the estate here came, and by her had Edmund, his eldest son, Robert, the second son, and Henry the third son:† he appoints Anne his wife, and Thomas his brother, rector of Alderton, his executors; his will was proved July 18, 1543.

In 1569, Edmund Bedingfield, Esq. presented to this church, eldest son of Philip, by Anne, daughter of Richard Yaxley, of Yaxley in Suffolk, Esq.

In 1572, Robert Bedingfield, Esq. presented, and in 1582.

Philippa, daughter of this Robert, married John Higham, Esq. in 1600; and in the said year, Sir Clement Higham married at Ditchingham, Anne, another of Robert's daughters.<sup>5</sup>

After this in 1626, Miles Hobart, Esq. of Intwood, presented in right of Frances,<sup>6</sup> late wife of Sir Philip Bedingfield.

In 1661, Philip Bedingfeld, Esq. was lord: he married Ursula, daughter of Sir John Potts, Bart. of Mannington, and was father of Philip Bedingfeld, Esq. of Ditchingham, who died in 1696, August 25, and was buried in the church of Hedenham, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of William Stroud, Esq. of Kent, by whom she had several children; Philip and Robert, the two eldest, died s. p. John the third son, James the fourth, and John the fifth; to whom Sir George Stroud, his mother's brother, gave his estate about 1710.

John, the 3d son, was rector of this town and of Bedingfeld in Suffolk, and in 1729, John Bedingfeld, Esq. was lord and presented.

ried Thomas Newce, Esq. of Broxborne in Hertfordshire.

<sup>6</sup> She was daughter of Sir John Peyton of Isleham in Cambridgeshire, Bt. and remarried Miles Hubart, Esq. of Intwood.

Philip Bedingfeld, Esq. is the present lord and patron, who married first, ——— Bacon, daughter of Sir Edmund Bacon, Bart. of Gillingham, and after the widow Forster, daughter of Mr. Spendlove of Norwich, Gent.

PARK'S MANOR,

In this town, was held partly of the manor of Hedenham, and partly of Earl Bygod's manor of Ditchingham. In the 20th of Henry III. Robert de Hedenham was found to hold the fifth part of a fee here and in Sithing of the Earl-Marshal.

John de Hedenham was witness to a deed, sans date; and in the 53d of Henry III. a fine was levied between William, son of Thomas de Whitton, and Isabel his wife, querents, and Robert, son of Reinold de Hedenham, deforcient, of lands and messuages in this town and Ditchingham.

Robert de Hedenham was lord in the 31st of Edward I. but in the 2d of Edward II. a fine was levied, whereby John de L'Ecclese, of Shelfangre, conveyed it, with 8 messuages, 105 acres of land, to John de la Park.

This John, was a descendant of William de la Park of Ikteshale in Suffolk.

In 1309, Adam de Park was living here, and in the 15th of Edward III. and William was lord in 1345.

Joan, the sole daughter and heiress of this family, married first, John Duke of Brampton, Esq. by whom she had Thomas, a son and heir; her second husband, was John Strange, Esq. of Norwich, who with his wife Joan, levied a fine of it A<sup>o</sup>. 36 of Henry VI. settling it in trust for himself, by his will dated June 14, 1476, appoints Elizabeth (then his second wife) to have an annuity of 10 marks per ann. out of his manors of Hedenham, Aslacton, and Wacton,<sup>7</sup> during her widowhood, and if Thomas Duke, son of Joan his first wife, will pay the said annuity, then his executors should make an estate of the said manors to him, who accordingly possessed them with the lordship of Brampton.

In this family it remained, till sold to the Richmonds.

Robert Richmond was lord in the 9th of Elizabeth, son of Richard Richmond, Gent. of Hedenham-Park's manor, by ———, his wife, daughter of ——— Thurston of Ditchingham, which Robert was father of John Richmond, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Richard Ward of Alborough in Norfolk; this John had these arms confirmed to him by Robert Cook, Clarencieux, in 1576; ermin, on a chief sable, a griffin passant, or.

John, married first, Anne daughter of William Gooch of St. Margaret's, Ikteshale, by whom he had Robert, his son, and by his second wife, Catherine, daughter of Thomas Ward of Broke, he had Anne, who married Thomas Day of Cotton.

John, by an inquisition taken, at Norwich, September 26, A<sup>o</sup>. 27 Elizabeth, was found to die on May 26, last past (and it is therein said that Robert, was his son and heir, by Catherine, daughter of Thomas Ward of Broke, and aged 14) seized of the manor of Park's, held in free soccage of the Crown, as lord of Ditchingham; also of 94 acres in this town, Ditchingham, &c. held of the honour of Chester, and of a capital manor called Richmond's.

Robert Richmond, Esq. lord, by Catherine his wife, daughter of Thomas Prettyman, Gent. of Baketon in Suffolk, was father of John Richmond, lord of this manor of Parks, as held by his grandfather: he took to wife Mary, daughter of Roger Goodwyn of Stoneham in Suffolk, and died on February 6, A. 15 of Charles I.

Robert, his father, was then living, and John was found to be his son and heir, by Mary, aged 11 years.

John Richmond, Esq. son of John, married Anne, daughter of———, and sister of Sir William Cooper, Knt. and Bart. and was father of William, and of Catherine.

William, son and heir, died s. p. whose sister Mary married Charles Garneys, Esq. a younger branch of the family of Kenton, by whom she had Charles Garneys, Esq. of Mourningthorp, and Clere Garneys her second son, who was lord, of the manor of Parks; by Margaret his wife, daughter of John Watts of Mercate Burnham, he had Richard, a son and heir, Catherine, and Mary. Clere was living in 1723, but Margaret his wife died in February 1722.

Richard Garneys, Esq. son of Clere, married Anne, daughter of William Churchman, Esq. of Illington; but dying s. p. Catherine, his sister, was his heir, who married John Bedingfield, rector of this church, and was lord in her right.

The tenths were 1*l.* 8*s.*—Deducted 13*s.*—Temporalities of Langley abbey 11*d.*

The church is a rectory dedicated to St. Mary; John, the rector, petitioned Pope Innocent,

That whereas Walter de Wudeton, lately deceased, officiated as vicar of the said church, where there never was any; and that the admission of another, would be injurious to any rector; and this diocesan consenting that there should be none, that the Pope would confirm the same, which he did by his bull, dated at Lions, October 4, in the 4th year of his pontificate.

In the 7th of Henry III. a fine was levied between Thomas, son of Gilbert de Ilketeshale and Hugh Bigot Earl of Norfolk, of the advowson of a moiety of this church granted to Thomas, and his heirs, paying 20 marks, and releasing to the Earl his right in a fishery between Beebles and Bongey.

Sir Thomas de Weyland, the judge, was patron in the time of Edward I. by a grant, the rectory was then valued at 20 marks per ann. had no manse, but 50 acres of land, Peter-pence 14*d.* ob. carvage 9*d.* ob. and the prior of Bromholm had a portion of tithe valued at 10*s.* held in fee farm rent of the abbot and convent of St. Sever, in Normandy; and confirmed by the grant of Gilbert,<sup>8</sup> son of Sir Thomas of Ilketeshal, by deed sans date: the deed to the abbot of Bromholm from the abbot of St. Sever, is dated 1249, valued then at 10*s.*

LANGLEY TOWN AND ABBEY.

THE capital lordship of this town was granted by the Conqueror to William Beaufoe, who was his chaplain, and chancellor, and was held by him as a lay fee, and his own inheritance, when Domesday book was made, being then Bishop of Thetford.

Anant, a freeman, held it under King Edward, and was deposed: it consisted then of 3 carucates of land, 2 villains, &c. 8 borderers, 2 carucates and a half in demean, one among the tenants, &c. 8 acres of meadow, one mill, 7 horses, four cows, &c. 95 sheep; and Anant had 25 socmen, with one carucate, and after 4 carucates. Three freemen under his protection had 40 acres, but the soc was in the King: and there was a carucate also and a half.

Here was one priest who in his own right, and 2 others who held by moieties, 100 acres of free land belonging to the church of St. Andrew; the whole was valued at 4*l.* and was one leuca long, and one broad; and paid 11*d.* gelt.

In King Edward's time Almar and his parceners held this land of Anant, and he died suddenly.<sup>2</sup>

The Lords Bardolf of Wirmegay, in Norfolk, were enfeoffed of the greatest part of this manor, and held it of the see of Norwich; and the family of De Cheyney and their descendants, held it of the Lords Bardolf, by the service of two knights fees.

Sir Robert Fitz Roger, Helke, or De Clavering, who was lord of Horsford, by the marriage of Margaret, daughter and coheir of William de Cheyney, relict of Sir Hugh de Cressi, was lord of this manor: on his founding a monastery for canons of the Premonstratensian order here, in 1198, gave the greatest part of this manor to it, to be held by one fee and three quarters, the other quarter of a fee being in his own family) also the advowson of the church, with the marsh of Raveness, &c.<sup>1</sup>

The founder was sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 3d and 4th year of King Richard I. and in the said reign this abbey was founded; his descendants assumed the name of De Clavering, from their lordship of that name, in Essex, and had the patronage of this abbey, of whom see in Horsford.

The anniversary of the founder was kept on the 18th of the calends of May.

Here were an abbot and 15 canons, of the Premonstratensian order, dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, and valued, as Dugdale, at 104*l.* 16*s.* 5*d.* ob.; as Speed, at 128*l.* 19*s.* ob.

King John, in his first year, confirmed the grant of the founder, and granted the abbot a fair and a weekly mercate in the manor of Langley, with soc, sac, and many other liberties.

It appears from a rental that they had considerable possessions, the manors of Langley, Thurton, Burgh cum Apeton, Mundham, Raveningham, Iyseland, Asheby, Winston, Rockland, Poringland, Framingham, Shotesham, Kirkeby, Trous, Boxthorp, Whetacre, Rushale, Heckingham cum Rochelage, and Hales.

Alan de Heckingham gave lands which he had of William Foliot, and William gave the homages of the heirs of Richard Thurgot in Heckingham, and Alice and Mabil, daughters of Richard Turget, grant the homages and services of John de Lodne.

William de Horseford and Margaret his wife, with the consent of Claricia de Burgo, gave lands in Bergh.

Robert de Colvile lands and a turbarry in Lothwestoft.

William, son of Warin, and William, son of Ralph de Whetacre, lands and villains.

Reginald, son of Simon de Burgo, called also Simon de Raveningham, lands.

William de Cheyney gave them his tenants in Cove and Worlingham, in Suffolk.

Roger de Thaseburgh and Eva his wife, widow of — de Fernun, and Robert Fernun her son, gave lands.

Mr. Hugh de Stockton lands in Winston, and Geldington.

Ralph de Bakenham the services of Jeffrey de Lodnes, in Lodne, and Jeffrey de Stabbs lands there.

Sir Andrew de Hengham, Knt. confirmed to them all the lands given them by his father and ancestors, in Bergh and Thurton.

Petronilla, daughter of Sir John de Faux, in her widowhood, for the souls of her father, and William de Nerford her husband, all the tenants in her fee, called Gris-fee, in Thurton, Askeby, Bergh Apeton, and Carleton, ao. 15th Edw. II.

Walter de Hemenhale, in the 41st of Henry III. granted to Simon, then abbot, a messuage, 2 carves of land, and 3 acres of wood.

Simon, the abbot, in 1267, at the request of Sir Jeffrey de Lodnes, remitted to Sir William de Wendling and his heirs, 5*s.* rent per ann. out of the houses which he bought of Henry de Worton, in Conesford-street, Norwich, by the edifice of Isaac the Jew. The seal of Simon is of green wax; on one side is the Virgin and the child Jesus, seated on a throne; on the other a King on his throne, probably the abbey seal.<sup>2</sup>

In the 4th of Edward II. they had a patent for lands in Buthorp, Norfolk, Thomas de Cockfield lands, on an exchange for lands in Erleham. In the 6th of that King, one to purchase a messuage, 10 acres of land, 38 of meadow, and 25*s.* rent in this town, Lodne, &c. of John de <sup>2</sup> Bp. Tanner's Notit. Monast. says with an hand issuing from each side of the abbey's arms were a pastoral staff, the shield, and holding a sword.

John, in 1513, then abbot, was collated by the Bishop of Norwich, to the rectory of Chatgrave in Norfolk.

Robert Walkington occurs in 1517, in which year Pope Leo, on the 6th of the calends of April, ao. pontif. 5, granted him, (then abbot) a bull to empower him to hold another abbey, and 2 ecclesiastical benefices, or 3 benefices, without the abbey's; in 1523, he was rector of Carlton, and in 1529, rector of Claxton.

The patronage of this abbey was in the lords of Horsford.

At the Dissolution, the abbot was found to pay every 7 weeks, 3s. 9d. ob. castle-guard to Norwich castle, being, held of that see, by the service of two fees.

Almost all the canons were desirous of being discharged and freed from their order, and on June 5, ao. 38 Henry VIII. John Berney, Esq. had a grant of the manor of Langley, late belonging to the abbey, with the site of the said abbey Langley Grauges, with all the houses in Langley parish, belonging to the said monastery, messuages and lands, called Pedhams, and Stayner's, with lands in the tenure of the master and fellows of Dunnington college, and lands in Ashby, Claxton, Chetgrave, Hardley, Bergh-Apton, &c. with 30 quarters of barley, paid by tenants in Hardley, valued at 30s. per ann. also 30 quarters of barley paid by the tenants in Langley.

Richard Berney, Esq. son of John, married Elizabeth, daughter of James Hobart, Esq. of Hales-hall in Loddon: she died April 16, 1622, and he on June 27, 1615, and are buried in the church of St. Peter's Mountergate, in Norwich, where is an elegant monument erected to their memory, dying without issue, on whose death it came to Robert Berney, Esq. his nephew, probably.

In this family it remained, in 1742, Richard Berney, Esq. being then lord and patron.

The present lord of this town is Sir William Beauchamp Proctor, created baronet in 1744, Knight of the Bath, and knight of the shire of Middlesex, in parliament.

He bears for his arms, or, three nails, 2 and 1, sable, and married first, —, daughter of Christopher Towers, Esq. of Huntsmore in Bucks: his present lady is daughter of Peter Johnson, Esq. of Berkhamstead in Hertfordshire.

Sir Robert Fitz-Roger, the founder, reserved (as is abovementioned) one quarter of a fee of his lordship, in his own family, which was held of it by tenants, as a lay fee.

In the 20th of Edward III. William Fernun, Thomas de Bergh, &c. held it of Robert de Benhale, Knt. lord of Horsford, and Eve his wife, they of the Lord Bardolf, and that lord of the Bishop of Norwich, which Robert Fernun formerly held.

John de Langley aliened lands of this fee to the abbey, with other persons; so that the whole was in the abbot at the Dissolution.

The tenths were 5*l.* 10*s.* 2*d.* deducted 1*l.* 10*s.* 2*d.* the temporalities of the abbey of St. Bennet 49*s.* 4*d.*

The Church was a rectory, dedicated to St. Michael, valued at 20 marks; had a manse, with 30 acres of land, in the reign of Edward I. paid Peter-pence, 9*d.* carvage 18*d.* and was appropriated to the abbey by Roger de Skerwyng, Bishop of Norwich, about 1270.

The church is a single pile, covered with lead, and the chancel with tiles, and has a square tower with bells.

In the chancel are several gravestones; one,

In memory of Susanna Curson, daughter of Thomas Curson, Esq; who died December 17, 1625.

In memory of Ann Hobart, daughter of James Hobart of Holt in Norfolk, Esq; who died in 1633.

In a glass window are two shields : in one a roe buck, and a buck supporting a crosier staff; in the other is a wall painted, and embattled, also a tun, being a rebus (as I take it) to set forth the benefactor of this window, &c.

Robert Walkington, abbot of Langley, and the said arms was in the abbot's parlour of Langley abbey.

In 1603, the curate returned 100 communicants.

On the Dissolution the appropriated rectory came to the Crown, and so remained till granted to the see of Ely, by Queen Elizabeth, and confirmed by act of parliament, and so remains at this time.

In the church were the lights of St. Mary, in St. Mary's chapel, of St. John Baptist, before whose altar the Lady Joan, wife of Sir Henry de Reveshale was buried, and that of all the martyrs, and of St. Nicholas, with the guilds of St. Michael and St. John Baptist.

THE abbot and convent of St. Edmund of Bury had a considerable lordship here in the reign of King Edward ; and at the survey, when Frodo was enfeoffed of it, and held of the abbey, with 3 carucates of land, and 10 acres ; 3 villains, 8 borderers, and 2 carucates in demean &c. and 2 among the tenants, &c. 8 acres of meadow, one mill, one runeus, 12 cows, &c. 80 sheep, and 2 skeps of bees : there were also 11 soemen, with all their customary dues, and 2 carucates, and 20 acres, valued then at 40s. at the survey at 4*l.* it was 14 furlongs long and 4 broad, and paid 16*d.* gelt, whoever may hold it ; the soc was in the abbey.<sup>4</sup>

Frodo, who was enfeoffed of it, was brother of Baldwin, abbot of Bury, a Norman, who with his convent, granted it to him, with Mundham in Norfolk, Tostock, Dunham, and Somerleton in Suffolk.<sup>5</sup>

Alfric, called Modercope, a noble Saxon hero, is said to have given it to the abbey, in the time of the Confessor.

Goscelinus de Lodnes held it under Frodo with 5 knights fees and a half.

It is also said in Register Pinchebeck of this abbey, that Britulinus alias Britulfus, son of Leomar, was lord of Cheventon, Saxham, Dunham, Tostoke, and Somerletun in King Edward's time; and that King William, on his death, gave it to the abbey, and to Baldwin the abbot, to give to Frodo his brother, and among his followers (Frenchmen) to serve St. Edmund, whenever they were summoned; and that the abbot by the King's command gave Frodo, Dunham, Fostook, and Somerletun, to hold of St. Edmund and the King, and to find soldiers; and that Chevington and Saxham being near to the monastery, the abbot held them in his own hands, for the use of his church, and gave Lodne and Mendham, which lay at a distance, to Frodo: they being given to the abbey by Alfric Modercope, with Thurwineham, in the time of Edward the Confessor, and Alfric the Bishop.

Aldbold, abbot of Bury, gave to O——, late wife of Gosceline de Lodne, about 1110, in fee, the land that Gosceline held at his death, paying for the land at Thurston, 20s. per ann. to the sacrist; witnesses, Gilbert Blund, Gilbert, son of Frodo, &c.

Jeffrey de Lodne (probably) son of Gosceline, was living in the reign of King Henry I. and Jordan, son of Jeffrey, was lord in the time of King Stephen, and granted lands here by deed; witnesses, Roger de Watchtune, Richard de Thorpe, Henry de Hemenhale; his seal, a man armed cap-a-pee, on horseback, his sword drawn in his right hand, and a shield in his left.

Ralph de Lodne, with the consent of Gosceline, his son, gave by deed sans date to the nunnery of Wykes in Essex, with Beatrice his daughter, the tithe of his house and land at Preston in Suffolk: this was in the time of William (Turbe) Bishop of Norwich, as appears by the deed, and in the reign of Henry II.

In the 10th of King John, Hubert de Randeston sued Jeffrey de Lodne, for a carucate of land in Ratelesden, of his inheritance, which William his brother held in the reign of Henry II. Jeffrey pleaded that he had the land by the marriage of the daughter of Hervey de Glanvile; so that Robert de Creke, who married the daughter of William de Glanvile, ought to warrant it.

Thomas, son of William, son of Herbert, grants to Roger, son of Jeffrey de Lodne, by deed sans date, houses and lands, which Roger de Siscland and Stonilde his wife, held of him; witnesses, Jeffrey de Lodne, and John his son, Gilbert de Elingham, Roger de Hales, and William, his son, Alan de Hekingham, &c. the seal, a man in complete armour on a horse in full speed, without a bridle, with a drawn sword, and on his shield a cross pattee.

Jeffrey de Lodne was a steward to the priory of Norwich, 1242, and in the preceding year, Robert, son of Gilbert de Walsham, had granted to him by fine, from Geff. the service of one knight's fee in Lodne, Langley, &c. Roger paying 6s. per ann. and 10s. when the scutage was at 20s.

Goscelin, who dying s. p. his five sisters were his heirs; Alice, or Amitia, who married William de Beauchamp; 2d, Agnes married William de Ryvill; 3d, Susan, married to Hugh de Somerton; 4th, Emma to Ralph de Hoo; and 5th, Lescilina, to Peter de Brokeley: yet the family of the Lodnes (as some collateral branch) had an interest in the town after this, and Sir John de Lodne was living in the reign of Edward I. and held lands here, also William, his son.

CHARLES'S MANOR.

Alicia, who married William Beauchamp, on a division of Gosceline's estate, had besides her own part, the part of her sister Agnes, who with her husband, William de Ryvill, granted it to her, and her husband, William de Beauchamp.

John de Beauchamp, their descendant, granted by fine, his interest therein, to Edward, son of Sir William Charles,<sup>7</sup> and Alice his wife, with 5*l.* annual rent in Lodne, Heckingham, Langley, &c. and the advowson of Lodne, Quidenham, Norton, Akele, &c. in the 16th of Edward I.

In the 48th of Henry III. Sir William Charles had a grant of free warren in all his lands in this town, Syselaud, Mundham, &c. and in the following year, that of a weekly mercate on Friday, and an annual fair at Loddon, and his son Edward claimed the said liberties in the 15th of Edward I.

To this Edward, and Alice his wife, Henry de Hales, and Trista de Ketelburgh surrender by fine, the manor of Milton in Northamptonshire: remainder to William their son; by this it seems that Alice was daughter and heir of ———— de Ketelburgh, lord of that town, in Suffolk.

Edward had also other younger sons; Robert, Edmund, and Edward.

Edward Charles, in the 3d of Edward III. is said to hold it of the abbot of Langley, and of Robert de Ingles, valued at 20*l.* per ann. and Edward was his son and heir.

In the year 1400, Sir Robert Charles was lord of this town, and of Kettleburgh: in this year he died, and gives to Anne his wife, the lordships of Kettleburgh, Syselaud, and Eston, with the advowson of Thwycyte,<sup>8</sup> paying 20*l.* per ann. to Thomas, his eldest son, and she to have the education of his son Robert: his will is dated on the feast of St. Peter 1400, and was buried in the chapel of Ketelburgh church, by the tomb of his father.

In the 7th of Henry V. Sir Thomas Charles, Knt. died, and Thomas

it should not be prejudicial to their church of Loddon, but that all oblations &c. should be paid to the mother church.

was found to be his son and heir, aged 15: this Thomas, and Elizabeth his wife, conveyed, about the 20th of Henry VI. the manor of Sysseland, with lands in Lodue, &c. to John Duke of Norfolk, &c.

William de la Pole Earl of Suffolk is also said to have bought of Thomas Charles, Esq. and Ralph de Howe, for 1850 marks, this lordship, 600 acres of land, 40 of meadow, 300 of pasture, 20 of wood, in Loddon, &c. to John Mowbray Duke of Norfolk; and his descendants, the Howards, held it.

Susan, the third daughter and coheir, married Hugh de Somerton; Ralph his son left two daughters and coheirs, Alice, married to Ralph de Bokenham, and Lucy to Nicholas de Shurford.

Hugh, son of Ralph de Bokenham and Alice, claimed, as heir to Gosceline de Lodue, in the 27th of Edward I. an interest in the advowson of the church of Okle by Eye in Suffolk.

Godfrey de Albeney, guardian of Ralph, son of Hugh de Bokenham, gave eleven pounds to have the seventh part of the inheritance of Gosc de Lodnes which Ralph held, in the 5th of King John 9

Emma, the fourth daughter and coheir, married Ralph de Hoo, who was descended from Reyner, a Norman; this Ralph was father of Reyner, who had two sons, Ralph, and William de Hoo, Ralph enfeoffed his brother William, in his part of this manor, and was father of John de Hoo, who claimed an interest in the patronage of Okle aforesaid, A<sup>o</sup>. 27 Edward I. in the 9th of Edward II. Lettice de Howe, and John de Howce held it.

Lescetina, the fifth daughter and coheir of Gosceline de Lodue, married Peter de Brokeley, father of Reginald de Brokeley, whose daughter and heir, Lucy, married first John de Cramwil, and to her second husband, John Algar, who with his wife Lucia conveyed several messuages, and lands, with 6 marks rent per ann. in this town, Hardele, Hales, Langele, &c. to Henry de Riveshale; and about the said time, in the 44th of Henry III. James de Neketon, as a trustee, settled on the said Henry, and Amicia in tail, a messuage, land and 6 marks rent here, &c.; this was held by the lady Reveshale in the 20th of Edward III.

The abbot of Langley had a considerable interest also in this lordship. After the death of Gosceline, the Earl of Oxford is said to have held of the abbot of Bury the five knights fees and a half, that he held, and Gosceline's descendants held their parts of the said Earl.

In the 20th of Henry III. the abbot, Ralph de Howe, &c. were found to hold them of the Earl of Oxford, and he of the abbot of Bury, who held in capite.

In the 10th of King John, the abbot had the 4th part of the advowson in his own right, and had 3 other parts then conveyed to him by fine, and in the 6th of Henry VI. he paid suit to the Earl of Oxford's manor of Castle Heveningham in Essex for his lands here.

In 1428, the temporalities of the abbot were valued at 10*l.* 17*s.* 11*d.*

After the Dissolution it was granted August 16th, in the 32d of King Henry VIII. to Thomas Godsalve, Esq. and John his son.

Henry de Stubbs had an interest, or part of a fee here, in Norton, &c. which he surrendered by fine in the 24th of Henry III. to Jeffrey de Lodne: the family took their name from a place called Stubbs in this town.

9 Rot. Pip. Norf. Ao. 5. Johs.

Geff. de Stubbs gave lands here to Langley abbey, Henry de Stubbs, son of Adam, conveyed also lands at Stubbs, to Geff. de Lodne, with rents; this appears to be held of the Earls of Oxford, of Bury fee.

Sir John de Lodne, in the 15th of Edward I. claimed free-warren in his manor of Stubbs. This came afterwards into the abbey of Langley, and was granted with their lordship, to Thomas and John Godsalve, as above.

Roger Godsalve sold it to Robert Hobart, Gent. in the 11th of James I. and Hobert to Sir Robert Breton, in the 15th of that King.

The Charnels had also a part of Gosceline's manor. Ernald de Charnels granted his right of patronage in the church of Loddon to the abbot of Langley, in the 10th of King John, and in the 19th of Henry III. Peter de Rysing and Joan his wife resigning all their right in a tenement formerly Gosceline's, to Thomas de Charnels: Joan was daughter of Baldwin Charnels.

BACON'S MANOR.

ULURIC, a freeman of Earl Guert, or Guerd, brother of King Harold, was lord of this manor in the reign of the Confessor: this was granted to Robert Grenon; and Osbert held it under him at the survey.

In Uluric's time it consisted of a carucate and a half, 2 villains, 12 borderers, one servus, 2 carucates in demean, 2 carucates among the tenants, &c. 4 acres of meadow, the moiety of a mill, 3 saddle horses in the manor-house, 4 cows, and a 100 sheep: there was a socman with 10 acres, and among the whole a carucate, valued then at 20s. at the survey at 40s. and Earl Ralph had the soc, and there were 4 acres of land more in this town, included in the value aforesaid of 40s.<sup>1</sup>

This lordship was called Bacon's, from the lords of it; the ancestor of the family was Grimbald, a Norman, lord of Letheringset, Baconsthorp, and this manor, in a few years after the survey; Ralph, his second son, assumed the name of Bacon, and was father of George Bacon, who gave lands at Lodne to Maud, widow of Sir Roger de Hales; of this family was Richard Bacon, who gave lands in this town in the time of Henry II. to Bungey priory in Suffolk, and Roger Bacon, witness to a deed of lands in Kinkeby in King John's reign.

George Bacon aforesaid, is said to have been father of Thomas who dying s. p. Roger his father, succeeded him. Agnes, widow of his brother Thomas, sued this Roger for distraining her tenants in this town, and Baconsthorp, in the 5th of Henry III.

In the 29th of Henry III. Thomas Bacon had a grant of a weekly mercate and fair here; and in the 32d of that King, Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk granted him by fine, liberty to hold the same on paying to Roger 20s. per ann. he being sued by the Earl, as the mercate here was prejudicial to the Earl's mercate at Bungey.

Symon, abbot of Langley, for taking his toll from him in this fair for 9 years past, belonging to his manor, granted to him for two days on the eve and day of St. Martin; George dying s. p. Roger his brother inherited it, and claimed freewarren in the 15th of Edward I.

In the 8th of Edward III. Sir Roger Bacon settled it on his son Thomas's marriage with Joan, daughter of Roger de Antingham.

John Bacon, Esq.<sup>2</sup> was lord in 1426, and dying 1462, left by Margaret his wife, daughter of Robert Baynard, Thomas, his son and heir, who by Margery his wife, daughter of John Jenney, had two daughters and coheirs; Elizabeth, married to Sir John Glemham, of Glemham Parva in Suffolk; and Anne to Robert Garneys of Kenton, in Suffolk, Esq.

Sir John Glemham, Esq. died seized of a moiety of this lordship, October 15, ao. 29 Henry VIII. as did Christopher his son, October 18, ao. 4 of Ed. VI. leaving Thomas his son and heir, by Margery, daughter of Sir Richard Wentworth of Nettlestead in Suffolk, aged 16.

Tho. Garneys died lord of a moiety in the 9th of Elizabeth, leaving Elizabeth his daughter and heir, aged 11 years; she married Philip Strettey, Esq. of Nottinghamshire, and by their deed, dated November 2, ao. 27 of Elizabeth, sold it to John Weld of London, haberdasher; and Sir Thomas Gresham conveyed the other moiety, which he bought of Thomas Glemham, Esq. January 14, ao. 5 of Elizabeth, to the said John Weld, on April 22, ao. 23d Elizabeth, so that Weld was lord of the whole manor.

John Weld, Esq. in the 18th of Elizabeth, sold it to Elizabeth, late wife of Richard Berney, Esq. who leased it to Anthony Hobart of Hales Hall, Esq. for 60 years at 60*l.* per ann.

INGLOSE'S MANOR.

At the time of the survey there was another lordship also which Robert, son of Corbun, was rewarded with, at the conquest, and which Humphrey held of Robert at the survey. Aluric, a freeman, held it under Archbishop Stigand in King Edward's time, when it consisted of a carucate and half of land, one villain, 3 borderers, one servus, and there was one carucate and a half in demean, &c. one and a half among the tenants, &c. the moiety of a mill, 4 acres of meadow, 40 sheep, &c. 4 socmen also, with 12 acres and a carucate and a half of land, &c. valued at 20*s.* at the survey at 30*s.*

Humphrey held also a small fee under the said Robert, half a carucate which the abbot of Holm claimed; and the hundred witnessed it to be the abbot's.

There was near to this town of Loddou, a village or a hamlet called Golosa, which the said Aluric held under Stigand, and on his deprivation was granted to Robert, son of Corbun, and held of him by Humphrey. In Aluric's time there was one carucate of land, 3 villains, and 3 borderers, one carucate in demean, one among the tenants, one horse valued at 20*s.* and 9 socmen held 20 acres with three carucates before the conquest, then valued at 7s. but at the survey at 10s. the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>3</sup>

These lordships came, on the death of Robert, son of Corban, as an escheat to the Crown, and were granted by King William II. to William de Albini, (the King's butler, lord of Rysing castle, &c.) ancestor of the Earls of Arundel.

The ancient family of De Inglose, held then under the *Albiny*s Earls of Arundel, and may be justly supposed to take their name from Golosa, afterwards corruptly called Inglose, the town being some ages past demolished, and the lands belonging to it now making part of the parish of Loddon.

William de Inglose was lord, and living in the 10th of King John, and had Hervey his son.

Martin de Inglose, son of Hervey, held a knight's fee in the 54th of Henry III. and was impleaded for not taking that degree.<sup>4</sup> Reginald de Inglose appears to be son of Martin, by a deed, sans date; and John, son of Reginald, quitclaimed to the abbot of Langley all seignory over his land in Lodne, formerly Dogget's, and Jeffrey de Lodnes, in homages, reliefs, &c. except 3*l.* 1*d.* ob. rent, to be paid by him, and scutage.

This John was found to hold his lordship of the castle of Rysing.

In the 3d of Edward I. the jury present that the lands, late Martin de Inglose, were held in Inglos, by the fourth part of a fee, of Robert de Monte Alto, lord of Rysing.

In the said year, Nicholas Hovell, and Joan his wife, convey to Robert de Inglose, and Joan his wife, a messuage and land, here, in Mundham, &c. and Ralph de Howe, in the 25th of that King, granted lands in Lodne, which extended towards Inglose, to Ralph de Inglose. Alice, widow of this last Ralph, was living in the 5th of Edward II. and daughter of Sir Richard de Cadomo. About this time, John de Inglose, and Robert his son, were living.

Sir Robert de Inglose, in the 11th of Edward III. by deed, released lands in Long Stratton, and sealed with three bars gemelle, and on a canton 8 billets; and Joan his wife living then.

John de Inglose was lord in the 20th of the said King, and in his 42d year, Henry, son of Sir John de Inglose, sold by fine, the manor of Inglose-Hall, in Lodne, and 11*s.* rent, which Dionysia, widow of Sir John had for life, to William de Brundale and his heirs.

Anne, late wife of Sir Henry Inglose, held it in the 18th of Richard II. in 1389, she presented to the church of Siseland, in Norfolk; and in 1396, Henry Inglose presented, and in 1416, and by his feoffees in 1418.

Sir Henry Inglose, Kut. by his will, dated June 20, 1451,<sup>5</sup> and proved July 4 following, desires to be buried in the presbytery of Horsham priory, by Anne his wife, who was the daughter and heir of Robert Gyney of Haverland, by Margaret his wife, daughter and heir of John Fastolf, Esq. gives to the priory of Mountjoy in Haverland 40s. to the vicar of Haverland, for tithes forgot, 20s. 8d. to the repair of St. Martin's church, by the palace in Norwich, 20s. to Sir John Colzyle and Anne his wife, a legacy (she was his daughter,) to Anne, daughter of Edward Wichingham, at her marriage, 10l. to Henry Inglose, Esq. his eldest son, the manors of Dilham, Lodne, and Washingford in Norfolk, and Ashby in Suffolk; to Robert his 2d son, the manors of Haverland, Brandeston, and Causton in Norfolk; to his daughter Margaret Beaupre, a legacy, and orders his lordship of Bokenham Ferry, North Watsham, Hettingham, called Bryan's, Rakeheigh, Hoothgate, Maudham, called Mauclerk's, and Spronston in Norfolk, Gunton and Hopton in Suffolk, and Pykworth in Rutlandshire, to be sold by his executors,<sup>6</sup> Edward Wichingham, Robert Inglos, and John Parham, clerk, to pay his debts; and the manors of Heddenham and Killing, to the Lady — Ikteshale, for life, the reversion to his executors, to perform his will, and the advowsons of the churches of Filby, Boton, Baldeswell, Grymston, Syseland, and Gunton, to be sold.

Henry Inglose, Esq. son of Sir Henry, inherited it, and died possessed of it, &c. with the manor of Bykar in Lincolshire, on September 20, ao. 8th of Henry VIII. and Henry was found to be his son and heir, aged 18, who died Sept. 25, 17th Henry VIII. seized of this lordship, Washingford, &c.

In the 24th of that King, Robert Holditeh had it conveyed by fine to him, from Francis Thyrcill.

In the 23d of Henry VIII. Thomas Godsolve, Esq. possessed it, and his son, Sir John Godsolve, died lord on November 20, in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, held by the 20th part of a fee of Rysing castle, and the rent of 33s. ob. per ann. William his son succeeded, and died in the 4th of Elizabeth, and Thomas Godsolve died Aug. 12, ao. 30 Eliz.

Roger Godsolve aliened it December 1, ao. 11 of James I. to Robert Hobart, Gent. and in the 15th of the said King, Robert conveyed it to Sir Robert Breton, on February 20

Godric, the King's sewer, or steward, had a small fee in Loddon, which 2 freemen of Edwin, who possessed it in the reign of the Confessor, were deprived of, containing 24 acres and a carucate of land.

Godric had also a lordship in a town or hamlet near to Loddon, called Wasingford, in the Book of Domesday, of which a freeman of Edwin was also deprived, containing 30 acres; 2 borderers belonged to it, and the soc was in the lord of the hundred.<sup>7</sup>

Edwin held also 6 freemen here, who were deprived of 16 acres, with 2 carucates and 4 acres of meadow, and a mill.

Both these fees came as an escheat to the Crown, on the death of Godric, and were granted to William de Albini, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel.

There was an ancient family that took their name from this town, which is demolished; but there are lands in the parish of Loddon going by that name.

This lordship of Washingford was held by the Ingloses. Sir Henry de Inglose died seized of it in 1451; and in the same family it remained, and passed from them, with the manor of Inglose, as may be there seen, to which it was united.

The manor of Hales, called Loddon-Hales, extended into this town, which belonged to the Bigots Earls of Norfolk.

In Hales-hall lived Sir James Hobart, the attorney-general to Henry VII. and his descendants; which hall was, it seems, in this parish of Loddon. See in Hales, in Clavering hundred.

The tenths of this town were 10*l.* 9*s.* 9*d.* Deducted 3*l.*

In the 10th of King John a fine was levied of the 3 parts of the advowson of this church, between Gilbert, abbot of Langley, querent, Roger Bacon,<sup>8</sup> Walter de Raveningham, Reyner de Ho, Ernald de Charnells, William de Inglose, Reginald de Brokele, and Ralph de Bello Campo, deforcients, whereby they grant their 3 parts to the abbot, who had the fourth part, belonging to the fee of Joscetine de Lodne.

The abbot being in possession of the patronage, had it appropriated to him, and a vicarage was appointed, of which he had the patronage. In the reign of Edward I. it appears that there were two curacies of land, with a manse or house, belonging to this appropriated rectory, and that he had all the small tithes of the men or tenants, belonging to the manor of Robert de Lodne, with the oblations at the Cross; that the rectory was taxed at 25 marks.

The vicar had a manse with 30 acres, valued at 6 marks. Peterpence, 2*s.* carvage 18*d.* but had no oblations or tithes (of the men) of the manor abovementioned, and he administered all sacraments.

VICARS.

In 1203, Alan Atte Herne was instituted vicar, presented by the abbot of Langley; but in 1311, on the 6th of the ides of January, John Salmon Bishop of Norwich, united and consolidated this vicarage to the abbot.

At the Dissolution, the appropriated rectory and vicarage, which was consolidated and united to it, came to the Crown; the rectory remained there some time; but in 1581, Henry Wesco was presented to the vicarage by Queen Elizabeth.

In 1603, he returned 240 communicants.

In 1607, Robert Plumstead, vicar, presented by the King.

1608, Edward Hareward, presented by Martin, Bishop of Ely.

On an exchange of lands made by Queen Elizabeth, and the see of Ely, this appropriated rectory, and the patronage of the vicarage, came to that see.

1619, John Martyn, by the Bishop of Ely.

1702, Samuel Conold, by the Bishop of Ely.

1759, William Manning, by the Bishop of Ely.

The CHURCH was dedicated to the Holy Trinity. In the old church I find a legacy granted to build a new font in 1487, and to a new battlement of the steeple, in 1500.

In it were the guilds of Corpus Christi, and of our Lady, St. Margaret's tabernacle, and St. Christopher's image.

Sir Edward Charles buried here in 1329.

Robert Spooner of Bongey gave a tenement and lands to keep his obit, on the vigil of St. Andrew; the tenement was called Walbis, and with the lands, &c. that lay in this town.<sup>9</sup>

In the churchyard was the chapel of St. Mary, to which there belonged a custos in 1289. Elias, son of Warine de Heckingham, gave to God, and the chapel of St. Mary, founded in the churchyard of Lodnes, lands in that town, by deed, sans date. Thomas, son of John Le Signur, de Lodnes, gave also lands. Reg. Langl. Abb. fol. 54.

The present church was built by Sir James Hobart, in the reign of King Henry VII. and Margaret his wife, who died before him, was there buried in 1492; and is a beautiful building.

In the north chapel, by the chancel, on an altar marble, several brass plates, with the arms, and two figures, now disrobed,

In memory of Henry Hobart, Esq;

Near to this, on a gravestone, with brass plates, the effigies of a woman, and

Pray for the soule of Anne Hobart, late wife of Henry Hobart, Esq; daughter of Sir John Eyneaux, knight, chief judge of England, which Anne departed the last day of Octr. 1530, on whose Soule, Jesu have mercy.

Also the arms of Hobart and Fineaux, vert, a chevron, between three eaglets displayed, and crowned, or.

On a gravestone, in the chancel near the north wall, the effigies of two persons in winding sheets;

Of your charity pray for the soule of Dame Catherine Sampson, late wife of Sir Thomas Sampson, knight, and late the wife of John Blomville, Esq; April 18, 1546; with the arms of Bloudeville, impaling Hobart.

On a stone,

Here lyeth buried before the blessed image of ———, Master Walter Hobart, son of Sir Walter, and Lady Anne Hobart.

In the parish of Lodnes, there was also a chapel belonging to Charles, son of William of Gernemuth, who obliged himself to the canons of Langley, that the chapel which they granted to his court in Lodnes, should be maintained by him and his successors, in all things, without detriment to the parish church.<sup>1</sup>

LANGALE, AND KIRKSTED.

IN the Book of Domesday, both these villages are accounted for, and stand under the hundred of Loddon, where we find, that they belonged to the abbot of Bury, given (as I take it) to that abbey by Toli, the sheriff of Norfolk, in King Edward the Confessor's time, with Brook in this hundred.

The abbot had in Langhale and Kirsted, 27 socmen, with 2 carucates and a half, and 10 acres of land, 2 villains, and 11 borderers, and 6 carucates, and 8 acres of meadow, valued in Brook; a church endowed with 15 acres, valued at 16*d.*<sup>2</sup>

Langhale is one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, pays 16*d.* gelt, whoever may possess it.

This lordship, in 1428, was valued at 4*s.* 9*d.* ob. q. and belonged to the chamberlain of that abbey.

At the Dissolution it was granted (as I take it) to Thomas Godsalve, Esq.

Another lordship at the survey in the town of Langhale, was possessed by Isaac, who had a grant of the land which a freeman held under the protection of Tolj, the sheriff, in King Edward's reign, containing one carucate of land, and one in demean, and another might be recovered; and 5 freemen under him, 8 acres, and 3 borderers; half a carucate, valued then at 7*s.* at the survey at 10*s.*<sup>3</sup>

Gundreda, Countess of Norfolk, wife of Hugh Earl of Norfolk, in the reign of King Stephen, during her coverture, purchased a knight's fee in Langhale, of Hubert, son of Rowland, for 60 marks, which Roger, son of Earl Hugh, recovered against her after his father's death according to the judgment of the law, whereby a wife cannot purchase any land, &c. to herself during her husband's life.

This was held of the Earl of Norfolk, by Rodland, and Baldwin, Le Pettour, or the farter, by serjeanty, the lord being obliged by his tenure to come into Westminster-Hall, or where-ever the King was, and there to take a leap, cry hem, and let a fart, (per saltum, sufflatum, et pettum) before the King on Christmas yearly.

In the 7th year of King John, Alexander de Brompton, and Agnes his wife, gave account of 15 marks, to have the manor of Hemmingston in Suffolk, which Jeffrey, son of Huberts, brother of Agnes held, whose heir she was, without any partition to her sisters; that manor being held by grand serjeanty, and formerly belonged to Rodland and Baldwin Le Pettour, as above specified: and this manor of Langhale was a part or a member of Hemmingston.

Besides what the family of Le Pettour held here, William l' Enveyse held a part of it by the King's consent, and Richard de Senges had a part, in the 3d of Henry III. viz. 20 acres of the Earl of Norfolk, by the 20th part of a fee, valued at half a mark per ann.

Pauline Peyvere, one of the King's justices, had also an interest in Langhale, and held the 3d part of a fee, of which he enfeoffed William, his younger son, in the 35th of Henry III. held of the Earl of Norfolk: of this Pauline see in Thorp Murket, North Erpingham hundred.

In the 9th of Edward II. Maud Peyvere held it; and in the 14th of Edward III. Phil. Peyvere was witness to a deed of lands in this town of Langhale.

In the 13th of Edward I. Roger Mynoth was lord of a manor, called from him Miniots, and had then a grant of free-warren in Kirksted, and Seething in Norfolk; — Hengham, Bramford, and Stonham Antigon in Suffolk: — Middleton, Kneton, Newsome, Broughton-Hithe in Yorkshire: and in the 20th of Edward III. Jeffrey Miniot was lord.

Catherine, daughter and heir of - - - Myniot and Ellen his wife, brought it by marriage to Nicholas Gavel, Esq. of Kirby Cam: in the reign of Edward III. Robert his son was lord.

Thomas Gavel, Esq. the last heir male of this family, left it at his death to his four daughters and heirs.

John Cook and Elizabeth his wife, one of the said daughters and coheirs, sold his part in the 36th of Henry VIII. to Thomas Godsalve, sen. Esq.

Francis Clopton, Esq. and Dorothy his wife, another of the four daughters, &c. convey in the 37th of Henry VIII. to John Everard, Esq. their right: and in the 22d of Elizabeth, John Coptedike, Esq. had license to alien this manor of Kirksted Miniots, to William Roberts of Winston and his heirs: this John was son and heir of Leonard Coptedike, Esq. and Thomasine his wife, another of the daughters and coheirs of Thomas Gavel.

Roger Godsalve sold his interest in it to the said William Roberts, an attorney, about the 40th of Elizabeth, who was lord of the whole; and on his death it came to Mr. Smith of Beccles in right of his wife, sister and heir of Roberts.

Smith conveyed it to Thomas Spooner, Gent. who presented as lord to this church in 1626.

After this it came to the Osborns.

In 1677, Edmund Osborn was lord, and presented: and in 1701, Edward Osborn, Esq.

Robert Osborn, Gent. died lord of Kirksted Hall, in 1729.

The tenths were 3*l.* 11*s.*—Deducted 17*s.*

St. Faith's temporalities in Kirksted Gd.; Sibton abbey's in Langhale and Kirksted 2*s.* 3*d.*

The abbot of Langley had also in Langhale and Kirksted, a considerable lordship.

Roger, son of Sir Richard de Senges, Knt. confirmed to this abbey, by deed sans date, all the lands and tenements which they held of the grants of his ancestors, or of any other, of his father's fee, in Langhale, Kirksted, Senges, and Mundham; to hold quietly from all homages, rents, &c. so that no manner of profit should come from them to him, and his heirs, except Gd. rent for the tenement of Barth. de Upgate; witnesses, Sir William de Senges, Jeff. de Lodne, William, son of Charles.

In the 20th of Henry III. the abbot also held a quarter of a fee of the Earl of Norfolk, of his manor of Forncet.

William de Hemenhale gave, in the 41st of Henry III. to Simon, the abbot, a messuage, with 2 carucates of land, 3 acres of wood, in Langhale and Wootton.

The temporalities of this abbey in 1428 in Langhale and Kirsted, were valued at 8*l.* 4*s.* 1*d.* ob.

At the Dissolution it was granted to Thomas Godsalve, Esq. and continued in that family, till on December 3, A°. 4 of James I.

Owen Shephard, Gent. had a grant to himself and heirs of Langhale manor, with all its appertences, lately belonging to Langley abbey, and afterwards to Thomas Godsalve, Esq. with all the messuages, houses, mills, gardens, orchards, &c. in the hamlet of Langhale, Kirsted, Wootton, Seething, &c.

The church of Kirsted is a rectory, dedicated to St. Margaret.

In the 45th year of Henry III. Walter de Hemenhale granted by fine to William prior of Buttley in Suffolk, the advowson of the church of Langhale;* but by the Norwich Institution Books, it appears that John of Oxford Bishop of Oxford confirmed the grant of the churches of Kirstede and Langhale, to that priory, which the records of that priory testify.

In the reign of Edward I. the rector of Kirsted had a grange and 20 acres of land, was valued at 10 marks, paid no Peter-pence, but carvage 4*d.* and the prior of Butley had a pension out of it, of 20*s.* per ann.

It is probable that both the churches were granted about the time of the foundation of that priory, by Ralyh de Glanvile, the founder, or some of his dependants.—The present valor is 10*l.* and pays tenths and first-fruits.

The CHURCH of Langhale was appropriated to the priory of Buttley, in the time of John of Oxford Bishop of Norwich, so that what is said of the grant of it by William de Hemenhale, must relate only to some right he might claim, and then resigned.

The prior had in Edward the First's reign, a manse, with 30 acres of land, valued at 6 marks, and the Peter-pence were 9*d.* and was dedicated to St. Christopher.

On May 24, 1421, it was consolidated to Kirksted, and so remains; in the reign of King James I. the church was dilapidated.

MUNDHAM.

ROGER BIGOT, ancestor to the Earls of Norfolk, held several fees in this town at the survey, wrote in Domesday Book, Mundhaham, and Algamundestuna, from some mound or fence, against the water; thus Mundeford in Norfolk; Wimundham, &c.

Roger had a grant of a fee, which Aluric, a freeman, held under Archbishop Stigand, containing 30 acres of land, with the moiety of a borderer, &c. half an acre of meadow, valued at 5s.

This Aluric, for his services to King Harold, was forced to fly into foreign parts, and was outlawed.

Ulketel, the Conqueror's bailliff or steward, seized the land for that King; and Roger Bigot begged it of the King, who gave it to him.

Alan Earl of Richmond laid claim to it; but Ralph Guader, Earl of Norfolk, held it with his manor of Romboro, (in Suffolk,) and the men of this hundred have heard the said Ulketel acknowledge the same once, about a year before Earl Ralph forfeited, and once after Ralph forfeited, they heard say that the said Ulketel did suit of court at Romborough, and lately the hundred heard him say, that he performed service to Roger Bigot, and that the men of Earl Alan had from that manor, every year, for 4 years last past, 10s. and this they were ready to prove in any manner, but Ulketel then held it.

Also eight freemen of Ulketel had 60 acres of land, 3 borderers, with 3 carucates among them, valued at 8s. but at the survey at 10s. but Roger Bigot had it by the King's grant for 5 carucates.

In Algamundeston, 13 freemen of Ulketel had 50 acres of land, and 7 borderers, 12 acres of land, and there were among them 4 carucates and 2 acres of meadow, valued at 8s. at the survey at 10s.<sup>5</sup>

In Mundham, Roger, had also the land of a freeman, who held under the commendation of Alwi of Thetford, who could not give or sell it without the license of his lord, and Thorold held it under Roger; there belonged to it 30 acres of land, and in Alwi's time there was one villain, and one borderer, with one carucate, and under him 2 freemen, with the moiety of another, held 8 acres, with two servi, and 2 acres of meadow, and among them all there was one carucate, valued at 5s. at the survey at 8s.

Five freemen, who held under Archbishop Stigand, had 9 acres in demean, with half a carucate and 19 acres, granted to Roger Bigot.

Also a freeman of Earl Godwin, held under his son, Earl Gert, in King Edward's reign, 30 acres of land, granted by the Conqueror, to Bigot; 5 borderers, with half a carucate belonged to it, valued at 40s. and there were 3 freemen of Godwin, who held under Gert, 16 acres of land, and one carucate valued at 5s. which Bigot had.<sup>6</sup>

All these fees granted to Roger Bigot, were held in capite of him and his descendants Earls of Norfolk.

The ancient family of De Seuges, lords of Seething, had a part of Roger's fee.

Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, by deed sans date, gave to Richard de Seinges and his heirs 23 acres of land in Seuges, and lands here; and in the 8th of Henry III. conveyed by fine to Ralph de Scheldon, the advowson of the church of Eihelbert, in this town, and Ralph granted him the service of John, son of William, in this town and Seinges.

Sir Ralph Shelton was lord in the reign of Edward I. and patron, and John his son and heir presented to the church of St. Peter's in Mundham Magna, as I find it sometimes called, which seems to have belonged to the fee of Bigot.

In 1354, Walter de Filby was lord and patron of St. Peter's church, but in the following year, Sir Adam de Clifton, lord of Bukenham castle, granted license to Walter de Filby, Sir Stephen, parson of the church of Lound, in Suffolk, and to Sir Thomas de Preston, parson of Colby, to alien one messuage, 8 acres of land, and the advowson of St. Peter's church, to the hospital of St. Giles in Norwich, which they had purchased of Sir John Shelton.

In the next year, the master, &c. of the said hospital, presented to that church. In 1330, the King had granted license to Walter de Filby, and Edmund, parson of Lound, to settle on the said hospital, a messuage, 15 acres and a half, 2 acres of meadow, with 44 acres of juncary, or reed ground, in Norwich, Sithing, &c. purchased of Ralph de Burghwode: and in 1332 to settle what is before mentioned, purchased of Sir John de Shelton; and the said hospital is in possession of it at this time,

Another part of these fees was granted by Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, in the 28th of Edward I. to his kinsman, Sir John le Bigod.

Ralph, son of Sir John Bygod, gave it to Sir William Calthorp, in the 14th of Edward II. and in the 20th of Edward III. William Calthorp held the 20th part of a fee, late Sir John Bigot's; and in the time of Henry IV. it was in the same family.

Thomas de Mowbray Lord Mowbray, in the 3d year of that King, (as heir to the Bigots,) held here, &c. in capite, the manor of Bigot's by the 20th part of a fee; and from the Mowbrays it came to the Howards Dukes of Norfolk.

Robert, son of Corbun, had the grant of a lordship, which Godwin a freeman of Edwin, was deprived of, who was lord of it before Godric, the King's steward, held it, and Nigell was enfeoffed of it by Robert Corbun, and held it at the survey; there belonged to it 30 acres of land, one carucate in demean, &c. 4 acres of meadow; and 11 freemen of Edgar had, in King Edward's reign, 30 acres, with a carucate and a half, valued then at 10s. at the survey at 20s. and the King and the Earl had the soc.

In the said town, Robert, son of Corbun, had the grant also of a lordship which Algar, a freeman, held under Stigand, consisting of one carucate of land, and 4 villains, with 2 carucates in demean, half a carucate among the tenants, with half an acre of meadow, one saddle-horse, kept at the hall, two cows, &c. 20 sheep, and 4 socmen, and the moiety of another, held 5 acres and a half of land; and a freeman under Algar's protection had 6 acres; among them all there was one carucate valued at 10s. and Anger held it under Corbun.

Mundham was 20 furlongs long, and 10 broad, and paid to the tax or gelt, 2s.

Corbun had the grant also of 10 acres of land, which a freeman of Godwine was deprived of, with one borderer, and valued above.<sup>7</sup>

On the death of Robert, son of Corbun, these fees came as an escheat to the Crown, and were granted to William de Albini, (the King's butler,) by King William II. ancestor of the Earls of Arundel.

The ancient family of the Ingloses, of whom see at large in Inglose manor, in Loddon, were anciently enfeoffed of part of the Albiney's fee.

Ralph de Inglose had an interest here in the 27th of Edward I. and John de Inglose in the 30th of the said King.

John de Dunham conveyed by fine to William Gerberg, vintner, lands belonging to this fee, in the 1st of Edward I.; and in the 14th of Edward III. a fine was levied between John Gerberge, and Alice his wife, querents, William Gerberge, parson of Wodnorton All-Saints, and John de Beckham, parson of Islington, deforcients, of 10s. rent in this town, Tweyt, &c. with the homage and service of Sir William de Calthorp, Knight, of this manor here, settled on John; remainder to Roger his son.

In the 20th of that King, Walter de Calthorpe and William de Gerbrigge, held a fee of the honour of Rising.

In the 33d of the said reign, Nicholas, son of John de Hekingham, and John de Wykes, and Margaret his wife, pass by fine to Walter Hillary and Mary his wife, the advowson of the church of St Ethelbert, with three messuages, 60 acres of land, 2 of meadow, 4 of marsh, and 4s. rent here.

After this, in the 2d year of Henry IV. John de Norwich, and Maud his wife, conveyed in trust to Edmund Barry, and Ralph Casteleyn, this manor and advowson, with lands, &c.

In the following year the Earl of Arundel is said to hold one knight's fee, called Gerbridge, belonging to his manor of Milcham.

John de Norwich was also lord in the 22d of Richard II. and then granted to Roger de Haylesden, &c. in trust, this lordship, in this town called Heckyngham's, (with the advowson of St. Ethelbert's church,) and its appertanances in Seething, Thwait, &c. and sealed with a lion rampant, bruised, with a bendlet over all.

In 1428, by the name of John Norwich of Yoxford, he wills to be buried in St. Peter of Yoxfords chancel, and that his manor here should be sold;<sup>8</sup> dated March 20, and proved in Sept. 22 following.

In June, 1451, Sir Henry Inglose died seized of a lordship, called Maulerk's, which by his will he orders to be sold.

In 1430, John Berney, Esq. of Reedham, presented to St. Ethelbert's church; and in 1437, Sir John Fastolf; in the 29th of King Henry VII. he sold the manor and advowson to Hugh Acton, master of St Gyles's hospital, for 200 marks, where it remains.

John Spooner of Seething was lord of the manor of Maulerk's, late Inglose's, in the reign of Henry IV. and died lord in 1514, and Richard Sponer was his son and heir, who was to marry Cecilia Willis; and Thomas Spooner, Gent. was lord in the 40th of Elizabeth.

In Mundham, the King had a lordship, which William de Noiers had the custody, or care of for the King; seven freemen had been deprived of it, being a beruite to the lordship of Ditchingham; three of these freemen were under the protection of Archbishop Stigand, 2 under Edwin's, one under Algar's, and one under Tohla's, (the Viscount, or the sheriff of Norfolk,) and they held 60 acres of land, and 3 carucates. Robert son of Corbon, claimed 4 of them, with 24 acres, and had livery of them from the King, as the hundred witnesses, but afterwards Roger Bigot added them to his lordship of Earsham, with 52 acres, and held it at the survey, when the King and the Earl had the soc; and it was valued with Earsham.<sup>9</sup>

The King is also said to have the moiety of a church, as belonging to his lordship in Seething, as I take it.

Godric, the King's steward had a grant of 8 acres of land here, and held by three freemen of Edwin, with other lands in Seething, and Washingford, which they ploughed with 3 oxen; the soc was in the hundred, and what these freemen held, (and what other freemen held in Seething, &c.) was valued at 20s.

This, with what Godric held in the aforesaid towns, is said to be 6 furlongs long, 3 broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt. A moiety of the church aforesaid, with 10 acres, belonged to this manor.

On the death of Godric it came as an escheat of the King, and was after granted to the Bigots Earls of Norfolk, and so joined to their lordship in this town.

Gosceline de Lodue at the survey had one socman who held 30 acres, with a villain and a borderer, half a carucate, valued at 3*2d.*

This lordship belonged before the conquest to Bury abbey, and Baldwin the abbot enfeoffed his brother Frodo of it, and under Frodo, Gosceline held it with Loddon, as may be there seen at large.

Roger Fitz Reuard had a small fee with 20 acres of land, which the church of St. Etheldreda (Ely) held before the conquest, in demean, with 2 borderers, valued at 3*s.*

Ralph, son of Hagan, had also 20 acres at the survey that belonged to the said church of Ely, valued at 3*s.* held in demean.

There was a family that took their name from this town, and had a considerable interest herein.

In the 9th of Richard I. Alan de Mundham granted to Peter de Eggefeld, half a Knight's fee, for 15 years; after that to return to Alan for ever; and in the 5*2d* of Henry III. Jeffrey Parris granted lands in this town, to Alan, son of Gerrard de Mundham.

Here were certain lands called Holme's. Catherine de Hulmo released to Warine de Hulmo a messuage, with 80 acres of land, held, as is said, of Constant. de Clifton, of the Arundel fee, ao. 3*d* Henry IV. Reginald de Holme, senior, of Lodue, confirmed to Philip Bozard of Ditchingham, all his lands and tenements in Mundham, Seething, &c. in the first of Henry VII.

The tenths were 5*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.* Deducted 1*l.* 4*s.*—Temporalities of Langley abbey 7*s.*

Here were 2 parishes, one called St. Peter's, from its church, also in some old writings Mundham Magna; it was a rectory, valued at 12 marks, paid Peter-pence, 10*d.* carvage, 7*d.* had a manse, with 30 acres of land, in the reign of Edward I. and Sir Robert Shelton was then patron.

The King, in 1332, licensed Walter de Filby, Thomas de Preston, rector of Colby, and Stephen, rector of Lound, to settle a messuage, with land, and the advowson of this church of Mundham St. Peter, on the hospital.

This church seems to have belonged to Corbun's fee abovementioned, and was held of the Lord Tateshale, as of the Albini fee, in 1305, by the Sheltons; Sir John de Shelton, Knight, conveying the advowson, &c. to Walter de Filby, &c. and in 1340, the Bishop appropriated it; 6 marks and a half per ann. reserved for the curate.

SEETHING, OR SENGES.

ROGER BIGOT, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, on the expulsion of a freeman of Earl Gert, had a grant of 30 acres of land, and 2 servi, with half a carucate of land in demean, also of the lands which six freemen held of the soc of Archbishop Stigand, who had 2 carucates and 30 acres of land among them.

In the said town a freeman under Stigand's protection held also a carucate of land, (which Bigot had,) with one villain, 7 borderers, half a carucate in demean, and half a carucate among the tenants, 3 acres of meadow, and a mill; and there were 8 freemen belonging to Stigand's soc, with 20 acres and a carucate of land, with 2 servi, valued in the whole at 20s. but at the survey at 40s.

A freeman of Stigand had here also under his protection, half a carucate and 16 acres, valued at 3*2d.* which Bigot had the grant of.

In the said town a freeman under the protection of Alwi de Tetford, had 16 acres valued at 2*4d.* and Turold held this at the survey under Bigot.

Here were also 5 borderers, with 10 acres, belonging to Framingham, with two churches endowed with 16 acres, valued at 2*s.* and there were also 4 bovates: and the two churches here mentioned were those of Framingham-Earls, and Framingham Picot, in Hensted hundred, belonging also to Bigot.

Bigot had besides the grant of 6 acres, valued at 6*d. per ann.* which Ulketell, a freeman, had possessed.<sup>1</sup>

Several lordships arose out of these fees, which were held of the Bigots Earls of Norfolk, and their descendants.

The Bigots, a younger branch of the Earls of Norfolk, had an interest here. In the reign of Edward I. Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk, granted to Sir John le Bigot, his nephew, son of Sir Ralph, a lordship, paying to him, for all suits and services, a bearded arrow yearly; dated at Bungay A<sup>o</sup>. 38 of Edward I.; witnesses, Sir John Lovell, Sir Baldwin Pykot, Sir Pcter Roscelyme, Sir Edward Charles, Sir John de Holbroke, &c. this is said to have been held of the said Earl, by Sir John de Seagrave.

Sir John Bigot died possessed of it, held by the 20th part of a fee, in the 33d of that King, and Ralph was his son and heir, who proved his age in the following year, and in the 12th of Edward II. gave it to Sir Walter Calthorp, with his manor in Mundham.

Sir William Calthorp was lord, and had a grant of free-warren in the 28th of Edward III.

Sir Philip Calthorp died seized of it April 7, A<sup>o</sup>. 3<sup>o</sup>. Edward VI. and Elizabeth his daughter and heir brought it by marriage to Sir Henry Parker, and his descendant Sir Philip Parker, son and heir of Sir Calthorp Parker, was lord in the 20th of James I.

Roger Myniot had a grant of free warren in his lordship here, A<sup>o</sup>. 13th of Edward I. and in Bramford, Stonham, Antingham in Suffolk, &c.

John Myniot held it of the honour of Forncet in the 7th of Edward III. and had free warren then granted in Hoton, Carleton, and Skip-ton upon Swale in Yorkshire.

In the 3d of Henry V. on Tuesday before the feast of St. Michael, John Pyke, late prior of the Holy Trinity of Ipswich, granted to John Crane, and Roger Coltemower, his manor of Minyots, paying yearly in the church of St. Margaret's of Seething 6 marks.

In the 15th of Edward I. Robert de Hedenham held here and in Hedenham of the Earl of Norfolk, the 15th and the 5th part of a fee, which Robert de Hedenham possessed in the 20th of Henry III.

Roger de Dykelburgh, and his parceners, Geff. Myniot, and Hugh de Noble, had the 20th part of a fee of the manor of Forncet; and in the reign of Henry IV. Thomas Lord Mowbray, as capital lord, had the manor of Bigots in this town, held by the 20th part of a fee, the manor of Dykelburgh, by the 15th part of a fee; that of Calthorp by the 20th part of a fee; that of Hedenham by the 40th part of a fee; the abbot of Sibton, abbot of Langley, and the hospital of St. Giles in Norwich had among them one fee.

There was also a family who assumed their name from this town, being early enfeoffed of a lordship under the Bigots.

Sir Ralph de Seuges, or Seething, was living in the reign of Henry II. and married Clarcia, daughter of ——— de Wileby, and had Henry de Seuges his son.

Richard de Seuges, William, his son, and Ralph de Seuges, were witnesses to a deed of lands in Chebenhale in Suffolk, given to the nuns of Bungcy Holy Cross, s. d. Sir William de Seuges granted to the canons of Langley 20 acres of land here, and lands in Mundham, s. d.<sup>2</sup>

Sir Walter de Senges gave to the monks of Sibton lands here and in Mundham, by deed, sans date; witnesses, Sir William de Senges, Roger de Dikleburgh, Robert de Hedenham, Robert Cokerell, &c. and Sir William confirmed to them, all the gifts of Sir Walter, in lands, tenements, rents, &c. in this town, Mundham, Langale, Tweyt, Kirkstede, &c. for 5 marks of silver paid, sans date: Roger, son of Sir Roger de Senges, gave them lands, and by deed sans date, discharged them from all suit of court to Sir Walter's manor of Senges.

This family wrote themselves sometime De Wyndesore, and sometime De Senges, and descend from Maurice de Wyndlesore, to whom Aldbold, abbot of Bury, granted, about 1110, all the land which Robert their steward, his predecessor held, with all his stewardship of their abbey, all its customary dues, &c. his own livery, with that of his clerks, 8 men and 8 horses.<sup>3</sup>

Hugh de Wyndesore, gave to the monks of Sibton, the whole tenement, which Margery, wife of Sir Richard de Senges held in dower, with the mill, &c. he also gave a messuage called Old Flatt's in Mundham.

In the 52d of Henry III. a fine was levied between Walter de Wyndesore, querent, Richard, abbot of Sibton, deforciant; that whereas the abbot was obliged to find two monks to celebrate divine service for the soul's health of Hugh de Wyndesore, and Christian his wife, and of the ancestors and successours of the said Walter, in the chapel of Senges; and to find for Walter a convenient chamber in the abbey for himself and a boy, with necessary diet and cloathing, and competent provender for one horse, which the abbot had denied him; the abbot hereby grants to Walter, that he would perform the said covenants of finding 2 chaplains to say a mass of St. Mary, and another De Defunctis every day in the said chapel, for the health of Hugh de Wyndesore and Christian his wife, ancestors of Walter, and to pay Walter, 8 marks per ann. and two boots of the price of 18*d.* or 18*d.* in money, Walter releasing all the rest.

Walter gave also a tenement which Margery, wife of Sir Richard de Senges, held in dower, in Senges, a tenement called Old Flat's and 3 acres in Mundham, with a mill in Thweyt.

The interest that the Senges had in this town came soon after to the Calthorps.

Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk gave to Richard de Senges, by deed sans date, 23 acres of land here, to be held of him by the 20th part of a fee, and Sir William Calthorp, son of Sir Walter, was lord of Sithing in the 14th of Edward II. and entailed it on his son Walter, but the chief part of the Senges estate was in the abbey of Sibton.

I have seen a deed of Sir Oliver Calthorp, dated at Burnham, December 16, 1361, setting forth that whereas the abbots, &c. of Sibton were obliged, on account of certain lands, and tenements, to pray for the souls of his ancestors in a chantry, within the chapel of Sything, given to them by his said ancestors, which lands and tenements, by length of time, and by the death of the free tenants and villains are become so waste, and the profits so diminished, as to be not a sufficient support for one monk to live and remain there. In order to supply the same, he grants for himself and heirs, that the said abbot, &c.

should be freed from the same, on condition that they provide a chantry in their own monastery, to perform the said office, and saving to himself and heirs the payment of 18*d.* per ann. at the feast of St. Martin for one pair of boots, which the said convent used to pay to him and his ancestors, and all other rents and services annually paid.

William de Noiers at the survey was steward of a lordship in this town, or which a freeman of Stigand the Archbishop was deprived; there then belonged to it a carucate of land, one villain, 2 borderers, one carucate in demean, half a carucate among the tenants, with an acre and a half of meadow: one saddle horse in the manor-house, &c. and 21 soemen in King Edward's reign had 24 acres of land, with a carucate and a half of meadow, valued in Tofts before the conquest at 40*s.* but the Conqueror added to this manor a beruite in Tofts, called Stiga, so that at the survey it paid 4*l.* and 10*s.* for what was in Tofts; it was one leuca long and one broad, and paid 16*d.* gelt.

This was granted by King William II. to William de Albinj his butler, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel, and held of them by several persons.

In the 14th of Edward I. John de Dunham, passed by fine to William Gerbergh, vineter, lauds in this town, Mundham and Wootton.

John Gerberge and Alice his wife, were querents, in a fine A<sup>o</sup>. Edward III. William Gerberge, parson of Wodenorton All-Saints, and John de Beckham, parson of Islington, deforciant of 10*l.* rent here, in Mundham, Lodue, and Langley, with homages and services, settled on John Gerbergh, remainder to Roger his son.

William de Holbroke, in the 20th of the said King, was found to hold one fee of the Earl of Arundel, which Walter and William Gerbridge held; and in the 25th year, Gilbert de Debenham, conveyed to John de Berney and Margaret his wife; and John Berney de Wichingham, in the 17th of Edward IV. died seized of the manor of Holbroke.

Thomas, Earl of Arundel, as capital lord, was found, in the 3d of Henry IV. to have one fee called Gerbrigg's.

The manor of Mauclerks held by Sir Henry Inglose, extended here: of this Albany fee see more in Mundham.

The Delapoles had also a lordship here. Sir William Delapole, Jun. granted to John de Cobham, lord of Cobham, an annuity out of his manors of Sything in Norfolk, Oxford, and Chesterton in Huntingdonshire, Edworth in Bedfordshire, &c. as a security on his son John Delapole's, marriage with Joan, daughter and heir of the said Lord Cobham, and at the same time it was covenanted that Sir William should settle on them at their marriage 100*l.* per ann. in lands and rents out of the manors of Westhall and Fulbroke in Oxfordshire, Potton in Bedfordshire, and Abirkeifsey.

This Sir William was son of Sir William Delapole, the great merchant of Hull, and Catherine his wife, which lady, in her deed dated at Kingston upon Hull, on Munday before the feast of St. Catherine, in the 40th year of King Edward III. styled herself widow of Sir William de la Pole, sen. and granted all her right in Bristwick in Holderness; and in her manors of Cleyton Parva, Burton, Pydsey, Outhorn, Wythouse, Sketelyng, Kylnese, Esyngton, Preston, Bonde, Bristwyk, Ravensore, Hedon, Barrowe, Paghesflete, Sportele, Kelle, Dyke, and Elstouwyke, with the wapentake of Holderness, &c. members, of Bristwick; in the manors of Skypse, Gryngele, and Whetely in Nottinghamshire, and in the rent of 260 marks out of the customs of the port of Kingston, yearly, which Sir William had before surrendered to the King, and which she now confirms; all which Sir William her husband had of the gift and grant of the said King. It is observeable that she seals with the arms of her husband, azure, a fess between 3 leopards faces, or, and not in a lozenge, though a widow; between the seal and the legend, with her name, are two Catherine, wheels; one on each side, to set forth also her Christian name, and the crest seems to be the bust of St. Catherine, the head with a crown.

Sir John de la Pole, by his lady Joan, left a daughter and heir, Joan, who by Sir Reginald Braybrook, one of her husbands, had also a daughter and heir, Joan, who married Sir Thomas Brook; who in the 6th of Henry VI. was lord of Sething, also of Radwinter Magna and Parva, and Creshale in Essex; father of Edward Lord Brook of Cobham, who died June 6, A<sup>o</sup>. 4 Edward IV. lord of this manor, and John was his son and heir, aged 18.

In the 6th of Henry VI. a fine was also levied between Sir John de Harpeden, Knt. and Joan his wife. Sir Thomas Brook and Joan his wife, Sir John Golafre, &c. querents, Reginald Kentwood, clerk, William Paston, &c. feoffes of the Lord Cobham of this manor, &c. settled on Sir John Harpeden, and Joan for life, remainder to Sir Thomas Broke and Joan in tail.

At the survey Isaac had 80 acres of land with 2 villains, and 3 carucates, which 3 freemen of Godwin had been deprived of, valued at 20s. at the survey at 50s.

A certain poor nun claimed here 4 acres of land, which she held under Ralph Earl of Norfolk, before and after his rebellion, as the hundred witnessed; but Isaac deprived her of it, and joined it to his lordship by a grant from the Conqueror.<sup>5</sup>

This came afterwards as an eschaet to the Crown, and was granted to the Bigots, who joined it to their other fees abovementioned.

Hugh Earl of Chester, had a lordship granted him, which 9 freemen held, and the moiety of 4 of them were under Stigand.

Walter de Dol had taken them away and added them to the lordship of Ennaham, and contained half a carucate of land; in King Edward's time, there was a carucate. Walter de Dol held Ennaham, (Eiland or Neyland), in Depwade hundred, under Roger Bigot, and Roger Bigot held this under Earl Hugh; so that it was united to Bigot's manors abovementioned.<sup>6</sup>

John Spooner, of this town, was lord of Mauclerk's manor in the reign of Henry IV. and Thomas Spooner, Gent. in the 40th of Elizabeth.

Thomas Godsalve, Esq. was lord of Miniol's manor in this town, in the reign of Henry VIII. and at the Dissolution had a grant of Sibton abbey, from the Duke of Norfolk; <sup>7</sup> Sir John Godsalve died lord of them in the reign of Philip and Mary, and William his son inherited them. Thomas Godsalve died lord in the 30th of Elizabeth, and Roger was his son and heir.

The tenths were 4*l.* 13*s.*—Deducted 20*s.*—The temporalities of Langley abbey 2*l.* 10*s.* 9*d.* ob.; this was granted to Thomas Godsalve, Esq. at the Dissolution.

The temporalities of Bokenham priory 8*d.*

The CHURCH was dedicated to St. Margaret, and was a rectory, valued at 25 marks.

In the 25th of Henry III. Richard was rector, and in the 34th of that King a fine was levied between Symon, abbot of Langley, querent, Walter de Seuges, impediens, of one acre of land,<sup>8</sup> and the advowson of the moiety of the church of St. Margaret, granted to the abbot and his successors, on the cession or death of Richard the rector.

In 1253, this church was appropriated by Walter Bishop of Norwich, to the hospital of St. Gyles in Norwich, founded by the said Bishop, paying to the almony of the priory of Norwich, a pension of 10 marks per ann. this church being alternately presented to by himself, and the prior; this pension was remitted by the said convent in the reign of Edward III. the hospital having built 12 cottages in Holm-street, Norwich, and resigned them to the convent.

It is now served by a stipendiary curate, appointed by the corporation of Norwich.

In the church was a chantry, afterwards removed by Sir Oliver Calthorp, to Sibton abbey, which abbey paid 10*l.* to Sir Oliver for this indulgence; also the guild of St. Margaret.

GOSCELINE DE LODDON'S lordship of Loddon, held of the abbot of Bury, extended into this town; and in the 20th of Henry III. the abbot of Langley and his parceners, Ralph Howe, &c. had an interest herein.

Ralph, son of Miles de Howe, presented to the church of Syselund in 1304.

The family of Charles (of whom see in Loddon) had a lordship which after came to the De la Poles Earls of Suffolk, and to the Mowbrays, and Howards, Dukes of Norfolk.

Thomas Clark accounted, in the 29th of Henry VIII. for 17*l.* 15*s.* 7*d.* rent of assise, of the Duke of Norfolk's manor.

At the survey, Godric, the King's steward, took care of a lordship for the Conqueror, that Ketel, a freeman, held, under the protection of Edwin, containing 2 carucates of land, three borderers, and one servus, with 2 carucates in demean, and half a carucate among the tenants, and 5 acres of meadow, and a mill; 13 soemen then had 2 carucates, and 26 acres of land, but the soc was in King Edward, valued then at 20*s.*

At the survey it paid 40*s.* quitrent; was 8 furlongs long, and 7 broad, and 11 perches, and the gelt was 8*d.*

Godric had also in his own right, 3 acres, of which a freeman of Edwin was deprived.<sup>9</sup>

ALBINI - MANOR.

William de Albini, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel, had a grant of this from King William II. The family of Inglos, and that of Dunham, &c. had an interest herein, as in Mundham. In the 14th of Edward II. William Gerberge had seven pounds per ann. in lands here in Mundham, Seneges, Langhale, &c.

T H W A Y T.

I do not find this town mentioned in the book of Domesday, it being accounted for in other towns, whose lordships extended into this.

A principal part of it belonged to the abbot of Bury's manor of Loddon, and it is often called in old writings, Thwayt by Loddon.

This part and lordship was in the family of Charles, and held by Sir William Charles, in the 48th of Henry III. lord also of a manor in Loddon, of whom, and his descendants, see at large in Loddon.<sup>3</sup> About this time the abbot was lord, had a messuage, 140 acres of land, 16 of meadow, 8 of pasture, 60 of wood, with 80 acres among his vil-lains, a windmill, freewarren, and several free tenants.

To this lordship belonged a right of presentation to the church, as the institutions will shew.

The Delapoles had a right of presentation, granted to them with the lordship in Sysland, by the Charles's, Sir Richard de la Pole presenting in 1332, and Sir William de la Pole, in 1351, and their right was conveyed to the Mowbrays Dukes of Norfolk.

Another part of this town was a member of the manor of the Bygot's

Earls of Norfolk, lords of Pirnow, now included in Ditchingham, and held by the family of De Swillington, as may be there seen; and in 1305, Sir William de Swillington presented as lord.

From the Bigots it descended to the Mowbrays, and the Howards Dukes of Norfolk. Roger Bigod Earl of Norfolk had free warren in his demeans in the 15th of Edward I.

In the 10th of Edward II. Sir Adam de Swillington, brother and heir of William de Swillington, released to William Charles his right, in the alternate presentation of this church, by fine.

Sir Robert Charles appears by his will, dated in 1400, to have a lordship here, which he gives, on his wife's decease, to Edmund his son and his heirs.*

Another part of this town belonged to the Earl of Clare's manor of Charleton, or Carleton. In the 46th of Henry III. Thomas de Brom granted by fine to William Charles, 7 acres of land, and a mark rent, here, &c. with certain homages and services, &c. and Thomas, son of Richard de Brom, was lord in the reign of Edward I.

In the 9th of Edward II. the heirs of Oliver Wythe, and Roger de Brom, held here in Carleton and Ashby, a quarter of a fee, of the Earl of Gloucester, the capital lord; and in the 3d of Henry IV. the Earl of March possessed the same.

The tenths of this town were 1*l.* 10*s.*

John de Hedenham conveyed in the 50th of Hen. III. to Simon, abbot of Langley, a messuage and a carucate of land; and the temporalities of that abbey were valued in 1428, at 3*l.* 8*s.* 5*d.*

In the 25th of Henry III. Robert Bacuu was petent in a fine, and Joan, prioress of Campsey in Suffolk, tenent, of 6*s.* and 9*d.* rent here and in Erezelton (Arwarton) in Suffolk, granted before by Roger Bacon, brother of Robert, to that priory, and now released. The prioress of Bungey had also lands.

The church is dedicated to St. Mary, and was a rectory. In the reign of Edward I. Sir James de Creyk and Richard Charles, presented to it alternately. The rector had a manse and 30 acres, valued at 6 marks. Peter-pence 9*d.* earvage 4*d.*

TOPCROFT.

EUDO, son of Spiruwin, had a grant of a considerable lordship in the town, which Godwin, a freeman, enjoyed under the protection, only of Earl Guert, in King Edward's reign, containing three carucates of land, 12 villains, &c. 30 borderers, with 7 servi; there were 4 carucates in demean, &c. 7 among the tenants, pannage for 20 swine, with 4 acres of meadow; and 4 freemen held under Eudo one carucate of land, whom his predecessor Henfrid gave him livery of, as belonging to this manor; under these freemen were 5 villains, and 12 borderers, with 5 carucates among them all, &c. and a saddle-horse kept at the manor-house, and 20 goats, valued then at 6*l.* at the survey at 8*l.*

In the same town, Godwin, a freeman, who held partly under the protection only of St. Edmund, and of Edric in King Edward's time, held a carucate and a half, which Covin after held, and 8 villains, and 11 borderers belonged to it, with 4 servi, and 2 carucates; and there were in King Edward's time, 8 carucates and a half among the tenants, three acres of meadow. The whole of this was valued at 30*s.* at the survey at 40*s.* It was one leuca long, and one quarter and 9 furlongs broad, and paid 20*d.* gelt, whoever was lord of it.<sup>5</sup>

Eudo was a Norman, and came into England with the Conqueror, and being rewarded with the manor of Tateshall, in Lincolnshire, resided there, and according to the custom of those times, assumed the name of that town; his descendants were barons of the realm; Hugh his son founded the abbey of Kirstead in Lincolnshire.

Sir Robert de Tateshale, Lord Tateshale, made a great acquisition to his estate, by marrying Mabel, one of the sisters and coheirs of Hugh de Albini Earl of Arundel, who died in 1242.

This Lord Tateshale, in right of Mabel, was lord of the castle of Bukenham, and the manors also of Wymondham, with the office of chief butler to the King. In the 42d of Henry III. he had a grant of free warren, and in the 15th of Edw. I. the lord had free warren, assise of bread and beer, a gallows, weyf, &c.

Sir John de Cove was lord in the 9th of Edward II. and in 1330, in right of Eve his wife, daughter of Robert de Tibetot, and relict of

Robert Lord Tateshale. On the death of the last Lord Tateshale, a minor, his inheritance came to his three aunts, Emma, married to Sir Osbert Caily; Joan, to Sir Robert de Driby, and Isabel, to Sir John de Orrby.

About the end of Edward the Third's reign, the whole lordship of this town was in Sir Adam de Clifton, son of Sir Roger de Clifton, by Margaret, only sister of Sir Thomas de Caily.

Sir John Clifton, his grandson, was lord in the reign of Richard II. and his grandson, Sir John Clifton, of Bokenham castle, the last heir male of the eldest branch of the Cliftons, by his will, (as appears, dying without issue male) dated August 16, 1447, gives to Robert Clifton his cousin, this lordship, with that of Denton. This Robert was descended from Adam de Clifton, knight, lord of Denver, 2d son of Sir Adam abovementioned, son of Thomas Clifton, Esq. who was brother of this Sir John.

In the 4th and 5th of Edward IV. Robert Clifton and Elizabeth his wife conveyed the united lordships of Topcroft and Denton to Sir Gilbert Debenham, Knt. son of Sir Gyles, with the manor of Denver; and by a fine, they were settled on Thomas Gardiner, as trustee, for the use of Robert and Elizabeth, his wife, for life; remainder to Sir Thomas Brews of Salle in Norfolk, and Elizabeth his 2d wife, sister and heiress of Sir Gilbert Debenham; and Sir Thomas Brews, on the death of Robert and Elizabeth aforesaid, about the 22d of Edward IV. had livery of it, had his will, being dated in 1479, proved April 27, 1483, and bequeaths to William his eldest son, for life, after the death of Elizabeth his wife, the manors of Topcroft, Denton, Hoo, &c.

William was son of Sir Thomas, by Mary, his first wife, daughter of Sir John Calthorp, of Burnham in Norfolk, and dying in 1489, left by Isabel his wife, daughter of Sir John Hopton, relict of Sir John Jermy, 2 daughters and coheirs; Thomasyne, married to Sir Thomas Hansard, and Anne to Sir Roger Townsend; so that this lordship came to Robert Brewse, Esq. eldest son of Sir Thomas, by Elizabeth his 2d wife, who, by Catherine his wife, daughter of Sir John Wingfield of Letheringham, had Thomas Brews, Esq.

Robert died in 1514, and was found to hold it in capite, by the 3d part of a fee, and paying 12d. per ann. to Norwich castle-guard.

Thomas Brews, Esq. married Jane, daughter of ——— Scroop of Bentley, Esq. in Suffolk, and was father of Sir John Brews of this town, and of Wenham in Suffolk.

His son, Thomas, was lord in 1590; and Sir John Brews, in the reign of King James I. who married Cecily, daughter of John Wilton of Topcroft, Gent. lord of Wilby.

After this, the Wiltons were lords; and in 1650 Robert Wilton, Esq. of Wilby, son of Richard Wilton, brother of the aforesaid Cecily, possessed it, and remained in that family, till Nicholas Wilton, Esq. sold it in 1680, to George Smith, M. D. second son of John Smith of North Nibley, Esq. in Gloucestershire; he married Mary, daughter and heiress of David Offley of Cheshire, Esq. by whom he had Offley his son, who inherited it, and died at London, in 1708, and was buried there in St. Bride's church, leaving this manor to George Smith, his eldest son, by Mary, daughter of Thomas Archer, of Gloucestershire, Esq.—George married Mary, 3d daughter of William Churchman, Esq.

of Illington: he was high sheriff of Norfolk, 1735, and died in 1745, leaving William Smith his son and heir, of Topcroft-hall, Esq.

HOW'S MANOR.

The abbot of St. Edmund in Bury had a lordship which Berengarius held of the abbot at the survey, with 2 carucates of land; 2 priests held it of the abbey in the reign of the Confessor, 4 villains, 10 borderers and 2 servi belonged to it; there were 2 carucates in demean, and 3 among the tenants, &c. 3 acres of meadow, and a socman had 2 acres, valued at 30s. at the survey at 40s. the soc belonged to the abbey.<sup>6</sup>

In the 7th of King John, Ralph de Tyvill, alias Trubeville, gave a mark to have a writ of right for the moiety of one fee in this town, of which Roger de Hoo had disseised him.

In the 10th of the said King, Ralph granted it to Roger for 10 marks; they both held under the abbot, and the presentation was in the abbot's fee.

A fine was levied in the reign of Richard I. between Sampson, abbot of Bury, petent, and the said Roger de Hoo, tenant, of 2 knights fees in this town, Micklefield, and Ugkeshule, in Suffolk,<sup>7</sup> which Berengarius held, wherein Roger acknowledges the tenure, and that when the scutage was at 20s. he would pay 20s. when more he would pay more, and when less he would pay less, and to perform ward to Norwich castle.

Nicholas de Folsham was found in the 18th of Edward I. to hold half a fee of Roger de Hoo.

And in the 14th of that King Roger de Coggeshale and Mary his wife, claimed view of frank pledge, the assise, &c. of his tenants, which they held under Roger, son of John de Hoo.

Roger de Hoo and Agnes his wife, settled this manor in the first of Edward II. on themselves, with that of Shalfanare; and in the 9th of that reign, Richard Sutton had an interest herein, as trustee to the abbot, when he aliened one rood of meadow, and the advowson of the church to the see of Norwich.

Thomas Speke and Cecelia de Hoo, his wife, had a quarter of a fee of the abbot, (which Nicholas Folsham late held,) in the 20th of Edward III.

It is probable this Cecily was one of the daughters and heirs of Roger de Hoo, and Agnes his wife.

After this it seems to be purchased by the Cliftons, and united to the manor of Topcroft; Sir John Clifton dying possessed of it in 1447.

The tenths were 4l. 12s. Deducted 1l.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret. John de Hoo was patron in the reign of Edward I. the rector had then a manse, with 30 acres of land, valued at 16 marks. Peter-pence 9d. carvage 15d.

After this William Bekeswell, Esq. and the Heydons, presented as lords, from whom it came to the Sucklings: Robert Suckling, Esq. presenting to the church in 1576.

This Robert was son of Richard Suckling, alderman of Norwich, buried in the church of St. Simon and Jude of Norwich in 1552, by ———, daughter of ——— Swaney of Yorkshire: Robert was mayor of the city in 1572, and 1582; by Elizabeth, daughter of ——— Berwick of Suffolk; he had a numerous issue, Edmund, his eldest son, D. D. dean of Norwich, and Sir John, his youngest, was secretary to the Earl of Dorset, master of the requests, and receiver of the alienations, &c. and dying March 27, A. 3d of Charles I. was buried by his father and wife in the chancel of St. Andrew's church at Norwich, where are monuments erected to their memory.

Sir John, by Martha his wife, daughter of Thomas Cranfield, merchant of London, was father of Sir John Suckling, the poet, who was principal secretary of state, comptroller of the household, and privy counsellour in the reigns of King James, and Charles the First. But I do not find that either of these two knights had an interest in this lordship, which descended to Charles, the eldest son of Robert aforesaid, by Joan his 2d wife, daughter of William Cardinal of Bromley Magna in Esser, Esq. which Charles was lord, and presented in 1624, and died in 1644, and left by Mary his wife, daughter and heir of Steph. Drury of Aylsham, Robert, his son and heir, who was living in 1664, and high sheriff of Norfolk in that year, and died full of years about 1690; he married two wives; first, Anne, daughter of Sir Thomas Woodhous, Bt. of Kimberley; second, ———, daughter of Sir William Doyley of Shottesham, Bart. and had issue by both, but succeeded in his estate here by Robert Suckling, his son and heir, by his first wife, and lord in 1693: who by Sarah, his wife, daughter of Maurice Shelton of Barningham in Suffolk, Esq. was father of Robert, who was lord in 1700, and left by Anne his wife, daughter of John Berney Esq. of Swardston, Robert Suckling, Esq. lord and patron in 1740, and Denzil Suckling, Esq. in 1754, was lord.

Suckling bears p. pale, gules and azure, 3 bucks trippant, or.

At the survey Isaac held the lands of two freemen, who were only under the protection of Godwin, in King Edward's reign, and had livery from the Conqueror, consisting of 60 acres, and 2 carucates, with half an acre of meadow, then valued at 10s. at the survey at 5s.; the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>9</sup>

This came afterwards as an escheat to the Crown, and granted to the Bigots, and so united to their manor before mentioned.

Eudo, son of Spiruwin, had a lordship, which the Conqueror granted him, and eleven freemen of Godwin, &c. held it under King Edward and Guert half a carucate of land; and 4 borderers belonged to it, with 3 carucates, an acre and half of meadow in King Edward's reign; the soc belonged to the hundred.<sup>1</sup>

Of this Eudo, and his descendants, lords Tatteshale, see at large in Topcroft, of which town they were lords, which they held united with this lordship.

In this town one freeman, under Godwin's commendation, and 5 other freemen (three of them under Hagane's, and two under Algar's) held among them, a carucate and a half of land, and 12 borderers, also 5 carucates and 4 acres of meadow, the whole was valued at 4*l.* at the survey at 8*l.* quitrent, and paid by tale 20s. as a fine per ann. These six freemen paid 27*s.* 4*d.* of this 8*l.* (the other part was paid by the lord of Bedingham). It was one leuca long, and half a one broad, paid 11*d.* gelt, whoever was lord, and King Edward had the soc of these freemen, but Earl Ralph at the time of his forfeiture unjustly held it. Godric at the survey took care of this manor for the Conqueror.

In Wodetuna, 2 freemen had in King Edward's time 12 acres belonging to, and valued in, Adetona, which I take to be some town, or place near to it.<sup>2</sup>

Widetuna, and Uddetuna, and Adetona, all set forth a town seated by the water; this was also part of the aforesaid manor.

How long this lordship was in the Crown does not appear, it probably was granted by King William II. to William de Albini his butler, Lord of Rysing castle, &c. in Norfolk, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel, and on the death of Hugh de Albini, the last heir male of that family, came to the Lord Tateshall, by the marriage of Mabel, his eldest sister and coheir, who had this part of inheritance assigned to him, and so was united to his other lordship.

Robert Lord Tateshale had the assise, &c. in the 14th of Edward I. and so descended to his heirs, as in Topcroft manor.

Hugh Earl of Chester had a grant of the lands of two freemen, and the moiety of another, of whom Algar had the protection, containing half a carucate of land, 2 villains, one borderer, with a carucate of meadow, &c. valued then at 40s. at the survey at 4*l.* Stigand had the soc; it was one leuca long and one broad, and paid 8*l.* gelt.<sup>3</sup>

This manor was afterwards held of Earl Hugh, by Roger Bigot, and at length came to the Earls of Norfolk, and was united to this lordship above-mentioned.

John de Ratlesden had an interest, and held the fourth part of a fee here, of Robert Benhale and Eve his wife, and in the 3d of Henry IV. the Earl of Suffolk was found to hold the same as lord of Horsford in Norfolk, of the honour of Eye in Suffolk.

The tenths were 3*l.* 16s.—Deducted 12s.—Temporalities of Sibton abbey 11s. 6*d.*—of St. Faith 3s. 4*d.* and of Langley 14s. 8*d.*

THE CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to All-Saints: in the reign of Edward I. Sir James, son of Clereband was patron, and the rector had a manse, with 30 acres of land, valued at 10 marks, Peter-pence 18*d.* carvage 8*d.*

For Anne, wife of Robert Suckling, Esq; by whom she had 5 sons, and 4 daughters; she was daughter of Sir Thomas Woodhouse of Kimberley, Bt. and Dame Blanch, daughter of the lord Cary, Baron of Hunsdon.

MITFORD HUNDRED AND HALF.

AT the survey it belonged to the monastery of Ely, (St. Etheldreda or St. Audry) the abbot and convent were lords of it, in the reign of the Confessor, and was valued at 60s. per ann.<sup>1</sup>

It was granted with the manor of East Derham, to that monastery by Ethelwold Bishop of Winchester, in the reign of the Saxon King Edgar.

King Edgar granted to it very great privileges, which were confirmed and enlarged by King Edward, and other Kings, and on the erection of the bishoprick of Ely in 1109, was settled on that see, as part of its revenues.

In the reign of Richard I. these royalties belonged to it, soc, sac, thol, theam, infangtheof, and outfangtheof, frithwite, ferdwite, grithbrith, and all forfeitures; which he confirmed, as his father King Henry had.

The Bishop's men were free from all toll, passage, geld, and Dane gelt, and acquitted from all fines for murder in the said hundred, as due to the Bishop, except they who held of a different fee, and except treasure trove. He had the return of all writs in his own fee, and that of other persons, writs, of replevin, all fines and amercements, felons goods, and fugitives.

In the 34th of Henry III. he had his own coroner, and the hundred was valued at 100s. per ann. in the 35th he had free warren, and in the 41st of that King his own judge for this liberty, William le Briton; when it was found that Hugh de Norcold, late Bishop, had erected a prison at East Derham, since the last iter of the judges, the prisoners before being brought to Norwich.

In the 6th of Edward I. it appears that he had a gallows, tumbrel, a free court, and cognizance of all secular crimes, and held pleadings in the hundred as well as the sheriff in the county, and had assise of bread and beer, and in the 21st of that King, a complaint being made by the Bishop that some persons belonging to this liberty were impleaded before John de Mettingham, one of the King's justices, and his associates, and would not allow of his liberty, satisfaction was ordered to be made to the Bishop, by the King, &c. in parliament; about this time the jury find it valued at 10 marks per ann.

In the 11th of Henry VI. the Bishop's bailiff accounted for sheriff's aid 18s. 2d. and for the letes of North and East Tudenham, Mateshale, Thuxton, Gerveston, Reymirston, Hardingham, South-Bergh, Rysing, Cranworth, Letten, Shipdam, Westfield, Bergh, Yavham, Hokering, and Streteman's-Dike; this was so called from the north street of East Derham, which lies in the hundred of Launditch, of which John Le Strange of Litcham in Norfolk was lord in 1377, and the men inhabiting in this street, met once every year to renew their pledges, at this dike, in the presence of the bailiffs of both these hundreds, and paid a fine, (ne occasionentur) not to be charged with any occasional payments. The fine was 2s. of which the Bishop's bailiff was to have 1s. 8d. and the other bailiff 4d. or to eat with the Bishop's bailiff, at the Bishop's charge, and the turn for this street was held at this place.

The hundred remained in the see of Ely, till granted to the Crown, by act of parliament, in the 1st of Elizabeth: in the beginning of her reign I find it let for 4l. 5s. 3d. per ann. besides casualties; and in the 16th of James I. it was granted to Sir John Hobart, lord chief justice of the Common Pleas, for three lives.

In 1639, the hundred court was kept at Brok-pit, and I find the sum of 13d. then paid at the turn held there for lands at Begale green in Mateshale.

The office of bailiff was a patent place for life.

Bishop Alcok, in the reign of Henry VII. granted it to his kinsman John Alkok: Henry Sharington, Esq. held it, in the reign of Henry VI.

In the 37th of Henry VIII. Thomas Goodrye Bishop of Ely granted Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk the office of bailiff, of all and singular the lordships, and lands in Norfolk, belonging to him for his life, dated at Ely in the chapter-house, September 21.

BERGH,

IN old writing called Bergh Parva, to distinguish it from South Bergh, in this hundred; also Mattishall-Bergh, as lying near to it, and having the same lords.

It is not mentioned in the Book of Domesday, being accounted for in the lordships of Ralph de Beaufo in Mateshale, and that of Hermer de Ferrarijs in the said town, as extending into this village,

The principal manor was that of R. de Beaufoe, which came to the Marshals: John le Mareshal was lord and patron in the 11th of Edward I. and held it of the Bishop of Ely, by knight's service; from the Marshalls it descended to the Lords Morley, and in the 3d of

Henry IV. Edmund Berry, and Richard Denny of Wymondham, held here and in East Tudenham, &c. the 4th part of a fee of Oliver Gross, and he of the Lord Morley.

From the Lords Morley it came to the Lovels, and from them to the Parkers Lords Morley; as may be seen at large in Hokering, &c.

Edward Parker Lord Morley, who lived in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, sold great part of his estate: and about 1583, this lordship, to Sir Thomas Lovell of East Herling, and Sir Francis, his son, inherited it.

BARDOLPH'S MANOR.

Hermer de Ferrurijs's manor (who was lord of Matishale at the survey) descended to the Lords Bardolf, barons of Wirmegey, and became part of that barony, and extended into this village.

William Bardolf, lord, held one fee here, and in Barton, in the 13th of Richard II. On the attainder of the Lord Bardolf, it was granted with that barony to Thomas Beaufort Earl of Dorset, and after Duke of Exeter: see in Wrongey.

The CHURCH has only an isle with a chancel covered with tile, a square tower, and 3 bells, and a chapel on the north side, and is dedicated to St. Peter; it is a rectory, the ancient valor was 5 marks; Peter-pence 8d. ob. the present valor is 3l. 15s. 10d.

The canons of Southwark St. Mary, had a portion of tithe valued at 3 marks, and the priory of Norwich 5s. per ann.

On a grave-stone, in the church,

Hic jacet corpus Audoeni Thornton, clerici, qui obt. 7 die Apr. 1688, ætat. 78.

One,

In memory of Robert Danbye, Gent. who died 1699, aged 52: and of Elizabeth his wife, daughter of John Smith, Gent. and died 1691.

Another,

For Robert Danbye, son of John Danbye, Gent. who died 1670: and for Anne, his wife, daughter of William Stewart, Gent. who died 1694.

On a monument of black marble,

Resurrectionem beatam juxta manent reliquæ Eliz Guliel. Danbye, filia, Tho. Jegon, clerici, uxoris dilectissima, cujus a teneris perpetuam pietatem, prudentiam, ingenium, modestiam, ceterasq; et animi et corporis, dotes sibi ferè proprias et singulares, ore seculum laudavit præsens, laudabit futuram obt. 24, Dec. Aº. Dñj. 1708, æt. 24.

In Trinity term the 16th year of King Edward I. a fine was levied of this advowson, when the prior of Southwark St. Mary's granted it to John le Mareshal and Oliva his wife.

RECTORS.

In 1300, Richard de Geyst instituted, nominated by William Marshall, presented by the prior and convent of St. Mary of Southwark.

1321, John de Repps.

In 1603, Buxton certifies that there were 81 communicants, and that Sir Francis Lovel was patron, to whom the advowson had been granted; but it appears that Henry Lord Morley had released to Henry St. John the patronage for 40 years.

1604, Thomas Baldwyn, A.M. by Oliver St. John, assignee of Henry Parker Lord Morley.

William Segesweych, occurs rector about 1660.

1742, George Howes, by Mat. Postlewait, on Heyhoe's death.

In this church was the guild of St. Peter.

Thomas Harleston, Gent. of this town, lord of Aphow's, &c. in East Tudenham, buried in this church in 1558.

William Teder, by his will in 1504, gave the tenor bell.

CRANWORTH, AND SWATHING.

THIS lordship was farmed, or taken care of for the King, at the survey, (who was then lord of it,) by Godric.

Ulf, who was lord of it in the time of Edward the Confessor, being deprived of it, who had 2 carucates of land, held by 13 villains, and 3 borderers, with 2 servi; there were also 2 carucates in demean, and 2 among the tenants, pannage for 200 swine, and 8 acres of meadow, a mill, 2 cows, 15 swine, 20 sheep, and 20 goats; 14 socmen held 40 acres, and 2 carucates of land, valued at 100s. in the time of the Confessor; but at the survey at 10*l. per ann.* and 10s. was paid for an income or fine. It was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 15*d. gelt*, and here and in Shipdam, one socman of Stow, had 30 acres:<sup>2</sup> see in Hardingham.

Ulf was the third son of King Harold.

At the time of the Conqueror's survey adjoining to Cranworth was a town called Swathing, a towu many centuries past destroyed and depopulated; and the lands belonging to it now included in the townships of Craneworth, and Letton; that it was a considerable village appears from the following account of it in Domesday Book, when it belonged to the King, and was farmed of him, or taken care of by Godric.

Hacon a freeman being deprived of it, which Hacon was grandson of Earl Godwin, and son of Swain, brother to King Harold, who had 2 carucates of land held by 9 villains and 11 borderers, with 4 servi; there were 2 carucates in demean, and 2 of the tenants, &c. pannage for 60 swine, 5 acres of meadow, 2 mills, &c. 30 sheep, and 6 goats, and 13 socmen belonged to it; 5 of them were in the said village, in Thurston four and in Thurstanestuna four, who held one carucate, formerly 5, valued in Hacon's time at 100s. at the survey at 6*l. 13s. 4d.* and was 7 furlongs long, 6 broad, whoever was lord of it, and paid 12*d. gelt*.<sup>3</sup>

SWATHING'S AND BOTETOURT'S MANOR.

The township or lands of Swathing being thus joined to that of Cranworth became two distinct manors, or two moieties of the township of Cranworth, and as such I shall here treat of them in order of time as I find them.

Swathing was so considerable a lordship, that Runhall, in the hundred of Fourhow, was a beruite to it, and valued with it, and also extended into Hardingham.

The ancient family of De Gourney were lords of this town, Crane-worth, and Letton, and in the 14th of King John a fine was levied between Mabel, widow of Lewis de Gourney, and Thomas, son of Lewis, of lands, a mill, and 5 marks rent in Cranworth, and Letton, granted to Thomas, as part of her dower, and Roger de Swathing was witness to a deed in 1220.

In the 29th of Henry III. Symon de Crepping and Maud his wife, convey by fine to John de Gurney, the manor of Swagething's, and John regranted it to Maud for life.

Edmund de Swathing, as lord, presented to the church of Crane-worth in the reign of Edward I.

William de Walcote, and Alice his wife, conveyed by fine, in the 4th of Edward I. lands and a messuage here, to Catherine, widow of William de Swathing; and John de Gurney, in the 9th of Edward II. impleaded William de Swathing, for chasing his hares without his license, in his free warren at Swathing; William pleaded that Lewis de Gurney was lord, and held it at the conquest, with free warren, and enfeoffed Arnold de Swathing, his predecessor, of a moiety of the said manor, with freewarren, &c. and William de Gurney in the other moiety, of whom descended John, the complainant, and that by reason of the aforesaid moiety, he and his predecessors, time immemorial, used, in one moiety as well as the other, to chase the hares at their will and pleasure; and Edmund Swathing presented to the church in 1324, and 1334.

William, son of Roger de Swathing, and Martin, son of John, performed suit to the Bishop of Ely's hundred of Mitford, in 1277.

Edmund de Swathing, lord of this manor, married Agnes, one of the daughters and coheirs of Jeffrey de Fransham, lord of Fransham Magna, and had William his son and heir, father of Edmund, whose daughter and heir, Elizabeth, brought part of the manor of Fransham, and this manor of Swathing, to Henry Sherington, Esq.

In the 15th of Edward I. Guy de Botetourt claimed free warren in his demean lands here, of this lordship; that family had been enfeoffed by the Gurneys.

Richard de Kerebrook acknowledged, in a pleading in the 36th of this King, that 2 messuages, 92 acres of land, 22 of meadow, 31 of pasture, in Cranworth, Letton, Kerebrook, &c. were the right of William, son of Ralph de Saham, and his heirs, and that John le Botetour was brother of the said William, who had the judgment of the court to recover part of the said land.

In the 5th of Edward II. the manor of Cranworth was settled by fine, on Guy de Botetourt, and Ada his wife, for life; remainder to Ralph de Botetourte and his heirs.

John Botetourt and Maud his wife, sister and heir of Otto, daughter and heir of Beatrix de Bella Campo, formerly wife of William de Mantchensy, of Edwardeston in Suffolk, and Robert Swinburn and Joan his wife, daughter and heir of John, son of John Botetourt, had an interest herein, in the 17th of Edward II. and Thomas de Swathing, lord in the 15th of Edw. III.

Bartholomew de Botetour possessed it after Ralph abovementioned, and his daughter and heir, Maud, brought it by marriage to Jeffrey de Swathing; and Jeffrey was lord of it in the 9th of Richard II. and Maud his wife, as appears by a fine then levied between them, and William de Swathing; Margaret, widow of this William, presented as lady of Swathing manor in 1399.

Maud, wife of Jeffrey Swathing, married to her 2d husband, Roger Edmonds, or Esmond, by whom she had a son, John, who had the lordship of Botetour in Kemberley: he was living at Cranworth in the 8th and 20th of Henry VI. and had some interest in this lordship.

In a record of that time, Maud his grandmother, is called daughter and heir of Sir Baldwin Botetourt.

In the 13th of that King, Edmund de Swathing and his heirs, were found to have a right to feed their sheep in the pasture of Ulnhawe and Bergesmethe, without number, by the grant of John de Calveley, &c.

This Edmund, son of William de Swathing, left an only daughter and heir, Elizabeth, who brought it by marriage, to Henry Sharnington, Esq.

John Edmonds, by his testament, dated at Westhorpe in Suffolk, November 12, 1563, orders his body to be buried in the church of St. Mary of Cranworth,<sup>4</sup> Margaret his wife, executrix; to whom he deviseth all his lands in this town and Freinge, &c. remainder to his right heirs; and was proved January 12 following; by an inquisition after his death, he was found to die possessed of the manor of Botetours, in Cranworth, held of the Lord Bardolf, of his manor of Cantele, and of the manor of Thompson.

It appears that this lordship of Botetours came to Richard Esmond, who, with Joan his wife, conveyed it, in the 13th of Henry VII. to John Sturges, Francis Southwell, &c.

Henry Sharnington, Esq. who was steward to the Bishop of Ely, for his hundred of Mitford, was lord of Swathing's in the 12th of Henry VI. and presented to this church in 1435, and 1439; and Elizabeth his widow in 1452, and his son and heir Thomas in 1477, and 1487, who died about the 12th of Henry VII. and was succeeded by his son, Thomas Sharnington, Esq. who presented in 1522.

In the first of Henry VIII. Hen. Thexton, clerk, artieled with this Tho. to serve him in the office of a priest, and to pray for the souls of Thomas Sharnington and Elizabeth his wife, Henry Sharnington and Elizabeth his wife, from the 2d of October, for one whole year, and to have beside his table (that is board) 53s. and 4d.

This Thomas died about 1527; it appears that he had a son, William, who was a minor in the 17th of Henry VII. and at nurse, at 6d. per week, and living, and lord in the 22d of Henry VIII.

It is probable that he and his wife Ursula conveyed it to Sir Richard Southwell, who in the year 1546, presented to this church, as lord of Swathing's manor: and in the 31st of Henry VIII. Sir Christopher Jenney, judge of the King's Bench, and Sir John Jenney, Knt. conveyed to Sir Richard Southwell, by fine, the lordship of Botetours.

From the Southwells the lordship came to the Cranes, as in Wood-Rysing. William Crane, Esq. presented in 1647, and 1663.

In 1680, Brampton Gardon, Esq. presented as lord, and his descendant, Thornhaugh Gardon, Esq. in 1762.

Thomas Barrow, Esq. was living here in the 24th of Elizabeth, as was William Barrow, Esq. his son and heir, in the 31st of Elizabeth, and had lands here and at Westhorp in Suffolk, which seem to come to them from the Esmonds.

SHARINGTON'S PEDIGREE.

This William is said to have had a brother, Sir Henry Sherington, who by Ann, his wife, daughter and sole heir of Robert Paget, of London, alderman, left two daughters and coheirs; Oliva, married to John Talbot, Esq. a younger son of the house of Grafton; and Grace, to Sir Anthony Mildmay of Apthorp, in Northamptonshire.

Thomas Sherington, Esq. had a daughter, Cecilia, married to Robert Southwell, Esq. serjeant at law, buried both at Barham in Suffolk: he died in 1514, and Anne, a daughter, married to Edmund Playters, Esq. of Suffolk.

The tenths were 2*l.* 10*s.* Deducted 0. 0.

Swathing bore azure, a bend, argent; Sherington, checque, argent and azure, on a flaunch, gules, two crosses, pattee, or; — Esmond, ermin, a saltire engrailed, sable.

Of the church of Swathing, I find no memorial, being delapidated many centuries past; that of Cranworth was a rectory, valued at 10 marks, in the reign of Edward I.

Edmund de Swathyngs was patron, and the rector had a manse, and 15 acres of land, and paid Peter-pence, 12*d.*

The present valor is 5*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*

<sup>5</sup> In the church of Barham in Suffolk, of this Elizabeth, and in a window of Barham Hall, Sherington and Scroop, were the arms of Sherington, impaling Barham Hall, Sherington and Scroop, argent a fess indented, and in chief, three quarterly.
lozenges, gules; the arms, as I take it,

On a gravestone,

John Williams, gent. sometime servant to the Right High and Mighty Prince, John, Duke of Suffolk, which John Williams died July 2, 1501.

In the church of Cranworth, on the windows, were the arms of Sharington, Swathing, Lord Scales, Mortimer of Attleburgh, Lord Morley, Clifton, and Cailly.

In the first of Henry VIII, Thomas Sherington made a new window in the north isle at the east end, also a new porch.

On a stone, in the north isle, were the arms of Swathing, it being likely their burial place.

In this window was the picture of the Blessed Virgin.

Gurdon bears sable, three leopards, faces, passant, as many de-lis, or; and quarters Sexton, argent, three single eagles wings expanded, gules; Mounteney, azure, a bend between six martlets, or. Brampton, Clifton, Barton, argent, on a fess, gules, three annulets, or; Burgate, paly of six argent and azure, a fess, over all, gules and argent, three piles, wavy, gules, a bend over all, azure.

Here was the guild of St. John Baptist, and St. Mary; to her the church was dedicated.

The abbot of Wendling's temporalities were 22s. 1d. ob.

Thomas Sharington, Esq. of Cranworth, by his will dated October 15, 1519, and proved January 12, 1524, appears to have had by Catherine his wife, (then dead,) daughter of William Pyrton of Essex, Esq. 5 sons; first, William, 2d, Thomas, 3d, Henry, 4th, John, 5th, Anthony, and five daughters; first Elizabeth, 2d, Anne, 3d, Cæcilia, Ursula, and Olivia. Reg. Briggs, Norw. p. 35.

The town is seated where two streams or rivulets unite, as appears from the adjunct word, worth; eran or curve, signifies the turn of a river, and sometimes is the name of a river, as Cranborn in Dorsetshire, and Cranbrook in Essex.

E A S T - D E R E H A M .

THIS market-town is situated at the north-west point of the hundred of Mitford, and nearly in the centre of the county of Norfolk. It is sometimes spelt Dearham, Deerham, and anciently Derham.

It was burnt on the first of July, 23d of Elizabeth, as we learn from a book then published, and entitled "An Account of the lamentable burning of East-Derham, in the county of Norfolk, July 1, 1581,"<sup>8</sup> in verse printed in black letter, 1582, at London.

On the 3d of July, 21st Charles II. it was again almost entirely destroyed by fire, five persons were then burnt, many horses and other cattle, 170 houses; the loss by which was estimated at 11,020*l.* and by goods and merchandise at 8,423*l.* the whole amounting to 19,443*l.*

The principal manor in this parish is that of

EAST-DEREHAM OF THE QUEEN.

This manor was granted to the monastery of Ely, by Ethelwold Bishop of Winchester, in the reign of the Saxon King Edgar, anno 963.

In Domesday book it is said to have belonged to St Edeldrede, (that is, to the church or monastery of Ely), and to consist of five carucates of land; in Edward the Confessor's time there were twenty villains, in the Conqueror's 16, then 20 borderers, now 25, then 2 carucates in demean, now three, then eight among the tenants, now 7, then paunage for 600 swine now for 300; there were always three mills; three beasts of burden twelve young cattle, 20 swine, 100 sheep, 7 socmen, 30 acres of land, and 2 of meadow, three acres of wood.

It was valued then at 10*l.* now at 13*l.* It is one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and pays 15*d.* in gelt or tribute.<sup>9</sup>

This lordship continued a part of the possession of the monastery of Ely till the foundation of the Bishop's see there in 1109, (9 H. I.) when it was assigned to the Bishop, and made a part of his barony.

From a MS. book, entitled "A Book of the Survey of the manors belonging to the bishoprick of Ely, taken in the time of Hugh de Balsam, Bishop of Ely, and in the 21st year of his consecration;" viz. in 1277, is extracted the following account of it;

"This lordship is in the Bishop of Ely's hundred of Mitford, except the north street of the town,<sup>1</sup> and that is in the hundred of Launditch,

"The advowson of the church of Derham with the chapel of Hoe, belongs to the Bishop. The church of Derham, is in the archdeacon of Norfolk and deanery of Hingham. The chapel of Hoe is in the archdeaconry of Norwich, and deanery of Brisley."

The demean lands are then described, the lands of the free and copyhold tenants, the rents, customs, services, heriots, &c. &c. the several commons belonging to the manor, are abutted, and thus mentioned :

"On Estlingker common,<sup>2</sup> the towns of Yaxham, Mattishall, and Tuddenham, are to intercommon with the Bishop's tenants, but not to cut wood or turf without the Bishop's leave; the Bishop and his tenants are likewise to intercommon on the other side of the bank with them and in Tuddenham here."

"On Brunesmor common, the town of Derham, with the homage of William de Bellomonte of Little Derham, Gilbert de Fransham of Scarning, and William de Stutevile of Gressenhall are to intercommon with the Bishop, as before, and the Bishop, and the town of Derham, with them, on Scarning common."

"On Bukemede, the town of Derham the homage of William de Stutevile, in Gressenhall, of Thomas de Hereford and Gilbert de Fransham, and the homage of William de Bellomonte, in Little Derham intercommon with the Bishop, who with his tenants are to intercommon on the other side of the bank with them."

"On Galewetremor the whole town of Derham, intercommon with the Bishop."

"On Northalegreen the town of Derham, and 13 of the homage of William de Stutevile, and Thomas de Hereford, living near that common, intercommon with the Bishop.

"On Estlingegreen the towns of Derham, Yaxham, Mattishall, and Tuddenham, intercommon with the Bishop."

"On Morgate green, the town of Derham, the homage of William de Bellomonte of Little Derham of William de Stutevile, and Gilbert de Fransham, in Scarning, intercommon with the Bishop, and the Bishop and town of Derham likewise intercommon with them in Berkeslehell."

"On Sathwodegrene the towns of Derham, Yaxham, Matishall and Tuddenham, intercommon with the Bishop."

"There is a common likewise in Hoe, called Apetho, and Lyn-Croft, in which the Bishop's tenants, the tenants of William de Stutevile, and Thomas de Hereford, intercommon with the Bishop.

"The Bishop makes annually about 10*l.* of all the abovementioned commons."

"The tenants are to put their cattle on the above commons and lands, (except in those lands, which are lately cleared of wood) from the time that harvest is finished to Lady-day, but the lord is first to put his cattle on, and in recompense for this right of common, the Bishop's tenants are to plough his lands called Graserthe. The Bishop has free warren over the whole manor; he has likewise the fisheries of Eastmill, Kirkmill, and formerly he had that at Bellhouse-mill, but was late hindred there by the lady of Bellhouse manor in Tuddenham. There are two water-mills, one wind-mill, and the Bishop might erect another if he pleased. The market is worth 10 marks per ann. The stock to be kept is 10 cows, a free bull, thirty hogs, a free boar, and 200 sheep."

"The Lady Alice Mareschall held three fees by knight's service of this manor. A fine called childwite is to be paid for every bastard born, and another called gersuma, upon the marriage of a son or daughter.—A heriot is due of a death, or 20s.—The widow is entitled to half the husband's lands for life."

"Here is a wood belonging to the Bishop, called Toft-wode,<sup>3</sup> containing about 70 acres, and worth by the year 19s."

In the rolls of the King's Bench it appears that the Bishop had a fair, and that the town was 16 leuca distant from Norwich, by which it is plain that a leuca was then accounted only one mile, Dereham being exactly 16 measured miles from Norwich.

The Bishop had likewise a prison here,<sup>4</sup> for his hundred of Mitford, and return of writs.

On Tuesday after Palm-Sunday, here was a gaol delivery before Thomas Derham, John Manning, and William Yelcerton: this gaol was near the market-house in the reign of Henry VI. Some part of the wall is now standing, and is a part of a house near the assembly room.

In the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, Edmund Pierpoint, the Bishop's receiver, accounted for 52*l.* 14*s.* 9½*d.* profits of this manor for one year.

In the first of Elizabeth this manor, &c. &c. were by act of parliament granted to the Crown; and in that year the rent of assise was 23*l.* 19*s.* 0*d.*; to customary villains, 14*l.* 5*s.* 0*d.*; rent called Hedermuth, 0*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.*; moveable rent 1*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.*; rent of the demesns 13*l.* 13*s.* 2*d.*; herbage, 0*l.* 5*s.* 8*d.*; a mill 6*l.* 0*s.* 0*d.*; market and stalls 3*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.*; one acre's rent 0*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*; profit of the fair 0*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.*; the whole amounting to 62*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*

In the 18th of James I. Charles Prince of Wales, &c. &c. held his first court here.

In the 20th of James I. Miles Hobart and Richard Grimes, Esq. had a grant of the stewardship of this manor, from Charles Prince of Wales, during pleasure, and 54*s.* annual fee.

In the following year, Richard Ashcroft, Esq. receiver to the said Prince, accounted for 59*l.* 9*s.* 5*d.* ¼. in rents, and for 27*l.* 19*s.* 5*d.* perquisites of the court, and fines of land only.

In the 26 of James I. Robert Phipps, citizen and grocer of London, had a lease, of all those buildings called the Stalls and Standings, and the profits arising from the stallage of 35*s.* per ann. from the Prince for 20*l.*

In the 14th of Charles I. Henrietta Maria, Queen of England, held the manor,

In the 15th of Charles II. Philip Harbord farmed the manor under the Queen.

In the 54th of Charles II. Charles Whitgrave of Carlton, in Bedfordshire, held it by lease.

In the 4th of James II. Catherine, Queen Dowager, had the manor, and Sir Charles Harbord, surveyor general, farmed it of her, and bought the reversion for his two sons, Philip Harbord, Esq. and Colonel John Harbord.

It belonged afterwards to ——— Shaw, Esq. and came from him to the Byron family by marriage. The present lord is Gould, Esq. a colonel in the army.

The Bishop had a park belonging to this manor, which was granted to ——— Crompton, ——— Wright, and ——— Meyrick and their heirs, by patent, dated in the 24th of Elizabeth. John Duke, M. D. of Colchester, was seized of a moiety of it, (which he purchased of Mr. Fountain,) and by his will, gave it to Anne his wife, who settled it in 1636, on Robert Paynell of Norwich, Gent. and Judith his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of the said John, and Anne Duke, the said Paynell paying 800*l.* to Thomas Cook and Elizabeth his wife.

Dr. Fountain, dean of York, now owns one part of it; and ——— Evans, Esq. grandson of Thomas Evans, Esq. late recorder of Bury, owns the other.

In 1600, Leonard Mapes of Norwich, Gent. was lord.—1614, Leonard Mapes, Esq. his son. 1625, Thomas Asty, Gent. and Margery his wife.

In 1703, Asty George, of East Dereham, Gent. was lord. 1724, Thomas George of East Dereham, Gent. was lord. 1764, Asty George of Norwich, son of Thomas George, Gent. was lord.

COLBOWRN'S OR MOWLE'S MANOR.

John Baynard, Esq. died possessed of this manor, as by his will, dated March 26, in the 14th of Edw. IV. he devised it to be sold.<sup>5</sup> In the 15 of Henry VIII. Henry Parker of Moughton was lord of it. In the 31 of Elizabeth, there was a preceipe to William Stanhawe, Gent. Robert Palmer, &c. to render to Thomas Heryng, Gent. the manor of Colbowrn's, Mowle's, or Massingham's, lying in East Dereham, Hoe, North Tudenham, and Yaxham.

The lands belonging to this manor are said to be most of them manumised.—The present lord is Mr. Asty George of Norwich.

This at the survey was probably a part of Ralph de Beaufoe's lordship, called

CREKE'S OR OLDHALL'S MANOR.

Ralph de Beaufoe had a lordship here which Harold held, as a lay fee, of Stigand, Archbishop of Canterbury. In King Edward the Confessor's reign it was granted to Ralph at the conquest, under whom

Odar held it: in the Confessor's time it consisted of 2 carucates of land; there were then four villains, 15 borderers, 2 servi, 6 acres of meadow, and 2 in demean, now only one, and another might be restored; there were 2 carucates among the tenants, pannage for 30 swine, one mill and 5 socmen, 43 acres of land, and 2 acres of meadow, then and before, one carucate, now half an one, and the whole might be restored; then there were one beast of burden, 4 young cattle, 7 socmen, now 2, then 7 goats, now 8; it was then valued at 20s. now at the conquest at 40s.

The whole was one leuca and 5 furlongs long, half a leuca and 3 furlongs broad, and paid 10*d.* gelt.<sup>6</sup>

The whole soc was in the King's manor of Mileham.

This lordship stands accounted for under the hundred of Launditch, as belonging to Mileham manor, and lying in the parish of Dereham; it also extended into Scarning, and was called Drayton Hall, in Scarning, from its ancient lords, the Draytons.

In the 14th of Henry III. Agnes, one of the daughters and coheirs of William de Drayton, who married William Lenwÿse, had it assigned her on a division of his inheritance.

After this, William de Bellomonte was lord of it in the 5th of Edward I.

In the 11th of Edward III. Nicholas Oldhall seems to have possessed it, when an agreement was made between him and the Bishop of Ely, for the service of certain land held of the Bishop. From this Nicholas descended Sir Edmund Oldhall, Knt. who by Alice his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of Jeffrey de Fransham, lord of Fransham Magna, had Sir William Oldhall, who on the 20th of July, in the 10th of Henry VI. had the King's protection, being then abroad in France, in the retinue of Thomas Duke of Exeter.

He was afterwards Speaker of the House of Commons, and attainted of treason, for being concerned in Jack Cade's rebellion in Kent, and a writ of outlawry was confirmed against him by parliament, about the 33 of Henry VI.

By his daughter and heir Mary, his manors came to Walter Gorges, Esq. who was found to die seized of the manor of Oldhall and Creke's in the 6 of Edward IV.

From this family it came Sir William Capel, who died lord in the 7th of Henry VIII. and his descendant, the Earl of Essex, is the present lord.

Here is another small manor, called the

RECTORY MANOR.

Of this the rector is lord.

This church is a large pile built in the form of a cathedral or collegiate church; it has a nave, north and south isles; two transepts or cross isles, and a chancel all leaved; there is a tower between the body of the church and the chancel, which is of antique building, as in many cathedrals; in the transepts were formerly the chapels of the Holy Cross, St. Mary, St. Withburga, &c. the south or Holy Cross chapel, was repaired by the family of the Botons, who lived in Henry the Seventh's time: the treasury or ammunition chamber, was over this chapel, for the keeping of which a salary was annually paid till Henry the Eighth's reign.

The south porch was built by Roger and Margaret Boton, whose names are now to be seen in the stone work.

The font is very handsome; it is of stone, the form octangular, there are the representation of our Saviour's crucifixion, and the seven sacraments of the Romish church carved upon it, below which are eight of the Apostles at full length, and at the eight corners beneath them are the Four Evangelists and the symbol of each, namely, an angel, lion, bull, and eagle.

The ascent up to it is by a double octagon; the upper octagon is curiously worked in the Gothic taste; it was erected in 1468.

The following extract from an old church account of the expense of erecting it is very curious.

Of this money fifty shillings and two-pence was raised by a voluntary subscription of the inhabitants; the rent of the church lands, (at that time very small,) the Sunday gatherings, and the legacies or questword of the deceased, supplied the rest, and were the funds from which the church was repaired and ornamented.

To this stone font, in the year 1678, was added a Gothic top, ornamented in the taste of the time, and supported by four fluted pillars.

Before the font, facing the middle isle, stands a fine large brass eagle, on a pedestal of the same, supported by three small lions; it is gilt, and was formerly used as a Litany desk.

In the middle isle hangs a brass branch, consisting of a double circle of candle-sticks, twelve in each circle, it was purchased in 1738, and cost 25*l.*

The church is very regularly and handsomely seated, the fronts of the seats towards the middle isle are of pannelled wainscot; there is an exceedingly good vestry, with proper cases for town writings, &c.

In the beginning of the sixteenth century (1501) and in the latter part of Henry the Seventh's reign, the tower in the middle of the church was thought not strong enough for the bells; part of that and the bells were then taken away, and the large tower (then called the new clocker) in the churchyard, on the south side, and about 20 yards from the chancel, was begun; it was several years in building, and benefactions towards carrying it on were given from 1508, to 1516; in it are now a clock and eight bells; it was never completed, but the present flat roof was put up and leaded in Henry the Eighth's reign.

In 1458, in this church were the guilds of St. Mary, St. Withburga, St. Mary Magdalen, Corpus Christi, Holy Cross, St. Peter, Holy Trinity, St. George, St. Thomas, St. Margaret, St. Catharine, St. James, St. Michael, and that of Jesu, erected in 1457.

Thomas Spyrk, by his will dated in 1474, desires to be buried by the chancel door; he gives legacies to St. Mary's light, to the light and guild of St. Nicholas, to the lights found by the guilds before the image of the Trinity, to those of St. James, St. Thomas of Canterbury, St. Michael, St. Catharine, St. Margaret, St. Mary Magdalen, St. Anne, the rood, and St. Withburga: also to the keeping of the light in Church-row and that of Sand-pit-row; he mentions Sir John Aylward his confessor, and one of the three chaplains serving in the church.

Heymer's manor in Hoe was to find an 100 masses to be said for his soul, with "Placebo et Dirige."

There are monuments, marble stones, and other memorials to the memory of the following persons interred in the church and chancel.

There was formerly round the rim of an old stone, still remaining, a brass with this inscription,

Orate pro animâ Walteri quondam vicarij hujas ecclesie, qui obiit 1349.

This was in memory of Walter de Stutelee.

The following brasses still remain,

Orate pro animâ Magistris Kelyng, quondam vicarij isitus ecclesie, qui obiit xxv die mensis Septembris, Anno Domini 1479, cujus anime propicietur Deus.—Orate pro a'iu Etheldrede Castell, que ob. 1486.

Qui manet precibus justorum gaudia lucis,
Hic rexit ternis viginti da ----- annis,
Luce sepultus ea fuerat dran ----- te Maria,

Under it on a shield a chevron, and in base an eagle with a label inscribed,

*Benedictus Deus in donis ejus,
Orate p. aiâ Joh'nis Paynter qui ob. 1526.*

In the church formerly,

*Here dead in part whose best part never dyeth,
A benefactor William Cutting lyeth,
Not dead, if good deeds could keep men alive,
Nor all dead, since good deeds do men survive.
Gonvile and Kaies may his good deeds record,
And will no doubt him praise therefore afford,
Saint Katrin's nere Loudon, can it tell
Goldsmiths and Merchant Taylors know it well;
Two county towns his civil bounty blest,
East Derham, and Norton Fitz-Warren West,*

*More did he than this table can unfold,
The world his fame, this earth his earth doth hold.*

He deceased the 4th day of March 1599, ætatis suæ 50,

This was done at the charge of Willin Berlok, goldsmith, one of his executors,

There are many other old stones, but as the brasses are gone, nothing can be said of them.

A neat Gothic monument for Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Rash, Esq. who died 1768, aged 40.

From the parish register it appears that in the year 1547, here died during the months of March, April and May, 106 persons.

At the west end of the churchyard are the ruins of a very ancient baptistery, over which was formerly a small chapel, dedicated to St. Withburga.

At the east end of the baptistery there is now remaining a curious old Gothic arch, from which runs a spring of clear water, formerly said to have had many medicinal and healing qualities.<sup>8</sup>

The fabulous account is, that this spring took its rise in the churchyard from the place where St. Withburga was first buried.

In the year 1752 it was arched over, and converted into a cold bath.

In the 11th of Henry IV. the Bishop of Norwich granted a license for a chaplain to perform divine service in this chapel, which appears to have been taken down in the 7th of Elizabeth, from the following entry in the church accounts:

“Payd to Wylham Crosse for taking downe the chappell ruffe and caryen it into the church viij.”

This entry relating either to this chapel or to one which formerly wood at the east end of the north isle, and into which you went through the present north door of the chancel.

In 650,<sup>9</sup> a nunnery of Benedictines was founded here by Anna, King of the East-Angles, for Withburga, his youngest daughter, whom he made prioress.<sup>4</sup> This house is reported to have been so poor at its institution, that by the prayers of their prioress, the nuns are said to have been miraculously supported by two does, which came constantly to be milked at a certain time and place; this resource was but of short continuance, for the bailiff of the town envying them this supply, most maliciously hunted them away with his hounds, and as a just judgment upon him soon after broke his neck as he was pursuing his favourite diversion of hunting.

Withburga died, and was buried in the churchyard, after which the pagan Danes coming into England, the nunnery was destroyed, and the church made parochial; this happened about 55 years after her decease.

About the year 798, her body being found uncorrupted, was taken up, and translated into the church, where it remained near 200 years, when, to complete her story, we are told that Brithnod, abbot of Ely, and his monks, concerted a scheme for conveying her body from thence to Ely, which they effected by having men and carriages stationed upon the road, ready to receive it from those appointed to steal it away.

Their scheme succeeded, and they brought the body to Brandon ferry, where it was put on board a vessel, from thence conveyed to Ely, and there enshrined, before the men from Derham could take any step to recover it.

That is, a sanctified sacrilege,—a pious fraud,—a soul-saving robbery; it was indeed a robbing of Peter to pay Paul.

Her obit was kept on the 17th of March.

Here was a famous guild or society of this Withburga, which had a t rong brick-house called the Guildhall, where their feasts were kept, and other ceremonies performed.

This was dissolved by Henry VIII. and in the 2d of Edward VI. was granted to Thomas Wodehouse of Waxham, Esq. and his heirs, for ever; he the next year, granted it to William Skarlett and William Atle, both of East-Derham, who the same year granted it to John Cane, clerk, of the same place, with all the appurtenances which it had before the Dissolution, consisting of 5 tenements, 20 acres of land, and a rent-charge of 2s. 2d. out of lands called the Headborough lands, all which were for the maintenance of the fraternity belonging to the guild, and originall given to pray for the souls of certain persons deceased, and for the souls of the faithful in general.

This house now belongs to James Smyth, Esq.

In 1615 is an entry in the town accounts of a payment of 50s. to Mr. Halman, for charges in confirming the assurance of the old shire-house to the town.

Over the eastern entrance of the churchyard, was formerly a school-house belonging to the parish, which was taken down in 1662.

The rectory house is dilapidated. There are a large barn, a granary, one close of meadow, of about 6 acres, and another small piece of meadow, at the west end of the churchyard, of about half an acre, belonging to the rector.

The vicar has a very good house, gardens, &c. and about fifty acres of glebe lands.

There are upwards of 53 acres of meadow and arable land belonging to the church, which most of them lie in the parish; the rents amounting to 50*l.* per ann. and upwards, are appropriated to the repairing and ornamenting the church.

The following are Benefactors to the poor of this Parish.

Mrs. Christian Gooch, by deed, dated 8 September, 1634, gave an estate in North Elmham.

N.B. Out of this charity 20*s.* is paid for a sermon, and 3*l.* 10*s.* are paid to other parishes.

Henry Smyth, Esq. in 1626, gave a rent charge of 3*l.* 4*s.* issuing out of an estate at Stoughton in Leicestershire.

Mr. Thomas Moor, physician of this parish, gave lands in this parish, and other lands in the parish of Hoe.

Mr. William Jeg gave a small piece of land in this parish.

Mr. William Potter of Scarning, in 1697, gave a rent charge of 12*s.* now paid by the overseers.

Mr. William Mountain in 1697, gave a rent charge of 4*l.* 18*s.* issuing out of an estate in this parish.

Mr. William Barker, in 1720, gave money, with which a piece of land in Yaxham was purchased.

Mr. Edmund Williamson, in 1721, gave a piece of land in Shipdam.

These benefactions amounting to between 40 and 50*l.* a year, are distributed in money and wearing apparel to the poor inhabitants, (who do not take collection) every Christmas.

There are likewise upwards of 20 acres of land called Headborough-land, lying chiefly in this parish, the rent of which is to keep the streets, bridges, &c. &c. in proper condition.

Mr. Aaron Williamson, in 1710, gave a dwelling-house and a small piece of land, called Roomes, the rent of which is to be applied in putting out poor orphans apprentices to trades.

G A R V E S T O N.

IN Domesday book occurs by the name of Gerolfestuna, and part of it was a beruite to the manor of Whinburgh, held by Hermerus de Ferrarijs, of which Turchetel, a freeman, lord in King Edward's reign, had been deprived: this part contained one carucate of land, held by one villain, and one borderer, with one carucate and 4 acres of meadow, one runcus, 3 cows, and 44 sheep, (which was valued together with Whinburgh, and measured with it) and a church endowed with 7 acres.

Another part of this town was also held by Hermerus, of which 19 freemen had also been deprived: this contained an 100 acres of land, 4 carucates and 9 acres of meadow, valued in King Edward's time at 20s. at the survey at 55s. and 4d. of these Bordin held 24 acres, valued at 4s. and accounted for in the aforesaid value. The hundred testifies that Hermerus's predecessor had no customary dues from these freemen, but only their protection; on this there was a challenge to try it by combat, which one of the men or tenants of Hermerus accepts of it, to prove that the predecessor of Hermerus had all customary dues in the reign of King Edward, except the soc that belonged to St. Adeldreda, (that his the church of Ely,) who had the hundred court, &c. and that the predecessor of Hermerus had power to sell the land; and to prove this, pledges were given that it might be tried by combat. This part of Garveston was 5 furlongs long, and 4 broad, and paid 13d. gelt.<sup>2</sup>

The town takes its name from the river Gar, which arises here. Gar or Yare, is a British name, and frequently met with: thus Gerboldesham, and Gerboisthorp in Norfolk; Garford and Garston in Bedfordshire, Garforth in Yorkshire, &c. and also this river gives name to Yarmouth or Gernemutha, where it empties itself into the German ocean.

Hermerus's descendant assumed the name of De Wermegay, and by the heiress of De Wermegay it came to Reginald de Warren, 2d son of William Earl Warren, and from that family to the Bardolfs, barons, of whom see at large in Wirmegey.

Robert de Gerneston held it of the Lord Bardolf, in the 35th of Henry III. when John, son of William de Thurston, conveyed by fine to the said Robert, several customs and services demanded by Robert

In the 38th of that King, William Lord Bardolf had a charter of free warren, and a fair, being lord and patron in the 41st.

Henry, son of Robert de Gerveston, conveyed to Robert, son of John de Gerveston, messuages, and lands in the 16th of Edward I. and Thomas Lord Bardolf, and Richard de Thurston, were returned to be lords in the 9th of Edward II.

This lordship on the attainder of Thomas Lord Bardolf was granted to Sir Thomas Beaufort, Knt. afterwards Duke of Exeter, the King's brother, in the 9th of Henry IV. with the honour of Wirmegay. On his death, s. p. Sir William Phelips, in right of his lady, had a grant of it, and came from him to John Viscount Beaumont, and on the death of William Lord Beaumont, to the Crown; and in 1537, Richard Southwell, Esq. presented to the church as lord and patron.

After this, it was in the Cranes of Wood-Rysing, then in Sir Robert Clayton, and Sir William Cleyton; and William Cleyton, Esq. member of parliament for Bletchingley in Surry, is the present lord.

The chancel was out of repair and unused for many years, till Mrs. Barbara Lock, who kept a little alehouse near the church, gave 200*l.* to the repair of the church and chancel, and 100*l.* to the poor of the parish, about 1695. The font is ancient, adorned with carving, and the church is neat, in good repair, and covered with lead.

HARDINGHAM AND FLOCKTHORP.

THE town of Hardingham is not mentioned in the book of Domesday, and was then, no doubt, an hamlet or little village included in the township of Flockthorp, whereas that has been depopulated for many centuries, and is now included in Hardingham.

The Conqueror had in Flokethorp a considerable lordship, which Godric farmed or took care of for him, of which Hacon, son of Swain, the eldest son of Godwin, Earl of Kent, and nephew to King Harold, was deprived, who was lord of it in King Edward's reign, containing 2 carucates of land, held by 12 villains; with 6 servi, and 12 borderers, and paunage for 60 swine, 10 acres of meadow, a mill 3 carucates in demean, 4 among the tenants or men, &c. and 26 sheep, with 80 goats; and a beruite belonged to it called Mantateston, with one carucate, and 30 acres of land, and another bernite with 30 acres and a carucate of land, and 22 socmen held a carucate of land and 6 acres of meadow; and then there were also 5 carucates.

The whole was valued then at 5*l.* at the survey at 10*l.* and was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 28*s.* gelt.<sup>4</sup>

And in Cranworth, and in Shipdam, one socman of Stow held 30 acres of land, and 8 of meadow, &c. valued at 2*s.* Robert Blund had these socmen, but Godric never had.

Besides this lordship, the Conqueror had in his own hands here, 40 acres, held by 3 borderers, and one acre of meadow, valued under Hingham; also one freeman, who had 30 acres of land, an acre and half of meadow, with half a carucate, held by 2 borderers.<sup>5</sup>

He was expelled at the conquest, and his land was at the survey in the King.

CAMOIS MANOR.

Out of these tenures arose 2 lordships; one was in the family of De Camois, who were soon after the conquest enfeoffed of it. Andrew de Camois was a baron of the realm in the reign of Henry II.

In the 10th of Edward I. David Earl of Huntingdon, in England, and of Carrick in Scotland, a younger son of David King of Scotland, had the custody of Stephen de Camois,<sup>6</sup> a minor, and his lands, and owed the King 200 marks for the same.

Ralph de Camois held in Flokesthorp one fee, and a fourth part of one in Hardingham, of the King in capite, in the 12th of King John; and in the 3d of Henry III. the jury find that Ralph de Camois, senior, held at his death in this town, 250 acres of land in demean, 34 of meadow, and Ralph was his son and heir, aged 40.

This Ralph was sheriff of Sussex and Surrey, in the 27th of that King, &c. and died in the 43d, and Ralph was his son and heir; and in the 5th of Edward I. he died seized of a messuage, 280 acres of arable land, 24 of meadow, 24 of alder, and 50 of wood, held by half a fee, and of the manors of Hengeston, Orwell, Wode-Ditton, and Burwell in Cambridgeshire.

In the said year, John de Camois was summoned to attend the King into Wales, in his expedition against Llewellyn, Prince of Wales; he paid 100*l.* relief for his lands; in the 15th of that King he claimed free warren here, &c.

This was that John who married Margaret, daughter and heir of

John de Gatesden; in the 26th of that King, she came before the barons of the Exchequer, and is styled late wife of Sir John de Camois, and took an oath not to marry without the King's license, holding lands in capite.

Dugdale says Sir John de Camois, by deed, &c. granted her over to her gallant Sir William Paynel, whom she afterwards married; and sued Eve, relict of Robert de Tybetot, for her dower, in the 3d part of the manor of Burwell in Cambridgeshire, and recovered it; but by the judgment of parliament, in the 30th of Edward I. was deprived of her dower.<sup>7</sup>

Ralph de Camois was his son and heir; he gave to Margaret, (daughter of Mary, wife of William de Brews, for life) this manor: she was probably his wife, for it appears on his death, in the 33d of Edward I. that he and Margaret his wife were seized of it, and of Moulton in Norfolk.

Ralph de Camois was his successour, and performed his homage for it in the said year; in the first of Edward II. he and his wife were summoned by writ to attend on the coronation of that King, and was lord in the 9th and 13th of that King, and presented then to this church; and Thomas his son in 1329.

He, with Margaret his wife, conveyed it by fine, with the King's license, to John de Holveston, who presented in 1342, and 1349, and died lord of this manor and that of Bilncy, in Heveringland, in 1354, this being then valued at 20*l. per ann.* and Thomas was his son and heir, as may be there seen.

Sir Thomas de Holveston died about the 38th of the said King, and William was his son and heir, who was seized of it in the 45th of that reign.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Sir Thomas Barre was lord, and before this, in 1392, presented as lord in right of his wife Elizabeth, who both presented in 1417, and about this time there was a contest for the right of advowson between the said Sir Thomas and Robert Hill, of Marsham in Norfolk, and John Crane.

Elizabeth, wife of Sir Thomas, died in the 9th of Henry V. seized of this lordship and advowson; and Sir Thomas her husband, dying also in the same year lord of Knebworth, in Hertfordshire, left John their son and heir, aged 10 years, afterwards a knight, lord of Clehangre and other manors in Herfordshire, Bolinghope, &c. in Worcestershire.

The aforesaid Elizabeth was before her marriage, with Sir Thomas, relict of Sir Edward Kendal, of Wrestlingworth, in Bedfordshire; and in the 24th of Edward III. Sir Edward and the said Elizabeth his wife, had the King's license to travel to Rome, with 4 persons and 4 horses.

Sir Thomas Camois is said to have granted it to Sir John Arundel, afterwards Earl of Arundel, who granted it to Sir Maurice Berkley, who presented to the church in 1444, and in 1445, William Earl of Arundel.

Thomas Earl of Arundel, was lord and patron in 1504, as was Henry Earl of Arundel, in the 38th of Henry VIII.

This Henry sold this lordship about the first of Elizabeth, to Thomas Gresham, Esq. of London; and in 1580 it was sold by the Lady

Gresham, with 10 messuages, and a foldcourse for 1000 sheep, for 1500*l.* valued at 66*l.* 19*s.* 4*d.* per ann. to Anthony Thwayts, Esq. together with the advowson.

Anthony Thwayts, Esq. presented in 1541, but not in his own right, but by some grant of the Earl of Arundel.

In 1584, Anthony Thwayts presented as lord and patron; and in the 4th of James I. the said Anthony, with Jerome his brother, Sir Arthur Heveningham, Daniel Reeves, S.T.B. convey it to Sir George Coppin, with all its appertences, situate, lying and being on the north side of the King's high way, called Olley Way, leading from Hardingham church towards Kimberley, but excepting the right of advowson.

The said Sir John Coppin of Kensington, and Anne his wife, sold it December 1, in the 6th of that King, to Thomas Bateman, Esq. and his heirs; and Anthony Bateman, Esq. of Hardingham-hall, and Constance his wife, held it in the 21st year of the aforesaid King.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich castle, January 14, in the 22d of James I. the aforesaid Anthony, son of Anne Bateman, was found to die on November last past, seized of the manor of Flockthorpe, and to leave by Constance, a daughter and coheir, Philadelphina, married to William Rochester, Esq. of the Middle Temple.

After this, ——— Tayler, Esq. a justice of the peace, was lord, and lived at Hardingham-Hall, and left a daughter and heir, Constance, married to Robert Rugg, Gent. by whom he had 3 daughters and a son, Thomas Rugg, Gent. who was lord in 1660, he dying without issue, by Elizabeth his wife, the estate was divided among his three sisters and coheirs, and their children.

Justice Tayler had, by will, devised 1000 marks payable out of this lordship, as a portion to the 3 daughters aforesaid, (his grand daughters,) and Constance, widow of Robert Rugg, their mother, had remarried, first, to John Coxper, of Reymerston, and after to Thomas le Hunt and by her had George Hunt. Elizabeth, the widow also of Thomas Rugg, was living in 1680, and in the 6th of William and Mary, and then the wife of Henry Beecher, Esq. of the Inner-Temple, and had an interest therein. About the same time it appears that John Pgrave, Esq. John Meres of London, Gent. and Richard Parker, had a right also. About the year 1713, Ambrose Meers of Easton by Norwich is said to have 3 parts of the said lordship, and George le Hunt of New Bukenham, a 4th part.

GURNEY'S AND SWATHING'S MANOR.

The Gurneys were early enfeoffed of a moiety of this town. Matthew de Gurnay demanded in the 8th of King John, of Gilbert de Runhale, a carucate of land in this town, Swathing, and Runhale, which William his father held in the reign of Henry II.

Hugh de Gorney granted by deed sans date to Robert, the Burgundian, the manor of Swathing in Hardingham, with the church and appertences in fee for 20*s.* sterling per ann, and for the gift of one horse, at the time of making this grant; witnesses, Gerard Calebut, William de Cheyney; it was granted at Ferretre, before the men or tenants of the said Hugh, a town probably in Normandy, the Gourneys being lords of Gourney, a town in Normandy, from which they took their name, and came into England on the Norman invasion, and this Hugh gave to the chapter of the church of St. Ildebert of Gorney in Normandy, the said church.

Hugh, son of Hugh Gornay, confirmed to Hugh of Burgundy, son of Robert, the aforesaid grant, as his father held it, sans date; witnesses, Andrew de St. Martin, Lewis de Gorney, &c.; and King Henry III. confirmed, at the petition of Robert, the father, this grant of the land of Swathing to Hugh his son.

In the 41st of Henry III. Rolph Redker and Isabel his wife, conveyed lands to William, son of Roger de Swathing, and in the 52d of that King, William de Swathyng held of John de Gurney, a messuage, 54 acres of land, and 3 of wood, in this town and Reymerston, with free grinding, without toll, at John's mill, called Ravensholm, as he and his ancestors before had at Little mill, whilst Little mill was repaired, and if they should be both out of repair, that they could grind at neither, then John to pay 6s. 5d. per ann. till they could grind.

John likewise granted to William and his heirs a free bull, and a free ram, with a free fold course, and common of pasture, over all his lands, for all his cattle (tempore aperto) in time of shack, as his ancestors had; William releasing to John, 2 acres of land, called Shymere.

William de Gurnay claimed free-warren in the 15th of Edward I. and John Gurney was lord in the 9th of Edward II.

In the 20th of Edward III. Sir John de Mereworth held of fee of the Lord Bardolf, and he of the King, late John Gurneys; and in the 43d of Edward III. it was granted to Sir Hamon Felton, Knt. for life,<sup>8</sup> remainder to Edmund Gurney, and Catherine his wife, and John their son, in tail.

Edmund Swathing and Catherine his wife, in the 17th of Richard II. conveyed by fine the manor of Swathing, to Ralph Bateman, except 2 messuages, 24 acres of land, 12 of meadow, 16 of wood, and 20s. rent per ann.

William Gourney, Esq. son of Thomas, and his wife, daughter of Sir William Calthorp held the manor of Swathing and Hardingham in the 2d of Richard II.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Gurney was lord, and in 1469, Thomas Gournay of West Barsham, sen. Esq. by his will, bequeaths all his rents and services, called Swathing, which he had bought of Catherine Sturmer, to be sold.<sup>9</sup>

Anthony Gurncy, Esq. was lord in the 26th of Henry III. and soon after it was in the family of Thwayts.

Anthony Thwygates, Esq. grants in 1589, to Thomas Thwyats of Hardingham, Esq. his father, and to Richard, Thomas, and Francis his brothers, all his right in the manor of Swathing.

This family descends from John Thwails, Esq. who had possessions in this town in the reign of Henry VII. who by his will dated January 29, in the 19th of Henry VII. and on his death in the 22d of that King, was found to die seised of the manors of Thwails, Denton and Ackworth in the county of York; he was son of Thomas Thwayts by Alice, daughter and heir of Thomas de Hay, son of John Thwayts of Thwayts, in Yorkshire, by Joan, daughter and sole heir of Robert Thornton; which Robert married Alice, daughter and sole heir of Ralph Leke, by Margaret his wife, eldest daughter of Philip Lardiner, immediate descendant of David, called Lardinarius to the Conqueror, and lord of Davy Hall at York.

John abovementioned, by his will, desires to be buried in the chapel of our Lady, in the church of Hardingham, and gives 13s. 4d. to the high altar of the said church, and by Anne his wife, daughter of Sir William Knevet, he had Thomas, his son and heir, Edward, Anthony, and Christopher. Thomas left a son John, who died a minor in the 3d of Henry VIII. Anthony, his uncle, succeeded in the inheritance, and by Margaret, his wife, daughter of Thomas Singleton of Michelfield in Suffolk; had Thomas, his son and heir, who married Bridget, daughter of Robert Spring of Lanham in Suffolk, Esq. by whom he had Anthony Thwayts, Esq. his eldest son, lord of Quidenham in Norfolk, by the marriage of Frances, daughter and heir of Humphrey Bedingfield, Esq. and also lord of this manor, and leaving a daughter and sole heiress Elizabeth, married to Jeff. Cobb, Esq. of Saundringham. Anthony (as I have above observed) gave it in 1589, to Thomas Thwayts, Esq. his father, and to his brothers: Thomas died in the 31st of Elizabeth, and by his will was buried in the chapel of St. Mary in this church.

In 1632, Francis Thwayts, Gent. was lord, and presented to this church, and about 1695, Richard Thwayts is said to be lord, and soon after it was possessed by Francis Long, Esq. of Spirworth, lord in 1718.

The tenths were 5*l.* 6*s.*—Deduct 12*s.*

The CHURCH was dedicated to St. George; in the reign of Ed. I. it was valued at 35 marks and the rector had a manse with 60 acres; Sir John de Camois was patron, and the Peter-pence were 3*s.* 4*d.*

The present valor is 15*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* and pays first fruits and tenths.

H O K E R I N G.

CALLED in Domesday Book, Hokelinka, as lying on a hill, by the water, was the lordship of Ralph de Bellofago or Beafo, of which Sigar, a freeman in King Edward's reign, was deprived.

It contained then 4 carucates of land, held by 3 villains, and 23 borderers, with 4 servi, 4 carucates in demean, and 7 among the tenants, paunage for 200 swine, and 15 acres of meadow, one mill and the moiety of another, 9 cows, &c. 80 sheep, and 3 socmen held 60 acres of land, valued at 4*l.* at the survey at 5*l.* 10 freemen also belonged to it, and the moiety of another, with 2 carucates of land.<sup>3</sup> It is measured in North Tudenham.

This Ralph de Beafoe was a near relation to William de Beafoe Bishop of Thetford, the Conqueror's chancellor. Ralph left an only daughter and heiress, Agnes, who married Hubert de Rie, castellan of Norwich castle, second son of Hubert de Rie, a trusty servant to the Conqueror, when Duke of Normandy.

His descendant, and probably grandson, was Hubert de Rie, who in the 12th of Henry II. certified that he held 35 knights fees, for which he paid 35 marks to the King, and dying in the 18th of that King without issue male, his two daughters and coheirs were Aliva, who married John Marshall, (nephew of William Marshall Earl of Pembroke,) made Marshal of Ireland by King John, in his 9th year, and Isabel, the wife of Roger de Cressi.

In the 13th of King John, John Mareschall, answered for 17 fees and an half, as a moiety of the barony of Rye, and was lord of this town; Aliva or Avelina le Mareschall was living in the 34th of Henry III. when a fine was levied between Maud de Belhous, and Aliva of the fishery of Whytford, and the moiety of the fishery of Kerwen in Tudenham Faldgate, (that is North Tudenham,) which Aliva granted to belong to Maud, so that neither she nor her heirs should take any reeds therein, or have any right of common in Kerwen; and also she released all right to a suit of court to her manor of Hokering, which she demanded of Maud, for a tenement in Tudenham, but it was agreed, that Aliva and her men of Hokering, Tudenham-Faldgate, and Mateshale, might take reed, &c. in Whytford, within the old bounds, and the same argeement to be kept about swans, as in a fine of the 24th of that King.

John le Mareschal, in the 6th of Edward I. held this lordship and advowson, as the capital manor of the barony of Rye, which those of Matsale, Burgh Parva, North Tudenham, Folsam, Swanton, Worthing, Banham, Hingham, Byntre; the hundreds of Eynford and Fourhow, with the manors of Alby, Tharlton, Reydon, Morley, Wicklewood,

William Rosceline was found to hold Alibby manor by one fee.—Jeff. Eschalers, Thelton, by one fee.—Robert de Morley, Reydon Wicklewood, Morley, Bereford, Cringelthorp, by three fees.—Gerard de Wachesham, held in Worham in Suffolk, Ellingham, Cringelthorp, Deepham and Morley four fee, and a half in Suffolk, &c.

Roger Bygod Earl of Norfolk, held in Chedertune, Eston, and Gissingham, 3 fees and an half.

Jeff. Eschalers, one fee in Thelton of the Bishop of Ely, but now belonging to Sir John Marshall, who held also 3 fees of the Bishop of Ely, belonging to his manor of East Derham, by knights service, and is said to pay to Norwich castle l. 15s. 6d. ob. q. per ann. and 15s. Waytfee, and was called Baron of Rheye. See in Swanton Morley.

On the death of John le Marshall, in the 10th of Edward II. it was found that there was a capital messuage and a park here, a wood called Swynehagh, with a little wood, a watermill, and windmill, &c. valued at 50l. per ann.; that Dionysia and Hawysia were his sisters, and coheirs; that Dionysia lately dying, Hawysia was now his sole heir, married to Sir Robert de Morley.

Sir Robert de Morley, and the lady Hawise his wife, paid their relief for all this barony 100 marks, in 1323: in this noble family it remained till the death of Robert Lord Morley, in 1442, who leaving an only daughter and heir, Alianore, was after married to William a younger son of William Lovell, lord of Tichmersh, who died seized of it in 1475.

Henry Lovell Lord Morley, his son and heir, inherited it, and being slain at Dixmue in Flanders, in 1489, having no issue, Alice his only sister, married to Sir William Parker of London, inherited it, and had livery of it in the 5th of Henry VII.

Henry Parker, his son and heir, was summoned to parliament in the 21st of Henry VIII. by the title of Lord Morley, Baron of Rhie.

Sir Henry Paker, Knt. was Lord Morley, baron of Rheye in 1561: his son Edward sold great part of his estate to Sir Thomas Lovell of East Herling, in Norfolk, and Sir Francis his son inherited it, and died about 1625, and then it came to his brother, Sir Charles Lovell, who was lord in the reign of Charles I.

Thomas Berney, Esq. of Swerdeston, lord in 1658; John Berney, Esq. in 1676; Thomas Berney, Esq. in 1720; and in 1740, Ash Windham, Esq.

It is probable that here was anciently a castle, as it was the capital manor of the barony of Rye.

The rent of assise of free and customary tenants of this manor in the 36th of Henry VIII. was 28l. 4d.

The tenths were l. 14s. Deducted 6s.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Michael, and is a rectory, valued formerly at 15 marks, and paid Peter-pence, 8*d.* The canons of St. Mary of Southwerk, had a portion of tithe valued at 40*s.* per ann. and the prior of Norwich one of 4 marks per ann. The present valor is 7*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*

It is a single pile, with a chancel, and a round tower with one bell.

In the chancel, on a gravestone,

Hic jacet Tho. Houghton, clericus, qui obt. 13 Martij 1677, et Maria uxor ejus quæ obt. 22 Octob. 1635.

On one with a brass plate,

Also this shield, quarterly, in the first sable, a chevron engrailed, between three cinquefoils, argent, Smalpiece: in the 2*d.*, a maunch, as it seems, in the 3*d.*, a chevron, between three birds, 4*th* as first.

This family of Smalpiece had a very considerable estate in this town.

L E T T O N.

WILLIAM EARL WARREN had the lordship of this town at the survey, of which 9 freeman had been deprived; half a carneate belonged to it, 2 borderers, and 8 acres of meadow, and three earneates, valued in King Edward's time at 10*s.* but now at 20*s.* and there was a church endowed with 12 acres; and it was 6 furlongs long, 5 broad, and paid 15*d.*<sup>5</sup>

In 1161, Gilbert de Rysing was lord, and a great benefactor to the priory of Lewes; and Roger, son of Baldwin de Frevil, conveyed in the 11th of King John, to Adam de Moundeford, the rent of 20*s.* per ann.

Simon de Hecham and his parceners, in 1277, had the homage of Morehow; Richard Fitz-Warren the homage of Frevil, and in the 7th of Edward I. Richard, son of William de Breccles, and Katherine his wife, conveyed to Robert de Westhorp, messuages and lands.

LEWES PRIORY MANOR.

Gilbert de Rising, in 1161, gave to this priory in Sussex, by deed, (wherein he calls the monks his lords<sup>6</sup>) half the soccage of Letton for 15 years, from the feast of St. Michael, and after the coming of the king into England, when he sent the abbots and Earls through all England to enquire into the actions of the sheriffs and provosts, and the other mediety, together with the advowson, to the priory for ever.

At the Dissolution, King Henry VIII. December 22, in his 29th year, granted it to Thomas Duke of Norfolk. Hugh de Gurnay of Letton, granted them a tenement, &c. sans date.

Under the invasions of Hermerus de Ferrarijs we find that he had seized on 21 acres of land, which 2 freemen held in the time of the Confessor, and were under protection only, at that time, and one freeman now possessed it under Hermerus, with 4 acres of meadow, valued at 3s. 4d.<sup>7</sup>

This came to the Lords Bardolf, and in the 3d of Henry IV. Robert Read, and his parceners, held here, in Shipdam, Yaxham, &c. lands, sometime William Atte Rodes, by the 5th part of a fee, of the honour of Wirmegey; and Robert Fishpoole held it ao. 5th of Henry VI.

M A T E S H A L E.

THE principal lordship at the survey was in the hands of Ralph de Beaufoe, of which 14 freemen (who held it in King Edward's time) were deprived, 2 carucates and a half, and 20 acres of land belonged to it, with 12 villains, and 5 carucates, and 6 acres of meadow, and a church endowed with 20 acres, valued at 16½*d.* In King Edward's time this lordship was valued at 60*s.* at the survey at 43*s.* was 7 furlongs long, and 6 broad, and paid 36½*d.* gelt.<sup>9</sup>

Ralph had also another tenure here, to make up his lordship, of which 5 freemen were deprived, who held 2 carucates of land, and 4 borderers, and 4 carucates of meadow, valued at 20*s.* at the survey at 32*s.* 4*d.* but the soc was in the abbot of Ely.

Hubert de Rie, castellan of Norwich, by the marriage of Agnes, only daughter and heir of Ralph, succeeded him; and from this family it came by Aliva, a daughter and coheir to John Marshal, of the family of the heirs of Pembroke, in the reign of Henry II. and by Hawys, daughter and heir of John le Marshal, to Sir Robert Morley, who was lord in 1323.

Robert Lord Morley's only daughter and heir, Alianore, brought it by marriage to William Lovell, a younger son of the Lord Lovell of Tichmershe, who died seized of it in 1475.

Alice, only sister and heir of Henry Lovell Lord Morley married Sir Will. Parker, and in her right, enjoyed it, and had livery in the 5th of Henry VII. and his descendant, Edward Parker Lord Morley, about 1583, sold great part of his inheritance, and this lordship, to Sir Thomas Lovell, of East Herling, and his son, Sir Francis, possessed it in 1620, &c.

Thomas Berney, Esq. of Swerdeston, lord in 1658, John Berney, in 1676; Thomas Berney, Esq. 1720; and in 1740, Ash Windham, Esq.

The rent of assise of free and customary tenants of this manor, in the 36th of Henry VIII. was 18*l.* 13*s.*

In this town the church of Ely had in the time of the Confessor, 8 socmen, who held 30 acres of land, and 2 carucates of meadow, but at the survey there was but one carucate, and 8 acres, valued at 20*s.* at the survey at 13*s.*

This also was joined soon after the survey, to the aforesaid manor.

John de Mareschal held here and in North Tudenham, in the reign of Edward I. one fee and an half of the Bishop of Ely. In the 20th of Edward III. Robert Lord Morley held one fee and an half of the church of Ely.

Hermerus de Ferrariis had seized on a carucate and 39 acres of land, held by 20 freemen, who in King Edward's reign, were only under commendation or protection.

There were 3 villains, 2 borderers, 12 acres of meadow, and the moiety of a mill, and at that time 4 carucates also, valued at 30*s.* at the survey at 42, but this part was held by them without any commendation.<sup>1</sup>

This lordship came by descent from Hermerus, to the Lords Bardolf, Barons of Wirmegay.

In the 38th of Henry III. William Lord Bardolf had a charter for free warren, as part of that manor.

In the 3d of Edward III. Robert Attehave held the 4th part of a fee in this town, Yaxham, &c. of Sir Thomas Lord Bardolf, and John de Wace, a fourth part here, in Thirston, &c.

In the 43d of that King, Gregory Sterre, and Alice his wife, conveyed by fine, to John de Mountuey and Joan his wife, a messuage, 52 acres of land, 27 of pasture, 5 of wood, and 28*s.* rent in Mateshale, Bergh, North and East Tudenham, Hokering and Yaxham.

On the attainder of Thomas Lord Bardolf, in the reign of Henry IV. the King granted it with the honour of Wirmegay, to his brother, Thomas Beaufort Earl of Dorset, and after Duke of Exeter.

In the 22d of Edward IV. Roger Drury, Esq. and Anne his wife, daughter and heir of Henry Sturmer, passed by fine to Alexander Cressener, Esq. Henry L'Éstrange, John Garneys, William Drury, Esq. Henry Fenne, Esq. &c. 300 acres of land, 60 of meadow, 100 of pasture, 16 of wood, 100 of marsh, 60 of heath, and 5*l.* rent, with 2 fold-courses here, in Bergh, Hokering, &c. from the heirs of Anne. At the same time also John Pagrave and Margaret his wife, another of the daughters and coheirs of Sturmer, conveyed their right to Henry Fenne and his heirs.

In the 6th of Henry VIII. it was in the Crown together with the honour of Wirmegay, as may be seen in the account of that town, and at this time was possessed by Henry Pagrave, who died lord of it, and of Burgh: as may be seen by his will, proved January 14, 1527, and held of the said honour.<sup>2</sup>

By indenture made August 9, 1667, William Bond of London, Esq. granted and sold to Sarah Bispham, relict of Samuel Bispham, M. D. and her heirs, the manor of Matteshale Mounteneys, which Sir John Pagrave of Northwood Burningham in Norfolk, Bart. by indenture dated in the 24th of Charles I. sold to Samuel Smith of Norwich, Esq. and Robert Willmot, of Greys Inn, Esq. both deceased, and to the said William Bond for the term of 1000 years.

Owen Thornton, clerk, was lord, about 1680, and gave it to his daughter.

William Earl Warren, had 14 acres of land, of which a freeman was deprived, and it was valued in Thurston.<sup>3</sup>

The tenths were 8*l.* 4*s.*--Deducted 1*l.* 14*s.*

In this parish lived an ancient family De Herleston, Margaret, daughter of Robert Harlestone of this town, the wife of Dr. Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, gave lands here in 1569, to the value of 50*s.* per ann. for the poor of this parish, and a sermon to be preached in this church, which is preached every year by a fellow of Corpus Christi college in Cambridge, on Tuesday in Rogation week.

This annual sermon is much frequented, and the great resort to it, occasions a sort of fair on that day, and is commonly called Matteshale-Gant, or Gang, a word anciently used for perambulating the bounds of parishes in Rogation week.

Thomas Harleston, Gent. by his will in 1558, gives his tenement, called Sparrows, to be an alms-house at Matteshale, and his house called Coppes to the poor of the said town, with several ewes, and money to the poor of this town, Burgh Parva, Shipdam, Cranworth, &c.

Mat gives name to several towns, as a rivulet; thus Materdale in Cumberland, Matching in Essex, Matlock in Derbyshire.

REYMERSTON, AND CALVELEY.

REYMERSTON is but once mentioned in the Book of Domesday, which is under the invasions of Hermerus de Ferrajjs, who had seized on the possessions of 5 freemen, who had in King Edward's time 30 acres of land, and a carucate of meadow, valued then at 10s. at the survey at 7s.<sup>5</sup>

The Lords Bardolf, descended from Hermerus, were lords; and in the 38th of Henry III. William Lord Bardolf had a charter of free-warren in his demean lands.

In the 15th of Richard II. the Lord Bardolf held the fourth part of a fee here, in Yaxham, Shipdam, Mateshale; and in the 5th of Henry VI. Robert Fishpool held it of the honour of Wirmegay, which in the 3d of Edward III. was possessed by Robert Attehaw, and always went with that honour.

The King's manors of Cranworth, and Flockthorp extended into this town; and Osbert de Mundeford, in the 18th of Henry III. held of the Earl Warren's manor of Letton, &c. the third part of a fee here, &c.

In 1277, it was found that the homage of the Earl performed suit of court to the Bishop's hundred court of Mitford.

In the 15th of Richard II. Richard Lord Poynings held it of the Earl of Arundel, and Reginald Cobham had an interest in it, in the 9th of Henry VI.

Sir Roger Woodhouse, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, conveyed to Thomas Crane, the manor of Reymerston, and Francis Sturgeas, Esq. was lord in the 33d of Elizabeth.

WENDLING ABBEY MANOR.

In the reign of Edward I. the abbot held the 8th part of a fee of the Earl Warren, and William Wymark, in the 14th of Edward III. of Reymerston, sued the abbot for 11 acres of land, one of meadow, 3 of meadow, with the appertenances in this town.

Their temporalities were valued at 16s. per ann.

CALVELEY MANOR.

Calveley was, in the reign of the Confessor, at the time of making the survey, a town or village, now and some centuries past destroyed, and all the lands belonging to it are included, and esteemed as parts of the township of Reymerston.

At the survey it was in the church of Ely, probably of the gift of Ethelwolf, Bishop of Winchester, in the reign of King Edgar, the Saxon King, and stands thus accounted for.

Berner held of the abbot of Ely the manor that St. Audrey, or the church of Ely, held in King Edward's time; one carucate of land, 4 villains, 11 borderers, one carucate in demean, half a carucate among the tenants, and it might be made up one, &c. 20 acres of meadow, one runcus, and one cow, &c. and 5 socmen had 20 acres, valued at 20s.

It was 4 furlongs long, and 4 broad, and paid 5*d.* gelt.<sup>6</sup>

Godric claimed this land belonging to the fee of Ralph, (Earl of Norfolk), as holding it before he forfeited, and the hundred witnessed it.

William Longchamp Bishop of Ely, who was chancellor to King Edward I. and the Pope's legate, granted it to Robert Russell, his servant, and his heirs, all the land of Calveley, as an escheat: witnesses, Earl Roger le Bigod, Jeffrey de Say, Robert de L'Isle, Richard, archdeacon of Ely, Osbert de Lacy, Hugh Pipard, Alexander Barre, William and Hugh de Longchamp, and King Richard confirmed this grant as an escheat in 1194.

In the 32d of Henry III. William de Calvelegh and Sara his wife were impleaded by Hugh de Burdeleys, to stand to the fine made between William de Burdeleys, his brother, and Richard Russel, the late husband of Sara, of lands here, held of William, for 20s. per ann.

This was for 2 carucates of land possessed by Richard, who died

In the 16th of Edward I. John, son of William de Calveley, granted to the prioress of St. Radegund's in Cambridge, to present then to the church of Reymerston, with a salvo jure suo; and in the said year, William, son of John de Mareschall, claimed free warren, and a grant of a fair, in his manor here, every year, for five days, on the vigil, day and morrow of St. Margaret, and the two following days.

This must be on account of his lordship of Hingham, which he obtained of the King, in the preceding year.

Ela, widow of John de Calveley, granted a messuage and lands here for life, to William, son of Philip de Gurney, and Ellen his wife in the 3d year of Edward II. and Geffrey de Burdeleys conveyed to Oliver, son of John de Calveley, lands.

A moiety of it is said to be conveyed to John Coroner, and Alianore his wife, in the 3d. of Richard II. to John Rothwell; and in the said year, Thomas, rector of Hardingham, and his cofeoffees, were lords of this manor and Remerston.

Edmund Swathing, Esq. in the 3d of Henry IV. held the lordship of Calveley by one fee, of the Bishop of Ely, and in the 9th of Henry VI.

William Paston, Esq. of Paston, released to Robert Wetheringset, archdeacon of Ely, and Oliver Groos, Esq. all his right herein.

Francis Sturges, Esq. lord in the 33d of Elizabeth, and Thomas was his son and heir.

In the 4th of James I. Sir George Coppin, Knt. possessed it, and sold it soon after to Thomas Bateman, Esq. Anthony his son was found to die seized of the site of Calveley manor, on January 4, 1602 of James I. and left it to his daughter and coheir, Philadelphia.<sup>7</sup>

After this it came by Tayler, to Robert Rugg, Gent. his son, Thomas Rugg, conveyed to Robert Clayton, Esq. (afterwards Sir Robert) a moiety of the manor of Reymerston, alias Calveley Hall or Yards, with the appertanances, one garden, one orchard, 60 acres of land, 10 of meadow, 30 of pasture, and 40 of wood, in 1660, with 10 of heath.

SHIPDAM AND THORP.

IN the book of Domesday we find no account of Shiptam being a lordship, or possessed by the church of Ely, but that Thorp, a town of considerable value at that time, though now (as I take it) included in Shiptam, was one of the lordships of that monastery, in the Sarou age, given to it, with that of East Derham, by Ethelwold Bishop of Winchester, in the reign of King Edgar, and extended into Shiptam.

King Edward the Confessor, in his charter of confirmation of the lordships, &c. belonging to the abbey of Ely, mentions this town of Thorp; and when Leofin, the 5th abbot, assigned certain towns and lordships in the time of King Canute, for the annual support of it, Derham (East) and Thorp are named together, and were to find provisions for 2 weeks.

At the survey, St. Atheldreda, that is the church of Ely, had 3 carucates of land, with 10 villains, 20 borderers, and 4 servi, and one carucate then in demean, &c. 7 carucates and a half among the tenants, pannage for 800 swine, &c. 8 acres of meadow, a mill, 2 runci, 11 cows, &c. 97 sheep, and 38 goats, 12 socmen had 40 acres, and 5 carucates and 12 acres of meadow, &c. then valued at 60s. at the survey the whole was valued at 11*l.* was one leuca long and one broad, paid 15*d.* gelt.

In Thorp, Thurston, and Sachesham in this hundred, 5 socmen of St. Atheldreda had 50 acres, and a carucate valued at 8s.<sup>8</sup>

On the foundation of the see of Ely, this lordship was assigned to the Bishop, and made part of his barony; and in the 29th of Henry III. the Bishop had a mercate and fair granted to him.<sup>9</sup>

In 1277, it was found that he enjoyed the privileges as mentioned in East-Derham: Alexander Atte Rode, Robert Atte Buk, and their parceners, Roger Ferley, Symon Prudham, and their parceners, the homage of ——— de Frevile, and that of ——— de Cateston, did suit to his hundred court, for tenements and lands here: he was patron of the church of Shipdam.

The demean lands were 236 acres of land, and a half, by the less hundred, the perch being at 16 feet and an half, and to be ploughed by 2 ploughs of four oxen, and 2 scots each, with 2 horses for harrow; every acre valued at 12*d.* per acre, per ann. the commons of Westmore, Lyngmore, Northwode, Wykesmethe, are bounded and they who intercommon are mentioned.

Old Park, called Little-Haw, and the New Park, West Haw, the woods of Suthaw, Karshaw, Blakmere-Haw, contained 70 acres, in which the towns of Letton and Reymerston had liberty of common for their beasts, with the Bishop's, horn under horn, but the Bishop alone had power to dig, as lord of the soil.

He had also 2 windmills belonging to this manor and the suit belonging to them, with free warren in the whole manor.

William de Calveley and Sarah his wife, held in Calveley 2 carucates of land, by one knight's fee.

Sir William Bardolf a tenement at Whinburgh. Other free tenants are mentioned with their rents, services, reliefs, customs, &c. in the register of Ely.

In the 34th of Henry VI. this lordship was found to be worth 44*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.* per ann. and in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, at 45*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.* as by the accounts of the Bishop's register general.

Soon after this, it came to the Crown, and was granted by act of parliament, in the first year of Queen Elizabeth, and confirmed most probably, by the chapter 19, in the acts, of the said year, which was before the deprivation of Bishop Thurleby.

No printed author (that I have seen) mentions this: and on August 9, in her 3d year, Sir William Wodehouse, Knt. of Hickling, in Norfolk, and the Lady Elizabeth his wife, had a grant of this manor, (late the Bishop of Ely,) with the park, and the advowson of the church, paying a fee farm rent of 21*l.* 6*s.* 5*d.* per ann. with a close, called the Lord's Close; and on May 9, ao. 26, Sir Thomas Wodehouse, had a new grant of it, with the deer in the park, all the woods and underwoods, and about 1585, conveyed it to Sir Thomas Gawdy of Claxton, a judge of the Common Pleas, who died seized of it, November 1, in the 30th year of that reign, leaving Henry his son and heir, aged 16.

Robert Gawdy his son, passed it to William Castleton, Esq. created a Bart. on August 9, 1641, and Sir John his son, presented in 1673; and Edmund Castleton sold it to Charles Lord Viscount Townsend, about 1704, and in that family it continues.

William Earl Warren had a considerable lordship in Shipdam, of which eleven freemen were deprived on the conquest, containing one carucate, held by 3 borderers, with 10 acres of meadow, &c. also 5 carucates, &c. then valued at 30s. at the survey at 40s. and the moiety of a church endowed with 8 acres: it was one leuca long and 5 furlongs broad, and paid 15*d.* gelt.

And under the title of invasions, we find that his men, (those who held lands under him,) had invaded or seized on 44 acres, in Shipdam which Brodo and Athin held under King Edward, and half a carucate held by a borderer, &c. with 4 acres of meadow, valued at 8s. and 1*d.* ob.

This was always part of the King's manor of Saham, and no livery was made of it, as the hundred witnessed.

The ancient family of Caston, was early enfeoffed of this, and held it of the Earl Warren.

William de Catestune (or Caston) and Ela his wife, possessed it in 1200; Sir John de Caston settled it about 1292, on William his son; and in the 5th of Edward III. Sir John de Caston and Catherine his wife, granted it for their lives, to Symon de Hedersete, and Thomas his son.

After this, by Elizabeth, a daughter and coheir of Sir John Caston, it came to Sir Robert Carbonel, son of Sir William Carbonel, of Bodingham in Suffolk; Thomas his son, was lord in 1402; and Sir John died lord, as appears by his will, in 1425, leaving Thomas his son, a minor, who dying in his minority, it descended to the Berneys.

Margaret, daughter of Sir Robert Caston, married Will. de Reedham, of Reedham in Norfolk, and Margaret, daughter and heir of this William. having married Thomas Berney, Esq. 2d son of John Berney, Esq. of Wichingham, was lord of Reedham, &c. in her right, in the reign of Richard II.

John Berney, Esq. son and heir of Thomas aforesaid, died lord of this manor in 1400, as appears by his will, proved September 5, and thereby gives it to his 2d son, Philip, with the manor of Caston, who dying s.p. in 1453, bequeathed them to his younger brother, John, but soon after they came to the family of the Reedhams.

By an inquisition, taken November 7, in the 20th of Henry VIII. John Berney, Esq. was found to die seized of it October 27, ao. 19th of that King, held (as was found) of the manor of Saham, in Norfolk, by fealty, and 3s. rent per ann. and John was his son and heir, aged 18.

Richard Berney, Esq. died lord in 1695; he mortgaged it, and in 1709, was sold by a decree in Chancery, to pay his debts.

Thomas de Snetterton had an interest here; and in the 7th of Edward II. conveyed a messuage, 199 acres of land, with rents and services, to Symon Brake, of Brandeston, and Catherine his wife, as did John de Mershe, of South Wootton, senior, and Margaret his wife, lands, in the 8th of Edward III. to Ralph de Shipdam.

Humphrey de Skypdam, son of Ralph and Catherine, and their tenants, were found in the 20th of that King, to hold the 10th part of a fee of the Earl Warren, late Ralph's and Symon Brake's.

In the 4th of Henry IV. Sir Robert Knolls held the same of the Earl of Arundel; and John Skeet, chaplain, half a fee here and in Letton, of the said Earl.

Hermicus de Ferrarij's lordship of Hlinbergh, and Gerceston, extended into this town: he had also one socman here, with 16 acres of land valued at 4s. held by Adelm.

Hermerus's interest came to the Lords Bardolf of Wirmegay, and went with that barony.

William Atte Rode of Shipdam, held in the 3d of Edward III. the 4th part of a fee in this town, Letton, and Yaxham, &c. of the honour of Wirmegay. Robert Attehow possessed it in the 20th of that King; and in the said reign, John de Thetford, &c. held lands called Rode-Fee, with a wind-mill, rents and services, of the Lord Bardolf; and Robert Reed possessed it in the 3d of Henry IV.

The Conqueror, at the survey, had here and in Cranworth, 30 acres, held by a socman, in Stowe, and 8 acres of meadow, &c. valued at 2s. Robert Bund held them of the King, but Godric never.

This was soon after granted by the Earl Warren, and so was joined to the lordship abovementioned of Caston, &c.

A mercate weekly on Thursday, and a fair for 3 days on St. Peter and St. Paul's day, was granted in the 29th of Henry III. to Hugh de Northwold Bishop of Ely, who built a great hall in his palace here.

In 1659, on an inquisition for charitable uses, it was found that the moiety of a manor called Bennet's, with messuages, lands, &c. on the south-west part of the church, belonged to the township, worth 18*l.* per ann. and that out of it, bread and wine had been found for the communion, and the church repaired.

William Hattersley, rector, by will, in 1668, gave 20*l.* to be put out at interest for the poor; and Alice his widow, by will, in 1614, 20*l.* to the same use, and John Bullock, 10*l.* in 1617.

John Tudenham, clerk, gave by will, in 1613, a tenement called Sparks, and half a rood of land, for the dwelling of 4 poor people.

William Mowting of East Derham, by will, 1561, for the relief of the blind and lame, &c. 14*l.* per ann. in lands; all which gifts had been sadly abused, &c. and then rectified.

The town seems to take its name from some stream, &c. of water called Scip, or Shep. In Kent we find a lathe or hundred, and an island, called Shepey; thus Shepeshead in Leicestershire, Shipley in Derbyshire, &c.

The tenths were 10*l.* Deducted 13s. 4*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and was in the patronage of the Bishop of Ely. It appears that the rector, in the reign of Edward I. had a manse, with 60 acres of glebe, and that there had been formerly a vicar belonging to it, but at that time there was only a rector; the valor was 40 marks; Peter-pence 2s. 10*d.* The monks of Castleacre had a portion of tithe valued at 5s. per ann. given them by John de Kateston, viz. two parts of the tithes of his lordship in this town, and Rockland, which Simon Bishop of Norwich confirmed to them in 1265.

The present valor is 26*l.* 7s. 5*d.* ob. and pays first fruits and tenths.

The church is a good pile, with a very broad nave and chancel, and a north isle that runs the whole length of the nave and chancel, all covered with lead; at the west end of the nave is a strong four square tower, embattled, with 5 bells, a dial, and clock.

On the tower, an handsome lantern or turret, covered with lead: between the nave and chancel hangs the saints bell.

In the chancel lie several gravestones for the Bullocks: on them this shield, gules, a chevron, between three bulls heads, caboshed, attired, or, Bullock, impaling, on a bend, between two lions rampant, three roundels, Fluellin,

In memory of Mary, wife of Thomas Bullock, gent. eldest daughter of William Fluellin, Esq; alderman of London, who died October 20;

1683, and left one daughter, Diana, and 3 sons, Thomas, William, and Robert, now living, who enjoying a plentiful estate, by the death of Sir Thomas Colby, of Kensington, baronet, son of Elizabeth, 2d daughter of Alderman Flucllin, have placed this inscription in gratitude to God and her memory, May 12, 1730.

Another with the arms of Bullock,

In memory of Thomas Bullock, gent. who died Feb. 21, 1736, aged 63.

One with the arms of Lane, Or, a chevron between three mullets, pierced, gules, impaling Bullock,

In memory of John Lane, gent. who died December 2, 1732, aged 55,

In memory of Diana, wife of William Clemence, of ———, and daughter of Thomas Bullock, late of Shipdam, gent. who died May 12, 1739, aged 69.

Or, on a fess, between two and two de-lis, gules, as many of the first, Devall;

In memory of Thomas Devall the elder, who died April 9, 1677.

On a brass plate,

Pray for the soul of Mr. Thomas Alkoke, sometime parson of this church, who dyed September 19, A.D. 1523, on whose soule, &c.

In the north isle, a gravestone, with the arms of Bullock,

In memory of Robert Bullock, late of Hingham in Norfolk, gent. who died August 20, 1729. in the 60th year of his age.

Adjoining, another for

Robert Bullock, late of Hingham, gent. son of Robert, who died November 2, 1715. in his 31st year.

In the churchyard, at the west part, by the tower, is an altar monument,

In memory of William Bullock, late of Shipdam, who died January 13, 1673, aged 70.

In 1603, William Hattersley returned in answer to the King's queries, that there were 480 communicants.

I find the chapel of St. Mary, and that of St. Thomas, mentioned in this church, 1503, with the image of our Lady of Pity; and land bequeathed to the light of our Lady.

Probably this was the chapel in the north isle, in which there were in the east window, formerly these arms; Or, a maunch, gules, the Lord Tony, impaled with argent, on a fess gules, three bezants, between three torteaux; gules, a lion rampant, in a bordure, argent, Grey Bishop of Ely; quarterly, gules, and ermine, in the first and 4th, a goat's head, erased, argent, attired, or; Morton Bishop of Ely; argent three choughs proper.

Here was also the tabernacle of St. Michael, the guilds of the Holy Ghost, St. John Baptist, St. Thomas, St. Andrew, Assumption of St. Mary, All-Saints, and St. Etheldreda; the lights of St. James, St. Nicholas, St. John Baptist, St. Thomas, &c.

In 1487, John Alcock Bishop of Ely granted 40 days indulgence to all who would contribute to the repair of the chapel of St. Thomas of Canterbury, situate in a certain hermitage, within this parish, and of the ways that lay about it.

In 1512, there was a suit between the rector of Saham Tony, and the rector of Shipdam, on account of tithe milk, and the agistment of cattle, feeding on the common of Shipdam.

I find a certain common pasture called Westmore, belonging to the lordship of Shipdam, beginning at the church of Shipdam, and leading and continuing to the meres or bounds between the liberties of St. Etheldreda, (that is the see of Ely;) and the hundred of Wayland, which belonged to the heirs of Ralph Thony; and this I suppose was the common.

John de Kateston, by deed, confirmed to the monks of Castleacre, the grant of his father, the 3d parts of the tithes of his demesns here.<sup>1</sup>

William de Warren, son of Reginald, gave them a mark rent per ann. out of a tenement which John de Kateston, held of him in Sepe-deham, for an anniversary for Reginald his father, and Alice his mother, and after his decease for himself; witnesses, Reginald de St. Martin, Robert de Capravill, Osbert de Stradesete, Richard Curpeil, &c.

Osbert de Denever confirmed to the said monks, 2 garbs of his demesns in Lipling, which his grandfather gave them, also the land called Osbeneshaeh, in Sipedeham, which his grandfather gave in exchange for the said tithes; witnesses, Geffrey, dean of Fincham, William Talebot, his brother, &c.

The temporalities of Castleacre priory were 18s. 4d. per ann. 1428; of Hulm abbey, 17s. 3d.; of Wendling, 2s. 6d.; of Colchester, 8s.: of Lewes priory 6s. and of Beeston 11d.

SOUTH-BURGH.

WILLIAM EARL WARREN had a grant of the lands of 7 freemen, of whom 3 borderers held half a carucate of land, and 5 acres of meadow, 2 mills, &c. and there were then also 2 carucates, a church endowed with 12 acres, the whole valued at 20s. per ann. It was 6 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 15d. gelt.<sup>2</sup>

In the 9th of King John, Thomas de Benefeld was lord of this manor, held of the Earl Warren, and conveyed to Walter de Bergh the advowson of the church of St. Andrew of South-Berk.

Walter de Berk, in the 12th of Henry III. granted by fine to William his son, the said advowson with 2 carucates of land in Berk, and in Rising; but Walter was to enjoy it for life; so that it appears, the Berks held it under Benefeld; and in the 53d of that King, Henry de Berk gave lands in Berk Magna, (as it was sometimes called, and also Berk by Hingham,) to distinguish it from Bergh by Mateshale, (both of them lying in Mitford hundred) to Geffrey son of Walter de Hingham.

The jury find in the 9th of Edward I. on a pleading, that a tenement with 40 acres of land, 10 of meadow, 3 of wood, and a mill here, was not partable land, being purchased by Walter, grandfather of Robert de South-Berk, and Richard his brother, sons of William de South-Berk, and held of John de Benfeld, by the fifth part of a fee.

In the 13th of that King, Richard de Suthberg granted to Ela, or Alice de Calveley, wife of John, a messuage, with lands here, and in Wood-Rising. This seems to have been the lordship, John de Calveley her husband presenting to the church in 1329, and she was daughter of Richard de Suth-Berk.

In the 17th of Edward II. Thomas de Burgh conveyed lands in this town and in Wood-Rising, to Edmund de Breccles, rector of Elingham, in trust, as I take it; and in the 20th of Edward III. the tenants of the lands, late John de Benfeld's, were found to hold the 6th part of a fee of the Earl Warren.

In the 26th of that King, Richard de Wyrham conveyed to William son of John de Calveley, this lordship and advowson.

This William died soon after, sans issue; for in the 35th of Edward III. Anicia or Alianore, married to John Coroner, was found to be sister and coheir of John de Calveley, father of William.<sup>3</sup>

John Atte Thorn presented to the church in the said year, probably in right of his wife, another of the sisters and coheirs.

John Botild presented in 1375, and in 1389, whose right came probably by Coroner, as may be seen in Reymerston and Calveley.

In 1439, Thomas Crofts of Westal, senior, Esq. and Thomas Crofts, Esq. of Norfolk, in 1463; Thomas Gray, Esq. as lord in 1550, who was lord also in 1556; but before this, in the 17th of Henry VII. Thomas Caus passed by fine this lordship of Botyld's, with lands in this town, Hardingham and Henghum, and the advowson, to Francis Calybut, Humphrey Adam, and William Deane.

In 1561, John Aldham, Gent. was lord in right of his wife, ———. On September 17, in the 11th of Elizabeth, he sold to Thomas Thwayts, of Hardingham, Esq. a moiety of the manor of Botild's, and a moiety of the advowson, and after, the other moiety of both; which manor was possessed by Francis Cushion, of Hingham, who left 4 daughters and coheirs; ———, married to John Aldham, of Thympling, Gent.; ———, to John Thurston of Horne; Jane, to Thomas Carsey, of Southbergh; and Ellen, to Henry Wyat, of Deepham in Norfolk.

Thomas Thwayts conveyed it, in the 23d of Elizabeth, July 15, to Francis Sturges, Esq. son of Francis, who presented in 1587; he died seized of it, and left it to Thomas his son, a minor.

Thornhagh Gurdon, Esq. lord and patron in 1714; and in the Gurdons it remains.

The manor of Calveley in Remerston, extended into this. In the 8th of King John, William Coke had an interest herein, and conveyed lands held by knight's service, to William, son of Geleran

In 1277, William de Calveley and Sarah his wife, held it; and in the 20th of that King, an assise was brought before William de Giselham, and Hugh de Cressingham, the King's justices, to know whether John de Calveley, and Nicholas his brother, William de Calveley, William de Boyton, and Edmund de Swathing, had disseised Catherine, widow of William de Swathing, of an alder kar here and in Letton, containing 160 acres; and the jury find that William de Calveley, and Sarah, his wife, father, &c. of John de Calveley, and Edmund de Swathing, held it in common, and after divided it between them and deprived her of it.

The tenths were 4*s.* Deducted 6*s.*

In Bergh, Hermerus de Ferrariis had seized on 2 acres of land, belonging to a freeman, and valued at 6*d.*<sup>4</sup>

This was part of Wace's manor in Thuxton, Mateshale, &c.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Andrew; the ancient valor was 12 marks; Peter-pence 2*s.* 6*d.* Richard de Bergh, was patron about the 9th of Edward I. The present valor is 5*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.* ob.

THURSTON, OR THUXTON.

WILLIAM EARL WARREN had the lordship, of which 10 freemen were deprived, who held half a carucate of land, 2 borderers, and 5 acres of meadow, and 2 carucates, valued at the survey at 20s. before at 10s.; the said Earl possessed also 9 acres, of which a freeman was deprived, valued at 2s. per ann.; the King had a lordship, which Godric took care of, as his steward, or bailiff, 4 socmen in Thurston, and 4 in Turstanestuna, held lands belonging to the manor of Swathing, under which they stand valued and accounted, as may be seen in Cranworth and Swathing.<sup>5</sup>

It is to be observed that Thurston and Turstaneston, appear by this account to be two distinct places: Turstaneston was probably an hamlet to Turston. These manors of the Earl and of the King, were afterwards united, and so I shall treat of them together.

The family of De Thurston were early enfeoffed of the Earl Warren's manor. William, son of Robert de Thurston, conveyed to John, son of William de Thurston, in the 53d of Henry III. 2 messuages, 55 acres of land, 5 of meadow, 2 of pasture, and 18s. 6d. rent in this town, Reymerston, &c.<sup>6</sup> with all the wards, reliefs, escheats, homages, services of freemen, and villains; John granting to William, a messuage, and several lands,

Of this family was Eborard de Tuxton, who was living here in the reign of Richard I.

In the 4th of Edward II. Nicholas, son of Jeffrey de Stratton, conveyed by fine, to Gregory de Thurston, lands here; and in the said year, lands were granted to Robert de Thurston, in this town and Rundall; and in the 6th of that King, John de Gurney passed by fine, to Richard de Thurston and Ada his wife, 6 messuages, 115 acres of land, &c. with 15s. rent in this town, Runhale, &c.

The Gurneys were early enfeoffed of the manor that Godric held, as may be seen in Swathing, and the Thurstons held it of them.

John and Richard de Thurston, were lords in the 9th of the said King, and the patronage belonged to it.

In 1381, Edmund Gurney presented to this church; in 1384, John Gurney: in 1387, William, son of Richard de Thurston, was lord; and in the year 1472, John Oxy of Worscled, was lord of the manor of Thuxton, and gave it by will, (proved in the said year,) to Thomas his son, who died in the following year, and ordered it to be sold, to pay his debts; <sup>7</sup> and in 1500, William Gurney presented to the church.

In 1503, Sir Thomas Wodehouse of Kimberley was lord, and Wace's manor paid to him 6*d.* per ann.

Henry Palgrave, by his will, dated September 11, 1513, and proved January 14, 1517, appoints his manors and North Berningham, to remain in the hands of Sir Robert Brandon, William Paston, Esq. Ann his wife, and John his son.

Robert Newport, Esq. and Margaret his wife, conveyed in the 37th of Henry VIII. to Sir John Clere, the 3*d* part of this manor, with lands and messuages, in the Tudenhams; and Thomas Astley and Mary his wife, convey, in the 3*d* of Edward VI. a third part to Robert Richer.

In the 4*th* of Elizabeth, William Thursbye, Gent. had a præcipe to render the manor of Thuxton to Froximer Cocket, Gent.

Hermerus de Ferraris had invaded or seized on the property of 7 freemen, who had 100 acres of land, and 4 carucates, and 5 acres of meadow, in the time of King Edward, valued then at 20*s.* but now at 26*s.* 8*d.*<sup>8</sup>

This came to the Lords Bardolf, and was part of their barony of Wirmegey; in the 9th of Edward II. Thomas Lord Bardolf held it in capite; and in the 20th of Edward III. John Wace of Thurston held here and in Mateshale, a quarter of a fee of the Lord Bardolf.

In the 3*d* of Henry IV. Hugh Rovey, chaplain, &c. feoffees of Roger de Walsham, held here and in Matesale, lands and tenements, sometime John Wace's.

In the 8th of Henry VI. Henry Sharington, Esq. purchased it of Henry Periz, clerk, for 42*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* Thomas Sharington, Esq. of Cranworth, was lord in the 19th of Henry VII. and paid wayt fee to the castle of Wirmegey, every 24 weeks, 1*s.* 6*d.*

Thomas Sharington, Esq. left it by his will, dated October 15, 1519, and proved Jan. 12, 1524, to William his son and his heirs, paying to his 4 brethren, Thomas, Henry, John and Anthony, certain legacies; and the said Thomas was buried according to his will, in the church of Cranworth.<sup>9</sup>

Robert Ball, Gent. had a præcipe in the 18th of Elizabeth, to render to Robert Duke, the manor of Wace's, with messuages, and lands in Thuxton, Matsale, Yaxham, Garveston, and Reymerston.

John Fuller, Gent. was lord of Wace's in 1640.

Roger Bigot had a lordship at the survey, which Rotbert was enfeoffed of by him, possessed by a freeman, in the reign of King Edward, consisting of 20 acres of land, a carucate and 4 acres of meadow; 4 socmen, and the moiety of another belonged to it, and held 10 acres, valued at 4*s.* and here was a church endowed with 16 acres, valued at 16*d.*<sup>1</sup>

This appears to be held by the family of De Thurston, in the 11th of Richard II. of Dame Catherine Bigot, and extended into Hardingham, Reymerston, &c.

The church of Ely had also at the survey, in this town, Thorp, and Yaxham, five socmen, who held 50 acres, and a carucate, valued at 8*s.*<sup>2</sup>

EAST TUDENHAM.

HERMERUS DE FERRARIIS was chief lord of this town, when Domesday book was made, on the deprivation of Turchetel, who held it in the reign of the Confessor, with 66 acres of land, 3 servi, 2 villains, and a carucate in demcan, one acre of meadow, the moiety of a mill, one cow, 140 sheep, 38 swine, a church endowed with 20 acres, valued then in the whole, at 16s. at the survey at 20s. It was 7 furlongs long, 6 broad, whoever should possess it, and paid 22½d. gelt.<sup>3</sup>

All the churches belonging to Hermerus's land are valued with the lordships.

Hermerus had also seized on 100 acres belonging to 6 freemen, who lived under protection only, in King Edward's time, held by 15 borderers, and 2 servi, 3 acres of meadow, and 3 carucates belonged also to it, valued at 26s. 8d. then, but at the survey at 24s.

COCKFIELD'S MANOR.

Turchetel had large possessions, and was succeeded therein, on his deprivation, by this Hermerus, by the gift of the Conqueror; from him descended the Lords Bardolf, Barons of Wirmegay; and the ancient family of De Melton, alias Constable, lords of Melton Constable in Norfolk, were early entfeoffed of it. Peter le Constable de Maelton, was lord in the reign of Henry II. and in this family (of whom see in Melton Constable) it remained till on the death of Geffrey, son of Peter de Meauton, the inheritance came to his 3 sisters and coheirs:

Isabel, married to Adam de Cokefeld, Alice, to Robert de Cokefeld, and Edith to Sir Thomas de Esteley, or Astley; Maud, their mother, was living in the 41st of Henry III. and then the wife of Jeffrey de Burnaville.

In the 35th of the said King, Robert de Cockfeld and Alice his wife, Adam de Cockfeld, and Isabell his wife, impleaded Alice le Mareschal, lady of North Tudenham, for fishing in their fishery of East-Tudenham, from the old mill of Hikering, to the mill called Gladwar; but it appearing that the fishery was the right of Alice's father, Hubert de Ric, and all her ancestors, and that her husband held it, judgment was given for her.

In the 41st of that reign, Adam de Cockfeld conveyed by fine to John his nephew, his 3d part of this manor, and held then, with Stephen de Estley, one fee of the Lord Bardolf.

This John married a wife named Postulina, and was living, and a knight, in the 10th of Edward I.; he left a son, Sir John, lord in the 9th of Edward II.

In the 15th of that King, Sir John Cockfeld, and Margaret his wife settled it by fine on themselves for life; remainder to John and Thomas their sons. Sir John was living in the 26th of Edward III. and paid 40s. on the creation of Edward Prince of Wales, then a knight.

He was succeeded by Sir Thomas de Cockfeld, who kept his first court as lord, in the 30th of Edward III. when all the free and customary tenants swore fealty to him.

Sir Robert Cockfeld was his son and heir, and kept a court here, in the 5th of Richard II. and in the 3d of Henry IV. he married Cecilia, daughter and heir of Robert de Charnels, and had Sir John de Cockfeld, who kept his first court in the 4th of Henry V. and again in the 3d of Henry VI.; he married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Foljamb, and died sans issue, about the 30th of Henry VI. In the 35th of that King, his widow had an interest herein, and was then the wife of Sir Ralph Monboucher.

On the death of Sir John, Agnes his sister was found to be his heir, the wife of John Talboys of Stallingburg in Lincolnshire, Esq. by whom he had his son and heir, John, who by Catherine his wife, daughter of Sir William Gibthorp, was father of Margaret, his only daughter, who married John Ascough, Esq. son of Sir William Ascough.

This John was lord in the 8th of Edward IV. and sold it to William Paston, Esq.

Sir William Paston, (4th son of Sir William the judge,) was lord in the said reign, and by the Lady Anne his wife, daughter and coheir of Edmund Duke of Exeter, left two daughters and coheirs; Agnes, married to Sir Gilbert Talbot, of Grafton in Worcestershire; and Elizabeth, to Sir John Savile, who held the same; and Sir John Savile held a moiety in the 19th of Henry VII.

In the 37th of Henry VIII. May 20, Robert Newport, Gent. of ——— in Warwickshire, and Margaret his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Gilbert Talbot, conveyed their right and interest herein, to Sir John Clere of Ormesby, with the manor of Melton, as Sir John Savile's interest; and Mary, another of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Gilbert, married Thomas Astley, Esq. who conveyed his part to Thomas Wodehouse of Waxham, August 1, in the 2d of Edward VI. which soon after came also to the Cleres; and Edward Clere son of Sir John, sold the whole, on June 10, in the 4th and 5th of

Thomas was son of John Harleston, of Mateshale, and married Margaret, daughter of ————; his will is dated August 5, 1558, wherein he gives to two of his daughters and coheirs, Mary, the wife of Thomas Peade, and Susan, the wife of William Turner, the manors of Cockfeld's, &c.

Margaret their mother, had an interest in it for life, and remarried Richard Boulden; but by deed, dated in 1573, they, and the rest of their sisters and coheirs, convey it to Robert Tylney, of East-Tudenham, Gent. who, by Mary, daughter of Robert le Neve of Ringland, in Norfolk, (and living in 1588) was father of Robert, who died sans issue, in 1602.

Robert<sup>s</sup> Tylney, Esq. of Grey's Inn, in London, and of Rotherwick in Hampshire, by Margaret, or Ursula, daughter of Henry Haddock, of Hampshire, had Francis Tylney, Esq. of Rotherwick, and of this town, and was by Dorothy his wife, daughter of Sir Robert Henley, father of Frederick Tylney, Esq. lord of this town, and of Rotherwick, who dying October 4, 1725, left, by Anne, daughter of George Pitt of Strathfield Say in Hampshire, Esq. an only daughter and heir, Elizabeth, married to the Right Honourable Will. Lord Craven. Frederick was member of parliament for Winchester, &c.

The Tilneys are descended from the eminent family of that name in Lincolnshire: Robert, who purchased this manor, was 2d son of Richard, who was son of William Tylney of North-Creke, living in 1470

Robert died 1589; Robert, his eldest son, was a justice of the peace, married Elizabeth, daughter of Francis Rugge, of Felmingham, and died s. p.

The Ascoughs lived in Lincolnshire, and bore sable, a fess, or, between three asses, passant, argent; and they quartered the arms of Cockfield, azure, a cross componé, argent and gules; Talboys, argent, a saltire, gules, on a chief of the 2d, three escallops of the first; and Charnells, or, two chevronels, gules, in a bordure, argent;—Gibthorpe bore quarterly, 1st and 4th, ermin, 2d and 3d, checque, or and gules.

ASTLEY'S OR HOLYWELL'S MANOR.

Sir Thomas de Estele, or Astley, gave name to this lordship, in right of Edith his 2d wife, 3d sister and coheir of Geoffrey de Meauton, alias Constable; by Edith he had Thomas, his first son, Stephen, the 2d, &c. Thomas died before his mother, who remarried to Robert de Holywell, and from him this manor is frequently called Holywell.

Stephen de Astley had a grant of free warren in this town, in the 14th of Edward I. and he, with Sir John de Cockfeld, held one fee of the Lord Bardolf. Of this Stephen, and the family of Astley, I refer the reader to Melton Constable.

In this family it remained till Thomas Astley, Esq. and Mary his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Gilbert Talbot, sold it in 1543, to

<sup>4</sup> King James I. in his 16 year, granted North Tudenham, and east part of Shipdam, &c. to this Robert the letes of East and

Thomas Wodehouse of Waxham, Esq. and soon after it came to the Cleres.

Edward Clere, son of Sir John Clere, sold it in the reign of Philip and Mary, to Thomas Harleston, as is observed in Cockfeld's manor, and so came to the Tylneys, and was united to that lordship.

Ralph de Beaufoe had a lordship of which 6 freemen were deprived, who held half a carucate of land and 3 acres, and one of those freemen had 4 borderers; there were also a carucate and an half, with 2 acres of meadow, valued at 14s. and 8d.

All this Ralph had livery of, as his predecessors had.

BARRY'S MANOR.

Sir Henry Berry, son of Sir Ralph, was lord of it in the reign of Ed. I. by his marriage with Anne, daughter of Sir Hugh Todenham, and was father of Hugh Berry, who married Cecil, daughter and coheir of Edmund Hengrave.

In the 52d of Henry III. Ralph de Berry granted by fine, to Sir Henry a messuage, and 100 acres of land, in East Tudenham, with all the land he held in Hokering, Barnham, Bykerston, Matsale, &c. in demean, with the homages, reliefs, rents and services of freemen and villains, wards, &c. and Henry regranted them to Ralph for life, on condition that he should not mortgage, sell, or any ways dispose thereof.

In the 3d of Edward II. Hugh de Berry and Cecilia his wife, had conveyed to them by Peter, parson of Tudenham, their trustee, 5 messuages, 142 acres of land, 10 of meadow, 16 of pasture, 37s. 6d. rent, one quarter of barley, and 6 hens, rent, here and in Hokering, &c. settled on Hugh and Cecilia, and their heirs; and in the 23d of Edward III. Hugh grants to Edmund his son, and Alice his wife, a messuage, with all his lands and tenements in East Tudenham, Hokering, &c.

This Alice is by some said to be daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas Craven, and by others, daughter and coheir of Robert Micklefield of Suffolk.

Sir John Berry, probably his son and heir, was living in the reign of Henry IV. and married Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Wakesham, by Joan, daughter and heir of Simon de Hetherset, (this Elizabeth married Sir Thomas Gerbridge), and had by her Sir Edmund Berry, who according to his will, dated in 1433, was buried in the chapel of St. Mary, in the church of the Carmes at Norwich, as was the Lady Alice his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas Gerbridge; and the said Sir Thomas, and the Lady Elizabeth, mother of Sir Edmund, 3d wife of Sir Thomas.

By the Lady Alice, he left a daughter and coheir, Agnes, married to Sir William Paston of Paston, one of the King's justices, in the reign of King Henry VI. and Alice, his other daughter and coheir, married to Sir Thomas Bardolf of Elgh in Suffolk, in right of his wife.

came to Bardolf in right of Alice his wife, by whom he had a daughter and sole heir, Elizabeth, married to Thomas Aslake, Esq. who was living in the 16th of Ed. IV. Elizabeth, by her will, dated April 13, 1503,<sup>6</sup> then a widow, gives this lordship to Thomas her first son, remainder to William, her 2d son.

Thomas dying sans issue, William inherited it, and married Agnes, daughter of John le Vile, of Bastwick, in Norfolk, by whom he had 2 sons; Richard, who died sans issue. and William, who left Dorothy, a daughter and heir, married to Christopher Playters, Esq. of Somerley in Suffolk.

This lordship was sold ao. 1st of Elizabeth, by William Playters of Holme by the Sea, (in Norfolk), to Thomas Hoo, by Burham in Norfolk; Thomas conveys it to his father, Richard Hoo, in the following year, ao. 2d of Elizabeth; and in the 3d of that Queen, Richard released it to Thomas, who resided in this town.

By an inquisition taken after his death, in the 13th of that reign, the jury find that he died seized of the manor of Berry's in this town, a water-mill, and lands here; and in the said year, the Queen guardian of Richard Hoo, then a minor, kept her court here.

On April 8, in the 34th of Elizabeth, Richard Hoo, of Scarning, Esq. Thomas Feveryere of Wesenhams, in Norfolk, Gent. Mary his wife, Robert Curson of Cressenhale in Norfolk, Gent. and Anne, his wife,<sup>7</sup> sold it to Robert Tyhney, Gent. and so was united to the other manors abovementioned.

APIHAW'S MANOR.

Henry de Apehawe was witness to a deed of Peter de Meulton, sans date; and in the 41st of Henry III. Roger, son of Henry de Alderford, and Agnes his wife, granted a messuage, and lands to William, son of Henry de Apehawe. At a court held in the 19th of Edward III. the jury at the court of Sir John de Cockfeld, present that Henry de Apehawe held a capital messuage, 30 acres, &c. of land, and that Robert, son of Thomas de Apehawe, was next heir; and in the 25th of that King, Sir John de Cockfeld, as capital lord, had the custody of the heir of Thomas de Apehawe.

Henry Apehagh of East Tudenham, and Eleanor his wife, conveyed it in the 19th of Henry VI. to William Paston, Esq. of Paston; and his son, William, possessed it in the 10th of Edward IV.

After this, from Savile, &c. it came to Thomas Harleston, Gent. who, by his last will, in 1558, devised the site, &c. of it, to Margaret, one of his daughters and coheirs: she married William Forby, Gent. his son, Hillary Forby, of Mileham, and Jane his wife, conveyed it in the 30th of Elizabeth, to Roger Wotton, Gent. and Thomas Cocket, Gent.

Thomas granted his moiety of it to Henry Wayte of King's Lynn, in the 42d of that Queen; and Henry, in the said year, grants it to Roger Wotton: Roger Wotton had Edward his eldest son, who gave the whole to his brother Roger.

This Roger, in the 14th of King Charles I. was a merchant of London.

and married Elizabeth, daughter of Humphrey Howlet of Hunston, in Susser; and on October 20, in the 23d of Charles I. sells it by fine, to Francis Tilney, Esq. father of Frederick, and so was united to Cockfield's manor, &c.

Alan Earl of Richmond, had also a lordship in this town, as I take it; it belonged to his great manor of Cossey, in the hundred of Fourhoe, and consisted of 10 soemen, of the said lordship, held by Earl Guent, King Harold's brother, and slain at the battle of Hastings; these soemen had here 40 acres of land, 3 of meadow, also a carucate and a half, and was valued with Cossey.

The said Earl had also in Tudenham the moiety of a soemen, who held 12 acres of land, with half a carucate.

This is placed in the hundred of Eynford, and so, most likely, was East Tudenham.

This was held under the Earls of Richmond. In 1256, the bailiffs of Peter de Saroy Earl of Richmond were sued for subtracting the suiters of the towns of East Tudenham, Thuxton, Yaxham, and Westfeld, from the hundred court of Mitford, belonging to the Bishop of Ely, to Cossey, to which it was found they did not belong.

The family of De Tudenham had an interest herein. John de Todeham held two fees here, &c. of Matthæw de Leyham, he of the lady of the honour of Angre or Angar, in Esser, as by a deed sans date: the lady here mentioned, was most likely of the family of De Briton, from which family it came by marriage, to the family of De Riparijs or Rivers.

In the 8th of Richard I. William, son of Eudo, conveyed by fine, to William Fitz-Walter, half a carucate of land, in East and West Tudenham, by which the 6th part of the mill of Gladewar was granted to William, son of Walter, who probably was son of, or related to, Sir Walter Fitz-Robert, who married Maud, the eldest daughter of Sir Richard de Lucy, lord chief justice of England, in the reign of Henry II. and to whom King Stephen had given the honour of Angre, which came by Aceline, (2d daughter of the said Sir Richard Lucy), to Richard de Riparijs, or Rivers.

Sir Ralph le Briton and Sir John le Briton, were lords, of Sporle, which Sir John was living in 1274, and was lord of Westfeld in this hundred, both which lordships were held of the honour of Richmond, and (as I conceive) lord also of this town, which came to the Rivers family, by Maud his daughter, on the death of her brother, John le Briton, about the year 1310.

Of the Britons see in Westfield.

Starcolf had at the survey, 40 acres of land, held by 3 borderers, with a carucate and 3 acres of meadow, valued at 10s. per ann.

This Starcolf was (as I take it) a Dane, and had the lordship of Beringham Brome, in Forchow hundred, in the reign of the Confessor, and of this; and for his services to the Conqueror, against King Harold, held them as we find at the survey.

In the 17th of Edward II. William Gambon and Cecilia his wife, had 44 acres of land, 27 of meadow, 7 of alder, and the rent of 27s. here and in North Tudenham, (as it is said) Yaxham, Hokering, Welborne, &c. and Richard was their son and heir.

John Gambon died seized of it in 1432, from whom it came to the

Sternes; Robert Sterne was lord, and Thomas his son died possessed of it in 1460, and Henry his brother succeeded.

King James I. June 29, in the 16th of his reign, granted to Richard Tilney, Esq. the letes of this town and North Tudenham, Mattishale cum Bergh, and the East part of Shipdam.

Tod or Tud, is the name of a river; hence Todwick in Yorkshire, Tudworth in Wiltshire, Tuddiford in Hampshire, &c.

The tenths of this town were 5*l.* Deducted 26*s.* 8*d.*

The temporalities of Coxford priory were 4*s.* 4*d.*; of Norwich priory 9*s.* 2*d.*; of Pentney priory 18*s.*; of Wrongey priory 7*s.* 8*d.*

The priory of St. Olave's of Heringflete in Suffolk, was taxed at 20*s.* 6*d.* per ann. In 1428, Sir Giles Talbot held them; and in the first of Edward VI. Henry Jernegan, Esq. grants to Sir John Clere, all those messuages in East and North Tudenham, late belonging to St. Olave's priory, at 10*s.* 8*d.* per ann. And after this, Thomas Harleston held them.

The CHURCH of East Tudenham is dedicated to All-Saints, has a large broad nave and chancel, the nave covered with lead, the chancel tiled, and a square tower embattled, and 4 bells at the south-west end of the nave.

The present valor of the vicarage is 7*l.* 6*s.* ob. On the appropriation and settling the vicarage, the rectory was valued at 15 marks, and the vicarage at 6 marks.

In a north window of the church, checque, or and gules, a fess, ermine, Calthorp; azure, a cross, compony, gules and argent, Cockfield.

On the south side of the church under the pulpit, is the effigies of a knight in armour, with a heart between his hands, a lion at his feet, said to be for Sir Edmund de Berry.

In the church a gravestone,

In memory of Abraham Baist, minister of this parish full sixty years, departed August 8, 1677, aged 86.

On an old stone the effigies of a man and his two wives in brass, but no inscription.

In 1603, here were 148 communicants.

Here were the guilds of St. Mary, All-Saints, St. Andrew, and St. John Baptist. The patronage of this church was granted by the Lords Bardolf to the priory of Wirmegey, before the 25th of Henry III. when Hugh de Heycile, who was guardian of Peter le Constable of Mewton, then a minor, sued the prior on account of the right of presentation.

At the Dissolution, the appropriated rectory was granted July 1, ao. 7 Edward VI. to William Mingay; and William Necton of Norwich, soon after, conveyed it August 20, ao. 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary, to Sir John Clere; his son, Edward, and Frances his wife, sold it in the reign of Queen Mary, (ao. 5th and 6th of Philip and Mary), to Robert Tilney of this town, and Richard Neve of Ringland, who had each a moiety.

Robert Neve, son of Richard, gave his part by will, in 1639, to Richard Neve his son, rector of North Tudenham, who sold it, 1639, to Francis Tilney, Esq. who held the other part or moiety; and in 1694, Frederick Tilney, Esq. possessed the whole rectory.

In the 27th of Elizabeth, I find the vicar had a pension of 40s. per ann. paid him by the impropiator.

NORTH TUDENHAM

RALPH DE BEAUFÖE had a lordship here when Domesday bo k was made, of which Sigar, a freeman, lord also of Hokering, (as I take it,) was deprived, and Richard held it of Beaufoe; 11 borderers, 5 carucates, and 10 acres of meadow, belonged to it, and 2 mills, valued at 4*l.* All this with Hokering, was half a leuca long, and half a one wide, and paid 5½*d.* gelt, and Tottenham was 5 furlongs long, and 4 broad, and paid 21½*d.* gelt, and there were 2 churches endowed with 20 acres. The two churches here mentioned, are the 2 moieties of this church, or rather Beaufoe's right in this church, and in that of Hokering.<sup>8</sup>

From Beaufoe it came to Hubert de Ric, from him to the Marshals, then to the Morleys. John de Shropham and Thomas his son, who held it under the Lord Morley, and in the 18th of Edward III. granted by fine to Richard de Bittering, one of the bailiffs of Norwich, and Margaret his wife, the manor of Todenham Faldgate, (as it was sometime called,) with the homages, services, &c.

In the 43d of that King, William Blickling, citizen of Norwich, and Margaret his wife, conveyed a moiety of it, with lands in Hokering, to Richard Rikkes of this town, from the heirs of Margaret.

From the Lords Morley it came to the Lovells, so to the Parkers Lord Morley, as may be seen at large in Hokering, &c.

Edward Parker Lord Morley, sold it in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, to Sir Thomas Lovell of East Herling; and Sir Charles Lovell was lord in the reign of King Charles I.

Thomas Berney, Esq. was in possession of it in 1658; Thomas Berney, Esq. in 1720, &c.

ST. CLEERE'S MANOR.

In 1436, John Green, citizen of Norwich, gave his manor of St. Cleere's to Alice his wife, and her heirs;<sup>9</sup> and by the will of Robert Norwich, senior, of Norwich, dated June 8, 1444, it appears that he was lord of it, and grants it to Alice his wife. Richard Arnolds of Shipdam, Esq. died possessed of in January 1472.

After this, it came to the Wottons. William Wotton, Esq. in the 19th of Henry VIII. was lord, and one of the Barons of the Exchequer, created by patent, July 10, ao. 13th of Henry VIII. He married Ann, daughter of Richard Southwell, of Wood-Rising.

John Wotton, Esq. was his son, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Berdwell, Esq. of West Herling; and by an inquisition taken September 16, in the 38th of Henry VIII. on the death of the said Elizabeth, at North Tudenham, February 26 past, widow of John Wotton, Esq. who died at Calais, in the service of the King, January 20, in the said year, before his wife, the jury find that they left issue, Anne, Wotton, their daughter and sole heir, aged 10 years; she had 3 husbands; first, Sir Thomas Wodehouse of Waxham; 2d, Henry Repps, Esq. of Mendham; 3d, Bassingh. Gawdy, and by him only issue.

After this, Edward Walpole of Houghton in Norfolk, Esq. was lord; John Gerrard, in 1575, is said to have got from this Edward (whom he caused to sell this manor) about 1000 marks, and to enter into Jesuitical exercise.<sup>1</sup>

On September 27, in the 39th of Elizabeth, Sir Anthony Ashley, James Hussy, and John Goodman, Esq. sold it to Calybut Walpole, Esq. brother of Edward, with 3 messuages, 60 acres of land, 40 of meadow, 80 of pasture, 10 of wood, 40 of heath, in this town, Hokering, &c. with rents and services; and in the 42d of that Queen, William Cobb of Sandringham, Esq. Edmund Bedingfeld of Ashill, Esq. and Anthony Bedingfeld of Westleton, in Suffolk, Esq. grant for 350*l.* paid to them, an annuity of 20*l.* per ann. out of it to Owen Godfrey, of Hindringham, Gent. and John Dix of Wicmere, by deed, dated March 28.

Thomas Skyppe, Esq. died seized of it in 1632.

The Mandestons had also an interest here. The heirs of Robert de Mandeston held in the 11th of Edward I. half a fee in this town, of the honour of Hokering, and Richard de Mandeston was possessed of it in the 28th of that King, as was Thomas de Mandeston, in the 20th of Edward III. and William de Mandeston in the 3d of Henry IV.

The church of Ely had a lordship in the time of the Confessor, and at the survey, a socman, with 2 carucates of land, 7 borderers, one mill, 3 acres of meadow, with a carucate and a half, valued at 20*s* but at the survey at 12*s.* and Ralph de Beaufoe held it then of the abbot of Ely.<sup>2</sup>

This was after held of the Bishop of Ely, and was joined to the capital manor here.

In this town, Hermerus de Ferrarijs had invaded or seized on 32 acres of land, a carucate and an half of meadow, valued at 5*s.*<sup>3</sup> held by 3 freemen, in King Edward's time, and were under protection at that time, being their absolute property; see in East Tudenham.

BELHOUSE-MANOR.

Here was a considerable manor in this town, besides what is already observed, belonging to the Earl Warren, who by his power had invaded or seized on the possessions of 4 freemen, who had in King Edward's time, half a carucate of land belonging to the fee of Frederick, and lived under the protection and commendation of his predecessor, with one borderer, 2 carucates and 2 acres of meadow, valued at 10s. and Winere held it of the Earl.*

This lordship extended into that of Shipdam, which belonged to this Earl, and the moiety of a church which is there mentioned in Domesday Book, was undoubtedly the church of North-Tudenham, which always belonged to this manor of Belhouse, and could not be in Shipdam, the patronage of that being in the church of Ely.

In the 13th of King John, Philip Gulafre impleaded Richard de Belhus and Maud his wife, for 2 carucates of land here, of which William Gulafre, his great grandfather, and Scurtetuna his wife, were seized in the time of Henry 1. who had issue, Roger, father of William, father of the claimant; Richard pleads that he held it in right of his wife, Maud, one of the daughters and coheirs of John Pouchard, son and heir of Sir William Pouchard; to this Philip replied, that the relict of Pouchard held it in dower, but on her death, Robert Tregoz, the capital lord, seized on it and held it; but to this Richard and Maud answered, that Tregoz granted it to them.

Sir William Pouchard was father of John, who married Alice, daughter and coheir of Fulk de Ogyry, lord of Gedney in Lincolnshire.

This John had 3 daughters and coheirs; Maud, the eldest, married Sir Richard de Belhus; Joan, another daughter and coheir, married Reyner de Burgh, father of Hubert de Burgo, lord chief justice of England; Alice, the 3d daughter and coheir, married Robert de Nerford, founder of the abbey of Prato or Prees, in North Creeke, castellan of Dover castle.

In the 24th of Henry III. the Lady Oliva, widow of John de Mareschall, lady of Hokering, and of this town, granted by fine the fishery at Witford, to Maud de Belhus.

Sir Richard de Belhouse was a commissioner to enquire after tenures, &c. in the 3d of Edward I. and Thomas de Belhouse, and Sarah his wife, in the 29th of that King, held the manor of Tudenhalf Faldgate, by the service of 20s. per ann. and half a fee.

Here was then a capital messuage, &c. valued at 11*l.* 17*s.* 2*d.* per ann. and Richard was found to be his son and heir, aged 9 years; he was also lord of West Bitney, Bodney, &c.

In the 36th of Edward III. Sir Richard Belhouse died, and left 3 daughters and coheirs; Emme, married to Sir Peter L'Estrange, lord of Fransham Parva; Maud, to William Bozun, of Wyssingsel, Esq. and Joan to James de Holveston; though some records say that Joan, or one of these daughters and coheirs, was married to ——— Oldhall, by whom he had Edmund, father of Sir William Oldhall, who presented to this church in 1446, as lord of some part of Belhouse manor, which proves a relation to Sir Richard Belhouse.

By an indenture, dated on Thursday next after the feast of St. James the Apostle, in the 49th of Edward III. between Peter, prior of Pentney, and the convent on one part, John Bozun of Wyssingset, son and heir of William, it appears that John had given a 40*l.* bond to the prior (but to be void if the said prior and his successors should enjoy the said manor of Bodney) and to Robert Trayle, parson of Barton St. Andrews, John de Dunton, and Thomas de Brytlingham, and their heirs, the manor of Belhouse Hall, in North Tudenham, with the moiety of the advowson, and not be impleaded thereof, by John or his heirs.

In the said year, Sir Peter Strange and Enme his wife, James de Holveston and Joan his wife, conveyed to Robert Trayle, &c. this manor, with a moiety of the advowson of the church, and they, as trustees, settled it on the said priory.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the prior held it by half a fee of the Lord Morley, as then said.

On the Dissolution of the said priory, it came to the Crown, and was granted on July 21, in the 5th of Elizabeth, to Humphrey Shelton, and Eds Hunt; and after this, it was in the Lord Morley, who presented in 1570; and in 1582, in Edward, Lord Morley, who in the said year had a præcipe to deliver it to Thomas Newman, and George Aglionby, with the advowson of the church.

In 1621, Thomas Skipp, Esq. was lord and patron.

This family lived at Worsted, in the reign of Henry VII. John Skipp, D.D. Bishop of Hereford, in Henry the Eighth's time, was probably born there. Robert Skipp, of the said town, had a confirmation of these arms, from Robert Cook, Clarencieux, July 24, 1577; azure, a lion rampant, between three trefoils, argent; the crest, out of a crown, or, an unicorn's head, coupeè, argent, attired or, collared and chained.

By an inquisition taken, Thomas Skipp was found to die May 19, 1632, seized of this manor and advowson, and by Susan his wife, daughter of Sir Edward Blevethasset, of Norwich, had Thomas Skyppe, Esq. who married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Edward Speucer, of Rendlesham in Suffolk, living in 1664, father of Thomas Skyppe, Esq. who died in September, 1681.

On his death, Martin Skyppe, Gent. was lord, and presented in 1687, and was buried in 1696, June 11; he had by Battina his wife, daughter of Edward Skyppe, Gent. sons and daughters; she died in 1704.

John Skyppe, Gent. son of Martin, sold this lordship to Henry Rynghale, attorney, at Aylsham, from whom it came to — Evans the present lord.

The tenths were 7*l.* 10*s.* Deducted 2*l.* 10*s.*

The temporalities of Norwich priory were 10*d.*; of Wirmegey, 40*d.*; of Castleacre 13*s.* 4*d.*; of St. Olaves, of Heringflete, 2*s.* 11*d.*

THE CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Mary, and consisted of two medietyes, one in the patronage of Beaufoe's manor, the other of that of Belhous. In the reign of Edward I. — Marshall was patron, and the rector of that mediety had then a manse, and 20 acres, and Sir Richard Belhouse, patron of the other; the rector of that had a manse, and 30 acres; John was rector of one mediety valued at 12 marks; and Richard of the other, valued also at 12 marks.

The prior of Rumburgh had a portion of tithe valued at 2 marks. Peter-pence 12*d.* The present valor of both the medietyes, being united, is 10*l.* 5*s.* 5½*d.*

The church is a single pile, without any isle, covered with lead, and has a square tower, with one bell; the chancel is covered with tiles.

WESTFIELD.

ALAN Earl of Richmond, was lord of this town, of which the church of Ely, was deprived, who held it in the time of the Confessor, and Facion was enfeoffed of it, by that Earl; there belonged to it a carucate of land, with 8 villains and 8 borderers, one carucate in demean, and 2 carucates and 3 acres of meadow, of the tenants, with a mill, valued then at 60s. at the survey at 40s. it was 6 furlongs long, and 6 broad, and paid 6*d.* gelt.<sup>5</sup>

This Facion was also enfeoffed by the said Earl of the lordship of Nerford; how long he or his descendants held it does not appear.

WHINBURGH.

HERMERUS DE FERRARIIS was lord of this town, by grant of the Conqueror, on the expulsion of Turchetel, who possessed it in the reign of King Edward, when there were 3 carucates of land, and an acre and half, held by 9 villains, and 8 borderers, with 8 servi, 4 carucates in demean, and 3 among the tenants, &c. 16 acres of meadow, a mill, 2 runci, 8 cows 47 swine, 100 sheep, lacking 2, 60 goats, a church endowed with 6 acres, valued with Gerceston, at 6*l.* but at the survey at 7*l.* and was measured with that town, and joined in payment of the gelt.

Also Hermerus had a socman with 52 acres of meadow, and a carucate and a half valued at 16s. &c. but after at 8s.<sup>4</sup>

From Hermerus, who was lord of Wirmegey, it came, as may be there seen at large, to the Lords Bardolf, lords of the honour of Wirmegey; and in the 18th of King John, Hubert de Burgo, chief justice of England, had that King's protection for this manor and that of Stow Bardolf, in Norfolk, granted him at Lynn, on October 9: he married Beatrir the widow of Dodo Bardolf, lord of it in her right.

In the 38th year of Henry III. William Lord Bardolf impleaded Thomas le Parker of Saham, &c. for entering his park, and taking his beasts, and for fishing in his ponds here, and taking his fish; the sheriff returned that it was in the liberty of the Bishop of Ely, and therefore a non omittas was awarded; and in the said year William had free warren in his demean land; and his park is said to contain 500 acres of land.

In the 4th of Edward I. the rent of assise of the free tenants was 25s. 9d. that of the villains 15*l.* 14s. 3d. 140 hens, and 700 eggs.

There was a messuage with 85 acres of land, 13 of meadow and pasture, with a park, and a windmill, and paid 2s. per ann. to the Bishop of Ely's manor of Shiplam.

In the 15th of Edward I. the Lord Bardolf claimed view of frank pledge, assise of bread and beer, a weekly mercate on Thursday, and a fair yearly, on the vigil, the day of St. Simon and Jude, and the three following days.

I find, that in the 12th of the said King, he claimed a grant for a mercate, on Wednesday, and a fair on the eve and day of St. Margaret, and the day after, which I suppose set aside the aforementioned one.

Hugh Lord Bardolf held it in the 34th of Edward I. and paid castle guard to Norwich, 7s. per month.

John Lord Bardolf was found to hold it in capite, as part of the barony of Wirmegey, in the 45th of Edward III. and to have a water-mill, with a pool called Le Ley, and a fishery called Le Motte.

This lordship being thus a member of the honour of Wirmegey, had always the same lords.

In the 4th of Henry VIII. on June 23d. it was granted with the advowson of the church, late Francis Lord Lovell's, to John Carr, Esq. who conveyed it in the said year, to John Burney, and Ralph Berney, &c.

After this, it came to Sir Richard Southwell, knight, who possessed it in 1544, and it was by them conveyed to the Cranes, of Wood Rysing, then to the Claytons, about 1662, and William Clayton, Esq. in 1758, was lord and patron.

The town gave name to the family of De Whinburgh, of Whinburgh. Henry Whinburgh, Gent. by his will, dated the 31st of October, 1544, had lands in this town, Yaxham, Gerveston, Reymerston, and Thuxton.<sup>2</sup> Ann his wife, survived him, by whom he had James his son.

John Whinburgh, Gent. of Norfolk, was lord of Benacre in Suffolk in 1577. Their arms were per fess indented, argent and sable, three bears passant, counterchanged.

In the 4th of Edward III. Roger, parson of Lucham, conveyed by fine to Osceline de Quinbergh and Elizabeth his wife, lands here, in Gerveston, Reymerston, Westfield, &c.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and was valued at 11 marks, paid Peter-pence 16d. The present valor is 6l. 18s. 6d. ob.

In the reign of Edward I. the rector had a manse and 30 acres of land.

In the church were the arms of Whinburgh, and azure, on a bend cottised, argent, three martlets, gules, Malherbe.

WOOD RYSING,

So called to distinguish it from Rysing near Lynn; but at the survey, occurs by the name of Rysing only, and takes its name, as seated on watery meadows: William Earl Warren had a grant of it on the expulsion of Alveva, a Saxon gentlewoman, who held it in King Edward's reign, with Feltwell, Wilton, Grimston, &c. all which the said Earl obtained of the grant of the Conqueror.

This lordship then consisted of a carucate, with one in demean, 16 villains, 6 borderers, and 5 carucates of the tenants, and 15 acres of meadow, paunage for 200 swine, &c. and there were then 8 freemen who had 3 carucates, &c. with 6 swine, 7 cows and one runcus, &c. 30 goats, valued then at 40s. at the survey at 60s.

It was 8 furlongs long, and 6 broad, and paid 15d. gelt.<sup>3</sup>

In this town also Alveva had a carucate in demean belonging to her manor of Feltwell, and accounted for there in the hundred of Grimshoe, also 2 soeman, with 20 acres, held by the said Earl. See in Feltwell.

The Earl Warren had also a carucate in demean, and 2 soemen, with 20 acres, &c. here.

This town gave name to a family who were lords of it, and early enfeoffed of it under the Earl Warren.

In the 12th of Henry III. John de Rysing conveyed by fine to Roger de Rysing, a moiety of this lordship, Alice, mother of Roger, appears then to have right of dower in it; and William de Rysing, in the 26th of that King, was impleaded by Emma, widow of Roger de Rysing, for right of dower, which she recovered here and in Bergh, &c.

Roger, son of William de Wode Rysing, granted in the 14th of Edward I. to John, son of Gerard de Reedham, a messuage, with lands here; and in the 13th of the said King, William impleaded Cecilia, late wife of Gerard de Reedham, for a messuage, one carucate, and 6 acres of wood, as his right.

In the 9th of Edward II. William de Rysing was returned to have a lordship; and in the 18th of Edward III. John de Enepol and Joan his wife, Henry Broom of Reedham and Maud his wife, Thomas Pykel and Joan his wife, John Wegge and Alice his wife, sold their right in this lordship, with lands, &c. in Wichingham St. Mary, and St. Faith's, to Will. de Wichingham, quit of the heirs of John, Maud, Joan, and Alice.

The said William had conveyed to him by fine, in the 32d of that King, the 8th part of the manor of Woderising, by Roger Hakun of Cantele, and Joan his wife, Edmund de Whitton of Reedham, and Isabel his wife, John Grigge of South Walsham, and Catharine his wife, quit of their heirs.

It is probable that this William de Wichingham, who was lord of Wichingham, a judge, and a knight, married an heiress of Roger or William de Rysing.

In the 32d year of Edward I. Richard, son of John de Woderising, held of Isabell, late wife of Roger de Woderising, 6 acres of land, by fealty, and 3s. rent per ann.; and in the 36th of King Edward III. Richard de Rysing and Isabell his wife, granted lands in this town, Bergh, Hengham, with divers natives, (slaves,) and all their sequels, to the said William and Margaret his wife.

Richard de Rysing and Isabel his wife, John Taylour of Witchingham St. Faiths, and Julian his wife, John Lovetou and Alice his wife, John Falman of Baldeswell, and Margaret his wife, Thomas Wyche, and Margaret his wife, granted several lands and meadows, with 5s. rent here, &c. to Richer de Wichingham and his heirs, with the bouages and services, in the 44th of the said King, which Richer was son of Sir William, and Margaret his wife.

In the 2d year of Henry VI. Nicholas Wichingham, Esq. was lord.

About the beginning of the reign of King Edward IV. it came to Richard Southwell, Esq. by the marriage of Amy, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Edmund Wichingham,<sup>4</sup> lord of this manor.

He was son of Robert Southwell, Esq. by Cecilia, his wife, daughter of Thomas Sharington, Esq. of Cranworth, as the pedigree here following sets forth. Richard was escheator of Norfolk and Suffolk, in the 38th of Henry VI. in the 4th of Edward IV. he was made by letters patents, marshal of the Exchequer, and in the said year had a grant of 20 marks per ann. on the aulnage of Suffolk, and is styled late servant to our well beloved cousin John Duke of Norfolk; and was living in 1466, executor then to John Brocher, rector.

SOUTHWELL'S PEDIGREE.

(a) This John, as the family pedigree sets forth, married a daughter of ——— Symon, alias Prude, who bore - - - -, three mullets of six points. In the 33d of Henry VI. it appears that William Bonds

&c. conveyed to John Southwell, and Alice his wife, the manors of Elgh and Pakefield, in Suffolk, and was (as is said) his 2d wife, probably daughter and coheir of Sir Edmund Berry, and relict of Sir Thomas Bardolf. In the 3d of Edward IV. Edmund Bardolf, and Alice Gryce, daughter of William Gryce, had lands conveyed to them in East Tottenham, by John Southwell, and Alice his wife, for life; remainder to John and Alice, and the heirs of Alice.

In the 29th of Henry VI. he was member of parliament for Lewes in Sussex, and lived at Barham-Hall in Suffolk.

(b) Robert was also lord of Barham-Hall in Suffolk, and married Cecilia, daughter of Thomas Sherington, Esq. of Cranworth, in Norfolk, and is buried in the church of Barham, with this inscription on his gravestone,

Robert Southwell, Esq. apprentice of the law, justice of the peace, and Cecill his wife, daughter of Thomas Sherington, Esq. here buried, which Robert died 27 September, 1514.

And in a window of Barham Hall, Southwell, argent, three cinquefoils, gules, impaling Sherington and Swathing, quarterly, as in Cranworth.

(c) Sir Robert married Ursula, daughter and heir of Sir John Bohun, of Midhurst in Sussex, Esq. and died s. p. He was made seneschal of all the honours and manors forfeited to the King, by Edmund de la Pole in Norfolk and Suffolk or by the Duchess his mother, Duchess of Suffolk, ao. 19th Henry VII. and in the following year, by patent, chief butler of England.

In the 4th of Henry VIII. he was made supervisor of the King's lands, and castles, by act of parliament, and receiver general of them: he also married Ursula, a 2d wife, daughter of Sir Philip Calthorp, but died s. p. on the last day of March, in the 6th of Henry VIII. seized of this manor, held of the duchy of Lancaster, and left Richard son of his brother Francis, his heir, aged 10 years.—Bohun bore or, a cross, azure.

(d) Francis Southwell, Esq. brother to Sir Robert, was auditor of the Exchequer.

He married Dorothy, daughter and coheir of William Tendring, Esq. son of William, the son of Thomas Tendring, Esq. by Agnes, daughter and heir of Holbroke, by whom he had Sir Richard and Sir Robert Southwell.

(e) Sir Richard, eldest son of Francis, was a great favourite of King Henry VIII. one of the visitors appointed by him of the monasteries in Norfolk, on their suppression; of the privy council to that King, Edward VI. and Queen Mary; master of the ordnance, and armory, and one of the executors to Henry VIII.; high steward of the duchy of Lancashire.

In the reign of Queen Mary, he made a remarkable speech (1554) in the house of lords, on that Queen's being with child, and an act of parliament thereon passed, about the government of the realm, and the person of the child, in case of that Queen's decease.<sup>5</sup>

It appears by the account of Ambrose Jermyn, Esq. in the 37th of Henry VIII. that he was lord of the following manors:

*Woodrising, Cramworth, Butler's, or Boteteur's in Letton; Whinburgh cum membris, Westfield, Skoulton, Carbroke, Woodhall, Carbroke Magna, or the preceptory manor, with the impropriate rectory, &c. He married first, Thomasine, daughter of Sir Robert Darcy, Knt. of Danbury in Essex, by whom he had an only daughter, Elizabeth, married to George Heneage, Esq.; his 2d wife was Mary, daughter of Thomas Darcy of Danbury aforesaid, by whom he had Richard Darcy, alias Southwell, of Horsham St. Faith's, in Norfolk, Esq. and Thomas Darcy, alias Southwell, Esq. of Morton in Norfolk; but they being born in the time of his first lady, when Mary, (whom he afterwards married) was his mistress, and so illegitimate.<sup>6</sup>

Great part of his inheritance, with this lordship, came to his nephew, Thomas Southwell, son of Sir Robert Southwell, by Margaret his wife, daughter and sole heir of Thomas Nevill, 4th son of George Lord Abergavenny.

Mary his widow, was living in 1659. This Robert built here a large and splendid seat, with a park adjoining, where Queen Elizabeth was entertained in 1578.

(f) Sir Robert Southwell, younger brother of Sir Richard aforesaid, was master of the rolls July 1, av. 33d of Henry VIII. lived at Mere-worth in Kent, and was also chancellor of the court of augmentations, and high sheriff of Kent, in the reign of Queen Mary: he married Margaret, daughter and sole heir of Sir Thomas Nevill; in 1568, she was the wife of William Plumbe, Esq.

He was buried in the chancel of Mereworth church, and died October 28, in the first of Elizabeth, Thomas his son then aged 21.

(g) Thomas Southwell, Esq. son and heir of Sir Robert, and Margaret his wife, inherited this manor, as legal heir to his uncle, Sir Robert, and married 3 wives; first, Margaret, daughter of Sir Henry Jeruegan of Cossey, who died s. p. his 2d, was Mary, daughter of Sir Rice Mansell, of Glamorganshire in Wales, by whom he had his son and heir, Sir Robert; and his 3d wife was Nazareth, daughter of Sir John Newton, of Hawtrey in Somersetshire, by whom he had a daughter, Elizabeth, married to Sir Barentyne Molyus, of Clapcot by Wallingford in Berkshire; he died in 1567, and Nazareth his widow married Thomas Lord Paget.

(h) Sir Robert Southwell, son of Thomas, was rear admiral in the famous engagement with the Spanish fleet, in 1588.

He married the Lady Elizabeth, daughter of Charles Howard Earl of Nottingham.

At his death, on October 12, in 1599, Sir Tho. was his son and heir; his widow married ——— Steward Earl of Clanrickard in Scotland; and on June 10, 1605, she had an annuity granted of 200*l.* per ann. on the decease of the Lady Elizabeth Leighton.

(i) Sir Thomas Southwell, on the death of his father, was about 5 months old; he married first, Margaret, daughter of ——— Fuller; and to his 2d wife, Mary, daughter of ——— Eden, LL. D. she died s. p. but by his first wife, he left 4 daughters and coheirs; ——— Sarah, married to William Peacock of ——— in Essex, Esq. Eli-zabeth, to John Middleton, of Hangleton in Sussex, Esq. Frances, to William Bemboe of London, Gent. and Penelope, to William, son and heir of Arthur Levet, of Petworth in Sussex, Gent.

Sir Thomas died in 1643, having wasted most of estate, and sold this lordship to Sir Francis Crane.

In the 2d of James I. the rent of assise of this manor was 12*l.* 15*s.* 7*d.* ob. of the demean land, 93*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.*; perquisites of court 58*s.* 8*d.* The whole rent was 191*l.* 12*s.* 3*d.* ob. David Hughes being then receiver general of Thomas Southwell's estate.

This family of Southwell, seems to take their name from the town of Southwell in Nottinghamshire.

Sir John de Southwell had a patent dated at Rennes in Britany, June 7, ao. 13, of Edward I. to be seneschal of the dutchy of Gascoign in France; and on June 2, in the 17th of that King, had a grant of the castle of Burdeaur, for life, for his great services, and for rendering himself an hostage, for the liberty of Charles King of Sicily, then a prisoner in Arragon.

In the 20th of that King, he was sent with Nicholas de Segrave and Osbert de Spalding, as judges, to hear and adjust complaints in the isle of Man, and was wrote to by the King, in his 22d year, to attend and assist him in the recovery of Gascoign, which had revolted.

John Southwell, in the 22d of Edward III. was made chief officer for the King, in the county of Cork in Ireland, for life, on the attaiuder of Thomas Earl of Desmond, with power to make a deputy, for as much as he was always attendant on the King's person.

In the 34th of the said King, John de Southwell, was D'ni. Regis clericus, probably clerk of the King, and had a pension of 10 marks per ann.

Richard Southwell, was high sheriff of Kent in the 48th of Edward III. and called Historicus Anglus by Pitt,<sup>7</sup> and Nicholas Southwell was groom of the bedchamber to King Rich. II. and sent by him in his 11th year, to the King of France, with credentials.

brought into England the manufacture of curious tapestry, settled at Mortlack in Surry; gave 500*l.* to the rebuilding of St. Paul's church, in London, added 4 poor knights to the number of those in Windsor castle, with 40*l. per ann.* to each of them.

He married Mary, daughter of David, and sister of Sir Peter de la Maire, and died at Paris June 6, 1636, lord of this manor.

He was succeeded by Richard Crane, Esq. his brother, created baronet March 20, 1642, who married Mary, daughter of William Lord Widdrington: he lived here, and died in 1645; his will is dated September 20, in the said year.

By Mary, daughter of ——— Bond, his adopted heir, and niece, it came to William Crane, Esq. son of John Crane of Loughton, in Buckinghamshire, clerk of the kitchen to King James and King Charles I. by Mary, daughter of Sir Thomas Tresham, of Rushton in Northamptonshire.

About the year 1668, this William and Mary Crane, conveyed this lordship to Gabriel Bedle, citizen and stationer, of London, executor of John Bedle of London, Esq.

Edward Bedell, Esq. was lord in 1682, probably nephew of John aforesaid, and son of William Bedell, by Anne his wife, daughter of ——— Brown, governor of Nimeguen in Holland, son of Sylvester Bedell of Molesworth in Huntingdonshire, by Anne his wife, daughter of James Pickering of Titchmarsh in Northamptonshire, Esq.

In 1681, Edward Bedell, Esq. presented to this church: he married Arabella, daughter of George Porter of Whitehall, in Westminster.

In August, 1715, George Bedell, Esq. died lord, and unmarried, and left 2 sisters and coheirs, Mrs. Bringlow and Mrs. Burgess, who sold this lordship to Pinkney Weyland, Esq. of London, who is lord and patron.

REEDHAM'S MANOR.

John, son of Gerard de Reedham, had a lordship in the 14th of Edward I. and John de Reedham was returned to be lord in the 9th of Edward II. and in the 9th of that King, settled it on Walter and Thomas his sons. Afterwards it was united to Wood-Rising manor. Sir Guy de Botetourt's lordship of Cranworth also extended herein, and he was returned as lord in the 9th of Edward II.

Reedham's probably was what the King held at the survey, and in Oeseley, viz. 3 borderers, with 12 acres of land, valued in Hingham, and after united to Woodrising manor.<sup>8</sup>

The church of Wood-Rising is dedicated to St. Nicholas. In the reign of Edward I. the rector had a manse, with 2 acres, and it was valued at 12 marks. Peter-pence 8*d.*

William, 2d Earl Warren, granted the patronage of it to the priory of Lewes, and a portion of tithe belonged to it, valued at 10*s. per ann.*

Roger, son of William de Woderising, sued the prior of Lewes, in the 8th of Edward I. for the right of patronage; the prior pleads that Roger, grandfather of the aforesaid Roger, gave it by deed to the priory; it appeared that Richard de Rysing had confirmed the prior's right, in the first of Richard I. and Roger de Rysing, in the time of Pandolf Bishop of Norwich, and that Roger, son of William, remitted to John de Avinion, the prior all his right.

Y A X H A M,

IN Domesday Book is wrote Iachesham, taking its name from its being near to a morass or bog, as Yaxley in Suffolk and Huntingdonshire. Roger Bigot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, had a grant of a lordship here from the Conqueror, with 30 acres of land, of which Aldin, a priest, and a freeman, was deprived; 8 borderers belonged to it, with a carucate of land, &c. 4 acres of meadow valued at 10s. per ann.

It was 7 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 20*d.* gelt.<sup>2</sup>

Ralph, son of Walter, held it under Bigot; the said Ralph held also Wissingset, Shotesham, and Watton, under him.

Roger Bigot held also, soon after the conquest, of the abbot of Ely, 14 soemen in this town, with 90 acres of land, 2 carucates and 4 acres of meadow, but at the survey, he held this of the King, and it was then valued at 20s. so that it appears both the Conqueror and Roger, made no scruple of robbing the church of their possessions.

The family of De Curzun or Curson, was early enfeoffed of this lordship, which Ralph de Curzun was lord of in the first of King John, and held of the Earl of Norfolk. In the 8th of Henry III. Ralph Picot granted by fine, a carucate and an half in this town, to Robert Curzun, and in the 35th of Edward I. Roger de Curson held one fee of Roger Bigot Earl of Norfolk.

Richard de Thurston, &c. settled it by fine (as trustee) on Roger de Curzon and Beatrix his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, in the first of Edward II. and in the 12th of that King, he had a charter for free warren; one of the same name was lord in the 20th of Edward III.

In the 11th of Richard II. Thomas Curson of Folsham, son of William, released his right in two parts of this lordship, and those of Gerberge and Gelham, in Wode-Norton, to William Curson of Berford, and his heirs, and William Gerberge, son of Sir Roger, granted to Alice, widow of Sir William, in the 13th of that King, an annuity of 10 marks, out of this manor.

William Gerberge was lord in the 3d of Henry IV. John Curson is said to hold a 2d part of it in the 2d of Henry VI.

In the 11th of Henry VI. Henry Sturmer and Catherine his wife, and John Docking, had an interest in it.

In the 15th of that King, Johu Crane, Esq. of Wodevorton, and Alice his wife, conveyed to Sir William Oldhall a moiety of the manor of Ilneys, and 2 parts of the manor of Yaxham.

Sir John Curson of Billingford, by his last will, dated January 10, in the 11th of Edward IV. orders his trustees if they should recover his right in the 3d part of the manor of Yaxham, to settle it on Edward, his youngest son.

This lordship of Yaxham was about this time divided into 4 parts, or manors; first, Curson's, sold to Henry Sturmer, whose wife sold it to John Hastings, who gave it to his son, Robert, and Sir John Curson claimed a right herein; 2d, Gerberge's manor, of which Hugh Gerberge was lord; this was divided into two parts, Crane held one, and sold it to Henry Sturmer, from whom it came to Hastings, and John Docking had the other part, who sold it to William Paston, Esq. 3d, Ilneys manor; this was also divided into 2 parts, Crane had one, and sold it to Sturmer, and he to Hastings, and John Docking had the other part, who sold it to Paston.

John Hastings, son and heir of Sir Edward, John Heydon, William Stather, &c. were querents in a fine, and Roger Drury and Ann his wife, deforcients, of the manors of Yaxham, Cursons, Gerberge, and Ilneys, conveyed to Stather, in the 16th of Edward IV. from the heirs of Anne; she was daughter and heir of Henry Sturmer, and had also Southall manor in Geyst, and that of Besthorp, of her own inheritance.

About 1640, ——— Hardy was lord; his son, ——— Hardy, rector of Elsing, inherited it, and sold it to William Murrall, yeoman, of Sparham, lord of it in 1713.

In the reign of Philip and Mary, it paid 7*s.* per ann. to the see of Norwich, formerly due to the penitentiary of the abbey of St. Bennet's of Holm.

Hermerus de Ferrarijs had 4 socmen, which belonged to his predecessor, (with 20 acres of land,) in King Edward's reign, a carucate, now half a one, and one acre of meadow, then valued at 4*s.* at the survey at 2*s.*<sup>3</sup>

Hermerus was ancestor of the Lords Bardolf, barons of Wirmegey.

In the 58th of Henry III. the Lord Bardolf had a grant of free warren.

In the 9th of Edward II. Robert Atte Haghe held here, in Shipdam, and Letton, a quarter of a fee 120 acres of land, with 3 tenants, and a moiety of the Rode fee, of the honour of Wirmegey, and in the 5th of Henry VI. Robert Fishpool held the same.

In the 58th of Henry VIII. Sir Richard Southwell held it, and so came to the Cranes and Claytons.

Alan Earl of Richmond, had 2 socmen, with 24 acres of land, and half a carucate, belonging to his manor of Costesey, or Cossey, under which it was valued, of which Earl Guert was lord in King Edward's time.*

The Lord of Cossey held it in the 41st of Henry III. and the Bar-dolfs refused to pay suit of court to the lord of the hundred.

There were also in this hundred some towns when Domesday Book was made, which are now, and have been for some centuries past, destroyed, viz.

Flockthorp, now included in Hardingham; Calveley, now included in Reymerston; also Thorp, which is now included in Shipdam.

The town of Bicherston, or Boxton, now an hamlet to Bernham Broom in Fourhou hundred, is placed in Domesday Book in the hundred of Mitford, and was part of the invasions of Hermerus de Ferrarijs.

“In Bicherstuna i lib. viii ac. comd. tantu' val. vid.”

Appethorp, part of this town, is placed under the hundred of Fourhou, and part in this hundred of Mitford, and was of the lordship of Alan Earl of Richmond, and before of Earl Guert belonging to his great manor of Costesey.

Baskeney was also a town in this hundred, belonging to Alan Earl of Richmond.

“In Baskenea xii ac. t're. i soc. ejusd. (Guert.) in e'od. p'tio.”

Where this stood is also uncertain.

Oeselea was another town, where, and in Rising in this hundred, the Conqueror had 3 borderers, who held 12 acres of land, valued in Hingham; where this stood is uncertain.

SMETHDON HUNDRED,

CALLLED in the Book of Domesday Smetheduna, and Methoduna, that is an hundred with a mixture of meadows and hills. At the survey Smethdon contained only the towns of Hitcham, Holm Hunstanton, Ingaldesthorp, Ringstead Magna and Parva, Snetesham, Sedgford, Thoruham, and Gnatyngdou;— Brancaster, Stanhow, Prenge, Sharnburn, the three Birchams, Berwick Magna and Parva, Choseley Southmere, and Docking, making another hundred, called the hundred of Docking.

King William II. gave it with the hundred and half of Fredebruge and Docking hundred, and the manor of Snetesham, in this hundred, to William de Albini, his pincerna, (or butler,) being part of the possessions of Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury, (a great favourite of King Edward's) and on his deprivation was granted by the Conqueror to Odo Bishop of Baieux, his half brother, who, on his rebellion against his nephew, King William II. was deprived of it, (as may be seen in Snetesham,) and confirmed on William de Albini.

The two hundreds were united thus, and in this family and descendants it continued, who were Earls of Sussea and Arundel. Issue male failing in Hugh Earl of Arundel, Isabel his countess was found to hold them in dower, and to have many royal privileges belonging to them, viz. wreck at sea, assise, gallows, return of writs, &c. (except in the liberties of the abbot of Ramsey) in the reign of Henry III.

On the death of the said Countess, it came to the Lords Montalt (of whom see in Rising,) by the marriage of Cecily, one of the sisters and coheirs of Hugh Earl of Arundel, &c. aforesaid, with Roger Lord Montalt. And in the 15th of Edward I. Roger Lord Montalt, his grandson, was lord; and the hundred was found to be worth 12*l.* per ann. and to pay 40*s.* per ann. quitrent to the Crown, and to have besides the above named privileges, those of infangtheof, &c. view of frank-pledge, weif, &c.

After this, Robert Lord Montalt, and the Lady Emma his wife, (having no issue,) settled it on Isabel, Queen Dowager of England, in the reign of Edward III. and so coming in to the Crown, the said King granted it June 25, in his 46th year, to John of Gannet, his son, Duke of Lancaster, and thereupon was made part of the duchy.

About the year 1700, Mr. Cobb was lord of it; and Mr. Robert Cobb, conveyed it to Nicholas Stylenau, Esq. in which family it continues, held, as I take it, of the aforesaid duchy.

The hundred court is said by some to have been kept at a place in the parish of Bircham Magna, called the Barrow, which is diked round, except 20 yards in the south-east side, for the better ascent; though I find it kept at Frenge, uo. 36th of Henry VIII.

It is probable, as there were 2 hundreds anciently, Docking and Smethdon, so there might be two distinct places for them.

BIRCHAM TOFTS.

THIS town occurs at the survey by the name of Stofstan, or Stony Tofts. One freeman held it under Stigand the Archbishop, with 4 carucates of land, in the reign of the Confessor, when there were 2 carucates in demean, &c. 8 villains, and 5 borderers, and was valued with Snetesham, his capital lordship; it was one leuca long, and 4 furlongs broad, and paid 10*l.* to a 20*s.* gelt,<sup>1</sup> and on the expulsion of Stigand, was granted to Odo Bishop of Baieux, whom we find to enjoy it with Snetesham, at the survey.

Odo rebelling (as has been observed) against King William II. forfeited it, and that King granted it to William de Albini, his butler, whose posterity enjoyed it; but Hugh de Albini, the last heir male of this family, Earl of Susser and Arundel, dying without issue, in 1242, on the division of his inheritance, between his 4 sisters and coheirs, this lordship came to Robert Lord Tateshale, by Mabel his wife, the eldest sister.

A family who took their name from this village was early enfeoffed herein. Roger de Tofts was lord in the 11st of Henry III. and in the 3d of Edward I. was found to hold it of Robert de Tateshale, as was Roger de Tofts, in the 9th of Edward II. and Nicholas de Tofts settled it in the 17th of the said King, by fine, on Richard de Tofts for life; remainder to Thomas Newton and Catherine his wife.

In the 20th of Edward III. Thomas de Brokesburne, and Catherine his wife, appears by the inquisitions to hold 2 parts of a fee; on the death of Eve late wife of Robert Lord Tateshale, she held it in dower; and in capite, in the 24th of Edward III. and Adam de Clifton, John de Orreby, and Robert, son of William Bernack, were found to be heirs of it.

Sir Ralph de Poley, Knt. &c. as trustees, settled it in the 36th of the said King, on Sir John Vernoun and Catherine his wife, in tail, and on John and Hamon his sons.

After this, a moiety of this lordship was in Thomas, son of Robert Lovell, who granted it by fine, in the 9th of Richard II. to Roger Davy, and Alice his wife, who died seized of it, as by the escheat rolls, in the 18th of the said reign.

In the 8th of Henry IV. William Chaffere, and Alice his wife, (probably late widow of Davy), convey it with the advowson of the church; from the heirs of Alice it came to Sir John de Ingaldesthorp, Knt. Sir Henry Everard, Hamon and John L'Estrange, Esq.

After this, William Wotton was lord; and in the 4th of Henry VIII. it was settled on Sir Robert Southwell, and Alice his wife, and their heirs, who in the 6th of the said King, was found to die possessed of it, held of Sir William Knevet, by knight's service.

This Sir Robert Southwell was of Woodrising, Norfolk, and master of the rolls; he jointured Alice, or ———, his 2d wife, daughter of Sir Philip Calthorp, in 300 acres of land, 10 of meadow, 500 of pasture, 2 of wood, and 5*l.* rent per ann. in this town, South Wotton, Bagthorp, &c. by dying without issue, Richard Southwell, son of his brother Francis Southwell, was his heir, who was afterwards a knight, and lord in the 38th of Henry VIII.

In the 42d of Elizabeth, Richard Southwell, senior, Esq. conveyed to his son, Richard, the reversion of this manor, held by Thomas Southwell his brother, for life.

After this, it was in the Cornwallis's, and Sir Charles Cornwallis was lord in 1603.

In 1626, Sir Charles le Gross possessed it, and was held of the hundred of Smethdon, and so of the duchy of Lancaster, in free soccage; the fines are said to be at the will of the lord, and that no dower belonged to any of the lands held of it.

Tenths 4*l.* 13*s.* Deducted 13*s.* 4*d.*

THE CHURCH is dedicated to St. Andrew. The rector had in the reign of Edward I. a mansion, with 14 acres of land, and was valued at 10 marks, and the prior of Canterbury had a portion of tithes valued at 4*s.* per ann. The present valor is 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and is discharged.

BIRCHAM NEWTON,

Called in the Book of Domesday, Nivetuna, or Newton, that is not a town now founded, but a town nigh, or contiguous to some water, or river; the additional name of Bircham was afterwards made use of to distinguish it from other Newtons in this county. Bircham signifies a town on the hills; Ber or Bur, is also the name of a river in Essex, as Bursted.

Tove, a freeman, was lord of it before the Conquest, but being deprived of it, the Conqueror gave it to Ralph de Bellofago, or Beaufoe; in Tove's time 2 carucates of land, 4 villains, 3 borderers, and 3 servi, belonged to it, &c. there was one carucate in demean, and 4 among the tenants; and 11 freemen held one carucate and an half, with 11 acres and 2 half of land, also 4 carucates among the tenants.

There was a church endowed with 20 acres of land, valued (the land) at 16*l.* per ann. these freemen held under Eudo,<sup>3</sup> before it was granted to Ralph, and Stigund had the soc, valued before the Conquest at 60*s.* per ann. at the survey at 5*l.* per ann.

The whole was half a leuca in length, and half in breadth, and paid 20*l.* to a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>4</sup>

Ralph de Bellofago or Beaufoe, left an only daughter, Agnes, who on her marriage with Hubert de Rie, castellan of Norwich castle, brought it into the family. Hubert de Rie, a descendant, and probably grandson of the aforesaid Hubert de Rie, baron of Rie, dying sans issue male, left 2 daughters and coheirs, in the 8th of Henry II. who inherited it.

Aliva married John Marshall, (nephew of William Marshall Earl of Pembroke), whom King John made Earl-Marshal of Ireland: and Isabel, who married first, Jeffrey de Chester, and afterwards Roger de Cressi.

Hubert de Rie gave it to William de Kerdeston, to be held of his barony of Rie.

In the 2d of King John, John Marshall, and Aliva, with Jeffrey Chester, and Isabell his wife, confirmed it by fine, to Roger de Kerdeston, to be held by half a knight's fee, at which time it appears to be called Newton only; and Fulco de Kerdeston, on the marriage of King Henry the Third's sister to the Emperor, held the 4th part of a fee.<sup>5</sup>

William de Kerdeston was lord in the 3d of Edward I. and William de Kerdeston died seized of it ao. 10th of Edward II.

Roger de Kerdeston was lord in the same reign; and on his death, in the 11th of Edward III. held this town of Newton, with Kerdeston, Claxton, Helgeton, Sistern, Hadiston, &c. and William was his son and heir, aged 30, held then of the manor of Hokering, of the Lord Morley. Of the family of Kerdeston, see in Claxton, Lodlou hundred.

Sir Thomas Kerdeston and Philippa his wife, settled it on themselves in tail, in the 24th of Henry VI. remainder to William de la Pole Duke of Suffolk, and Alice his wife; and in the 12th of Henry VII. Edmund Earl of Suffolk, by deed, dated May 25, granted it, with Sidesterne, to the Lady Elizabeth Robsart, widow, only daughter and heir of Sir Thomas, as I take it, for life, and to William her son, and the heirs of the body of Sir Terry Robsert.

William Robsert died seized of it ao. 8 Henry VIII. and John was his brother and heir, who in the 4th of Edward VI. with Elizabeth his wife, conveyed by fine to George Willoughby and James Bigot, the manor of Newton, by Bircham, with the advowson of the church, in trust, and died possessed of it in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary, called then Sir John, held of the manor of Cokesford, leaving Anne, his daughter, who married Sir Robert Dudley, afterwards the great Earl of Leicester, who was lord in her right, which Lady Anne came to an unhappy death at Cumnore near Oxford, by a fall from the stairs, and was buried in St. Mary's church in that University.<sup>6</sup>

On the death of Robert Earl of Leicester, it descended to the

Walpoles by the marriage of Edward Walpole, Esq. of Houghton, with Lucy, daughter of Sir Terry Robsert, Knt. sister of Sir John Robsert, Knt. and aunt to the Lady Anne Dudley.

John Walpole, Esq. son and heir of Edward aforesaid, by his last will and testament, dated February 28, ao. 30 of Elizabeth, and proved April following, gives to his 2d son, Calybut, this manor and advowson, after the decease of Robert Earl of Leicester, which he held for life, and also the foldcourses, which he had of Roger Townsend in this town.

It appears that the said John Walpole, Esq. being seized of the 3d part of the said manor, and that of Sidestern, had entfeoffed Edward Walpole, Esq. his eldest son, and Henry Russell therein, for the life of Calybut his brother, and the said Edward being attainted of treason, May 26, in the 39th of Elizabeth, said to be done at Rome, it was forfeited, and granted by the said Queen, August 3, ao. 39, to Elizabeth Hussey, and ——— Goodman, who, in September following, sold it to Calybut Walpole aforesaid.

In this family it still continues, the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford, being lord of it.

The tenths were 4*l.* 8*s.* Deducted 1*l.* 8*s.*

THE CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints. In the reign of Edward I. the rector had a manse, with 50 acres of land.—The rectory then valued at 10 marks. Peter-pence, 6*d.*

The present valor is 7*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* and is discharged.

BIRCHAM MAGNA.

WILLIAM DE SCOHIES was lord at the survey, and Robert de Ebrois held it under him; it consisted of several tenures; Bern held of King Edward one carucate with one villain, and 2 borderers, and there was half a carucate amongst the tenants, or men; this was valued at 10s. and a church then belonged to it, endowed with 4 acres.

Tor, a freeman, in King Edward's time, under Stigand, had 4 carucates of land, 2 in demean, and 2 were amongst the men; there were 14 villains then, and a borderer, valued at 40s. but at the survey at 4*l. per ann.* Stigand, had the soe; also 3 freemen held 85 acres then, and 2 carucates, with 2 borderers, and a freeman, with 30 acres. Brunard holds 30 acres, or 2 oxgangs. This was valued at 12s.

Rafrid held these freemen, but now they are held of the King, because there was no one who had a just claim to them.

Rafrid was a Norman, and had quitted it, not having a legal title. The whole was one leuca long, and one broad, whoever was lord of it, and paid 27*d.* to a 20s. gelt.<sup>8</sup>

William de Schoies or Escoes, sold this lordship, with many others, in the reign of Henry I. to Walter Giffard Earl of Buckingham: he had a large share of the Conqueror's favours in this county, and held as we learn from the Book of Domesday, lordships in Islington, Clenchwarton, Middleton, Rungton, Geyton, and Massingham, in Freebridge hundred; Bircham in Doching hundred, and Ringsted in Smethdon hundred;—Wilby and Buckenham in Shropham hundred;—Banham, Keninghale, and Herling, in Gilcross hundred;—Letton

Walter Giffard was Earl of Buckingham, and succeeded by a son of his own name, who dying without issue, in the reign of Henry II. his great inheritance was divided amongst his sisters and coheirs, one of whom, Rohais, brought this lordship to Richard Fitz-Gilbert, ancestor to the noble family of the Earls of Clare.

The family of De Brecham being enfeoffed herein, took their name from it, according to the custom of that age; Ralph de Brecham being lord in the time of Richard I. and in the 3d of King John, Richard de Brecham was sued by the bailiff of the Earl of Arundel, for suit of court, due for lands here to his hundred-court of Smethdon, as was one of the said name, by Catherine de Titchwell, as guardian to the heir of Gilbert de Titchwell, for certain customs and services due for lands in this town, and Hunestanton, in the 34th of Henry III.

This Richard was son probably of Richard de Brecham, who was found to hold it in the 3d of the said King, of the honour of Clare.

In the 41st of the said King, Alan de Meysy impleaded Nicholas de Brecham for 2 parts, and Maud, relict of Richard de Brecham, for her 3d part in this church; and in the 52d of that King, it is said that Alan could not recover seisen against Nicholas de Brecham, till he had granted to Roger of the Exchequer, the said advowson.

After this, the Wesenhams claimed a right, and in the 14th of Edward I. an assise was brought to enquire if Giles de Wesenham, father of John, was seized in demean and fee, of lands in Brecham St. Mary, which John, son of Robert de Brecham, holds.

Gilbert de Clare Earl of Clare, on his marriage with Joan, daughter of King Edward I. granted it May 27, to the said King, ao. 18, with Walsingham, Wiceton, Crimplesham, &c. who regranted it to the said Earl, and his Lady Joane, and their heirs, the said Earl holding it in capite.

Gilbert their son and heir, being slain at the battle of Bannocksburne in Scotland, ao. 7th of Edward II. and having no issue, it was assigned to Elizabeth de Burgh, wife of John de Burgh, son and heir of Richard Earl of Ulster.

About this time, Edmund Tyb held here and in Ringstead, the fourth part of a fee of the honour of Clare.

In the family of the Burghs it remained, till Lionel Duke of Clarence by the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of William de Burgh Earl of Ulster, became lord of it; who leaving an only daughter and heir, Philippa, married to Edmund Mortimer Earl of March, he was lord of it in her right; and Edmund Mortimer Earl of March, dying seized of it in the 3d of Henry VI. Richard Plantaginet Duke of York, son of Anne his sister, was found to be his cousin and next heir, from whom it descended to his son, King Edward IV.

After this, Elizabeth, (Henry the Seventh's Queen,) Anne, wife of Thomas Howard Earl of Surry, and Catherine, wife of William de Courtney Earl of Devonshire, 3 of the surviving daughters and coheirs of the said King, had an interest herein; and the said Anne and Catherine, conveying their right to King Henry VIII. son of the eldest sister, Elizabeth, in his 3d year, the whole was vested in him, who settled it on his Queen, in part of her jointure.

On December 20, in the 1st and 2d of Philip and Mary, it was granted to Thomas Woodhouse. and Thomas Ranowce, and their heirs, with the advowson, excepting the bells and lead, to be held in capite by the 60th part of a fee, in consideration of 193*l.* 5*s.* 5*d.*

After this, it was in John Darcy and Thomas Audley; and in the 43d of Elizabeth, John Young, and William his son and heir, sold to Thomas Southwell, Esq. for 260*l.* the moiety of a foldcourse, called Legg's.

About the said time, it appears that Southwell held another foldcourse, called Bylaugh's, with a farm, and was patron of the church, and as such, lord also of the manor.

In Trinity term, ao. 13th of James I. Henry Southwell conveyed it by fine, to Henry Dury, and Christopher Herue.

After this, it was possessed by several lords, who had the patronage, and conveyed to Robert Walpole, Esq. who presented in 1705, and the Earl of Orford is the present lord and patron.

Tenths 3*l.* 10*s.* Deducted 1*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

Besides the lordship abovementioned, Ralph de Bellofago, lord of Newton Bircham, had also one in this town, held by Fradre, a Saxon thane of King Edward I. consisting of 3 carucates of land, 5 villains, and 4 borderers, 2 carucates in demean, with 2 and a half amongst the men; and 2 freemen had 2 acres, valued in Fradre's time at 2*s.* at the survey at 20*s.*; it was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 27*d.* gelt.

This had at all times the same lords, and passed as an appendix to the manor of Newton Bircham, so that what has been observed of that manor, equally belongs to this, to which I refer the reader.

Concealed lands granted ao. 16th Elizabeth, April 10, to Edward Dyer, and Hugh Cressener, in the tenure of Thomas Bastere.

THE CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary. The rector had a manse with 50 acres, in Edward the First's time, and was valued at 32 marks. The prior of Norwich had a portion of tithes, valued at 4*s.* Peter-pence 2*d.* ob. The present valor is 22*l.* and pays tenths, &c.

MAGNA BERWICK

MANOR, OR IN THE BRAKES.

THIS principal manor here was held by the King, who was lord of it at the survey, and by a freeman, before the conquest, who had 260 sheep, 11 swine, 2 cows, 5 runci, or horses, with a carucate of land. This, together with Southmere and Titchwell manor, then also possessed by the Conqueror, was valued before the conquest at 7*l.* and at the time of the survey at 30*l. per ann.* and 4 socmen in King Edward's time held 4 acres of land; but after the conquest, and after Roger received this manor, and held it of the King, Brom, the steward, or bailiff of Roger Bigot, took them away from it, and Roger has them now, and one socman with 60 acres, or half a carucate.<sup>3</sup>

This, as I conceive, remained in Bigot, till granted by King William II. to William de Albini, ancestor of the Earls of Essex and Arundel, of that name; this in a great measure appears from the grant of Richard, son of Robert de Scenges, of the church of St. Mary, of (this town) Berwick, to the priory of Bokenham * (founded by William de Albini aforesaid) in the reign of King Henry II. and then confirmed to that house, by William de Albini Earl of Sussex and Arundel, then capital lord of the fee, of whom Richard then held it.

After this it came to the Calthorps, who were lords in the reign of King Henry III. and held it in Edward the First's time, of the Lord Tateshale, who inherited it by the marriage of an heiress of the Earl of Arundel and Sussex.

William de Calthorp held in the 20th of Edward III. the fourth part of a fee here, and in Bermere, of the heirs of Tateshale, which Reginald de Calthorp, and Richard his brother formerly held.

At the same time, Roger Ivo of Berwick, and his parceners, held the 4th part of a fee, which Ivo de Berwick formerly held.

From the Calthorps it descended to the Parkers; and Sir William Parker was lord in the 3d of Edw. VI. by the marriage of Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Philip Calthorp; and Sir Philip Parker was lord in the 32d of Elizabeth.

After this it came to the *Townsend*s, Sir John Townsend dying seized of it in the year 1603, as did Sir Roger Townsend in 1636<sup>6</sup>.

From this family it came to Sir ——— Chaplain, Bart. and Mr. Robert Glover was lord in 1757.

Berwick may be derived from Ber, as aforesaid, and Wick, a turn of a river or stream.

BUCKENHAM PRIORY MANOR.

Besides the church of Berwick, given by Richard de Scenges, Hugh de Albini, Earl of Arundel, gave to this house a messuage, and a wind-mill; what other benefactions they had here does not appear. Their temporalities in 1428, were valued in this town at 67*s. per ann.*

This, with the rectory appropriated to the convent, its lands and tenements, with the advowson of the vicarage, was granted by King Henry VIII. in his 35th year, December 3, to Robert Townsend, serjeant at law, and Gyles Townsend, Esq. and they granted it to their elder brother, Sir Roger Townsend, December 10 following, having the King's license December 5. Sir Roger died possessed of it in 1552; and Sir Roger Townsend, Bart. was found at his death, in 1637, seized of the manor of Buckenham in Berwick.

In this town was also the manor of Carson's, or Thursbie's, but this I take to belong to the manor of Stanhow, that extended here, and I shall there treat of it.

The tenths were 3*l.* 10*s.* Deducted 10*s.*

BERWICK PARVA.

WILLIAM Earl WARREN had a manor in Berwick, which I take to be what is now called Little Barwick, and was held by Simon under that Earl; two freemen had been ejected at the conquest; one of them held under Herold, the King, and the other was only under the protection of Fredric's predecessor; to this there belonged a carucate of land, and 12 borderers, a carucate and an half amongst the men, &c. the moiety of a church with 10 acres, and one freeman was only under protection, with 60 acres of land, and 2 borderers, with half a carucate, valued in King Edward's time at 15*s.* at the survey at 20*s.*<sup>5</sup>

In the reign of Henry III. Alexander de Ringstede held the fourth part of a fee of the Earl Warwick, in Berwick.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Adam Ryely held it of the manor of Castleacre.

It is anciently said to have a church, and was a parish.

In 1701, Anne Oatley, Anne and Elizabeth Sherwyn, had an interest in it, and presented to the church.

The church of Berwick Magna was anciently a rectory, but appro-

In 1511, it was proposed and brought into the Bishop of Norwich's court, to unite for ever this vicarage to the rectory of Stanhov, on account of its meanness and poverty, there being then only one parishioner (as it is said) living therein, and the rector of Stanhov was to have all the great and small tithes and profits of the said vicarage, paying yearly a pension of 40s. to the priory of Bokenham, at the feast of St. Michael, but it took no effect.

BRANCASTER,

Called Brannodunum by the Romans, who had a famous station and castle here, and taking its name from the British word Brau, or Bron, signifying a Front or Head,<sup>6</sup> joining to the great German ocean on the north side, and on the south on an extensive field or heath; the castle and encampment took up about 8 acres of ground, now a ploughed close, westward of the church and town; the ditch is visible in many parts, and was also walled in, many stones yet appearing on the north side; and standing on a rising ground, at the head of the sea marsh, has an extensive view and prospect.

Many parts of its walls were carried away, and used on the foundation of the great malt-house (some years past) in the town, and are said to have been 9 feet thick.

It is an oblong square, longer east and west, than north and south, on which last side of the road to the town, and to Barnham runs.

It is said to have been erected by the Romans, for the defence of this coast against the invasions of the Saxons, and the care and charge of it was committed to a very eminent commander, who was styled the Count, or Earl of the Saxon coast, who had under him a captain of the Dalmatian horse, here quartered to guard and defend it. Sir Henry Spelman makes a quere how it came, and at what time, to be first called the Saxon-Coast, (as it is termed in the Notitia Imperii,) by the Romans, since they (as far as he had seen) were never in their time and reign here, invaded, or disturbed by the Saxons, the Romans leaving Britain (as he places it) in 446, in the time of Falentinian III. when the Britains desiring assistance from them against the Scots and Picts, and finding none, they applied to the Saxons, who with difficulty were persuaded to assist them in 449.

It may not be improper to observe here, that the Saxon Chronicle<sup>7</sup> places the departure of the Romans out of Britain in 435, and the Britains sending to them for succour against the Picts, in 443, and on their omission, they applied in the said year to the Angli or Saxons.

To answer the abovementioned quere or difficulty, the aforesaid learned gentleman observes, that the Notitia Imperij was not composed till about the end of the reign of Falentinian III. which was in 455, and that from the year 449, when the Saxons came over, to the year 455, many of their forces frequently arriving, it on that account obtained the name of the Saxon Coast or Shore over which, in the time of the Britains, the Romans had an officer called the Count of the Maritime Tract, about the year 370, according to Marcellinus.

The great antiquary Selden justly observes,<sup>8</sup> that this Roman Count or Earl of the Saxon shore, was an admiral, and placed against the maritime incursions of the Saxons, or those of the west part of Ger- many, that were known most commonly by that name, the Saxons; and had for his ensign 9 maritime towns, placed (as the heralds term it) barways or barry.

One of which was this, Bramodanum, in the form of a castle, with lofty walls, &c. and near to these the sea is represented, showing it to be a maritime charge, or government; and in a dexter canton of the said ensign, was a book clasped, and thereon these capital letters, F.L. INTALL. COMORD. PR. which Pancirollus in his notes on the Notitia interprets thus,

Felix liber injunctus notarijs Laterculi continens mandata principis or primicerij, who was the master or president of the clerks of the crown; and by this book a parchment rolled up.

This Comes had several prefects or commanders under him, both of the horse and foot: the number of horse is said to be 200, and 2200 foot; the Dalmatian troop is chiefly mentioned to be stationed here, but no doubt a proportionable body of foot was also here in garrison.

It is said about a century past, many fragments of various sorts of earthen ware were found here; and Sir Henry Spelman observes that in his time, coins were often found, and some had been brought to him, with two little brass pots, &c.; but of late years, nothing curious has been met with, as far as I can find.

I have seen a silver coin about the size of a sixpence; on one side a Janus Bifrons, reverse obscure, seemingly a trophy, &c.

One of copper, the size of a shilling, with the head of Claudius, and TI. CLAVDIVS. CAES. AVG. - - - - reverse obscure. A gladiator naked, in his left hand a shield, and the right uplifted.

Wulfgiva, wife of Alwin, Duke of the East-Angles, gave this town to the abbey of Ramsay, founded by the said nobleman in 969.<sup>9</sup> King Edgar confirmed the said gift, with many privileges, as did Edward the Confessor, together with the soc and sac, &c. by his grant dated at Windsor, on Wednesday in Easter-week, to which Edgitha his Queen, the Earls Godwin and Harold, Esgar Stalre, and Hugoline his chamberlain, were witnesses.

William the Conqueror, and William his son, confirmed all the said privileges, as appears by his charter.

Also Henry I. who was actually at this town, in or about 1115; and the grant of the fair of St. Ives, in Huntingdonshire, to the abbot of Ramsay, is here dated.

At the grand survey we find it to be the lordship of the abbot of St. Bennet of Ramsay, when there were 5 carucates in demean, and 7 amongst the tenants or men, 25 villains, 16 borderers, and 5 servi, with 2 acres of meadow, and a mill, 5 borderers, with 6 acres and 60 of land, which always belonged to the demean, 2 ruuci, 6 cows, and 24 swine, with 600 sheep.

The whole then valued at 10*l.* per ann. and was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 28*d.* gelt.<sup>1</sup>

In the 35th of Henry III. the abbot had a charter of free warren in his demean lands; and in the 52d of the said King, felons goods here allowed him; in the 3d of Edward I. wreck at sea here, in Ringsted Magna and Holm, assise of bread and beer, a gallows, weif, &c. by the grant of King Edgar; and it was found that his predecessors and he had, and used to have, in the same villages, certain courts belonging to the port, called Halue-Courts, or Haven-Courts, held at the pleasure of the abbot, wherein matters in relation to their haven were determined; and in the 7th of Edward II. the abbot claimed a whale, cast on shore, as a wreck.

In the 43d of Edward III. he was impleaded by a process out of the Exchequer, by what right he held 60 acres of marsh here, without the King's license; he answered, as lord of the manor, and that there was a marsh sometimes bigger and less, by the flowing of the seas, and that he did not appropriate it to himself.

The temporalities of this abbey were valued in 1428 at 46*l.* 13*s.* per ann. and at the general dissolution it was granted to Sir Richard Southwell, May 5, in the 37th of Henry VIII. when it appears that he had court baron, court lete, the advowson of the church, free warren, wreck at sea, a court of admiralty, escheats, reliefs, waifs and strays, felons goods, and outlaws, a free port to the sea, &c. privileges belonging to this lordship.

From the Southwells it came to Sir Charles Cornwallis, who presented to this church in 1603.

In the 20th of James I. May 20, Sir William Fitch, knight, &c. conveyed it to Sir Ralph Hare, of Stow Bardolf, Knt. with lands in Titchwell, Docking, &c. and Sir John Hare died seized of it in 1637, and was patron, and of a pension of 13*s.* 4*d.* out of the rectory formerly belonging to the sacrist of Ramsey-Abbey.

From the Hares it came to the Berkleys.

Norborne Berkley is the present lord and patron; he was member of parliament for Gloucestershire, lord lieutenant, and custos rotulorum of Gloucestershire, and the city of Bristol, keeper of the forest of Dean, &c. and created Lord Botetourt.

There was an ancient family of dignity who assumed their name from this place. John de Brancastre, was vice chancellor of England, as appears from a patent of King Richard I. of lands granted to William Briwere, at Chimay in France, dated March 12, in the 10th of that King; probably the said John, who was archdeacon of Worcester, who signed July 15, ao. 4th of King John, his grant to the abbey of St. Augustine, Canterbury.

Herbert de Brancaster held lands here of the abbot by knight's service, with one messuage, and 90 acres; and Agnes his widow was living in the 34th of Henry III. Ralph de Brancaster, son of Herbert, was living in the 52d of the said King, and was impleaded for not being a knight; also Thomas de Brancaster held lands in the said reign; and one of the same name, in the 2d of King John, had a grant of that King, of a prebend in the free chapel of Walingford.

Adam, (son of Sir John de Brancastre) and Emme his wife, had a grant of lands and tenements here, to them and their heirs, in name of a dower, from Agnes, relict of Herbert de Brancastre aforesaid, for providing bread and corn and barley, for the house of Adam at Brancastre; and the said Adam was impleaded in the 3d of Edward I. for not being a knight, as he ought to have been, by law, as appears by the inquisitions.

In this town is a very remarkable malthouse, 312 feet long, and 31 broad, wherein are steeped weekly, in the season, 420 quarters of barley, useful and beautiful in its structure and contrivance of its offices, and close to a key or stathe for ships, erected at the charge and design of its late owner, Mr. John Thurlow.

The tenths of the town were 8*l.* 4*s.*

A free-school here in the gift of Sir Henry L'Estrange, about 24*l.* per ann.

The Church is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and consists of a nave, a north and south isle, with a chancel; the church, &c. covered with lead, but the chancel is tiled; at the west end stands a large square tower embattled, with four bells and a clock.

In the chancel east window, are the arms of Hare, and on a gravestone with a brass plate,

Orate p. a'ia. Magri. Willi. Collyng or Coling, quonda' rectoris istius ecclie, qui hic nunc in pulvere dormit expectans adventum redemptoris sui, qui obt. 1480.

The church was anciently valued at 26 marks. The abbot of Ramsey had a portion of tithes out of this rectory, valued at 40*s.* per ann. the prior of Stoke one valued at 40*s.* and the sacrist of Ramsey, one of a mark per ann. The present valor is 24*l.* and pays first fruits and tenths.

In the 9th of King John, John de Brancaster, archdeacon of Worcester, obtained on the request of Richard Rusti, the rector, the King's letters, for a vicar under him, saving to the said Richard an annual pension of 2 bezants, the abbey of Ramsey being then void. Peter-pence was 11*d.*

 F R E N G E.

THIS little village is situated in a great valley between two considerable hills, and a rivulet running through it; the name of it is truly antique, and as it was called by the ancient Britons, Frau or Fran, signifying in that language a stream, and gey, water; and Frau is a river in Wales.

NORWICH PRIORY MANOR.

In 1085, it is named amongst those lordships which the Conqueror granted in fee to William Beaufoe, then Bishop of Thetford, and was a beruite to his great manor of Sedgford, which he held also in fee, in his own right; one carucate in demean, 7 villains, and 2 socmen with one carucate and an half belonged to it, and Bishop Agelmar made a bernite (that is a separate little lordship from Sedgeford) out of the tenure of one of these soemen.<sup>2</sup>

By this it appears that both Sedgeford and Frenge belonged to this see in Agelmar's time, who succeeded his brother Stigand, in the see of Elmham, and being obnoxious to the Conqueror, on that account was deprived of it, in 1070; and on his deprivation, not only Sedgeford and Frenge, but other lordships were alienated, seized, and retained from the see, and these being granted to Bishop Beaufoe, he, on his death in 1091, gave them again to that see.

Herbert, who succeeded Beaufoe, removed the see to Norwich, and on his foundation of the priory there in 1001, settled the lordship of Frenge on the monks towards their maintenance, with one carucate of land, which he had granted to Odo, as freely as he held it himself. The preamble to the grant runs thus, "What, says the prophet, shall I give to the Lord for all the goods, he has bestowed on me? &c." and is sealed with the sign of the cross.<sup>3</sup>

Eborard Bishop of Norwich, and William (Turb) prior, and the convent, granted by deed, sans date, (about 1140) to Henry their man in fee, their land at Frainges, with all the services and customs, to hold it quietly, freely and peaceably, by way of inheritance, without any claim or injury; <sup>4</sup> witnesses, Roger the priest, Albert the deacon, and the whole soche of Secheford.

Richard, the prior, and convent, by deed, sans date, (about 1150) grant to Henry de Frenge's, (the aforesaid Henry, as I take it) for his services their lands here, to be held in fee, paying 100s. per ann.—witnesses all the soche of Secheford.

On the Dissolution of the priory, and surrender of it to King Henry VIII. in 1538, by William Castleton the prior, that King on May 2, in the said year, founded it for a dean, 6 prebendaries and minor canons, &c.

This manor was settled with the appropriated rectory, on that body, and so remains at this time.

FRENGE MANOR,

Another lordship, and the principal one, was at the survey possessed by Eustachius, or Eustace Earl of Bologne in France, and placed under the hundred of Docking, though the former manor was placed under Smethden hundred; this belonged to Orgar, a freeman, in King Edward's reign: it consisted of one carucate of land, and one in demean, 3 carucates amongst the tenants or men, 4 villains, 6 borderers, &c. valued before the survey at 40s. then at 60s. per ann. A freeman also had in the Confessor's time, a carucate and an half of land, &c. 7 borderers and one soeman, with 30 acres, valued at 20s. and another with 15 acres.

The whole was half a leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 27*d.* to a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>5</sup>

The family of De Burun were early enfeoffed of this manor. Godfrey de Burun gave by deed, sans date to the monks of Castleacre, 30 acres of land in this town, held of him by Gundred de Freng, for his own soul and that of William his father, and Hugh his brother.<sup>6</sup>

Ralph Byrum and Catherine his wife, purchased lands here of Richard de la More, in the 14th of Edward I. and in the 23d of that King, this lordship was settled by fine, on Ralph de Byrum (his son) and Roesia his wife, on the death of Ralph and Catherine.

In the 9th of Edward II. John de Whitsonde was found to be lord; and in the 12th of that King, the said John and Roesia his wife, were found to have held it; the said John being that year executed for felony, of which he was found guilty at the assise held at Bishop's-Lyney.

After this it was held by Sir Robert de Illey and Catherine his wife, in the 43d of Edward III. when Thomas Frere of Lyney, and Richard de Holme, chaplains, had it conveyed to them in trust, with a messuage, 104 acres of land, 6*s.* rent, and a foldcourse.

Sibilla was their daughter and heir, who brought it by marriage to Sir Roger Boys, knight, of Honing; and in the 6th of Henry VI. September 11, sold it (being then a widow) to John Esmond, Esq. and Margaret his wife; of whom see in Cranworth.

In the 20th of Henry VIII. Thomas Lestrangle, Esq. was lord, and held 300 acres of land, 12 of meadow, 30 of pasture, 4 of wood, 100 of furze and heath, 4*l.* per ann. rent, with 6 messuages; and in the 36th of that King died seized of it, being then a knight.

Sir Hamon Lestrangle sold it in the reign of Queen Elizabeth to John Richers, Gent.

HACKFORD AND UPHALL MANORS.

The Earl Warren had also a freeman, who held 20 acres of land, valued at 16*d.* per ann. his predecessor had only the protection of him, but Stigand had the soc.<sup>7</sup> This lordship is placed in Docking hundred; but besides this, his lordships of Snetesham and Ingaldesthorp, extending into this town, made it a considerable tenure.

In the reign of Henry III. John de Thorp and Alice his wife, held here and in Suetesham, the 3d part of a fee of the Earl Warren, and Thomas de Ingaldesthorp the fourth part of a fee, in the said towns; and Hawise and Elizabeth, the daughters and coheirs of John de Mileham, the 4th part of a fee in Freng, Docking and Anmere, of the said Earl.

In the 6th of Edward III. John de Seckford and Joane, passed by fine to Henry Elmham, and Elizabeth his wife, the moiety of Hackford Hall manor, with the moiety of 3 messuages, 157 acres of land, 3 of meadow, 2 of pasture, &c. which Margaret, widow of Sir William de Hackford, held for life; so that the whole descended to Henry de Elmham.

Sir William Elmham his son was lord in the 49th of the aforesaid King, and died seized of it in the 4th of Henry IV. as appears by his will, then dated, April 2.

In the 20th of Edward III. Beatrix de Inglethorp held the 4th part of a fee here and in Snetesham.

John de Titchwell, and the heirs of John de Milcham, held the 3d part of a fee of the Earl Warren, late John de Thorp's; and in the 3d of Henry IV. William Olney, &c. held the 3d part of a fee, late John de Thorp's.

These probably made the manor in this town called Uphall.

Sir John de Ingaldesthorp died seized of these manors, and gave by his last will, proved in 1419, a legacy to this church.

This Sir John was one of the executors to Sir William de Elmham; and Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp died lord of Hackford-Hall, and Uphall, in 1456.

Soon after this, Sir John Colvile, and Anne his wife, warranted the same to Thomas Granger, vicar of Hare, (to whom they were conveyed by fine,) against Edmund, abbot of Westminster.

Sir John Say died possessed of them in the 18th of Edward IV. In the reign of Richard III. Sir William Say and Elizabeth his wife, conveyed them by fine to Henry L'Estrange, Esq. &c. of Hunstanton.

In the reign of Queen Elizabeth, Sir Hamou Lestrange sold them to John Richers Gent. of Dersingham.

Edmund Richers of Frenge, son (as I take it) of John, had from Camden, Clarencieux, in 1613, a grant of these arms; or, on two bars, gules, as many flower-de-lis, or; and crest, on a wreath, or and gules, a de-lis, per pale, ermine and gules, and was so born by Thomas Richers, Esq. of Ashden in Esser, receiver general for Cambridge in 1710, as descended from the said Edmund.

But all the interest which the family had here was sold in 1654, by John Richers, Esq. to Robert Villiers, Lord Viscount Purbeck, and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir John Danvers.

After this, it came to the Delavals; and John Delaval had a grant of a fair here every year, on the 10th of May, in the 35th of King Charles II.

Mr. Framingham of Lynn, a baker, afterwards a merchant, purchased it of the Delavals, whose daughter and heir, Joan, brought it by marriage, to Peter Seaman, a brewer in Norwich, and a knight in the time of Queen Anne, and then to Captain Goodwyn of Lynn, by the marriage of one of his daughters, sister and coheir to her brother; and dying s. p. left it to her two nieces, daughters of Sir Henry

Nelthorp, Bart. but the right was in Mr. Goodwyn, the captain's brother, and now lord.

I find the hundred-court kept here in the 36th of Henry VIII.

The tenths were 7*l.* Deducted 1*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

The temporalities of Norwich priory were 20*s.* per ann.

David, son of Roger de Frenge, resigned to the prior and convent all the land that he held of them in this town, for one mark, sans date; witnesses, Richard de Refham, seneschal to the Earl Warren, Hervey de Stanhow, Will. de Burun, John Say, &c.

The prior of Coxford had lands here.

In the 4th of Henry III. John le Sire conveyed by fine to Hubert, then prior, certain lands, before Jeffrey Fitz-Piers, Symon de Pateshull, Godfrey de Lisle, John de Gestling, and Walter de Creping, justices; and in 1428, their temporalities were 3*l.* 1*1s.* 6*d.*

Temporalities of Castleacre, 23*s.* ob.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints, and was a rectory, valued at 20 marks. By a deed, sans date, a composition was made between the prior of Wymondham, (who held the rectory appropriated of Snetesham) and the rector of this town, about the foldcourses of Sir Thomas Ingletorp, that as long as the sheep continued in this parish, the rector should have the tithes, and as long as in Snetesham, the prior.

In the time of Edward I. the rector had a manse, and 40 acres of glebe, and Ralph Byrom was lord and patron. Peter-pence 12*d.*

It was appropriated by Bishop Bateman to the priory of Norwich, on May 13, 1352, on the condition that the profits should be applied to find the monks shoes, and to pay 4*s.* per ann. to each monk, on St. Thomas's day, and All-Saints, and to erect a chantry at the high altar, in the choir, for a monk to sing daily, for his welfare while alive, and when dead, for his own soul, his father's, mother's, friends and benefactors souls, and each monk to take the service by weekly course, and receive at the week's end 2*s.*

No vicarage was appointed, but the church was to be served by a stipendiary curate, paid by the convent, and at present paid by the dean and chapter, who hold the impropriation.

In 1428, the spiritualities of the priory of Norwich, were valued at 20 marks.

The church stands on a rising hill, a little westward of the town, and is a single pile, covered with tile, and the chancel with lead, with a small tower of flint stones, &c. at the west end of the body, with one bell.

On a gravestone in the chancel, with a brass plate,

Orate p. a'ia. Ric. Crispe, qui obt. 26 Apr. 1517.

On the screen, the arms of Norwich priory, or deanery, and of L'Estrange.

In the nave, gravestones for

Franc. Cremer, who died August 23, 1741, and Susan his wife;

And for

Robert Cremer, who died 1734.

Another for

William Mantell of this parish, gent. and Catherine his wife, daughter of Ralph Hartstrong of Twiford in Norfolk, Gent. who died January 9, 1687; and these arms, argent, a cross ingrailed, between four Cornish choughs, sable, impaling per chevron, ingrailed, or and sable, in chief three pellets, in base, an hart passant, of the first; Mantel and Hartstrong.

Henry, son of Jeffrey de Frenge, was here buried in 1370. In 1603, there were 186 communicants in this parish.

RECTORS.

I find these ancient rectors.

1349, Richard de Colney, by William de Colney.

John Richers of Dersingham, married ———, daughter of Godrick, and was father of John Richers of Frenge, Gent. who by Margery, daughter of Thomas Segar, had Edmund Richers, and by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Francis Berwell, Esq. of Berwell, left John his son and heir, who by Susanna, daughter of Sir John Peyton of Donington in the isle of Ély, was father of John Richers of Norwich, haberdasher, his father having sold this manor.

Robert Viscount Purbeck, was son of John, Viscount Purbeck, (brother to George Duke of Bucks,) by Frances, daughter of Sir Edward Coke, the judge: this Robert married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Danvers, and died in 1657, and Robert his son, married Mary, daughter of Ulick Burgh, Earl of St. Alban's, relict of the Lord Muskerry, son of the Earl of Clenricard, in Ireland, and their son, Robert, sold it.

HITCHAM

TAKES its name from a river that here runs into the sea; Itche, Isse, being a common name for rivers among the Iccni: thus Hitcham in Suffolk, Hitching in Hertfordshire, and Itching in Hampshire, &c.

In the time of Oswald Archbishop of York, about 980, one Godwin, was lord, or had considerable possessions in this town, and gave to Ramsey abbey all that he held herein, except the tenures of Ethelbald, his butler, Lefrick his goldsmith, and of Wlfgar, who were to hold their estates during life, after which, to go to the church of Ramsey.<sup>5</sup>

In Domesday it is wrote Hecham, a Ham by the water.

At the survey it is placed in Smethden hundred, and was at that time the lordship of William Earl Warren; Toche, a Saxon thane, was owner of it in King Edward's time, and afterwards Fredric held it in fee; there were 7 carucates in demean, held by 70 borderers, and 6 servi, with 12 acres of meadow, and 7 carucates of the tenants, pannage for 100 swine, 3 mills, and the moiety of a fourth, a fishery, &c. 600 sheep, and 35 socmen had a carucate and a half of land, and there were 6 carucates and 4 acres of meadow, then valued at 12*l.* at the survey at 15*l. per ann.*

The Earl Warren had also 2 carucates of land, which Alnod a free-man possessed in King Edward's reign, to which there belonged 26 borderers, 2 servi, and 6 acres of meadow; there were 2 carucates in demean, and one and a half amongst the men, the moiety of a mill, a salt-pit, and a fishery, and 4 socmen with 2 acres, &c.; this was valued at 3*l. per ann.*<sup>9</sup>

The whole was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 4*s.* to a 20*s.* gelt.

LEWES PRIORY MANOR.

William, the Second Earl Warren and Surrey, gave to this priory the principal manor of this town, that was held by Toche and Fredric, as his father had requested him, in the presence of all his barons, to give them one of his best lordships in this county, (the said priory being founded by his father,) also the lands which William de Cayley held of him here.<sup>1</sup>

Robert de Mortimer, by deed, sans date, conferred on the monks of Lewes, his demean lands, services and homages by way of exchange, for lands held by them in Thomeston and Catston in Norfolk; witnesses, Hamelin Earl Warren, &c. (he died 1202) witnesses, William de Warren, Ralph de Plaiz, Robert de Perepoint, Reginald de St. Martin, Ralph de Castello, Jeffrey de Hagebich, &c.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to have the assise of bread and beer, of his tenants.

In the 35th of that King, William Tristram of Hecham, released to the prior all his right in a fen lying behind the hall, between a way called Redegate on one side, and the Prior's Manor on the other; and in the said year he had confirmation of a lete, view of frank pledge, weyf and stray, infangtheof, &c. paying half a mark per ann. to the lord of the hundred, as he had done to Roger Lord Montalt.

Their temporalities in 1428, were valued in rent, land, a mill, &c. at 75*l. 9s. ob. per ann.*

At the Dissolution, Robert, prior of Lewes, and the convent, on December 22, in the 29th of Henry VIII. granted this manor, the appropriated rectory, and patronage of the vicarage, with a cell here, belonging to the said priory, to the King, who, in the said year, gave it to Thomas Duke of Norfolk.

It was afterwards in Philip Earl of Arundel, who being attainted, Thomas Howard Earl of Suffolk had a grant of it from the Crown, November 22, in the 6th of King James I.

In the following year, November 3, the said Earl conveyed all the aforesaid premises, to Sir Hamon L'Estrange, of Hunstanton, Knt. whose immediate descendant and heir, the Honourable Sir Henry Lestrangle, Bart. died lord in 1760, and on a division of his estate, this came to his sister, Mrs. Airmine Stileman, widow, relict of Nicholas Stileman, Esq. of Suctesham, and Nicholas Stileman, Esq. her eldest son and heir, the present lord.

CALEY'S HALL.

Another lordship in this town was in the Caleys. This was probably that which Alnod held in the Confessor's time: it appears that William de Caley held lands of the Earl Warren in this town in the reign of Henry I. and in the time of Henry III. Roger de Cailli of Hecham, and Beatrix his wife, gave to the monks of Castleacre, 16*d.* rent per ann. for land held by Ralph his brother, of him, with the homage of the said Ralph.<sup>2</sup>

Jeffrey de Hecham conveyed by fine to Hugh de Caley, in the 33*d* of that King, a messuage, with a carucate of land, which Roger de Caley his brother held for life only; and covenants to build a chapel here, to the honour of the Virgin Mary, and to find a chaplain therein, to pray for ever for the soul of Geffrey and his ancestors.

In the 3*d* of Edward I. Hugh de Caley was found to have, as lord, the assise of bread and beer, and other privileges, paying with the prior of Lewes, half a mark per ann. to the Earl of Arundel.

The said prior kept his increate in the King's highway, in this town, made distrains at will, to the injury of the whole country, as the jury found.

William de Cailly surrendered to Nicholas, son of Thomas Fastolf, 24 messuages, a mill, 244 acres of land, 6 of meadow, 20 of pasture, 20 of marsh, 4*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* rent per ann. in this town, in trust, by fine, in the 11th of Edward II. and Sir William Kaly, Knt. was lord in the 50th year of Edward III.

The Caleys lived at Ohey in Flegg hundred, and by the marriage of Agnes, daughter and coheir of Sir William Caley, this manor came to Sir John Harsike of Southacre, whose son and heir, Sir Roger, by his will, dated in 1153, gives it to his right heir, after the decease of his wife, Aliee.

Sir Roger left 2 daughters and coheirs; Joan, the 2*d*, brought it to her husband, Richard Dorward, Esq. and his daughter and heir Margaret, to John Wingfeld, Esq. of Dunham Magna, whose son and heir, Thomas Wingfeld, and Elizabeth his wife, passed it by fine to Sir Thomas Lestrangle, of Hunstanton, Knt. in Trinity term, ao 21st Henry VIII. by the name of Caley's-Hall, in Hecham juxta Mare.

In this family it remained; Sir Henry Lestrangle dying lord, and so came to the Styemans.

The tenths of the town were 16*l.* 10*s.* Deducted 2*l.*

The temporalities of Sporle priory were 2*s.* and of Norwich priory 10*d. per ann.* Castleacre temporalities, 2*s.*

The monastery of St. Ibreyo in France, had a portion of tithe valued at two marks, and John de Ingoldesthorp one, valued at 5 marks.

The spiritualities of Lewes priory, being the rectory, were valued at 34 marks; the patronage of it was granted by Hamlyn Plantaginet Earl Warren and Surrey; it was appropriated, and the prior had the rectory-house, 2 carucates of glebe land, and was patron of the vicarage, and had then no house or land, valued at 8 marks. Peter-pence 2*s.* 6*d.*

The present valor of the vicarage is 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and built in a cathedral or conventual manner, has a nave, a north and south isle, with a north and south transept, or cross isles, and a chancel covered with lead, a square tower, and one bell.

On a mural monument against the wall of the north isle,

The priory of Lewes had a free chapel and a chantry in their house or cell here, which in 1269 they granted for life, to William de London.

Walter, son of Reginald de Elton, released to the prior all his right in the advowson of this church; witnesses, Sir Hugh de Caly, &c.

John Martyn was prior of this cell, in 1514, and in 1553, an annuity of 18s. 4d. was paid by the Crown to the late prior.

HUNSTANTON LORDSHIP

STANDS at the north east point of Norfolk, where it is washed by the great German ocean, and is remarkable for its lofty cliff, about 100 feet high, against which the raging sea comes with such force and fury, that it is supposed to have gained by length of time, a considerable tract of land, about 2 miles; the strata of this cliff, thus placed at this point, are worthy of observation; under the surface of the earth or mould, which is about 2 or 3 feet deep, lies a strong white chalk, then a red hard clunch stone, below that a stone of a yellow colour, and the lowest stratum is an exceeding durable, and hard rock stone of an iron colour, yet it is said that sometimes, in great storms, &c. the sea surmounts all.

Here, on certain great refluxes of the sea, called a dead neep, about the end of September, the inhabitants of the neighbouring villages can walk or ride, about 2 miles, to a place called the Oyster-Sea, where they take in their season, great quantities of oysters, some lobsters, &c. and indeed the shore abounds at all times with great variety of curious fish.

This point bears the name of St. Edmund, who, as our historians relate, landed hereabouts, when he came from Germany to be crowned king of the East-Angles, bequeathed to him by King Offa.

Edmund is also said to have built a royal tower here, to have resided here near a year, to get the whole book of Psalms by heart in the Saxon language, and from hence arose the first foundation of this village.

This formal history favours much of the cloister; it is scarce possible to believe that Edmund (if he landed here) would be so weak as to make a settlement in this place, and reside here, before he had taken possession of the crown that he came to obtain.

This must be granted to be an unpardonable neglect, and not to be acted by any prince on such a call, especially when it is well known that in that age the aspiring Kings of Mercia, or of the English Saxons, would gladly have laid hold of such an advantage, to seize on his kingdom, not to mention the cruel ravages and incursions made at that time in these parts, &c. by the savage Danes.

Old authors derive the name of the town from Honey, as betokening sweetness and great might: the ancients were bad etymologists, and some of the moderns (it is to be feared) do not excel them.

It is probable that it takes its name from a little rivulet that arises in Hunstanton park, and running thence to the hall, makes its way to the sea: thus we meet with Hunworth in Norfolk, and Hunwick in the county of Durham, &c. which terms Worth and Wick, assuredly betoken a site on rivers called Hun; also Hundon and Hunston in Suffolk.

The capital manor was in the King, when the grand survey was made, and William de Noiers had the care of it for the King.

Stigand, the Archbishop of Canterbury, was lord in King Edward's reign, and held it as his own lay or temporal fee, when it contained two carucates, but when William de Noiers received it, there was but one and an half, 16 villains, 4 borderers, 3 servi, and 8 acres of meadow; there were 2 carucates amongst the men or tenants, a mill, the moiety of a fishery, &c. and 4 socmen held 60 acres, valued at 70s. but at the survey at 110s. per ann.

In King Edward's time a free woman had 30 acres, which Ralph Waker Earl of Norfolk, held three years before (and at the time) he forfeited his lands, by his rebellion; afterwards Robert Blund and Godric, farmed it at 30s. with other land, but Sicard joined it again to this lordship, and Godric does not account for it; also three socmen of St. Bennet's, with 4 acres, were added to it, by William de Noiers.

The whole was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 6d. to a 20s. gelt, whoever may hold it.

Soon after the survey, King William I. granted to Alan, son of Flaald, the town and castle of Oswaldestre in Shropshire, &c. which belonged to Meridith ap Blethyn, the Britain, and had also a grant of the manor of Mileham, in Norfolk, &c. for his and his father's services in that King's expedition into England, and was ancestor of the noble family of Fitz-Alans Earls of Arundel.

Guy L'Estrange, or Extraneus, a principal officer under the aforesaid Alan, had a grant from him of the lordship of Knokin in Shropshire; and from this Guy descended the ancient family of the L'Estranges, Lords and Barons of Knocking, the Barons of Blackmere, and the L'Estranges of Hunstanton.

Dugdale in his Baronage, seems to make this Guy to be younger son of the Duke of Britain in France, and as he mentions not this Duke's name, nor his attachment to the Earls of Britain, who were also Earls of Richmond, at this time, and adds, as it is most likely, I shall endeavour to clear up this point, and relate many occurrences in the treating of this family, that I have found from authentic records, most of which have not (as I believe) as yet been published.

Guy, the first, the founder of the family of the L'Estranges, had 3 sons, Guy, Hamon, and John.

Guy, the eldest, was sheriff of Shropshire, in the 2d of Henry II. and in the 19th of that King, answered for 9l. 3s. 2d. for the old farm of the honour of William, son of Alan; and in the following year set a tax on the King's demesans.

This Guy left a son and heir, Ralph, who (as Dugdale says) died s. p. but it appears from a pleading, ao. 9th of Richard I. that he left 2 daughters and coheirs; Maud, who married Fulco de Oiri, lord of Gedney, in Lincolnshire; and Emma to Philip de Burnham of Norfolk.

So that we must return to Hamon, 2d son of Guy the first, who dying s. p. John his brother was left sole heir of the family.

Dugdale places the death of this John in the 3d of Henry III. but this mistake will appear from the following grant;

"John Cognomento Le Strange, by his deed, sans date, grants for the souls of Henry the younger, and Alianore the queen, and of William Earl of Arundel, his lord, and Queen Adelizia his wife &c. to the monks of Binham, all the fee that Ralph de Hunstanton had in Edgefield, and his son, Symon, after him, and after Reginald le Brun," to whom (as he expresses it in his deed) he succeeded, as right heir; witnesses, Ralph le Strange, William de Hunstanton, &c.

This was about the year 1173,<sup>6</sup> and the rebellion of Henry the younger, eldest son of King Henry II. who had been crowned King by his father, and so distinguished as the young King; and it proves that this John L'Estrange was in the rebellion against the old King, as was his wife, Queen Alianore, William Earl of Arundel, (whom he styles his lord, holding lands of him,) and this Earl's wife, Queen Adelizia, who was late wife of King Henry I.

John L'Estrange, the 2d son of John, was called in the 6th of Richard I. nephew of Reginald, whose sister his father married.

In the said year Simon de Perepoint, attorney of this John, demanded of Ralph de Plaiz, the manor of Bernham in Suffolk, by Thetford, as heir to Reginald de Brun his uncle, which Hugh de Plaiz gave with Helewisia his daughter, to Ralph, son of Herluine; and Reginald le Brun gave it in King Henry the Second's time, to the monks of Thetford.

Soon after this, Martin, the prior of Thetford, released a carucate of land at Bernham in Suffolk to John Le Strange, on John's giving him 20s. per ann. rent in Totington.

This record is remarkable for the entry of the agreement between the parties, on the back of the roll.

At this time he is called John Le Strange of Hunstanton, when there was an agreement between him and Robert Mortimer, concerning certain fees in this town, Totington, Ringstead, &c.

From this it appears that he was lord of Hunstanton in Richard the First's time.

In an old roll of the arms of those who served under Richard I. at the siege of Acon, in the Holy Land, John Le Strange is said to bear argent two lions passant, gules.

In the 9th of Henry III. he had a patent for a weekly mereate here on Friday,<sup>7</sup> and was father of John Lord Strange, who in the 16th of Henry III. was in the French wars, and died in the 53d of that King.

In a MS. entitled the Armory of Nobility, gathered and collated by Robert Cooke, Clarencieux, King of Arms, and after corrected and amended by Robert Glover, Somerset Herald in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, this John is said to be created Lord Knocking in the reign of King John, and to bear these arms, gules, two lions passant, argent.

This John Le Strange, who married Amicia, was the 3d Lord Strange of Knockyn, and father of John Lord Strange,<sup>8</sup> the 4th of that name, and of Hamon, Roger, and Robert.

Hamon was a person of great dignity and eminency in the 41st of Henry III. and in the 49th of that King, many houses in London were granted to this Hamon and other illustrious (illustribus, as the grant expresses it) persons, of some who were then attainted; in 1272 he gave to his brother, Robert, the manor of Wrockwarden in Shropshire, to be held by one chaplet of flowers, as appears by his deed, dated at Acton, April 12, Sir John Lovel, Sir Brian de St. Peter, Sir Robert de Standel, Sir John de Blound, Sir Hugh de Herford, &c. witnesses, the seal being two lions passant, and seemingly guardant.

He was a strict adherent to the King, and performed many good services for him against Simon Montfort Earl of Leicester; and in the 2d of Edward I. (before he went into the Holy Land) granted other manors to his brother Robert.

Roger, the other brother, was steward of King Edward the First's household ao. 8, and justiciary of that King's forests, ao. 4.

This John Lord Strange, the 4th of that name, and eldest brother of Hamon, succeeded his father as lord of this manor, &c.

In the 54th of Henry III. the sheriff of Norfolk gave an account of 7*l.* 2*s.* 4*d.* of the issues of it, before he delivered it to him: he married Lucy, daughter of Robert Tregos.

possessed a fee here about 1164; the confusion arises from so many of the same name.

This lord died in 1275 ; it was then found that William de Blomvill, sub-escheator, had seized it into the King's hands, and that he held one manor in Hunstanton, on one side of the water, of the heirs of Arundel's manor of Mileham, by one knight's fee, to which there belonged 300 acres of land, a mill, &c. and a manor on the other side of the water, of the Earls of Arundel, by the service of 5 fces, and that John was his son and heir, aged 22.

This John Lord Strange, the fifth of that name, married Joan, one of the daughters and coheirs of Roger Somery, Lord Dudley, by Nichola his wife, sister and coheir of Hugh Earl of Arundel, by whom a considerable estate was brought into this family, in this county, &c. with the manor of Milton, in Cambridgeshire. This lord, and Joan his wife, were living in 1280.

John Lord Strange, the 6th of that name, married Maud, daughter and coheir of Roger D'Eivill.

To this John Lord Knokyn, and Maud his wife, Edmund Fitz-Alan Earl of Arundel, granted in 1306, the manor of Trafford, in Cheshire, for life ; and the manor of Walton D'Eiville in Warwickshire was part of the inheritance that came by her.

This John had summons to attend the King into Gascoigne, in the 22d of Edward I. and died in the 3d of Edward II. Maud was found to be heir of Eubolo de Montibus, of Ketton, in Rutlandshire, 14th Edward II.

He left by Maud his wife, John his son and heir, who died soon after his father, in the 4th year of Edward II.; he was aged 27 at his father's death, married to Isolda, but whose daughter she was does not appear ; her arms, as in a seal impaled by this Lord John was a lion rampant.

He had 2 brothers, Eubolo and Hamon ; Eubolo was Knight of the Bath, and marrying Alice, daughter and heir of Henry Lacy Earl of Lincoln, (relict of Thomas, Duke of Lancaster) is sometimes called Earl of Lincoln, in right of his lady, and dying without issue, in the 9th of Edward III. Roger Lord Strange, son of his elder brother, John Lord Strange, was his heir.

Sir Hamon, the youngest brother, was enfeoffed of this manor by his elder brother, John Lord Strange, on Saturday before the feast of the Blessed Virgin, in the 3d of Edward II. as appears from the original grant or deed.

This Sir Hamon Le Strange married Margaret daughter of Sir Ralph Vernon of Motran in Cheshire, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir Brian de St. Peter, and heiress of Richard Vernon, descended from the Lords Vernon, of Shipbrook, in Cheshire. Isolda gave to Margaret, widow of this Sir Hamon, the custody of his son and heir Hamon.

He is said to die in the 10th of Edward II. and bore gules, two lions passant, argent, bruised, with a bendlet for difference, and from him the present family are immediately descended, and as his heirs lords of Hunstanton.

Hamon L'Estrange, Esq. his son, married Catherine, daughter and heiress of the Lord Canois : he died in the reign of Richard II. and was buried in the church of Hunstanton.

Sir John L'Estrange was son and heir of Hamon, and married Alianore, daughter and coheir of Sir Richard Walkfare ; in the 8th of Richard I. He and Alianore conveyed lands by fine, to Joanc, widow of Sir Thomas Felton, his wife's sister, and in the following year had letters of protection from the King,<sup>1</sup> and accompanied John Duke of Lancaster into Spain, which Duke being lord of Smethdon hundred, granted to him (for his services) that his tenants here should be exempt from serving on juries in his courts.

He and Alianore purchased lands in Stanhow and Docking, by fine, in the 8th of Henry IV. she was daughter of Sir Richard Walkfare, by ———, daughter and heir of Sir Thomas Morieux, of Suffolk, (who was made constable of the Tower of London, for life, by parliament, in the 5th of Richard II.) she survived her husband, and died in the 18th of Henry V.

Sir John was escheator for the duchy of Lancaster, in the 6th and 7th of Henry IV. also chief hostiarus of the King's palace; and in the 10th of Henry IV. sealed with 2 lions and a bendlet over all.

John Lestrage, Esq. son of Sir John, married Alice, daughter and heir of Nicholas Bemant, by Maud his wife, daughter and heir of John Pike, and Eleanore his wife, daughter and heir of Sir William de Rushbrook, of Suffolk, by Joan his wife, daughter of Walter Wells, Esq. lord of Raine Parva in Essex, by Isabel his wife, sister of Edmund de Kenseck, lord of Samford, and of Felstead in Essex, which Walter died in the 19th of Edward II. and was descended of the noble family of the Lord Wells in Lincolnshire.

Sir William de Rushbrook was living in the 36th of Edward III. This Alice outliving her husband,<sup>2</sup> John L'Estrange, Esq. and her son, Roger, died seised of Raine Parva, no. 11th of Edward IV.<sup>3</sup>

She married to her 2d husband, John Treyer, Esq. of Suffolk. John Lestrage, her first husband's will was proved in November, 1436; she married William Skrene, (as some say,) lord of Finbergh, &c. in Suffolk, to her 3d husband.

Roger L'Estrange, Esq. was son of John, by Alice Bemant afore-said: he married Jane, called in some writings, Jane Bebe, but whose daughter she was, does not appear; by her he had two sons, John and Henry, as appears from the inscription on the tomb of Sir Roger L'Estrange in this church.

This Roger is omitted in many pedigrees, and in the Baronetage, but by an inquisition taken in 1436, John L'Estrange, Esq. was found to die seized of the manor of Thorp Morieux, the manors of Brookhall, and Maydenhall, in Felsham, Suffolk, &c. and Roger was his son and heir by Alice his wife, aged 24.

John L'Estrange, Esq. the eldest son of Roger, succeeded in the inheritance, and in the 5th of Edward IV. by the name of John L'Estrange, of the city of Norwich, Esq. grandson and heir of John L'Estrange, Esq. late of Hunstanton, and Alice his wife, daughter of Nicholas Bemant, late of Pakenham in Suffolk, and of Maud his wife, sister of Nicholas Pike deceased. (s. p.) late of Colchester in Essex, released all his right to Sir John Howard, John Clopton, &c. in the manor of Shelleigh in Suffolk: he died s. p. 1476, and married two wives, Elizabeth, daughter of ——— who survived him, and

Henry Le Strange, Esq. was found heir to his brother, John, in 1476, then aged 30. His will is dated in 1483, wherein he desires to be buried in the chancel of this church, by the north wall, appoints Catharine his wife, and Roger Drury, of Haustead, Esq. in Suffolk, her father, executors, &c. and died seized of manors in Hunstanton, Holm, Ringsted, Hitcham, Scdgford, &c. Norfolk; and of Pakenham, and Stow Langtoft in Suffolk, &c. appoints masses to be said for the souls of Sir Hugh, and Sir Thomas de Morieux, knights.

It appears that he was also lord of Anmere-Hall,<sup>5</sup> and Castell-hall, Massingham Parva, and Congham, of Thorpe Morieux, Broke Hall, Maydenhall, Gorges, Hastings, and Ferdon's.

Catherine his widow, remarried Sir Robert Ratcliff of Attleburgh, and dying in 1496, was here buried.

Henry Lestrangle, Esq. left by his lady, Catherine, 3 heirs, Roger, Robert and John, who married Margaret, one of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Thomas Le Strange of Walton Deivile in Warwickshire, and lord of Massingham Parva. In the 11th of Edward IV. Henry, by the death of Alice his grandmother, (whose heir he was,) inherited the manor of Raines Parva, in Essex.

Sir Roger Le Strange, the eldest son, was esquire of the body to King Henry VII. and sheriff of Norfolk in the 2d of that King.

He built the gatehouse of Hunstanton hall, as appears from his arms, and those of his lady Amy, thereon, who was daughter of Sir Henry Heydon, of Baconsthorp, by whom he had a son and heir, John, who dying under age, Robert L'Estrange his brother, was his heir, as was found on an inquisition post mortem, in the 21st of Henry VII. 1506, and Anne his lady died in 1510.

Robert L'Estrange, Esq. married Anne, daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas L'Estrange, of Walton D'Eivile in Warwickshire, by whom he had Sir Thomas his son, and died in 1511.

Sir Thomas L'Estrange had settled on him by the executors of his uncle, Sir Roger, in performance of his last will, the manors of Thorpe Morieux, and Felsham, and his heirs; he died January 16, in the 36th of Henry VIII. leaving Nicholas his son and heir, aged 30, by Anne his wife, daughter of Nicholas Lord Faux, and Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Henry, Lord Fitz-Hugh: he was high of Norfolk in the 24th of Henry VIII. and left several sons and daughters.

Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, his son, had livery of this manor, Ringsted Magna and Parva, Mustrolls, Bernards, Caley's in Hitcham, Frynge, Godwich, Thorp, Felsham, &c.

In the 36th of Henry VIII. he was knighted in Ireland, sheriff of Norfolk, 1547, and knight of the shire in the first of Edward VI. and married first, Elen, daughter of Sir John Fitz-Williams, of Milton in Northamptonshire; his 2d wife was Catherine,<sup>6</sup> daughter of Sir John

Hide of Albury in Wiltshire, by whom he had no issue; he died 19th February, in the 22d of Elizabeth, and was buried (as is said) at Sedgeford, leaving Hamon, his eldest son and heir.

Robert, his 2d son, of Lynn, who married Joan, daughter and coheir of Christopher Athow, of Brisley, and John L'Estrange, lord of Sedgeford. Catherine, his 2d wife, died at Hunstanton, in 1589: she was widow of ——— Minns.

Sir Nicholas was chamberlain to Thomas Duke of Norfolk, and had in 1567, a grant of the site of the manor of Geywode in Norfolk, for 21 years.

Hamon, his son and heir, married Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of Sir Hugh Hastings, of Elsing in Norfolk, and had issue, Thomas, Nicholas, and Roger, who for his eminent services, performed to Maximilian II. Emperor of Germany, and the House of Austria, had a patent from the said Emperor, dated at Vienna, October 12, 1565, for an annual pension of 300 crowns, and was recommended by the said Emperor, to Queen Elizabeth, wherein he is called,

Rogerum Strangium virum genere et nobilitate clarum quem vehementer amamus, charumq; habemus.

This Hamon L'Estrange, Esq. died soon after his father, October 7, in the 22d of Elizabeth, and Thomas, his eldest son, did not survive him long, dying in the 18th year of his age, February 1, in the 23d of Elizabeth, without any issue, by Grisil his wife, daughter of William Yelverton, Esq. of Rougham.

Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, 2d son of Hamon, was heir to his father, and married first, Mary, daughter of Sir Robert Bell, of Outwell, lord chief baron of the Exchequer, and his 2d wife was Anne, daughter of Sir William Paston, by whom he had no issue: she was widow of Sir George Chaworth, of Nottinghamshire, and married a 3rd husband, Sir Anthony Cope.

He was knighted in Ireland in 1586, and died at Wyveton in Nottinghamshire, and supposed to be buried there in 1592.

Sir Hamon L'Estrange was heir to his father, Sir Nicholas, by Mary his wife; he espoused Alice, 2d daughter and coheir of Richard Stubbs, Esq. of Sedgeford, by whom he had 3 sons, who survived him; Nicholas, Hamon, and Sir Roger L'Estrange, famous for his voluminous writings.

Sir Hamon died in 1654, and his lady Alice in 1656: he was high sheriff of Norfolk, 1609.

Nicholas, the eldest son, was created a baronet, June 1, 1629, and by Anne his wife, daughter of Sir Edward Lewknor of Denham in Suffolk, left Sir Nicholas his son and heir, dying in 1656, and his lady in 1663: he left bearing the bendlet in his arms,

Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, baronet, son of Sir Nicholas, married 2 wives, Mary, daughter of John Coke, Esq. of Holkham, and Elizabeth daughter of Sir Justinian Isham, baronet, by whom he had issue, a son, and 2 daughters, and by Mary. Nicholas his son and heir.

Sir Nicholas died in 1669.—Coke's arms were per pale, azure and gules, 3 eaglets counterchanged; Isham's, gules, a fess, wavy, and 3 piles in chief, argent.

Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, baronet, son and heir of Sir Nicholas, and Mary his wife, married Anne, daughter of Sir Thomas Woodhouse, of Kimberley, by whom he had Hamon, who died unmarried, on his travels into Italy, &c. Sir Thomas his successor, and Henry; also 2 daughters, Airmine, married to Nicholas Stileman, Esq. of Suctesham, and Lucy, to Sir Jacob Astley, baronet, of Melton Constable in Norfolk.

Sir Nicholas died in 1725, and his lady in April, 1727.

Sir Thomas L'Estrange, baronet, son of Sir Nicholas, succeeded him in his estate and honor, and espoused Anne, daughter, and afterwards coheir of Sir Christopher Calthorp, of East Barsham in Norfolk, Knight of the Bath, and having no issue, Sir Henry L'Estrange, baronet, his brother, was his heir in 175-, and married Mary, daughter of the Honourable Roger North, Esq. of Rougham, in Norfolk, the last worthy lord of this manor; and bears gules, two lioncels, passant, argent, and the arms of Ulster, as a baronet; crest, a lion passant, guardant, motto, Mihi parta tueri. North, azure, lion passant, or, between three lis, argent: he died s. p., September 9, 1760, and was the last heir male of this ancient family.

From what has been abovementioned of this family, it evidently appears to be of great antiquity, and to have been possessed of this lordship from the beginning of the reign of Henry I. (if not before) about 600 years, and that Guy, the founder or it in England, was not a son of the Duke of Britain in France, but came into England, with Alan, son of Flaald, ancestor of the Earls of Arundel at the conquest.

All the lordships and fees that they anciently held, both in this county and that of Shropshire, (where they had very great and valuable possessions) being held of the said Alan and his descendants.

If this family had been so nearly, or any way related to the dukes, or earls of Britain, what might they not have enjoyed, and been enfeoffed of by Alan Rufus, or Fergeant, Earl of Britain in France?

Alan married a daughter of the Conqueror, was made Earl of Richmond, in England, on the conquest, and rewarded with 456 lordships, 81 of which (as Dugdale says) were in Norfolk, whereas, in none of these (as far as I have seen) had the Stranges any interest. Another prevailing reason or proof is from the arms of this family.

It is very well known, that in ancient days, it was a common practice for those who were enfeoffed of any lordship, to take up the chief bearings of their capital lords, only changing or varying the colours, or position of their bearings, and as Earl of Arundel bore gules, a lion rampant, or, so the L'Estranges assumed the lion; whereas the Dukes of Britain bore a field ermine.

It is most probable, that Guy L'Estrange aforesaid, and so called in the time of the Conqueror, brought that name with him from France, and did not assume it as being a stranger, but took it (as most of the Norman chiefs and leaders did) from some town or lordship that they held in France.

Charles Marquis De Chateaufeuf, 2d brother of Henry Duke de la Ferte, &c. peer and marshal of France, married Mary de Hautefort, daughter and heir of Claude de Hautefort, Viscount de la Strange, and had issue, Henry Marquis de Chateaufeuf, and Viscount Lestrange. William Le Strange was archbishop of Roan in Normandy, legate of Pope Clement VI. and died 1388.

The family is highly ancient in France, originally of the province of Limosin, where is the castle of Le Strange, in a parish of the same name, and very lately, if not at this time, there were two branches of it, one in the county of Vivanois, in the province of Languedoc, and the other in the county of La March, who were allied to most of the houses of France; and here in England there were the Lords Le Strange, Barons of Knockyn, the Lords Le Strange of Blackmere, also the Lords of Ellesmere and of Corsham.

The Lord Le Strange of Knockyn, in the reign of King John, bore gules, two lions passant, argent; and Le Strange, Lord of Blackmere, argent, two lions passant, gules; so this family bore the lions as the Lord Knockyn.

John Le Strange, lord of this town, and Ralph Le Strange, were living about the year 1173, as I have shewn.

BIGOT'S FEE.

Roger Bigot had also at the survey, a very considerable lordship, which Ralph, son of Herluin, held under him, and which belonged to a freeman, in the reign of King Edward. Two carucates then there were in demean, 12 villains, 6 borderers, 3 servi, 6 carucates of the tenants, and 5 acres, then one mill, &c. and a fishery, one horse, one cow, paurage for 40 swine, &c. 80 sheep, &c. five skeps of bees, and 2 soemen belonged to it, with 10 acres, valued at 3*l.* but at the survey at 4*l. per ann.*

In the same town, Torn, a freeman, held in King Edward's time, one carucate in demean, with 3 villains, 4 borderers, 3 servi, and 2 acres and a half of meadow, half a carucate of the tenants, a fishery, and one cow, &c. and 3 soemen 5 acres of land, valued at 20*s. per ann.* The whole was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 16*d.* to a 20*s. gelt.*

Four freemen also, in King Edward's time, had 65 acres. Ralph, son of Herluine, held this also, under Bigot.

At the survey there was a carucate, and 2 oxgangs, then valued at 16*s.* at the survey at 4*s.*<sup>7</sup>

All this, thus enjoyed by Roger Bigot at the survey, ancestor of the Bigots, Earls of Norfolk, was confirmed or granted to John Lord Strange, by Hugh Bigot Earl of Norfolk, in the reign of Henry II. (who was capital lord) and it appears that the Lord Strange was heir to Herluin, and Ralph his son, whose son, Reginald, surnamed Le Brun, was uncle to John Le Strange, son of John Le Strange, nephew and heir of the said Reginald.

In 1195, there was a fine levied between Robert Mortimer and John Le Strange, of 5 knights fees in Hunstanton, Ringstead, Suetterton, and Tottington, all which Robert acknowledged to belong to John and his heirs, who gave Robert in return, certain lands at Tottington.

However, it is certain, that the Albings, Earls of Arundel and Sussex, had a considerable, if not the greatest interest herein, Roger Bigot enfeoffing William de Pincerna, the King's butler, founder of the Arundel family, (on his marriage with Maud his daughter) in 10 knights fees, in this county, and Snetterton was a part of the same.

In the 3d of Edward I. John Le Strange was found to hold in this town, Ringstead, Holm, Snetterton, &c. 5 fees of the castle of Rysing, which right he had, as appears by this, from the marriage of Joan, one of the daughters and coheirs of Roger Somery Lord Dudley, and Nichola his wife, one of the sisters and coheirs of Hugh Earl of Arundel, into this family.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Le Strange held 2 fees here, of the castle of Rysing. The Le Stranges who held this, performed duty for it, called castle guard, at Rising castle, (where was a tower that was called Stranges, or Hunstanton tower) and of which Nicholas Le Strange died seized in the 22d of Elizabeth, and the family is at this time lord of this.

There were also other tenures depending on this fee of Bigot.

MUSTRELL'S MANOR.

In the 30th of Henry III. Sir Roger de Mustrell was living; in the 37th of that King, Robert le Marshall was found guilty of breaking the pound of Robert de Musteroyl in this town; and in the 52d of that King, Richard de Boyland had a power, by fine, then levied, to distrain for rent due to the prioress of Carhow, by leave from Hamon Mounstrell, in this manor; and Adam de Mustrell gave to his son Hamon, lands here, in the 7th of Edward I.

Thomas de Aldingshelde, and Beatrix his wife, conveyed to Simon, son of Robert Fransham, of Hitcham, the manor of Mustrell's Hall, in the 26th of Edward III. and in the 3d of Richard II. John Chambers, or Atte-Chamber, son and heir of Beatrix Lovell, released to Simon, son of Robert Fransham, all his right in Mustrell's Hall, in Hunstanton.

Sir Robert Knolls, in the 6th of Henry IV. had an interest herein; but in the 11th of Henry VI. Sir Philip Redford, and Alianore his wife, conved it with lands in Hitcham, &c. valued at 28*l.* per ann. to Henry Nottingham, of Holm. Robert Timpertey and Joane his wife, in the 10th of Edward IV. passed it to Henry Smith and James Hobart, with a fold course in this town.

After this, it came to the L'Estranges, and Thomas L'Estrange died seized of it in the 36th of Henry VIII. held of the Earl of Arundel, by the fourth part of a fee, as did Sir Nicholas in the 22d of Elizabeth.

In the same family it still continues, united with the other manors.

In some accounts that I have seen, this manor of Mustrell's, is said to belong to the Earls of Clare, of whom they certainly held lands in this town, but on account of the aforesaid inquisitions, I have here placed it.

John, nephew of Waleran, held a lordship here, which the same freeman, (viz. Bou, as in Ringsted) held in the Confessor's time, when there were 2 carucates of land, 5 borderers, 3 servi, and 2 acres of meadow, of the men, one cow, &c. and a socman had 5 acres, valued at 20s. at the survey at 40s. per ann. and a church without any glebe.*

All Ringsted, under which this is charged, is one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and pays 8*d.* to a 20s. gelt.

CLARE-FEE, OR LOVELL'S MANOR.

How long it continued in Waleran's hands, does not appear; it probably came soon after to the Giffards Earls of Buckingham, and by a daughter and heiress of that family, by marriage, into the family of the Clares, about the end of Henry II's reign.<sup>9</sup>

John Lovell was lord of it in the 21st of Edward I. and in the 5th of Edward II. John Lovell of Titchmersh, settled by fine this manor, with one in Walpole, on William Lovell and his heirs.

William Lovell, in the 20th of Edward III. held 2 parts of a fee of the Lady Elizabeth de Burgh, and was found to have free warren; and in the 22d of Richard II. William Lovell had one fee here, in Walpole and Walton, of Roger Mortimer, Earl of March, of the honour of Clare.

About this time, Thomas de Aldingshelds and Beatrix his wife, also appear to have had an interest herein, which they conveyed to Simon, son of Robert de Fransham.

William Lovell held one fee here, &c. in the 3d of Henry VI. and in the 11th of that king, Sir Philip Redford and Alianore his wife, had an interest in it, which, with 50 acres of land in this town and Hecham, they granted to Henry Nottingham of Holm, &c.

After this, Robert Fitz-Simon held it; and in the 16th of Edward IV. Robert Timperley and Joan his wife, daughter and heir of Robert Fitz-Simon, possessed it.

After this, it came into the family of Le Strange, and so continues united to the other lordships.

Alfric, Bishop of Elmham, in King Canute's time, had lands here, as appears from his will, which land, at Hunstanestune, by Esten-Broke, he gives to St. Edmund,—that is to Bury abbey;† these words by Eastern Brooke, bespeak the site of the land, which no doubt, was near to the rivulet, (which, as I have observed,) gave name to the town, and by which Hunstanton-Hall is seated.

The tenths were 8*l.* 12*s.* Deducted 1*l.* 12*s.* being paid by the religious for their lands.

There was an ancient family of the name of De Hunstanton. In the 4th of King John, as appears by a fine, that Ralph Hunstanton bought of Ralph Le Strange, 40 acres of land here; and Roger de Hunstanton was living in the reign of King Henry II. and had exported corn without license, as was not lawful to be done then, and was fined on that account.

Elfride de Hunston was one of the jury for this hundred in the 3d of Edward I.

Hunstanton Hall, the ancient seat of the family of Le Strange, was built at several times, and consists chiefly of an oblong square; before the front runs a pretty stream or rivulet, (which I have before mentioned) walled on each side, to preserve it clean and regular, serving not only as an ornament, but as a moat or guard to the house; over this is a bridge, leading to the gate-house, which, with the wings and buildings on each side, were erected by Sir Roger Le Strange, in the reign of Henry VII. as may be seen by his arms, carved on the stone work, on one side of the great arch, and by that of his lady, a Heydon;

Quarterly, argent and gules, a cross ingrailed, counterchanged on the other.

In the windows of the hall were, in the painted glass, many arms of the families into which the Le Stranges married; and in the great dining room which is above stairs, on the summit of the wainseot, are painted in their proper colours, the following shields of their matches:

Le Strange impaling Fernou, or, on a fess, azure, three garbs, (or wheat-sheafs) of the first; also impaling Camois, argent, on a chief, gules, three pleats; impaling Walkfare, argent, a lion rampant, sable, on his shoulder, a mullet, or, with Moricux, gules, on a bend, argent, nine billets, sable; impaling Beman or Beaumont, or, a cinquefoil pierced, gules, with Pike, argent, three piles, wavy, gules; and Rushbrook, sable, a fess between three roses, or; also Lestrange impaling Drury, argent, on a chief, vert, a tau between two mullets, or; impaling Le Strange, of Warwickshire, gules, two lions passant, guardant, or, crowned or; impaling Vaux, cheque, argent and gules, on a chevron, azure, three cinquefoils, or; impaling Fitz-Williams, lozengy, argent and gules; and Hide, azure, between three lozenges, or; impaling Hastings, or, a maunch, gules; impaling Yelverton, argent, three lions rampant, and a chief, gules; impaling Bell, sable, a fess, ermine, between three bells, argent; impaling Stubbs, sable, on a bend, between three phæons, as many round buckles of the first; impaling Lewknor, argent, three chevronels, azure.

By the sea side on the cliff, stands some remains of the old chapel of St. Edmund, built chiefly of the chalk-stone out of the cliff; it had one window, on the north side to the sea, with a north door, and a door on the south side, with 3 windows, and one at the east end: it is now all open, great part of the walls, which were about five feet thick, being dilapidated, and seems to have been built about the reign of Edward I.

Near to this old chapel stands a light-house for ships.

The temporalities of Norwich priory were in 1428, 4s.

The CHURCH was a rectory, valued at 27 marks, and granted by John Lord Strange, in the reign of Henry III. to the abbey of Haughmond, in Shropshire, founded by William Fitz-Alan, which Alan, father of this William, gave this lordship to Guy le Stranges.<sup>2</sup>

It was frequently a practice (as may be observed in all history) in ancient days, for lords of manors, out of gratitude and respect, to grant the right and patronage of their churches to the abbies or priories that were founded by their capital lords, by whom they were enfeoffed of the said manor.

On this it was appropriated to the aforesaid abbey, and a vicarage was settled, to which the abbot presented, and the Bishop of Norwich nominated; valued at 10 marks. Peter-pence 5*d.* ob.

It is said to have been appropriated to provide flesh and fish for the convent.

Sporle priory alien had a portion of 30*s.* per ann. out of this church, granted in the reign of Henry VI. to Joan, queen dowager of England.

The spiritualities of West Derham abbey, with Winwaloy priory, were 13*s.* 4*d.* The present valor of the vicarage is 12*l.*

The church is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, is a large regular building, with a north and south isle, and nave, and a chancel, all covered with lead, and at the west end of the north isle, is a strong foursquare tower, with one bell.

In the centre of the chancel stands a most noble and beautiful altar monument of marble, curiously ornamented with brass, and the portraiture of a knight in complete armour, having on his surtout the arms of L'Estrange, quartering Vernon, Camois, Walkfare, Morieux, Pike, Rushbrook, &c. with his crest on his helmet, a lion passant, guardant; over his head have been 2 brass shields, with the arms of L'Estrange, impaling Heydon, one of which still remains, and two at his feet, now one remaining, quarterly L'Estrange and Morieux, also one on each side of him, now reaved.

On each side of this, is a rim or fillet of brass, setting forth the pedigree of the family, with their portraiture and arms, since their settlement here, some of which are now reaved.

On the right side Sir Hamon L'Estrange, impaling Vernon; Hamon L'Estrange, Esq. and Camois; Sir John L'Estrange, and Walkfare and Morieux; John L'Estrange, Esq. and Bemond, Pike and Rushbrook. On the left side Roger L'Estrange, Esq. and Bebe, John L'Estrange, Esq. and de Park; Henry L'Estrange, Esq. and Drury; and Sir Roger L'Estrange and Heydon.

On the foot of the monument,

Rememberer a moy,—remember L'Estrange.

On a fillet of brass round the edge of the stone,

HOLM BY THE SEA,

So called from its site by the water, and to distinguish it from Holme, in South Greenhow hundred, &c. Holm bespeaks a watery vale.

Part of this town was possessed by a freeman, in the days of the Confessor, who being expelled by the Conqueror, it was farmed of him, or took care of by Godric at the survey, consisting of 40 acres, 3 borderers, and one carucate, valued at 10s. and St. Bennet (that is the abbot of Ramsey) had the soc.<sup>4</sup>

This came after to Alan, son of Flaald, and so the Stranges, as in Hunstanton manor, by the gift of the King; and William de Albiny's (ancestor to the Earls of Arundel) lordship in Hunstanton extending here, came also into the same family.

In the 3d of Henry III. John Le Strange held here and in Hunstanton one fee and a quarter, of the barony of Mileham; and in the 3d of Edward I. John Le Strange was presented to hold in this town, Hunstanton, &c. 5 fees of the castle of Rising; and Hamon Le Strange held the same in the 20th of Edward III. and in this family the lordship of Holm continues, Sir Henry L'Strange, Bart. being the late lord.

HOLKHAM'S AND BERRY'S MANORS.

Bigot's manor of Ringsted, of which see there, extended into this town. William Bardolf, in the 20th of Edward III. held half a fee here, and in Ringsted, of William Calthorp, he of Hamon Le Strange, and he of Isabel Queen of England, as of the castle of Rising, which William Battail formerly held.

After this John Battail and Sibill his wife conveyed in the 40th of Edward III. to William de Rugham, and John de Holkham, lands and rents here, in Ringsted, and Hunstanton, from the heirs of Sibill; and

William de Kelsey and Elizabeth his wife, convey their parts from the heirs of Elizabeth, to John de Holkham.

This John made his will on the feast of St. Stephen, 1384, lord of the manor of Holkham, in this town, leaving by Elizabeth his wife, Gregory his son, and Margaret his wife, and a son, John.<sup>5</sup>

After this, Richard Cause died (as it seems) seized of it in the 19th of Edward IV. and in the 53th of Henry VIII. Richard Everard, and Lucia his wife, conveyed it to Thomas Stone, with 140 acres of land, and 4 of pasture, 5 of salt-marsh, liberty of foldage, and 4s. rent in this town, Ringsted and Hunstanton.

Walter Aslake of Creke, gives by his will, dated February 1, and proved March 7, in 1503, his manor in Holm to his nephew, William Aslake, and to Thomas his nephew, Bardolph's manor here and in Ringsted; and Elizabeth Aslack, widow, daughter and heir of Thomas Bardolf, Esq. and Alice his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Edmund Berry, Knt. by deed, sans date, grants to Robert Clerc, Robert Drury, and Edmund Jenny, Knights, John Yaxley, serjeant at law, &c. the manor of Willingham, in Suffolk, &c. to hold for the use of the said Elizabeth, for life, after to William Aslake her son, and his heirs; remainder to Thomas her son; and by an inquisition taken April 8, in the 23d of Henry VIII. William Aslack was found to die June 17, 1531, seized of the aforesaid manor; and Thomas, son and heir of Christopher Playters, and Elizabeth his wife, sister of the said William, was his heir.

In the 7th of Edward VI. Richard Aslack appears by the escheat rolls, to die seized of several messuages and lands in this town, Ringsted and Hunstanton, held by knight's service, of Elizabeth, widow of Sir Henry Parker, heir to Sir Philip Calthorp, and William was his son and heir.

Aslack bore sable, a chevron, between three Catherine wheels, argent.

The Bardolfs and Berrys, lords of this manor, had an interest in the patronage of the same.

By an inquisition, taken on October 20, in the 26th of Elizabeth, William Playters of Sotterly in Suffolk, Esq. was found to die seized of the lordships of Berries and Holkham, in Holm, held of ——— Le Strange, as of his manor of Hunstanton, in soccage, by fealty, valued at 3l. per ann. with the manors and advowsons of Sotterley, Uggeshale, and Elloughe, and the reversion of the lordship of Breseworth, or Brensyard, in Suffolk: he died June 6, in the aforesaid year, and Thomas was found to be his son and heir, aged 18 years.

From the Playters (as I take it) it came to the Spilmans, and Sir John Spilman, son of Sir Henry, and Roger, son of Sir John, and Charles Spilman of Congham, were lords; which last sold it to ——— Basset of Lynn.

After this it came to Thomas Rogers, Esq. of Dersingham; and Mr. Case of Mildenhale is the present lord, who purchased it of Mr. Reneaut.

The Lord Bardolf had also a manor here and in Ringsted; of which see there.

William de Scolics had also a lordship in this town which 2 freemen held in King Edward's time, with 40 acres, and 3 borderers; there was always belonging to it a carucate and an half, which was valued in his manor of Bircham; also another freeman, with half a carucate of land, &c. valued at 5s.<sup>6</sup> was ejected, who held it before the conquest.

This lordship came from Scobies to Walter Giffard, Earl of Bucks, and from that family to the Earls of Clare, as may be seen in Bircham Magna and Ringstead Parva.

Gilbert de Clare, Earl of Gloucester and Hereford, held here, in Bircham and Ringstead Parva, one fee in capite, which Nicholas de Bircham formerly held of the honour of Clare.

In the 8th of Edward II. the heirs of William Bemond were found to hold here, &c. the fourth part of a fee of the said honour, as did Matthew Cachevache. The Lady Elizabeth de Burgh, held it in capite in the 29th of Edward III. as did Roger Mortimer, Earl of March, in the 22d of Richard II. and Edmund Mortimer, Earl of March, in the 3d of Henry VI.

It came afterwards to the Stranges, and Hamon Le Strange of Hunstanton, held it in the 22d of Elizabeth, of the King, as heir to the Earl of March, and part of the honour of Clare.

In that family it remained; Sir Henry Le Strange, Bart. died seized of it.

BAYNARD'S MANOR.

This town gave name to a family who held lands by knight's service. Godfrey de Holme, in the 16th of Edward I. was acquitted of performing suit to the court of James, son of Jeffrey Banard, of Holme, for lands granted by Cassandra, wife of Geffrey, to Nicholas de Holm, on paying 2*l.* per ann. for all services; and in the 18th of the said King, George, son of Laurence de Holm, impleaded the abbot of Lilleshall in Shropshire, for the advowson of the church of St. Mary de Hulmo, by the Sea, of which his ancestor was possessed in the time of King Richard I. but George not appearing, judgment was given that the abbot and his successors, should quietly enjoy it.

Thomas Holm aliened lands in the 9th of Edward II. to the abbey of Ramsey, whose manor of Ringsted extended into this town.

In the 14th of that reign, Laurence de Repps and Joan his wife, settled on Henry, son of John de Holm by the Sea, lands here, in Ringsted and Hunstanton.

The lords of this manor had an interest in the patronage.

In the 37th of Henry VIII. Sir Thomas L'Estrange was found to die possessed of the manor of Baynard's in this town and Ringsted, held, as then found, of the Duke of Norfolk.

On the death of Sir Nicholas, in the 34th of Elizabeth, it was found to be held of the manor of Mileham.

The honour of Richmond also extended here. Bartholomew Benneyt, one of the heirs of James Bainard, held in the reign of Henry III. the 20th part of a fee of John de Britannia.

Alan de Swaffham held half a fee of the said honour.

The temporalities of Ramsey abbey were valued at 5*l.* per ann. In 1428, their manor of Ringstead Magna, &c. extending into this town. On the dissolution, this came to the L'Estranges; and continued in that family until Hamon L'Estrange, Esq. of Bury, gave it with the patronage of the vicarage, to Counsellor Johnson of Norwich, on his marriage with one of his daughters and coheirs.

John Myller of Thoruham-Bishops, by his will, in 1488, gives to the men being, and inhabiting in Holm, his marsh on the west side of the said town, to the use and profit of the community of the said village for ever.<sup>7</sup>

In the 15th of Richard II. he sold lands here and in Ringsted, to Sir John White; is said to have been an itinerant judge in that reign, and lies buried in a chapel at the east end of the south isle, under a marble gravestone, with the effigies or portraiture of himself and wife in brass, and this epitaph;

THE CHURCH was anciently a rectory, valued at 60 marks, with the then vicarage, and the right of presentation appears to be in several hands.

In the 34th of Henry II. John, abbot of Ramsay, resigned all his right herein, by fine, to John Strange, before John Bishop of Norwich, Ralph de Glanville, the King's justiciary, Godfrey de Lucey, and Richard, Archdeacon of Hereford;<sup>9</sup> and John L'Estrange, son of John L'Estrange, and Lucy his wife, gave to the abbot of Litleshall in Shropshire, their right of patronage of this church; witnesses, Sir Henry, Sir Roger, and Sir Robert, brother to the said John, (whom I take to be the second Lord Strange of Knockyn) Sir John de Hodelwell, and Sir William de Hugfort (the deed being sans date.)

John Le Strange, and the Lady Joan de Somery (his wife) confirmed the donation of this church, made by their ancestors, to Littleshale abbey; witnesses, Roger Spurgehose, then sheriff of Shropshire, Sir Hugh Burnel, Sir Reginald de Lee, and Sir Adam de Chetwynde, dated at Knokyn 4 cal. Febr. 1280.

William, son of Alan de la Sale de Swaffham, conveyed his right to Ralph, abbot of Littleshale, in the 14th of Edward I.

On August 19, 1398, the rectory was appropriated to the aforesaid abbey, by Henry Spencer Bishop of Norwich, and a vicarage settled and endowed.

On the dissolution of religious houses, the impropriate rectory came to the Crown; and on the 8th of March, in the 8th of Elizabeth, was granted to Roland Hayward, and Thomas Dyxon, and was afterwards possessed by Richard Stubbs, Esq. who, by deed, dated May 21, in the 15th of King James I. settled it on Hamon Le Strange, younger son of Sir Hamon Le Strange of Hunstanton, and of Alice his wife, with 96 acres of land here, in Hunstanton, Ringsted, Magna and Parva, late Thomas Bygg's, Gent. remainder to Roger L'Strange, another son of the aforesaid Hamon, held (as said) of the honour of Clare, and paying 6s. 8d. per ann.

The abbot of Ramsey had a portion of tithes valued at one mark, in this church, in 1428, and the cellarer of Norwich, a pension of 4s. per ann. The portion of Ralph Berry at 2 marks, that of the prior of Sporle at 3 marks. Peter-pence, 2s.

The vicarage is now valued at 6l. 13s. 4d.

In the 19th of Edward I. the abbot of Littleshale gave half a mark for license of agreement with William de Sale of Swaffham, in a plea concerning the patronage of this church.

The patronage of the rectory was in the Lord Strange.

RECTORS.

John de Happesburgh was collated vicar by Thomas Blundevile Bishop of Norwich; and William de Raleigh, bishop, collated Thomas de Norwich, but William de Tregoz, rector, and his patron, the Lord John Le Strange, appealing against it, and requiring the vicarage to be consolidated to his rectory, it was agreed that Thomas, the vicar, should enjoy his vicarage for life, and should after be consolidated to the rectory; dated at Gaywod, 4 kal. Augi Pontific. ao. 4.

In December, 1626, a great whale was cast on the shore here, the wind blowing strong at north-west, 57 feet long, the breadth of the nose end 8 feet, from nose end to the eye, 15 feet and a half, the eyes about the same bigness as those of an ox, the lower chap closed, and shut about 4 feet short of that of the upper; this lower chap narrow towards the end, and therein were 46 teeth, like the tusks of an elephant, the upper one had no teeth, but sockets of bones to receive the teeth: 2 small fins only, one on each side, and a short small fin on the back: it was a male, had a pizzle about 6 feet long, and about a foot in diameter near its body; the breadth of the tail from one outward tip to the other, was 13 feet and an half.—The profit made of it was 217*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.* and the charge in cutting it up and managing it came to 100*l.* or more.

INGALDESTHORP.

THE principal lordship of this town was in King Edward's time possessed by Torvert, a freeman, who had 3 carucates in demean, 10 villains, 15 borderers, 2 servi, with 50 acres of meadow; there were at that time, 3 carucates amongst the men, 2 mills and a salt-pit, 5 fisheries, 8 horses, 14 mares, &c. 340 sheep, and three freemen had a carcate, and 37 acres of land.

Peter Lord Valoins had a grant of this on the expulsion of Torvert, to whom belonged their right of foldage and protection, but Stigand had the soc, when it was valued at 9*l.* per ann. at the survey at 10*l.* but 12*l.* per ann. was paid for it, and was half a leuca long, and 5 furlongs broad, and paid 12*d.* to a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>2</sup>

Some suppose this town to take its name from one Ingulph, a Saxon, who was lord of it; but it is more probable it derives its name from a small rivulet that runs by it, called now corruptly Ingol, but formerly Eulves, and in the grand survey, Eulves-Thorp, and also Thorp alone, without any additional name, and lying by meadows, and marshes, obtained the additional word Ing, and so Ingeulves-Thorp, or Ingaldesthorp.

Of the family of the Lords Valoins and their descendants, a particular account may be seen in Dersingham, where also they had the capital lordship.

Ralph Fucatus held it in the Conqueror's reign, of Peter Lord Valoins; and Fulk de Mumpinzun was lord of it in right of his wife, Agnes, daughter and heir of Fucatus, by whom he had a son, Ralph.

About the 3d of Henry III. Giles de Montepinzun was found to hold three knights fees in this town, of Yghulvesthorp and Riburgh, in Norfolk, and in Beleden in Essex.<sup>3</sup>

Giles, son of Ralph, was lord in the 34th of that King, and held it, as appears by a pleading of Isabella, wife of David Comyn. Sir Giles was a knight banneret, and died about 1320.

In the 9th of Edward I. Sir John de Mompinzun had a charter for free warrin in this manor, and that of Ryburgh; and in the 27th of that King, this lordship was settled by fine on Giles de Mountpinzun and Eustachia his wife, and their heirs, by Oliver de Mountpinzun, &c. their trustees.<sup>4</sup>

William, son of Sir Gyles, conveyed it by fine, in the 7th of Edward II. to Robert, son of John Walkefare, and Margaret his wife, together with the advowson of this church, who occurs lord in 1327.

After this, Sir Richard Walkefare inherited it; and in 1349, the Lady Eufemia de Walkefar presented to this church.

Of this family was Sir Thomas de Walkefare, who signalized himself at the battle of Poytiers in France; and in the 31st of Edward III. had from that King, a safe conduct for his prisoner, Sir Tristram de Mugalies, for Broinard, Gerrard de Brois, and Megerdos, the scutiferi or esquires of the said Sir Tristram, and for his three valets, to go on horseback or on foot, to France, to procure his ransom.<sup>5</sup>

In the 43d of the said King, Sir Thomas Felton, Knt. of the Garter, possessed it; but in the 8th of Richard II. Sir John L'Estrange of Hunstanton, and Alianore his wife, who was daughter and coheir of Sir Richard Walkfar, for 500 marks, sold their right in this and Dersingham manor, to the Lady Joan, relict of Sir Thomas Felton, and sister to Alianore; and in the 12th of that King, the Lady Joan settled it in trust, on Richard de Burnham, parson of Queen Hithe, in London.

In the 3d year of Henry V. John Curson, son of Sir John Curson, released to John Clifton and others, all his right herein, late the Lady Felton's. William Curson, Esq. son and heir of Sir John Curson, of Belough, released in the 28th of Henry VI. all his right herein, to his father, and his wife, Joan; and Sir John Curson died seized of it, as appears by his will, dated January 10, 1471, and gives it to Thomas his son and heir, who died lord in 1511, leaving Dorothy his wife. John Curson, Esq. his son and heir, inherited it, and on his death, in 1546, it descended to William Curson, Esq. and to his son Thomas Curson, Esq. by Thomasine his wife.

About the year 1600, John Cremer, Gent. was lord and patron, and by Anne his wife, daughter of ——— Tash, had John Cremer of Ingaldesthorp, who married Margaret, daughter of William Boyton of Fitcham, in Norfolk, Esq. Francis Cremer was his son and heir, who by Margaret his wife, daughter of John Pell of Dersingham, Gent. had Francis, a son, aged 10 years, and a son Charles, in the year 1664; the arms of the family were argent, three wolves heads erased, sable, on a chief, gules, as many cinquefoils; crest, a ram's head erased.<sup>6</sup>

Sir John Cremer of Ingaldesthorp was high sheriff of Norfolk in 1660.

Robert Cremer, Gent. sold this manor about 1750, (and afterwards entered into holy orders) to Theodore Hoste, Esq. brother to Colonel Hoste, of Sandringham, to whom he devised it, and Theodore Hoste, Esq. second son of the said colonel, is the present lord, as his male heir.

Another lordship in this town, (called Torp) belonged to Turchetel, a freeman, in the Confessor's reign, which on the conquest was granted to Roger, son of Renard; to this there belonged a carucate and an half of land, 5 borderers, 2 servi, and 3 acres of meadow, 2 carucates in demean, afterwards 6 oxgangs, or bovates, &c. half a carucate of the tenants, the moiety of a mill, and a fishery, &c. valued in Turchill's time at 20s. at the survey at 30s. and Stigand had the soc.<sup>7</sup>

This lordship soon after this survey, came into the hands of the Earl Warren, and was held by the ancient family of Ingaldesthorp, who took their name from this town, of which family I shall treat at large in Reynham.

Robert de Ingaldesthorp held it of the Earl Warren, in the reign of King Stephen, also another in Snetesham of the Earl Warren, and on that account is sometimes (according to the custom of that age) wrote Robert de Snetesham.

In the 9th year of King John, a remarkable instance, relating to a murder of a person, offering itself, wherein one of the family of the Ingaldesthorps being concerned, I could not omit mentioning it in this place:<sup>8</sup>

John Chamberlain (Camerarius) then sued Herbert de Patesle, for the murder of Drugo Chamberlain, his brother, and by the King's license, the crime and punishment was thus compromised and agreed to :

Herbert was to travel to Jerusalem, there to serve God for the soul of Drugo who was slain, the space of 7 years, including the time of his going and returning, and if he returned into England before that time, he was to be punished as a convict; and Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, (whom I presume was an accessory,) was to find a monk of Norwich, Castleacre, or Binham, or a canon of Thetford, Cokesford or Walsingham, to pray for the soul of the said Drugo, and also to pay to his parents the sum of 40 marks.

Sir Thomas de Ingaldesthorp was lord in 1272, and Sir John de Ingaldesthorp, son and heir of Sir William, in the 7th of Richard II.

Thomas Ingaldesthorp, Esq. died possessed of it in 1421; and in 1425, King Henry VI. committed the custody of this manor to Richard Elleswick, alias Sharnborn, on account of the minority of Edmund, son of the said Thomas, who being afterwards a knight, left Isabel his sole daughter and heir, in 1456, who married John Neville, (son of Richard, Earl of Salisbury, and brother to Richard, the great Earl of Warwick) created Marquis Montacute, and Knt. of the Garter, and slain at Barnet-field, in the 10th of Edward IV. leaving George his son and heir, who died without issue, in 1483, leaving 5 sisters and coheirs; but how this manor after this passed, does not appear, from any record that I have met with. It is probable that it was soon after in the Cursons, and so united to the aforesaid manor, as it continues at this time.

The Ingaldesthorps estate in Reynham, Wimbotsham, Snetesham, &c. in Norfolk, came (on a division of it among the 5 sisters and coheirs) to Isabella, the youngest, and so to the Huddlestons of Cambridgeshire, she marrying Sir William Huddleston.

The tenths were 2*l*. 16*s*. Deducted 6*s*.

In 1275, there was an agreement between the prior of Binham, and Sir Edm. de Munpinzun, rector of this church, with the assent of Sir Jn. de Munpinzun, patron, and confirmed by the Bishop of Norwich, about the tithes of the demesns of the said Sir John, and of lands formerly Sir John de Breton's, that the rector should have the said tithes to him and his successors, paying 4 marks per ann. for the same to the prior and convent, under the penalty of 40s.

Before this, there was an agreement in the time of Bishop Raleigh, between the then prior, and Hugh de Arden, rector, that the tithes aforesaid should belong to the prior.

RINGSTED MAGNA,

CONTAINS two parishes, St. Peter's, and St. Andrew, and seems to take its name from Ring, the name of a river in many counties: thus Ringleton in Kent, Ringston in Lincolnshire, &c. Ringshall in Suffolk, and Ringsted a town in Denmark, of great antiquity.

The principal lordship belonged to the abbey of Ramsey, in the time of King Edward, and at the survey St. Bennet, (that is the abbey) of Ramsey enjoyed it, when there were two carucates in demean, 21 villains, 5 borderers and three servi, who had 3 carucates and 5 acres of meadow, &c. and 22 socmen had one carucate of land, and 3 carucates; 2 also might be recovered in this manor. It was valued in the Confessor's time at 6*l.* at the survey at 5*l.* 10*s.* per ann. and was one leuca and an half long, one broad, and paid 42*d.* gelt. St. Bennet had the soc.

Thirty-one socmen were taken from it, who belonged to it in King Edward's time; Rafrid had 9 of them, and now keeps them; William de Schoies, and William de Warren, have 7, and 3 in the King's manor of Fliceswell, William de Noiers 4, Roger Bigot 5, and in the King's manor of Hunstanton was one with two acres.<sup>1</sup>

In the south part of the parish of East Wretham in Norfolk, is a large pit called Ringmere Pit, about 6 or 7 acres; here Swain King of Denmark fought a great battle against Ulfketel Earl of the East-Angles, in 1009.<sup>2</sup>

This town, with that of Brancaster, was given by the abbey of Ramsey, (as may be seen in Brancaster) in the reign of King Edgar, and in the 35th of Henry III. the abbot had a charter of free warren here.

In 1428, the temporalities of the said abbot were 15*l.* 11*s.* 9*d.* per ann. and at the dissolution of religious houses, King Henry VIII. in his 32d year, December 4, granted this lordship to Sir Thomas L'Estrange, and Sir Henry L'Estrange, Bart. died lord in 1760, and on a division of his estate, came to his sister and coheir, Airmine, married to Nicholas Stileman, Esq. of Snetesham; Nicholas, their son and heir, is the present lord and patron of Snetesham.

Another lordship in this town was given at the conquest to Roger Bigot, ancestor of the Earls of Norfolk, which Tove, a freeman, possessed in the days of the Confessor, consisting of one carucate in demean, 2 servi, and 5 villains, with half a carucate of the men, 2 acres of meadow, and the 8th part of a mill, &c. four socmen had 10 acres, and one socman of St. Bennet of Ramsey, 2 acres, who was added to it, in the time of the Conqueror; the whole then valued at 10s. at the survey at 20s. per ann. St. Bennet had the soc; and this was held of Bigot, by Ralph son of Herluine.

In the said town, Alstan held in the time of the Confessor, under Archbishop Stigand, one carucate of land, which at the survey was possessed by Ralph de Turuavill, when there was one carucate of meadow valued at 5s. one socman also held here 6 acres, valued at 6*d.* of Ralph, also two socmen of St. Bennet, had 16 acres, and there was one carucate valued at 4s. and one freeman who held under Ralph 24 acres of land, with a carucate, &c. valued at 2s. This he had livery of to complete his manor, and Ralph has it.

Of this Ralph, son of Herluine, who held this under Roger Bigot, I refer the reader to Bigot's fee in Hunstanton.

John Lord Strange was heir to the said Ralph, and as such inherited it, from whom it descended to his posterity, Sir Henry L'Estrange being the late lord of it.

That part which Alstan held under Stigand, and Ralph de Turuavill, at the survey, of Bigot, came also to the Stranges.

Sir Ralph L'Estrange was lord of it in the reign of Henry II. whose two daughters and coheirs had each a right herein, Maud being married to Fulco, or (as some have it) Jeffrey de Urri, or D'Oyry, and Emma, to Philip de Burnham; part of it came to Cecilia, an heiress of the Burnham family, who brought it by marriage to Sir William Calthorp.

Humphrey de Wyccleshoe, and Maud his wife, appear to have an interest herein, and in the 25th of Henry III. released to Geffrey de Mey, all their right in the advowson of the church of Ringsted St. Andrew, to the full age of Cecilia, daughter and heir of Philip de Burnham.

In the 41st of that King, William de Calthorp and Cecilia his wife, Michael, son of Humphrey Wyccleshoe, were impleaded by the guardian of the lands, and heir of William de Tilney, that he might present a proper and sufficient parson to the aforesaid church of St. Andrew.

In the 34th of the said King, William, son of Richard de Tilney, was in a pleading found to have then a right in the advowson of the said church; and Alice, late wife of Walter Fenne, sued William de Lindsley for a moiety of this church about the 13th of Edward I.

In the 14th of Edward I. W. Batail and Isabel his wife, conveyed by a fine to Philip de Fenne, the 5*d* part of the advowson of St. Andrew's church in Ringsted Magna, and several messuages, lands, and a mill in Ringsted, Tilney, and Wygenhale; and in the 9th of Edward II. Richard Battaille, parson of the church of Great Ringsted, settled by fine on William Battail of Ringsted Magna, and Isabel his wife, 31 messuages, 310 acres of land, 33s. rent, and the moiety of a mill in this town, and Holm by the Sea, in tail.

Nicholas Batayl of Ringsted Magna, by his will, in 1473, desires to be buried in the church of St. Andrew, appoints a priest to celebrate therein, for 20 years, for his own soul;<sup>3</sup> gives 10 marks to the building of the new tower, and 10 marks to buy a new missale for the said church; names Henry Strange, Esq. to be supervisor of it; to Christian his wife, for life, 30 acres of land in Ringsted aforesaid, and after her decease, William his son and heir, by her, to have it with the appertinances for ever, on condition that the said Christian keep an anniversary for him and his father, William Batayl, and Margaret his mother, William Banyard and Cecilia his wife, on Wednesday in Easter week, and exequies the day before; the rector of that church to have 4*d.* the clerk of the parish 2*d.* the ringers of the bells 6*d.* and they who attend the exequies there, to have bread and cheese, with beer sufficient, and every householder in the said village, a penny-worth of bread.

And he wills that the anniversary of Richard Batayl, his grandfather, and Avelina his wife, Nicholas Batayl and Margery his wife, be kept on Monday, in Rogation week, in this manner, the rector for saying exequies, &c. to have 4*d.* the clerk 2*d.* every householder one penny-worth of bread.

And after the decease of Christian his wife, he wills his son William and his heirs, to keep the said anniversaries yearly, for ever, in the form aforesaid; the rector of the church, and nine trusty men of the said parish to be feoffees of the aforesaid 30 acres, and if his wife, son, or his heirs, refuse to keep the said anniversaries, then he wills that the feoffees have the said 30 acres, &c. appoints Christian his wife, and William his son, executors.

The manors also of Holkham's and Berry's (of which see at large in Helm) made part of this town, and are possessed of Mr. Case, attorney, of Mildenhale in Suffolk.

Ralph de Beaufoe had a small fee or tenure in Ringsted, which a freeman possessed in King Edward's reign, containing half a carucate of land, and held under Ralph by Ricard; there were 2 villains who had half a carucate, valued at 3*s.* and the abbot of Ramsey owned the soc.<sup>4</sup>

Of Ralph de Beaufoe and his descendants see in Swanton Morley, and in Bircham Newton.

How long it continued in this family does not appear, but was added to the lordship of the Stranges, and so remains at this time.

BARDOLF'S MANOR.

In the 3*d.* of Edward III. Roger Curple held one fee in Ringsted, of the Lord Bardolph; and in the 20*th.* of that King, William de Sedgeford held in Ringsted Magna, of the honour of Wirmegey, a manor by one fee of the aforesaid lord, which he purchased of John de Lisle, the elder, and formerly belonged to the ancestors of Robert Curple, of Fincham, which the Lord Bardolph held of the Bishop of Norwich, probably of his manor of Thornham, which extended into this town; and Sir John Bardolf of Maple-Durham, and Margaret his wife, conveyed it by fine in the 31*st.* of the said reign, to Thomas Chappe of Wolferton, and Margaret his wife.

Thomas Seckford held it in the 5th of Henry VI. of Thomas Beaufort Duke of Exeter.

Walter Aslake, by his will, dated at Creke, February 1, 1503, gives to Thomas Aslake, his nephew, Bardolf's manor in Ringsted.

After this it came to the L'Estrange's, and Sir Thomas L'Estrange, died seized of in the 36th of Henry VIII. by the payment of 22*d.* every 30 weeks to the castle of Norwich.

Theodore Host, Esq. of Ingaldesthorp, is lord of this manor, 1765.

The prior of Lewes had also possessions in this town; Henry Batayl, William Beck, &c. conveyed to John, prior of that house, a toft, 20 acres of land, the moiety of a mill, in Ringsted Magna, and it being found on an inquisition, that the prior was in possession of the premises long before the statute of mortmain was published, the justices permitted a fine to be levied in the 14th of Edward I. and in 1428 the temporalities of that priory were valued at 58*s.* 1*d.* per ann.

The tenths were 10*l.* out of which 1*l.* 10*s.* was deducted, being paid by the religious for their lands.

The Church of Ringsted St. Peter was in the patronage of the abbey of Ramsey; the ancient valor of it (being a rectory) was 22 marks: the sacrist of Ramsey had a portion of one mark per ann. out of it, confirmed by John of Oxford Bishop of Norwich.

The present valor is 11*s.* 6*s.* 8*d.* and Sir Henry Le Strange was patron.

RINGSTEAD PARVA;

BARRET RINGSTEAD.

THE greatest part of this township was possessed at the survey by John, nephew of Waleran, and in King Edward's reign by Bou, (or Boxes) a freeman, when it contained four carucates in demean, afterwards three, then 8 borderers, afterwards 16, then 6 servi, afterwards 5, with 10 acres of meadow; and there was a carucate among the tenants, a mill, &c. valued in King Edward's reign at 4*l.* at the survey at 6*l. per ann.*<sup>6</sup>

This John, nephew of Waleran, had also a lordship in Hunstanton, under which the extent of it, with the Danegelt, is accounted for; it came soon after to the Giffards Earls of Buckingham, and by the marriage of a daughter and heiress of that family, to the Earls of Clare.

Another fee or lordship here was given to Will. de Scohies, by the Conqueror, and held at the survey under him, by Roger de Ebrois, who held also of the said William, the manor of Great Bircham, to which town I refer the reader. It consisted of one carucate of land, held by two freemen, and stands valued under Bircham afore-said.<sup>7</sup>

In the reign of Henry I. Scohies sold it to Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, and by a coheirss of that family came to the Earls of Clare. These two fees or lordships, belonging to one capital lord, I shall treat of them together.

Oger, son of Oger, and Anne his wife, in the 25th of Henry II. conveyed by fine, to Michael, son of Oger, and Sarah his wife, lands here, of the inheritance of William de Shelfanger, the father of Anne and Sarah, with the service of Hugh de Caldecote, and one knight's fee in Suffolk.

In the 18th of Henry III. Richard de Saham and Joan his wife, conveyed by fine the advowson of this church, and lands, to Henry Bataile; and in the 14th of Edward I. Alan de Meysy impleaded Maud Countess of Gloucester and Hereford, for a messuage, 100 acres of land, 57s. and 8d. rent, with that of 6 capons, and 24 hens, and a pound of cummin, in this town, Bircham, &c. as his right.

Richard Boyland and Elena his wife, daughter of Philip de Colvile, died seized in the 24th of that King, of a manor here, &c. and John was their son and heir; which John de Boyland and Emme his wife, were querents, and Richard Fisedelew deforcient of 2 messuages, with one caracate of land here, in Holm and Hecham, in the 3d of Edward II.

By the escheat rolls, in the 8th of the said King, Richard de Boyland was found to hold half a fee; and in the said year, John de Boyland, (son of Richard) and Emme his wife, settled by fine the manor, with the advowson of a moiety of the church of Ringsted Parva, on their trustees, John de Reynham, with 2 messuages, 3 caracates of land, &c. in Ringsted Magna and Parva, Hunstanton, Hecham, Shelfanger, Royden, and Winfarthing.

In the said year, William de Cachwache was found to hold here, in Holm and Buckenham, the fourth part of a fee of the honour of Clare, as Walter Tyle and William de Bemond also did of the said honour, here and in Holm.

In the 13th of the same reign, Walter, parson of Ringsted Parva, settled by fine, 8 messuages, with divers lands here, in Hunstanton, Hecham, Tatterford, Taterset, with the advowson of Taterford, and that of the moiety of this church, on Richard de Boyland, and Alice his wife, and their heirs.

In the 20th of Edward III. John de Rysing held half a fee of the Lady Elizabeth de Burgh, lady of Clare, late John de Boyland's.

The said lady presented to this church in 1344, as capital lady of the fee.

Simon Barret, in the 3d of Henry IV. held two half fees here of the honour of Clare, 355 acres of land, 4 of pasture, 118 shillings rent in Hunstanton, Ringsted Magna and Parva, Holm, &c.

Edmund Mortimer Earl of March, &c. was found in the 3d of Henry VI. to be the capital lord; and in the 36th of that King, the prior of Walsingham was found to hold here, &c. the fourth part of a fee; the heirs of William Beamond the 4th part here and in Holm; Matthew Cachevache the 4th part here, and in Holm, and John Boyland the 4th part of a fee here.

In the 9th of Henry VII. John Barret was lord of Ringsted Parva, held of the Dutchess of York, and Margaret was found to be his daughter and heir.

Soon after this, it came to the Le Stranges: and by an inquisition taken at Norwich, April 18, in the 36th of Henry VIII. Sir Thomas L'Estrange was found to die seized of the manor of Barret's Ringsted, held of the King, by one fee, and Nicholas was his son and heir.

In this family it continued, the Honourable Sir Henry L'Estrange, Bart. being the late lord.

Here is now only a farm-house remaining. Ringsted gave name to an ancient family; Rolland de Ringsted held considerable possessions in the same, in the 15th of Henry III. Thomas de Ringstede Bishop of Bangor was born here, and probably of the same family, who died in 1365.

In 1428, the temporalities of Petreston in Ringsted Parva were valued at 3s. 4d.

The tenths were 2l. 3s. out of which 19s. 8d. were deducted.

The CHURCH of Ringstead Parva (called also Barret Ringstead) had anciently two medietyes or portions; Richard de Boylound was patron of one, of which Nicholas was rector in Edward the First's time, and the heirs of Hamon Byrlyngham were patrons of the other, the rector of which served the cure, and had no manse or land belonging to the church.

This portion was Robert's, and valued at 5 marks and a half, and Nicholas's was valued at the same. Peter-pence 5d. ob. and the church was dedicated to St. Andrew. The present valor is 3l. 6s. 8d.

C H O S E L E Y,

LIES north of Docking, and east of Ringsted, and was formerly a little village, held at the survey by William de Scohies, lord of Ringsted Parva, and of Bircham Magna, of which townships it seems to have been then a part or member, and so does not occur in the book of Domesday.

From Scohies it was purchased in the time of Henry I. by Walter Giffard Earl of Buckingham; whose son Walter dying sans issue, Richard de Clare Earl of Hertford was his heir; descended from Rohesia his sister, wife of Richard Fitz Gilbert. But an inquisition in the time of Henry I. says it was the lordship of John, son of Waleran, from whom it came to Giffard, &c. as in Ringsted Parva.

BURTON LAZARS-MANOR.

The most considerable part of this township was given, by Walter Giffard, the Earl of that name, to the hospital of Burton Lazars in Leicestershire, who had this lordship in the reign of Edward I. and their temporalities were valued in 1428 at 11l. 4s. 11d.

Richard, præceptor of Chasel, occurs in 1378.

At the general dissolution of abbies, &c. King Henry VIII. on the 4th of May, in his 36th year, granted to Sir John Dudley Viscount Lisle, this manor, with all its rights, members and appertenances belonging to the hospital of Burton St. Lazarus, to be held in capite by knight's service, paying 9s. 4d. per ann. and on the 14th of March, in the 37th of the said King, John Lord Lisle conveyed it to Dame Joan Leigh of Hoggeston in Middlesex, widow, late wife of Sir Thomas Leigh; remainder to Katherine her daughter and sole heir of Sir Thomas, who being afterwards married to James Blount, Lord Mountjoy, they both, by deed dated August 14, in the 3d of Elizabeth, sell it for 130l. to Sir Nicholas L'Estrange and his heirs, with all its privileges, courts, letes, &c. and Sir Nicholas L'Estrange, and Hamon L'Estrange of Huustanton, his son and heir, sell it April 23, in the 27th of the said Queen, to Thomas Reade of Ringstead, and Robert Reade, Gent. son of Thomas died lord August 26, in the 37th of Elizabeth, as appears by an inquisition taken at Norwich castle, October 23d, in the said year; and left by Mary his wife, Bridget his daughter and heir, who in the 10th of James I. with Valentine Upton of North Holme in Lincolnshire, Esq. sold their third part of the manor to William Reade of Chosell, brother of Robert, by fine, for 600*l.* and William settled it by deed January 1, in the 19th of James I. on himself for life; remainder to John his brother: remainder on William, son of John, in fee; which William Reade of Thornham, Gent. was lord in the 18th of Charles I. and his son William Reade, of Holkham in Norfolk, Gent. with Frances his wife, daughter of John Watts of Burnham Ulpe, Gent. sold this manor, rectory, and portion of tithes, to Edward Pepys, Esq. in 1656, of Brunsthorp, who by Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of John Walpole of Bromesthorpe, Esq. had Anne his daughter and heir, who dying without issue, Jane, daughter of John Pepys of South Creke, sister of the said Edward, having several sons and daughters by John Turner of _____ in Yorkshire, was his heir; and Theophila, one of the said daughters, brought it by marriage to Sir Arthur Harris of Stowford in Devonshire, Bart. lord here in 1698.

After this it was purchased by the Earl of Orford, and so remained in that family in 1763.

The hospital of Burton had a præceptor here, to look after this, and their estate at Briston, Ryburgh Parva, Bryningham, &c. valued in King Edward the First's reign at 13*l.* 18*s.* 2*d.*

WILLY'S MANOR.

In the 9th of Edward II. Robert de Dalby appears to have also a lordship in this village, and in the 11th of that King, Ralph Cosyn of Chosley granted lands to Thomas Davy, as did Hugh de Southstede of Docking to Thomas Chosell of Beston, in Edward the Third's reign, and Richard, son and heir of Thomas Davy of Chosele, enfeoffed Nicholas Wyllly, of Dockyng, &c. in his lands, rents, and foldcourses in Chosel and Tichwell, in the 21st of Richard II. and in the following year, Catherine late wife of Richard, son and heir of Thomas Chosyll, released to Nicholas Wyllly, &c. all her lands, and of her late husband in this town, Titchewell, and Docking, to which Sir Ralph Lovell of Tichwell, Knt. Heury Nottingham of Holme, &c. were witnesses; the Chosells had considerable interest here, in the 5th of Edward III. Peter, son of Peter de Chosle, &c. convey to Robert de Holewell, 2 messuages, 240 acres of land, and 3*s.* rent here.

John Willy of Lynn-Bishop's son and heir of John Willy of Chosyll, and Margaret his wife, sold to Sir Thomas Lovell, Knight of the Garter, and treasurer of the King's household, May 1, in the 5th of Henry VIII. this manor, with 543 acres of land, and two foldages by fine; who by his will in 1522, bequeathed it to his cousin Sir Francis Lovell of East-Herling; and in the 16th of Elizabeth, August 10, Sir Thomas Lovell sold Chosel manor in Docking, (as it is then called) to

Thomas Read, and so came to Robert Read, Gent. lord of the manor of Burton Lazars in this village, and passed with that (as is above observed) to the Lady Theophila Harris, &c.

Here is now only a farm standing in a champaign country.

The tenths were 1*l.* 16*s.* per ann.

In Windham is a manor called at this time Chosells.

Here was in ancient days a church belonging to this village: I find it mentioned in the 52*d* of Henry III. and was appropriated to the priory of Nutley in Buckinghamshire, by the founder Walter Gifford Earl of that county, with 40 acres of glebe land, and was valued at 8 marks, and paid Peter-pence 6*d.*

The church has been in ruins many years.

S H E R N B O U R N,

Called in Domesday Book Serlebruna, Scernebrune, Shernebruna, taking its name from a brook or rivulet of clear water, as Shereford in this county; Chereford in Hampshire; Sherborne in Gloucestershire; Charing, and Cheriton in Kent.

It was then in the hundred of Docking, but now in Smethden hundred.

Sir Henry Spelman, and the rest of our historians, relate that one Thoke was lord of this town when Felix, the Bishop of the East-Angles, came into this part of his diocese, in King Sigebert's time, about the year 640, to convert it to Christianity; and being one of his converts, built a church here dedicated to St. Peter and St. Paul, the second that was erected in the Kingdom of the East-Angles, the first being a little before founded by the encouragement of the said Bishop at Babingley, where he first landed.

The heiress of this Thoke, married Ingulfe, whose posterity enjoyed it till the time of King Canute, the Dane, when that King granted it with Snetesham, &c. to Edwin, who came with him into England out of Denmark in 1014, on his marriage with the heiress of the family, and descendants of the said Ingulfe.

Edwyn enjoyed it peaceably till he was ejected at the conquest in 1066, and these lordships were seized on by William de Albini, the Conqueror's butler; and William de Warren Earl Warren, to whom the King had granted many lordships in these parts. Upon this Edwyn made application to the Conqueror, and proving that he never before, at, or after the Conquest, had acted any thing against the Conqueror, he received an order to be restored to this lordship, &c. which the possessors above-mentioned would not comply with. But William de Albini granted him a messuage, 300 acres of land, with 3 foldcourses in Snetesham, and William de Warren 400 acres of land, with a messuage and 4 foldcourses, with a lordship to be held of him by certain services, reserving the rest to himself, with the advowson of the church.

After this Sir Ralph de Ibrenijs, a Norman, to whom the Conqueror had granted the manor of Southmere cum Docking, imprisoned the said Edwin, who making his escape, applied to William de Albini for relief, who sent for an illegitimate daughter of his, out of Normandy, and married her to Ascurus, the son of Edwin; on this Edwin lived peaceably and quietly, and died soon after.

This relation is taken from a MS. of the family and pedigree of the Sharnburns, wrote (as it seems by the hand) about the time of Henry VIII. formerly in the possession of Sir Henry Spelman, or lent to him; and now is in the Ashmolean library or Musæum at Oxford, amongst the MSS. of Sir William Dugdale, Garter King at Arms, fol. 57.

It was in the family of the Southertons, who married the heiress of the Sharnburns; and the Lady Southerton desired Francis Gardiner, Esq. alderman of Norwich, (afterwards mayor in 1685,) to deliver it to Sir William Dugdale, and to acquaint him it was her desire it should be deposited in the library of the Herald's Office, which Sir William forgot to do, and so gave it with his other books to the Musæum abovementioned.

But I must take the liberty of saying that the truth and authority of this relation, and manuscript is not to be depended on, and to justify myself, shall lay before my reader, some substantial and satisfactory reasons, (as I presume) taken from the most ancient and authentic manuscript of English History, and old tenures, the book of Domesday.

The town of Sherborn appears from that book, made in 1085, to be divided into several little tenures and lordships.

Odo Bishop of Baiex in France, and Earl of Kent, had one socman here, who held 5 acres; this belonged to, and was part of Odo's great manor of Suetesham, which Stigand the Archbishop of Canterbury held in Edward the Confessor's reign,<sup>9</sup> of which Stigand was deprived at the Conquest, and it was granted then to Odo, the Conqueror's brother.

It appears by this that Edwin had no lordship in Suetesham, or right in, or to this part of Sherborne; his name not occurring in King Edward's, or King William the Conqueror's time, and this was only 5 acres, and held in soccage.

William de Warrenna held then a lordship, which four freemen held in King Edward the Confessor's time, consisting of 2 carucates of land, and one freeman held then 40 acres; 5 villains, and 3 carucates belonged to it, and it was valued at 60s.<sup>1</sup>

This could not be Edwin's, of which the Earl of Warren is (as the MS. aforesaid) said to have deprived him, because it was possessed we see by 5 freemen in King Edward's time, and no mention is made of Edwin; he could not be one of these freemen, their tenure was small, and he was lord (as it is said) of the whole town.

Berner, captain of the Conqueror's cross bowmen, or archers, had also at the survey a lordship in King Edward's reign by one freeman, to which there belonged one carucate of land, and one in demean, &c. five borderers belonged to it, a mill, the 12th part of a salt pit, and the 12th part of a mill, 2 acres and an half of meadow, it was then, &c. valued at 16s. at the survey at 20s. per ann.<sup>2</sup>

This small fee could not belong to Edwin, lord of the whole town, it being held by one freeman in King Edward's days, valued then but at 16s. per ann.

Ivo de Tailgebosc held at the survey, the principal lordship of this town, belonging to 16 freemen in King Edward's reign, who held it under Herold, consisting of 5 carucates of land, and when Ivo had the grant of it; but at the survey there were but three, and the same freemen held it under Ivo; 3 villains belonged to it, one acre and half of meadow, a mill valued at 40s. but at the survey at 4l. per ann.

Ralph Earl of Norfolk was lord of it, when he forfeited it, on his rebellion; and it was granted to Ivo: the whole town was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, whoever was lord of it; and paid 27d. to a 20s. gelt.

Earl Ralph, one year before he forfeited, took from it a carucate of land from Roger, son of Renard, as the hundred witnesses.<sup>3</sup>

Ivo was also lord of Newton in South Greenhow hundred, at the survey.

From this account it appears that this was the capital lordship in King Edward's reign, when Herold (afterwards King of England) was lord of it, and on his death was granted (as we see) to Ralph Waher, or Guader, created Earl of Norfolk by the Conqueror, who being about 1075, in the rebellion against King William, (who had granted it to him) it was forfeited to the Crown, and given to Ivo aforesaid, so that Edwin had never any interest in this lordship.

Here was also another small tenure in this town placed under the title of invasions, belonging to Peter de Valoins, (at the survey,) a Norman baron, who had invaded or seized on a socman of Harold who held 60 acres of land belonging to Secheford manor, and now held under Peter de Valoins, by William de Pertenj, of whom he had livery of it, valued at 6s. 8d. per ann. and there was a freeman belonging to it, who had 6 acres, valued at 6d.<sup>4</sup> of whom Peter de Valoins had the protection; this was held by the Sharnborns.

This last account is of great service, to prove that Edwin had no interest, either in this whole manor, (as the MS. asserts) or in any part of it; so exact is the Domesday register, that not only every lordship, but that the smallest part of a knight's fee is accounted for; the lords and owners are specified both in the reigns of King Edward and of the Conqueror, that every one's particular service as due to the King, and his own right and title might be clearly known, and supported by such an undeniable voucher and authority.

If so little an invasion, or encroachment, could not be omitted, how can any one imagine that such a large manor as this, (if we suppose that all the tenures above specified were united and held by Edwin, with the lordships of Snetesham, Stanhov, &c.) could ever be passed by, or omitted at the grand survey, where no account is to be found of Edwin?

But the aforesaid MS. is not only false in respect of Edwin's tenure here, but in respect of time; Edwin is said to have come into England with King Canute, in the year 1014, and to be living at the time of the Conquest and after; and that he was taken prisoner by Ralph de Ibreijis, to whom the Conqueror had given the manor of Southmere cum Docking.

At the time when the survey was made in 1085, the manor of Southmere was, as Domesday testifies, in the Conqueror's own hands, and had been so from the death of Herold the King, and was not granted till some time after his reign to the ancestor of the family of Lovell, (about the reign of Henry I. as may be seen in Southmere) and a descendant of the lords of Iberj in France.

Fuller, in his Worthies, calls this Edwin by the name of Shanburn, and relates that he traversed the title of the Earl Warren to this lordship, and being a Norfolk man durst go to law with the Conqueror, and question the validity of his donations; yea, he got the better of the suit, (says he) and the King's grant was adjudged void.

The author of the MS. is not known; had he heard of the family of de Ibreo, lords of Southmere, and of Thoke, a great Saxon thane, whom he places under the reign of King Sigebert, and in the time of Falir, the first Bishop of the East-Angles, whereas Thoke was lord of Rougham, West Walton, Castleacre, Gressenhale, Hitcham, &c. in the reign of King Edward, and deprived of them all at the Conquest, when they were granted to the Earl Warren.

So that this MS. history is founded on common report, on vulgar, anile tradition, which encreases as a snow-ball, and makes mountains of mole hills.

That part of this town which Stigand held in King Edward's time, of which he was deprived at the conquest, was granted, together with the manor of Snetesham, to Odo, the Conqueror's brother, and on the rebellion of the said Odo, against his nephew, King William II. was forfeited to him, who gave it to William de Albin, his butler, ancestor to the Earls of Sussex, as may be seen in Rising, and was held of the said Earls and their descendants, by the Sherborns; it was only 5 acres held in soccage, and the said William had also a grant (as I take it) of Taylbois manor.

RUSTEYNS MANOR,

Was that part or lordship which was held by four freemen, and being ejected on the Conquest, came to the Earl Warren, under whom the Rusteyns held it, of whom see in Snetesham. William de

Rusteng was found in the 3d of Edward I. to have the assise of bread and beer of his tenants, and other liberties.

In the 17th of Edward II. Walter de Norwich was found to hold lands of the said fee, as of the Castle of Acre.

John de Titchwell, and the heirs of John de Mileham, held the 3d part of a fee here, &c. by the said tenure.

In the 3d of Richard II. Katherine Brews, a nun at Dertford in Kent, was found to be seized of half a fee here, &c. called Rusteyn's, and William de Ufford Earl of Suffolk, was her heir, son of Margaret, sister of Sir Tho. de Norwich, father of the said Catherine.—Escheat. Rot.

The manor that Berner held, and which belonged to one freeman in King Edward's reign, who held it (as I take it) under Harold, and after under Earl Ralph, and was on his forfeiture, granted to Berner, with the lordships of Scoalton and Ashill, which were of the same tenure, and came after to the Picots, and Burdelys's family, and were held under them, as is most likely, by the Sherborn family.

The capital lordship which was possessed at the survey by Ivo de Tailgebose, and by 16 freemen, in King Edward's time, under Harold, was first granted to Ralph, and on his forfeiture to the said Ivo, who had only at the survey, this manor, and that of Newton by Castleacre in this county.

Ivo possessed it but a little time, King William II. bestowing it on his favourite, William de Albin, whose descendants, Earls of Sussex, enjoyed it, till the death of Hugh Earl of Sussex, who dying s. p. male, it came by marriage of Isabel, the eldest sister and coheir, to Sir Robert de Tateshale, and was held by the Sharnburus, the Rusteyn's, &c. under them.

The part or lordship which Peter de Valoin's had invaded, was most likely united to his adjoining lordship of Dersingham, but it appears that it was afterwards held also in demean, of the Valoines, by the Sherborns.

This Peter, and Albreda his lady, gave two parts of the tithes of this manor to the priory of Binham, on their foundation thereof.<sup>5</sup>

In the year 1260, on the fourth of the calends of August, a composition was agreed on, dated at Dersingham, between the prior and convent of Binham, rectors of Dersingham, and the prior and convent of Pentney, rectors of this church, whereby the tithes of Mengend furlong, were to belong to Binham, and the furlongs of Loughland, Shortlaud, Cranhill, Dole, and Prestrete Gate, to the priory of Pentney.

Having thus accounted for the several lordships anciently in this town, it remains that some account be given of this family of Sharnburn, who thus held the greatest part of it.

The MS. of the family (abovementioned) says that "Aseur, son of Edwin, had by his wife, (a natural daughter of William de Albin) 3 sons and several daughters, and died about the end of King Stephen's reign; Maud, one of his daughters, married to Nicholas, son of Ralph de Docking; another married Alan, son of Robert de Ingaldesthorp, and a third to Sir Nicholas de Tofts; that Jeffrey de Sharnburn was his eldest son and heir, chief steward to William Earl Warren, who died on St. Agatha's day, in the reign of King Henry II. that he married Etheldreda, daughter of Roger de Dersingham, relict of Sir Fulco de Sharnbourn, and after the death of Geffrey, she married Sir Roger de Rusteyn."

Of this pedigree I shall scrutinize.

The register of Windham priory mentions Geffrey de Sharnborn, son of Eudo, but nothing of Edwin.

Some make the said Eudo to be son of Fulco de Sharnborn, and place him at the head of this family, and that he married Etheldreda, daughter of Sir Roger de Dersingham, which is a more probable account.

This Eudo lived in King John's reign, and was lord of this town, as will appear, ao. 10th of King John, and gave it to Nicholas de Sharnbourn.

"Geffrey, by Etheldreda, had 3 sons; Sir Adam de Sharnborn the eldest, knighted in the Holy Land, in the time of Richard I. by William Earl of Arundel, and died single; Sir Andrew, the 2d son, knighted in the Holy Land in the reign of King John, by William de Albini, the fourth Earl of Arundel, and married Susan, 3d daughter and co-heir of Benedict de Aungerville, lord of West Newton, &c. she dying s. p. he remarried to Alice, daughter of ————, and relict of Silvester de Rysing."

"Sir Andrew died s. p. 1249, and was buried at Sherborne before the altar of the Blessed Virgin, near the south wall. This lady is said to have built the chancel of this church, and to be there buried in 1260."

In the reign of King John, Nicholas de Sharnborn was lord, and gave the church to the priory of Pentney.

Sir Andrew was one of the jurors with Sir Peter de Peleville, and William Luvell, to settle the true bounds of this county, and of Lincolnshire, as the register of Spalding testifies,<sup>6</sup> and disseised William de Snetesham of lands in Snetesham, in the 48th of Henry III.

There was also a Geffrey de Sharnborne living in the 42d of Henry III. who with his wife Rosamond, (said to be daughter of William, son of Robert de Ingaldesthorp,) had an interest in this town, when one Pagan agreed by fine levied, to pay to the said Jeffrey and Rosamond, and their heirs, 2d. ob. per ann. for a tenement and 30 acres of land here held of them.

This Jeffrey was found to hold here and in Snetesham, half a fee, and had a son, William.

About this time also lived Thomas, son of Jeffrey de Sharnborn, and Henry, son of Ralph de Sharnborn, who gave lands here to Wymondham priory.<sup>7</sup>

"Sir Peter de Sharnborn, 3d son of Jeffrey, succeeded his 2 brothers in the inheritance, and was in the Holy Land, and married a lord's daughter in France, whom he forsook, came into England, and married Cecilia, daughter of Silvester Rysing, by whom he had several children; and dying in 1259, was buried on the north side of the high altar of the church of Sharnborn."

Peter de Sharnburne was witness to a deed, sans date, about the end of Henry III. as in Dersingham.

“ Andrew de Sharnborne was 2d son and heir to Sir Peter, and married first, Emma, daughter of Godfrey de Toftres, rector of Hunstanton, by whom he had Alice, married to James Styward of Holme by the sea, and secondly to Richard de Gerneston, burgess of Lynne; she died s. p. in 1309, and was buried in St. Margaret's church at Lynn, under an arch on the south side. Andrew, by his 2d wife, Christian, daughter of Sir Alan le Gross of Woodnorton, had a son of his own name, who died young; she survived her husband (who died in 1282, and was here buried) many years, and remarried Edmund, son of Sir John Gelham of Dersingham.”

The pedigree it is to be feared, is very faulty, as appears from several remarks I have already made.<sup>8</sup> It is certain that Will. de Sharnborn, son of Geffrey was lord of a manor in Snetesham, in 1275, and had then the assise of bread and beer, and liberties of his tenants.

In the 5th of Edward I. Robert de Pyrewe conveyed lands here by fine, to Andrew de Sharnborne: he and Walter his brother were witnesses to a grant of lands in Dersingham,<sup>9</sup> to the prior of Binham, sans date.

“ Walter de Sharnborne, Esq. succeeded his brother in the inheritance, and married Juliana, daughter of Adam Rydout, senior, who dying s. p. Margery, daughter of Stephen de Geyton, was his second wife: he was esquire to Sir Thomas Rosceline, Kut. and was on the King's side at the battles of Lewes and Evesham, and was signed with the sign of the cross on his right shoulder, went once, but was prevented his second going into the Holy Land, died in 1307, and was buried in the churchyard on the east end of the chancel wall, having a son, Andrew, born 5 days after his decease, by Margery, who died of the pestilence in 1349, and was buried before the south door of this church.”

“ Peter and Robert de Sharnborne, were younger brothers to Walter; the first was esquire to Sir Hugh Peche, the other to Sir John de la Hay, and were on the side of the barons against King Henry III. Robert obtained the King's pardon, but Peter was, banished and lived in France.”

Andrew de Sharnburn, 2d son of Sir Peter, married first Emma, sister of William Godfrey, of Toftys-Rys, rector of Hunstanton; and to his 2d wife, Christiana, daughter of Sir Alan le Gross, of Woodnorton; she survived him, and married Edmund, son of Sir John de Gelham.

“ Sir Andrew was the eldest son of Walter, and at 12 years old, contracted to Emme, daughter of William Gostelyne of Snetesham, chief steward to Robert, Lord Montalt, lord of Rysing, &c. he was esquire to Thomas de Brotherton Earl of Norfolk, in the Scotch and French wars; and in 1426, accompanied Maurice de Dersingham to the Holy Land, and there knighted, 1348, at the Holy Sepulchre, with Sir Armand de Aspays, by the Viscount Caremayne, in the presence of many French, Spanish, and German nobility: he had many sons and daughters who died s. p.”

“ Andrew, his 2d son, was his heir, born in 1328, was at the battle of Cressy, and at the siege of Calais, in the retinue of the Earl of Warwick, and after at the siege of the city of Rennes, in Bretagne, being wounded by a great stone, he languished and died, about a year after, aged 31, and was buried in this church, and succeeded by William his brother, 6th son of Sir Andrew."

Sir Andrew de Sharubourn, knight, in the 30th of Edward III. had the King's protection, being to accompany the Prince of Wales into Spain:<sup>4</sup> this was that Andrew whom the MS. calls esquire, 2d son of Sir Andrew, and at the siege of Rhenes, in 1359; he died in 1360, supposing the MS. true.

In the 8th of Edward III. 1334, a fine was levied between Andrew de Sharuborn and Emme his wife, lord of this manor, and Thomas, son of William Gostelyn, &c. on a settlement.

Sir Andrew de Sharnburne, purchased messuages and lands of Henry Brown, in Tilney, by fine, in the 37th of Edward III. ao. 1363.

"William de Sharnborne, 6th son of Sir Andrew, and heir to his brother, succeeded, and left two daughters and coheirs; Margery, the 2d daughter, wife of William Champneys, who had issue, but they dying s. p. the whole interest and inheritance of the Sherbourns in this town, &c. was in Clarice, eldest daughter, and wife of John Toly, Esq. and descended to Margaret, their sole daughter and heir, who married Richard Elleswich, Esq. 1408, of Ribchester in Lancashire, father of Thomas Elleswyke, Esq. who assumed the name of Sharnbourne: he was groom of the chamber to Queen Margaret, consort to King Henry VI. and married Jemona de Cherueys, one of her maids of honour, a French woman, and dying in 1458, Feb. 3, was here buried."

William de Sharnborne, Esq. married (as I find) Joan, daughter of Sir Robert de Ilketeshale, of Ilketeshale in Suffolk, and of Kelling and Hedenham in Norfolk, by whom he had 2 daughters and coheirs, Claricia and Margery, or Margaret, who were coheirs to Sir Robert.

This William had the manor of Kelling, demised to him, by Sir Robert de Morley, Knt. and Claricia his wife, (late widow of Sir Robert de Ilketeshale, and mother of Joan) for 10 years, as a portion for his wife, Joan, as appears from a deed of Sir William de Kerdeston, Knt. feoffees of that manor, and of release to William aforesaid, in the 5th of Richard II.

In the 11th of Henry IV. a fine was levied between Henry Malpas, clerk, William Dersingham, &c. querents, William Champneys, and Margaret his wife, a daughter and coheir of William de Shernborne, of the moiety of this manor, with lands in South Lynne, Wygenhale, &c. conveyed to Dersingham, by fine, in trust.

In the 7th of Henry V. Richard Ellyswyk, Esq. of Sharnborne, and Margaret his wife, were querents in a fine, and John Champneys, of Keynham, junior, &c. deforciant, whereby the moiety of this manor was settled on Margaret in tail, quit of the heirs of John Champneys.

By a fine, levied in the 10th of Henry VI. Laurence Fitz-Piers, son of Margery, daughter of Idonia, one of the sisters of Sir Thomas Ilketeshale, knight, deceased, and Margery, late wife of Thomas Seyve, another of the sisters of Sir Thomas and Margaret, late the wife of Richard Elleswyke, daughter of Joan, who was another sister (as said) were found to be heirs of the said Sir Thomas Ilketeshale, by which it appears that the said Richard was then dead; Margaret's son, by

Richard, changed his name; for it appears that Thomas Sharnborne, Esq.<sup>2</sup> son and heir of Richard Elleswyke, was bound to Thomas Deyvile in 500*l.* by bond, dated November 18, ao 34th of Henry VI. with a condition to stand to the arbitration of Sir Thomas Tudenham, and John Heydon, between him and Isabel, widow of Sir Thomas Ilketeshale, about the differences between them.

Deyvile married the said Isabel, and this difference related to the lordships of Kelling, and Hedenham.

Thomas died about the 4th of Edward IV. in which year the relief was paid for lands in Middleton, held by him.

“John Sharnborne, Esq. succeeded his father, Thomas, and took to wife, Anne, a daughter and coheir of John Carson, of Billingford, by Joan his wife, by whom he had Henry his son and heir, and several daughters; Joan married to George Kelsull of Ramsey, and Elizabeth to Edmund Doget, of Henyngham, &c.”

He died seized of this manor in the 3d of Henry VII. 1487.

“Henry, the eldest son, was born 1474, and married Isabel, daughter of Sir Richard Fitz-Lewes of Essex: he was knighted by King Henry VIII. provost marshal, and Vice-admiral of England, and was killed in a sea fight with the French.

Sir Henry was knighted in the year 1511, ao. 1 Henry VIII. had a patent May 7, ao. 20 Henry VIII. to be marshal of the King's Bench; and in the 26th of that King, Isabel was his widow, and Thomas Sharnborne, Esq. her son, was living.

Thomas, son and heir of Sir Henry, was with his father when killed, and aged 18, and afterwards deaf by discharge of the guns; was servant to the Princess Mary, and married Elizabeth, daughter of ——— Atwell, maid of honour to the said princess, by whom he had children who died young; by Blieth, his second wife, daughter of John Brampton in Norfolk, he had several sons and a daughter, Dorothy, wife of John Plumsted, Esq. remarried to Robert Nicholls: he died March 22, 1559, and Blieth surviving, married Launcelot Smalpiece of Hokering, Gent. and died in 1602, being here buried by her husband.

The will of this Thomas is dated April 11, 1557, and was proved May 12, 1559.<sup>3</sup>

Christopher Sharnborne, Esq. eldest son of Thomas, was born October 12, 1542, by his wife, Anne, daughter of Aubrey de Vere, brother to John Earl of Oxford, and dying July 7, 1575, aged 34, was here buried, leaving Francis his son and heir.

Christopher had livery of it, and of Hedenham manor, and Cecile's in Snetesham, about the 5th of Elizabeth.

Francis Shernborne, Esq. was the last of this family that bore the name of Shernborne; he married Martha, (as it is said) a daughter of Sir George Colt, of Cavendish in Suffolk, and had by her, Mary, his daughter and heir, married to Sir Augustine Sotherton of Taverham, by Norwich.

Anne his mother, survived his father, Christopher, and remarried John Stubbs of Thelveton.

In the 24th of Elizabeth, Edward Mannock, and Stephen Drury, had a præcipe to render to Richard Bladwell and Edward Allen, East Hall manor in Sharnburne.

This town, after the death of Francis Sherburne, was sold to Francis Ashe, a Muscovy merchant of London, who gave it by lease and release, dated 1654, and August 15, 1655, to Emanuel college in Cambridge, who hold the lordship at this time.

WINDHAM PRIORY MANOR.

Jeffrey, son of Eudo de Sharnburne, gave them lands;<sup>4</sup> and Rob. de Rusteyn gave 40 acres here, of the fee of Nicholas de Sharnburne, for his own, his wife Aldred's soul, and for the souls of the Albincys, his lords, Earls of Susser.

This Nicholas, though lord here, is not mentioned in the MS. Henry, son of Ralph de Sharnburne, gave lands, as did Sir Robert Tharum, Eustace de Borcut, and Thomas, son of Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, gave 27 acres in this town.

King Edward I. in his 12th year, granted the prior free warren herein, and 1428, their temporalities were valued at 3*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* per ann.

LEWES PRIORY MANOR.

The priory of Lewes had the assise of bread and beer of his tenants here, ao. 3*d.* Edward I. and in 1428, his temporalities were valued at 2*l.* 10*s.* per ann.

The arms of Sharnburne were gules, a lion rampant, or, which were the arms of their lords, De Albiny, of whom they held lands, and a canton, ermine, was added for distinction.

In the old hall, and other rooms, were formerly these following arms, painted on the glass:

Gules, two greyhounds combatant, or, Dogget, impaling argent, a chevron, between three seamows heads, sable; Norman, quere if not a chevron, azure, between three unicorns heads erased; Sharnburne and Elleswick, argent, on a chevron between three eaglets, with two heads displayed, gules, as many bezants, quarterly; Sharnburne and Elleswick, quarterly, impaling gules, a saltire between four cross crosslets, fitchè, argent, Brampton; azure, three standing cups, or, barry of eight, argent and azure, a griffin, segreant, or, Caus; ermine, a bend, cheque, sable and argent, Curson; Sharnburne, impaling Curson, and Felton quarterly; or, a fess between two chevronels, gules, and a canton, ermine, Ilketeshale; azure, three lions heads erased, argent, Tooly.

The tenths were 4*l.* 10*s.* Deduct 13*s.* 4*d.*

The Church is an antique pile, dedicated to St. Peter, but not built by Felix, the Bishop, as the Sherborn MS. represents, by fabulous tradition;<sup>5</sup> has a body, with a south isle covered with lead, never had any tower, and the chancel has been long in ruins.

At the upper end of the church was a gravestone with the portraits of a man and his wife, and

Tho. Sherneborne camerar. D'ne Margarete Anglie regine, et Jamone uxor. ejus quo' da' domicellarie ejusd. regine.

Under the inscription Sharnborne, impaling three martlets in fess, and a file of three in chief, De Cherneys.

Weaver says this monument was so foully defaced in his his time,<sup>6</sup> that nothing could be made of it, the vulture displayed only remaining, the crest of the family.

In the nave, a stone for

George Houghton, gent. who died in 1737, aged 57.

In the church were the arms of the Lords Mowbray, Albiny, Ross, Faux, with those of Walkfare, Felton, Wescunham, Gourney, Repps, Elmham, or Ellingham, Stanhow, Calthorp, Harsick, Ingaldesthorp, and ermine, on a fess, gules, three escallops, or, Seckford; sable, chevron, between three trefoils, slipped, argent, Fitz-Lewes.

Also the guild of St. Peter, and that of St. John Baptist in the church.

The rectory was appropriated to the priory of Pentney, and the presentation to the vicarage was in that house.

In the 3d year of Edward I. the jury for the hundred present that it was given to that priory by Nicholas de Scarneborne in the time of King John, and their spiritualities in 1428, were valued at 12 marks; the priory had a grange, with 20 acres of laud, the vicarage at 40s. Peter-pence 11d.

Peter Lord Valoines, and Albreda his wife, on their foundation of the priory of Binham, gave two parts of the tithes of their lordship here to it; but that being held of the Valoines by the Sharnborn family, Wydo de Sharnborne, in the 10th of King John, conveyed it by fine to Nicholas de Sharnborne, who presently after gave the whole tithe of the town, belonging to him, to Pentney priory. And it is to be observed, that no mention either of this Wydo alias Eudo, or of Nicholas, though both lords of the town, or of this gift, is made, in the MS. aforesaid.<sup>7</sup>

The temporalities of Pentney priory were 4s. 7d. ob.

At the dissolution of the rectory, it came to the Crown, and was granted with the patronage of the vicarage, to the Bishop of Ely, by act of parliament, ao. 4 Elizabeth, for lands belonging to that see, by way of exchange.

The present valor of the vicarage is 8l.

SOUTHMERE AND DOCKING.

I SHALL treat of these two towns together, as they are now united, and as their manors or lordships extended into each. Southmere was a considerable town in King Edward's reign, and at the survey, though now all included in Docking: it lies north-west, about two miles from Docking, where now is a large farm and house, called by corruption, Summer-Field House.

Herold held it in the Confessor's time, and when he was King of England, and on his death, the Conqueror seized it, and was lord of it at the survey.

In Harold's time there were three carucates in demean, 21 villains, 2 borderers, and 6 servi, with one carucate amongst the men or tenants, &c. 3t freemen belonged to it, with a carucate and 16 acres, and 15 socmen, each holding 60 acres, making 8 carucates, and one carucate and a half might be recovered; also one socman with 14 acres, and another with 60 acres, formerly a carucate.

Titchwell and Berwick, were beruites to it, and with them, were valued in the whole, in Harold's time, at 7*l.* but at the survey at 30*l.*

Roger Bigot seems to hold it then, at the King's pleasure; Brum his steward, took away from it four socmen with 4 acres, which Roger held, and another with 60 acres, half a carucate formerly.<sup>8</sup>

SOUTHMERE-MANOR.

William Luvel, son of Goel de Yberi, was the first lord that I meet with about 1100, from whom descended William Luvel, brother of Walter de Yberi, who in the 3d of Richard I. gave 110 marks fine to have seizen of it;<sup>9</sup> probably as heir to his brother, who was descended from that William who first assumed the surname of Lovell, being son of Asceline Goell, (son to Robert, lord of Iberi in Normandy) and Isabel his wife, natural daughter of William de Britolio, (brother to Roger de Britolio Earl of Hereford, and to this William who lived in the reign of Henry I. or his father Goell, was this lordship granted, (as I conceive,) by the said King Henry.

William Luvel paid in the 12th of King John, 20*s.* scutage for one knight's fee here, and one of the same name held it in the 12th of Henry II.

John Lovell was lord in the 8th of Henry III. when his lands were seized, for not attending that King, in his expedition against the Welch as were William Talbot's, and William Talmarshe's in Suffolk; and in the 18th of that King, is entered in the close rolls his writ to have tallage of his tenants, the King having talliated his demeans.

It appears about this time to be the custom of this manor, that when the King tallaged his tenants in soccage, he had a like power, and that if a daughter or sister, of one who held in soccage, married out of the soc, 10s. was to be paid to the lord; and if within the soc, 2s.

On a pleading, if John Luvel, the lord, had disseized John de Doc-kynge of his free tenements, the said John pleads that his lordship was ancient demean of the King, and that no writ could be granted, unless first a writ of right.

In the 35th of the aforesaid King, John Lord Lovel had a grant of free warren, a weekly mercate and fair, at Docking, into which town this lordship extended.

On the death of John Lord Lovel, in the 4th of Edward II. he was found to leave by Joan, his 2d wife, daughter of Robert Lord Ross of Hamlake, John his son and heir; and by Isabel, his first wife, sister and heir of William de Bois, an only daughter, Maud, then the wife of William la Zouche; and that there was here a capital mesuage 600 acres of land, 240 acres of heath, rent of assize, &c. at 22l. 11s. 4d. per ann.

There was also at Docking a capital messuage, called Sandislond, 300 acres of land, rent of assize, &c. valued at 10l. 1s. 6d. per ann.

The said John held, together with Isabell his wife, of the feoffment of his father, to him, &c. 400 acres, a windmill, a weekly mercate on Thursday, in Dochinge, by the 8th part of a fee, and he also held in Docking, 100 acres, of Nicholas de Camera, by the 8th part of a fee.

After this, the aforesaid lordship became divided, and was held by John Lord Lovell, son of the aforesaid John by Joan his wife, and by Maud his daughter, by Isabel his first wife, married to William Zouche, lord of Haringworth.

LOVELL'S MANOR, OR SOUTHMERE.

John Lord Lovel of Tichmarshe died seized of it in the 8th of Edward II. and left by Maud his wife, (daughter and heir of Sir Philip Burrel) Joan his daughter and heir, which Joan, as far as I can find, either died young, or had no interest herein.

John Lord Lovell died seized of it in the 21st of Edward III. Whose son this John was, Dugdale does not mention, but breaks off in the pedigree somewhat incoherently. I have seen a certain writing wherein he is said to be the son of Thomas Lovel, (a younger branch of this family,) by Maud his wife, and that this John left by Isabel his wife, a son and heir, John, aged 6 years, who died under age in the 35th of the said King, leaving John, his brother and heir, who had livery of his lands in 1563; he married Maud, daughter of Robert de Holand, son of Sir Robert de Holand, and died lord of this manor, in the 9th of Henry IV. and John Lovel was his son and heir, who by Alianore his wife, daughter of the Lord Zouch, and St. Maur, left Ao. 4. of Henry V. William, his son and heir.

This William Lord Lovel,<sup>2</sup> Burnel, and Holand, in the 8th year of Henry V. December 8. conveyed to Sir John Ratcliff and Catherine his wife, this manor of Lovels in Southmere and Docking, which Catherine was the eldest daughter and co-heir of Sir Edward Burnel, Knt. son of Sir Hugh Burnel, son of Nicholas Burnel, son of Sir John Handle, alias Burnel, second husband to Maud, sister and heir to Sir Philip Burnel, who first married John Lord Lovel. And in the 1st of Edward IV. John Ratcliff, Esq. son and heir of Sir John, was found to die seised, by an inquisition taken at Pykenham Wade, before Richard Croppel, escheator.

In this family it continued till Robert Ratcliff Earl of Sussex sold it in 1597, to John Hare, Esq. son of John Hare, citizen and mercer of London, whose son, Hugh Hare, was created Lord Colrain in Ireland, August 3. 1625.

Hugh Hare, Esq. second son of Hugh Lord Colrain, had the grant of it from his father. He married Catherine, daughter of John Holt, Esq. of Salisbury in Wiltshire, by whom he had issue three sons and one daughter, viz. Henry, many years collector of the customs in the port of Lynn: he died October 24. 1733.—2d John, a captain in the royal navy, who died in the service of his country.—3d Lucy, married to Major-general Henry Holt; she died in the year 1723.—4th Hugh Charles, rector of Southmere and Gressenhall; he married Mrs. Winifred Brady.

Upon the death of the honourable and reverend Hugh Charles Hare, January 28. 1743, the estate and manor abovementioned, devolved to his only surviving child and heiress Catherine, who was married August 28. 1740, to Henry Holt Henley, Esq. of Leigh, representative in parliament for Lyme Regis, in Dorsetshire: he died May 8. 1748.

Mrs. Henley found the lands here ill cultivated, destitute of wood, and spring water, and proverbially called Dry Docking.

By her constantly residing in, and by a benevolent and sensible attention to the various interests and wants of the place, both have been consulted and provided for.

In different parts of her estate above 140 acres have by her been planted with various kinds of wood: and four wells sunk between 180 and 190 feet deep; exclusive of one in the centre of the town, for the common use of the inhabitants; who are daily reaping the advantages, and enjoying the fruits of the well-directed beneficence of a lady, whose name will be ever dear, and whose memory will always be respected in the place; she is happy in seeing (and may she long survive to see) it flourish in plenty and prosperity.

<sup>2</sup> This William Lord Lovel bore quarterly—in the 1st and 4th barry, nebuly of six, or, and gules, Lovell, in the 2d and 3d azure, a lion rampant, guardant, and semy of lys, argent—Holand; and in an escotcheon of pretence, quarterly in the 1st and 4th azure a fess indented between 10 billets, or, Deincourt; —in 2d and 3d barry of six, or and vert, a bend over all, gules, Poinings. — Crest, a dog passant. — Hence the sarcastick verses,

The Rat, the Cat, and Lovel the Dog,
Ruled all England under the Hog.

DOCKING, OR ZOUCHE'S MANOR.

William Zouch, Lord Haringworth, gave name to this lordship, of which he was possessed in right of Maud his wife, daughter and heir to John Lord Lovel, by Isabel his first wife, and dying in the 26th year of King Edward III. William la Zouche, his grandson, was his heir, son of Ivo, or Eudo, by Joan his wife, daughter of William Inge, (which Ivo died before his father) and had livery the next year of this and all his inheritance: this William left at his death, on St. George's day, in the 5th of Richard II. by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of William Lord Ross of Hamlake, William his son and heir, who on his death in the 13th of the said King, was succeeded by his son and heir, William, by Elizabeth his wife, who survived him, and died in the 9th of Henry IV.

This last William, lord Zouch, had livery of his lands in the 20th of Richard II. and married Alice, daughter and heir of Richard de St. Maur, Knt. and died seised of this manor November 3, in the 3d of Henry V. and William la Zouch, his son and heir, was aged 13 years; he left on his death in the 8th of Edward IV. John, his son, who succeeded him; this John Lord Zouche was son, as I take it, of William Lord Zouche, by Catherinc his wife, daughter of Sir William Plomstead, and was after re-married to Sir Gilbert de Debenham, and died in October, A°. 10th of Edward IV. William Lord Zouch, his father, was son of William Lord Zouche, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of the Lord St. John, she re-married John Lord Scroop, and died A°. 7th of Edward IV. so that Dugdale has omitted one descent, or else William Lord Zouch must have married two wives, Alice, daughter, &c. of Richard de St. Maur, and Elizabeth, a second wife, daughter of St. John.

John Lord Zouch aforesaid, married Joan, one of the 4 sisters and heirs to Sir John Dynham, Knt. Lord Dynham, but taking part with Richard the 3d, and engaging on his side at Bosworth-field, was attainted November 7, in the 1st of Henry VII. and restored by parliament October 14, in the 11th year of the said king, and dying June 25, A°. 18th of Henry VIII. John, his son, was his heir, aged 46; but it is more probable that he died according to the inquisition, January 30, A°. 17, his son John, by the lady Joan, having then livery of his lands; it appears that by his will, he bequeathed his body to be buried in a chantry (then lately founded by him) in the priory of Staverdale in Somersetshire,<sup>3</sup> Sir John Fitz-James, Knt. lord chief baron of the Exchequer, and Sir John Zouch, his son, being executors, and was proved March 20, 1525.

John Lord Zouch, his son, conveyed it by fine, with 40 messuages and lands in divers adjoining towns, to Sir Thomas L'Estrange and the lady Anne his wife, in Michaelmas term, A°. 21, of Henry VIII. his son Sir Nicholas was lord in the 37th of that King, and in the said family it was about 1600.

Richard Hovell, Esq. was lord in the reign of King James I. and Sir William Hovell kept his first court in 1661, and by the marriage of Dorothy, his second daughter and coheir, it came to Martin Folkes, Esq. of Grey's Inn, whose son Martin Folks, Esq. president of the Royal Society dying seized of it in 175-, it descended to William Folks, Esq. his brother, the present lord, as may be seen at large in Hillington.

Besides the lordships abovementioned in Southmere and Docking, a freeman held in Docking a carucate of land under Archbishop Stigand, which with three borderers was granted by the Conqueror, to his brother Odo Bishop of Baieux,<sup>4</sup> and he being attainted by King William II. was given by that King, to William de Albinj, his butler, ancestor to the Earls of Arundel, and was valued under Snetesham.

Also Eudo, son of Spiruwin, had a lordship which Rinold held under him, and Aluric under Stigand in the Confessor's time; to which there belonged one carucate in demean, 5 villains and 5 borderers, 2 servi, one carucate amongst the men, &c. and one carucate might be restored, valued at 20s.; the whole was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 5s. and 2d. ob. gelt, whoever possessed it.<sup>5</sup>

Both these lordships in the reign of Henry III. centered in the family of de Tateshale, Hugh Earl of Arundel and Sussex dying without issue, Mabel, his eldest sister, and coheir, brought to Robert Lord Tateshale, by marriage, late Stigand's or Odo's manor.

Eudo, who was lord of the other, was founder, or ancestor of the Tateshale family, and had a son Hugh, father of Robert de Tateshale, who lived in 1139,<sup>6</sup> and held this lordship; his son Philip was father of Robert Lord Tateshale, whose son Robert de Tateshale, lord of this manor, by the marriage of Mabel aforesaid, (heiress of the other) enjoyed them both, and united them.

The family of the Lovels held also a considerable part of this town under the Lords de Albinj Earls of Arundel, together with their manor of Southmere, which extended into Docking, as has been observed; and in the reign of Henry III. John Lovell and Martin de Suthmere held the 5th part of a fee of Robert Lord Tateshale, as did John de Lovell, and Robert de Docking two parts of a fee.

In the 20th of Edward III. John de Trichwell held the 4th part of a fee here and in Snetesham, of the heirs of the Tateshales, and at the same time Ralph de Hinton and Beatrix his wife held two parts of a fee by the same tenure, and in the 3d of Henry IV. John, son of Sir Constantine Clifton, &c. as heir to the Tateshales, was the capital lord.

In the 37th of Henry VIII. Sir Nicholas L'Estrange held of the King this lordship, (as I take it) part of the barony of Tateshale.

Docking tenths were 13*l.*—Deduct 1*l.* and Southmere tenths 6*l.*—Deduct 40s.

In Southmere was a manor called Warner's.

Anthony Gamage had in the 4th of Elizabeth license to convey it to Robert Putter; and the Earl of Susser, in the 39th of that Queen, to grant it to John Hare, Esq.

The Church of Docking is dedicated to St. Mary; covered with lead, and a chancel tiled.

At the west end is a large square tower with one bell.

At the bottom, or west end of the nave, on a grave-stone,

Orate p. aia'b; Willi. Stowe et Agnetis uxor. ejus.

In the chancel on a marble grave-stone,

Carolus Hare, armiger, filius quarto genuitus Hugonis Barouis de Colerain, sub spe beatae resurrectionis, caelebs vixit et mortuus est, sepult. Maij 18, 1685.

On three marble stones adjoining are the following inscriptions;

Winifred, the faithful wife and widow of the honourable and reverend Hugh Charles Hare, Aug. 14, 1761, aged 82.

The plate for the communion service, viz. one large flagon, one covered cup, and a plate to receive the alms of the communicants, were presented to the church by this family. And complete and handsome furniture for the pulpit, desk, and communion table, by Mrs. Winifred Hare.

On the buttresses of the north side, -----, a fess between three roses, -----, a cross, -----, and a cross ingrailed.

It was anciently a rectory valued at 46 marks, and appropriated to the priory of Ibrey in France, given by Goel de Ibreyo, as is said, and in the 28th of Edward I. John Lord Lovell quitclaimed to that abbot and his successors all his right in the advowsons of this church, with those of Southmere and Titchwell.

The vicarage, as appears from Norwich Domesday Book, in the reign of Edward I. was endowed with 50 acres, and had a manse, valued at 15 marks, Peter-pence 2s. 8d.; temporalities of Norwich priory 6s. 8d.; of Creke abbey 2s. 6d. ob.; present valor of the vicarage 13l. 6s. 8d.

Here was a cell belonging to the abbey or priory of Ibrey in France, and was dissolved in the parliament held at Leicester in the 2d of Henry V. (when all the alien priories in England were suppressed, and then given to the Crown) and was granted by him to his mother-in-law Joan Queen Dowager of England, who died seized of it in the 15th of Henry VI. and in the 19th of the said King, was given to his college of Eaton, with the rectory and all its appertences as is above-mentioned.

At this time it is in the college of Eton, who present (as rectors) the vicar, on the Bishop of Norwich's nomination. King Edward IV. in his first year, confirmed the grant of it to Eton college.

SNETTESHAM LORDSHIP,

So called (says a modern author) at this time, but corruptly, for Netesham,<sup>1</sup> its ancient name, being famous for the herds of cows, whereas, in the most ancient record, the book of Domesday, we find it wrote as above, Snettesham taking its name from an adjoining rivulet called (as I conceive) Snet, so that it is a Ham, on the water of Snet: thus we find Snetterton or Snetretuna, as the Saxons called it, that is a town on the river (or rey) of Snet, in Shropham hundred, Snitterton in Lincolnshire, Sniter in Northumberland, and Snyte a river in Leicestershire, and other places.

Sir Henry Spelman, and other authors, from a MS. belonging to the Sharnborn family, make one Edwin, a Dane, to be lord of this town, &c. at the conquest, and that being deprived of it by William de Albini, the Conqueror's butler, and William Earl Warren, he contested their right, and applying for justice and relief to the Conqueror, was in some degree reinstated.

The weakness and falsity of this idle tradition may be seen at large in my account of the town of Sharnborn, and also from the history of this town.

Snettesham appears to have been one of the longest and most considerable lordships in this county.

In the reign of King Edward the Confessor, it was held by Stigand Archbishop of Cauterbury, as a lay fee, and his own proper inheritance.

I take him to have been the same Stigand who was chaplain to King Canute,<sup>2</sup> who in 1020, having built the church of Ashdon in Essex, (after his great victory there,) preferred Stigand to it, afterwards chaplain to Queen Emma, to King Harold, and to the Confessor, with whom he was in so great favour and esteem, that he had either purchased, or had granted to him an amazing number of great lordships in this county, and elsewhere.

To this there belonged 8 carucates of land, 20 villans, 12 borderers, 6 servi, and 30 acres of meadow, 4 carucates in demean, &c. 6 carucates amongst the tenants, 5 mills, a saltwork, and a fishery, pannage for 100 swine, &c. 440 sheep, and 6 socmen held 2 carucates of land, with 10 villans, 6 borderers, one servus, 10 acres of meadow, the moiety of a mill, and a fishery.

A SOUTH WEST PROSPECT OF SNETTISHAM CHURCH.

Several towns belonged to this lordship, as beruites, held of the same lord, viz. Flitcham, Newton, Rising, &c. as these and other towns, as Reydon, Harpley, &c. lordships of Stigand's, were in the hundred of Freebridge.

It is probable that this town is placed also under the same hundred;<sup>3</sup> valued in Stigand's time at 50*l.* in Odo's at 65*l. per ann.*

In the whole 2 leucas and an half long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 4*s.* to a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>4</sup>

Stigand being in arms against the Conqueror, was deprived not only of the see of Canterbury, but of all his lay fees and inheritance, and this manor was conferred on Odo Bishop of Bayeux in Normandy, half brother to the Conqueror, who created him Earl of Kent, and was in possession of it in 1085, when the survey was compiled, but being in the interest of Robert Duke of Normandy, the Conqueror's eldest son, who laid claim to the crown of England on his father's death, and rebelling against King William I. he was deprived of all his estates in England, and this lordship was granted by that King, to William de Albini, the pincerna Regis, the King's butler, ancestor of the Earls of Sussex.

By this it is clear,<sup>5</sup> that Edwin the Dane had no interest in this lordship, either in the time of Edward the Confessor, or in King William the First's reign, and consequently that the history relating to him and William de Albini, (who was not lord till after the forfeiture of Odo, in the reign of William I.) is a direct fable, or idle tradition.

Odo was brother, by the mother's side, to King William I.; the Norman writers give him an eminent character: he and Geffrey Bishop of Constance in Normandy, were at the decisive battle of Hastings, attended with many monks, and secular clerks, and after the battle he had the castle of Dover committed to his charge, with the county of Kent.

Odo was joined with William Fitz-Osborn, a principal commander in the Conqueror's army, (afterwards Earl of Hercford;) in the superintendency of all the military forces in England, as well in field as in garrison, and chief justice of the realm.

After this, on some disgust, was carried by the Conqueror into Normandy, and imprisoned in the castle of Roan, and set at liberty by King William I.; here failing in his allegiance, and inciting others to set up Robert Duke of Normandy in the throne of England, he was obliged to abjure the realm, and deprived of all his honours and fortunes.

In Norfolk he had these following lordships :

Torp, (Ceyton-Thorp) Grimston, and Harpley, in Freebridge hundred, with Snettesham, Flitcham, Newton, Rising, and Reidon:—in <sup>3</sup> It is also placed in Smethdon hundred, as will appear presently in the Earl Warren's fee here.

In Kent he had 184 lordships, in Essex 39, in Oxfordshire 32, in Hertfordshire 23, in Bucks 30, in Worcestershire 2, in Bedfordshire 8, Northamptonshire 12, Nottinghamshire 5, Warwickshire 6, and in Lincolnshire 76.

William de Albini, to whom King William II. granted this lordship, was father of Will. d'Albini, created Earl of Sussex and Arundel by King Henry I. of whom, and their descendants, I refer the reader to the town of Rising.

On the death of Hugh, the last Earl of Sussex and Arundel, of this family, in 1243, without issue, his inheritance was divided between his 4 sisters and coheirs, but this lordship was assigned for life to the Lady Isabel his late wife, daughter of William Earl Warren and Surry, as part of her dower; and by the escheat rolls, in the 14th of Edward I. she was found to die seized of a capital messuage, a windmill, 120 acres of land, a fishery, called Broadflete, with much pasture land by the sea, valued then at 36*l.* 3*s.* 6*d.* per ann.; on her decease it came to Roger de Montealto, or Lord Montalt, by the marriage of Cecily, 2d sister and coheir of Hugh d'Albini, late Earl of Sussex, with his grandfather, Roger.

In the 9th of Edward I. on a suit commenced by the taking of a great whale with boats, &c. this lordship was found to have wreek at sea.

In the 16th of the said reign, Henry de Bray, escheator, on this side of Trent, gave an account of 13*l.* 18*s.* and 9*d.* rent of assise, of this manor, before he delivered it to Roger de Monte-Alto, then under age, and in custody.

Robert Lord Montalt, lord of this town, and Rising, with Emma his lady, having no issue, and being the last heir male of this family, settled this, and many other manors, on Isabella, queen dowager of England, &c. as may be seen in Rising, in which castle the said Robert had his residence, and so it came into the Crown, and on the accession of King Henry IV. was part of the dutchy of Lancaster.

King Edward III. in his 46th year, granted it to his son, John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster, in exchange for the earldom of Richmond.

In the 3d of Henry V. it was settled in trust, July 22, on Henry Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Winchester, &c. and was farmed by them of the Crown.

King Henry VIII. in his 2d year, demised to Edmund Bedingfeld of Oxburgh, the site of this manor, with all the houses, sheeppcotes, and profits of the conies, within the King's wapentake, with many other things, for 7 years, belonging to the duchy of Lancaster.

Wymond Caryl, Esq. farmed it of Queen Elizabeth, and after of King James I. and was knighted May 30, 1604, at Whitehall: he married Catherine, daughter of Sir John Jernegan of Somerley town in Suffolk, relict of Henry Crane, of Chilton in Suffolk, Esq. who, by the name of Dame Catherine Carey, of Fleet-Hall, in Stonham Parva, Suffolk, made her will, February 13, 1613, and gave legacies to her mother, Catherine Bellamy; to her son, Sir Robert Craue, and his wife; to Sir Philip Knevet, Bart. her nephew, and his wife; to her sister, the Lady Hobart; to her nephew, Francis Jernegan; and the rest of her estate to Sir Thomas Herne, Knt. of Deverland, her executor: she survived Sir Wynond, by whom she had no issue.

On February 18, King James I. in his 9th year, granted to Sir Henry Cary, in consideration of 1500*l.* the manor of Snetesham, parcel of the duchy of Lancaster, with all its rights, members, &c. to be held in soccage of the manor of East-Greenwich, in Kent, by fealty, with all lauds overflown, and recovered from the sea, abutting on the said manor.

Nicholas Styleman, Esq. died seized of it in 1746, and his son and heir, Nicholas Styleman, Esq. is the present lord.

Here were several other manors in this town belonging to this fee of the Albings, and held of them.

RUSTEYN'S-MANOR.

This family was very early enfeoffed of this; Nigel Rusteyn gave lands to Wimondham priory, soon after its foundation, as did Robert de Rusteyn, as may be seen in Congham;—Roger de Rusteyn gave a mill in Snetesham, about Henry the Second's time.

There was an agreement by deed, sans date, between this Roger (as I take it) and the prior of Wimondham, that he should have for life a chaplain to celebrate in the chapel of his house, in this town, who was to swear to be true, and to pay all oblations to the mother-church of Snetesham, and on certain great holidays, to repair thereto; and this was confirmed to Sir William Rusteyn, who is said to have accompanied his lord, William Earl of Sussex, &c. into the Holy Land, in Richard the First's time.

William Rusteyn and Peter Bozun, were collectors in the 18th of Henry III. of the aid then granted to the King, on the marriage of his sister, and held one fee of the dower of Isabel, relict of Hugh Earl of Sussex, 1243; and William was escheator for Norfolk, in the 37th of that reign.

One of the said name was lord in the 3d of Edward I. had the assise of bread and beer of his tenants, and found to take money for the assise broken, when he should have punished the delinquents by the pillory; and in the 8th of that King, conveyed lands here, &c. to Alice his daughter and coheir, in marriage, with Ralph de Kirketon. The Rusteyns held lands also of the Earl Warren.

In the 13th of Henry IV. Walter Goddard, William Whitmete, chaplain, John Heyneye, and Alice his wife, and John Frith, grant by fine, to John de Birston, or Briston, and Margaret his wife, the manor of Rusteyn's, with lands in North Lenn, &c. settled on John and Margaret, and Alice, for life; remainder to John and Margaret.

In the 8th of Edward IV. John Briston, and Joan his wife, settled it in trust on Richard Cappe, &c.

After this, I find it conveyed to Sir Robert Drury, &c. by Richard Baynard, and Anne his wife, daughter and coheir of Sir Robert Ratcliff, and Catherine his wife, in the 15th of Henry VIII. and by her sister Elizabeth, wife of Roger Hoodhouse, Esq.

Thomas Bryggs, Esq. 2d son of Edward Bryggs of Salle, had it settled on him and Elizabeth his wife, in 1509, by Richard Crophill, her father, on her marriage.

DOWN'S MANOR.

John Briston, Esq. and Joan his wife, held it in the 8th of Edward IV. Ralph Briston, of Briston, died seized of it in the reign of Henry VII. held in soccage of the King, and ———— was found his heir; and license was granted in the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, to John Drury, to alien it to Roger Woodhouse and his heirs.

This is now united to the capital manor, and held by Stileman.

HACON'S MANOR.

In the reign of Henry III. Richard Hacon held half a fee of the Earl of Susser, and Sir Hubert Hacon had by deed, sans date, a grant of a chapel in his house, from the prior of Wymondham, (who had the appropriated rectory) on the same conditions as Rusteyn had, and Hubert Hacon had the assise of his tenants, in the 3d of Edward I.<sup>6</sup>

The prior of Wimondham, in the 3d of Henry IV. was found to hold half a fee which Richard Hacon formerly held; and in the 8th year of King James I. John Eldred and Jonas Verdon, Gent. had a grant from the Crown, dated November 12, for good considerations of the manor of Hawkens (as it is then corruptly called) with the site thereof, and appertenances valued at 19l. 12s. 8d. per ann. In 1562, Edmund Cobb, Esq. of this town, by his last will, appears to have a lease of this manor, with the parsonage.

This is united also, and held by Stileman.

Sir John de Norwich was lord of it ao. 6, and ao. 10 Edward III. granted it to the priory, probably as a feoffee.

SHARNBORN'S MANOR.

The Sharnborns were undoubtedly early enfeoffed of this lordship under the Albini; Sir Andrew de Sharnborne in the time of King John, is said to have given it to his younger brother, on his marriage with Cecilia, daughter of Silvester de Rysing.

William de Sharnborn, son of Jeffrey, was lord in the 3d of Edward I. and held the assise of his tenants.

In the 4th of Henry VIII. Henry Sharnborn conveyed in trust to John Amfleys, &c. a messuage, watermill, 840 acres of land in this town, &c. Thomas Sharnborn, Esq. died seized of it in 1559, called then Dame Cecilia's manor, and Francis Sharnborn was the last of the family that enjoyed it, from whom (as I take it) it came to Sir August. Sotherton, by the marriage of his daughter and heir, Margery, and so to Francis Ashe, Esq. &c. as above.

<sup>6</sup> This grant was to Sir William Hacon, 1240, and confirmed to his son, Sir Hubert, by John, prior of Windham, in

Of the family of Sharnborn, see in Sharnborn town; this is also united, and had by Stileman.

VERLI'S MANOR.

In the 8th of Richard I. a fine was levied between Alice, daughter of Maximus, and Ralph de Verli, of lands, late Cecilia de Holm's, mother of Ralph, in this town and Holm, being half a knight's fee, granted to Ralph. This Ralph gave lands here to Wimondam priory, as did Roger de Verli, lands in Pickenham, by deed, sans date.

Richard de Gerneston, held in the reign of Henry III. the 6th part of a fee, here, of Cecilia de Verli, which in the 20th of Edward III. was found to be held by the heirs of Richard de Gerneston, and Alice his wife.

Hugh de Verli held in 1243, 2 knights fees, part of the dower of the Lady Isabel, relict of Hugh Earl of Sussex, &c.

Robert Pekenham of Shropham, Esq. died possessed of it in the 4th of Edward IV. held of the duchy of Lancaster, by the fourth part of a fee, and Henry was his son and heir.

In the 38th of Henry VIII. Mary Glemham, late wife of Edward Glemham, held it in copite; lately held by the Lady Anne de Cleve, the divorced wife of Henry VIII. This is also united to the capital manor.

INGALDESTHORP MANOR.

This family was early enfeoffed of this by the Earl of Sussex, the capital lord. Robert de Ingaldesthorp, called also Robert de Snettesham, was lord of this manor in the reign of King Stephen.

Of this family a particular account may be seen in Reinham. Thomas de Ingaldesthorp, held in the 27th of Henry III. the fourth part of a fee of the Lady Isabel, dowager of Hugh Earl of Sussex; and John de Ingaldesthorp had the assise of bread and beer of his tenants, in the 3d of Edward I. and in the 33d of that King, Thomas de Ingaldesthorp had a charter of free warren here. Beatrix de Ingaldesthorp and her tenants, held in the 20th of Edward III. here, &c. the 4th part of a fee.

Sir Edmund de Ingaldesthorp was the last heir male of this family, who left at his death, 1456, Isabel, his only daughter and heir, who brought it by marriage to John Nevill Marquis Montacute, whose son, George, dying without issue, his estate was divided amongst his 5 sisters and coheirs; and this came to Isabella, who married Sir William Huddleston of Jauston in Cambridgeshire; and in the 23d of Henry VIII. was possessed by Sir John Huddleston, whose son, John, sold it (as I conceive) in 1543, to Sir Roger Townsend, Knt. and was conveyed by Roger Townsend, Esq. about the 10th of Queen Elizabeth, to Martin Cobb, Esq. whose descendant, Mr. Edward Cobb, collector of the customs at Wisbeach, was lord in 1750, and his widow now holds it.

WINDHAM PRIORY MANOR.

William de Albini, the King's butler, founder of this priory, gave this lordship, together with the church, endowed with 69 acres of land thereto, in the reign of Henry I.

Sir Robert Tharum, Knt. and Eustace de Barent, gave lands here, &c. for which the monks were obliged to find a chaplain in this church, at the altar of St. James, to pray for them.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior held one fee of the Earl of Arundel; and in the 15th he claimed free warren.

In 1428, his temporalities in land, rent, a mill, &c. were valued at 7*l.* 3*s.* 1*d.* 9*q.* per ann.

On the Dissolution, it came to the Crown, and so was united to the capital manor, and let by Queen Elizabeth, to Wymond Cary aforesaid, and is now possessed by the Styemans.

EARL WARREN'S MANOR.

The Earl Warren had also on the Conquest, a lordship here, granted him, held by 7 soemen of Stigand in King Edward's reign, with 2 carucates of land, and 11 soemen of Stigand held 20 acres, 4 villains, 15 borderers, with 4 carucates and 8 acres of meadow belonged to it; also one mill, and the moiety of another, a fishery, and 2 parts of a salt-pit, valued then at 30*s.* and at the survey at 50*s.* per ann.<sup>7</sup> This is said to have been by an exchange.

By this it appears that Stigand was lord of the whole town in King Edward's time, and that Edwin the Dane's being possessed of any part of this town, is a fiction.

The greatest part of this fee was held by the Ingaldesthorp family, though several of the other lords abovementioned had also some parts of it; John de Thorp had part in Henry the Third's time, which Henry de Titchwell held by the 4th part of a fee in Edward the Third's reign; afterwards William Oldney had an interest herein, in the 3d of Henry IV. as had John de Ingaldesthorp, and the heirs of William Sharnborn.

Afterwards this fee was also united to the capital manor, and held of the dutchy of Lancaster.

The temporalities of Westacre priory were 12*d.*; Castleacre 46*s.* per ann. In 1428, Alan, son of Richard de Snetesham, gave that priory 5 perches of land here.

The tenths were 19*l.* Deduct 6*l.*

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and stands on a hill, at a little distance eastward from the body of the town; it is a stately large building of flint, and freestone, built after a conventual manner, with a tower in the middle, between the nave and the chancel, is now dilapidated; and on this tower is a curious octangular spire of freestone, seen at a great distance, and a sea mark, in which tower hang 5 bells, and ornamented with 4 stone pinnacles.

<sup>7</sup> T're Willi. de Warrenna. H. de ac. p'ti. et i molin. et dim. i piscar. et Smetheduna.—In Snetesham vii soc. due partes unius saline tc. et p. val. Stigandi ii car. t're. et xi soc. Stigand. xxx sol. mo. l. hoc est p. escangio. xx ac. iiii vill. xv bord. iiii car. et viii

Here was also a north and south transept, but the first of these is in ruins. It has also a north and south isle, with a large nave or body, all covered with lead; at the west end is the grand entrance, where is a vestibulum, with a bench of stone that runs the breadth of the nave, but narrow, and covered with a neat arch, or canopy of freestone.

At the east end of the north isle is a stately monument for Sir Wymond Cary, with his effigies of alabaster, and in armour, lying on an altar tomb of marble, his head resting on a pillow, hands joined, and erect; over him is raised a beautiful arch of marble, &c. supported by porphyry pillars of the Corinthian order, and on the summit, the arms of Cary:

Argent, on a bend, sable, three roses of the first quartering about 20 coats, the crest a swan, but so defaced by time, and so high, as not to be well accounted for:

Here lyeth in hope and expectation of that joyful day of the resurrection, when the Saviour of the whole World shall appear in power and judgment, to awake all those who have slept in him, to be partakers of the everlasting blessedness of his eternal kingdom, Sir Wymond Carye of Snettisham in the county of Norfolk Kt. sometime of Threnhale Priory in Essex, first branch of that family of the Carys which is descended from Edmund Beauford, duke of Somerset, and so from John of Gaunt duke of Lancaster, erected by his only brother, Sir Edward Carye of Aldenham in Hertfordshire, master and treasurer of his majesties jewels and plate, and of Sir Henry Carye of C——— in Bucks, son and heir of the said Sir Edward Carye joynt executor of the last will of Sir Wym. Carye, who lived about 75 years, & in peace and happiness and in the comfortable testimony of a good conscience and stedfast faith in Christ, died April 3, 1612.

This knight presented to the vicarage in 1609, and had a grant of the rectory and patronage from the Crown, or held it by lease.<sup>8</sup>

On the pavement of the middle isle, lie several gravestones. One with the arms of Child:

Gules, a fess embattled, ermine, between three doves, argent, impaling per chevron, gules and sable, three swans respectant, in chief, argent, peded and beaked, azure; and in base a herring cobb najant, or, Cobb:

<sup>8</sup> In the 21st year of Elizabeth, April 11th, Sir Christopher Hatton had a grant of the impropriate rectory; after him

Sir Henry Cary held it by lease of the said Queen.

On a very large gravestone, ornamented with brasses, are the portraits of a man, his wife, and 7 children, in brass, for John Cremer, who died February 17, 1610, aged 71, and Anne his wife.

William d'Albini, the pincerna or King's butler, gave in the reign of King Henry I. this rectory to the priory of Windham, and the grant was confirmed by that King;<sup>9</sup> in the time of Edward I. we find it possessed by that house, with 40 acres of glebe land, then belonging to it, and a manse, and the rectory was valued at 40 marks, the patronage of the vicarage was in the priory till its dissolution, and was valued at 5*l.* but had neither manse, or land belonging to it; Peterpence 2*s.* 6*d.*

In 1251,<sup>1</sup> there was an agreement between the prior and the vicar, by which the vicar was entitled to receive all the altarage, but the tithe of hay, hemp, flax, and wool in the parish of the monks demans lands were excepted, and the vicar was to have the tithe of sheaves or corn of their demans of the old feofment; tithes of wool, of their fold towards the east; and the moiety of the other foldcourses in the marsh, with all the small tithe in the said town; paying to the priory 60*s.* per ann. at St. Michael and the nativity of St. John Baptist, by equal payments, and the archdeacon of Norfolk covenanted to receive but one mark; in 1274, John, then vicar, acknowledged, that the vicarage was sufficiently endowed, and released all augmentation to the prior by deed then dated.

STANHOW, OR THE STONY HILL.

THE principal lordship was held in the Confessor's time under Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, by 12 freemen, on whose deposition the King granted it to his brother in law, Odo Bishop of Baieux, in France, and Earl of Kent; on whose rebellion against King William II. it was given by that King to William de Albinj, his pincerna, or butler, whose descendants, Earls of Susser and Arundel, were lords.

At the grand survey, Odo was lord, and consisted in Stigand's time of four carucates, and of 3 at the survey; all Stanhow was one leuca long, 4 furlongs broad, and paid 14d.  $\frac{1}{2}$ , to a 20s. gelt.\*

On the death of Hugh Earl of Arundel, who died s. p. his great inheritance came to his 4 sisters and coheirs.

Sir Robert de Tateshale, who married Mabel the eldest, had this lordship and many others in her right, and the patronage of the church, belonging to it: Joan, relict of Sir Robert de Tateshale, junior, presented in 1315.

This Robert dying s. p. his estate was divided amongst his 3 sisters and coheirs; Emma, who married Sir Osbert de Caley; Joan, married Sir Robert de Driby, and Isabel, Sir John de Orreby.

In 1349, Sir Adam de Clifton, presented as heir to Caley's part; and in 1393, Sir Ralph Cromwell as heir to Driby's part, and Orreby's: in 1414, Constant. Clifton, Esq. presented by his scoffee, in right of the third part of the manor and advowson. Clifton's part came to the Kneveys, and Cromwell's to Sir Humphrey Bouchier, as appears from the presentations, and so to the Clintons.

In the 12th of Henry VI. Sir John Clifton, Sir Robert Clifton, &c. were querents. Thomas Charles and Alice his wife, deforciant, of messuages, a toft, 140 acres of land, 120 of pasture, 20s. rent, the liberty of 3 foldcourses in this town, Berwick, and Bermere.

In 1681, this lordship seems to be held by one lord, John Bernard Esq. of the Exchequer, who presented then to the church, and in 1700.

After this it was possessed by Sir Robert Walpole, who presented in 1731, and in that family it remains, the Earl of Orford being lord.

MARSHE'S, OR THE KING'S MANOR.

Aluric, a freeman, held under Stigand, the Archbishop, before the Conquest, one carucate of land; at the survey it was possessed by the King, when there were but two bovates, and one borderer belonged to it, was valued at 16s. per ann. and was a beruite to the King's manor of Fakenham.<sup>5</sup>

This was held of the King by grand serjeanty, the keeping, or finding a greyhound for the King's use, and two families had an interest therein, or each held a moiety.

Henry de Marisco, or Marsh, in the 6th of Richard I. gave 100s. to have the King's favour, and his lands here, and in the said reign Robert de Mey had an interest: his lands, in the 3d of that King, are said to be parcel of the King's demesns, and worth 20s. per ann.

William Mey, in the 34th of Henry III. was found to hold lands in this town and in Causton, by grand serjeanty, by finding a bracheta (greyhound), and Margery le Mey possessed it in the 55th, and about the said time William Marche held lands in demean by the same service.

The heirs of William Mey, and William son of Bartholomew Marche of Stanho were lords, and in 1308, Robert Bedingfeld and Joan his wife, (daughter as I take it of Mey.) there was then a capital message belonging to it, 100 acres, and 10s. rent of assise; in 1313, the jury find that the said Joan (whose right it was) had enfeoffed William, son of Bartholomew de Stanhow, and Walter Marche, and the heirs of Walter, of this manor, and that the possessors of it were exempted from serving on juries, and assises, &c.

In the 4th of Edward III. William March died lord of Stanhow, and Walter, was his son and heir, and Walter, son and heir of Walter, paid in the 34th of that King, 21s. 1d. relief.

Sir William Marche died in the 21st of Richard II. and Thomas was his son and heir, aged 20.

Thomas and John March, sons of Sir William, were found in the 2d of Henry IV. to have held the manor of King's Hall, alias Marche; and Joan was their sister and heir, married to Thomas Chepsted, and on the death of the said Joan, Ao. 32, of Henry VI. Laurence Daniel was her cousin and heir, and it came the next year to his son, Thomas Daniel, who was a gentleman of great trust and dignity, in that reign, governor, or constable of Rising castle, &c. and a knight in the 14th of Edward IV. whose son Henry inherited it.

In the 5th of Edward VI. a moiety of this lordship was conveyed by fine with a liberty of foldage, from John Brace, to William More and Margaret his wife, who in the 2d and 3d of Philip and Mary, conveyed it to Thomas Baxter, and Thomas Baxter left it to Thomas his eldest son, by Anne his wife, in the 35th of Elizabeth, who being under age, farmed it of the Queen in her 44th year at 15*l.* per ann.

In a window of the chancel were their arms, gules, a dragon, or wyvern, or, on a chief of the second, three lozenges, azure.

In the 44th of Elizabeth, William Thurlcby, Gent. and William Warner, Gent. had a præcipe to deliver Marches manor to Henry Curson, Gent.

John Wilson, Esq. is lord, by his wife, daughter, and heir of - - - - Arsdale, Esq. of Stanhow, who bore azure, a chevron, ermine, between three.

CALTHORP'S MANOR.

William Earl Warren had the grant of a small fee out of which Ulketel, a freeman, was ejected, who held it under commendation, containing one carucate of land, and 3 borderers, valued at 20*s.*<sup>6</sup>

The family of De Creke, of North Creek, had an interest in it under the aforesaid Earl.

Robert de Creke, by his deed sans date, granted to Strange, wife of Bartholomew de Kalthorp, the wards of all his lands and tenements here, and in Burnham, till Roger, son and heir of the said Bartholomew, should be of age; to which Philip de Burnham, &c. were witnesses.

Sir Bartholomew, (son of Sir Roger,) who married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Sir John Gestingthorp of Essex, died lord in 1372; by his daughter and heir Catherine, it came to Sir John Harsike of Southacre, after to the Dorwards of Essex, by the marriage of the daughters and coheirs of Sir Roger Harsike, in the time of Henry VI.

Afterwards this came to the *Townsend*s in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, who were lords in the reigns of King James, and Charles I.

Sir Ralph le Strange, who lived in the reign of Henry II. had a lordship in this town, and by his daughter and coheir, Maul, came by marriage to Sir Fulco de Oiry, lord of Geduey in Lincolnshire; and by Alice, another of his daughters and coheirs, to William de Bellomont; whose daughter and coheir, Ela, brought it to Sir Hervey de Stanhow, who was lord in 1260, and a judge, held of the heirs of the *Albiny*s, and in a window of the chancel were the arms of Sir Hervey, or, three bars, azure, over all a bend, gules, and those of the Lord Tateshall.

Sir Walter Calthorp, who married Ela, daughter and heir of Sir Hervey, were both living in the 14th of Edward I. and held this lordship, which continued many years in this family.

Sir Philip Calthorp dying seized of it in 1550, whose son Philip having no issue, his sister Elizabeth brought it by marriage to Sir Henry Parker, and from that family it came to the *Townsend*s, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Roger Townsend, Esq. was lord in 1583. Sir Roger Townsend died lord in 1636, of East Hall, and of Sherborn manors, in Stanhov, as found by an inquisition, and of Curons, alias Thursby's manor held of the King, in free soccage, as of the hundred of Smethden; Henry Curson, Gent. had a grant of it from William Thursby, in the 44th of Elizabeth.

John Wilson, Esq. of this town, was high sheriff of Norfolk in 1732.

It appears from the fees and tenures here, as they stand in Domesday Book, that Edwin, the Danc, to whom King Canute is said to give Snetesham, and a large uncultivated plain on the east of it, (supposed to have been what is now called Stanhov.) is a direct romance and fable, that no such person had any interest in it, and that it was a township well cultivated in the time of the Confessor, and held by Saxon lords, deprived at the Conquest.

The temporalities of Buckenham priory were, in 1428, 6s. 8d. Walsingham 5s. Castleacre 3s. 6d.

Lands belonging to Thetford priory were granted October 21, ao. 38 Henry VIII. to Andrew Mansfield.

The tenths were 9*l.* 10s. deducted 2*l.*

In this parish was an old chapel frequented by pilgrims in their way to Walsingham, dedicated to St. Peter.

The CHURCH is dedicated to All-Saints; in Edward the First's time, a manor and 5 acres belonged to the rectory, valued at 15 marks; paid Peter-pence, 12*d.* The present valor is 16*l.* pays tenths, &c. In 1603, the rector certified that there were 132 communicants.

Isabel Countess of Arundel was patroness in the 3d of Edward I.

S E D G E F O R D,

So called, as Spelman says, from its site on a reedy, or sedgy ford: in Domesday Book, it is wrote Setesford, as set on a ford, or a river called the Set, or Snet. Earl Gyrthe, one of King Harold's brothers, was lord of it, who being slain at the battle of Hastings, King William granted it to William de Beanfoe his chancellor, who was lord of it, and Bishop of Norwich, when the book aforesaid was made, and held by him as a lay fee, and his proper inheritance.

It consisted in Earl Guert's time of 3 carucates in demean, and 15 acres, 15 villains, 39 borderers, 5 servi, and 8 acres of meadow. The tenants had 5 carucates, paurage for 60 swine, 4 mills, 300 sheep, &c. one beruite called Freuge, to which there belonged a carucate in demean, and 7 villains, and there were 2 soemen who held a carucate and a half, and 7 borderers; Agelmer, bishop, made of this a beruite; the other soeman had 4 borderers, and there was a freeman who possessed one carucate in demean, 6 borderers and 2 servi, and of this he made a beruite; and there was another freeman had one carucate in demean, 4 borderers, and 2 servi, of which he made a beruite; 2 freemen had also 2 carucates of land, and a beruite, with 2 carucates in demean, 5 borderers, and 2 servi, 2 acres of meadow, and a mill in King Edward's reign, which Anant,<sup>7</sup> the predecessor of Peter de Faloins had.

Ingulf had in this town one carucate of land, held by Guert aforesaid, and a carucate in demean, valued at 10*s.*

The whole was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 4*s.* on a 20*s.* gelt.

Eight freemen belonged to the soc, and were under protection only, with 4 carucates of land, 5 villains, with 4 acres of meadow, &c. valued at 40*s.* at the survey 80*s.*

It was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and pays 17*d.*  $\frac{1}{2}$ . on a 20*s.* gelt.<sup>8</sup>

Besides the lordship that Guert had, from the tenures abovementioned, it appears that Agelmar or Aylmer Bishop of Elmham, had also a considerable manor in this town and Frenge, in the reign of King Edward: he was brother to Archbishop Stigand, was a married prelate, had many lordships in lay fee, as his own inheritance; some of them he gave to Bury abbey, and that of Blofield, which he had as a portion with his wife, before he was Bishop, to his own see, and probably that of this town, which he had till the year 1070, when being deprived, this lordship, with that of Frenge, we find possessed at the survey by William Beaufoe, late chancellor to King William, and then Bishop of Thetford, to whom the said King had granted the lordship of Guert, which he then also held, and on his death, granted it to his see for ever.

NORWICH PRIORY MANOR.

These tenures thus united, were held by his successor, till John de Grey Bishop of Norwich, on June 2, in the 5th year of his pontificate, granted it to the prior of Norwich, by way of exchange for certain tenures at Lynn;<sup>9</sup> and in the 9th of Henry III the prior gave two palfreys to have a fair and a mercate here and in Hemesby.

Sir John de Catteston confirmed in 1246, to the prior, Simon, &c. all that they held of the fee of Walter Fitz-Roger, in Secheford, saving to him and his heirs, scutage, relief, ward to Norwich castle, and suit of court to the sheriffs; witnesses, Sir Adam de Burlingham, Knt. William de Hakeford, Mr. Ralph de Thurston, &c.

The said prior and convent granted to Sir John and his heirs, free ingress into their manor, and to distrain as well on their freemen and villains, as their men and tenants, which he held of the said fee.

In the 18th of Henry III. William de Eye, sold to the prior for 100s. 30 acres of land.

John Fitz-Jeffrey and Basilia his wife, by fine levied, before Henry de Bath, Mr. Simon de Wanton, &c. the King's justices, convey to the prior, ao. 34 of that King, 20 acres.

Walter, son of Robert de Secheford, gave several villains with their tenements and services, cum tota sequela.

John, son of William Caly, grants to Simon the prior, &c. a tenement in 1256, and Roger de Langton, to Roger the prior, &c. 2 villains; Christiana, daughter of Alan de Secheford, 25 acres and an half.

In the 3d of Edward I. the prior was found to have the assise of bread and beer, and other privileges.

In the 6th of that King, William de Secheford quitclaimed to the prior, his right in the fold called East Lynn, and in all the arable lands of the prior, from the said heath, to the field of Docking and Southmere.

Ralph de Barsham, vicar of St. Mary de Secheford, gave a messuage; and William de Kirkeby, all the lands, &c. which he bought here of Sir William Felmingham, in 1280.

Sir John de Ingaldesthorp granted to the said prior, 14 acres of land, paying 5s. per ann. Richard, son of Alban de Stanford, gave him all his lands, with 2 sheep folds, and all the lands which Matilda, late wife of Alban de Stanford, his mother, had in dower of his inheritance.

In the 8th of Edward II. the prior had license to purchase 17 acres and an half of land, and 2 of marsh in this town; and Adam Baldeswell aliened to him 12 acres of land, and one of moor.

In the 20th of Edward III. the prior was found to hold half a fee of the Bishop, which Adam de Baldeswell and others held of the lands of Robert de Caston formerly; and in 1428, his temporalities were valued at 16*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* ob. per ann.

In 1519, it appears from the account of the cellerar of Norwich, that 100*s.* was paid to Thomas L'Estrange, Esq. for a fine of certain lands here, 12*d.* for suit of court; for sheriff's shot, 20*d.*; to Norwich castle guard, 3*s.* 6*d.* for half a year; to the manor of Hunstanton, 7*d.*  $\frac{1}{2}$ ; honour of Clare, 9*d.*

At the dissolution of the priory, King Henry VIII. granted it to the dean and chapter of Norwich, then founded by him, who are the present lords.

CASTON'S MANOR.

The family of Caston had also a lordship here, as appears from what has been observed above, under the 9th of Henry III. part of which was then granted to the prior; and in the 19th of Edward IV. Sir John de Caston and Katherine his wife, convey to Mr. John de Brisley, John Ycme of Norwich, and William de Sherington, chaplain, 5s. and 1d. rent, with the moiety of one Knight's fee, the services of the prior and convent of William de Secheford, and other tenants of his lordship, held of the Bishop of Norwich, for 100 marks of silver; and in the following year, the prior was found to hold half a fee of the Bishop, which Adam de Beldeswell and others held formerly of Robert de Caston.

The Sechefords had also a lordship. Walter, son of Robert de Secheford, gave several villans to the priory in King Henry the Third's time; and Sabina, daughter of Walter, granted to William de Kirkeby, the prior, her right in 9s. rent, with a free fold, late her father's, for 2 marks.

In the 20th of Edward III. William de Secheford and Henry de Elingham, held half a fee of the Bishop, which William de Secheford formerly held.

Of this family was Robert de Secheford, Esq. one of the Norfolk Gentlemen who accompanied John of Gaunt Duke of Lancaster in his expedition into Spain.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Thomas de Secheford was found to hold here and in Thornham, half a fee of the Bishop of Norwich.

After this, it was in the Delapoles Dukes of Suffolk; and in the 22d of Henry VII. was granted to John Carre and his heirs male, by letters patents, dated April 11, as parcel of the lands of that Duke, settled on Sir Robert Drury, &c. in trust, for Margaret Countess of Suffolk, as part of her jointure.

In the 4th of Philip and Mary, September 6, it was granted to Francis Chaloner, and William Butler.

After this, it was possessed by John L'Estrange, Esq. (3d son of Sir Nicholas L'Estrange of Hunstanton) who married Anne, daughter and heir of Richard Goding, Esq. of Boston in Lincolnshire, by whom he had 3 daughters and coheirs:† Eleanor, one of them, married Sir Henry Spilman, the great antiquary, but Anne, their mother, remarrying Richard Stubbs, Esq. he gained possession of it.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich castle, September 22, ao. 19 of James I. before William Heigham, Esq. escheator, it was found that Richard Stubbs, Esq. died November 24, in the 17th of that King, seized of it, formerly part of the possessions of the Duke of Suffolk, and that it was entailed on Sir Hamon L'Estrange of Hunstanton, and Alice his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of Richard, and was held in soccage of the manor of East Greenwich in Kent, by fealty, and paying 13s. 4d. per ann.

In this family it remains, the Honourable Sir Henry L'Estrange, Bart. being the late lord.

This Richard was son of ——— Stubbs, Gent. by Alice his wife, daughter of ——— Richers, Gent. of Bungey in Suffolk.

I find that Isabel, Queen dowager of England, when she resided at Rysing castle, in King Edward the Third's reign, as lady of the hundred of Smethdon, claimed the ameracements belonging to the prior of Norwich's lete in his manor: her style and title she then used, was Queen of England, Lady of Ireland, and Countess of Pontcifer.

John Duke of Lancaster, King of Castile and Leon, sued the prior for 12*d.* per ann. quitrent, and 8*s.* per ann. due for the lete of the town, which he recovered as lord of the hundred, uo. 6 of Richard II. on a commission of enquiry.

Stubbs bore sable, in a bend, between three phæons, argent, as many round buckles, gules;—Goodling, three spear heads.

The tenths were 15*l.* 10*s.*—Deducted 6*l.*

The Church is dedicated to St. Mary, and consists of a nave, a north and south isle, a south transept, and a chancel covered with lead.

There has been also a north transept, now in ruins, and has a round steeple with three bells.

In the middle of the chancel is an altar tomb, but no memorial thereon, said to be in memory of Stubbs, probably for Richard Stubbs, Esq.

In the south transept lies,

Ambrose Fleming, Gent. who died 1637, aged 61—William Palmer, Gent. who died 1634,

And in the nave,

Thomas Butler, Gent. who died 1653.

In this church were the guilds of St. Mary, St. John Baptist, and of All-Saints; to all which John Acre de Eton in Seggefurd gave legacies by will in 1444, and to the church 9 roods of land lying at Tokysty; and the gild of the Holy Trinity, the image of St. James in the north alley.

It was anciently a rectory valued at 45 marks, and appropriated to the use of the cellarer of Norwich priory,<sup>2</sup> by John de Grey Bishop of Norwich, on the 11th of the calends of April, in the 5th year of his pontificate.

The present valor of the vicarage is 8*l.* ancient valor 6 marks.

In the 6th of Edward I. William de Secheford acknowledged by fine the advowson of the church to be in the prior and convent, and it is now in the dean and chapter.

G N A T Y N G D O N.

NEAR to the town of Sedgeford, there was a village, or hamlet at the Conquest, called Nettington, and afterwards Gnatyngdon.

At the survey it was the lordship of Godwin Halden, who being a freeman, held it in King Edward's reign, under Guert, and after under Ralph, and now of the King; it contained one carucate of land, 2 borderers, and one soeman had an acre, valued before the Conquest at 10s. now at 20s. per ann.<sup>3</sup>

This Godwin Halden, held also at the survey the manor of Halesdon, in the hundred of Taverham, which Stigand held before the Conquest, the manor of Oxede in South Erpingham hundred, held before the Conquest, by Ailldig, a freeman under Guert, also the manor of Barnham in Fourhow hundred, held by a freeman before the Conquest; so that all these were of the gift of the Conqueror, to Godwin, on the expulsion of the former lords and owners, who held them in King Edward's reign.

Godwin Halden, by his name, seems to be an Old English Saxon, or Dane, and how he came to be in such favour, and to merit so much from the Conqueror, is not known; it is however worthy of our remark, and notice, that if he was an English Saxon, &c. he is the only one I have yet found in Norfolk, that was allowed to keep his land at the Conquest, and hold it at the survey.

This, soon after, was in the see of Norwich, and granted by Herbert, the Bishop, to the priory, of Norwich, and was probably one of the beruites in Sedgford before mentioned.

In the reign of Edward II. Robert, prior of Norwich, brought an assise against Robert Cheyne, Thomas de Secheford, Richard Perkin, vicar of Secheford, &c. for unjustly disseising him and the convent of the manor of Gnatyngdon, and a free-tenement which Nicholas, formerly prior, was seized of, and his right was allowed;<sup>4</sup> it appearing that Bishop Turbus had confirmed to them this lordship with the foldage, and that the inhabitants of this place should be distinct in their customs, from those of Secheford, and that the lands of Geff. Mareschal of Gnatyngdon should be free and quit of all dues from the episcopal officers.

Mr. Blomefield places Gnatyngdon in Suffolk,<sup>5</sup> but it is plain, he was therein mistaken: and it is now corruptly called Eaton.

T H O R N H A M.

THE lordship of this town was in the see of the East-Angles, or Elmham, in the Saxon age; Ailmar, or Agelmar, Bishop of Elmham, held it in King Edward's reign, and Bishop Beaufoe, Bishop of Thetford, when Domesday Book was made, held it in right of his see, with 3 carucates of land; there were always 3 carucates in demean, and 3 amongst the men, with 21 villains, 14 acres of meadow, a mill, 16 soemen, with one carucate and an half, and 5 borderers, &c. formerly valued at 14*l.* at the survey at 16*l. per ann.* was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 11*d. gelt*.<sup>6</sup>

BISHOP'S MANOR.

&c. to see it rectified; dated at Windsor, and witnessed by the said Roger.<sup>7</sup>

In the 35th of Henry III. Walter Bishop of Norwich, had a charter for free-warren, and it was found in the 3d of Edward I. that the Bishop had the assise of bread and beer, and would not permit the King's bailiff, and coroner to enter here; he received all amercedments of his men, and all profits in whatever courts they are amerced; and suffered not his freemen through his whole barony, to appear at the assises, or inquisitions, by virtue of liberties granted to him, and his predecessors, and at the same time paid 4s. to the lord of the hundred for the lete.

In the 20th of Edward III. William de Secheford, and Henry de Elingham, held half a fee of the Bishop, and Thomas de Secheford held it in the 3d of Henry IV.

On the exchange of lands belonging to the see, by act of parliament in the 35th of Henry VIII. this lordship, coming to the Crown, was granted by that King the 30th of March, Ao. 29, to his physician, William Butts, M.D. and Margaret his wife, for their lives, with messuages, lands in Ringstead, Stanhox, &c. without impeachment of waste; remainder to Edmund Butts, their son, and his heirs; remainder to Thomas Butts, their son, who was lord in the 34th of Elizabeth.

Doctor Butts was highly eminent in his profession, one of the founders of the college of physicians in London, and knighted by King Henry VIII.

Soon after it reverted to the Crown, and Sir Edward Coke, the lord chief justice, having purchased it of Queen Elizabeth, settled it in the 15th of James I. on Sir John Villiers, afterwards Viscount Purbeck, on his marriage with Francess, a daughter of Sir Edward.

After this ----- Arsdale, Esq. was lord, and his daughter and heir brought it to ----- Wilson, Esq. by marriage.

Anciently I find it a custom that if the tenants of the manor found on the shore any wreck, or royal fish, the lord was to have one moiety, and they the other.

NORWICH PRIORY MANOR.

In the 9th of Richard I. Mr. Simon de Thornham, held a carucate of land here and in Titchwell, late Robert Batail's, and Nicholas, son of Hugh, surrendered by fine all his right therein, before Hubert Archbishop of Canterbury, &c. and the said Simon granted it, in the 10th of King John, to William, the prior of Norwich; the said Simon, and Gregory his brother, holding it for life.

Silvester, son of Richard de Cumbes, for 10*l.* of silver granted to Roger, the prior, in the reign of Henry III. his water-mill, and wind-mill held of the Bishop, and paying to the Bishop 40s.

In the 3d of Edward I. it was found that the prior had this liberty, of not being impleaded in any court baron, or county court, but before the King, or his chief justice.

Henry Spencer Bishop of Norwich aliened to the priory of Lem, (a cell to Norwich,) lands here, in Hilderston, North Elmham, and Blofield, to the value of 50*l.* per ann.

On the dissolution of the priory, this was granted to the dean and chapter of Norwich, and so continues at this time.

Tents 6*l.* 14*s.*

The Church is dedicated to All-Saints, and was formerly a rectory in the patronage of the Bishops of Norwich, valued at 42 marks, and was appropriated to the Bishop's table, and the vicarage valued at 6 marks.

In the 20th of Edward II. it was found that all the issues and profits of this church, with those of Horne, Terling, and Lougham, and of the palace of Norwich, in time of a vacation, belong not to the King, but to the succeeding Bishop.

The vicarage is valued at 10*l.*

The church is a large regular pile, and has a nave, north and south isle, with a chancel covered with lead, and at the west end a large square tower, but the upper part is fallen down, and now lies open, in which there were 4 bells.

At the east end of the nave, near the screens, lies a grave-stone,

Orate p. a'ia Joh. Miller, qui ob. 1488; and on the screens, Orate p. a'iab; Joh. Miller, et Claricie uxor. ejus, &c.

On a grave-stone,

Orate p. a'ia Simonis Miller, qu'da' mercatoris istius ville qui ob. 4 Kal. Aug. 1464.

Also one

In memory of Robert Brown, Gent. who died 1711.

On a gravestone,

*Walter Watterson, merchant, died March 15, 1721, he bequeathed 100*l.* to buy lands, now purchased at Ringsted, and ordered the rents and issues to be distributed by the ministers and church-wardens of Thornham and Titchwell, on the first Sunday in December yearly, amongst such poor persons of the said parishes as do not receive collection, two thirds to Thornham, and one third to Titchwell poor.*

An altar tomb in the church-yard,

In memory of Frances daughter of James Hunt, Esq; and Fran. his wife, of Letheringset in Norfolk, who died 1734.

In the 25th of Henry III. a jury was summoned to find whether 230 acres of land, half an acre of meadow, and a messuage in this town were parcel of the possessions of the rector of the church, or a lay fee belonging to the prior of Norwich; the prior set forth that on the foundation of the priory, Bishop Herbert gave it to them, and that the Bishops Eccerard, William, John of Oxford, and John de Grey, confirmed the grant; that the prior granted the advowson of the church to the Bishop who took away the land from the prior; afterwards the same Bishop separated the rent of the land from the rent of the church, and granted it out to R. M. who gave it to one Simon, who retained only 5*l.* thereof as parson, but Mr. John de Eye pleaded that the said land belonged to Thornham church before the foundation of the priory, in the time of the Englishmen, and before the Conquest. The prior produced the charter of Bishop Herbert, viz.

“ Herbert, bishop to the monks of the Holy Trinity, whereas ye “ object to me, that I bought Thorp (by Norwich) for you only, I “ bought it for myself, and you, giving you the greatest part, I kept
 “ the least for myself, which division I always thought necessary for “ the church, for if the bishop should have no land at Norwich, his “ frequent coming thither would be very troublesome to you, and “ therefore I give you in exchange for that part of Thorp, which I “ keep in my own hands, my manor of Gnatington, with the fold-
 “ courses, &c. and the church of Thornham, the land of Thurstan,
 “ the deacon, a carucate of land at Gaywood, which was Hugh Calves,
 “ which paid one mark farm to the bishop, the land lying in Mint-
 “ lyng.”

The prior likewise produced the charter of Bishop Eborard, testifying that he surrendered the tenement aforesaid, the land of Thurstan, the deacon, and of - - - Mareschall of Gnatington.

The jury find that Thurstan, the deacon, parson of Thornham, held the church and land, and paid the Bishop 2*s.* 6*d.* per ann. that the prior never had the church, and that Thurstan had a son, called Elverick, parson of Thornham, and his son William was parson likewise, who all held the church and land, but after that, the prior and monks remained in possession of the church and lands.

TITCHWELL,

WITH THE MANOR,

WAS a beruite to the manor of Southmere and held by the Conqueror, as the book of Domesday testifies. Harold the King, had been lord of it, (but on his death the Conqueror seized it) when it contained a carucate and an half in demean, 14 villains, 6 borderers and 4 servi, with 16 acres of meadow, &c. and a mill; there was one carucate amongst the tenants, and 4 soemen with 2 carucates and 9 acres, also one soeman with 60 acres and 2 bovates, and one soeman with half a bovate, and the 4th part of an acre.<sup>8</sup>

This lordship was granted with Southmere, in or about the reign of King Henry I. to William Lovell, or to Goel de Hebreys, or Iberi, his father, of whom see in Southmere, and continued in that family many years.

In the 26th of Henry VI. by an inquisition taken at Lytcham in Norfolk, the jury find that John Lord Lovell, gave this lordship to one Thomas Lovell, (this John Lord Lovell, was probably the father of Maude, an only daughter, married to the Lord Zouch, and Thomas was his brother,) and the heirs of his body: Thomas had issue, Ralph and Thomas; Ralph had a daughter Margery, who died without issue in the aforesaid year; and Margery, wife of Sir Edward Hull, and Agnes, wife of John Wake, Esq. were cousins and heirs of Margery, viz. daughters and heirs of Thomas Lovell, son of Thomas, and brother of Ralph, father of Margery, and the manor was held by the 7th part of a fee.

In the 27th of Henry VI. the manor of Titchwell was settled by Sir John Fastoff on the Archbishop of Canterbury, &c. his feoffees.

In the 18th of Edward IV. it was conveyed by William Wainfleet Bishop of Winchester, &c. to Magdalen college, Oxford, having license of mortmain for so doing, in which college it still continues.

EAST-HALL.

Another manor or small tenure was at the survey in the hands of Roger Bigot, held by Tove, a freeman, under Harold, in the Confessor's time, and Ralph, son of Herluine, held it under Bigot, consisting of one carucate of land, one carucate in demean, one amongst the men, with 6 villains, a borderer, and 2 acres and a half of meadow, valued at 13s. 4d. at the survey at 12s.<sup>9</sup>

In the 9th of Edward II. Henry de Esthall, and one of the same name held in the 20th of Edward III. the 4th part of a fee.

Thomas Martin of Brecham, and Maud his wife, conveyed by fine, to Richard Couper of Titchwell, in the 48th of that King, the 4th part of a fee in lands, rents and services.

The tenths 7*l.* deducted 1*l.* 10s.

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Mary, and is a rectory. It is a single pile, covered with thatch, and the chancel is tiled: at the west end is a round tower of flint, with a shaft covered with lead.

The present valor is 12*l.* and the patronage is in Eton college.

The abbot of Ibrey in Normandy, had the patronage in the reign of Edward I. when the rector had a manse, with 50 acres of land, then valued at 15 marks, and the aforesaid abbot had also a portion of tithe valued at 13s. 4d. Peter-pence 12d.

T A V E R H A M H U N D R E D,

KING Stephen is said to have granted this hundred to William de Cheyney, in exchange for Moleham; what Moleham this was, is not mentioned; but it is certain it returned to the Crown. Sir William de St. Omer farmed it, with the hundreds of Walsham and Blowfield, of King Henry III. in his 52d year, and of King Edward I. in the 3d year of his reign; when they were in the King's hand they were worth 9*l.* per ann. but Sir Will. let them at 24*l.* per ann. Nicholas de Castello farmed them of King Edward I. in his 11th year, at 11*l.* per ann.

In the 9th of Edward II. John de Clavering farmed this hundred of the Crown.

King James I. in his 22d year, granted it to Sir Charles Cornwallis, during the lives of Charles, eldest son of Sir Will. Cornwallis and of Thomas Cornwallis, 2d son of Sir Charles, &c. with all its rites, courts, letes, felons goods, paying 23*l.* 10*d.* per ann.

Before this, in the 36th of Elizabeth, Bassingb. Gawdy, Esq. high sheriff, accounted for it to the Crown; and in 1689 the Earl of Yarmouth held it.

The court for the hundred was kept at Fretenham Hill.

The hundred gave name to a deanery which was taxed at 6*s.* 8*d.* and the dean of it paid yearly to the Archdeacon of Norwich, for synodals at Easter, 20*s.* and the same at Michaelmas, and Peter-pence 20*s.*—The synodals due from every church at each time being 6*d.* anciently, and the deanery was in the Bishop's gift.

ATTLEBRIDGE,

So called from its site, near the bridge over the river; a bridge being there, as appears in Edward the Confessor's time; several persons had an interest then in this village: Alan, the great Earl of Richmond, had 30 acres of land, with a carucate of meadow, of which 3 freemen were deprived, who held it in King Edward's reign, under Guerd, or Guert, brother to King Harold, and one of Earl Goodwin's sons, valued at 4s.<sup>1</sup>

The family of De Furneaux were anciently lords of this, under the Earls of Richmond.

William de Lions and his tenants held here and in Swanington, half a fee of the honour of Richmond, in the reign of Henry III. under Robert de Furneaux.

In the 26th of Edward III. Nicholas Maloysel held it; and Thomas Gyney, in the 3d of Henry IV. Thomas Lord Scales died seized of it in the 35th of Henry VI. John de Melton and Alice his wife, of Swanington, released to John de Brisingham, their right in the lands, &c. which they bought of Robert Maloysel in this town, and Taverham, in the 13th of Richard II.—witnesses, Robert de Berney, John White, Thomas Gency, Knights, &c.

William Bishop of Thetford held at the survey, in his own right, (as a lay fee, of which Gosfrid, a freeman, was deprived,) 16 acres of land, and there was a borderer, with half a carucate and 2 acres of meadow, valued at 6s. 8d. and a church with 60 acres, valued at 6d.<sup>2</sup>

This went along with his manor of Taverham, as may be there seen.

William de Scohies had 35 acres of land, out of which 2 freemen, with 2 borderers, who held half a carucate and 2 acres of meadow, were expelled; and this was valued with Scohies lordship in Wichingham.<sup>3</sup>

Walter Giffard had also at the survey 5 acres and an half of land, of which 3 freemen were deprived, and 2 borderers, who held in King Edward's time 2 carucates of meadow, valued at 10s.<sup>4</sup>

William de Scohies was a Norman chief, and sold all his lordships in England to Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, in the reign of Henry I. and they came soon after, by the marriage of an heiress of the Earl of Bucks, into the family of the Earls of Clare.

In the reign of Henry III. William de Lions, and Sibilla his wife, and Peter de Maloyse, held lands here, in Weston and Wichingham, of the Earl of Clare, and Nicholas Maloyse and Adam de Lyons, in the 20th of Edward III.

BROCKDISH HALL.

Walter Giffard's manor of Taverham extended into this town, and was held by Sir John de Eston, or Hestron. In the 30th of Edward I an assise was brought to know if Hortensia, widow of John de Eston, Ralph de Holveston, Cecilia de Holveston, and Isabel her sister, William de Wyltshire, parson of Alderford, Mabel his sister, and Gun-nora de Holveston, had disseized Nicholas de Hestron and Margaret his wife, of lands in Attleburgh and Taverham, before Walter de Gyselham, and Hugh de Cressingham, justices.

It afterwards came, by Elizabeth, daughter and heir of John de Eston, to Thomas de Brockdish; and by Joan, daughter and heir of William de Brockdish, to John Springwell.

In the 16th of Edward IV. they conveyed it by fine to Hugh Denny, and Henry Heydon, with a messuage, 50 acres of land, 7 of meadow, 3 of pasture, a marsh, 26s. and 1d. rent, and the liberty of a fold-course.

Dean and Heydon, sell it to - - - - - Curtis, and he to - - - - - Ellis, probably William Elys, Esq. one of the barons of the Exchequer, who is said to have enjoyed all the estates in this town.

Francis Bacon, one of the judges of the King's Bench, is said to have purchased the demesns of this manor of the Crown; (in whom the manor still continues) he married Elizabeth, daughter of William Robinson of Norwich, and was father of Francis Bacon, recorder of Norwich, whose daughter and sole heir Ann, brought it by marriage to Robert Davy, recorder of Norwich in 1701, and burgess for that city, who died s. p.

The site of this lordship of Brockdish, and Dighton's, so called from an ancient family, (of which was William Dighton, living in the 6th of Edward II. and Walter Dighton, in the 42d of Edward III. and had considerable possessions here) was compassed about with a moat.

In the 14th of Charles I. Dighton hills, in Attleburgh, and the heath, were conveyed (containing 300 acres of land) to Henry Lord Matrevers, being granted to Francis Braddock, and Christopher Kingscote of London, by letters patent February 10, A<sup>o</sup>. 12, of James I. as concealed lands, under the seal of the dutchy of Lancaster.

In the 41st of Henry III. Diketon appears to have been a village, and is mentioned with Swamington and Attlebrigg.

Here were formerly, as appears from the Register of Norwich,<sup>5</sup> 5 foldecourses; Refham hall, belonging to John Berney, lord of it, formerly Joan Est's, daughter and heir of William Refham; Kaund foldage, sold by Walter Kaund, to Reymer Payn, vicar of Calthorp, so to Simon Est, and came after to Sir Peter Tye; Sauser foldage, sold by William Sauser, to Jeff. de Salle, and by him to Ralph de Holveston;

Doo foldage, sold by John Doo, to the Elemosunar of Norwich; Povre's foldage, sold by Peter Povre of Laringset, to Jeffrey de Salle.
The priory of Norwich had considerable possessions here.

Sir Hervey de Stanhow quitclaimed to Roger, the prior, 4 marks rent, per ann. of the water-mill here, which they held of the grant of Hubert de Burgh, father of John de Burgh, and warranted to defend him against Sir John de Burgh.<sup>6</sup>

Nicholas de Hestru, son of Sir John, grants to the prior sans date, land for the use of the almoner, and Robert Isaac of Morton, to Roger, the prior, an acre of meadow, between the pool of Attleburgh mill, and that of Morton, for the said use.

William de Lions, of Weston, grants for the said use, a meadow here, and William Fitz-Simon, of Weston, to Roger, the prior, two meadows, for the same use.

Robert Bataile of Swanington, to Nicholas the prior, his heath for the said use.

William de Refham, to William, the prior, a piece of meadow, and Sarah de Carlton, late wife of William de Refham, quitclaimed to Henry, the prior, lands and meadows.

Roger Maloyse of Swanington, to Henry, the prior, lands held of this fee at Attleburgh. In the 3d of Edward I. the prior had free-warren, and was found to have appropriated the water of the river, as his special fishery, formerly common, and to have the assise, a gal-lows, &c.

The temporalities of the prior in 1428, valued at 26*s.* 2*d.*

In the 3d of Edward I. the mill here is said to belong to the manor of Causton, and was in the King's hands, valued at 2 marks per ann.

The tenths were 1*l.* 17*s.*

In this village, somewhere near the river, was an hermitage. On the 2d of August, in the 27th of Elizabeth, Theoph. Adams, and Thomas Butler, had a grant of the hermitage here; hermitages were generally thus seated in times of popery, on great roads, (this being called Walsingham Way) and by bridges, thus at Downham, Ickburgh, Brandon, &c. in Norfolk.

The Church is dedicated to St. Andrew, and was a rectory valued at 6 marks, granted by Heymer, rector of Felthorp, to the priory of Norwich, who had the patronage, after the decease, or recess of Walter Fitz Geffrey, rector of it, saving to the capellan that served it a competent sustenance, and was confirmed by William, son of William de Swathefield, the said Heymer gave also all his land in Attlebrigg, with all the liberties and apperteneances in pastures, meadows, &c. so that it was esteemed a lordship.<sup>7</sup>

It was appropriated to the use of Eleemosunary, June 5, 1236, by Thomas Bishop of Norwich. *Peter-pence 1*d.*—Carvage 4*d.* ob.*

The rectory is now, in the dean and chapter of Norwich, and leased out by them.

B E E S T O N .

THE Conqueror was possessed of a lordship here, of which 6 freemen were deprived, who had it in King Edward's reign, containing 30 acres of land, and 2 carucates, with 2 acres of meadow, also 9 freemen with 40 acres and a carucate, valued in Rachey; Godric took care of this for the King, as his steward; the King and the Earl of Norfolk had the soc, the township was half a leuca long, and 5 furlongs broad, and paid 10*d.* gelt.<sup>8</sup>

Godric, the King's steward, had also 30 acres, and half a carucate, with 2 acres of meadow, of which a freeman was deprived, valued at 2*s.* per. ann. and the King and the Earl had the soc, and this Godric held in his own right.<sup>9</sup>

The ancient family of De Mounteney were lords of this manor in the reign of Henry II. when Robert de Mounteney was found to hold one fee here, &c. of the old feoffment, and Sir Arnold de Mounteney held here in Catton, &c. the same in King Henry the Third's time, of Robert Lord Fitz Walter.<sup>1</sup>

It is probable that it remained in the Crown some time, and was granted by King Henry I. to Sir Richard de Lucy, lord chief justice of England.

Maud, the eldest daughter and coheir of Sir Richard, married to Walter Fitz Robert, the progenitor of the Lords Fitz Walter, and Sir Arnold de Mounteney, married Dionysia, the fourth daughter and coheir.

One of the same name was lord in the 20th of Edward III. of Wroxham, Catton, &c.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Lancaster was found to hold the manor, late Arnold de Mounteney's in this town, Sprouston, Wrexham, &c.

John Jermy, Esq. was lord in the first of Edward V. and in the 17th of Henry VII. it was conveyed to John Corbet, Esq. and Sir Thomas Corbet, Bart. was lord in 1639.

After this it was purchased by Sir Thomas Adams, and after by Sir Lamb. Blackwell, Bart. as in Sprouston, in which family it remains.

In the 6th of Edward III. Benedict de Beston and Agnes, his wife, confirmed to John de Corpusty, merchant of Norwich, lands, &c. in this village, and Thomas de Beston, wills to be buried in the church of Beston, by his ancestors, and gives legacies to his nephew John de Beston.

John Coeke, son of Roger Coeke of Cossey, confirmed to Edmund Mortoft of Beston, a tenement called Corpustey's.

By an inquisition taken at Norwich, on the death of Simon Nunne of Ringfeld in Suffolk, he was found to die November 5, in the 38th of King Henry VIII. seized of a capital messuage, called Wryngeys, and 48 acres of meadow, pasture, wood and heath here, and in Crostwick, and of a messuage, and lands, called Corpustey's, and 20 acres and an half of land, held of Wroxham manor, Wrongey messuages, &c. being held of the hundred of Taverham of the King by fealty, and James was his son and heir, aged 9 years, by Margaret his wife, daughter of Thomas Guybon, Esq.

This James Nunne of Beeston, Gent. confirmed it to Robert Partridge of Lynbarrow Magna, in Suffolk, March 30, A°. 6th of Elizabeth.

Robert Lord Mallet, had a lordship of which 2 freemen in this town, and 3 freemen in Sprouston, were deprived, who possessed 64 acres of land, and there was a borderer, a carucate, and an acre of meadow valued at 6s. the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>2</sup>

The Lord Mallet granted it to Walter de Cadomo, with the barony of Horseford, of which this lordship was a member, and so always passed with it, to the Cressies, Claverings, Lord Dacres, &c. as may be seen at large in Horseford.

Ralph de Beaufoe had 30 acres of land, a carucate of meadow, and a moiety of the church, at the survey, of which a freeman had been deprived, valued at 12*d.*<sup>3</sup>

This Ralph, left a daughter and heiress, Agnes, who married Hu- bert de Ric, castellan of Norwich; a coheiress of this family, Oliva, brought it to John Marshall, lord marshal of Ireland, and by Hawise, heiress of that family, it came to Robert Lord Morley.

C A T T O N.

WHEN the Book of Domesday was made, William the Conqueror had the capital manor of this village, and William de Noiers was his steward or bailiff, who took care of it for him, on the deprivation of Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, who held it as a lay fee, and had 13 socmen, with a carucate of land, and 3 borderers, with 3 carucates, paunage for 12 swine: it was one leuca in length, and 5 furlongs in breadth, paid 8*d.* 3 farthings gelt, and was valued with Thorp.<sup>4</sup>

It remained in the Crown till King Henry I. on Herbert's (the Bishop of Norwich) foundation of a priory in his cathedral church, granted it to the monks, and it was appropriated to them.<sup>5</sup>

Thomas de Blomville, Bishop, confirmed to the use of the almoner, 2 parts of the tithes of the demean lands of the priory manor, and 6 acres of land, with a messuage, (for which Roger, the priest of Catton, paid 3*s.* per ann.) was of the said demean, and not church land.

In 1271, the stock at their grange here was 3 scots, 2 oxen, 7 cows, one steer, and a heifer, 2 calves, a boar, 3 sows, and 12 pigs.

In the 3*d.* of Edward I. the prior had the assise, view of frank pledge, with the lete.

In the Comptus of John de Worstead a monk, in the 2*d.* year of William de Clarton, prior, is an account of his charges, for compost and manure, for lands here, and for marling, (as it expressly said,) of one acre and 3 roods of land, by which it is manifest that it was in practice; that in 1327, and in 1373, the steward or bailiff of the manor accounted for 49 hens, at 2*d.* each, for 235 eggs, 3*d.* for 101 days work in harvest, 10*s.* 1*d.* at 1*d.* per day each, also monee for che-vage.

Their temporalities in 1428 were valued at 102*s.* 10*d.* q.—rent of assise of free and customary tenants, in 1599, 6*l.* 3*s.* 9*d.* 3 farthings; perquisites of 2 courts, and the lete, 40*s.*

On the dissolution of the priory, in the reign of Henry VIII. it was granted to the dean and prebendaries, who held the lordship at this time.

The Conqueror had, at the survey, a lordship which Godric was his bailiff of, held by Edric, in King Edward's reign, and had been ejected, containing 60 acres, and 2 carucates in this town, (held by 2 freemen) and in Sprouston.<sup>6</sup>

The CHURCH is dedicated to St. Margaret, and was early appropriated to the priory of Norwich, and had a vicarage endowed, valued with the rectory at 16 marks. Peter-pence 9*d.* carvage 4*d.* and being a manor belonging to the priory, was not visited by the archdeacon, but he had the correction of all in the fee or manor of Mouteney.

D R A Y T O N

RALPH DE BEAUFOR had a grant of this town, of which Adulf, a freeman, was deprived; and Odar, at the survey held it under; 2 carucates belonged to it, with 7 villains and 8 borderers, and 3 servi, one carucate in demean, and 3 among the tenants, &c. with 10 acres of meadow, pannage for 3 swine, one runcus, 2 cows, &c. 180 sheep, and 60 goats. Two soemen had half a carucate, and there was a church endowed with 8 acres, valued at 16*d.* In King Edward the First's time, the whole was valued at 40*s.* at the survey at 50*s.*; it was one leuca long, and half a leuca broad, and paid 8*d.* 3 farthings gelt; the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>7</sup>

Of this Ralph de Beaufoe, see in Swanton-Morley. Hermer de Draiton was lord of this town in the 9th of Richard I. and presented then his son, Peter, to this church.

The Draytons probably descended from Odarus abovementioned; from the Draitons it came to the Bellomonts. William de Bellomont was living in the 4th of King John, and witness to the foundation deed of Mountjoy priory, in that reign, and was father of William, by Alice his wife, daughter and coheir (as I take it) of William de Draiton, which Alice married first, Gervase de Bradfield, who was lord in the 14th of Henry III.

Geffrey de Bellomonte claimed in the 3d of Edward I. the assise, free warren, gallows, &c. this lordship being part of the barony of Rye: he married Cecilia, daughter of Robert de Ferrarijs.

In the 15th of this King, the said Geffrey, John de Crek, and Ralph Berners, brought a writ of right against the abbot of Bury, for the lordships of Senere, Groten, &c. in Suffolk, on which a duel was fought, and the abbot's champion was overcome.

Their claim was from Nesta de Cockfeld, who dying s. p. her three aunts were found to be her heirs; Alice, married to William de

Bellomonte; ———, to Robert de Crek, and Beatrix, to Ralph Berner. Godfrey dying s. p. in the 21st of the said King, lord of Assington, Trimley, the 3d part of Semere and Grotten, and of Bokebroke in Suffolk, &c. Sir John de Bellomonte was found to be his brother and heir, who was lord in the 25th of that reign, and left by Alice his wife, a son and heir, Richard de Bellomonte, who was lord in the 27th: but in the 33d, Alice, widow of Sir John, conveyed this lordship to Walter de Langton Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, (her interest herein for life being excepted,) as did her son Richard by fine, for 100*l.*

On the death of this prelate, in the 15th of Edward II. it was found that he held this lordship, and that of Taverham, of the honour of Hokering, by 2 fees, paying 7*s.* 6*d.* per ann. and valued at 20*l.* 11*s.* per ann.

Richard de Rodney, escheator on this side of Trent, gave account of the issues of this, and others his lordships.

Among the many that he possessed, I find also those of Wendy, Exerton, and Coldham in Cambridgeshire;—Carleby in Lincolnshire; Grene and Chetwin in Shropshire;—Ashley and Botleagh in Northamptonshire;—Oxerton and *Oxford Daney*s in Huntingdonshire;—Edworth in Bedfordshire, and Stretton in Staffordshire.

The generality of historians assert that he was born at West Langton in Leicestershire.

I have seen an old pedigree, wherein he is said to have descended from ——— de Langton, who had lands at Eversden in Cambridgeshire, who married Wymara, daughter of Hugh de Berners, (who lived in the time of the Conqueror) and had by her Stephen de Langton, who was father of Simon de Langton, Archdeacon of Canterbury, of Stephen de Langton, Archbishop of Canterbury, and cardinal in the reign of King John, and of Roger de Langton, which Roger was father of Robert de Langton, of Eversdon, and from whom descended this Walter Bishop of Litchfield, who was his grandson.

Edmund, son of Sir Robert Peverell, of Castle Ashby in Northamptonshire, by Alice his wife, sister to the Bishop, was his cousin and heir, aged 14, at his uncle's death.

By the escheat rolls, in the 5th of Edward III. Edmund was found to die seized of this manor, containing 312 acres of land, 8 of meadow, 2 parts of a windmill, and John was his son and heir, by Elizabeth his wife, who dying s. p. Margaret his sister and heir, brought it by marriage, to Sir William de la Pole, son and heir of Sir Richard, by Hellen his wife, and Sir John was his son and heir.

Sir William and Margaret his wife, held this lordship, with those of Aspale, Debenham, Grimston, Trimley, and Assington, in Suffolk, in the 26th of Edward III. and in the said year, settled on Sir William his uncle, 4 marks annuity, out of this lordship, and that of Creshale in Essex; and in the 36th on Sir John Mowbray, the manor of Ashby-Davy, in Northamptonshire, and on John Lord Cobham, an annuity out of his manors of Sything in Norfolk, and of Grimston in Suffolk.

In the said year there was an agreement between him and the said lord, that his son, John, should marry Joan, daughter and heir of the Lord Cobham, and that he would settle in lands or rents 100*l.* per ann. on them.

On this marriage, he settled also the lordship of Potton and Alvichese in Bedfordshire, Westhall, and Fulbrook in Oxfordshire.

Sir John de la Pole, by this Lady Joan, had a daughter and heir, Joan, who appears to have had several husbands.

In the 3d of Richard II. she was the wife of Sir Robert Hemenhale; in the 3d of Henry IV. of Sir Reginald Braybrook; and in the 9th of that King, of Sir Nicholas Hawbeke, and of Sir John Oldcastle, in the first of Henry V.

By Sir Reginald she had a daughter and heir, Joan, baroness of Cobham, who married Sir Thomas Brook, Knt. and was father of Sir Edward Brook Lord Cobham.

But part of this lordship was alienated probably about the end of Edward III. by Sir John de la Pole, in the 19th of Richard II. John Gouney, and Alice his wife, conveying it, with the advowson, to John Winter and his heirs, by fine, which Joan, wife of Sir John de Seaton, held for life; yet in 1398, and 1491, John Gurnay presented (as lord) to this church.

In the 3d of Henry IV. he held 2 fees here, and in Taverham, late John Spring's, of the barony of Rye.

After this, Sir John Fastolf possessed it, and died lord in the 38th of Henry VI.

John Paston, Esq. and Thomas Howys, chaplain, who were executors and trustees of Sir John, presented in 1460.

Richard Selling, Esq. and Alice his wife, conveyed it by fine in the 11th of Henry VI. to Sir John Fastolf.

John de la Pole Duke of Suffolk was lord in 1480, and presented. In this family it continued, till forfeited to the Crown, on the death of Edmund de la Pole Earl of Suffolk, who was beheaded in 1513, April 30, though his widow had an interest in it for life, and was granted by King Henry VIII. to his great favourite, Charles Brandon, created Duke of Suffolk, on whose death, escheating to the Crown, it was granted April 11, in the 4th of Edward VI. to Thomas Thirlby Bishop of Norwich, and his successors; the Bishop of Norwich being the present lord and patron.

The tenths were 40s. deducted 0.

The CHURCH is a rectory, dedicated to St. Margaret, and a single pile, covered with lead, a chancel covered with tile; at the west end a square tower with 3 bells.

The ancient valor was eleven marks. Peter-pence, 16*d.* ob. car-vage 4*d.* The present valor is 6*l.* 2*s.* 9*d.* and is discharged. The prior of St. Faith's had a portion of tithe valued at 9*s.*

SEVERAL lords at the survey had an interest in this village, but the principal tenure belonged to Alan, the great Earl of Richmond, who held 88 acres of land, 2 carucates and 5 acres of meadow, possessed before the Conquest by 20 freemen, (and valued in Alan's great lordship of Cossey,) with paunage for 12 swine. The soc was in the King and the Earl, and it was 10 furlongs long, and 5 broad, and paid 8*l.* ob. gelt.<sup>8</sup>

In the 10th of King Richard I. William de Huntingfeld with Isabel his wife, and William Breton, conveyed to William Battail, by fine,<sup>9</sup> before R. (Richard Barre) arch-deacon of Ely, William de Warr, &c. justices of the King, 60 acres of land here, in Alderford, and Swanton, with the advowson of the churches of the said 3 towns, and William Battail in the 3d of Henry III. conveyed lands here to Baldric de Taverham.

John Whytfoot and Margaret his wife held in the 7th of Edward III. as appears by a fine, a messuage, 150 acres of land, 4 of meadow, with 20*s.* rent per ann. in Felthorp, Taverham, Drayton, Attlebrigg, &c. and in the 5th part of 200 acres of heath in the said towns.

In the 40th of the said King, John de Middleton and Mary his wife, Baldric de Taverham and Margaret his wife, (she was a daughter and coheir of John Whytfoot,) surrendered by fine to Roger Russell, 3 messuages and lands here, and in Taverham, from the heirs of Mary and Margaret, probably two sisters and coheirs.

The Russels were a family in this town.

William Russell was living in the time of Henry III. Baldric de Taverham sold lands to Jeffrey Russell in the 33d of Edward III. and John de Russell, and Roger his son, lived in the 9th of Edward II. and the Russells gave name to a manor.

Afterwards Sir Henry Inglos possessed it in the reign of Henry VI.

and his son Robert, in the 1st of Edward VI. Thomas Halse and Mary his wife, sold the manor of Russells, with lands, and a foldcourse to Henry Wood and Margaret his wife.

Thomas Hopkins, Gent. conveyed it to Henry Riches, Esq. about 1572.

Ralph de Beaufoe had 43 acres of land, of which 3 freemen were deprived, valued at 2s. and Richard held it under him; the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>1</sup>

Ralph's lordship of Drayton extended into this, held by the Bello-monts, &c. and after by the De la Poles, and Brandon Duke of Suffolk, on whose death, being in the Crown, was granted (as in Drayton) to the see of Norwich, and so continues.

Walter Giffard possessed a carucate and 30 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, valued at 8s. of which a freeman was deprived; the King and the Earl had the soc of the whole town, in King Edward's reign, but at the survey it was in Walter's.<sup>2</sup>

Attlebridge, and this town belonged to him, this being as a part of Attlebrigg, and together were one leuca long, and 3 furlongs broad, and paid 8d.  $\frac{3}{4}$  gelt: See Giffard's manor in Attleburgh.

The Conqueror had also 100 acres of land, which 4 freemen held before the Conquest; 7 borderers belonged to it, with 2 carucates and 5 acres of meadow, &c. valued at 10s. the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>3</sup>

The King soon after granted this to Walter Giffard Earl of Bucks, and from that family it came to the Earls of Clare.

The families of De Gyncey, De Bilney, and Whitwell held considerable lands here of the Earls of Clare.

Sir Roger de Bilney, aliened to the prior of Montjoy, in Heverland, 30 acres of heath, and as many of land here, in the 8th of Edward II. and about the said time, Thomas de Whitwell, rector of this church, gave all his lands, rents and services, with a foldcourse and heath here, to the said priory, for a yearly pension, and for the souls of his father Richard and Alice his mother.

The tenths were 20s.—Temporalities of Bromholm priory 12d.—of St. Faith's 11s.—of Ryegate in Surry 6s. 8d.—of Montjoy 5s. 5d.

FRETENHAM MANOR.

Roger, of Poictiers in France, had the grant of this town, of which Edric, a freeman was deprived, containing 4 carucates of land; 18 villains, and 12 borderers belonged to it then, with 2 carucates, and there were 8 carucates among the tenants, 6 acres of meadow, paunage for 60 swine, and there were 4 tenants, with half a carucate of land, and a carucate and an acre of meadow, one cow, &c. 200 sheep, valued at 4*l.* then, but at the survey at 8*l.* was one leuca long, and half a one broad, and paid 15*d.* gelt.<sup>4</sup>

This Roger was third son of Roger de Montgomery, a Norman, Earl of Montgomery, who attended the Conqueror into England, and commanded the centre of the van of his army in the battle of Hastings, and by Mabel his first wife, daughter and heir of William Talvace, son of William, son of Ivo de Bellesme, had three sons; 1st, Robert de Belesme, who inherited his father's and mother's estates in Normandy; 2d, Hugh Earl of Arundel and Shrewsbury, as his father had been; 3d, Roger of Poictiers, created Earl of Lancaster; 4th, Philip, a priest, and 5th, Arnulph, Earl (as said) of Pembrokeshire. Also 4 daughters; 1st, Emme, abbess of Almanisca; 2d, Maud, married to Robert Earl of Moreton; 3d, Mabel, to Hugh de Novo Castello; and Sibil, the 4th, to Robert Fitz Hamon, lord of Corboil in Normandy.

Tunstade, Hofton, Riston, and Westwick in Tunsted hundred, in Norfolk; but rebelling against King Henry I. and taking part with his brother Robert Duke of Normandy, he was deprived of all his estates and earldom in England.

Robert Bertram<sup>5</sup> was afterwards lord of this town, and a Norman, but taking part with the French King, against King John, the said King in his sixth year, granted it to Peter de Neuford, who being accused of making great waste therein, the King reassumed it, and gave it Roger le Poure, at the request of Robert Fitz Roger, lord of Horseford, to be held at the King's will; and on his death, Robert le Poure, his son and heir, possessed it, and had a grant of freewarren in the 51st of Henry III. but in the following year conveyed it by fine to Thomas, son of William Bardolf, with the advowson of the church, who granted to Robert, an annuity of 20 marks for life, with a clause of distress in his manors of Spixworth and West Winch.

This Thomas, in the 15th of Edward I. claimed free-warren, the assise and view of frank pledge, and in the 18th of that King was impleaded by John,<sup>6</sup> the son of master Robert de Reduere, Thomas having view of frankpledge, and John having lands, in the town, and not appearing in his lete, or tithing, he had distrained John's oxen, who pleaded that he was a clerk, and a scholar, and that no clerks, or scholars, ought to be put into the tithing against their consent in any lete, and produced the Bishop of Norwich, and the chancellor of the University's letter, to testify the same; so that judgment was given against the lord of the leet, and that a clerk need not appear at the leet, without his presence was particularly necessary, and the oxen were restored to John.

In the 6th of Edward II. a fine was levied between John Bardolf and Christian his wife, querents, and Joan, daughter of Thomas Bardolf of Spixworth, deforciant, of this lordship and advowson, which Cecilia, widow of the said Thomas, held for life, of the honour of Lancaster, by one fee, and 10s. per ann. and in the 13th of Edward III. it was settled on John Bardolf and Christian his wife in tail. by Hubert, parson of Spixworth, and John, parson of Racketh; and the heirs of Thomas Bardolf, held it in the 4th of Henry IV.; who those heirs were, is not mentioned; but in the reign of Edward IV. John Skeruing and Margaret his wife: John Thurlwin, Joan Burdon, John Burdon and Cecilia his wife, conveyed it with lands in Horstede, Crostwick, Below, &c. to John Winter, Esq. See in Spixworth.

By the will of John Briggs, Esq. dated at Salle, May 21, 1494, it appears that he died seized of it, and devised it to his wife Margaret, for life, after to Sir Henry Heydon, on his payment of 400 marks to his executors, and in the 15th of Henry VII. Edmund Paston and Margaret, late wife of Thomas Briggs, granted it by fine, with the advowson and warranty against the heirs of Margaret, to Sir Robert Clere, and Sir Robert Drury.

Sir Anthony Heveningham was lord in the 1st of Edward VI. and patron, and Mary, his widow, who married Phil. Appleyard, Esq. died possessed of it, December 12, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, and Arthur Heveningham, her son, inherited it, and Sir Arthur sold

Thomas Peck, Esq. was lord in 1640, son and heir of William Peck, who died in 1634.

In 1688, the Earl of Yarmouth was lord, and in 1700; and Harbord Harbord, Esq. in 1740, was lord and patron, in which family it remains.

The tenths were 3*l.* 10*s.*—Deducted 22*s.*—Temporalities of St. Faith's priory 18*d.*

The sheriff's turn for the hundred was kept on Fretenham hill.

WAS a village adjoining to, and a beruite of Fretenham, or Heynford. Roger of Poictiers was lord of it, and Albert was lord before the Conquest; one carucate of land belonged to it, 2 villains, with a carucate, a mill, valued at 30*s.* but at the survey at nothing, probably accounted for in Fretenham, or Heynford, and it was 3 furlongs long, and 3 broad.<sup>7</sup>

Robert, son of Charles, grants by fine this manor, in the 3d of Edward I. to Thomas Charles and Joan his wife in tail.

Thomas Charles was lord of Meydington, (called after Moyton-Hall;) in the 3d of Edward I. with view of frank pledge, free-warren, a tumbrel, &c. a fair and a weekly mercate on Friday.

In the sixth of that King it was found that Walter de Kam, a long time before his death, had enfeoffed William Charles of a messuage, 70 acres of land, an acre and half of meadow, and 20*s.* rent per ann. in Fretenham and Maidenton, so that Thomas Charles and Joan his wife, who were impleaded by John de Oketon and Alice his wife, were amerced; and in the 27th of the said King, he impleaded Thomas de Wardon, parson of Fretenham, &c. for entering on his free-warren, and destroying and taking his hares, partridges, &c. to the damage of 20*l.*

In the 17th of Edward III. John de St. Maur, conveyed to Sir John Wingfield, by fine, this lordship which Thomas Atte Church held for the life of Catherine his wife.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Sir John White of Shotesham was lord of Mayton-Hall in Fretenham, held by a quarter of a fee of the honour of Lancaster, late St. Maurs.

Sir John, gave it to John White, Esq. his son, by his second wife

But this grant was soon after (as far as it related to this lordship) recalled, for it appears, that Giles left by Margaret his wife, one daughter, Elizabeth, married to Henry Statham, Esq. who died in 1481, and left Joan their daughter and sole heir, married to John Sacheverell, and Sir Henry Sacheverell conveyed it by fine, in the 18th of Henry VIII. to Sir John Shelton, &c. But yet the Whites of Shotesham had some interest herein.

Edmund White, Esq. who married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Froximere of Bromesthorp in Norfolk, died seized of it, in 1521, leaving George his son and heir, who was an idiot, and died s. p. in 1546, and this manor, &c. was settled by Thomas Duke of Norfolk, his guardian, on Edmund White, Esq. his uncle, who died in 1538, so that on George's death it came to Edward White, son of Edmund, who died single in 1558, and his inheritance descended to his sister Anne, the wife of Henry Doyley of Pondhall in Suffolk, Esq. who had livery of it in the said year.

In the 18th of James I. Thomas Blofield, Gent. and Edward Coke, Gent. had a præcipe to deliver it to Sir John Heveningham, Sir Thomas Holland, Edmund Paston, Esq. &c.

 HAYNEFORD,

Called in Domesday Hamford, was the lordship of Roger of Poitiers. Ketel held it under Stigand the Archbishop, and was on the Conquest ejected: it consisted of one carucate of land, 7 villains and 4 borderers, &c. 2 carucates in demean, and one carucate with 2 acres of meadow among the tenants, and 14 tenants held one carucate of land, and 3 carucates, and 5 other tenants 30 acres of meadow.<sup>2</sup> about this time, William Blund impleaded the aforesaid William, for this manor, setting forth, that it had been granted to him and Alice his wife, by his ancestor Blund, in dower, for the moiety of the village of Walletham; and to return to him on the death of Alice.

Rosceline pleads that the exchange was good, and that Alice had resigned her dower at Walletham for this, had given also 20 marks, and a war horse, and that King Henry II. had confirmed this exchange.

In the 9th of King John, William Blund conveyed it by fine to William, son of William, son of Rosceline, to hold it of Blund by one fee; and in the 26th of Henry III. it was settled by William Rosceline on himself and Joan his wife, and their heirs.

John, son of William Rosceline, was found to hold it by one fee in the 34th of Henry III.

William Rosceline, lord in the 3d of Edward I. and in the 15th of Edward I. claimed free-warren, assise, a tumbrel, &c. and was found to hold it in the 25th of the said King, of the honour of Lancaster, and the payment of 10s. per ann. Joan was his widow, in the 9th of Edward II. and in the first of Edward III. and then in possession of it. Edmund Merkesdale, Jeffrey Inglose, and Peter de Madingthorp, were deforciant, in a fine, and Thomas de Bavent and Alice his wife, querents, in the 1st of Edward III. when a moiety of this lordship and advowson was settled on Thomas and Alice, and the said Thomas in the 13th of that King, settled them with the manors of Easton-Bavent, and Chidderton, in Suffolk, on himself, for life; remainder to William his son and Catherine his wife; remainder to Felicia his daughter, sister of William, and the remainder to John, son of Thomas, of Uxeston; remainder to Richard, son of John, son of Baldwin Bavent, and in the 20th of the said reign, William Bavent, and Robert Pavilly were lords, and held one fee late Roscelyn's.

In the 3d of Henry IV. George Felbrigg and John Pavilly of Riburgh were found to hold it of the honour of Lancaster, and John Shardelow, in the 8th of Henry V. and Sir John Fastolf died seized (as is said) in the 38th of Henry VI.

Sir Robert Southwell died lord in the 6th of Henry VIII. being then held of the King, as of the duchy of Lancaster, and Richard was his cousin and heir, and on October 21, in the 38th of that King, it was granted by the King to Andrew Mansfield, Esq. with the advowson, late Sir Richard Southwell's, who presented to the church in 1547, and Joan Mansfield his widow, in 1554; this Andrew, left a daughter and heir, Susan.

After this, Charles Cornwallis, Esq. enjoyed it, from whom it came to Charles le Grye, Esq. of Brockdish, who was found to die possessed of it, in the 17th of Elizabeth, and the advowson, William being his son and heir.

H A Y L E S D O N

On the deprivation of Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury, (who held it as a lay fee) the Conqueror granted it to Godwin Halden:<sup>3</sup> Stigand in King Edward's reign, had 2 carucates of land, 12 villains, 11 borderers, with a carucate in demean; one carucate held by the tenants, paunage for 60 swine, 12 acres of meadow, 2 mills, a fishery, one cow, &c. 10 sheep, &c. 60 goats, and 6 soemen had an acre of land, with a carucate and a half, and 4 acres of meadow, valued at 4*l.* 12*s.* 8*d.* and there was a church but not endowed with any land; it was one leuca and an half, and 20 perches long, and one leuca broad, and 3 furlongs, and paid 8*d.*  $\frac{1}{4}$  gelt.

This Godwin Halden seems to be of Danish extraction, and one thing is remarkable of him, that he held under Earl Guert, brother of King Harold, the lordship of Nettington in Smethdon hundred, in King Edward's time, and at the Conquest, when he was also rewarded with this lordship, those of Ornead and Bernham in South Erpingham and Fourhow hundreds; a proof that he was a rebel against King Harold, and assisted the Conqueror.

Soon after the Conquest it was divided into two lordships, one held by the family of De Bernham, the other by that of Hauteyn, of the honour of Clare, coming to those Earls, from the Giffards, Earl of Bucks.

BERNHAM'S MANOR.

William de Bernham was lord of this town, Ornead, Bernham, &c. in the reign of Richard I. and Walter de Bernham held the same in the 20th of Henry III. of the honour of Clare, and William de Bernham had a charter for free-warren in 1264.

Walter de Bernham presented to this church in 1309, and in the 8th of Edward II. Thomas de Docking and Maud his wife, settled this lordship on Walter de Bernham and Maud his wife, and in the 16th of that King, it was settled on the said Walter and Maud for life; remainder to Hugh, son of Walter and Isabel his wife, daughter of Gyles de Wachesham and their heirs, and Hugh was lord in the 6th of Edward III.

Robert de Bernham, in the 8th of Edward III. lord of this manor, confirmed to the prior and convent of Norwich, a right of common in the fields and heaths of this town, for 300 sheep, and great cattle, levant and couchant, viz. of the east part thereof, called Nabbes.†

In the 36th of Edward III. Sir Gyles de Bernham and Robert his brother, released to Walter de Berney, citizen of Norwich, this manor and advowson, with the rents, services, &c. and in the said year, John de Bernham, brother and heir of Sir Gyles, released it to the aforesaid Walter, and to Richard de Haylesdon and John his son, citizens of London, all his right: this Sir Gyles, was, as I take it, eldest son of Walter de Bernham, by Isabel his wife, and at this time Alexander Strange had an interest herein, in right of the said Isabel, then his wife.

Andrew Bomond, clerk, nephew of Hugh de Bernham, released also to Walter de Berney, Richard de Haylesdon, &c. all his right in the 51st of the said King, and Walter de Berney presented to this church in 1365, &c. and in 1388, Sir John Seton presented in right of Joan his wife.

John de Haylesdon, citizen of Norwich, made his will April 14, 1384, and desires to be buried in this church by his father and mother; gives to Robert his brother 40*l.* Margaret his sister 20*l.* and proved in the same month.

John Churchman was his executor, and to this John, John de Haylesdon, and Joan his wife, in the 7th of Richard II. had conveyed this manor in trust.

John Gournay and Alice his wife were in possession of it in the 19th of that King, when they passed it with the manor of Drayton, and the advowson of the two chantries in this town, which Sir John Seton and Joan his wife held for life, (probably late widow of John de Halesdon) to John Winter, &c. and in the 4th of the said King Richard II. John Hokere and Margaret his wife, conveyed this lordship, to John Churchman, and Bartholomew Marsh, citizens of London, feoffees of John de Haylesdon.

Richard Selling and Alice conveyed it in the 11th of Henry VI. to Sir John Fastolf, and John Paston, Esq. enjoyed it, and John de la Pole Duke of Suffolk; from which family it came to the Crown, on the execution of Edmund Earl of Suffolk.

King Henry VIII. granted it to Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk, and on his death, escheating to the Crown, it was given April 11, in the 4th of Edward VI. to the Bishop of Norwich and his successors, as in Drayton; and the Bishop is lord at this time.

HAUTEYN'S MANOR.

Theobald de Hauteyn had a lordship here in the reign of Henry II. by the marriage of Agnes, daughter of Albert de Gresley, who was also lord of Ornead.

On the death of Theobald, she married ----- de Amanudevile, and in 1183, she was found to be 40 years of age,<sup>5</sup> and to hold this manor in dower, having three sons by Theobald; John the eldest was then in the King's custody, a minor, aged 14, and died s. p. leaving Robert and Thomas his brothers: Margery, his widow, in 1214, surrendered her right here for an equivalent at Skeldingthorp in Lincolnshire, to Robert.

Walter de Hauteyn of Haylesdon was also living in the 8th of Henry II.<sup>6</sup> and had an interest here, holding two fees of the honour of Clare, and John was (as is said) his son and heir, who married Margery, daughter of Julian Hunsfen, son of Elias, who brought to John the lordships of Skeldingthorp, Credington, and Fresham in Lincolnshire, to John, by whom she was father of Robert, who was living in 1214, and being a knight in the 24th of Henry III. granted by fine to William Lincoln, lands and a meadow, called Flatholm, with common of pasture for 8 sheep, 6 beasts, in the woods, except in the park of the said Robert; in the 28th of that King, he settled this lordship on Hamond his son, and Margaret his wife, daughter of William Briton, and died before the 31st of the said reign.

Alice being then his widow, he had a daughter Eva, to whom he gave 100*l.* per ann. in lands here, pasture at Kaynard,<sup>7</sup> a foldecourse for 500 sheep, and several rents, (which was probably the rise of Fairchild's manor in this town) on her marriage to Ralph de Tyville.

Hamo succeeded his father, was custos of the county of Norfolk, and accounted for the profits thereof, in the 44th of Henry III. and in his 53d year had the King's writ, dated December 3, that whereas he had forfeited his lands, which were given to Patrick de Chaworth, for siding with the barons, he was empowered to summon Patrick before the sheriff, to show cause why they should not be restored him.

Sir Bartholomew de Hauteyn had also an interest here, about the same time, and the King had granted his lands on the same account to Ernisius de Stutevile.

Sir Hamo de Hauteyn and Robert de Ludham were appointed justices to look after the Jews' affairs, and there was a mandate to the barons of the Exchequer, to deliver to them the keys of the chest of the Jews, with the rolls, &c. belonging to that office.

In the 3d of that King, he claimed the assise, free-warren, a gallows, &c. in the 11th of the said King, he was summoned to meet the King in parliament at Salop, and in the 13th was suspended from his office, as judge of the Jews, for certain misdemeanors.

William, son and heir, succeeded his father Hamod, and was lord in 1301, and married Agnes, daughter of William de Brampton, and in 1312, it was settled by fine on him, and his 2d wife, Alice, daughter of William de Walcote, and dying in the year 1326, Sir John Hauteyn was his son and heir, by Agnes his wife; but it does not appear that he inherited this lordship, his father is said to have incurred the displeasure of King Edward I. and to have paid a fine of 50*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* for certain transgressions, in not attending him in some expedition as is said; and in the 19th of Edward II. not long before his death, had conveyed by fine this lordship to Walter de Bernham and Maud his wife, widow of his father Hamo, and so was united soon after to the manor of Bernham.

This Sir John, was probably the same person, who was receiver of the King's customs of wool, and citizen of London, in the 16th of the said King; Sir John sealed with argent, a bend sable, and some of the Hauteyns sealed with bendy of eight, argent and sable.

From the Bernhams it came to Walter de Berney, Richard de Haylesdon, so to Gourney, Fastolf, &c. and so to the see of Norwich, as abovementioned.

Here was also a lordship called Fairchild's, which arose (as I take it) from the grant of Sir Robert de Hauteyn of 100s. per ann. in lands; also pastures, a foldcourse, with several rents to Eze, his daughter, on her marriage, to Ralph de Tyville, about the 28th of Henry III. and was enjoyed by John de Tyville, his son.

In the reign of Henry VI. Sir John Fastolf was lord of it, and Sir John Paston died possessed of it, in the 6th of Edward IV. as Sir John Wiltshire did in the reign of Henry VI. before it came to Fastolf; by his will dated at Haylesdon,<sup>8</sup> November 17, 1424, and proved May 25, 1428, he gives to his tenants here 40s. requires to be buried in the priory of Lewes in Sussex, by his late wife, Blanch; names John his son, and Alice his wife executors.

In the 20th of Henry VIII. Sir John Cressener and Elena his wife convey it to Nicholas Sotherton and Agnes his wife, and John Sotherton, with 80 acres of land, 20 of pasture, 10 of meadow, and a messuage called Fairchild's, and Samuel Sotherton, Gent. was found to die possessed of it, April 18, in the 5th of Charles I. held of the Bishop, in socage, of his manor of Haylesdon, and of 22 acres of land, late the prioress of Carroës, held of the King in capite, by the hundredth part of a fee, and Ann was his daughter and heir, (by Mary his wife,) aged 30, and then the wife of Roger Dunster of London, merchant.

The Sothertons are an ancient family: Nicholas Sotherton, Esq. was sheriff of Norwich in 1530, and mayor in 1539.

Leonard Sotherton, was a citizen of Norwich, of eminent loyalty in Ket's rebellion, in the reign of Edward VI.

John Sotherton, Esq. sheriff of Norwich in 1565, had by Mary his wife, daughter of Augustine Steward, mayor of the aforesaid city, in 1534, four sons; John, Nowell,<sup>9</sup> who was baron of the Exchequer, Nicholas and Thomas.

Thomas Sotherton, probably brother of John Sotherton, Esq. married Elizabeth, another of the daughters of Augustine Steward, and was mayor in 1565, and Burgess in parliament in the 39th of Elizabeth, whose descendants are as follows.

auditor, he was free of the Merchant Tailors Company, London, and buried at St. Botolph's Aldersgate church.

SOTHERTON'S PEDIGREE.

Sotherton bears, argent, a fess, and in chief, two crescents, or, gules.
Roger Dunster had, by Anne his wife, a daughter and heir, Anne, who by marriage brought it to John Berrington, Esq. who was lord in 1664, son of Humphrey Berrington, of London, merchant, by Anne his wife, daughter of Edward Meredith of Stanley, in Denbighshire, son of Simon Berrington of Winsley in Herefordshire.
 After this it came to Heyward, and to Sir William Goslin, a lace-man of Patet-Noster-Row, London, whose lady held it in jointure in 1690.

Robert Hauteyn granted to Reginald, abbot of St. Bennet's at Holm, the mill called New Mill in Haylesdon Liberty, with common of pasture, and the bank to the mill pool, with the island, and liberty to clean the pool, in the 12th of Henry III. and Sir Robert Hauteyn gave 24 acres of land to Langley abbey.
John, son of Ralph de Tycale, granted to William de Kirkeby,

The church is a small pile, consisting of a body, or nave, and a chancel, and a north isle that runs the length of the body, all covered with lead; and has an octangular tower, and one bell, with a cap, or cupola of wood, covered with lead.

In the chancel before the image of St. Mary, patroness of the church, was a lamp burning night and day, at the charge of the abbot and convent of Langley.

At the Dissolution, William Norton, and Philip Curson were the two priests, and had each of them a pension of xl. per ann. granted to them. I sometimes find it called the college of priests at Haylesdon.

ROBERT MALET, baron of Eye in Suffolk, had a grant of this town, for his eminent services to the Conqueror, on the deprivation of Edric, lord of it in King Edward's reign, when there were 2 carucates and an half, 5 villains, 5 borderers, 2 carucates in demean; one amongst the tenants, and 4 acres of meadow, and paunage for 100 swine; with one mill, one rounce and 3 cows.

Here were also 30 sheep, 15 skeps of bees; twenty two socmen also held a carucate of land, and 2 acres of meadow, and there was a carucate and half of meadow: of two of these socmen the King and the Earl had the soc, and the forfeiture of 6 others valued then at 3*l.*

at the survey at 110s. it was one leuca and an half long, and paid 17½d. gelt.<sup>3</sup>

Robert Lord Malet enfeoffed one of his knights (Walter de Cadomo,<sup>4</sup> who attended him into England at the Conquest) of this lordship, which was called the barony of Horseford, to be held of the honour of Eye; and here this Walter built a castle, whose ruins, Camden says in his Britannia, were then overgrown with bushes and briars, and laid a large park or chase round it, in some deeds called the forest of Horseford.

Robert son of Walter, married Sybilla, daughter and heiress of Ralph de Cheyney, and is often called Robert Fitz Walter, and was founder of Horsham priory; by her he had three sons, who assumed the name of De Cheyney; Roger,<sup>5</sup> who died s. p.; John, called the vicecomes, or sheriff, who died without issue male, and William de Cheyney who was lord of Horsford, living in the 2d year of Henry II. and sheriff of Norfolk, sometimes called William de Norwich.

King Stephen granted to him the hundred and half of Fourhow, with the manor of Hingham, and the hundred of Taverham, in exchange for Moleham, &c. and King Henry II. gave him the lordship of Bliburgh, by charter, dated at Lincoln;—witnesses, H. Bishop of Durham, chancellor, R. Archbishop of York, R. Bishop of Lincoln. He was founder of Sibton abbey in Suffolk, and left by Gilla, his wife, three daughters and coheirs.

Margaret, married to Hugh de Cressi;—Clementia, to Jordan de Sackvile, and Sara, to Richard de Engaine; and on a division of their inheritance, this came to Hugh de Cressi, who in the 21st of Henry II. was (with Ralph de Granvile) a justice itinerant, and settled the tallages of the royal demesans.<sup>6</sup>

Margaret survived her husband Hugh, and remarried Robert Fitz Roger, lord of Warkeworth in Northumberland, son of Roger Fitz Richard, which Richard was son of Eustace Fitz John.

Margaret had by Hugh, a son, Roger de Cressi, who in the first of King John, married Isabel,<sup>7</sup> youngest daughter and coheir of Robert de Rye, with whom he had 17 fees and an half, and the moiety of the barony of Rye. He was in the barons wars against King John, and that king gave his lands in this county, and Suffolk, to Robert de Ferrarijs, but were restored by King Henry III. he had 2 sons by Isabel;

<sup>4</sup> Walter de Cadomo is said to be a younger brother of Robert Lord Malet.

VOL. X.

<sup>5</sup> Some pedigrees say that Walter his father was named Cheney, and that Sybilla his wife, was of another branch of that family, but not an heiress. Camden was of this opinion.

<sup>6</sup> By some of the best authorities however it is asserted, that the abovesaid Margaret, was sole daughter and heir of William de Cheney: and in particular in a curious pedigree by St. George and Camden, in Lord Dacre's possession.

<sup>7</sup> Isabel was daughter and coheir of Hubert de Rye, by Margery his wife, daughter of William, son of Rosceline, which Margery, after married _____ de Dagworth.

Hugh de Cressi, the eldest, who paid a relief of 100*l.* for his lands, about the 30th of Henry III. and died in the 47th of that King, and in the following year it appears that Isabel was dead; and that Oliva her sister was to have certain lands delivered to her, on condition that Ermentrude, widow of Sir Stephen de Cressi, son of Sir Roger de Cressi and Isabel, was not with child, but if she was, then the lands to be in the King's hands.

But the male issue in this family failing in William de Cressi, who was summoned to parliament as a baron, the 25th of Elizabeth, but soon after died; it is certain this lordship came, probably by some entail to Robert Fitz Roger, (great grandson of Margaret de Cheyney and Robert Fitz Roger, founder of the priory of Langley in Norfolk, in which divers of his descendants were interred,) which Robert had summons to parliament, from the 23d of Edward I. to the 3d of Edward II. in which year he died, and was succeeded by John, his son and heir, who constantly used the surname of Clavering, from his manor of Clavering in Essex. This John married Hewesia, daughter and heir of Robert de Tiptoft, by whom he had an only daughter named Eva.

Eva had 4 husbands; first, Thomas de Audley, Esq. by whom she had no issue; 2d, Sir Thomas de Ufford, son of Robert de Ufford, justice of Ireland, and brother of Thomas Ufford Earl of Suffolk, by whom she had 3 sons, Sir John, Sir Robert, and Sir Edmund de Ufford, who was killed at Sterling, in Scotland, and buried at Langley abbey; as was Sir John, his eldest brother, and Thomas his father.

Her 3d husband was Sir James de Audley, by whom she had two sons, James and Peter, and 2 daughters, Anne and Hewesia; James the eldest son, was the famous Lord Audley of Helagh, remarkable for his gallantry at the battle of Poictiers.

The 4th husband was Sir Robert de Benhale, and she appears to be his wife in the 11th of Edward III. in which year he was in an expedition made into France, and had summons to parliament among the barons in the 34th of that King: Barns says, he fought a remarkable duel with a Scotchman, and killed him: his arms were, gules, a cross moline, argent, surmounted by a bendlet, sable, and was buried in Langley abbey.

The lady Eva died in the 45th of Edward III. and was buried in Langley abbey, as was her third husband, Sir James de Audley; I have seen a curious seal of this lady; in the centre was half the arms of Ufford, impaling the arms of Audley, and above in a triangular position, three small shields of her own arms, De Clavering, in a lozenge.

Sir Edmund de Ufford, her 3d son, by her second husband, inherited this lordship; he married Sibilla, daughter of Sir Simon Peirpout of Belstead, and Henstead in Suffolk; by his will dated _____, and proved October 3, 1374, he was buried in Langley abbey; he was father of Sir Robert de Ufford, who married Hellen, daughter of Sir Thomas Felton, died in 1400, and was buried in Langley abbey, leaving Amev his daughter and coheir, who brought it by marriage to Sir William Bowet, of an ancient family in Cumberland, Westmoreland, &c. as appears by the list of sheriffs of the county of Lincolnshire, where they had a seat at Rippengale near Bourne; brother, as I take it, of Henry Bowet, Archbishop of York, who bore the same arms, argent, three stags heads caboshed, sable.

In the 10th of Richard II. a fine was levied between this Henry Bowet, clerk, then archdeacon of Lincoln, and Sir Robert Parning, whereby the manors of Blackhall, Staynton, and Bocardby in Cumberland, were settled on Parning in tail; remainder to Thomas Bowet, sen. and Margaret his wife in tail.

Sir William was living and Amev his wife, in the 11th of Henry IV. and resided at Wrentham in Suffolk, in the 5th of Henry V. and was taken prisoner by the French at the battle of Bangy in France, in the 9th of the said King, in which the Duke of Clarence was slain; it is probable he died a prisoner there soon after, for it appears that he was dead in the 10th year of Henry V. and was buried, with his lady, in Langley priory: she after his decease however married a second husband, Sir Henry Inglose.

Elizabeth, daughter and heir of the aforesaid Sir William Bowet and Amev Ufford, married Sir Thomas Dacre, son and heir of Thomas Lord Dacre of Gillesland, and in her right was lord of this town, Joan, his daughter and heir, brought it to Sir Richard Fiennes, who was Lord Dacre, in her right; in this family it continued (Lord Dacre of the South) till issue male failing, the 37th of Queen Elizabeth, Margaret, sister and heir of Gregory Lord Dacres, marrying Sampson Lennard, Esq. (son and heir of John Lennard, Esq. of Chevening in Kent, sheriff of that county the 13th Queen Elizabeth) carried this lordship, with the estate and honour, into that family, whose grandson, Richard Lennard Lord Dacre, gave this manor to Richard Lennard his son,<sup>8</sup> by Dorothy, daughter of Dudley Lord North, his 2d wife, which Richard afterwards took the name and arms of Barret in consideration of the manor of Belhouse, &c. in Essex, bequeathed to him by his cousin, Sir Edward Barret Lord Newburgh, who died Anno 1614; he was succeeded by Dacre Barrett Lennard, his son and heir, who had issue, Richard, who dying in his father's life time, left an only son Thomas, the present Lord Dacre, in which title he (anno 1755) succeeded his mother Anne Lady Dacre, who by the death of Barbara, her eldest sister, without issue (anno 1741) inherited that honour as sole heir to her father Thomas Lennard Earl of Sussex, son of Francis Lord Dacre, son and heir of the afore-mentioned Richard Lennard Lord Dacre, by Anne, daughter of Sir Arthur Throgmorton, his first wife, which Thomas Barrett-Lennard Lord Dacre, is the present owner of this manor. Arms quarterly, 1st and 4th, or on a fess, gules, three fleur-de-lis or, for Lennard; 2d and 3d, party per pale barry of four counterchanged argent and gules, for Barrett.

In the 54th of Henry III. Hugh de Cressy, lord of Horsford, granted by fine before Henry de Bath, John de Gates, Robert de Brewer, Gilbert de Preston, Master Simon de Wanton and William de Wilton, the King's itinerant justices at Norwich, to Berengar, prior of Horsham St. Faith's, common of pasture in his park of Horsford,<sup>9</sup> for all the cows and oxen of the said priory, from the feast of Pentecost, to that of St. Michael yearly, and for their swine, from St. Michael's day, to that of St. Martin, with a drove way for the same.

The ancient lords, as barons of Horsford, had a castle here, the

Chase, then called Park, not the Home

Dacre's possession; that it was in the site of it is still to be seen, and was inclosed by a circular moat, and the keep was about 50 feet from this moat, and surrounded by another moat; though this indeed seems rather to have been a station for observation in the outward works of the castle, after the fashion of those times; for the area on the top is too small to have contained a building of any size. Of Horsford many manors and lands were held by knights service in Norfolk and Suffolk, as appears by a list of them in a curious survey of the manor made in Queen Elizabeth's time.

The Home park at Horsford, by an entry in the court books, appears to have been still stocked with deer, in the reign of Henry VIII; and it appears by old writings (now in the possession of the Right Honourable Lord Dacre) that in the 10th of Henry V. the chase (now only a naked heath of nine hundred acres) was furnished with trees and underwood; of which indeed, by old accounts of sales of wood in Queen Elizabeth's time, by Gregory Lord Dacre, there appears, till then at least, to have been still remains.

The Church is dedicated to All-Saints, and was a rectory valued at 20 marks, but appropriated to the priory of Horsham St. Faith's, and a vicarage was settled in the patronage of that house, valued at 6 marks, Peter-pence 17d.

H O R S H A M S T. F A I T H ' S,

P R I O R Y O F B E N E D I C T I N E M O N K S,

WAS dedicated to St. Faith, the virgin and martyr, and founded by Robert de Cadomo, (or Caen,) son of Walter de Cadomo, lord of Horsford, and Sibilla his wife, daughter and heiress of Ralph de Cheyney in 1105; on this occasion, (as historians relate,) returning through France, from Rome, where they had been in pilgrimage, were set upon by robbers, and imprisoned, till by their prayers to God, and St. Faith, the virgin, they were miraculously delivered.

After which they visited the shrine of St. Faith at the abbey of Conches in France, and being there kindly entertained, they vowed on their return into England, to give their manors of Horsford, and Horsham, to build a monastery here, in honour of God, and St. Faith, which they accordingly performed, placing herein two monks, of the abbey of Conches, to which abbey they gave this house as a cell, in the reign of Henry I. and Herbert, being then Bishop of Norwich.

The foundation deed was as follows,

“ *In nomine D'ni nostri Jesu Christi, Amen. Notum volumus fieri omnibus fidelibus Christi tam presentibus, quam futuris, quod Ego Robertus Walterj filius, et uxor mea nomine Sibilla edificauimus ecclesiam de Horsham, in propria terra, et in honore D'j et Sce Fidis, virginis et martiris remedis et saluatione animarum nostrarum et filiorum nostrorum, et omnium fidelium uicentium sive defunctorumq; concedimus, eandem ecclesiam Deo et monachis de Conches in ecclesia Sce' Fidis, virginis, et martiris et huic a nobis, edificate ecclesie concedimus ecclesiam de Horsford, ecclesiam de Reydone, ecclesiam de Mor'. ad faciendum anniversarium Sibille uoris mee, Decimam Abreton, et de Wibetone, et de Wilmordeston, et de Helmingham, et de Flomworth, et de Wodetone, et de Semerc, et de Bikebrome, et de Resham, et de Forle, et de Weling, et de Stanton, et de Sarthingham, et de Stokes, et de Hertham, et de Hou, et de unoquoq; manerio, unam acram terre ad congruendam Decimam, et concedo de omnibus procurationibus meis, quas fecero in Anglia semper decimas, huic ecclesie. In 1163, the foundation was confirmed by Pope Alexander III.

John, son of Robert, gave by deed sans date 60 acres of land in Horsford, and Horsham, to the said priory, and confirmed the grant of his father and mother.

William, son of Robert, confirmed all the donations of the churches, and the tithes of his father Robert, son of Walter, and Sibilla his mother, in the time of Eugenius, the Pope, and King Stephen.

Stephen de Cressy, son of Roger de Cressy, confirmed the grants of his ancestors, and gave them his wood, called Suthwod, in Horsham, and pasture for their cattle in his park at Horsford.

Robert, son of Roger, lord of Warkworth, and Horsford, confirmed also the same, by deed dated at Horsford, on the vigil of St. Andrew the Apostle, 1279; witnesses, Sir John de Vaux, Sir Hamon Hauteyn, Sir William de St. Omer, &c.

William, son of Ralph de Hauvile, granted by fine in the 12th of Henry III. to Eustachius, the prior, the mill of Doketon.

In the 14th of Richard II. the priory was discharged of its subjection to the abbey of Conches, and was an English priory, and indigena.

The abbot of Sypton, paid a pension of — per ann. to this priory in 1426.

The site of this priory with the lordship, lands, appropriated rectory, and the rectory and advowson of Horsford, were granted about the 36th of Henry VIII. to Sir Richard Southwell of Wood-Rising in Norfolk, and Edward Elrington.

Richard Southwell, Esq. held it in 1588, who sold it to Sir Henry Hobart, the judge, and his son Sir John inherited it.

After this in 1707, Sir Ralph Hare, Bart. possessed it in right of Susan his wife, coheiress of Walter Narborn, Esq. and presented to Horsham vicarage, and in 1734, Elizabeth, lady Hereford; after this Narborn Berkley, Esq.

In this priory were the guilds of the Holy Rood, and of St. John Baptist.

Hugh de Cressi, lord, had a fair, a market, and a prison here, in the 41st of Henry III. which fair probably came after to the prior, who in the 14th of Edward I. claimed one, by a grant of King Henry I. and at this time, here is a considerable fair kept several days; beginning on St. Faith's day, October 6, where drovers out of Scotland, and the north of England, bring cattle, and for cheese, butter, &c.

Sir Henry Inglose wills in 1451, to be buried in the presbytery, by Ann his wife.

In 1528, Thomas Felmingham, Gent. of Hobbey's, wills to be buried in the priory church before the rood, where Jesus mass is kept every Friday.

In the 14th of Henry III. they had a grant for 2 parts of the advowson of Tybenham church, in the 31st of Henry III. for the advowson of Runham, and in the 34th for that of Haverlingland.<sup>3</sup>

Several learned Carmelite friars were born here: * John de Sancta Fide, who died 1539. William de Sancta Fide, 1372. Robert de Sancta Fide, 1386. Benedict de Sancta Fide, 1410, and Peter 1452.

In this town was also an hospital belonging to the knights of St. John of Jerusalem, and granted by them to this priory, as appears from the bull of Pope Alexander in 1163.

H O R S T E A D.

AT the survey this was the lordship of the Conqueror, and William de Noiers took care of it for that King, of which Stigand, the Bishop of Canterbury, (who held it as a lay fee,) was deprived; here were 4 carucates of land, 19 villains, 9 borderers, 8 servi, 5 carucates in demean, and 10 among the tenants, with 12 acres of meadow, &c. 3 mills, 1 runcus, and 2 cows, &c. 20 sheep and 30 goats, one skep of bees, and 18 socmen belonged to it, who held 3 carucates of land, which were delivered to Robert Blancard, and at the survey, belonged to the fee of Roger of Poictiers.<sup>5</sup>

This manor remained in the Crown till King William II. granted it to the nunnery of the Holy Trinity of Caen in Normandy, founded by his mother Maud, queen consort of King William I. and confirmed by King Henry I. but the socmen abovementioned, added to the fee of Roger of Poictiers belonged to this manor of Spikesworth.

Cecilia, the eldest daughter of the Conqueror, sister to King William II. and Henry I. was abbess of Caen.

In the 3d year of Edward I. the abbess of Caen, as lady of this manor, was found to have appropriated the bank of the river, from the house of Nicholas de Horstede, to the mill of the said abbess; and in the 15th of that King, she claimed free-warren, view of frank pledge, assise of bread, &c. a tumbrell, soc and sac, tol, infangthef, &c. and in 1428, the temporalities of this abbey were valued at 20*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.* ob. per ann.

This priory was dissolved in the 2d of Henry V. among other alien priories, and so came to the Crown, and Sir Thomas Erpingham having a grant of it for life, died possessed of it in the 6th of Henry VI. the said King in his 19th year, on his foundation of his college of St. Mary, and St. Nicholas (now called King's College) in Cambridge, gave it to that society, who are the present lords and patrons.

In this parish is a river that runs underground about a furlong, and over it the land is ploughed.

Here was also a little fee called Cattes: Henry Catte had a charter of free-warren in his demeans here, in Heveningham, and South Walsham, in the 10th of Edward II.

Sir Thomas Wyndham, conveyed by fine, a moiety of the manor of Cattes to Elizabeth Yaxley, in the 11th of Henry VIII.

Roger Townsend, son of Thomas Townsend of Testerton, Esq. had a lordship here, by Anne his wife, daughter of Edward Morison, of Lincolnshire, Esq. had Thomas, his son, who married Bridget, daughter of Sir Charles le Gross of Croxtick, who died s. p. 1652: Anne his second wife, was daughter of Nevill Cradock, Gent. of Kent.

This Thomas sold it to Thomas Ayde, Gent. father of John Ayde, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn, living in 1694, and had a grant of arms from Sir Edward Walker (garter) or, a fess counterembattled, between three lions heads, azure; and married Elizabeth, daughter of Nathan Knevit, Gent. in 1666, whose son was lord in 1729.

The tenths were 4*l.* 18*s.*

The CHURCH is a rectory dedicated to All-Saints, and was valued at 20 marks.

The abbess of Caen had a portion of tithe valued at 5 marks and a half.—Peter-pence 11*d.*; carvage 6*d.* ob. and the patronage was in that abbey: the present valor is 7*l.* 10*s.* and pays first-fruits, &c. the provost and fellows of King's college are patrons.

The prior of Westacre had a patent in the 15th of Edward II. for a message, 80 acres of land, 4 of meadow, 40 of heath, and 15s. rent, in Narford, purchased of John de Horstead.

RACKHEATH MAGNA.

THERE were formerly two distinct towns, one called Great Rackheath, the other Little Rackheath, and each village had its church.

The principal lordship was in the King at the survey, and Godric was steward of it and took care of it for him; 3 freemen were deprived of it, who held 3 carueates of land, with 3 villains, 12 borderers, and 4 servi; and there were 5 carucates and 7 acres of meadow, valued then at 20s. but at the survey at 60s. it was one leuca long, and 8 furlongs broad, paid 15*d* gelt, and 9 freemen in Beeston had 40 acres, and a carucate in the said value, belonging to this lordship, of which the King and the Earl had the soc.<sup>6</sup>

A family who took their name from the town seem to have had the chief part of the abovementioned fee in the 8th year of King Richard I. when Peter, son of Geffrey was lord.

Eudo de Racheia, Geffrey, and Simon his brothers, then conveyed to Peter, and his heirs, the advowson of the church of Racheia by fine; and in the fourth of King John, a fine was levied of lands here between Geff. son of Alice, petent, and William de Rakeia, tenant.

After this William de Rackheath and Ellen his wife had settled on them, by their trustees, 18 messuages, 186 acres of land, 2 of meadow, 4 of pasture, 2 of turbarry, 20 of heath, and 6*s.* 7*d.* ob. rent in this town, Wroxham, Plumstead, and Thorp.

In the 37th of Henry III. Robert de Bruys had a charter for free-warren here and in Runham.

In the year 1300, Simon Est, presented to the church of All-Saints in Rackheath Magna, who, as I take it, was lord, and held it of the honour of Clare, being granted to the Giffards, Earls of Bucks, soon after the survey; one of the same name held of Adam de Lyons, a lordship in Helmingham, of the said honour.

In 1315, Andrew de Yelvertou was lord, and in the 4th of Henry IV. Thomas But, citizen of Norwich, and Joan his wife, conveyed the manor of Blakenham-hall in this town, with 7*s.* rent, &c. by fine to John Yelvertou, Esq. who presented to the church of All-Saints, in Rackheath in 1396.

His son, Robert Yelvertou, Esq. lord of Rackheath, by his will in 1420, gives to Margery his wife, all the necessary utensils of his houses, beds, nappery, jewels, &c. all his lands, tenements, rents and services, late his father John's in Rackheath Magna and Parva,

Yelverton and Saxthorp, with the advowson of All-Saints church in Rackheath Magna for life, for her support and her children, and after her decease to Thomas her son, under age, and appoints her executor.

Margery, his widow, seems to have remarried William Clopton: in 1422, the said William and Margery presented to the church of All-Saints, as Thomas her son did in 1435.

This Thomas probably died s. p. and William Yelverton, Esq. presented in 1488, who seems to be the grandson of Sir William Yelverton the judge: See at large in Rougham in Launditch Hundred.

After this James Helme, Esq. was lord, about 1520, and presented to All-Saints church in 1532 in right of his wife Anne, which Anne (or Amy) by her will proved May 22, 1551, widow of James Helme, appoints her body to be buried in the chancel of Rackheath church by her husband, mentions William her son and heir deceased, and his son William, her son Nicholas who had the manor of Yelverton, and Ann his wife; her daughter -----, married to John Kemp, and appoints her sons Lancelot and Robert executors; she was sister and heir of William Yelverton, Esq. who died lord of this town in 1518.

William Helme, Esq. sold it about 1590, to Thomas Pettus, Esq. alderman and mayor of Norwich in that year, son of John Pettus, by Cecilia his wife, which John was son of Thomas Pettus, Gent.

In this family it remains, Sir Horace Pettus, Bart. being the present lord and patron; the arms of this family, gules, a fess between three annulets, or.

PETTUS'S PEDIGREE.

In the 6th of King John, Walter de Evermue, and his parceners, held lands to the value of 16*l.* here, &c. by serjeanty, and the payment of 2 measures of red wine, and 200 pearmain yearly into the exchequer, on the feast of St. Michael, and in the 53d of Henry III. Rohesia de Blakenham granted by fine to Robert de Martham a windmill in Rackheath Magna, with the whole suit of all her men, paying one mark per annu for ever, Robert agreeing that she and her heirs, and the whole family living in her court, and belonging to her, or her heirs, should have the first grinding thereat and toll free, as often as they sent any of their family to the mill, and if denied, they might distreyn Robert on his land in Rackheath Magna, and Martham.

In the 4th of Edward I. Benedict de Blakenham of Blakenham in following——Reg. Cooke, Norw. p. 45.

Suffolk, purchased by fine of Jeff. Fitz Peter and Joan his wife, 2 messuages and 40 acres of land, &c. with 20s. rent in Rackheath Magna and Parva.

John de St. Philibert, in the 10th of Edward II. was found to have a lordship here, and in the following year had a charter for free-warren here, in Eton, Hanney, Soleham, Hide, and Kerswell, in Berkshire;—Thomson, and Suthorp in Gloucestershire;—Westwell, and Adwell in Oxfordshire;—Leghes Parva in Essex;—Lackford, Cheleswort, and Fleuton in Suffolk.

He was son of Hugh de St. Philibert, lord of Bray in Berkshire, and of Beacham-Well in Norfolk, brother, as I take it, of Roger de St. Philibert, whose daughter and heir Beatrix married Stephen de Scallarijs, or de Scales, between whom and Hugh a fine was levied of the moiety of Beacham-Well manor, in the 13th of Henry III.

The said Roger and Hugh seem to be sons of Hugh de St. Philibert who was living in the 3d of King John, and Albreda his widow had her thirds assigned her in the 3d of Henry III.

Some make John de St. Philibert to be son of Hugh de Philibert, lord of Bray in the 3d of Edward I. son of Roger, who was living in the 47th of Henry III. and Roger to be son of Hugh, living in the 10th of the said King, and Hugh to be son of Nicholas, living in the 15th of King John.

About these times Pain de St. Philibert was also living, who with Ysolda his wife, granted to William de Pakeham, a messuage and tenement in the village of Thorp, with all the demean lands, advowson, homages, &c. of the freemen, and villains, to be held by them, by one pair of gloves of the value of 1d.—witnesses, Robert de Wyke, Adam de Gatesthorp, Thomas de Pakeham, Robert de Naketon, John de Weyland, Thomas, his brother, Richard de Boyland, &c. sans date.

John de St. Philibert abovementioned, lord of this town, held in the 16th of Edward II. the lands that were late Benedict de Blakenhan's, and Joan his wife, daughter and heir of William de Hasting; and in the said year paid relief 100s. for the manor of Thormeton and its members in Gloucestershire: he married Ada, by whom he had Thomas.

In the 3d of Edward III. Henry Parson of Soleham in Berkshire, as a trustee, settled on John and Ada, and Thomas their son, the said manor, with that of Le Hyde.

On the death of this John, in the 7th of Edward III. John was found to be his son and heir aged 6 years, and had livery of his inheritance in the 21st of that King; he married Margaret, daughter and coheir of Edmund de St. John, son of Hugh de St. John, lord of Basing, and being a knight, was summoned to parliament in the following year, as lord of Basing, and was major of Bourdeaux in France, and a partition was then made of the inheritance of the lord of St. John, between Sir John, who married Margaret the eldest sister, and Luke de Poynings, who married Isabel a younger sister of Edmund de St. John aforesaid, and Amicia, another sister.

Edmund dying seized of Basing, Sheruboru, Chaughton, and Warneford in Hampshire.

Sir John, in the 23d of the said King, conveyed by fine to John de Foxley, Richard de Battering, and John de Askham, the lordship of Rackheath, with the services of divers persons, said to be held in socage of Runham manor; about the same time he also conveyed to the King, his lordships of Bray and Kerswell, and the King in his 26th year, granted them to the college of Windsor.

In the 25th of that reign, Sir John sold to William de Edyngdon Bishop of Winchester, the manors of Westwell in Oxfordshire, with that of Thurmarton, and its advowson in Gloucestershire, for 200 marks, and his lordship of Chetesworth in Suffolk, to Sir Roger de Plays, and sealed with bendy of six, argent and sable: he died in the 33d of Edward III. without issue.

Sir Henry Inglos, by his will, dated the 29th of Henry VI. and proved July 4, 1451,<sup>9</sup> orders his manor in Rackheath to be sold, for the good of his soul.

After this it came to the family of Helmes, &c. William Helme was lord in the year 1570, and in the 18th of Elizabeth, in consideration of the council of his lawyer, (Edward Flowerdew, Esq.) granted him an annuity of 40s. per ann. out of his manors and lands in Salloes, Rackheath, Roxham, and Sprouston for life; this William sold it with the manor before mentioned, about 1590, to Thomas Pettus, Esq. who in the said year is said to be lord of Blakenham, and Burwood manors in Rackheath, Sprouston, Wroxham, &c. whose descendant, Sir Horace Pettus, Bart. is the present lord.

Ralph de Beaufoe had the grant of a small fee held by 3 freemen in the Confessor's time, when there belonged to it 20 acres, and 3 borderers, with a carucate.<sup>1</sup>

Ralph de Beaufoe had a daughter and heiress Agnes, who brought it to Hubert de Rie, castellan of Norwich castle; whose descendant, Hubert de Rie, baron of Rie, dying in the 18th of Henry II. left two daughters and coheirs, Oliva married to John Marshal, nephew to the Earl of Pembroke, and Isabel, the wife of Roger de Cressi, as may be seen at large in Swanton Morley.

This Roger was son of Hugh de Cressi, by Margaret his wife, daughter and coheir of William de Cheyney; Margaret had an interest here as appears from her grant of lands here, and in Wroxham, to the prioress of Carlow, by Norwich, in the reign of Henry II. which descended to her from her father, who was lord of Wroxham, which manor extended into this town.

William de Cheney is said to have a grant of this town from King Stephen, with the town of Hingham: Madox Formul. 154.

In the 3d of Henry III. a fine was levied at Ivelchester, (before Joceline Bishop of Bath, and Glastonbury, -----, Robert de Cardiman, John de Brius, Osbert Fitz Walter, and John de Bajocis, justices itinerant) between Walter de Cadomo and Mary his wife, petents, and Robert de Norfolk, her son, tenent, of one hide of land in Rechiche, wherein Robert acknowledges the said land to be the right of Mary, and the said Walter and Mary, grant it to Robert and his heirs, to be held of them, and the payment of one mark, viz. half a mark at St. Michaelmas and half at Easter, by the 20th part of a fee, and the said Robert and his heirs were to pay the same to Agatha, late wife of Gilbert de Norfolk for her life, and the said Robert quit claimed for himself and heirs, to Walter and Mary, all his right in the land of Kirkeby in Norfolk, which was his mother Mary's, daughter of Alexander Fitz Tebauld.

In the 18th of Edward I. John de Hecham had the King's license to give to the said priory, lands and tenements in this town, Bastwick, Crostweyt, &c. valued at 5 marks per ann. and held of the prioress by 18s. rent per ann.

The temporalities of this priory in this town were valued in 1428, at 41s. 3d.

The abbot of St. Bennet of Holm, had also an interest here, 30 acres and a carucate, of which a freeman was deprived at the Conquest, with 2 acres of meadow, which land was purchased by a certain monk, for half a mark of gold, of Alwi de Colechester, (who had the care of it,) so that he held it without the King's license, it was valued at 16d. per ann.<sup>2</sup>

The monk here mentioned, was a monk of St. Bennet, and it continued in that abbey.

RACKHEATH PARVA.

THE lordship of this village seems to have been in the Constables, lords of Melton.

Edith, daughter and coheir to her brother Geff. son of Peter le Constable, recovered the right of patronage of Rackey Parva church, in the 7th of Edward I. and the patronage remained in the family in 1407.

The tenths were 2l. 6s.—Deducted 8s.

THE CHURCH of Rackheath Magna, is a rectory dedicated to All-Saints, anciently valued at 7 marks, paid Peter-pence 10d.—Carvage 3d. ob. the present valor is 6l. 13s. 4d. and is discharged.

At the restoration he fled into Holland, where he was seised on, by Downing, the King's envoy, sent into England in 1661, and executed as a traitor: he is also said to be Chief Baron of the Exchequer.

ADAMS'S PEDIGREE.

The arms of Adams—ermine, three cats passant, azure.

From the family of Adams it was sold to Sir Lambert Blackwell, Bart. created baronet of Sprouston-Hall, July 16, 1718; who bore paly of six, argent and azure, in a bordure ermine, on a chief gules, a lion passant of the first, and remains in the family.

The Conqueror had also another lordship in this town, which William de Noiers took care of, as his steward, or bailiff; Stigand the Archbishop held it before the Conquest, in his own right, as a lay fee, and was ejected; it consisted then of 140 acres of land, and 3 carucates of meadow, &c. was one leuca long, and 8 furlongs broad, paid 15*d.* gelt, whoever possessed it, and was valued in the manor of Thorp, by Norwich, of which Stigand was also lord before the Conquest.<sup>9</sup>

This lordship seems to have been held by parceners in ages past.

Roger de Sprouston was lord by deed sans date, about the reign of Henry III. as appears by ancient record sans date, wherein it is specified that his villans were to mow and shear his lands, each villan 2 days; to be kept at that time by the lord, and to have for their dinner one loaf of barley, each of them; eleven of which loaves made a

In the 16th of Edward I. Adam de Creting was impleaded by Isolda de Mountenev, on account of the presentation to the church of Plumsted Parva; her plea was, “ Ernald de Mountenev, lord of Sprouston (to which lordship the patronage of the said church belonged) had enfeoffed her in the same.

Adam pleads that he held the lordship of Sprouston, to which the patronage belonged, and it was allowed to be his right.

Reginald de Sprouston was lord, and presented to the church in 1300, and 1307, and Hugh de Sprouston in 1335.

William de Wychingham and Robert de Yelverton had an interest herein, in the 35th of Edward III. they gave the patronage of this church to the priory of Norwich.

In the 14th of Richard II. Roger Crispin of Sprouston and Mary his wife, surrendered by fine this lordship, called late Sir Hugh Sprouston's, to John Aslake of Bromholm from the heirs of Mary, probably a daughter of Sprouston; and in the 14th of Edward IV. Thomas Aslake and Elizabeth his wife passed it by fine to Walter Aslake, quit of the heirs of Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Thomas Bardolf, as is said.

Walter Aslake, Esq. of Sprouston had a protection in the 10th of Henry VI. being in France in the retinue of John, Duke of Bedford.

After this it was in the Calthorps, and Sir Henry Parker and the lady Elizabeth his wife, daughter and heir of Sir Philip Calthorp, who died in the year 1535, inherited this manor of Aslake's.

Sir Philip Parker had livery of it about the 20th of Elizabeth, with the advowson of the church, and sold it to Sir Miles Corbet, who was lord in the 34th of Elizabeth, and so was united to the other manor before mentioned.

There was a small fee in this village, and that of Beeston, at the survey, held by Robert Malet, lord of Horseford, out of which 2 freemen in Beeston, and 3 in Sprouston were ejected, who had 64 acres of land, and one borderer, and a carucate and an acre of meadow, valued at 6*s.*; the King, and the Earl had the soc.<sup>1</sup>

This always went along with the manor of Horseford.

The tenths were 6*l.*—Deduct 1*l.* 10*s.*

The Church is dedicated to St. Margaret, and was a rectory, valued at 16 marks; the prior of Norwich had a portion of tithe valued at one mark, and after it was appropriated to the said priory, and is now in the dean and chapter of Norwich, and served by a stipendiary curate, at their nomination.

Thomas de Blunvyle Bishop of Norwich confirmed to the monks of Norwich, the grant of John de Grey Bishop, of 2 parts of the tithe of Sprouston and Catton, of 2 garbs of the demean lands of Arnold de Mounteney, for the use of the almoner; and the rectors of those churches had the 3*d* garb, also of 3 acres of land of Hugh de Sprouston.<sup>2</sup>

In 1335, Hugh de Sprouston was patron, and presented.

In 1361, William de Wychingham, and Robert de Yelverton, probably as trustees, granted the advowson to the priory of Norwich, and Thomas Percy, the Bishop, appropriated it November 12, in the said year.

The King granted his license before, on May 8, for which the prior and convent had paid 40 marks, and it was to find 2 monks of that convent, (capellanes) to study in any university, to perform divine service daily for ever, for the souls of Hugh de Sprouston and Margery his wife, and Reginald and Tifania, his father and mother, and Thomas de Baldeswell, and the souls of all the faithful.

1373, Richard de Carlton, by the prior: it was again appropriated April 15, 1385, by Henry Spencer, Bishop of Norwich; a pension of 10*s.* per ann. being reserved to the Bishop.

In the chancel of the church is a mural monument of alabaster, with the pourtraitures of Sir Miles Corbet, his 2 wives, and children on their knees,

Here lieth the bodies of Sir Miles Corbet, and of Catherine his first wife, one of the daughters of Sir Christopher Heydon of Baconsthorp Kt. who had by her 8 sons and 3 daughters, also he took to his second wife Dame Catherine, one of the daughters of Nicholas Sanders of Ewell, Esq. and had by her one daughter, which Sir Miles deceased 19, day of June, in 1607.

STANINGHALL.

AT the survey the Conqueror held this lordship, and William de Noiers was his steward, or bailiff, of which a freeman of Archbishop Stigand was deprived, one carucate of land, 4 villains, and 4 borderers, with 2 carucates, 2 mills, &c.; it belonged to Horsted manor, and was valued in Mileham, and Horsted, was one leuca long, and one broad, and paid 15 l. gelt.<sup>3</sup>

Soon after this survey, this lordship was granted (probably by King William II. or King Henry I.) to the abbey of the Holy Trinity of Caen, for nuns, founded by Queen Maud, wife to the Conqueror. In the year 1249, it was in the said abbey.

In the 52d of King Henry III. Lucia, lady abbess, granted by fine, to Roger the prior of Beoston in Norfolk, the advowson of this church, though no mention is made of this abbess, or this lordship in Neustria Pia.

In the 3d of Edward III. the abbess was found to have free-warren, &c. here, and in 1428, their temporalities were valued at 57*s.* 11*d.* ob. per ann.

At what time the abbey was deprived of it, does not appear; probably it was at the time when the other alien priories, &c. lost their tenures in the reign of Henry VI.

In the year 1534, Thomas Storme of Staninghall, son of Thomas Storme, sometime of Norwich, wills to be buried in the church of Fretenham,<sup>4</sup> and gives to Alice his wife, this lordship, with the advowson of the church for life, and after her death to be sold, and in the 31st of Henry VIII. a fine was levied, wherein John Crosse and Alice his wife (the late wife as I take it of Storme) convey it to Robert Ny-cholson, with messuages and lands in this town, Horsted, Fretenham, &c. after this it was in the family of Waldgrave, and Charles Wald- grave, Esq. was lord in the reign of King James the First, as a full account of this family may be found in the peerage of England, I shall begin with the grandfather of this gentleman, and make some few observations relating to it, that I have met with in ancient records.

WALDGRAVE'S PEDIGREE.

(a) John Waldgrave, Esq. son and heir of Edward Waldgrave, Esq. of the Friers in Sudbury, by Mabel his wife, daughter and heir of John Cheyney, Esq. of Pynto in Devonshire, which Edward was second son of Sir Thomas Waldgrave of Buers in Suffolk, (and there buried in 1500) by Elizabeth his wife, daughter and heir of Sir John Frey, lord chief baron of the Exchequer. John was buried in the church of Allhallows at Sudbury, dying October 6, 1543, and on his grave-stone, were the arms of Waldgrave, per pale, argent and gules, and those of Rochester, or, a fess between three crescents sable.

(b) Sir Edward Waldgrave, was of Boreley in Essex, privy counsellor to Queen Mary, chancellor of the dutchy of Lancaster, and master of the great wardrobe; he died in the Tower of London, September --, 1560; and was there buried.

(c) Sir Edward Waldgrave created Bart. August 1, 1641, of Hever castle in Kent.

(d) Sir Henry is said by some to have sold Staninghall, others say that Richard Waldgrave his son, by his second wife, sold it; from this Sir Henry is descended the Right Honourable Earl Waldgrave, now living.

This family is by historians asserted to have been originally of the county of Norfolk, and to have assumed their name from a town called Waldgrave, in the said county, but this is a great mistake, there being no town of that name therein.

It appears much more probable, that they descended from the Waldgraves of Waldgrave in Northamptonshire.

John de Waldgrave was lord of Waldgrave, and claimed free-warren there in the 3d of Edward III. was knight of that shire in parliament.

Thomas Bedingfeld, Esq. lord of Bedingfeld in Suffolk, ancestor to the Bedingfelds of Oxburgh in Norfolk, married Anne, daughter and heir of John Waldgrave, Esq. of Waldgrave aforesaid, and was there buried October 12, 1543, Anne his widow was buried in the following year at Bedingfeld.

A branch most likely of this family removed into Suffolk.

Sir Richard Waldgrave and Joan his wife were buried in the church of Bures in Suffolk, he died May 2, 1400, she in 1406.

Sir Richard Waldgrave granted in the 7th of Henry IV. to Sir Thomas Rempston, and Sir Roger Leek, &c. the manor and advowson of Polsted, and the manor of Newland hall in Suffolk.

In the 8th of Henry V. Sir Richard Waldgrave granted to Sir William Bardwell, Sir John Hevenyngham, &c. his manors of Smalburgh, and Bures, Gayneshall in Wykham Brook, Newhall Ovesdon in Suffolk, and to Nicholas Blundel, the manor of Edwardston in Suffolk, and that of Withermundeford in Essex, and in the following year, Sir Richard Waldgrave, jun. released to Sir Richard Waldgrave, sen. and Joan, the wife of Sir Richard, sen. all his right in Gayneshall for the life of Joan.

About this time Joan the daughter and heir of Sir Thomas Monchensy brought a great estate into this family by her marriage with Sir Richard Waldgrave, sen. as I take it.

Sir Richard Waldgrave died in 1434, on May 2, and Joan his wife daughter of Sir Thomas Monchensy on the feast of St. Dennis, October 9, 1450, and were buried in the church of Bures.

On April 20, in the 13th of Henry VI. Sir Richard, on the death of his father, performed homage, and in the 16th of that King; Sir Richard Waldgrave and Joan his wife, settled on their trustees, John Dorward, William Darell, William Clopton, Robert Cavendish, John Harleston, John Fenour, Esq. William Keterick, &c. the manors of Waldgrave, and Tweywell in Northamptonshire.

The Waldgraves, as I have above observed, sold this lordship; and Sir Charles Harbord, Knt. was lord in the reign of King Charles II.

John Harbord. Esq. presented in 1700, and Sir William Morden Harbord, Bart. is the present lord.

T A V E R H A M.

RALPH DE BEAUFOE, had the grant of a lordship in this town, held by Off, in the reign of the Confessor; containing a carucate of land, with 4 villains, 3 borderers, one carucate in demean, one among the tenants, and 10 acres of meadow, &c. the fourth part of a mill, and 5 socmen had a carucate and 13 acres of the demean land, 2 runci, one cow, &c. and 60 sheep, valued at 20s. then, at the survey at 30s. with the fourth part of a church endowed with 15 acres, valued at 16d.<sup>5</sup>

This lordship was possessed by the family of De Drayton, lords of Drayton, in this hundred, after by that of De Bellamonte, who conveyed it to Walter Langton, Bishop of Litchfield, &c. From the Peverells, his heirs, it came to the De la Poles, &c.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John Gurney, held 2 fees here and in Drayton, sometime John Springs, of the Lord Morley, as part of the barony of Rye, as may be seen at large in Drayton; and came with Drayton manor, on the death of Charles Brandon Duke of Suffolk, by a grant of King Edward IV. to the see of Norwich, and so continues; the presentation, to a portion of this church always went with this lordship: See Drayton.

William Earl Warren had a lordship, of which Toca a freeman was deprived: there belonged to it a carucate of land, 6 villains, 6 borderers, with one servus, one carucate in dmean, one carucate and an half among the tenants, with 10 acres of meadow, &c. and the 4th part of a mill, and the 4th part of a church, with 3 acres, 2 runci, 4 cows, &c. 40 sheep, valued then at 30s. at the survey at 40s. this belonged to the fee of Fretheric, it was one leuca and an half long, and one leuca broad, and paid 16½d. to the King's gelt, whoever had it.<sup>6</sup>

A family who assumed their name from this town, was early enfeoffed thereof by the Earl Warren: Nicholas de Taverham was lord in the reign of King John, and in the 4th of Henry III. and Simon de Taverham, in the 20th of that King, held half a fee of the Earl Warren.

Baldwin de Taverham was living about the same time. Symon de Taverham had a charter for freewarren in the 20th of Edward I.

Simon Doo, parson of Rackhith All-Saints, released to William, son of Thomas Gerberge all his right in the manor, and advowson of the church of Taverham, and William, son of Sir Thomas Gerberge, confirmed in the 5th of Edward II. to Baldric, son of Simon de Taverham the said manor and advowson, for 100*l.* sterling, with all the rents, services, &c. and further grants that all the lands and tenements, which Joan, late wife of Peter de Taverham, and Royisia, late wife of Symon de Taverham held in dower of the said manor, to the said Baldric; witnesses, Alexander de Clavering, Bartholomew de Somerton, knights, &c.

Bartholomew, son of John de Tunstede, granted to Baldric and Elizabeth his wife, in the 21st of Edward III. all his lands, tenements, rents and services in this town, Attlebrig, Felthorp, Weston, and Marham.

Baldric de Taverham had two wives, Elizabeth was his widow in the 30th of that King; his first wife was Elleanor, by whom he had Nicholas de Taverham, who married Christiana, and was father of Baldric, and of Sim. de Taverham; this Baldric, kept as his wife, Margaret, daughter of John Whythfoot, of Taverham, she being the wife of Robert de Bumpstede (then living), and had by her a son, called William Whythfoot, who marrying Isabel Maut, had a son called William Taverham.<sup>7</sup> Baldric's seal was argent, a saltire, sable, surmounted by a fess, gules, thereon, three bezants.

The said Baldric after married Margery, by whom he had Edmund de Taverham father of Baldric, by Alice his wife, and Baldric by Agnes his wife, was father of Alice, who married Edmund Winter, Esq. and had a daughter Margery, married to John Brannche, Esq. Besides this daughter Alice, Baldric had by Agnes his wife, a son, William de Taverham, father by Isabel his wife of Henry de Taverham, who died s.p. and a daughter Alice, married to Walter Nyche, merchant of Norwich.

The aforesaid Baldric, after the death of Margery took to wife, Elizabeth, on whom he entailed this lordship for life, then to Edmund his son, by Margery, on payment of an 100 marks to his executors in order to pay his debts, and on default, on Baldric, son of Nicholas; by Elizabeth his last wife, he had a son, John de Taverham, which Elizabeth was his widow, he dying in the 30th of Edward III.

In the 3d of Henry IV. John de Taverham, a minor, held half a fee of the Dutchy of Lancaster, and in 1404, William Taverham, Esq. presented to the church.

Afterwards it was in Sir John Falstolf, and so came to the De la Poles, (as in Hayberden,) and to the see of Norwich.

William, Bishop of Thetford, held in his own right, as a lay fee, a manor of which a free-woman was deprived; containing half a carucate of land, 3 villains, 2 borderers, one carucate in demean, half a carucate among the tenants, and 5 acres of meadow, pannage for 2 swine, and 3 soemen had 12 acres of land, &c. then valued at 12s. at the survey at 20s.<sup>8</sup>

William Beaufoe, Bishop of Thetford, who held this was a great benefactor to his see, and gave to it many lordships, as this most likely among them; though I do not find this particularly named.

In the 20th of Henry III. Adam de Tunstal held a quarter of a fee in this town of Robert de Caston, and he of the Bishop of Norwich in capite; and in the 20th of Edward III. the heirs of Adam Tunstall.

In the 3d of Henry IV. Isabel Moute held it, as part of the barony of the see of Norwich.

The prior and convent of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, founded by Bishop Herbert, had a considerable lordship here, the church of St. Michael in Norwich near the cathedral, on what is now called the tomb land, had (as the survey informs us) in King Edward the Confessor's time, a carucate of land, and Stigand, the Bishop of the diocese, held it in right of that church, when there were 4 villains and 2 borderers belonging to it, one carucate in demean, and one among the tenants, 4 socmen had 13 acres of land, and there were 8 acres of meadow: on the deprivation of Stigand, it was granted to William de Beaufoe, and he held it as a lay fee when the survey was made; but as this had been given to the church of St. Michael, by the Earls of the East Angles, it was soon after the survey, re-assumed, and being in the Crown, was at the request of Roger Bigot a great Norman baron, (who possessed great part of the lands of the late Earls of Norfolk) granted by King William II. to the church of the Holy Trinity of Norwich, by this charter or deed.

“Willus Rex Anglor. Herberto, Norwicensi, episcopo et omnibus Baronib; suis de Norfolc et Studfolc. saltm.—Sciatis me dedisse sce Trin. Norwic. ecclie rogatu Rogerj Bigot terram Michaelis de Utmonasterio, et terram de Taverham que ad eande terram p. tinet, quietam semper et libam ab omnibus scotis et Geldis et omnibus alijs consuetudinibus. Teste Eudone Dapifero apud Westm. &c.”

By this it appears that Herbert had then built the church of the Holy Trinity, the mother church of the diocese of Norwich, and it seems also that he had then erected a monastery there, (or priory,) the church of St. Michael being styled, without the monastery, and that this grant was to annex this land to the see; so that Herbert soon after settled it on the prior, or monastery founded by him.

By a grant of King Henry I. it was confirmed to the monks:

Henricus Rex. Anglor. R. filio Walteri et minist. suis de Norfulc. et Suff precipio quod monachi de Norw. teneant terram suam de Taverham ita bene, &c. Test. R. Boss.º

Historians relate that this church of St. Michael takes its name, from the tombs, as a remarkable place of burial, but this is a mistake.

Richard Duke of Normandy, who died in 996, erected an abbey in Monte qui dicitur Tumba; out of veneration to St. Michael. Many churches were dedicated to St. Michael in Monte Tumba, a place so called where it is said he appeared, and performed a miracle.<sup>1</sup>

This lordship extended also into Attlebrig, where the priory had considerable possessions, as may be there seen.

Emma, daughter of Edwina Bardolf, granted to William de Kirkeby, prior of Norwich, 4 acres and an half of land in Taverham.

Alan, son of Petronilla de Taverham, gave to the priory, lands; John, son of Nicholas Bardolf was a benefactor in the 9th of Edward I. as was Agnes Bardolf and Sir John de Estou, gave lands here in the said reign: so that the prior in the 15th of that King claimed free-warren, a gallows, the assise, &c. and complaint was made that he had erected a pool in the water between Ringland Hill and North Croft, and appropriated it, as a several.

In 1428, the temporalities of the priory were 6*l.* 13*s.* 10*d.* ob. and the cellarer accounted for 8*l.* 11*s.* 11*d.* received out of this manor, and for 3*s.* paid that year to the manor of Hetherset; 13*s.* 4*d.* to St. Paul's hospital, and 3*s.* 6*d.* to the prior of St. Leonard's, as rents resolute.

On the dissolution of the priory, it came to the Crown, and King Henry VIII. in 1538, on the foundation of a dean, and prebendaries, &c. granted this lordship to them, as it now continues: in the 6th year of Elizabeth, it was granted by lease, with the lete for 99 years to Henry Riches, Esq. of Swanington, who assigned it to August. Sotherton.

An excellent and curious survey of this lordship, taken in the 8th of Edward I. was in the year 1714, in the hands of Edmund Rippingale, Gent. attorney at law of Norwich, or of Edmund Thynelthorp, Gent. of the said city.

To this priory manor the presentation of one moiety of the church, belongs, and their lessee presents, Henry Riches, Esq. presented, and the Sothertons now, by that right.

Thomas Sotherton, Esq. living here in 1765.

In Taverham, Herold had a lordship in King Edward's reign, which he held at the Conquest, and on his death, the Conqueror seized on it; it consisted of a carucate, 2 acres and an half of land, 2 villains, 4 borderers, one carucate in demean, and half a carucate of the tenants, with 10 acres of meadow, &c. one mill, and the moiety of another, &c. it was a beruite to Causton, and valued with it.

In King Edward's reign 13 socmen belonged to it, with 2 carucates, and 21 acres of land, and Walter Giffard had them.<sup>2</sup>

Sir John de Estron, had a lordship in this town in the 53d of Henry III. held as I take it, of Walter Giffard, Earl of Buckingham, and it came by the heiress of Estron, to Thomas de Brockdish, who gave name to it: of this see in Atlebrigg.

Earl Giffard's interest in this lordship came to the Earls of Clare: the family of De Taverham, had also an interest herein.

Edmund Earl of March, as heir to the Earls of Clare, had a right herein in the 2d of Henry VI. and before this Elizabeth, Lady Say, wife of Sir William Heron, had an interest here.

The priory of Monntjoy in Haverland had lauds here in 1428, valued at 11s. held of the honour of Clare.

Alan Earl of Richmond had also a lordship here, on the deprivation of Turbert, a freeman, who possessed in Edward's reign, a carucate of land held by 4 villains, and 3 borderers, one carucate in demean, and half a carucate among the tenants, with 5 acres of meadow, &c. valued at 20s.<sup>3</sup>

Haimer held it under Earl Alan at the survey, and it was valued in Felthorp: See there.

The tenths were 33s. 4d.

The CHURCH was dedicated to St. Edmund, and had 2 medieties, one mediety was in the prior of Norwich, the other mediety belonged to

Simon Bishop of Norwich, in 1265, confirmed to the monks of Castleacre in Taverham, and Drayton, 2 parts of the corn tithes of the whole demean of William, son of Baldrick de Taverham, which his ancestors had given to them.*

* Regist. Castleac. fol. 101.

† In the 6th of Edward II. this Edmund attended the King into France.

In 1450, Peter de Sancta Fide, a carmelite of Norwich, had license from Pope Nicholas V. to receive any ecclesiastical benefice, and was presented by Sir Inglos, William Jenny, Gent. and Thomas Howys, feoffees of Drayton manor, late Sir John Falstoff's.

1722, Mr. John Jeffreys by the Bishop, died rector of this church and of Drayton, 1755.

The other moiety of the church was in the priory of the Holy Trinity of Norwich.

Iugulfus, the first prior, gave in 1119, the moiety of the tithes of Taverham (belonging, as I take it, to the convent's manor) to the hospital of Normans Spittle in Norwich, with the consent of his monks, and a pension of 13s. 4d. was afterwards paid to that hospital for them.

The old church and chancel were destroyed by lightning in September 1459.

In 1499, I find the chapel of St. Mary of Taverham mentioned, and there was the guild of our Lady.

Sir August. Sothertou was buried here, and his lady.

In the church were the arms of Braunch, argent, a lion rampant, gules, bruised with a bendlet, sable;—argent, a saltier, sable, thereon, a fess, gules, charged with three bezants, born by William Taverham, Esq. lord and patron;—Winter, impaling Taverham;—Braunch, impaling Winter;—Braunch impaling Calthorp.

Braunch had anciently a manor here.

Queen Elizabeth, on March 26, in her 27th year, granted to George Petre certain tithes here, &c. belonging to the late priory of Horsham St. Faith's.

The town takes its name from Tav, or Tavy, the British name of a river, and is a hamlet by the Tav.

W R O X H A M.

THE principal lordship in this town was at the survey, in the hands of Ralph de Beaufoe.

Stigand Archbishop of Canterbury held it in the time of the Confessor, in his own right, as a temporal fee, but was deprived at the conquest. Stigand had 2 carucates of land, with 9 villains, 5 borderers, and 2 carucates in demean; one carucate and an half among the tenants, 20 acres of meadow, 4 cows, and 20 swine, &c. 100 sheep,<sup>o</sup>

Thirteen socmen held 40 acres of land, and 2 acres, and 2 carucates of meadow.

The King and the Earl had the soc, and 7 freemen possessed 210 acres, and 3 carucates and an half of meadow, &c.; the lordship was valued then at 3*l.* at the survey at 4*l.* and what the freemen held at 38*s.*

In the same town, 3 freemen of Harold had a carucate and 50 acres, and there were 2 villains and 6 borderers, with 3 carucates of meadow; also 3 freemen had a carucate and 20 acres, here were two churches endowed with 32 acres of land valued at 3*s.* It was one leuca and an half long, and one broad, and paid 30*d.* gelt.

In Domesday Book, it is wrote Uroccham, and Urocbesham, U, or UU, are often met with, as initial letters to many towns; thus UU, or Wydetuna, (Wooton,) Ultretuna, (Wolterton,) &c. always signifying water. Ro, is also found often in the first, and second syllable, as Rochford, Rock, or Rocheland, Rockley, &c. and signifies the name of some rivulet, or stream of water.

Ralph de Beaufoe left a daughter and heir Agnes, who married Hubert de Rie, castellan of Norwich, and being a widow, granted the tithes of her manor of Wrokesham, to the prior of Norwich.

William de Cheyney was lord in the reign of King Stephen, who by his deed sans date, granted to Reginald de Wroxham, all the land and liberties that his father Reginald held here, with all its profits and appertenances, except 10 husbandj,<sup>7</sup> with all their tenements, to have and to hold of him, and his heirs, in fee and inheritance, paying 3*s.* per ann. at St. Michael, for all services, customs, &c.—witnesses, Hervey Fitz Peter, Miles de Riveshale, Arnold Fitz Peter, Jeff. de Binetre, Gilbert de Roxham, Roger de Racheth, &c. to this deed was a large round seal, of him on horseback, armed, cap-a-peè, his sword drawn, in his right hand, legend—

Sigillum Willmij de Kyneto.

This William was son of Robert Fitz Walter, by Sibilla his wife, daughter and heiress of Ralph de Cheyney, and assumed the name of Cheyney, and with his wife founded the priory of Horsham St. Faith's, as may be there seen at large, and in Horsford: by Gilla his wife, he left 3 daughters and coheirs, Margaret, the eldest, married Hugh de Cressi, Roger de Cressi her son, in the first of King John, married Isabel, youngest daughter and coheir of Hubert de Rye, and had with her a moiety of the barony of Rhy.

Margaret aforesaid gave her lordship here, with the advowson of the church to the priory, and nuns of Carhou, by Norwich; and Jordan de Sackvile, who married Clementia her sister, released in the 2d of Henry III. to the said Margaret, all their right in the inheritance of the family of De Cheyney, in this town, by fine.

In the 6th of Henry III. the prioress of Carhou, granted to Alex- ander de Wroxham, lands to be held of her; and in the 21st of that King, Hugh, son of Maybil, gave 20s. to hold a moiety of his father's lands and messuage, and to have liberty to marry when he pleased, but to be still the prioress's man; the prioress held a court, and letc in the 24th of the said reign at Dunchill, whom the lady Agnes de Munchensy, was prioress, and the lady of Sir John Helington, and the lady of Jeff. de Lodnes, and other free tenants were present, and renewed their pledges, before the whole soke, as the court-rolls testify.

In the 15th of Edward I. the prioress claimed free-warren, assise, a tumbrell, &c. and the jury find that she had appropriated the common river belonging to the King, from Roxham bridge, to a place called Wyndene.

John de Hechan had license to alien in the 18th of that King lands and tenements here, &c. valued at 5 marks per ann. to the prioress; about this time I find mills here, in one year, valued at 7*l.* 17s. in another at 6*l.* 3s. 2*d.* and in the 35th of the said reign, Nicholas, son of Thomas de Kirkby, aliened to the nuns, a messuage, with 23 acres, and 4 of marsh in this town.

In the 3d of Henry IV. the prioress was found to hold one fee here of the barony of Rye, and in 1428, the temporalities of the prioress were valued at 20*l.* 11s. 6*d.* ob.

At the general Dissolution it came to the Crown, and King Henry VIII. granted this lordship, with that of Sallozes, lands and tenements, on May 9, in his 29th year, to Thomas Howard Duke of Norfolk, on whose attainder it came to the Crown, and King James I. on June 17, in his first year, gave it to Henry Howard, Earl of Northampton, who conveyed it in the following year to Sir Miles Corbet of Sprouston, the said Earl having surrendered it into the King's hands for that purpose, and Sir Miles, on July 13, in the 3d of the said King, had a grant of this manor, with all the rents of assise of free and customary tenants, valued at 18*l.* 16s. per ann. with lands, tenements, meadows, fishery in the river from Wroxham bridge to Hockman's-Acre-fold course, and the free farm rent of 34*l.* 16s. per ann. with the rectory and patronage of the vicarage.

In the family of Corbet it continued till on the death of Sir Thomas Corbet, Bart. it came to his sister and coheir, Elizabeth, the wife of Robert Houghton, Esq. who about 1690, sold it to John Woodhouse.

The Harbords presented as lords to the vicarage in 1731. Harbord Harbord, Esq. in 1736.

The Conqueror had in this village a manor, which Godric took care of as his steward, when the survey was made, two freemen held it of Edric, lord of Sprouston, in the time of King Edward, and were deprived, 60 acres of land belonged to it, 2 borderers, and 2 carucates, and was valued in Eaton by Norwich,<sup>3</sup> which was also the lordship of Edric, called in the survey under that town, Edric de Laxfield.

The lord Ralph Mallet seems to have had a grant of it from the Crown, soon after the survey it is certain that the descendants of Walter de Cadomo, whom that lord had enfeoffed of the lordship of

Horsford possessed it, as did his son, William de Cheyney, who was lord in the time of King Stephen, whose daughter and coheir, Margaret, brought it to Hugh de Cressi, which Margaret, gave it to the priory of Carhow, with the manor above-mentioned, and so continued, till on its dissolution it was given to the Duke of Norfolk, and so was united to, and passed with the lordship aforesaid.

Ralph Stalra, of the abbot, &c. of St. Bennet, held 4 socmen here, with a carucate of land, and these socmen lived in Hoveton, also a carucate and 8 acres of meadow, valued at 6s. which the said Ralph gave to the abbey of St. Bennet of Holm, in the time of William the Conqueror.<sup>9</sup>

In the 25th of Henry III. there was an agreement between the abbot, and the prioress of Carhow, whereby the abbot quit-claimed to her all his right of fishing, from Wroxham bridge, to the head of Wroxham park, and the prioress of all her right to the abbot in the water that runs between Wroxham bridge, and the house of St. Bennet's, saving to the nuns, their right in a pool,<sup>1</sup> called Flegg Dam, and to each party free passage over Wroxham bridge, and through the water, both above and below, so that neither party should put nets, into any part of the other, for which the abbot agreed to pay yearly, as had been accustomed, 1000 herrings in Lent, and a fine was levied accordingly.

In the 10th of Edward II. the King impleaded the abbot, who was found to have encroached on the bank and water that extended from Wroxham bridge, to Black Dam, which the King claimed as an arm of the sea, where ships and boats arrived, loaded and unloaded without toll, or any custom, and it was found before this, in the iter of Solomon de Rochester, &c. that the abbot had encroached and planted trees on the bank of the river, making it a several fishery, that was common before.

The temporalities of the abbot in 1428, were 25s. 4d.

On the exchange of the lands of this abbey, made between the King (Henry VIII.) and the Bishop of Norwich, no doubt this came to the see, though I have met with no mention of the manor of Wroxham, but is included in what is called Winds Messuage, &c. in the time of Bishop Rugg, John Corbet, Esq. paid for the rent of a messuage, called Winds, 100 acres of land in Salthous (Sallow's rather) demean lands of Bacons 38s. 11d. ob. the farm of the site of the manor, &c. 10l. perquisites of court 14s. 6d. rent resolute to the bailiff of the Bishop's manor of Bacon's in Ludham 5s. 11d. to that of Heigham Potter 4s.—to the Lord Abergavenny's manor of Sutton, for the tent of a foldage 3s. 4d.

The manor of Mounteneys in Sprouston extended into this town, and in the 33d of Edward I. Nich. Rydel settled by fine on William his son 24 messuages, 2 mills, 200 acres of land, 12 of meadow, and 48s. rent here, and in Racheath, Bastwick, &c. and William Rydel was returned to have a lordship in the 9th of Edward II.

The tenths were 4l. 6s. 8d.—Deducted 10s.

The CHURCH of Wroxham is dedicated to St. Mary, and was a rectory valued at 16 marks; the cellarer of the priory of Norwich had a portion of tithe, valued at 13s. 4d.—Peter-pence 2s. 8d.—Carriage 7d.

This rectory being granted with the lordship to the priory of Carhow, was appropriated thereto, by John de Grey, Bishop of Norwich, who also appropriated to the monks of Norwich, the aforesaid portion, which was confirmed by Bishop Blomville; <sup>2</sup> on this a vicarage was founded, anciently valued at 24s. the presentation of which was in the prioress, &c. and the vicar had an augmentation, or portion of 34s.

The present valor of the vicarage is 7*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.* and is discharged.

S A L L O W.

THE manors mentioned in Wroxham extended into Sallows, it being an hamlet of that town, and was valued, and accounted under those lordships.

The temporalities of the prioress of Carhow in 1428, were here valued at 14s. 7d.

In the 36th of Henry VI. John Redell was found to hold the manor of Redel in Salthouse.

By an inquisition taken at the castle of Norwich, October 11, in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, it was found that Thomas Reddell, Gent. son of Thomas, died September 20, in the 34th of Henry VIII. and left by Constantia his wife, John his son and heir, aged 9 years, seized of Sallows manor in Wroxham, and tenements held of Thomas Duke of Norfolk, in soccage of his manor of Wroxham, and paying 40s. and 1d. rent per ann. and suit of court.

John Reddell conveyed it by fine to Nicholas Sotherton in the 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary.

There was formerly a chapel in this hamlet, to which the vicar of Wroxham is also instituted, with his vicarage, there seems, to have been one at the time of the Conqueror's survey, wherein it is said that there were 2 churches, as may be seen in the account of Beaufoe's manor in Wroxham; it was dedicated to All-Saints; the churchyard belonging to it is mentioned in 1465, and in 1523.<sup>1</sup>

Robert Elliot, vicar of Wroxham, gives to the repair of this chapel 13s. 4d.
